Havelock Residence Damaged in Storm

HAVELOCK, July 17 (Examiner Correspondence.)—The electric storm which passed over this place on Sunday evening was the most severe yet this season. A bolt struck the electric meter in the house of Mr. and Mrs. James Draper, Concession street, tearing the top off and making a hole in the roof. No other damage has been reported.

Steel railway ties are replacing wooden ones in the Bolivian plateau.

The Low Cost of Health

Some people spend a lot of money for Health and don't get it. No matter how much you spend for it, health will not come with wrong food habits. A bowl of Shredded Wheat and milk for breakfast every morning will go a long way toward repairing the damage done by foolish food habits. A simple, nourishing food that contains every element the body needs—and so easily digested.

Terrible Itching of ECZEMA

Almost Drove Her Mad

Poor girl—if she only knew how one application of Peterson's Ointment immediately stops tantalizing itching and soreness—how the powerfully healing and soothing ingredients start right in to clear that repulsive, red, cracked, discharging skin!

So no matter how long you've been troubled with Eczema—a few days from now you'll be overjoyed with your enchantingly smooth, beautifully fresh, free from Eczema skin. A 50c box proves it—all drugstores.

H. A. Danick writes: "For 6 months I was so bothered with Eczema that I could tear my skin to pieces. I tried so many lotions but could get no relief until I saw your ad one night. I got a box of Peterson's Ointment and it was just like woman said in paper. In one night my Eczema almost disappeared. I'm never troubled any more."

Spinning All Day Tiresome to Gandhi

AHMEDABAD, India, July 16—(CP)—Mahatma Gandi, who has been interned at Yeroda jail during the present civil disobedience campaign in India, is keeping well but tires from constant application to his spinning wheel.

In a letter, the Mahatma says, "I am keeping well, but find that doing 375 rounds on the charkha (spinning wheel) or about 500 yards of yarn a day is something of of a strain, nawadays I am trying to probe the cause".

With the view of easing the strain, a light spinning wheel is being sent him.

OBITUARY

MRS. FRANK OSBORNE

MARMORA, July 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Under auspices of Harmony L.O.B.A. 600, the funeral of the late Mrs. Frank Osborne took place on Tuesday afternoon, the cortege leaving the residence of her daughter, Mrs. L. R. Rundle at 3 o'clock for service at Marmora United church.

Visiting sisters represented L.O.B.A. 655, Stirling; Sentinel L.O.B.A. 129, Petherick's Corners; Ruth L.O.B.A. 409, Millbridge; Lady McGill L.O.B.A. 471, Havelock, and Unity L.O.B.A. 367, Frankford. Members of Marmora Council and No. 279 Canadian Order of Chosen Friends were also present at the church and cemetery.

The service was taken by the pastor, the Rev. F. H. Howard with the rector, the Rev. A. B. Caldwell assisting. Familiar hymns were used, Rock of Ages, Nearer My God to Thee, and Lead Kindly Light. The speakers' message was based upon St. Paul's words to the Philippians "I count all things but loss," and in the course of a comforting sermon he drew the contrast between the life lived for Christ and that which is self centred. "God is not looking for those who feel they are qualified to receive His blessing," he declared, "but for those who are willing to receive it."

At the graveside the last rites of the Order were taken by Worshipful Mistress, Mrs. H. R. Haacke, and Past Worshipful Mistress, Mrs. T. E. Potts. Worshipful Brother T. E. Potts directed the parade and the bearers were selected from Marmora L.O.L. No. 319, W. R. Gray, W. J. Cottrell, R. E. Bonter, G. B. Airhart, H. W. Sine, and W. D. Donnelly.

The late Mrs. Osborne was their first member to pass away since the organization of Harmony L.O.B.A. 600, six years ago.

MRS. STEWART MILLER

On Sunday evening, July 13, the death occurred at Nicholls Hospital of Mrs. Stuart Miller, wife of Mr. Stuart Miller, of Lot 13, Concession 2, Douro Township.

Deceased was the former Catharine Maud Dewart, daughter of the late John Dewart, and Mrs. Dewart, who now resides at Indian River.

Besides her mother and sorrowing husband there lives to mourn her loss three daughters, Lena and Lyall at home, and Verna, a nurse-in-training at Nicholls Hospital; three sisters, Mrs. Miles of Cottesloe, Mrs. Stephen Miller of Otonabee, Ella of Indian River; and four brothers, James of Otonabee, William and Edward of Indian River and John of Peterborough.

Mrs. Miller was of a kindly disposition and will be missed by a wide circle of friends, both in the church and community.

The funeral was held on Tuesday from the family residence. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the love and esteem in which she was held.

Rev. Mr. Wilkinson of Warsaw United church, of which deceased was a member, conducted the funeral service.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas, David and William Miller and Messrs. James, Edward and John Dewart.

Interment was in Warsaw Cemetery.

British Peer Defrays Expenses of Vancouver Boy to British Empire Contest

Ross Farquharson, of Vancouver, Ross Farqpharson of Vancouver, winner of the Lord Wakefield Trophy for model aircraft at Ottawa last week, sailed for England on the Empress of Scotland from Quebec on Wednesday. He will be Canada's only representative to compete on July 19 with Britain, Australia, South Africa and other parts of the British Empire.

At Ottawa it was found that the models made by Canadian boys did not conform exactly to the British regulations. After winning the grand prize therefore, Farquharson at once set to work to design a new model to meet English regulations. He has worked night and day on these plans and proposes to actually construct the model on board ship while travelling from Quebec to England.

The entire cost of the trip is being defrayed by Lord Wakefield of Hythe, who is also the donor of the costly sterling silver trophy. Lord Wakefield is head of C.C. Wakefield & Co. Limited, producers of Castrol Motor Oil.

FIFTY YEARS OF CONSTANT ENTERPRISE

TWO THINGS THE TOWN MUST HAVE

The little prairie towns along the railway—there are two things they always have. One is the grain elevator. The other is the Imperial Oil branch station. Watch as your train goes through and you will see them—side by side.

They have to have both in the West. They must have an elevator to store their grain. And they must have oil and gasoline to help them sow and reap it, for the Western farmer runs his farm today with the efficiency of any other great industry.

Imperial Oil marched alongside the pioneer into the West. The farmer knows he can count on an Imperial Oil man to help him—anywhere, any time. And he knows that the gasoline and oil from Imperial tanks are the best he can get to do his job.

For fifty years Imperial Oil has been meeting new needs of transportation and industry.

Today its work is woven into the fabric of the country's progress—new efficiency for the farmer—caches for Arctic airmen—supply depots for the mines—service stations in every city and town—miles of tank cars—nine thousand men in its refineries, on its ships, in its laboratories, at its wells.

Fifty years of constant enterprise are in the products Imperial Oil sells today.

Marvelube is Imperial's finest motor oil.

Imperial Premier and Imperial Ethyl are its best gasolines.

Which means that nothing finer can be put in your car.

New Minister of Immigration Issues Strict Order to Border Points.

MOUNTED POLICE HELP.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 17.— (C.P.)— Hon. Ian Mackenzie, recently appointed Minister of Immigration and Colonization, is determined to prevent the surreptitious entry of unemployed United States' workers into Canada he has announced.

Instructions have been issued in Ottawa by the Department Deputy Minister, W. J. Egan, to border inspectors to keep a sharp look out for indications of attempts by United States' citizens to make illegal entry into this country. Co-operation of the Customs Department and mounted police has also been sought.

Scout Miscellany (By Jim Hawthorne)
Being Extracts from the "Piper of Pax."
The Official Life Story of Lord Baden Powell.
By E. K. Wade.

SCOUTING IS BORN.

The scheme of scouting for boys did not take shape in a day. It had gradually been evolving itself in his mind since he first had men to command, in those early days in India with the 13th Hussars. In the 13th Hussars, the 5th Dragoon Guards and in the S.A.C., he had experimented with what is known as "Scout" training on men under him; and in Mafeking he had seen how this training was equally applicable to boys, if they were trusted and put on their honor.

On his return from South Africa after the Boer War, he found that his book, "Aids to Scouting" was being used in boys schools and in girls schools also. Since this book had been written for soldiers B.P. had begun to turn the matter over in his mind and find out what was in it to appeal so strongly to children, and he then set to work to re-write it as a book for boys.

The following extract from a letter received in 1900, is worthy of record—"My two cousins and I have a B.P.S.S. that means Baden Powell Scouting Society. We have had one try at it, it is hard to keep behind bushes without being seen and we get horribly thirsty.

I hope and expect that the writer of that letter is a prominent Girl Guide to-day?

In 1906, B.P. sent an outline of his scheme of "Scouting for Boys", to the leading members of boys movements, and the army, navy, church and state, and the replies and comments which he received were all so encouraging, that he was urged to go on with it.

Lord Roberts was one of the first to express approval of the scheme, and when the Boy Scouts Council was formed some years later, he was one of its first members.

In 1907 B. P. lectured on his Scouting scheme in many of the big centres in the British Isles—and the same year he conducted an experimental trial Scout camp on Brownsea Island, Dorset."

"Scouting for Boys" was first published in fortnightly parts, and before its completion troops had sprung up like mushrooms both at home and in the colonies. With the help of the late Mr. Arthur Pearson, the Chief started the weekly paper we all know "The Scout," in order to keep in touch with his Scouts everywhere. It was at Brownsea Island, that the Patrol system was inaugurated and proved a great success, and even the Chief Scout himself was surprised at the success of this initial venture.

The first big Scout Rally was held in 1909 at the Crystal Palace, London, and was attended by 11,000 boys. Compare this figure with the 50,000 who attended the coming-of-age World Jamboree at Arrowe Park last year?

That same year, 1909, he was knighted by King Edward at Balmoral Castle. During a conversation between the late King Edward and our Chief at this point the King cordially agreed that Scouts who proved themselves exceptionally good should receive the title of "King's Scouts."

King Edward had been one of the first to see possibilities in the Scout movement and his death in 1910 was a great sorrow to B.P. King George at once became Patron, and in 1911 he inspected 33,000 Scouts at Windsor Great Park.

In 1910, the Chief saw the utter impossibility of running Scouting in his spare time; therefore he retired from the Army after more than 30 years of soldiering.

It has sometimes been urged that with a general at its head the Scout organization cannot be other than military. The Chief reply is that there is no reason why an old circus horse, having finished his career in the ring should not settle down peaceably in a civil occupation of pulling a baker's cart. Party politics have never had any attraction for B.P. they are, he says, too strong for his palate—where you have to put party before conscience or country.

When after the South African War, he was invited to stand for Parliament, he could not resist sending the following reply to Lord Robert's telegram "Delighted—which side?"

WHEAT POOL IS HEAVILY SCORED

Co-Operative Union Claims It Neglects Interests Of Consumers.

MEAN ANTAGONISM.

TORONTO, Ont., July 17—(CP)—Addressing delegates at the annual congress of the Co-operative Union of Canada is session here, W. Gallagher director of the Scottish Co-operative Wholesale Society, criticized the Canadian Wheat Pool as an organization which looked after the interests of its members and neglected those of the consumers.

Farmers holding membership in the pool where merely intent on getting the best price they could for their grain without really entering into the co-operative idea, Mr. Gallagher said. Such an attitude suggested the possibility of a definite antagonism developing between the pool and the consumer at some later date, he believed.

COBOURG WOMAN RUNS FOR DOMINION SEAT.

COBOURG, Ont., July 17 (Canadian Press). — Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald, Cobourg, will run in the Dominion election as Independent Progressive-Liberal candidate for Northumberland County, she has announced. Mrs. Macdonald asserted a great deal of pressure was being exerted to persuade her to withdraw her candidature, party officials having besieged her with telegrams and long-distance telephone calls.

TEACHERS' SALARIES ON UNIFORM BASIS.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 17 (Canadian Press). — Placing of teachers' salary schedules on a uniform basis in various zones throughout the Dominion was favored at yesterday's session of the Canadian Teachers' Federation in annual conference here. It was felt such an arrangement should be made to form a proper basis for negotiations with the school boards.

HERE IS A SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF THE RESULTS OBTAINED BY AN OUT-OF-TOWN ADVERTISER—

In April Mr. Cranston of Cranston's Poultry Farm, Stirling, inserted a Classified Ad. in our want ad. columns.

That advertising sold 25,000 baby chicks for him.

Mr. Cranston being very much pleased with the overwhelming results obtained, has continued to advertise, and with continued success. In sending in instructions for further advertising Mr. Cranston said:

"I might say that I received wonderful results from my ad. appearing in April issues, having sold at least 25,000 chicks from that ad. alone. I have sold about 85,000 chicks so far this season."

THREE WESTERN PROVINCE HEADS SEEKING REMEDY

Saskatchewan, Alberta and B.C. To Tackle Unemployment Question.

NEXT THURSDAY.

Alberta Has Plans Which She Will Lay Before Conference.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 16 (C.P.).—Unemployment conditions in the three westernmost provinces will be the subject of an inter-Provincial conference of Government officials in the Parliament Buildings here tomorrow. Government officials of British Columbia and Saskatchewan will join with those of this problem in tackling the problem of the jobless.

Premier Brownlee, who will head the Alberta representation at the conference, is due to attend the official opening of a new highway Thursday afternoon, but it is understood he will sit in at the unemployment conference in the morning, his place thereafter to be taken by Hon. R. G. Reid, Provincial Treasurer. Walter Smitten, Commissioner of Labor, will be the other Alberta representative.

Exchange Views.

An exchange of views in respect to the relief of unemployment in the three Provinces will be the purpose of the meeting, and in preparation for it the Alberta situation was discussed at a Departmental conference here on Tuesday when tentative plan as far as this province is concerned were discussed. These plans will be laid before the Thursday meeting, the hope being that some uniform scheme of action may then be agreed upon for adoption next fall and winter in the three provinces.

Hon. J. A. Merkley and T. Molloy are coming as the Saskatchewan delegates to the conference, and British Columbia will be represented by Hon. W. A. McKenzie and J. A. McEvey.

CANNING FACTORY DELEGATES INTERVIEW NORWOOD COUNCIL

Seek Fixed Assessment From Ratepayers Regarding Establishing of Plant.

ACCOUNTS PASSED

TWEED, July 16 (Examiner Correspondence). — James Marchen, of Peterborough, and J. A. Finley, of Norwood, interviewed the Village Council at a meeting held on Tuesday evening, relative to establishing a canning factory at the hub factory site and asked the Council if there could be any arrangement made for a fixed assessment for a certain number of years.

The council assured them of their hearty co-operation in the matter, Messrs. Quinn, Sayers and Purdy being elected a committee to look into the matter to see what could be done.

Messrs. Lesage and Rashotte interviewed the Council asking for water service and hydrants on east side of the river, for the fire protection. Ray Quinn asked for a dressing room at the dam for swimmers. Both propositions were promised consideration.

Percy Badgley asked the council for water service on S. Victoria street, his property not abutting on a water main. This was laid over for consideration.

On motion of Sayers and Purdy, it was decided to request the Hydro Electric Power Commission to forward documents and particulars re the purchase of the local plant by the corporation.

Blakely-Sayers—That a light be installed near Dr. Mather's cottage at the lake.

Quinn-Sayers—That notices be sent to those in arrears of taxes.

Sayers-Blakely—That money by-law No 327 be increased to $90,000.

Sayers-Purdy—That W. H. Richardson be appointed temporary caretaker of the pumping station.

As per notice at last meeting a by-law was introduced providing for taxes to be paid on September 1 and allowing 3 per cent discount, with penalties on November 10 and December 10, passed through its several readings, signed, sealed and numbered 345.

Accounts Passed

The following accounts were ordered paid: George Pringle, drawing pipes and stone, $20.35; work at dump ground Board of Health, $14.40 and gravel on streets, $4.50; John Hawkins, gravel and sand, $20.60; Tweed Hardware Company, $6.05; W. W. $1.20; Dominion Foundry, W. W. 70c Tweed News Ltd., $8.75; James Vance, piling wood, c.c. $1.25; John Burleigh, gravel, $9.90; Arch Godfrey, dump ground, Board of Health, $14.40; G. Thompson, work Board of Health, $2.50; Bert Johnston, work on streets, $20; Board of Health, $4.-75; C. N. R. freight on pump, W. W. $13.52; Judge Deroche, court of revision, $15; Hydro Electric Power Commission, $157.08; Simone Contracting Company, estimate No 10 W. W., $3,929.91—$4,244.76.

W.M.S. Meets

The July meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church was held in the Church parlor when the president, Mrs. Foster, presided. The financial report for the first half of the year was given by Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Kingston was elected 1st vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mrs. Donnely.

The president reported that the four quilts were completed. It was decided to hold the August meeting at the cottage of Mrs. McGown. Scriptural lessons were read by Mrs. Barnett and the devotional leaflet was given by Mrs. McGown. Mrs. Connor contributed a solo and readings were given by Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Hicks.

District Churches

ROSENEATH UNITED CHURCH

ROSENEATH, July 17.—(Examiner Correspondence). — The heavy rain on Sunday evening prevented many from attending service in the United church, when Rev. R. W. Paton, M.A., B.D., delivered a very interesting discourse, taking his text from Genesis 26, verse 18: "And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham; and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them." The speaker expressed his sermon clearly by saying: These wells had been dug by Abraham, but after his death they were filled with stones by the Philistines. Later on Isaac became wealthy and he needed these wells for his flocks and herds, so he had them opened by removing the stones and rubbish.

This text has spiritual worth. Very often wells meet a similar fate. Time changing environment or malicious mischief, causes them to be sealed up and the water ceases to flow. It sends a wave of yearning over our hearts, to see a well that has ceased to flow. But it is a still more tragic spectacle to see a human soul, no longer giving any evidence or sign of its source in God. The dirt of carelessness has been allowed to settle upon it, there has been a time of silence, of dryness, of deadness, This well has ceased to flow.

God describes souls that are in touch with God, as "living wells of water." But when the soul becomes isolated from God it is as a "well without water." There are various causes for the drying up of those wells, which are the souls of men.

Very often earthly wells become dry through neglect from want of use. The same thing happens to human souls. Those high powers within us, those God given capacities and capabilities decay and die, if they are not in use.

Man was made to work, to worship, to believe and to aspire after God. Nothing so ruinous to man's soul as neglect from want of use.

Sometimes wells become dry, owing to a subterranean change, a shifting beenath the surface. Sometimes a man's soul ceases to portray divine qualities, because of a shock or dislocation beneath the surface as when a trusted friend deceives him, or a loved one betrays him, and the well ceases to flow.

But there are wells that cease to flow because of malicious behaviour of someone, who destroys that well, by casting into it something very offensive. This illustrates what can happen a human soul. There are souls blasted and ruined by the positive evil doing of one individual. It's possible to roll a stone against the door of some life.

Do Not Neglect the Soul.

There are ways of avoiding these tragedies—do not neglect the soul, but give it attention by keeping it in close touch with God.

Why should any one turn their back upon Christ, because some one within the church has disappointed them?, Jesus Christ never betrayed any one, neither has he deceived or disappointed any one.

These experiences should impel us to seek our refuge and strength in Jesus Christ, the friend who never fails us nor forsaks us.

Sometimes springs are frozen over in very cold weather and cease to flow. In the same way human souls can be frozen by the coldness and indifference of this world. Such souls need the warmth and kindness of love. Jesus' mission was one of love, letting loose the wells of God's love in human hearts. To such a task are all called by his followers.

Just as Isaac found in the valley of Gerar, the wells of his father Abraham, even so Jesus Christ found in the lanes, hearts of men, the wells of His Father God. These wells were choked with sin, but Jesus opened them and let in the mercy and love of God and set the water of life flowing in the cold hearts of ours.

W.M.S. HAS CHARGE OF CHURCH SERVICE

Interesting Papers Read by Mrs. A. B. Mann, Mrs. James Young, Mrs. T. Metcalfe and Mrs. J. Mann.

BRIDGENORTH, July 17 (Examiner Correspondence)—The Women's Mission Circle of Gilmour Memorial Church had charge of the service on Sunday morning. The vice-president Mrs. J. Archer occupied the chair.

The subject was Lepers and papers were given by Mrs. A. B. Mann, Mrs. James Young, Mrs. T. Metcalfe, and Mrs. J. Mann. A solo was beautifully rendered by Mrs. T. Metcalfe, of Peterborough.

Mission Band Picnic

Miss Lillian McGregor was hostess for the members of the Mission Band of Gilmour Church at the annual picnic held at her home. The election of officers include: honorary president, Margaret Mann, president, Eunice Hammond, secretary, Phyllis Moore, treasurer, Gladys Blewett, pianist, Marion Blewett.

After the meeting games and softball were played and about seventy-five guests were served supper on the lawn and the large verandah.

DON'T SUFFER FROM CONSTIPATION

Prevent It This Pleasant, Healthful Way

Beware of the frequent headaches, the listless feeling, bad breath and sallow complexion.

If allowed to continue, constipation may get its grip on you and serious sickness can result.

The poisonous wastes in your system must be removed. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to do this—safely, completely. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—recurring cases, with every meal.

Doctors recommend Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Because it is ALL-BRAN it brings complete results. Far better than habit-forming drugs or pills that are often dangerous. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN not only prevents and relieves constipation pleasantly—it also supplies your blood with the iron it needs to keep a healthy color and a strong body.

Ready-to-eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking. Recipes are on the package for muffins and breads. Sold by all grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Veteran Railroader Retires From Service

(Examiner Correspondence)

TRENT RIVER, July 17.—Thomas Bennett, of 187 Geoffrey street, Toronto employee of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the last 47 years has retired from active service.

Lately Mr. Bennett has operated on the Toronto-McTier line. He began with the company in 1883 and during all those years has never had a blemish on his record. Of three engineers who have retired this year, Mr. Bennett holds the longest record.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and family spent the summer seasons at their cottage, Killarney at Trent River.

FENELLA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE OBSERVES SILVER ANNIVERSARY

More Than Hundred Persons Take Part at Gathering Held in Town Hall.

PRESENTATIONS MADE.

FENELLA, July 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The silver anniversary of the organization of Fenella Women's Institute was held on Thursday in the Town Hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion in the Institute colors of blue and gold.

The windows were banked with a profusion of flowers and in the centre of the room was a table with white damask cloth and set with silver tea services, candles of blue and gold, silver streamers and centred with a four story birthday cake, decorated in white and silver and with twenty-five golden candles in settings of blue.

Invitations had been sent to all members and ex-members of the organization and more than one hundred responded to the invitation. Seated at the table were the president, Mrs. H. George; Miss Ruby Adams, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Jibb, first president of the Institute, and the first secretary, Mrs. M. Davey, of Roseneath.

Seated together near the table were the other ex-presidents, with th exception o ftwo.

Th president presided for the business session when it was decided to invite the members of the young people's society of Plainville to give their play in Fenella Town Hall on August 1.

Presentations Made.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation of life memberships to the two charter members of the branch, Mrs. W. J. Jibb and Mrs. M. Adams, the addresses being read by Misses Mildred Lean and Louisa Clark. At the opportune moment, little Shirley George presented each with a bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Jibb then took charge of the meeting and presided over the program consisting of paper on "My Duty to my Neighbor" by Mrs. W. Rogers; community singing and short speeches from ex-president's, Mrs. Jibb, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. J. Herrington, Mrs. G. Harvey, Mrs. S. Leach, Mrs. J. Curtis, Mrs. W. Rogers and Mrs. A. Nill. Two ex-presidents, Mrs. H. Brisbin and Mrs. F. Talling have passed on to their reward and Mrs. R. L. Ralls, the other ex-president was unable to be present.

Several ex-members were also asked to speak and responded briefly, all expressing their pleasure at being present. Mrs. H. Weks, of Cobourg, second vice-president of the district, brought greetings from the Cobourg branch and on invitation responded with a brief speech.

One of the features of the meeting was the reading of the minutes of the first meeting held on February 23, 1905. Just before the closing number, the candles on the cake were lighted and as the secretary read out their names, each ex-president and president blew out the number of candles corresponding to her term of service. Mrs. James Knox, of Fenella, blew out her mother's candles (Mrs. R. L. Ralls of Cobourg). Three candles were left unlighted in memory of those who had passed on.

Following this Mrs. Jibb placed a silver knife in the cake and supper was served, Mrs. M. Adams and Mrs. Jibb pouring tea. During the afternoon a photographer took several pictures of the group.

Among those present from a distance included: Mrs. F. Curtis and Mrs. J. Mason of Peterborough; Mrs. H. Wicks, Mrs. A. Marsh, Mrs. D. Lonsberry and Mrs. R. McCullough of Cobourg; Mrs. W. Davey of Port Hope; Miss Jessie Knox of Bowmanville; Mrs. W. Blakely, Mrs. Keith Halstead, and Mrs. J. Linton of Plainville; Mrs. L. Jibb, Camborne; Mrs. G. Carruthers, Mrs. L. Payne, Mrs. F. Brisbin and Mrs. J. Buttars of Harwood; Mrs. L. Brisbin, Mrs. M. Davey, Mrs. Andrew Brown and Miss Jessie Thompson of Roseneath.

TORONTO YACHT AT TRENT RIVER

Palatial Sailing Vessel in Charge of Vice-Commodore G. C. Cuff.

FINISHED IN MAHOGANY

TRENT RIVER, July 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The 'Idler' yacht from Toronto spent Monday night at the dock with Vice Commodore G. C. Cuff, with Mrs. Cuff of Queen City Yacht Company of Toronto, on board. Other guests were Mrs. Shelton, Miss Rogers and Mr. Booth, all of Toronto.

They left the following morning for Balsam Lake.

The yacht was thirty-five feet in length, two cabins, refrigerator, cook's galley and toilet room were the accommodations, and the interior was finished in mahogany. The galley carried 100 gallons of gasoline and 35 gallons of water. Taps were arranged for lake water as well. Besides the refrigerator there was an enclosed part to contain canned goods.

This is the Commodore's first trip through this part of the waterways and all of the party on board were delighted with the scenic beauty of the Trent Canal.

A passenger and freight boat something along the house boat or ferry type arrived on Monday at the wharf, coming from Cornwall and continuing the journey to Orillia where it will be used as an excursion boat.

PETS IN HAT BROOCHES

Fashionable London women have a new fad in hat brooch models of their pets. Dogs are the most conspicuous, the wearers having had made exact replicas of the canine pet of the house These are picked out in small diamonds on platinum or white gold. Others who favor a parrot, a rabbit or a tortoise are also wearing models of their pets.

Havelock W.M.S. Holds Pleasant Social Hour

HAVELOCK, July 17. —(Examiner Correspondence). — The Women's Missionary Society of the United Church held a delightful afternoon tea on Wednesday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Bonney, 'Bonnierest,' at Round Lake.

Golden sunshine, placid water, smiling skies and a velvety green lawn all contributed to the pleasure of some one hundred members and their friends who had come for the annual outing. Softball, boating and contests were enjoyed. The contest was won by Mrs. Harvey Cooke, and Reo M. Archer who received glass plate and a shaving set respectively. A delicious tea was served at five o'clock.

Britain buys more than 4,000,000 gallons of benzol from the United States every year.

"FEEL WELL AND STRONG"

MRS. GUS ARSENAULT
82 Albert St., Moncton, New Brunswick

"Before my last baby was born I was very weak, nervous and discouraged. I saw an advertisement in the paper about a woman who had been like me so I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took three bottles and it carried me safely through that critical time. I have three children to care for and I feel well and strong. I tell others about your medicine." —Mrs. Gus Arsenault.

MRS. CHAS. SLINGERLAND
R. R. No. 4, St. Catherines, Ontario

"I have used several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it helps me wonderfully, especially before childbirth. I have five lovely children. After my last baby came I had a miserable pain in my right side so I bought another bottle of the Compound and I feel fine now. I work outside during the fruit season in addition to my housework." —Mrs. Charles Slingerland.

Our Mail

Conducted by ANNE WILCOX

Dear Anne:

Here I am almost too ashamed to write after my rash promise of one letter a month, but I'm living up to the old saying of better late than never. I hope you are fine, Anne, you and everyone else. I guess, folks, that Anne is beginning to think we are like a bunch of kids. We're all on fire with enthusiasm for Our Mail and all of a sudden the fire goes out of us and we are no more help to Anne than a baby would be.

We all know, of course, Anne, that you are big-hearted enough to forgive our lapse of interest and are willing to accept us when we get the urge to write again. It sure is an unfair advantage to take of you, Anne, but we ask you to excuse us and try us all out once more, please?

Come on now, everybody, let's put on a little writing campaign all ourselves and show Anne exactly what we can do to help her to make the page a real one of lively interest. Come on, some of you folk who have not written at all yet and who have often thought you would like to. You just never can tell when some little work of yours is going to make it so much easier for someone else. Wouldn't it just make you feel great to think you had helped someone over the rough places? Everyone has difficult ideas and lots of those same ideals would look pretty good to a lot of us and we'd be ever so glad to get your different views on things.

If you can't think of a name, just sign yourself "Nameless" or "Patsy" or "Ruby" or anything, just so long as you write. Do your stuff! You don't have to tell even your old man you're going to write. I can assure you I don't ask "Joe" if I can write to Anne or not. I just write, and he reads it later. They don't have to know everything, do they, Anne? They'd have gall stones maybe if they did; what do you say, folks? Let's have your opinion. Enough about men.

I hope you received the patterns I returned for Avis. Gee, that was decent of her to send them along so soon, and I thank her very much and you for your trouble in the matter also, Anne, dear.

You remembered my boy, Water Lily. Thank you. He sends back his love to you. He's enjoying the holidays and developing a wonderful appetite by being our of doors so much. He passed at school and was so pleased about it all. Joe rewarded him, of course. Some claim that is bad business—buying them to pass. I do not call it that. I believe a child should be encouraged and a little present helps wonderfully, don't you think so, Anne?

Avis, you think I must have had a wonderful mother. I did, Avis; she has always been a wonderful mother and, thank God, I still have her. Everyone who knows my mother loves her. You know, folks my mother surely believes that "It is better to give than to receive." I'm hoping some day to be like my mother. I'll know then that I have not lived a useless life.

My dad is a great old dad too and it would do your heart good to see his wonderful garden. It's one of the finest in the city and my dad is nearing the three score years and ten mark. We're all looking forward to a big time soon—our annual summer reunion. Boy don't we make whoopee; you bet!

Well guess I'd better stop now; so once more I'm going to ask all the old neighbors and plenty of new ones to give us all they've got in the line of letter writing.

Ever yours
HIGHFLYER.

Always glad to read your letters, Highflyer; they all sound so cheery and help to remind us that after all this world isn't so bad! Sometimes we are discouraged and when we read a letter like yours it helps us to carry on.

Dear Anne:

Do you want letters during vacation time? I trust you will have a happy and restful vacation. You people who are in offices so much do need to get away from the confinement and noise and bustle of the city. We farmers' wives and homemakers word hard; there is no pretending we do not. I rarely milk, but there are milk pails to be carefully washed, scalded and turned upside down on the stand in the sun. This method of my grandmother's seems still an approved method. She did not know why she was so careful why she scalded why she had a clean stand away from dust and where the sun would shine. She only knew by taking this care her milk kept sweet with no taint. If we stop to think we will so often find the ways of our grandmothers were good, common sense was their teacher.

Left to myself a good thick slice of salt fat pork sprinkled with pepper goes on the swollen glands for mumps and so far as I can see it relieves as well, if not better and more quickly, than anything else. Of course if I have doctor's orders for other treatment I carry it out. He knows best.

You sit in a beautifully finished and furnished office well lighted lots of electric light if daylight fails. You have your regular hours though I fancy you do quite a bit at home perhaps in a hall bedroom or maybe in an apartment by yourself or shared with others. You rise perhaps at seven; you have half days and Sundays off out of the office. I rise shortly after five; most of us do; prepare breakfast attend to fowl and a few other odds. The girlie helps out. It is clean up morning work prepare dinner then there is usually some time for the extras sewing, gardening, extra housework, be it washing, ironing, or window-cleaning. I have been out weeding and am now resting, sitting beside a vine-covered window through which come glimpses of sunshine and the birds are singing for music, a dear little song sparrow loves the top of a shrub to trill out his melody. The green lawn and meadows with trees and shrubs are so restful. Even the flowering weeds have a bit of beauty, but the good man does not like to see a bunch of ox-eye daisies on the table, they are such nasty weeds; now did he like my shasta daisy in the garden—it looked like the ox-eye. But it got killed as several more perennials did. Then the cattle and sheep grazing in their pastures are a lovely sight. Oh, I love the country—hard work and all. With good management we can fare very well, and I had a gruelling training in that.

Do you know what city apartments appeal to me as? Glorified cave-dwellers' homes. And these tremendous ones they are putting up now appear to be enormous inhabit-tombs. Business may take people to them, but I cannot see how anyone can live in one from choice. However, one of my dearest friends cannot see how I can stand it here, lonely and all sorts of dreadful things, she imagines. The larger the apartment house, the better it pleases her.

Again wishing you a happy vacation in whatever way you approve.

Sincerely yours,
QUID EST.

Two old standbys—Highflyer and Quid Est! It's just great to see you coming along, even in this busy time of the season. I think he country is wonderful just now—with so much rain this summer everything is so green, which makes it look more inviting than when everything is dried with the heat. Apartment houses may be all right in the winter, but when the summer comes, the occupants are usually quite ready to get to the country by the lake somewhere! Thank you; I expect to thoroughly enjoy my vacation!

Will you please order a Fashion Book and Patern No. ——, for which I enclose 25 cents in payment.

There have been few letters in he page lately, but I suppose everyone is taking advantage of allnice weather to be outdoors. I know I do, if it is only puttering about in the garden which is one job of which I am fond. It is great to watch things grow from day to day.

I like your page very much, but am very slow at saying so.

ADA

Thank you, Ada, you are a newcomer, aren't you? I'm glad you like the page, but I do not think it has been so interesting since letters are fewer. We will be delighted to hear from you at any time again that you may care to write.

FASHION SERVICE

This model is much favored for the soft silks and cotton fabrics that are so thoroughly smart and feminine.

Its clever lines give the impression of simplicity.

The neckline is soft and pretty with knotted scarf collar. The short sleeves repeat the knotted trim in cuff bands.

Shirring of the skirt flounce makes the snugness through the hips more prominent.

Style No. 2554 is sketched in pin-dotted violet-blue crepe silk with dusty pink organdie trim.

Peach colored hankerchief linen is adorably feminine for summer afternoons.

Printed dimity, printed sheer lawn, tub silks, printed voile and chiffon express the smart summer vogue.

This model can be had in sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust.

Pattern price 15 cents. Be sure to fill in size of pattern. Address Pattern Department. The Summer Fashion Magazine contains most interesting styles for adults for town or vacation wear. Also darling styles for the kiddies. It is 15 cents a copy, but may be obtained for 10 cents if ordered same time as pattern.

MEAT FOR CHILDREN.

One of the mistakes some mothers make is in thinking that milk and cream should be given as often as the youngster will take it, but that meat must not be eaten, or, if it is eaten, it should only be two or three times a week. And when the meat is given it is cooked too much, as rare or raw meat is considered unsafe for children.

Now what about milk or cream?

Milk is admitted to be Nature's greatest all-round food for children, but, like everything else, too much can be taken. Milk should be used at meal time, either as a drink or on other foods, and a glass of milk twice a day at other times. If none is taken at meal times, then as much as three to four glasses a day may be taken.

What happens when too much milk is taken, particularly if the milk is rich in cream?

Attacks of biliousness frequently result therefrom.

This means a disturbance in stomach and intestines, a sicky feeling with headache and sometimes vomiting, bad breath, and a tired-out feeling generally.

Milk often causes disturbances when raw or sour fruits are eaten with it.

What about meat?

Meat and eggs are Nature's greatest body-building, and growth-giving foods. Good beefsteak, roast beef, roast lamb, chicken and turkey are the best foods, with well cured ham for breakfast.

And meats should not be overcooked. Of course, the cooking prevents trouble that might be caused by the eggs of insects in the meat, but rare meats are really better for children as they are more easily digested. Often it is wise to scrape the meat or put it through the grinder which does not take away from its nourishing qualities yet enables the youngster to digest it more readily.

Fried meats should not be given to children; roasted, or, if possible, broiled is best.

Cold meats are nourishing and tasty, and may be given if the child will chew them thoroughly. They are not so easily chewed as hot meats.

However, children do not require large amounts of meat, and this is where mothers should be careful. A youngster five years of age should have what would be equal to a heaping tablespoonful; a child nine, twice this much; and one at age of puberty, about four to six times this much.

Don't be afraid to give the meats above mentioned to your children. Other meats may be given when they get into the 'teen age and are playing every day out-of-doors.

OUR CHILDREN

CLEANUP DAYS.

When things get very messy we have to have cleanup days. Of course it would be better not to get so messy but then we do and all that is left after that is to do the cleaning up.

But the burden of the task should not be placed on the children. Whenever the Women's Club decides on a crusade of cleanup they descend upon the children. They want the children to learn to keep the streets clean. They ask that schools teach the children not to litter the streets. "Every Monday morning our streets and parks are an unsightly mess because of the torn and scattered newspapers. Impress upon all the children that they are not to scatter their papers about. Get them to talk to their parents about it. All of us must co-operate in this matter of cleanliness."

Let's see. How many of the newspapers scattered about have been discarded by children? How many elementary school children, especially those in primary schools, read and toss away newspapers? High school children do not litter parks and streets with newspapers for the same very good reason.

The children might be accused of throwing fruit skins on the streets, but most of that is done by the adults. Children eat most of their meals under supervision of one kind or another and that takes care of the refuse.

It is right to teach children to keep streets and parks clean. It is part of the civic courses throughout the grades and the teachers do not neglect their task. It is the children and their teachers who do most of the prevention work in this department of social service. Instead of calling the children to refrain from littering the city we should be calling upon the grownups to help the children in their work of maintaining its cleanliness.

Is the street cleaning department adequate? Are the men well paid and is their equipment up-to-date? Are the ordinances for cleanliness enforced? Who litters the streets and who is checking the offenders? Who, for instance, heaps refuse and junk and garbage in vacant lots and who checks that very important matter? Who does the dry sweeping? Who is it that sits on the sidewalk? Not the children I can assure you.

The city and the village alike should be clean. And the children ought to be taught to help maintain that cleanliness as an essential part of their training for citizenship. But the grownups are the ones who do the mischief and it is the grownups who need the prodding.

Every vacant lot ought to be clean for the use of children. I would remit certain taxes for the vacant lots that were kept in shape for children's play. I would publish the names of the street cleaning department people who kept their districts in good shape and give them a bonus and an honor stripe. I would place the responsibility for the dirty places where it belongs and reward those who attended to the duty of cleaning up. Example is better than much preaching.

GIFTS TO CHARITY ARE NOT TAXABLE

New Amendments to Income Tax Permit Deductions.

On April 30 last all persons liable to payment of income tax were obliged to file returns and make either complete or partial payments, based on the law as it then existed. Early in May several amendments to the Income War Tax Act were introduced and were finally passed by Parliament.

The principal items in which the general public is interested come under two heads:

1—An allowance for deduction from income of donations made to charitable institutions, to the extent of 10 per cent. of the net taxable income.

2—An additional exemption allowed in certain cases for the maintenance of other than the dependent children of the taxpayer.

Special forms have been prepared known as forms T. Donations and forms T.IE Rev., the latter covering claims for dependent persons. These forms explain the rights of the taxpayers and the manner of establishing them.

The definition of a charitable organization covers (a) trusts or organizations for the relief of poverty; (b) trusts or organizations for the advancement of education; (c) trusts or organizations for the advancement of religion; (d) trusts or organizations for other purposes beneficial to the community not falling under any of the preceding heads, and in all cases the organizations must be operated exclusively for a charitable purpose, and no part of the income must inure to the benefit of any private person, member or shareholder thereof.

All contributions must have been paid within the year for which the return is made and no contributions anterior to 1929 can be considered. Proof of payment must accompany the filing of the forms and must show the amount of the gift, the character of the recipient organizations and the year in which donation was paid. Donations payable over a term of years can only be claimed as and when the obligation of the donor has been carried out.

Another important amendment to the Act makes an allowance of five hundred dollars ($500) for each parent, grandparent, brother or sister incapable of self-support on account of mental or physical infirmity, who is dependent upon the taxpayer for maintenance.

Individuals entitled to income tax refund or adjustment on account of these amendments may secure the necessary forms from the Inspector of Income Tax of their district, and it is the desire that all persons who are entitled to relief secure and file these forms without delay.

AND

(Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.)

"Wash done in no time and no hard scrubbing" says Mrs. Jean Cushman

"You ought to see how Rinso breaks down our hard water and makes thick, creamy suds. Without a softener, too! I get my wash done in no time now, and so much whiter than the old way. I don't need to do any hard scrubbing! That saves my strength and spares my hands, too. For dishes, too, nothing equals Rinso!" MRS. JEAN CUSHMAN.

This way saves the clothes

Rinso soaks out dirt—saves scrubbing. Millions know this way saves the clothes. And clothes come so white they don't need to be boiled.

Even in hardest water, Rinso is all you need. Cup for cup, it gives twice as much suds as puffed-up soaps. Rich, lasting suds. Recommended by the makers of 38 washing machines. Get the BIG package.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

EVERYONE IS GOING for a vacation—how necessary they are too!

• • • • • • •

We run across people who say they never have any—they don't know what they are missing do they?

• • • • • • •

I don't think there are very many people in Peterborough who do not have a holiday of some kind or other during the year—it may only be a half day spent at Chemong—a trip up the Lakes, but it is a holiday just the same.

• • • • • • •

One doesn't have to have a month at some fashionable hotel and spend anywhere from twenty-five to fifty dollars for a week to say you have had a vacation! You can have one in your own back yard!

• • • • • • •

When starting on your holiday preparations the first thing to do is to forget all about packing and settle the problems that will otherwise crop up at the last moment and intensify the breathlessness of the last mad rush for the train or delay your start in the car so that the first day of the holiday is simply wasted.

• • • • • • •

If you have pets—one of the first things is to plan to provide for them during your absence. It is well to provide for them at least two weeks in advance.

• • • • • • •

One thing that is really important when the family is leaving all at the same time is not to shut the house up tight!

• • • • • • •

Leave it so it will look inhabited from the street—this can be done by leaving the upper windows open a few inches and by pulling the blinds only half-way down.

• • • • • • •

There are always house breakers in every town and they make a habit of watching for such opportunities as vacation time for entering.

• • • • • • •

As a further precaution it might be well to notify the police station the dates of your absence and if there is a beat near your home a policeman can take particular notice of your house.

• • • • • • •

Loose carpets are well rolled up as it saves dust accumulating and does away with dangers of fading. The upholstered furniture should be covered with sheets and a few camphor balls.

• • • • • • •

Do not lock anything in drawers for the drawers as well as the contents will be damaged if intruders intrude.

• • • • • • •

Usually you have a kind neighbor who will look after your plants—if not place them in the pots in the bath tub partly filled with water.

• • • • • • •

Any valuable silver and jewellery should be sent to your deposit box at the bank.

• • • • • • •

Often you see verandahs and between the doors littered with papers and magazines—it takes only a minute to telephone the newspaper office to have your paper forwarded or discontinued until your return!

MASONRY IS KEY NOTE FOR PEACE PROMOTION.

TORONTO, Ont., July 17.—(CP)—The influence of Masonry for the promotion of peace and goodwill among nations, particularly among those of the English speaking world, was the keynote of speeches delivered at the 75th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario at a banquet here last night.

It was also the keynote of the message of fraternal felicitations sent by the Duke of Connaught, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of England, and conveyed to the brethren by Col. Monckton Arundell.

Australia will reduce its expenditures for national defence.

Joan surprised her Mother-in-Law

Bob and Joan had been married a month and his Mother was coming for lunch today. "I must show her that even though I worked in an office I can't make a nice meal," thought Joan.

She first took some potatoes and popped them into the oven to roast to a rich nut-brown.

Then she cut up the remains of Sunday's roast, and heated it with the contents of 1 tin of Clark's Cooked Spaghetti.

As a finishing touch she placed the potatoes in a ring around the spaghetti . . . Mmm! but it did look appetizing! . . . and you know what she called it? . . . spaghetti a la Joan!

A little challenge: try some of Clark's Cooked Spaghetti, then try any other brand of spaghetti you like . . . if Clark's doesn't taste as good as any of the other brands (we are sure it will taste better) . . . ask your grocer for your money back. Isn't that fair enough?

. . . it MUST be good!

Friends Honor Late Constable Fred Reeves

LINDSAY, July 17. — (Special to The Examiner.)—The largest funeral seen in Lindsay since the death of Sir Sam Hughes was the tribute paid by all classes of citizens to the late Constable Fred Reeves, a member of the Lindsay police force.

The deceased, who had been identified with the local force for seven years, was ill for about two weeks. He is survived by his wife and two sons, one of whom is "Buffer" Reeves, the well known local hockey player.

The late Mr. Reeves was a member of the Foresters and Oddfellows lodges, the members of both organizations marching [illegible] funeral.

Veteran Rail[illegible] Dies At Lindsay

LINDSAY, July 17.—(Special to The Examiner.)—Death has claimed another veteran railroad man in the person of the late Robert Wallace of this town. The deceased, who was well known throughout the district, was engineer for a great many years on the Midland Railway between Port Hope, Peterborough and Lindsay. He ran one of the old wood burners for years, and was a familiar figure on the line until superannuated a few years ago.

TO A PENCIL

I know not where thou art.
I only know
That thou wert on my desk,
Beautiful and contented
A moment back,
And as I turned my head
To view the clock,
Some heartless wretch,
Went West with thee.
I know not who he was
Nor shall I ask.
Perchance,
It may have been
The guy I stole it from.

LINDSAY CITIZENS AROUSED OVER SUSPENSION OF SHUNK

Many Residents Protest Action Taken By Council Against Bandmaster.

Mayor Promises Statement.

(Special to The Examiner)

LINDSAY, July 17. — The town council no sooner disposes of the contentious problem of daylight saving than it is face to face with another question of its own making, and one that has aroused strong public feeling.

The new problem has to do with the suspension of J. T. Shunk, bandmaster of the Citizens' Band. Mr. Shunk, who was at one time bandmaster at Hastings, was engaged by the town about a year ago to take charge of the re-organization of the local band. During his incumbency of the position as leader he succeeded in organizing a boys' band of some 35 pieces, and which has made good progress. Difficulty was experienced however in connection with the Citizens' Band owing to the scarcity of musicians and the failure of some members to attend practice. Things reached a climax some days ago when, it is stated, several members of the senior band approached Mayor Stewart that this town could not expect a band unless there was a change in leadership. This information was given out at the last council meeting and a resolution was passed instructing the clerk to advertise for a new leader.

Bandmaster Shunk was away at Barriefield Camp with the junior band at this time, and when the action of the council was broadcasted in the press next day, strong public sentiment was aroused against that body. Protests were registered by members of the service clubs, especially by the Kiwanis, which had raised $600 in aid of the boys' band. Parents of the children in the latter organization were indignant, and when the council met in committee last night, the crowd in attendance was so great that it overflowed on to the street. A near riot was staged when it was learned that the question would not be considered by the council at that meeting. Mayor Stewart, however, assured the throng that he would issue a statement which he felt satisfied would suit both sides in the controversy.

The sentiment is strongly in favor of the retention of the bandmaster, and the question of his dismissal in such an abrupt manner promises to be an issue at the next municipal election.

cerning the surroundings and pointed out the numerous speedy craft of the U. S. Coastguard Patrol, each fitted with a small gun in the bow which is causing much sorrow among rum runners.

Many yachts under a full spread of canvas completed the nautical scene as they winged out into the bay.

On arrival at Rochester, special buses met the train and whirled the majority of the excursionists off on a sightseeing ride of the "Flower City", while the remainder filled in the brief hours of their visit in a manner which most appealed to the individual tastes. Despite the many attractions which Rochester undoubtedly holds, it was with some relief that the visitors boarded the train for the run back to the docks, the heat being so intense as to make a tour of the camera-metropolis something of an ordeal.

It was a very tired but happy and contented crowd which disembarked at Cobourg, just as the steeple clock of the town hall tolled the midnight hour. A waiting train conveyed the excursionists back to Peterborough and brought to a finale a day which will have occasion to live long in memory as one of the most happy and refreshing of the whole 1930 summer season by all who participated in the outing.

SUPERVISED PLAYGROUNDS

(By James Abraham.)

An unsupervised playground is not a community asset and the value of supervision held lightly does not indicate civic progress as the boy and girl of to-day is a country's asset, and supervised playgrounds conducted in these space areas have a personal interest to help the beneficial results of the child life of the city.

It is wiser and less expensive to save children than to punish criminals and it is evidently a fact that boys and girls would get into far less mischief if sufficient recreation places were provided, the danger to life by children using the street as playgrounds cannot be overestimated.

Is it often said, Woe to him who smiles not over a cradle. He who has not tried the companionship of children has carelessly passed by one of the greatest pleasures of life as one passes a rare flower without plucking it or knowing its value. The gleeful laugh of happy children is the best of music.

And when the playgrounds are open there is a notable falling off especially in large cities in juvenile delinquency, and there is no way of teaching a boy to be straight and honorable than to give him an opportunity to play normally with his fellows, even the inspiration of the school room cannot at times offset the evil influence of idleness, and the saddest fact of all is that a large percentage of the boys and girls are not even playing on the streets but merely sitting around.

But it is evident the citizens are becoming keenly interested in the playgrounds and summer camp work due in no small degree to the press. The publicity devoted to our actions is gratifying and encouraging. It must be admitted the attendance depends on the interest taken by the parents and in a large measure to the supervisors as they keep the ball rolling in all the activities.

Games and sports with the rising generation is a part of their education and education in all its branches was the provision made for the upkeep of our race, and the propagation of species. Nations have risen and decayed to the way in which they have been able to communicate their experiences and apply them to future needs.

And a most important function in children is the formation of character. Some of the greatest criminals had been men of the highest attainments and who had taken the highest degrees but they had been absolutely without character; therefore, every lesson, whether taught on the playgrounds or elsewhere, if taught in the right direction, should help to form the child's character. An old proverb says, "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty and he that can ruleth has spirit better than he who taketh a city." Many a man possessing good talents and ability had failed because they lacked self-control, which is a most essential quality in these days of turmoil, and true greatness was to develop self-control, and these points are instilled on the playgrounds, self-control and unselfishness as far as can possibly be done.

Selfish traits manifest themselves even on the playgrounds. This is checked by appealing to the boy or girl's better nature to play the game.

The interest of play is inherent in every person, and is the pre-eminent in the growing child and every city should encourage it to the fullest extent, settle the problem of the boys' leisure time and you have made a man is the wise conclusion of all social and welfare workers.

Those who have thought out this subject are quite convinced that legitimate pleasure will keep a child growing along the right lines; ninety per cent of the mischief into which boys fall is caused by undirected expenditure of energies in leisure hours; the activities of the playgrounds and other clean sport certainly help to diminish and reduce delinquency and act as a preventive force and to direct the child's superfluous energy to clean and healthy channels.

The games played on the grounds are league softball, boys' and girls' volley ball, horseshoes, soccer, checkers and swimming at the swimming beach, the girls at certain hours sewing and some of their handicraft deserves special mention and are shown at the fall exhibition. Their work consists making pillow slips, buffet cloths, cooking aprons, towels, centrepieces and raffia work, frames, cushions, etc.

A few minor accidents occur during the season, but our supervisors are versed in first aid work and as no serious developments resulted for the past six years and with an attendance of 250 to 300 children per day speaks louder than words.

And in conclusion the plea for supervised playgrounds is a plea for justice for the children. With such an increase of traffic we are literally crowding the children off the earth and we have no right to deny them their heritage.

The physical effects of the work alone are sufficient to justify the work but they are not the only benefits derived. The moral effects are also more than important and parents know the children are free from the dangers of streets and highways. Thus the playgrounds not only provides safety for the children but the work helps to raise the moral and physical standards of those who will be our citizens of to-morrow.

BENNETT GIVES SPIRITED REPLY TO GOV'T CHIEF

Will Stand or Fall By Pledges He Has Given People.

FAIR COMPETITION.

Only 6 Woollen Mills Left Result of King's Textile Tariff Policy.

RENFREW, Ont., July 17.—(C.P.)—With the general election only ten days away, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, yesterday returned to Ontario to address a gathering at Perth in the afternoon, and a crowd of 5,000 at Renfrew in the evening. To-day he moves on to Sarnia and Strathroy, shifting the battle front of the campaign from one end of the province to the other.

Resents Prince Albert Speech.

Premier King's speech at Prince Albert drew the fire of Mr. Bennett last night. "Mr. Mackenzie King," he declared, "loudly complained about the pledges which I have given to aid the people of Canada and to advance their interests.

"I say to Mr. Mackenzie King," continued the Conservative leader, "that if he had done his duty by you, all these pledges need not have been given. Does Mr. Mackenzie King expect that I will do what he through nine long years had done—nothing? Does he expect me to sit back with folded hands without doing my utmost to avert the tragedy which through his neglect now faces the business of this country?" The Premier was wrong if he expected all this, said Mr. Bennett, and he could not expect to be re-elected as the head of a government which had failed.

Stands By Pledges.

After summarizing his program again, Mr. Bennett declared, "these pledges I have made, and by them I stand or fall. They are each one of them for the good of Canada as a whole. He stressed the importance of the unemployment problem and charged that Premier King would not admit its importance until he visited the west, where he could see how serious conditions are. At the first session of Parliament, if elected, the Conservative leader promised to have laws enacted that would give Canadian industry fair competition, and Canadian workers plenty of employment.

Speaking at Perth yesterday afternoon Mr. Bennett said that where there were thirty-three woollen mills in 1920 there are now only six. "That is the result of the textile tariff policy of the Government of Mr. Mackenzie King," he charged.

TUESDAY July 22nd

in the interest of

Tom Carley

the popular Liberal candidate.

Mr. F. D. Kerr, K.C., and Mr. R. R. Hall, K.C., ex-M.P., both of Peterborough, will deliver stirring addresses.

Mr. Carley is the man who in this Conservative stronghold, will unfurl the banner that will wave triumphant on July 28th. Mr. Stinson, who has sat in the cold shades of opposition for so long, looks like the below sevens at a euchre party. They belong to the pack all right, but they are not figuring much in the game.—Adv.

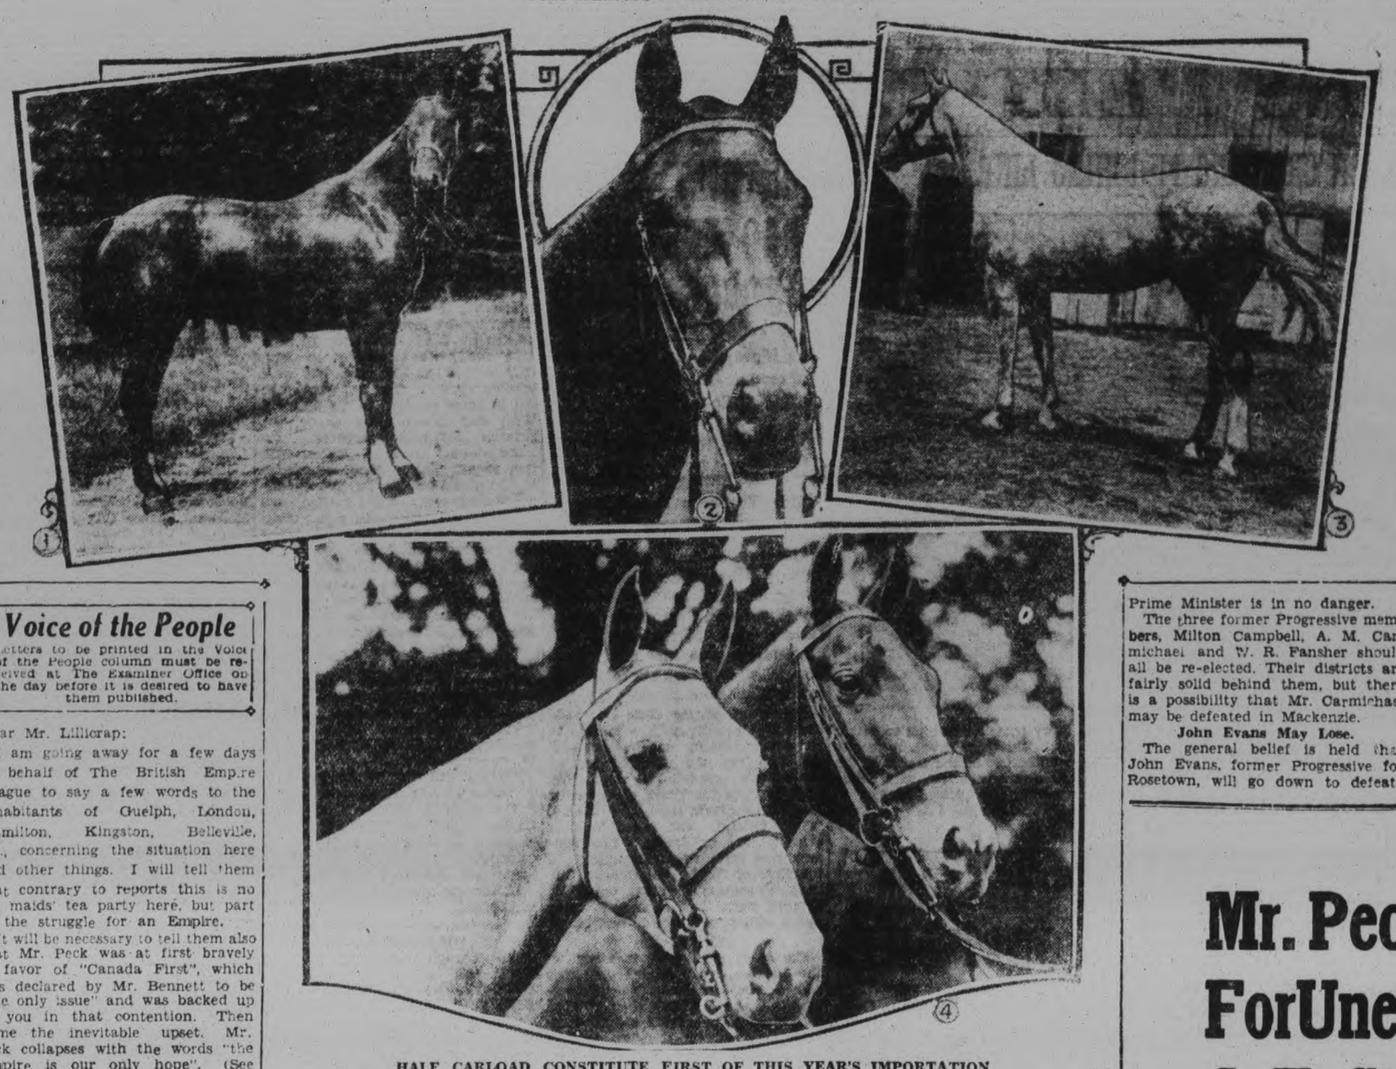
Fine Hunters From the Emerald Isle



HALF CARLOAD CONSTITUTE FIRST OF THIS YEAR'S IMPORTATION

The first half carload importation of Irish hunter horses to arrive in Canada this year came to Thorncliffe Stables, Ontario, in charge of Mr. Donaldson of Glaslough, County Monaghan, Ireland. This is his second visit to Canada, his first being to the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto last year. Here are shown: (1) Black Gypp, in middleweight class, has fenced a bit in Ireland before his advent to Canada. (2) "I'm just out from county Cork, Ireland," says Mallow, a beautiful brown 4-year-old hunter, "and I like the looks of Canada." (3) Glaslough, a heavy hunter type; stands 16 hands 2 inches high, weighs full 1,200 pounds and is destined to add materially to the prestige of the horse-breeding industry in Ontario. (4) Armagh and Bob's Baby, two beautiful head types among the new arrivals.

Voice of the People

Letters to be printed in the Voice of the People column must be received at The Examiner Office on the day before it is desired to have them published.

Dear Mr. Lillicrap:

I am going away for a few days on behalf of The British Empire League to say a few words to the inhabitants of Guelph, London, Hamilton, Kingston, Belleville, etc., concerning the situation here and other things. I will tell them that contrary to reports this is no old maids' tea party here, but part of the struggle for an Empire.

It will be necessary to tell them also that Mr. Peck was at first bravely in favor of "Canada First", which was declared by Mr. Bennett to be "the only issue" and was backed up by you in that contention. Then came the inevitable upset. Mr. Peck collapses with the words "the Empire is our only hope". (See Examiner of July 12; speech of Mr. Peck at North Monaghan).

Now what are you going to do Mr. L.? Are you with Mr. Peck and us or Mr. Bennett? Mind you I'm not responsible for the mess made of things. It is not my fault.

Au revoir.

A Confession of Trapper Pete

"It were way out in the big woods, one dark 'n wintry night. The wife all of a sudden-like, springs a sudden attack of lockjaw. Pronto, I puts on me furskins, me hip boots, takes up me old rifle and heads fer the doctor, who lived nigh onto twenty miles up the pike. She was a snowin' 'ard, and I hed to run, fer I knew thet if the snow got too deep in the passes I would be lost.

"I ran like skeered rabbit darn' near all the way. The cold, biting wind tore my clothing and frized my face, but I tears on, realizing that this was me only chanct, and Trapper Pete don't quit, I sez to meself.

"Ten hours later, I reaches the office of the doctor. Breathlessly and out of wind I stumbled up the stairs and knocks on the door.

"'Is the doctor in?' is whut I asks the girl.

"Jist then the old pill himself comes to the door. Quicker than lightnin' I puts me gun up to me shoulder and pulls both triggers, shootin' him dead.

"Since I hed done my job, I was ready to go home. The fellow I hed shot was the only doctor within two hundred miles or so, or I'd had to make the rounds. My wife hez lockjaw—hurray!"

A CARD OF THANKS.

By dire disease and pain brought down
To Jordan's silent, shelving side,
Till almost on my feet I felt
The laving of his chilly tide.
Naught was undone that love could do
Or earthly skill, to hold me here.
Neighbors and friends all kindly tied
In words and deeds of loving cheer.

And of my name was wafted up
To Heaven on lightsome wings of prayer
By those who knew that help and hope
In every time of need, were there.
And He, to Whom all power belongs
In Heaven above and earth beneath,
And holds in His Almighty hand
The issues of both life and death.

As once, by Salem's unstirred pool
He saw the hapless sufferer prone
And at a word brought sweet release
When every earthly hope had flown,
In tenderest love and pity, He
On me His healing balm outpoured,
Set me from wasting sickness free,
And life and health and peace restored.

And now to Him life's lengthened span,
With all its joy and bliss, I owe;
Longer to serve, and praise Him here,
Longer with loved ones here below;
To dear, kind friends and neighbors all,
my heartfelt gratitude is given.
But my devotions, warm and deep,
And highest praise, belongs to Heaven.

LIBERALS ARE GIVEN 14 SEATS IN SASKATCHEWAN BY W. J. ELLIS

four Progressives and one Liberal Progressive.

Taking the role of a prophet, always a dangerous thing to do, this writer forecasts the result of the present election as follows:—

14 straight Liberals.
1 Liberal Progressive.
3 Progressive Farmers.
3 straight Conservatives.

Two factors will enter the result of the election in Saskatchewan, both of which at the present time have political observers in a doubtful state of mind as to their effect.

How Will Young Vote?

The first is: To what extent is the unemployed problem liable to swing votes to and from the government; second: How will the young people vote?

On the first point, all political parties of the province recognize that unemployment has become the outstanding issue. In every urban centre the problem exists in a larger or smaller degree. Candidates and their supporters in all their public addresses devote considerable attention to the question.

To understand the situation as it has developed in Saskatchewan one must remember that last year the crop was short. There had been a heavy carry over from the year before; the crop came off short and sales were extremely difficult.

It is a common phrase in Western Canada: that when the farmer is prosperous everyone else is, and that when the farmer is in difficulties his position is reflected all down the line.

For the first time in many years the people of Saskatchewan are face to face with this fact in the most positive way. The farmer is hard up and it cannot be denied.

He is conducting his affairs with extreme difficulty.

In short crop and low price, the disinclination of the British miller a few months ago to buy Canadian wheat, over-expenditure a year or two ago when funds were free, all have brought him to the stage where the automobile he bought two years ago has to do service again and where he is retrenching every possible way.

Wages at the Minimum

His hired help on the farm has been reduced to the minimum. His sons are pressed into service, have been called back from the town and city school and college, and the result is that the transient casual labor which in spring always finds employment on the farms, has drifted to the city and is walking the streets.

In the urban centres the same condition exists, because the farmer does not come in to spend his money, the merchant and the office has reduced staffs owing to lack of business. Those cities who have in their confines industrial concerns have been reducing staffs because of a dropping off in production due to lack of purchase by the ordinary public, and so all along the line a condition has arisen which has resulted in over 2,000 unemployed in Regina alone. Civic authorities have strained every nerve to give work, but at the same time the problem is there.

What will these men and women do when they go to the poll? To answer that question one must remember that the leaders of the two major political parties have been in the province, have addressed huge meetings and have announced what they will do if elected to relieve the situation.

The Premier of Canada, speaking to over 7,000 people here a few nights ago told the people of the province that upon representation being made to him by the provincial government that the situation had got beyond control, he was prepared to spend dollar for dollar with the province and municipalities on any scheme which would bring tangible results to the unemployed. He suggested the building of subways at strategic points in the province to do away with level crossing and at the same time to provide work.

On the other hand Hon. R. B. Bennett, Leader of the Opposition, has also addressed a mass meeting here and elsewhere. It is difficult, even for an unbiased observer to definitely outline his plan for alleviating the problem. He has not come down with any specific solution, but has stated that if returned to power he will call parliament together to consider the question.

And that is the bill of fare before the unemployed from which to choose. The leaders of the unemployed, many of them keenly intelligent men, recognize that the problem in reality is two-fold, immediate and future. They recognize, as do the great majority of the electorate, that the Dunning budget does offer something for the future; they recognize, too, that the problem is not confined to Regina, Saskatchewan or Canada, but that it is world wide.

And so the problem presents a difficulty to the political chiefs all through the province and one can only reach a conclusion ahead of polling day based upon general views expressed in a variety of quarters.

Second Unknown Factor

I come now to the second unknown factor — the young generation. Throughout this city and elsewhere in the province there are hundreds of young men and women who will on July 28th cast their first vote. How will they go? There are two political organizations particularly applicable to them. The Liberals have the 20th Century Liberal Club, with 1,500 members in Regina, their officers state; while the Conservatives have the Canada First Club. The Liberals have the drop on their opponents in the matter somewhat by reason of having started the club many weeks ago; the Conservative Club began quite recently.

Each organization holds meetings night after night. Their followers hear the issues of the day as they are seen by the younger element. They address public meetings and generally flutter around like youngsters with their parents.

Dunning Will Be Elected.

But what effect their efforts will have on these young people is a difficult matter. This writer has observed a keener interest among the young Liberals lately than among the young Conservatives, and it may be that their efforts will result in the election of Mr. Dunning.

The Finance Minister will be elected. This writer does not hesitate to make this pronouncement. He has opposed to him a lawyer, F. W. Turnbull, and an Independent, R. A. Carman, the former is the stronger of the two opponents, and while making an impression, does not compare with Mr. Dunning either in platform ability or original personality. Mr. Carman has been away from the city for a number of years, and is not known to the present day population to an extent.

Last evening a note was injected into the campaign in Saskatchewan which undoubtedly will rebound to the benefit of the Liberals. Hon. Harry Stevens of Vancouver, launched a bitter attack upon Hon. Mr. Dunning and other Western ministers in connection with what he claims to be their lack of interest in the effort of the wheat pool officials to sell their grain in England last year he charged Dunning with being unsympathetic to the pool, but he appears to have lost sight of the fact that Mr. Dunning's record when Premier of Saskatchewan on wheat pool matters is known to every farmer of the province, and that had it not been for Mr. Dunning, it is doubtful if the pool would have reached its present position.

In Other Parts of Province.

Particularizing a little in other parts of the province, Hon. Mr. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, will have a tussle on his hands in the Melville constituency. He is opposed by a school teacher on the one hand and a farmer on the other. The railway vote C.N.R. is heavy, and will be a factor in this election.

The Prime Minister in Prince Albert will have no difficulty. His opponent, a farmer, is known only in the immediate district in which he lives, and while there are murmurings that many of the Ukrainian and Mennonite voters in this constituency are switching to the Conservatives, such owing, it is charged, to certain representations made to them by the Provincial Conservative Government, the fact is that the Prime Minister is in no danger.

The three former Progressive members, Milton Campbell, A. M. Carmichael and W. R. Fansher should all be re-elected. Their districts are fairly solid behind them, but there is a possibility that Mr. Carmichael may be defeated in Mackenzie.

John Evans May Lose.

The general belief is held that John Evans, former Progressive for Rosetown, will go down to defeat.

No particular reason can be assigned for this view. He has a Liberal and a Conservative opposed to him, and the feeling in the riding is that "it is time for a change."

The Deputy Speaker of Parliament, J. Fred Johnson, running in Long Lake, has a dentist from Regina opposing him as a Conservative, and Mrs. Ida McNeal as the representative of the Farmers. He should really retain the seat.

George McPhee, the Liberal member for Yorkton, is likely to go under, say political observers. He is opposed by the Mayor of Yorkton, Robert Barber, who is running as an Independent. He is in reality a Conservative. That party has placed one in nomination against him, and are out actively supporting him. It is more than likely he will not make the grade.

The other two ridings which may go Conservative are Maple Creek and Melfort. In the former, William Bock, the former Liberal member, has Mrs. Hollis running as the Farmer candidate, and a medical doctor as a Conservative. The doctor should win. In Melfort, Malcolm MacLean, the Liberal former member, had things his own way with Major Weir, Conservative, only opposed to him. However, a Farmer candidate has come in who will draw votes from MacLean. It is highly probable that these votes will enable the Conservatives to get in. Altogether, the task of summing up the Saskatchewan situation, difficult as it is there, appears good ground for believing that the Liberals will hold their own with the Liberal-Progressives of the last Parliament, John Millar, Indian Head, being elected, and sending to Ottawa a sufficiently strong representative to enable the Prime Minister to carry on.

Had Eczema on Limb For Twenty Years. Healed by Cuticura.

"Eczema broke out in a rash on my limb, below the knee. It was in a spot about as large as a half dollar and itched badly. When I scratched it water came from it and the eczema spread until nearly the whole side of my limb, below the knee, was covered. Later it became dry and scaled over, and the irritation kept me awake nights. I had it more or less for twenty years.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they helped me and before long I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. A. Palmer, Auburn, Nova Scotia.

Mr. Peck Offers No Remedy For Unemployment Problem J. F. Strickland Only Talks

Mr. Peck has no remedy for unemployment either here or anywhere else.

Neither has his leader, the Hon. R. B. Bennett; nor has the Conservative party.

And Mr. Peck doesn't pretend to have a remedy for unemployment. If he had such a remedy he would have proposed it a few weeks ago as a patriotic Canadian when he was still a member of Parliament.

Mr. Peck, Mr. Strickland and Mr. Corkery have been TALKING of unemployment not because they can suggest a remedy for it, but because they think they can attract the votes of those who may be temporarily out of work.

Mr. Peck would not blame Ramsay MacDonald for the industrial depression in Great Britain, where under the Labor Prime Minister the number of unemployed is approaching the 2,000,000 mark.

Mr. Peck would not blame President Hoover for the industrial depression in the United States, where, according to the New York Times, the number of unemployed is approximately 8,000,000.

For the same reasons no thoughtful man or woman will believe Mr. Peck and Mr. Bennett when they try to blame the Government of Canada for the trade slump that has reached us, the last country to feel the effects of this universal condition.

If Mr. Peck can cure this business depression, he is a greater statesman than Ramsay MacDonald, President Hoover and ex-Premier Stanley Baldwin.

Any person who votes for Mr. Peck expecting him to perform such magic of producing jobs overnight is simply swallowing a hook that hasn't even any bait on it.

WHAT'S MR. STRICKLAND DOING?

If any employment has been overlooked around here it is the construction of the highway east of Peterboro, which Mr. Strickland, as a go-getting substitute for W. H. Bradburn, was expected to hustle along after the elections last October.

Mr. Strickland hasn't the excuse of Mr. Peck that he is not on the Government side of the House; but the practical results are evidently the same in both cases.

Mr. Strickland is apparently unaware of any serious depression in Peterboro, otherwise he would doubtless sacrifice some of his hours at the Golf Club to start road work if it was needed in this community.

If Mr. Strickland were as willing to get busy and do something about the unemployment he bewails, as he is to talk about it, he might lend some much-needed assistance to Mr. Peck; but as it is he is just a liability on the Peck platform.

MR. STRICKLAND DOES NOTHING

For everyone knows that Mr. Strickland, who was thrust into W. H. Bradburn's safe seat, has done nothing. His inaction and evidently his indifference to the business depression discredits anything he says either in the country or in the city.

So, Mr. Peck and Mr. Strickland are weak reeds for any man to lean on who expects them to get him a job.

The one can't; and the other won't, if he can.

The Liberal policy is an industriall conference immediately after the elections, to consider the country's present needs and how to meet them.

But beyond that, Mr. Duffus stands for the Dunning Budget with its extension of trade within the British Empire, and especially the prospect of selling our 1930 wheat crop to Great Britain.

The United States slammed their door against Canada. We must build up our trade with those countries that will trade with us. And above all, with Great Britain and our sister Dominions.

A VOTE for DUFFUS

will register your desire to promote Trade Within the Empire.

Leafs Overcome Early Leads to Win Doubleheader

GUY CANTRELL WINS HIS 15TH LOOP VICTORY

Toronto Club Drives Petty to Showers With Four-run Attack in Second.

TWO FOR ROYALS.

Wings Increase Lead By Taking Third Straight Victory From Orioles.

Evidently the Rochester Red Wings have the Baltimore Orioles' number, for yesterday the champions defeated their chief rivals for the third straight day and thereby increased their advantage in the International to two full games.

The Red Wings' 5 to 4 triumph yesterday was the ninth in fourteen starts against the Orioles. Not only did Baltimore slip a game further back of the pace setters but also lost ground to he Torono Leafs, who won a double header with Newark, cutting down the advantage held by the Orioles to one game.

In defeating Baltimore for the third straight time, the champions were forced to come from behind in the closing innings. Going into the sixth the Orioles led 3 to 1, but in the last half of the inning, Martin sent the ball sailing over the fence with two on base to go out in front by one run. The Birds tied it up in the eighth, but Worthington's single scored Wilson with the winning tally in the Wings' half of the frame. Joe Hauser, home run leader, connected with his thirty-second homer of the season in the first inning.

The Leafs came from the rear to take both games from Newark; the first by the score of 11 to 5, and the abbreviated night cap 5 to 3. The Bears got away to a three-run lead in the opener, but the Leafs scored one in the first, three in the second, and six in the third to put the game on ice. Thereafter Manager Mamaux held the Leafs at bay.

Newark led the second game 3 to 1 up to the sixth, but in that round the Leafs got to Jess Petty, the big league star, and drove him to the showers with a four-run attack. Three of the runs, however, were scored off Don Brennan, although Petty put the men on base. The victory in the second game was Guy Cantrell's fifteenth of the season.

Two for Royals

The Montreal Royals also took two games, defeating Reading 6 to 0 and 2 to 1 in a nine-inning game, which was scheduled to go only seven. Closset received credit for winning both games. He went the entire route in the opening contest, and then stepped in to hurl the last 1 1-3 innings of the final fracas.

After losing the first two games of the series, the Jersey City Black Cats came back to triumph over Buffalo 9 to 6. Shannon, playing shortstop in place of Pittenger, led the Cats' on four Bison hurlers, pounding out a triple and a single to drive in three runs. In addition, he also scored twice himself.

SCOTS VS. PACKERS ON FRIDAY NIGHT

On King Edward Park. Kick Off at 6.45 Prompt. In a League Game.

To-morrow night the Caledonians meet the Canadian Packing in a league game on King Edward Park. Kick-off at 6.45 o'clock. Referee, Alexander McKinley.

The Packers have won two and lost one in the league schedule and they expect to annex another two points from the Scots, who have only won one and lost two. In the last tussle the Scots played in the league they trounced C.G.E. in one of the best exhibitions of the code seen this season. If the Scots win, it will put them in the same position as Packers.

A double schedule has to be played, so it is a long way yet to declare a winner, and anything is liable to happen to upset the dope at the present time.

C.P.C.—C. Griffin, goal; F. Wade and A. Downer, full backs; J. Cross J. Buchan and A. Bromley, halves; N. Downer, A. Beggs, Rickard, T. Foster and R. Preston, forwards. Reserves, J. Willshaw and H. Bradley.

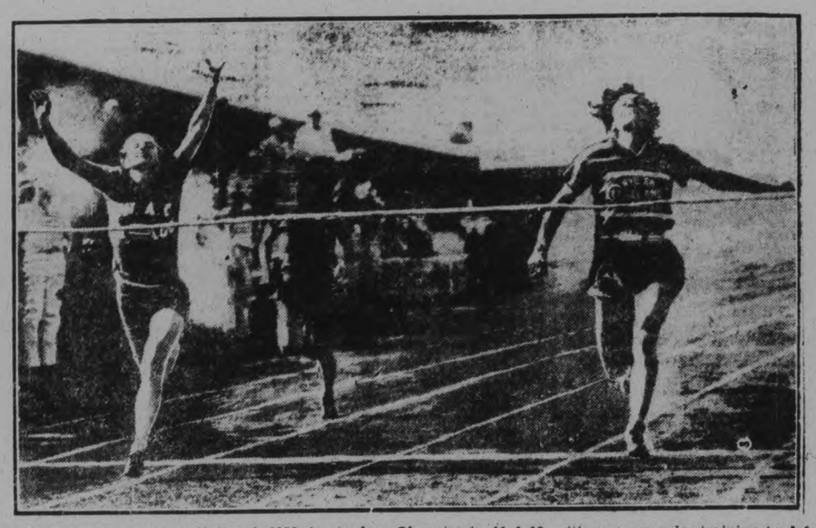
Caledonians — J. Ward or Newman, goal; A. Bogie and J. Pottie, full backs; D. Best, T. Craig, and J. Emery, halves; W. McCracken, J. Cook, B. Curtain, J. Dixon, and A. B. Coyle, forwards. Reserves, A. Graham and S. Agnew.

Leaders Slip In Big Six Averages

Big Six averages again fell off yesterday, although every active player got one or two hits. Al Simmons registered the day's single gain, getting two hits in five times up to add a point to his fourth-place average. "Chuck" Klein held his own at .397 by hitting two out of five. Frank O'Doul hit but once in five tries and lost three points, going down to .403 without endangering his lead. "Babe" Herman went to the plate seven times and hit twice, losing two points and holding third place by a one-point margin over Simmons. But Sam Rice fared even worse, getting but two hits in nine times up and dropping four points to .377. "Babe" Ruth's bad finger kept him idle.

BRINTONS MEET CALEDONIANS IN CUP FINAL

STELLA WALSH CROSSING FINISHING LINE



At the annual women's National A.A.U. title meet of the United States held in Dallas, Texas, this month, Stella Walsh of Cleveland, the sprinting sensation of the year, defeated Betty Robinson of Chicago, the winner of the 100 metre sprint at the 1928 Amsterdam Olympics in 11 1-10 seconds. The photograph above shows the finish of final with both wonder girl sprinters reaching the tape almost at the same time. On the left is Betty Robinson with her typical finish. On the right is Miss Walsh, with every muscle straining to defeat her rival. This photograph resembles to a marked extent the finish of the 100 metres at Amsterdam, with Bobby Rosenfeld in the picture instead of Stella Walsh.

CHICAGO FAILS TO GAIN ON THE BROOKLYN CLUB

Break Even in Double-header at National Leader's Home Grounds.

NEAR RIOT STARTED.

Giants Lose 8-1 Decision to Reds While Phillies Defeat Cardinals 10-5.

The current status of the National League's latest baseball battle of the season is a standoff with perhaps a slight tinge of moral victory for the Brooklyn Robins. Brooklyn got only an even break as they opened their all-important series with the Chicago Cubs in an exciting doubleheader, but they remained in first place by a three game margin and left the Cubs too far behind to overtake them even by winning all the remaining games of the series.

Near Riot Started

Chicago started off well as Pat Malone pitched a five hit game and the Cubs won it 6 to 4, but Wilbert Robinson countered with old Adolfo Luque in the second contest and the Robins backed him up with some heavy hitting to win 5 to 3. Adding to the excitement of a crucial series and a capacity crowd of 31,000 with some 10,000 more fans turned away, Del Bissonette knocked himself out sliding into the plate in the first game. The fans thought Gabby Hartnett was the cause of the damage and started tossing pop bottles, Luque and his rival, Charley Root became embroiled over a "dusting off" incident and two coaches and Manager McCarthy of the Cubs were chased by the Umpires for various reasons.

If the Cubs win all three games that are left, they still will be a few games behind first place, although tied in games, and must then tackle the New York Giants while the Robins are entertaining slightly easier opposition in the St. Louis Cardinals.

Neither the Giants nor the Cards looked like serious opponents yesterday. They both were victims of hitting sprees by low ranking clubs. The Giants lost and 8-1 decision and the series to the Cincinnati Reds as Red Lucas gave a few less hits than his mates made. Phil Collins kept the Cards under control while the Phillies were pounding out a 10 to 5 victory.

The second division leaders, Boston and Pittsburgh, divided a double header. The Braves won the first contest, 4 to 2 with a ninth inning rally behind Tom Zachary's five hit pitching, but went down 9 to 5, in the second although they made 13 blows, including Wally Berger's 25th home run.

FORT WILLIAM OUT OF CONNAUGHT CUP

Hamilton Thistles Held to Tie, But Win Round By 3-1.

TORONTO, July 17. — Hamilton Thistles qualified to meet Montreal C.N.R. in the Connaught Cup Interprovincial play off by virtue of a clean cut 1 to 1 victory over Canadian Legion of Fort William in a two game series for Ontario honors. Thistles and Fort William met in Monday evening the "Jags" earning a 2 to 0 advantage to carry into the final at Ulster Stadium last night.

The best Thistles could do last night was to hold the Legion to a 1-all tie. After many interesting exchanges Thistles scored first when Chambers accepted a McKean to elude Simpson with a nice effort in the first twenty minutes of play. Fort William equalized near the interval Izzatt connecting with a McMillan centre giving Wallace no chance to save.

The Thistle eleven were content to hold their advantage, which they did successfully until the final whistle. The game was only fair, neither eleven displaying championship cali-

ATHLETICS ADD TO LOOP LEAD

Slam Out 14-7 Victory Over Chicago as Each Team Makes Fifteen Hits.

SENATORS SPLIT EVEN.

The American League produced two tight pitching battles and three one sided slugging bees without important changes in the standing. The Philadelphia Athletics added a half game to their lead over Washington by slamming out a 14 to 7 victory over Chicago as each team made 15 hits.

Seven runs came in the second inning before Hal McKain checked them with eight strikeouts.

Washington divided a pair of heavy hitting games with the Cleveland Indians. The Senators triumphed in the first contest 11 to 4 as Al Crowder won his sixth game in eight starts for Washington, but Bump Hadley and two successors fared badly and Lefty Shoffner did very well in the second game and Cleveland won by a 13 to 6 count, all the Senator runs coming in the last inning.

Ed Wells of the New York Yankees and Walter Stewart, rival southpaw from St. Louis, put on the leading pitching duel of the day and the Yankees gained a 2 to 1 victory on a pair of home runs, one by Harry Rice and the other by Lou Gehrig. The Browns got five hits and the Yanks seven. A few more blows turned up at Detroit where the Tigers beat the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 2, but the battle was close all the way with Earl Whitehill getting the decision.

BRINTON TWO PACKERS ONE; SOCCER MATCH

After Ninety Minutes Play Score Stood at One Each. James Equalised.

GRIFFIN BRILLIANT.

James' Lightning Drive Allowed Jones To Score The Winning Counter In Extra Time.

After battling for two hours, the Brinton Athletics managed to get the verdict from the Canadian Packing in the semi-final of the Phelan Charity Cup by the score of two goals to one. The first ninety minutes failed to relieve the dead lock as the score stood at one goal each, the Brinton getting their last tally through a penalty with a minute to go, James making no mistake with the shot from the spot kick just as the whistle sounded full time. Four minutes from the finish of the extra time, Jones placed the ball in the net after Griffin had failed to clear from a shot by James. The winners now meet the Caledonians in the final of the Phelan Charity Cup next Wednesday evening on King Edward Park. This is sure to bring out a still larger crowd than usual.

First Half.

Choice of goals went in favor of the Brinton, both men playing new men on the front rank. The first excitement came when the Brinton left winger carried the attack down into the Packers' territory to test the qualities of the custodian. Play ran from end to end with individualism predominating, and in this respect Anderson excelled. He beat three men in succession, drew the full backs out of position so that he would get a shot at goal but his parting drive found Griffin right there to avert a counter. A little later the Packers' goal keeper made a brilliant one handed save to concede a fruitless flag kick. From the resultant centre, the custodian ruled the situation against three opponents. Time and again the Packers' front rank would penetrate the defense to finish poorly, in fact, Newt Downer being the only marksman. As the pace continued at a very fast rate, the players never gave up trying to get a tally. At this time the Brinton held the upper hand and could do anything but score. Repeatedly they travelled inside the shooting area to find Charlie Griffin being the obstacle in the way to success. The Packers' goal keeper handed a kinds of shots rained at him—in fact he gave one of the best displays of goal keeping in many years. On one occasion Hotson made an opening right in front of goal for his centre men who accepted the pass but he used his wrong foot to lose a great chance. No sooner had this transpired, Beggs was at the other end giving Curtis, Brinton custodian, a fright with an oblique shot that he had difficulty in clearing. Just before the interval, Jones on an individual effort beat the full backs cleverly with the ball at his toe. He sipped across to the left to get a proper aim. Griffin anticipating the movement ran ou of goal to nullify his shot as he banged it against him.

Half time. No scoring.

Half Time.

The same line up took their position without any change in the second moiety. The first brush came when the Brinton forwards played combination to get into a favorable position. James grasped the ball at the proper time to get a lightning drive at goal which Griffin diverted out of danger with a one-handed save. Jones let drive from close range to pick the near corner but the attempt failed to get the Packers' goal keeper guessing, who stooped down quickly to come out from the players with the ball and kick clear. For the next ten minutes, the winners held the Packers to their own territory and Charlie Griffin in goal outplayed the opposition from every angle that they attempted to break through with the ball. After keeping the ball in the Packers' vicinity, Buchan came to the rescue with a well planned attempt to beat the bombardment. He carried the ball up the field and shot it along the ground to his centreman in between the full backs. A little hesitation on the part of the full backs permitted Preston to jump in between to gain possession of the ball and without any thought of his company he banged a lightning left footer in the net past Curtis.

With a goal tallied against them the Brinton opened up a continual bombardment on the Packers' goal, with Cross and A. Downer working over time in nullifying the onslaught. As the game progressed, each team endeavoring to get an opening worth while. No matter what was attempted the half backs broke up the attacks with ease, then concentrated in making openings for their attack, the Brinton team being far superior in both lines. It was a battle to the limit with the Packers' goal keeper holding the Brinton scoreless until the last minute of the 90 minutes, when Bromley gave away a penalty. Captain Westwood allocated the kick to James who bulged the net with the rocket drive with only a few seconds to go of the full time.

Full time: Canadian Packing 1; Brinton Athletic 1.

Extra Time.

The spin of the coin was again taken to decide the pick of goals, the players battling out the issue for the next twenty minutes. It was interesting to watch the tactics displayed by the men in an attempt to break the dead lock. The Brinton were the more aggressive, in fact, they dominated the play, but were terribly weak in shooting. The first ten minutes resulted in no decision. With only ten minutes to go, the Brinton forwards peppered the Packers' goal from all angles. Still they found the custodian the master of the situation but he had to admit defeat when James rattled the ball into goal from the right wing. The sting of the drive compelled the Packers' goal keeper to drop the ball out of his reach; Jones seeing the opening ran into place the sphere over the line. They went on the defensive afterwards to hold the lead of two goals to one.

Brinton Athletic 2; Canadian Packing 1.

Canadian Packing: C. Griffin,goal; J. Cress and A. Downer, full backs; A. McCracken, J. Buchan and A. Bromley, halves; J. Wilshaw, N. Downer, R. Preston, A. Beggs, and W. Grant, forwards.

Brinton Athletic: W. Curtis, goal; F. Lucas and D. Green, full backs; J. Creighton, T. Westwood and E. A. Bayliss, halves; H. Hotson, W. James, E. Jones, J. Anderson and J. Boon, forwards.

GROCERS RETAIN SOFTBALL LEAD

Score 20-18 Decision Against C.G.E. Team in Poorly Played Game.

HOMERS PLENTIFUL.

Harrisons softball aggregate retain their lead in the City Softball League by their 20-18 win against the C.G.E. team at Central School grounds last evening, in a game which lacked any consistent exhibition of ball and which was a series of good hitting and loose fielding, all round.

Some discussion was caused in the 'Generals' second innings when Martin popped an infield fly with a man on first and second. The umpire declared one man out.

Playford batting for the Sunoco Boys had two home runs to his credit, while the opposing team also had two home runs made by Gore and McLeish.

Montgomery on the mound for Harrisons had ten strike outs to his credit although the support from his teammates was lacking. Gore the opposing catcher also played good ball.

The line-up:

Harrisons — Playford, cf; Dobson, c; Crary, 2b; Montgomery, p; Lebarr, ss; Nicholls, lf; Wilshaw, 3b; Smith, 1b; Clarke, rf.

C.G.E.—Webb, 3b; Wilson, 2b; Routley, 2b; Miller, lf; Griffin, cf; McDonogh, rf; Gore, c; McLeish, 1b; O'Toole, ss; Martin, p.

ADVANCE SALE ON TITLE BOUT OVER $125,000

Fans Begin Taking Notice and Box Office Shows Effects.

BRUEN SEES $225,000 GATE.

Graham McNamee to Announce Fight Over the N.B.C. Network.

NEW YORK July 17. — Promoter Frank Bruen announces the advance sale has passed $125 000 and predicts the gate will reach $250,000.

Bookmakers offer 8 to 5 that Al Singer will defeat Sammy Mandell.

Speculators ask $50 for patron press seats.

Mandell can't make the weight, and Singer has bad hands.

It's the day of another championship boxing match in Little Old New York, with its usual clamor and predictions and reports. Mandell, the lord of the lightweights, will defend his title against Singer, most opular of all New York boxers, in a 15-round bout at the Yankee stad-

The fight has sneaked in and caught the big town napping so to speak. For a contest of such importance it has received comparatively scant attention in the periodicals and poolrooms of the city. The citizens are still resentful over the treatment they received from Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling.

Business Picks Up.

Still, hope blooms eternal in the fight fan's soul and he is beginning to think that maybe he might miss something if he isn't there when the bell rings to-night. Business began to pick up to beat the band around the box office yesterday.

Up to the last few days the fight fan has been under the impression that Singer was in there for what he could make out of the loser's end but the state of the odds and the insistent reports that Mandell is having trouble making weight has begun to excite his curiosity. Also, it is the general verdict of the experts that Mandel is not nearly so fast as he was a year ago.

KANE DOESN'T SHOW UP.

Graham McNamee N.B.C. announcer was approved as the announcer for the fight at yesterday's meeting of the Boxing Commission. Eddie Kane who said he would demand a showdown on the in-the-bag reports failed to show up. He was informed that the commission had no time to waste discussing such matters. No one connected with the match has paid any attention to the reports. Mandell had fought ten years to build up a reputation and it is hardly likely that he would go wrong now.

Refused Title

Last week Miss Betty Edwards, Toronto, shown above, went to Detroit and competed with 21 American girls for the one mile Ohio state swim championship. The Canadian girl won in 7 minutes and 50 seconds, but after winning was refused the title, it being claimed she had entered the race as a "guest."

CHAMPION GIVES GOOD DISPLAY IN BRIEF WORKOUT

Confident He Can Retain Lightweight Title For the Fourth Time.

HANDS ARE STRONG.

Dispels Belief By Some Fans That His Work is Becoming Slower.

ORANGEBURG, N.J., July 17.—You'd not be among those who think that Sammy Mandell had slowed up if you viewed him here going through his final and sharpening floor exercises before defending his lightweight title against Al Singer at the Yankee Stadium tonight.

For Sammy, as he danced springily in shadow boxing, skipped the rope with vigor, punched the bags with vim, and yanked on the pulleys energetically, certainly did not appear a wan fellow yesterday. The next to closing training demonstration, in fact, served as ample proof to many that the lightweight champion will enter the ring at his strongest and ready for what he believes will result in one of the hardest fights of his career.

"Isn't that just what I told you?" Barney Furey, Sammy's trainer expostulated. "I said that when he really begins taking off weight he would get faster all the time. Watch him in the ring on Thursday n'ght. Boy, watch him smoke!"

Sammy Confident.

The Signor himself seems very well satisfied with his condition as he is about to end training. Samuel, too, is quite convinced that he will produce a great fight and for the fourth time retain his lightweight title, a dearly-prized possession to him.

"I will not say that I hope to win over Singer by a knockout, but the possibility of such an occurrence is not exactly beyond a'l chance of realizat'on." said Sammy. "I have never seen Singer box, but I believe I know enough about his style to anticipate just about the kind of battle to wage against him."

In Excellent Shape.

Mandell comes out of the training grind without a scratch and with h's hands in a stronger condition than at any time during his career he states. Walking and running exercises have strengthened his legs for a fast pace over the fifteen-round route if that is found necessary.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP TO BE BROADCAST TO-NIGHT

A blow by blow description of the 15-round Singer-Mandell fight for the lightweight championship will be broadcast from the ringside at Yankee Stadium to-night, the National Broadcasting Company announced late yesterday afternoon.

Graham McNamee, ace NBC announcer, assisted by George Hicks, will report the bout, McNamee giving a blow by blow description and Hicks summarizing between rounds.

The fight broadcast is scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, E. D. T. WJZ will transmit it to the New York area.

SEMI-FINAL ROUNDS IN ONTARIO TENNIS

Net Stars Will Clash To-day Under Perfect Weather Conditions.

HAMILTON, Ont., July 17. (C.P.) Semi-final rounds will be staged in the Ontario tennis tourney being played at the Hamilton Tennis Club to-day under perfect weather conditions.

The feature match will be played at 5 o'clock when Walter Martin, Toronto and Regina, ranking tennis star, will face Jack Delara, of Southern California, who proved yesterday that he will have to be carefully watched, when he handed Proctor of Toronto, a two-set trimming. The Californian is a southpaw, and has probably the best forehand and backhand of all the long list of aspirants for the Ontario honors.

Gilbert Nunns, Canadian Davis Cup star, hooked up with Les Hiltz of McGill at 2 o'clock while Ludlow who is another Californian of note, played Margeson of Toronto.

The winners of the above quarter final matches will then be in the semi-finals with Leroy Rennie, another Queen City Star.

England has motorcycle football.

Dogs may now be shipped by air express in France.

End of the Trail For "Old Pete" Alexander; Veteran Thinks He Has Had Enough of Ball

DALLAS, Texas, July 17. — Facing baseball oblivion after 23 years of yeoman service unless he was claimed at the waiver price by nightfall, old Grover Cleveland Alexander sat in his hotel room here to-day apparently indifferent of the fates.

Suspended by the Dallas Steers last night for continued infraction of the training rules, "Old Pete," who can remember when he used to receive a thousand dollar bonus if he won 25 big league victories a season— and collected the bonus for eight straight years—was not particularly bothered by his baseball "future."

He didn't know whether he would care to try a hitch with another Texas League cvlub even if he were claimed at the bargain price of $1,500.

"Maybe I've had enough," the veteran said. "Ever since 1907 I've been tossing 'em up there. The old arm isn't what it used to be. I used to turn a ball loose and watch it flit by a batter. Now I watch it go up there and wonder what's holding it back."

Like a legion of baseball stars who have given their best years to the game, Alexander has reached journey's end without a surplus of worldly goods. He has made plenty and has spent most of it. He has a home in St. Paul, Neb., but little else.

"One thing I can say," he remarked, "I've given more to baseball than it's given me. I've never been a 'goody-goody' boy, but I stayed in there and pitched."

There will be plenty of excitement before second place is decided in the local series, the winner to meet Canadian Generals in a series for the championship. Raybestos and Oshawa will figure in the finals of the Lakeshore League after which the winners of the two leagues will meet in the first round of the O. B. A. A. Intermediate playoffs. With such well known players as Heckman, Dainty, Utronki, Hardill, Johnston, Rose, Collins and many other filling prominent roles in these games, Peterborough and district fans have no cause for complaint.

LEROY RENNIE WINS FROM HOFHEIM

Toronto Net Star Gives Impressive Display—Miss Curry Eliminated.

HAMILTON, July 17.—Four Toronto players, two from Southern California and one from McGill are still in the running for the singles tennis championship of the Province as the result of matches played here yesterday, but by Thursday night three of this number will have been eliminated, as the schedule to-morrow will bring some of the strongest contestants into action.

The card to-day was productive of many features, the outstanding matches being supplied by the two Southern California players, Ludlow and De Lara, who supprprise by beating strong players from the Queen City in the quarter finals.

Holmes Extends Ludlow.

Ludlow was matched with Holmes, Toronto, and after losing the first set by a 3-6 score, he staged a strong finish to take the next two sets and the match, the second by love and the third 6-3. The tennis displayed by both players was spectacular, and attracted the attention of the largest gallery to witness a match since the tournament opened.

De Lara, travelling mate of Ludlow, was also victorious to-day, defeating Procter, another strong player from the Queen City in straight sets, but the California champion had to stage a sensational comeback to capture the first set and he won the second 6-1.

Leroy Rennie, Toronto, one of the favorites for the title, was at the top of his form in to-day's match against Horheim, strong United States' representative from Colgate, and won both sets by 6-0 scores. Rennie displayed enough class against his United States' opponent to-day to stamp him as one of the finalists. His serves were spectacular and he seldom allowed his opponent to get his shots to the back of the court.

PENNY RINGS DOOR BELL

Peddlers and tramps are out of luck if the invention recently patented in Holland is generally adopted. It is a doorbell which rings only when a penny has been dropped into the slot. Welcome visitors get their pennies back when the door is opened.

Four Maskinonge Weigh Twenty-nine Pounds

Four nice lunge, weighing pounds nine pounds, eight and a half pounds, seven and a half pounds and four pounds, respectively, making a total of 29 lbs. of lunge was the remarkable catch made at Bobcaygeon recently by a Mr. Davis, who had never done any fishing before but who got such a thrill out of his first attempt that he is now an enthusiast.

The catch was the chief topic of conversation for the last few days at Rockland House, Bobcaygeon, among the numerous tourists who are summering there. Also included in the fishing party was Miss Stauffer, with Stanley Nicholls as guide. Going out at about 2.45 one afternoon they returned inside of an hour and a half with their large catch.

IMPORTANT GAME ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Crescents and Cogs Will Meet to Decide Which Team Will Enter Play-offs.

Crescents and Cogs meet again tomorrow evening at Exhibition Park in another of their interesting battles to decide which team will enter the playoffs. It will be the only weekend game as the Lakeshore fixture for the Rays will be played in Port Hope on Saturday. Cogs refuse to be counted out and claim that if they can break their losing streak, more wins will follow.

There is nothing in the report that Ralph and Starr are leaving the Cogs to join the Crescents. The League Executive dealt with the matter at a meeting last night. The usual liveliness without which no East Peterborough League meeting would be complete, was in evidence but all business was squared away to the complete satisfaction of all concerned.

The fans will see much interesting baseball in the succeeding weeks

EMPIRE COMPETITIONS

Although the British Empire Games are still a month away yet, enthusiasm is already high in the Ambitious City of Hamilton, Ontario. The city has already spent approximately $200,000 on this monster meet which will bring as guests such outstanding men as Lindbergh, Lord Derby, Count Baillet-Latour, the international president of the Olympic games. Among the athletes there will be such figures as Lord Burghley, the Olympic 400 metre Hurdle champion; Bobby Pearce, the Australian sculler; Morgan of New Zealand, the Olympic boxing champion; Eric Liddell, the Scottish barson and Olympic middle distance champion; Walter Spence, the British Guianian swimming ace; O'Callahan of Ireland, who hurled the hammer further than anyone else at Amsterdam in '28 besides many others. Canada will present her big four in the sprints, Percy Williams, Leigh Miller, Johnny Fitzpatrick and Ralph Adams. (The two former are 9.3 men and the latter two are 9.4). They will clash with London and Cohen the British flashes, and Legge and Gerhardt of South Africa, all of whom are well in the 9.4 division. There will be no team competition. Only individual winners will be recognized. Special attention will be given to the time-keeping as it is fully expected that many world records will go by the boards.

LOCAL GOLFERS DEFEAT LINDSAY

P. G. C. Emerges Victors in Annual Competition By 40 to 19 Decision.

RESULTS ANNOUNCED.

Twenty-two members of the Lindsay Golf Club paid their annual visit to the Peterborough Golf and Country Club on Wednesday afternoon. The course is now in excellent order, and most of the matches were contested keenly, resulting in a victory for the local players 40 to 19.

Softball Notes.

When Westclox and Belmont Club hook up tonight fans should be treated to one of the best games of the series. Both teams are now at full strength and playing A-1 ball. Westclox have won their last two starts and are anxious to turn in another win and go into a tie with Harrison's, who are in first place due to last night's win. Belmonts took the Sugar Bowl into camp their last time out and are confident they can repeat with a win over the Clockmakers.

The game starts at 6.30 sharp and should draw one of the biggest crowds of the season. It will likey be a battle between two left-handers, Darling for Westclox and Galbraith for the Belmonts.

Friday night Sugar Bowl and Brintons will be opponents.

CRICKET

The Peterborough Cricket Club will be visitors to the Toronto C. C. at Armour Heights, Toronto next Saturday afternoon. Transportation will leave at 11 a.m. All players wishing to play are asked to be at practice tomorrow evening at 6:30 sharp.

STRANGE PETS FOR HOME

Unusual pets for the home were shown at the recent Housing and Health Exhibition at Glasgow, Scotland. Among them were springtailed geckos, girdle-tailed lizards, chamelions, a pet leopard, marmoset monkeys, small enough to fit into a tea cup, and fancy water fowl.

Jack Cameron Wins Ottawa Title

OTTAWA, July 17.— (CP) — Playing over his home course, Jack Cameron yesterday won the Ottawa and district men's golf championship when he hattled off a pair of 77's, for a total gross of 154, and set a mark that his nearest competitor failed to reach by two strokes. Rence A. McDougall, representing the Royal Ottawa Golf club, finished second.

Woman Rifle Shot Contending at Bisley

A woman rifle shot, Mrs. Dow, wife of a member of the Canadian contingent, who hopes to figure in the prize lists during the Bisley fortnight, lent color to the scene when the services' week opened. She wore a light khaki tunic and breeches, light blue hat, jersey and stockings. Mrs. Dow in her breeches is seen here accompanied by her husband.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S AEROPLANE.

Uncle Wiggily opened the door of the kitchen in his hollow stump bungalow where Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy was giving the breakfast dishes their bath.

"Are you going to use your ironing board right away, Janie?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"No, not until to-morrow," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper. "Do you want to take it?"

"If you don't mind," replied Mr. Longears.

"Don't tell me you are going to be so silly as to play at sliding down hill on my ironing board!" squeaked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "You are too old for that, Mr. Longears."

"No, I'm not going to make a hill of your ironing board!" promised Uncle Wiggily with a laugh. "I want it for something else."

He lifted the ironing board from the pantry and hurried outside carrying the long plank under one paw. He put the ironing board back of his garage and then hopped down the road to where Mrs. Twistytail, the lady pig, lived.

Mr. Twistytail laughed so hard that he fell out of the clothes basket.

"May I please take your ironing board for a while?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, yes, of course, Uncle Wiggily," grunted the lady pig. "Here it is," and she brought it out from behind her kitchen door. Uncle Wiggily hopped back to his garage with the second ironing board.

"I wonder what Wiggy wanted of my wife's ironing board?" thought Mr. Twistytail who came back from the store in time to see Uncle Wiggily hopping away with the long piece of wood. So the pig gentleman asked his wife who said:

"I suppose Nurse Jane broke her ironing board and she sent Uncle Wiggily to borrow mine. I don't see anything funny about that."

"Well, I do," spoke Mr. Twistytail. "And I'm going to find out." He waddled over to Uncle Wiggily's garage and there he found the rabbit gentleman fastening together with nails the two ironing boards in the shape of a cross, like kite sticks.

"What are you doing, Wiggy?" grunted the pig and Mr. Longears was so surprised, having thought himself all alone, that he gave a jump.

"I'm making an aeroplane," the rabbit gentleman answered after a while. "I had such a jolly good time riding on the tail of the mail pilot's plane last week that I'm going to make an airship of my own."

"What's the matter with the one you used to have, made from a clothes basket, with toy circus balloons to raise it up and an electric fan to make it skip along?" asked the pig.

"That is too old fashioned," Uncle Wiggily answered. "I want a new, up-to-date aeroplane such as Lindy uses. I think I can make one of these two ironing boards."

"Will you take me up for a ride if I don't tell my wife what you are doing with her board?" asked Mr. Twistytail with a cunning look on his big, fat face. "She thinks you borrowed it for Nurse Jane. But if I don't tell her you are making an aeroplane of it will you take me up for a ride?"

"Sure I will!" said Uncle Wiggily.

Then the pig gentleman helped him nail the ironing boards together until they looked quite like a ship of the air called a monoplane, that is with only one pair of wings.

"You'll need landing wheels," said Mr. Twistytail for he had often seen mail planes flying over his house and they had wheels.

"I've got some here," said Uncle Wiggily, bringing from his garage two rubber tired wheels that had once been on Baby Bunty's go-cart.

"Say, they're fine!" grunted the pig. He helped Uncle Wiggily fasten them on the ironing board aeroplane and then asked: "What about a cockpit for us to sit in when we go up and a steering wheel and a rudder and all that?"

"I will use the clothes basket of my old balloon airship for a cockpit on my aeroplane," answered Mr. Longears. "For a rudder I have taken my wife's bread board. She doesn't need it. And here is another baby carriage wheel we can fasten on to steer by. My aeroplane will soon be finished."

"Hurray!" cried Mr. Twistytail. "Then I can have a ride."

Soon Uncle Wiggily had finished as much of his sky ship as he thought he needed and he called:

"All aboard, Twisty!" The pig got into the clothes basket cockpit. There was hardly room for Uncle Wiggily but the rabbit managed to squeeze himself in in front of his friend. Mr. Longears took hold of the baby carriage steering wheel and called:

"Hold tight now." Up we go!"

"I'm ready!" grunted the pig. He waited. Uncle Wiggily waited. But, for some reason they didn't go up. Then, all of a sudden Mr. Twistytail laughed so hard that he fell out of the clothes basket.

FIREMEN FAVOR INSURANCE PLAN

Brotherhood Would Join Any Body To Preserve "Power Trust."

SEEK HIGHER WAGES.

MONTREAL, July 17 — (C.P.)— The convention of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Oilers yesterday went on record in favor of the institution of unemployment insurance in Canada and the United States and decided to join with any other organizations to prevent the growth and extension of the "power trust" on both sides of the international border.

The president of the order John F. McNamara told the gathering that negotiations were pending with the Toronto Hamilton and Buffalo Railway for higher wages and better working conditions.

He recalled that since the last convention agreements had been reached with the Canadian Pacific, the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario and the Quebec Central Railways, and added that the Union had enrolled the majority of men eligible attached to the Canadian National Railways.

TRIP UP TRENT HIGHLY ENDORSED

Finest Trip I Have Ever Had Declares U. S. Tourist.

CHANNEL WELL MARKED.

"This is the finest trip I have ever had with my boat," declared J. Q. Clarke of Buffalo, tying up at George Street Wharf with his cruiser "Lady Luck" yesterday noon. This is Mr. Clarke's first trip through the Trent Waterway. He is accompanied by two friends, J. A. Newport of Niagara Falls, Ontario, and J. W. French of Buffalo, as well as by his private chef.

The "Lady Luck" is a splendid cabin cruiser, 45 feet in length and with 3½ feet draught, built in Rochester especially for Mr. Clarke, a retired business man of Buffalo, several years ago. He has previously confined his cruising to Lake Erie waters, but is enthusiastic in declaring that the present trip surpasses anything he had ever hoped for in the line of cruising. The waters, he says, are quiet, the fishing excellent, and the lake and river scenery wonderful.

The party left Buffalo Saturday, making a slow trip through the Welland Canal, and striking rough waters in Lake Ontario. They will proceed as far as Georgian Bay, returning south by way of this city.

J. W. French—known as "Captain Joe" aboard—who is an American college student, is navigator for the present cruise. He experienced some trouble in obtaining Trent Waterway charts at Trenton, but was supplied with them when he reached Peterborough. It was announced, however, that the channel had been found to be so well marked that no difficulty had been encountered.

In the absence of the owner, The Examiner reporter was shown over the craft by J. A. Newport, a Canadian, head of the firm of J. A. Newport, Customs brokers, of Niagara Falls, Ontario.

The "Lady Luck" is built primarily for cmfort, but with her big Sterling engine is able to reach 18 miles per hour easily, according to Mr. Newport. A commodious cabin aft and another forward provide comfortable sleeping accommodation for four people. The spotless galley with its pure zinc fixtures is located in the prow. A spacious covered deck is situated amidships, a little cruising deck at the stern, and an open deck over the forward cabin.

The conveniences aboard include running water and a radio. Roomy storage space is a feature of the craft.

Why Not Go To Quebec And Talk, Mr. Burnham?

Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Mr. King's Secretary of State has been telling Ontario audiences that the people of Quebec are discussing exactly the same issues in this election as are the people of Ontario.

Mr. Burnham who denounces Hon. R. B. Bennett as a Canadian De Valera and a leader who wants to take Canada out of the Empire, is embarking upon a stumping tour of Ontario.

If what Mr. Rinfret says is true why does not Mr. Burnham go down to Quebec and tell the voters there that he is opposing the Conservative leader because he believes Mr. Bennett is anti-Empire?

NOT A CHANCE IN THE WORLD!

Mr. Burnham knows that the Liberal organization would not allow him to get up on a platform ANYWHERE IN QUEBEC AND TALK THE STUFF HE DOES HERE.

WHY?

Because in this campaign as in others the Liberal organization is playing the same old double-dealing miserable game of painting Mr. Bennett one color in Ontario and daubing him another shade in Quebec. While the Toronto Globe and Mr. Burnham, in Ontario, are condemning the Conservative leader as a man who would wreck the Empire, the Globe's old allies and Mr. Burnham's new friends down in Quebec are assailing Mr. Bennett as an "Imperialistic snake", an "Englishman" who is going to "take your sons to India to fight for England against the poor Hindu farmers."

What a travesty!

Could anything more clearly show the desperate straits in which the King government finds itself?

The old game is being tried once too often however. Certainly it will DECEIVE NO ONE IN WEST PETERBOROUGH.

The voters of this riding know that Mr. Burnham like that other letter-writing politician Mr. Gordon is JUST A PAGE OUT OF "WHO'S THROUGH", GOING NOWHERE AND TAKING NOBODY WITH HIM.

They have no time or patience to bother with sideshows when there are serious issues to be settled.

They know that there is unemployment, lean purses, that business, industry and agriculture are alike depressed, that a tough winter lies ahead and they are anxious to do their part in putting into power a government that will do some legislating for Canadians and that believes in providing WORK AND WAGES instead of words and charity for Canadian workers.

Thats why they're going to give E. A. PECK, Conservative candidate a record majority.

THEY'RE VOTING TO GIVE THEMSELVES AS WELL AS CANADA A CHANCE.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 13 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

When the king ape released the limp form that had been Lord Greystoke, he turned his attention toward the little cradle. Kala was there before him and, ere he could intercept her, snatched the child herself, dropping her own dead babe in the cradle, and bolted through the door.

High up among the branches of the mighty tree she took refuge, hugging the shrieking infant to her bosom. Then hunger closed the gap between them and soon he became quiet. The son of an English Lord and an English Lady nursed at the breast of Kala, the great ape.

Meanwhile the beasts within the cabin were warily examining its strange contents. Once satisfied they were dead, Kerchak did not again molest the body of either Lady or Lord Greystoke. Presently he halted before the rifle hanging upon the wall. Finally he tore it down and examined it closely.

The other apes sat huddled together watching their chief. Suddenly Kerchak's finger closed upon the trigger. There was a deafening roar! The apes fell over one another in their wild anxiety to escape. Kerchak, equally frightened, but still clutching the rifle, sprang through the door, which shut tightly after him.

The rifle-sight had caught upon the door's edge and the latch had sprung as Kerchak passed out. When the apes again brought themselves to approach the cabin, they found it securely fastened. After roaming about for awhile, they began their homeward march. And Kala joined them with the man-child.

OBITUARY

MRS. THOMAS HILL.

BURLEIGH FALLS, July 17.—The death occurred at her home in Harvey township on Thursday last of Mrs. Thomas Hill, formerly Eliza Jane Dawkins, at the advanced age of 77 years.

The deceased was born at Warsaw, eldest child of James and Catherine Dawkins, and came to Harvey shortly after her marriage, where she has resided since.

In her death passes one of the pioneers of the township, and her many friends sincerely mourn her demise. Her husband predeceased her six years ago.

She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, John and Richard, of Deer Bay; seven daughters, Mrs. A. Duggan and Mrs. Robert Freeburn, of Young's Point; Mrs. J. H. Thompson, of Mount Julian; Mrs. W. Lyttle and Mrs. Geo. Ireland, of Deer Bay; Mrs. C. Stinson, of Peterborough; Mrs. W. Lyttle, of Toronto; three sisters, Mrs. A. Welbourne, Mrs. J. Millage and Mrs. J. E. Galvin, all of Lakefield; and one brother, Geo. Dawkins, of Belleville.

She also leaves forty-four grandchildren and thirty-six great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Saturday at two o'clock from her late residence. The service at the house was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Walker of St. Andrew's, Hall's Bridge, and the Rev. Mr. Creighton, of St. John's, Lakefield, officiated at the grave at Hillside Cemetery, Lakefield.

The pall-bearers were William Windsor, Arthur Bolton, Michael Traynor, Melville Gillespie, Joseph Johnston, and Gordon Gillespie, all neighbors of the deceased.

The floral tributes showed in what high esteem the deceased lady was held and her children mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, while her many friends will miss her cheery word and helping hand.

MRS. JOHN KERR.

Mrs. John Kerr of Souris, Manitoba, who has been visiting in this city for the past month, passed away on Wednesday evening, following a lingering illness, patiently borne.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dawson of South Monaghan, and had lived in the West for a number of years. She leaves her sorrowing husband and two sons, Fred Walton Kerr of Detroit and John Bruce Kerr of Maymount, Saskatchewan, also two sisters, Mrs. P. E. Rutherford and Mrs. Dr. Marshall of this city, and two brothers, Harry Dawson of Bailleboro and Welford Dawson of Otonabee.

The deceased, who passed away in her 74th year, was educated at S. Monaghan School and for many years attended Bailleboro Methodist Church.

The funeral will be held on Friday from D. Belleghem and Sons' Funeral Home at 2.30 p.m., D.S.T., with Rev. J. E. J. Millyard officiating. Interment at Bailleboro Gemetery.

JOHN ANDERSON.

John Anderson passed away on Wednesday at his late residence 253 Princess street. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Edwards, and one brother in Winnipeg.

The funeral will be held from Comstock's funeral home on Friday at 11 a.m., with Rev. James L. Harton officiating. Interment at the Little Lake cemetery.

BIGGEST HUMBUG IS WAY PREMIER DUBS FERGUSON

Charges Tories With Seeking to Monopolize Politics.

SPEAKS IN KENORA.

Urges Constituency to Pile Up Huge Majority For Heenan.

KENORA, Ont., July 17 (By Ray Brown, C. P. Staff Correspondent)—Conservatives in Canada seek to monopolize politics as well as everything else, charged Premier Mackenzie King last night as he spoke in the riding of Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor. At his first Ontario meeting after a tour as far west as the Pacific Coast, the Premier said that three Conservative Provincial Premiers had thrown their weight into the election campaign on the Conservative side because "the Tories are after monopoly with greater thirst than ever before."

Speaks in Soo

Promptly after the Kenora gathering, at which he scored Premier G. Howard Ferguson of Ontario as "the greatest monopolist of them all," the Prime Minister and his party departed for Sault Ste. Marie, where he speaks to-night. The other two Premiers besides Mr. Ferguson, who are seeking to aid the Conservatives were Hon. J. T. M. Anderson of Saskatchewan and Hon. E. N. Rhodes of Nova Scotia.

Premier Ferguson was in the field for two reasons, claimed the Liberal leader; first, his desire for political control; second, because the Conservative party realized that the Government had a great issue, the desire to develop trade with Great Britain. "They know that the people of Canada are at heart British," Mr. King emphasized, "and knowing this, they realize that they must cover up the main issue at any cost."

"Of all the humbugs in public life, I think he is the greatest," the Prime Minister asserted, referring to Premier Ferguson, saying he had entered the campaign because of Mr. King's five-cent remark.

In the course of his speech, the Liberal leader told the electors of Kenora-Rainy River constituency that it was theirs to choose between being represented by a Cabinet Minister or by a gentleman on the Opposition side. He thought it would be a calamity if the Minister of Labor, who would certainly remain in the Cabinet in any event, was not given the largest possible majority.

QUALIFICATIONS—WET!

Twenty youngsters from Central School Playground took to the water at Inverlea yesterday afternoon in charge of the Board of Education's playground supervisors. The supervisors complained of the dirty water and the fact that sharp stones cut the children's feet. But the children didn't seem to mind, and continue to ask for more.

A REVIVAL.

At the annual playground picnic at the Oval on August 14, a checker tournament will share the limelight with a horseshoe pitching contest, in which the young "barnyard golf" addicts will have a chance to prove their skill.

EVERYBODY'S CHEWING IT NOW.

Appealing to the public taste, through palatable samples of their nationally known confection, in conjunction with artistic posters and advertisements scattered over a whole continent, two well-known chewing gum manufacturers are this week making an intensive drive in Peterborough and district. Attending ball games and waylaying pedestrians and motorists on the main streets, gaily attired advertising men and two charming members of the fair sex are forcibly calling attention to their company's wares, while a calliope mounted on a motor vehicle, is also doing considerable advertising. Playing all manner of catchy popular tunes, it is a never-failing source of interest as it cruises ceaselessly throughout the city during the daytime.

In Police Court

"Rubbing alcohol was this man's drink," Police Magistrate Langley was told this morning concerning a local man who faced him on a drunk charge. The man having pleaded guilty, it was explained by police that he had purchased a large bottle of the massaging fluid and had gone up near Nassau to enjoy the liquid amid the beauties and solitude of nature. He was charged as a first offender, but the magistrate suggested that it was more like his twentieth appearance under a similar charge. He was fined $20 and costs and will face another charge under the L.C.A. on Monday.

A Douro man was fined $10 and costs for mixing liquor with his pleasure at a lake summer resort.

WEDDING BELLS

BARRICK—HARRISON.

A very pretty summer house wedding took place at seven o'clock last evening at the home of Mrs. and Mr. J. C. Harrison, 733 George St., when their youngest daughter, Elizabeth, became the bride of William Barrick, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barrick of 223 Antrim Street.

The ceremony took place under a large white bell in the living room, which was decorated with a profusion of lovely flowers. The Rev. W. Allan of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was the officiating clergyman.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by F. G. Mann, L. Mus. She wore a lovely gown of white chiffon, sleeveless and made on fitted princess lines, with a cape and trimmed with silk lace. Her large white picture hat was also trimmed with lace. Her long gloves were of white silk, her slippers of white kid, with silk hose and she wore the bridegroom's gift, a brilliant necklace.

She carried a large bouquet of Talisman roses in apricot shades of bronze-rose, arranged with maidenhair fern and gypsophila and tied with a bow of white tulle.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. C. Turnbull, of Peterborough, as matron of honor and best man, and two little flower girls, Beverley Patterson, of Toronto and Shirley Harrison, of Peterborough.

Mrs. Turnbull wore pale pink georgette with matching slippers and hose and pink mohair picture hat. Her bouquet was of yellow Pernet roses, gypsophila and maidenhair fern, tied with a large bow of pink tulle.

Little Beverley Patterson wore a dainty frock of maize organdie and Shirley Harrison was in blue organdie. Both carried baskets of flowers; roses, carnations and gypsophila.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Gordon Patterson of Toronto, sister of the bride, sang "Until." Mrs. Patterson was frocked in maize georgette with matching hat and blonde shoes and hose. Mr. Charles Clark also sang after the ceremony, "Mine Alone."

A buffet wedding supper was served later, from a table done in white and pale mauve, arranged with carnations and Ophelia roses, and centered by the bride's cake.

Mrs. Harrison, mother of the bride, was in black chiffon with a small hat of orchid ribbon and corsage bouquet of sweet peas.

Mrs. Barrick, mother of the bridegroom, wore flowered chiffon, with matching hat and corsage of sweet peas.

At nine o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Barrick left by motor for a trip to Buffalo and New York. On their return, they will reside at 56 Wolsley Street.

The bride travelled in a smart ensemble of green and white silk, with a green silk tam, black shoes, atmosphere hose and green purse.

The young people received many handsom gifts from a large circle of friends. The bridegroom presented the matron of honor with a white gold pendant, the best man with a pair of gold cuff links and the little flower girls with bracelets.

LAPP—MURTY.

A lovely wedding took place at the Church of the Holy Name of Jesus, Buffalo, N.Y., on Tuesday morning, July 15, at 9.30 o'clock, when Miss Anne Patricia Murty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Murty became the bride of Mr. Henry Carney Lapp. The Rev. Father Ennis, officiated at the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of white satin and tulle, the fitted bodice and tiny puff sleeves being of princess lace. The skirt of tulle over satin was extremely long and full, and her veil of tulle was bordered in princess lace and caught with a crescent of orange blossoms. She wore satin slippers and long white gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and gypsophila.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Albert M. Kraus, her gown was of orchid chiffon, ankle length with a large bertha collar. The sash was of pastel green, and her large cream straw hat was trimmed in orchid and green. She carried pale pink roses, orchid sweet peas and gypsophila.

Mr. Albert M. Kraus, attended the groom and the ushers were Mr. William Murty and Mr. Anthony Murty. Mr. John Ball played and sang during the ceremony.

Mrs. Charles P. Murty, mother of the bride, wore a gown of poudre blue with hat to match, and a shoulder bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Henry Lapp Sr. was gowned in black and white silk with hat to match and a shoulder bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

A reception following at the Park Lane with covers laid for 35 at the bride's table, which was centeged with baskets of roses, larkspur, and sweet peas.

After an extended motor trip through the Adirondack Mountains and to Montreal and Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Lapp will be home after September 1st, at Peak Tree Road, Buffalo, N.Y.

The bride, whose parents formerly resided in Peterborough, is a niece of Mr. James Murty, 380 Brock Street, and a graduate of St. Mary's Convent, Peterborough and of Mount St. Mary, Buffalo. Mr. Lapp is a graduate of Canisius College, Buffalo and of the University of Buffalo Law School.

servatives? It was because the Tory party had always stood for monopoly. It wanted monopoly of control in politics as well as in everything else, and Premier Ferguson was the greater monopolist of them all. "It's monopoly the Tories are after", Premier King charged again. "They have been after it all their lives. But they are after it with greater thirst than ever before at the present election."

Attacks Fiscal Policy

Also in Ontario, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader renewed at Perth his attack on the fiscal policy of the King Government. He cited various Ontario towns where he charged woollen mills had been closed. "That", he exclaimed, "is an illustration of what happened in consequence of the action taken by our government", he attacked the New Zealand trade agreement and declared that creameries in Canada were now buying New Zealand butter, working it and selling it to the people of Ontario.

Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State in the Dominion Government, declared that if Liberals were returned the sales tax would be abolished. Ald. Factor, Liberal candidate in Toronto West Center, told an audience in his constituency that Premier King had told him he would receive a cabinet appointment — if elected.

Freighter Hits Berg Off Belle Island

LINER ATHENIA IS STANDING BY TO SAVE CREW

Ship With 6,700 Tons of Coal For Montreal Strikes in Fog.

TWO HOLDS FLOODED.

All Rescue Efforts Held Up Until Weather Clears.

MONTREAL, Que., July 18 (C.P.).—Steaming along in a dense fog early to-day, the freighter Dalyran, carrying 6,700 tons of coal from Swansea to Montreal, rammed an iceberg and stuck fast on a ledge, 11 miles northwest of Belle Isle, in the Straits of Belle Isle, according to information received by agents here.

Athenia Stands By.

In reply to a call for assistance, sent out by the stranded vessel, the Cunard liner S.S. Athenia, en route from Liverpool to Montreal, is standing by to take off the crew.

Details as to how the vessel struck the berg and later grounded were not clear here, according to the agents, the Canadian Importing Company. The firm stated the vessel had only recently been launched, and they were unable to say who was in command. It was believed the crew comprised 35 men. The ship is owned by Campbell Brothers of Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Captain Black of the Athenia reported there was a dense fog covering practically the whole of the Strait and the presence of icebergs made navigation difficult. His ship would stand by and do everything possible to assist the freighter off the reef.

Crew in No Danger.

It was learned the two holds of the Dalyran were shipping water, and it may be necessary to abandon her.

Shipping men stated that no efforts could be made to pull the vessel off until the weather cleared. It was not thought the crew was in any great danger.

SEIZING OF MACE BRINGS PROTESTS

Conservatives Would Have Beckett Suspended Rest of Session.

GIVES EXPLANATION.

LONDON, Eng., July 18. (C.P.) — Suspension for the remainder of the Parliamentary session of John Beckett, the Laborite, who scandalized the House of Commons by seizing the Speaker's mace, and bolting for the door, was asked to-day in motions to the House presented by five Conservative members.

Beckett said to-day that he had written to the Speaker explaining that he meant no disrespect to him personally by his act of yesterday.

Asked what induced him to snatch up the mace Beckett said: "I was feeling angry at what had happened before and wanted to make a protest. I meant to get it out of the House in order to call attention to the matter against which we were protesting, the way Brockway had been treated over India. If I had gotten out with it I would have deposited it in the cloak room and left the House."

Disappointed Visitors.

The Laborite, who recently became the husband of the actress, Kyrle Bellew, added, "the only thing I'm sorry about is that the incident must have disappointed some American visitors to the House. Mr. Brockway told me was expecting them and I had offered to look after them for him. But of course neither of us was able to meet them.

Brockway, who has started all of the trouble by breaking into the question period with a fiery Indian address, was expected before his colleague but they left together.

Pup Buried Alive To Learn Lesson

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. July 18.—Panama Park residents listened all night to the howls of a suffering dog. When morning came some of them went to the residence of L. N. Gurgin to see what was wrong.

They found a five months old puppy buried, only his muzzle protruding above the earth.

"I'm just training him not to dig holes in the ground," Gurgan explained. "I've trained three others the same way."

Gurgin was released under bond to await sentence which Judge T. M. Anderson said he was "too angry to even think of passing now."

24-Pound Muskie Caught in the Trent

TRENT RIVER, July 17.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—Record catches are being made here by fishermen. A 24-pound muskie, measuring 46 inches was hauled in on Monday by a guest at Cedar Isle Lodge. Another party the next day caught four big ones weighing 12 pounds each.

Fred White, well-known guide, on the same day landed an 18-pound lunge.

Everyone appears to be doing it, because reports of big catches are coming in daily, and there will be many entries in The Examiner big fish contest.

REICHSTAGS VOTE ON TAX MEASURE BRINGS ITS FALL

Revoking of Financial Measures Nullified By Bruening's Action.

DISSOLUTION AT ELECTION.

Crisis Precipitated Mainly By Bachelor and Bachelor Maid Taxes.

BERLIN, Germany, July 18 (Canadian Press). — The sword of dissolution which had been hanging over the Reichstag ever since the Bruening Cabinet came into power determined to push through its financial reforms, finally fell to-day.

Vote Passes 236 to 221.

Knowing that Chancellor Bruening had President Hindenburg's authorization to send them home if they revoked his revised program, which earlier in the week he had pushed through under Article 48 of the constitution, the Reichstag members nevertheless to-day passed, by 236 to 221, a motion revoking the Cabinet's measures.

Chancellor Bruening thereupon declared the Reichstag dissolved, nullifying their action amid the howls of the Opposition.

New Reichstag elections, according to the constitution, must be held not later than September 14, this year.

Until the election the Bruening Cabinet will continue in office ruling under the emergency powers conferred by Article 48.

The new Reichstag, under the law, must assemble thirty days after election. For that reason there will not be another Reichstag session until October 14 next.

It was the bachelor and bachelor maid taxes among other items in the Dietrich financial program that precipitated the crisis.

TASCHEREAU IS IN ELECTION FIGHT SUPPORTING KING

Five Provincial Premiers Are Now Entered Into Federal Battle.

LEADERS GOING STRONG.

W. E. N. Sinclair Joins Fray in Support of W. H. Moore at Oshawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 18 (By George Hambleton, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Premier Taschereau of Quebec has entered the Federal campaign. His entry makes the fifth Provincial Premier in the fight—the Conservative Premiers of Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Saskatchewan, and Mr. Taschereau, who heads the Liberal administration of Quebec. At the same time, W. E. N. Sinclair, Leader of the Ontario Liberal Party, has joined in the fray. Thus, as main nomination day approaches, the area of battle widens.

Taschereau Into Fray.

Premier Taschereau made his entry at Lange Gardien, a few miles outside Quebec City. He spoke in support of Henri Lavigueur, Liberal candidate in Quebec County, and its representative in the last Parliament. He held that a solution for unemployment would be found not in promises, but in providing work. He charged Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative Leader, with having voted both in favor of the Australian Treaty and against its abrogation.

Mr. Sinclair spoke in support of the candidature, in the Ontario riding, of W. H. Moore, formerly chairman of the Tariff Advisory Board. Mr. Sinclair added, however, that he appeared as a private citizen, and not as Ontario Liberal Leader. From the same platform, at Oshawa, Mr. Moore declared that since the inception of the New Zealand Treaty Canada had bought from New Zealand goods to the value of 45½ million dollars. She had sold to New Zealand goods to the value of 93 million dollars. "You people of Oshawa," he added, "have had a considerable portion of that 93 million dollars of trade. And I am sure you want to hold it. Never more than now, Oshawa needs that business. This is not the time to talk of cancellation of jobs, for that will be the result of cancellation of treaties."

Federal Leaders Going Storng.

And through the Ontario constituencies, the Federal leaders continue their long-drawn battle. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, has words of warning, at Stratford against economic penetration by the

His first three planes were hopelessly wrecked on the eve of his actual take-offs.

Mythical Agopogo Attempts to Devour Cariboo M.P.P.'s Boat Crew in B.C. Lake

WILLIAMS LAKE, B. C., July 18.—(CP)—Roderick Mackenzie, Member for Cariboo in the Provincial Legislature, returned to town with a story of having had his sailboat wrecked in Williams Lake by the Ogopogo, mysterious denizen of British Columbia.

While sailing on the lake with his son, Alistair, and another companion, the boat struck something which he described as "elastic and alive".

"There was an irregular wind blowing at the time, but it was not sufficient to bother an experienced sailor", said Mr. MacKenzie, "the uncoiling of the great fish could easily account for the upturning of the craft".

The Ogopogo made an attempt to devour the sailboat crew, as he is reported to have done years ago in the case of some Indians who were wrecked at approximately the same spot and according to legend, conveyed by a subterranean passage to the Pacific Ocean.

TURK AGED 156 ARRIVES IN U.S. FOR NEW TEETH

Zaro Agha Will Let Scientists Have a Look at Him For "a Consideration."

TALKS OF WARS.

Has Been Married 12 Times—Lost Track of Majority of Descendants.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., July 19—Zaro Agha, who says he is 156 years old and that the first 100 years were the easiest, landed here from Turkey today to get himself a set of false teeth and, for a consideration, to let American scientists have a look at him.

Government Has Birth Record

The date of his birth, as given on his passport, was February 16, 1774, and this was based, said his great great grandson, Ahmet Mussa, who accompanied him, on an actual record in the possession of the Turkish government.

Yellow and wrinkled, with a hawk-like nose, bristling grey moustache, and lively, curious eyes, weirdly alive in their deep sunken sockets, Zaro Agha, sat in the sun on the deck of the steamer Sinaia and talked of wars and women and the third set of teeth that he grew at the age of 105.

"They weren't very good teeth," he said in Turkish to his great great grandson, who repeated it in French to his patron Assim Redvan.

"Not very good teeth; more like baby teeth, and they lasted only 15 years."

Married 12 Times

Zaro Agha has been married 12 times and had 36 children, all of whom are now dead save one daughter, who was born when he was 96. He has lost all track of the number of his grand children, great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren.

My first wife I married when I was 20," he said, "and I always got along with all my wives very nicely.

"Of the descendants through my later wives that I married since I moved to Constantinople 120 years ago, I have some record. I know that before the World War I had 22 great grandchildren living in Constantinople.

Jews Not Wanted At Wailing Wall

JERUSALEM, July 18.— The Hebrew newspaper Doar Meyom said that it had learned that the Wailing Wall Commission had talked with the Moslem Grand Mufti till after midnight to try to bring about an Arab-Moslem agreement over the Wailing Wall.

According to the paper the Mufti apparently rejected the overtures giving always the same answer: "There isn't room for a compromise between Jews and Arams. The wall belongs to Moslems of the whole world, and Palestine Arabs don't want Jews at a Moslem Wall.

DANIEL DARRAH ELUDES POLICE

Prisoner Being Brought to Campbelford Escapes From Car.

ARRESTED IN LONDON.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — Daniel Darrah of Campbellford, while being brought back to this town from London, where he was arrested this week at the instigation of the Campbellford police, to answer a charge of false pretences, escaped custody on the Shallow Valley Road, one mile from the Highway, at 8 o'clock last night. No clues as to his whereabouts have yet been discovered.

Darrah was in a closed sedan and in charge of Police Chief G. C. Bromley, of Campbellford, and an assistant. He made his escape when the party paused momentarily on the road. According to the description given by the police he is about 30 years of age, but looks older than his years, of dark complexion, between five feet seven inches, and eight inches in height, and is wearing a dark suit with a white pin stripe and low black shoes. At the time of his escape he was wearing a grey peaked cap.

Darrah's arrest was made by the London police on July 16 on the strength of circularized information. The false pretences charge dates back to March of this year.

The assistance of the Provincial Police was secured in the search for the escaped man last night. He took to the bush, and it is thought that he is hiding out in the near vicinity.

LAD TAKES OWN LIFE.

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 18 (C.P.). —Ankles and knees tied with rope, and dressed in woman's clothing, the body of Bryan Chadwick McHugh, 16, was found hanging in his home this afternoon, according to a police report. There was no suspicion of foul play, police said.

SASKATOON TILT GROWING BITTER

Premier Anderson Denies Dr. Young's Charges of Vote Soliciting.

INSULT TO MENNONITES.

SASKATOON, Sask., July 18 (By George Finlay, C.P. Staff Correspondent).—For the moment, Saskatoon has become the storm centre of the present Dominion election campaign in Saskatchewan. Charges by Dr. A. McG. Young, the local Liberal nominee, accusing Premier J. T. M. Anderson of attempting to secure the Mennonite vote of the province for Conservative candidates, by promises of school grants and lands, have brought denial from the Provincial Leader and a challenge to Dr. Young to appear on the platform at a public meeting with him here to-night.

Give Detailed Account.

Premier Anderson will answer the Liberal candidate's accusation, and give a detailed account of incidents leading to the charges.

Dr. Young, speaking in Saskatoon Tuesday, declared the Saskatchewan Premier had not only used his influence as Premier to secure votes of the Mennonites for F. R. MacMillan, the local Conservative candidate, by the promise of school lands, but had also intimated lands soon to come under the direction of the Provincial administration would be made available to the colonists. No reference, he said, had been made to other citizens of the Province.

The Saskatchewan Premier, in issuing his challenge to Dr. Young, asserted the allegation of the Liberal representative was an insult to the Mennonites of the Province, an insult to himself, and, he added, "I will refute them at the mass meeting Friday night."

SASKATCHEWAN ASKS AID OF KING

Attorney General Sends Letter to Ottawa After Provincial Cabinet Meet.

JOBLESS RELIEF.

REGINA, July 18. —Saskatchewan has made formal application to Premier Mackenzie King f · Federal assistance in the unemployment situation.

A letter requesting such aid has been sent to Ottawa said Hon. M. A. MacPherson, Attorney General, following a special meeting of the Provincial Cabinet. Whatever money was obtained from the Dominion government, or whatever form of relief was suggested. Mr. MacPherson added, would be referred to the municipalities and left to discretion of councillors. They could consult with the Alberta government as to means of providing relief for the jobless.

CAPITOL WINS HONORS IN SOUND PRODUCTION

Bronze Plaque Is Presented to the Capitol Theatre by Exhibition Herald-World.

J. A. Stewart, manager of the Capitol Theatre, has just received an award that represents a signal and unique honor in the way of theatre equipment. It is a very ornamental bronze plaque which is inscribed, in bas-relief, with the following words:

"A mark of honor has been awarded this theatre for the high quality of its reproduction of sound pictures, by Exhibition Herald-World."

The plaque is decorated with figures of the Lyric Muse and a half-face of the Tragic Muse. The whole effect is singularly attractive.

The excellent reproduction of sound at the Capitol Theatre is ascribed to its equipment and mainly to its fine acoustics, which have been declared ninety-five per cent. perfect for the purpose.

GERMAN LINER BURNS AND SINKS IN MID-ATLANTIC—ALL ARE SAVED

Midnight Rescue Made By Steamer Rangitata on Way to New Zealand.

FIRE STARTS IN HOLD.

LONDON, July 18.— (AP) —The British steamer Rangitata radioed to the Portishead wireless station today that she had rescued all passengers and crew of the German steamer Targis, which burned and sank at about midnight in latitude 35:54, north longtitude 50:07 west.

The position given was about 1,500 miles east of New York in mid-Atlantic.

The Targis, a ship of 3,537 tons, left Colon, en route to Hamburg from Valparaiso, Chile, July 7.

The Targis is a North German Lloyd ship.

The Rangitata is owned by the Federal Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., a British concern. It was en-route from Colon to New Zealand.

First message from the Rangitata came at 11:14 p.m. Thursday and announced that half the crew and all passengers of the Targis bound from Valparaiso to Antwerp and Hamburg, had been picked up by the Rangitata. The Targis was said to be burning badly in number one, two and three holds.

Seven minutes later another message said that the Targis holds had burned through to the boiler and engine room, the vessel was filling with water, and in a sinking condition.

Tourists Take 131 Turtles from Pond

REPLY OF BRITAIN IS DISAPPOINTING

Answer to Briand's U. S. of Europe Scheme Published Over France.

HURT LEAGUE NATIONS.

PARIS, France, July 18 (C.P.). — French political and journalistic circles voiced disappointment to-day at the British reply to Foreign Minister Briand's invitation to join in a European Federation of Nations. The reply, published in morning papers, stated far-reaching objections to the scheme.

Principal among these was that the organization would set up new international associations in Europe, some of which would be parallel and duplicating the functions of the League of Nations, and which "could hardly fail to diminish both efficiency and authority of the organs of the League."

BURKE CAPTURES ALEXANDRA CUP

Canadian Shooter Wins With Excellent Score of 69 Out of 70.

TWO OTHERS CLOSE.

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 18 (C. P. Cable).—Canada scored another triumph at the National Rifle Association meet to-day, when Lieut. Desmond Burke, of Ottawa, Ont., former winner of the King's Prize, won the Alexandra Challenge Cup.

Scores 69 Out of 70

Lieut. Burke won with an excellent score of 69 out of a possible 70. He had a perfect 35 in the first range, 500 yards, fired yesterday, and 34 in the 600 yard distance to-day.

The other Canadians were right up in this shoot. Two Toronto marksmen, Company Sergeant Majors W. A. Hawkins and G. M. Emslie, scored 68. Lieut. A. C. Carter of Toronto and Sergeant C. W. Foam of Montreal scored 67.

MELBOURNE SEES MONTREAL SIGNS

Current Carried By Beam Wireless From Canadian City at Press of Button.

EXHIBITION OPENED.

MONTREAL Que., July 18.—(C.P.) —At seven o'clock this morning Acting Mayor of Montreal, Dr. Z. H. Lesage pressed a button in the city hall setting in operation an electrical impulse that was instantaneously carried by beam wireless to Melbourne, Australia and lighted a huge electrical sign bearing the word "Montreal" at the Melbourne 1930 radio exhibition.

Surrounded by local radio and other officials Acting Mayor Lesage, by pressing the button, threw the name of his city in gigantic electrically lighted letters across the Melbourne town hall.

A few minutes prior to the local ceremony the Lord Mayor of London, by a simaur means, flashed out a sign in Melbourne declaring the exhibition open.

5 POINT HANDICAP FACES CANUCKS IN KING'S PRIZE

Londoner Secures 147 Against Burke's and Emslie's 142 in Second Stage.

STIFF COMPETITION.

Canada Have Ten Men in Finals if Hawkins Succeeds in Placing.

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 18.—(C.P. Cable).—Canada goes into the final of the historic King's Prize tomorrow with a handicap of 5 points. That represents the margin between the winner of to-day's second stage and the leading Canadians.

With perfect 50's at 300 and 500 yards, and 47 at 600 yards, Lieut. A. J. Andrews of the 17th London Regiment scored 147 to lead the 300 competitors in the second stage. He won the National Rifle Association's silver medal.

Burke and Emslie Have 142.

Lieut. Desmond Burke, King's Prize winner of 1924, and Company-Sergt.-Major C. M. Emslie of Toronto led the Canadians with 142. Scores in to-day's second stage count in the decision, being added to the totals at the long-distance ranges of to-morrow's final. Only 100 marksmen, cream of the hundreds competing at the present meet, are eligible for the final.

With weather conditions favorable, scoring in the second stage to-day was of a much higher character than a year ago, when the highest score was 141 and scores of 135 qualified. Qualifying scores to-day were as high at 139, though 26 marksmen with 138 found 22 places left in the final for them.

May Be Ten in Final

Ten Canadians will be shooting in the final stage of the historic King's Prize to-morrow. Nine are sure of places following their scoring in to-day's second stage, and there was little doubt that the tenth, Company Sergt. Major W. A. Hawkins of Toronto, would join them. Hawkins has to shoot off with 25 other marksmen for 22 remaining places in the "King's Hundred."

If Hawkins succeeds in getting into the final, as expected, Canada will have two former winners of this great service rifle classic in the final—Lieut. Desmond Burke of Ottawa, winner in 1924, and Hawkins, winner in 1913.

Canadian Scores

The Canadian finalists and their scores in the second stage out of a possible 150 are:—

Lt. Desmond Burke, Ottawa	142
Company Sgt. Major G. M. Emslie, Toronto	142
Lt. John Bowen, Edmonton	141
Sgt. C. W. Foam, Montreal	140
Sgt. Major W. H. Ruffell, Victoria	141
Capt. J. E. Foreman, Hamilton	139
Capt. W. G. Holland, Victoria	139
Sgt. J. H. Regan, Victoria, Victoria	139
*Capt. Alex. Martin, formerly of Calgary	139

*—Non-member of Bisley team.

Company Sgt. Major Hawkins, Toronto, with 138, was practically certain of getting into the final.

NO TRAINS DELAYED.

Horses and Cattle at Head of "Extra" Prove Victims.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—Boiler explosion in a new locomotive last night killed two railway men and injured five other persons on the Canadian Pacific Railway near Molson, 40 miles east of Winnipeg. The accident occurred at 5.30 o'clock as engine No. 2807, destined for passenger use ,was drawing a 73-car freight train eastward.

The dead, according to officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, are: Engineer A. R. Elliott, Winnipeg; Fireman R. Myers, Winnipeg.

The injured, according to reports from the scene of the accident, are: Brakeman M. J. Ripley, Winnipeg, who suffered a broken back, and was badly burned about the legs; Henry Martin, Kakabeka Falls, who received broken legs and severe bruises; he had been proceeding eastward with a carload of settlers effects; Fred Parsons, Burton, Sask., badly injured, possibly with a broken back; he had been accompanying Martin; two trespassers, Dmytro Bavzum and Mick Broc, with broken limbs and serious burns.

Nurses and doctors were rushed to the spot by train No. 4, routed by way of Lac du Bonnet, Man. Train No. 8, eastbound flier, also was sent by this route, and railway authorities reported that no trains were delayed.

Telegraph wires were torn down along the right of way by the force of the blast, and horses and cattle a the head end of the "extra" were killed.

CANADA GROWS MORE DEPENDENT SAYS BENNETT

Conservative Leader Scores Backdoor Canvassing Amongst C.N.R. Employees.

IN ORILLIA TO-NIGHT.

Canada is Best Customer of the United States Declares Hon. R. B. Bennett.

(By Thomas Green, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)

STRATFORD, Ont., July 18. — Over the highways and byways of Ontario, Hon. R. B. Bennett carried his election campaign to-day, Departing by automobile early this morning the Conservative leader by arrangement stopped to meet party supporters at several points en route to Collingwood, where he will speak late this afternoon. To-night Mr. Bennett will address a rally at Orillia.

"Backdoor canvassers," as he termed them, among employees of the Canadian National Railways, brought from the Opposition leader an emphatic and unqualified denial here last night of the truth of such statements. This time, Mr. Bennett said, the effort of these 'backdoor canvassers" was to induce employees of the system that they would lose their pensions and railway passes if the Conservative party were elected to office. Another he remarked was the old suggestion that the system would be amalgamated with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Keep System out of Politics.

"Any effort," Mr. Bennett declared, 'to drag the Canadian National Railways System into politics, is hurting you and the system. Let us keep it out of politics. Imagine people going around alleyways and making backdoor canvasses saying things of that sort, which are not true. The president said he would keep the system out of politics. That is what should be done."

The only reason for the "backdoor canvass" the opposition leader declared, was to make people "forget" the issues. Under any administration of which he was the head, Mr. Bennett proceeded, everything would be done to develop the Canadian National Railways. He was opposed to any amalgamation and believed in healthy competition.

Proceeding, the Conservative chieftain spoke words of warning in respect to the Dominion's growing importations from the United States This "channel of trade" he said, was becoming more powerful and Canada

MANUFACTURER FULLY ENDORSES LIBERAL POLICY

John R. Marshall as a Canadian and Manufacturer, Stands Behind J. J. Duffus.

HAILS DUNNING BUDGET.

Opposition Just Making Broad Statements, Liberal Candidate Declares.

"No one but a manufacturer can know what J. J. Duffus has done for Peterborough," exclaimed John R. Marshall speaking in support of the Liberal candidate at an enthusiastic meeting at Confederation School last evening. "He has been doing things for which the representative has received credit and which that representative should have been doing."

In answer to the Conservative cry of "blue ruin," Mr. Marshall said: "I ask you, as citizens of Peterborough, to look at conditions as compared with any other time in the history of the city, and say are we in dire circumstances? Things are not so bad as the Conservatives represent them to be."

"I want to go on record as a manufacturer as saying that I stand firm behind the Liberal Party and their policy as expressed by Mackenzie King and Mr. Dunning. (Applause).

Run by Canadians

"It has been said from time to time," continued Mr. Marshall, "that our company is an American Company, and in this connection I would say we have here a company represented by myself started with American money, like many other industries in Canada. It is manned, controlled and operated by Canadians. It has also been said that I am an American citizen," said Mr. Marshall, but I can state that I have never earned a dollar in my life than under the British flag, and the majority of our employees are the same.

"This company came here to a place giving every indication of growth and in ten years has built up a business with a turnover of a million dollars per year. It has given employment to Peterborough men and women. I say, as a British subject born in England and raised and educated in Canada, that we welcome every dollar sent over from the United States and invested here. It is an indication of their knowledge of conditions—the fact that Canada is second to none."

Speaking of the long record of achievement of the Liberal party, the speaker stated that the first step in Canada's industrial development was the anti-dumping act imposed by the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The next step in the interests of industry was when the Liberal Party put in first the preferential trade with Great Britain and undertook to develop the "favored nation" clause, whereby Canada dealt with the nation that favored her."

Third Epoch in Liberal History

"To-day," said the speaker, "we have the third epoch in Liberal history and Canadian history—the glorious Dunning budget intended to bind the links of the British Empire—an act which marks us as independent Anglo-Saxon people who can stand up and defy the world."

He thought that the Conservatives are deserting their ship and the men they chose as leaders, because they do not represent the true Conservative spirit, while the Liberals are going on to further victories and as a re-

Cows Frozen Ear Clears Up Thefts

HAMILTON, Ont., July 18 (Canadian Press). — Identification established by a heifer's frozen ear, five cattle belonging to George Marcy of Valens in Wentworth County, were located in a Toronto abattoir yesterday, and a few hours later Edward Lightfoot of Dundas was arrested on a charge of stealing the animals

On Tuesday the cattle disappeared and the countryside was searched without result. A trip was made to Toronto by the owner and other country police, and there the search was rewarded.

TORY PARTY HAS BEEN BETRAYED SAYS BURNHAM

Challenges Bennett to Find Where Winnipeg Platform Approves of His Policy.

SPEAKS AT WOODBRIDGE.

Ferguson Has Never Endorsed Stand of Conservative Leader Ex-M.P. Declares.

WOODBRIDGE, Ont., July 18.—(C.P.)— Addressing a Liberal rally here last night J. H. Burnham, Peterborough, former member of Parliament, said the Liberal policy stood for Empire and that was why he spoke in the present campaign in support of Liberal candidates.

He declared Premier G. H. Ferguson has not endorsed the policy of Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, "and never will. In fact," he continued, "what Mr. Ferguson is trying to do these days is neutralize the effect of Mr. Bennett's policy and doing what he can on the side to save the Conservative party in Ontario from being wrecked."

Mr. Burnham again reiterated the stand he has taken against Mr. Bennett in the present campaign, condemning the Opposition Leader for "undertaking to give the cold shoulder to the Empire."

"Am I to be misled, are any Conservatives to be misled into disloyalty to the Empire just because Mr. Bennett has gone 'bughouse' for the moment?" he said.

To Remain British.

"No," he continued emphatically. "We are British and going to remain British and Mr. Bennett cannot drag us away from our allegiance."

Mr. Burnham told the audience emphatically, "I haven't turned Liberal," But he was supporting the policy of Mr. King because it was 'for the Empire."

I am a Conservative and proud of it," he declared. 'But," he continued, "we were all dragged down in the mud by Mr. Meighen, and there we are yet."

He recalled the $"400,000" convention at Winnipeg where Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Bennett "took part in reasserting the allegiance of the Conservative Party to the British Empire."

Defiance to Tory Leader.

"I defy Mr. Bennett," Mr. Burnham challenged, "to say that there was one paragraph or word in the program of the party adopted at Winnipeg which authorizes him to say 'Canada first in preference to the Empire'."

"In fact," Mr. Burnham continued heatedly, "we have been betrayed again."

But, he continued, he wanted to say that Premier Ferguson didn't deserve the criticism heaped on him for his part in the present election campaign.

"Mr. Ferguson is .. true, loyal advocate of the Empire," he went on. "He talks it from morning to night, when he's not talking about himself."

Then he declared that Mr. Ferguson was trying to neutralize the effects of Mr. Bennett's policy.

"Really," he added, "if King and Dunning had left Ferguson alone he'd be off where he started for—up North fishing."

But Mr. Ferguson had been called a coward, Mr. Burnham went on, so he had taken his stand in the campaign.

"But I want to tell you this," Mr. Burnham then stated and shook a fist to emphasize his words. "Mr. Ferguson does not endorse the Bennett policy and he won't endorse it. I will not vote for Bennett because

BRITAIN DIFFERS ON BRIAND'S PLAN

Claims U. S. or Europe Might Start Rivalry Between Continents.

CONSULT DOMINIONS

PARIS, France, July 18.—(C.P.).—Great Britain's response to Foreign Minister Briand's memorandum on a proposed Federation of European States was received by the Foreign Office yesterday. It accepts the principle of closer collaboration of European States but takes issue with the methods suggested.

Several objections to the French scheme were advanced in the British reply.

The communication stated the British Government contended its present reply to be of a preliminary and tentative character "as M. Briand's program demands careful and extensive consideration and the British Government feels it to be its duty to undertake that consideration in consultation with its dominions."

The British reply says that the feeling that the creation of any new political institutions at the present time might "create confusion and engender rivalry" which might diminish the authority of the League of Nations, causes the present reply to be designated as "preliminary and provisional."

The fear also is expressed that such a union as Frances proposes might accentuate rivalry and hostility between the continents and thus any measure taken must be elaborated so as to cause no uneasiness abroad.

BUDGET EXTOLLED TO SOO AUDIENCE BY PREMIER KING

Conservatives Charged With Missing Great Issue of Campaign.

SPEAKS ON STEEL.

Premier Despite Being Two Hours Late is Given Enthusiastic Welcome.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 18.—(By Ray Brown C. P. Staff Correspondent) — Premier Mackenzie King is entering upon what will probably be the most strenuous period of the election campaign, this morning he left here for North Bay there to speak at a meeting to-night. But on the way he will probably address gatherings at Espanola and also, for a short time, at Sudbury. From North Bay the Prime Minister will go to New Market for a meeting on Saturday evening. From that meeting he will motor to Toronto and take the train for Ottawa.

Premier Two Hours Late

Last night Mr. King spoke to a great audience in the arena here. It was not only a large audience but it was a gathering which manifested a rare degree of patience. The Prime Minister, who travelled all the way from Kenora, where he spoke last night, to attend this meeting, did not reach the Soo until after ten o'clock. The audience had been waiting since eight. In the interval there had been addresses by A. E. Whytall, Liberal candidate in West Algoma, and other prominent Liberals of the vicinity. Band music had helped to entertain the crowd. When Mr. King arrived the gathering was not too tired to give him a rousing welcome.

As was to be expected in a city where large industries are located, the Prime Minister devoted th greater part of his address to the budget. Taking the iron and steel industry as an example he told the audience that the general prosperity of Ca-

EIGHT IN WINDSOR A.B.C. CASE FREED

Dismissal Comes After Hearing Which Lasted 23 Days.

DEFER SINGER JUDGMENT.

WINDSOR, July 18 (C.P.)—Windsor wholesale plumbing firms and their officers were yesterday afternoon dismissed in the preliminary hearing of charges of conspiracy under Combines Investigation Act. Twenty-three individuals, including Louis M. Singer, K.C., and W. F. O'Connor, K.C., of Toronto, and 21 major plumbers of Windsor, will know their fate when a written decision is handed down on September 4.

The defendants dismissed were: Crane, Ltd.; N. B. Hobbs, G. C. McKeough Co., Ltd.; Murray S. Stewart; J. T. Wing Co., Ltd.; John Stuart; O. P. Hamblin Co., Ltd.; O. P. Hamlin. Magistrate D. M. Brodie, before whom the hearing was held, found that there was no evidence to show that they had ever in any way agreed to conspire.

The court also found the evidence of A. D. Belair, Richard Langley and David L. Hoover, that they had been refuses supplies by these houses, was correct as to refusal, but that the real reason was because their accounts were not wanted by any wholesale house as a result of their financing.

The preliminary hearing of the eight charges against 31 individuals and corporations alleged to have been associated with the Amalgamated Builders' Council, the Canadian Plumbing and Heating Guild, and the Dominion Chamber of Credits, has occupied 23 days, spread over many weeks.

The hearing of the charges, laid following an investigation conducted by Gordon Waldron, K.C., is believed to set a record for length of time so far as a Canadian court is concerned.

URGE U. S. TO ASSIST IN INDO-BRITISH CONFLICT

WASHINGTON, July 18 (C.P.).—A resolution calling upon the United States Government to use its good offices for peaceful settlement of the Indo-British conflict without abridgement of the "just rights of the people of India," has been introduced in the Senate to-day by Senator John J. Blaine of Wisconsin. Some months ago Mr. Blaine sponsored a resolution favoring recognition of Indian 'independence" from the time when the Indian Nationalist Congress voted for "freedom" last December at Lahore.

States 1,500 British Immigrants Stopped Coming to Ontario By Wire to Ottawa.

HEENAN TOO LAX.

"Must Join Liberal Association to Get on Trenton Aerdrome," Premier Says.

(By Frank Flaherty, C. P. Staff Correspondent.)

SUDBURY, July 18. — "The Government of Ontario refused to accept any responsibility for bringing immigrants into Canada while unemployment conditions remain as they are," Premier G. Howard Ferguson declared here last night He was replying to Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, who, he said, claimed no protest against immigration had been received from the Ontario Government.

Wire Sent to Sir William Clark.

Mr. Ferguson advised Mr. Heenan to consult Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner at Ottawa. The Premier declared that he had wired Sir William advising him that Ontario would not accept any of the party of 3,000 British immigrants the Dominion government had undertaken to bring to Canada. It had been proposed that Ontario should take 1500 of them. The Provincial Government, however, refused to aggravate the unemployment situation when there was no chance of absorbing newcomers into profitable work.

On the platform with the premier to-night was Hon. Charles McCrae Minister of Mines. The Premier's speech was broadcasted. The meeting was in the interest of Harry Morel, Conservative candidate in Nipissing. J. E. C. Bambury, K. C., of Montreal spoke in French.

Charges that the Ontario Government was employing only Conservatives on road building in Northern Ontario were described by Mr. Ferguson as "petty political bickering."

"I'm not going to discuss with Peter Heenan whether there are more Tories than Grits on the roads," he said. "But I could take you down to Trenton where they are building a big airdrome, and you have to join the Liberal Association and pay a dollar for a card before you can get a job. We have some of

'Deploros Pessimistic Attitude of Conservative Campaign.

REVIEWS ACHIEVEMENTS.

COCHRANE, Ont., July 18.—(CP) —A lengthy analaysis of the Liberal Government's record marked the addresses delivered here last night and at Kapuskasing in the afternoon," by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice. Large, enthusiastic audiences greeted the minister who speaks both English and French.

Although Mr. Lapointe's stay in the north will be short, he has planned a strenuous campaign. Today he will go to New Liskeard and after speaking there in the afternoon will move on to Cobalt for another meeting at night.

Speaking in support of Joseph Bredette, Liberal candidate in the riding of Temiskaming North, Mr. Lapointe deplored the pessimistic attitude which he claimed had characterized the Conservative campaign.

He said a wise economic policy administered by the Liberal Government had brought to Canada its present sound financial condition.

Referring to the Dunning budget Mr. Lapointe said it was based on the principles of recripocity and British preference.

Problems such as the Duncan Commission, returned soldiers' legislation, return of the natural resources to the Western Provinces, old age pensions and others had been dealt with in a satisfactory manner, he maintained.

Radio's newest marvel—a tone control knob on the front of the set which gives you mastery over the quality of tone sent from the broadcasting station.

Think what it means to bring in your favorite jazz band with the crisp, snappy tone of dance-floor reality. Consider the enjoyment of bringing in the great Philco Symphony concerts in the mellowest, richest tones, or if the music offers big brass sonority, you can instantly make it as brilliant as you like, with a turn of the hand.

The radio world has been waiting for the the perfection of this invention. Everybody has wondered when the radio listener could take a hand in the performance, right at home.

Here it is at last! It was the sensation of the recent National Radio Show at Atlantic City. It has been hailed by the Philco dealers, all over the land, as the greatest step forward in radio reception since the perfection of Philco balanced units, which still serve to give you the wonderful lifelike undistorted Philco tone.

It is natural that Philco should again lead the industry with Philco Tone Control. Philco has long been identified with the perfection of radio tone. In 1929 these marvelous sets became world leaders in popular favor and in sales, because of the wonderful tone produced by Philco's balanced units; new circuits of extraordinary selectivity; tremendous distance ability, opening up of vast new fields of enjoyment for owners.

All these great features are retained and Philco Tone Control is added. Philco's new radios are all you can buy in radio, no matter what you pay. The Philco Screen Grid Plus has, in addition, Automatic Volume Control which counter-acts fading, so you can not only get, but hold and enjoy distant programs. No sets in the world offer such a combination of exclusive features and desirable devices. Each Philco Radio has a new, improved electro-dynamic speaker and a New Station Recording Dial on which you can log your favorite stations. Philco Radios are available for operation on AC or DC electric current, or by battery. And the new Philco cabinets are the most beautiful and tasteful, we believe, ever offered anywhere at any price. Foremost designers created them. Tremendous acceptance has made them far from expensive. Such values are hard to believe until you inspect the Philco line at your nearest dealer's.

EMPIRE TRADE IS ELECTION POLICY SAYS SPEAKER

Liberal Party is Ashamed to Go to Country On Its Old Policy.

WANT STABLE POLICY.

C. D. Logan, Verulam Farmer, Speaker on Platform of E. A. Peck at Nogie's Creek.

"The Liberal Party is talking Empire trade to-day because the United States has slammed the door in its face and it is ashamed to go to the country with its old policy. If it were not for the prices the farmers are getting for their produce and the number of unemployed men walking the streets of our cities, you wouldn't be hearing this kind of talk from Liberals."

This was the declaration of C. D. Logan, prominent farmer of Verulam Township, speaking at Nogie's Creek last night in behalf of E. A. Peck, Conservative standard-bearer in West Peterborough. Other speakers were S. T. Medd of this city, J. Lithgow of Bobcaygeon, and Mr. Peck.

"This is one of the most important elections affecting agriculture since Sir John A. Macdonald carried the country on the 'national policy' issue," declared Mr. Logan. "As farmers, we demand—and should get—a certain amount of protection. The King government has not given us the consideration we deserve. To-day the Conservative Party faces the country on the policy it has had for 50 years, while the Liberal Party has a new policy—if, indeed, it has a policy at all"

Scores Importation of Eggs

Mr. Logan scored the drop in produce prices and the increase of produce imports from the U.S. He cited the fact that in the first three months of this year Canada had been the largest customer for U.S. eggs, purchasing 2,665,215 dozen. For every 3 dozen eggs exported from the U.S. in the first quarter of 1931, he pointed out, 2 dozen had come to this country. He recalled that eggs here had dropped to summer prices at the beginning of April.

"We want a party with a stable policy," he asserted. For 9 years the King government had sought trade with the U.S., despite Tory protests, and had done nothing for Empire trade.

"We need a strong business mind at the head of this country's government," stated S T. Medd in the course of his address. "The Hon. R. B. Bennett is unquestionably a successful business man. He was chosen as leader of the Conservative Party at the Winnipeg convention for that very reason. Mackenzie King has been in politics for some time; many will admit he is a politician; few will accuse him of being a business man. He deals in generalities; he doesn't seem to know where he is going."

The Liberal party, in convention in 1919, Mr. Medd recalled, had laid down a distinct free-trade platform and had selected a leader to carry it out. King had later declared that he was not committed to any one policy—that the convention's platform had been "only a chart." To-day we saw him after he had completed an about-face. How did we know his present policy wasn't "only a chart" too, and that he would abandon it as soon as returned to power?

"The Liberal Party is trying to wear the Conservative coat, and it doesn't fit very well," declared the speaker. He saw Dunning, Crerar, Malcolm and other Liberal Ministers as insincere in their present stand.

"A red herring across the trail" was the way in which Mr. Medd characterized recent disloyalty accusations. As an ex-service man, he said, he resented these accusations, coming in many cases from men who had not been overseas. He remembered times during the war when he would have been glad to see just "one more man" coming into the front lines.

Didn't Care For Britain in 1911.

That Bennett was taking the sane, business view of the British preference issue and that the King position was a doubtful one, was the contention of E. A. Peck in his speech. Mackenzie King had been Labor Minister in 1911, and had gone down to defeat in his own riding on the reciprocity issue. "He didn't care what happened to Britain then," Mr. Peck declared.

"This country needs a very distinct shaking-up in the matter of government," he announced. By letting things drift, the King administration had been responsible for unemployment and farm depression, and had shown themselves unable to deal with the situation once they had permitted it to arise.

He quoted from Hansard a speech of the Prime Minister's made in the House prior to the introduction of the Dunning budget. King had refused then, as he had consistently refused in the past, to yield to Tory demands that the tariff be raised, Mr Peck pointed out. The Premier had been haunted by an avowed fear of provoking the United States. On these grounds he had refused British preference.

J. Lithgow addressed the meeting first, stressing 'hard times" and the interdependence of classes. "Higher prices for everything make for prosperity," he asserted. He scored the manufacture of Canadian raw material in the U.S. and the exodus of Canadian youth; saw the necessity of developing the home market. The building of Canada was "the best British preference."

Peter Graham of Nogie's Creek was in the chair.

duties, retaliation. I don't object to the word, but under them Washington set the measure of retaliation. Ottawa says to Washington: "You cannot have all your own market and part of ours. You cannot build a door, clever as you are, which will allow your products to come into Canada, and prevent our products from going into the United States." When the people of this country got that thought into their heads, you could search the country without ever finding anyone other than the professional politician who was opposed to the countervailing duties."

Mr. Moore presented arguments to prove that the dairy industry had not been ruined by the importations of New Zealand butter. Since 1921, he said, there had been an increase in the production of milk and its fat equivalent of 28½ per cent., and in increase in its value of 20 per cent. It had been true, he said, that the importations of butter from New Zealand had increased, but it was also true that export of milk produce from Canadian in the year ending November, 1929, exceeded by $2,738,000 the importations into Canada.

Mr. Moore said it was not until November, 1929, that the dairymen of Canada made their first application to the Tariff Board for a revision of the dairy schedule of tariff. A hearing was given on January 15, 1930 and in his budget in May, Mr. Dunning presented the result of the findings of the Board in the form of an increase in the tariff schedules on butter, making the new rate the exact figure asked for by the National Dairy Council.

Referring to the Treaty with New Zealand, Mr. Moore said: "The Conservatives take the attitude of cancellation; the Liberals take that of maintaining the treaties and revising the schedules. Surely the Liberal attitude is the right one, he claimed. The National Dairy Council did not ask for cancellation. It recommended the treaty as of considerable value to Canadian trade.

CANADA GROWS

was becoming more and more dependent economically on the United States. To-day, Mr. Bennett observed, this country had arrived at the position where she was the "best customer" of the republic among the nations of the world.

Once, the Opposition chieftain declared the trade between Canada and the United States was a 'small rivulet," but now it has developed into a "mighty stream." Three million dollars per day were now being sent to the American Republic to buy goods from that country. More than six hundred million dollars annualy were being sent to the American Republic for wholly or partially manufacturel goods. "Do you realize, men and women," he asked, "that of this amount of $615 000,000 approximatey 30 per cent. represented Dr," the channel of trade was becoming more powerful, Canada was becoming more dependent and less and less independent economically, Mr. Bennett said.

"The stream had become so great" he continued "that it could not be easily damned—but it was not yet too late.

Mr. Bennett recalled the instance of the Hawaii Islands which produced large quantities of sugar cane. The United States had raised the tariff higher and higher against this import and Hawaii became part of the United States. But the Conservative Chieftain continued the most serious thing of all during the King administration was the loss of our population—the economic loss of 1,250,000 men, women and children.

"The loss of 1,250.000 of our people," Mr. Bennett declared, "is too great a price for having Mr. King as Prime Minister for eight years." The United States, he said, had been devoting considerable study to the economic value of boys and girls of 18 years of age, and after allowing for the cost of maintenance, had placed an economic value of $18,000 on each boy and girl. The loss to Canada through the exodus was a matter of billions of dollars, the Opposition leader stated.

TELLING ALL HER FRIENDS ABOUT IT

"I expected great things of Sargon and it has not disappointed me. For months I had been in a terribly run-down condition, tired and indisposed all the time and was subject to severe headaches. There was a neuritis condition in my shoulder and arm, and constipation had such a hold on me that I developed hemorrhoids. Six bottles of Sargon drove the pains out of my body, I sleep better than I have in years, and have a wonderful feeling of strength and energy. I'm telling all my friends about Sargon.

"Sargon Pills have given me such wonderful relief from constipation that I don't notice the hemorrhoidal trouble like I did, and I'm enjoying splendid health in every way."—Mrs. M. Robertson, 15 Alice St., Hamilton, Ont.

BUDGET EXTOLLED

nada must be the basis for prosperity in any particular enterprise. The sale of steel rails, of structural steel of other forms of steel was contingent upon Canada's prosperity. And Canada's prosperity, he asserted, was contingent upon the Dominion obtaining and retaining the Great British market. This was basic.

The Conservative leader, asserted Mr. King, was avoiding the great issue of the campaign. This was the budget with its provisions for widening the British preference. The budget was not only the great issue of the campaign, he said, but it was also the reason why an election had been called at this time. The Government he told his listeners, could have remained in office for another year and a half, but when the budget, which he thought should have met with the support of Conservatives in Parliament, became a target for their ridicule and opposition", the Government had determined to let the people decide the issue. The decision was particularly important in view of the pending Imperial Economic Conference to which Canada would send her representatives.

Pro-American Doctrine

Mr. King charged that the Conservatives had, for years, past been trying to spread the doctrine that the Liberal Party was Pro-American. Especially had they endeavored to preach this doctrine with respect to him, he said. It was absolutely false, he said, and the introduction by his Government of a budget which was strongly British in its sentiment, had left the Conservative leaders at a loss. All they could do was to cast around for other things to talk about in an effort to obscure the great issue of the campaign.

Home Market.

"Our opponents are telling you a great deal about the home market," said Mr. King, "but if we had to depend on the home market to absorb our products we would be buried under them." The Tariff Board had made suggestions of many things that Canada could purchase from Great Britain instead of from the United States without injury to the consumer. The board had suggested certain changes which would direct Canada's trade in certain respects from Canada to the United States and in this way $200,000,000 worth of purchasing power had been changed over to the mother country.

The government had expected that the budget would meet with the support of the Conservatives in the House of Commons Mr. King said. It was a budget which increased the British preference. It was a budget which was helpful to the iron and steel industry. It was a good budget, and there was no reason why a government should be opposed in everything it brought down. Therefore the government was jusitfied in expecting support, but instead it had met with ridicule and opposition.

Move Unexpected.

The Conservative party, Mr. King asserted, had not expected that the government would go to the country on the budget, and when the government had done so Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson had been left at a loss. The Conservatives had opposed the budget, he said, but it was a budget which met with support in the northern country. It was a budget which met with support in Canada. Was it any wonder that leading Conservatives in the Dominion were writing to the papers saying that they would support the Liberals on this great issue.

The widening of the British preference was already beginning to find its reflection in Great Britain. Mr. King asserted. Wheat was moving more easily within the last few months.

Dealing with the record of the government, the Prime Minister declared that there had not been a single charge of graft or corruption made against the government during the entire campaign.

TORY PARTY HAS

he is no longer a member of the Conservative Party."

Mr. Burnham presented what he described as a scientific analysis of the situation, in which he played no favorites. He den aced Mr. Bennett, he praised Mr. King for his Empire policy, he voiced his support of Mr. Ferguson, and he even took a rap at Mr. Dunning, declaring that in certain remarks on the preference situation Mr. Dunning "didn't know what he was talking about."

"But," he went on, "I don't care if the man be Ferguson or Dunning or Bennett. Let us know the facts. And the facts are that we have been shut out from the United States. But the United States can't shut us out from the Empire, and Mr. Bennett cannot shut us out from the Empire."

This Woodbridge meeting was a Liberal rally in the interests of W P. Mulock, the Liberal candidate in North York. It was a gathering of 700 people in the Woodbridge Park, and this audience gave the speakers a very attentive hearing.

Edward G. Odette, Liberal candidate and ex-M.P. from East Essex, told how market gardeners, farmers and industrialists benefit by the Dunning Budget. Mr. Odette noticed references to the Conservatives who are now supporting the King policy. He pointed out: "My father in 1896 was the Conservative candidate for the riding I now represent as a Liberal."

Refused to Attend Conference.

The Minister of Labor, he declared, had refused to attend a conference on unemployment called at Winnipeg during the winter months. Now, after six months he and the other ministers proposed to hold a conference at Ottawa after the election. At the same time, while unemployment was becoming more serious, train loads of immigrants were being brought into Canada to congest the labor market still further and Mr. Heenan was doing nothing about it.

"This thing should be stopped," Mr. Ferguson declared, "and the business of the Government is to stop it. Mackenzie King should be at the gate. Peter's place is at the gate. This Peter we have at Ottawa, in this world, is nothing like the Peter in the next world. That fellow will be on the job. He will be at the gate and nobody will get by him."

Visiting his discussion of immigration Mr. Ferguson said the Province of Ontario were supporting many people in mental hospitals who had got into Canada through the lax administration of immigration by the Dominion Government. Repeated requests had been made to Ottawa for the deportation of these people, but no action had resulted.

SUPERVISED PLAYGROUNDS.

As a means of saving children from being killed on the streets by automobiles, Toronto authorities are suggesting that the school grounds of the city should be open as summer playgrounds for Queen City children.

The street is not a safe recreation area for little folks, but the trouble is that there are sections in every city where no suitable playgrounds are available unless school property be utilized.

Here in Peterborough we are using two city school grounds as supervised playgrounds, and they are serving their purpose of providing hundreds of children with a safe place to play and keeping them off the roads.

But two grounds are not enough.

For the East City children and those living in the western part of Peterborough there are no supervised grounds available, and as a result they are deprived of the pleasure and exercise made possible for other children who live in the neighborhood of the grounds now operated.

It is to be hoped that by next summer it will be found possible to open more supervised recreation areas so that the needs of the whole city in that respect will be taken care of.

A HEAVY TASK.

In one respect, at least, the leaders of the two old parties in the present election campaign have earned general respect.

Neither Premier King nor Mr. Bennett is sparing himself; both are throwing themselves into the battle with every ounce that is in them, and it does not require much imagination to realize that by the end of the campaign, whatever else they may be, the two leaders are likely to be two tired statesmen, physically and mentally exhausted.

For over a month, in the hottest weather of the year, the two have been hard at it, travelling from coast to coast, speaking night after night, sometimes three or four times a day, meeting thousands of people, ironing out differences, trying to keep the party machinery running smoothly, keeping track of what the other is saying, busy morning, noon and night.

It is a task that might well dismay younger men than Mr. King and Mr. Bennett, and the thought of the amount of vitality and nerve force sacrificed by the leaders should be enough to make the average voter feel that it is up to him to take enough interest in the campaign to at least study the issues and make use of his franchise.

SHOULD NOT BE AN ISSUE.

One regrettable feature of the present election campaign is that both political parties have to some extent at least attempted to make an issue of the returned soldier and the problems in regard to proper treatment and assistance for the men who suffered because of their war service.

Before the battle began The Examiner expressed a hope that since the question had been settled in the House on a non-partizan basis and apparently to the satisfaction of the Canadian Legion and returned men generally that the question would not be heard of from the platform or through party advertising.

That hope has not been fulfilled, and The Examiner is sure that the majority of its readers will share in regretting the fact that the veteran question has been dragged into the political arena at this time.

The people of Canada are only concerned with seeing that the returned men of this country receive a square deal, and most of them are sorry to see that question brought forward in the heat of an election campaign, after it had apparently been most satisfactorily settled.

WELL DONE, THE CANADIANS!

Canadians will rejoice in the winning by the Canadian Bisley team of the much coveted MacKinnon Challenge Cup, captured yesterday by one of the biggest margins in the history of the National Rifle Association.

In capturing this historic trophy for the seventh time since the competition began in 1891, the Canadians rose to great heights and made up for the loss of that other notable team prize, the Kolapore Cup, which the Maple Leaf marksmen yielded to England earlier in the week by the close margin of seven shots.

The success of the Canadians as a team gives reason for hoping that as individuals they will be equally effective in the competition for the King's prize, won last year by a Canadian.

At all events they have done well to win the MacKinnon Trophy and to capture second place in the Kolapore competition, and like last year's team, are giving their homeland a vast amount of advertising across the Atlantic.

The capture of the King's prize for shooting would be a nice achievement to add to the feat of Jack Guest in winning the Diamond Sculls.

"SHORTS."

A day or two ago we expressed an eagerness to see the first pair of "shorts" which the male dress emancipators had all ready for us last fall. The paragraph was not a day old when an Ottawa gentleman walked into the office resplendent in a pair of white linen shorts. Later we saw him on the street in the full glare of noontide. The gentleman in question was none other than that indefatigable reformer and town planner, Noulan Cauchon. Always a warrior on the side of good causes, it is scarcely surprising that Mr. Cauchon should brave the rigors of public gaze in the first authentic pair of men's shorts in Ottawa. It takes a man with courage to be the first in a movement like this. But Mr. Cauchon has courage—as well as a pair of bonny knees. Mr. Cauchon reports that everybody who has stopped him to comment on his shorts has admitted that they are "sensible." But few, seemingly, are prepared to permit sense to triumph over timidity. Everybody, in other words, is in favor of shorts and nobody (except Mr. Cauchon) is prepared to wear them. This seems a pity, but we are not surprised. Men always were weaklings when it came to dress reform, so we are convinced that Mr. Cauchon will continue for some time in splendid isolation. Nevertheless, we see hopes of progress in the mere fact of Mr. Cauchon's appearance in shorts. He has at least shown that a man is comfortable and even sightly in a pair of abbreviated nether garments. And, as we have said, he is in an indefatigable reformer. He never knows when he is beaten. If he undertakes to introduce shorts into Ottawa, the day is not so very far distant when we shall all be wearing them in midsummer. And he will undertake it because he associates shorts with town planning. Town planning, he says, is the science of health and amenity in life. Shorts contribute to that end no less than housing and hexagonal blocks. So beware!—Ottawa Citizen.

A MARVELOUS STORY.

The Stratford Beacon-Herald has very appropriately called attention editorially to the story published in Toronto of a boy who was seriously injured on May 24 in setting off firecrackers. In his endeavor to make an extra loud explosion he inserted the firecracker in an old container which had once held gasoline. Of course, there was a deafening roar, but that was not all. The top of the drum was blown off with such violence that it inflicted terrible injuries on the boy's legs. He was taken to the hospital and for three days did not recover consciousness. When he did the surgeons were certain the legs would have to be amputated. According to the story the bones were splintered and flesh and muscles torn and bruised. It was certainly not a bright outlook for a boy who, on the holiday had planned to have an extra lively time exploding firecrackers, but here is where skilful medical treatment and modern surgery came to the rescue with extraordinary results.

After the lapse of about two months it is said that the boy will almost completely recover, and that he will be able to walk almost as well as usual with the exception, perhaps, of a slight limp in his left leg. This story deserves to be emphasized and given wide circulation for two reasons. The one is a warning to parents and children that when firecrackers are exploded, especially those of high calibre, there ought to be the utmost supervision in order to prevent any mishaps. So frequently in the discharge of fireworks injury is done to the eyes or to the face. On many occasions these accidents have resulted fatally. In the second place, it deserves to be recorded as a proof of the remarkable degree of efficiency which has been reached by physicians and surgeons in the treatment of such cases. The restoration of this boy to almost normal health and strength is little short of a miracle, and has been made possible only because of the marvelous skill attained by modern surgeons. It is well for Canadians to pause and remember that Canada has just as fine surgeons as are to be found anywhere in the world, and that they do not need to go out of the country for exceedingly remarkable examples of the healing art.—Brantford Expositor.

HOW FAR CAN ASSISTANCE GO?

When President Hoover and the United States Congress set aside $500,000,000, some months ago, to be used by the Federal Farm Board in promoting the sale of the surplus of farm crops, very little direction was given to the Farm Board as to the manner in which this immense sum was to be used. Ever since there has been much debate as to what methods the Farm Board was justified in using. Now that the Board is in operation, widespread criticism has sprung up on the ground that the Government has entered into business in an effort to maintain the prices of given crops, irrespective of market conditions, and to decrease production. Recently the United States Chamber of Commerce entered a protest against the activities of the Farm Board on the ground that it was interfering with trade.

Already the Board has made some serious mistakes. A few months ago an effort was made to stabilize the price of wheat by purchasing enough of it to maintain values at a certain level. The effort failed with the result that the Board soon changed its plan and purchased wheat at market prices. Now the Board is endeavoring to assist the producers to establish co-operative market agencies that will be able to handle wheat, cheese and other farm products to the best advantage of the producers. Whether or not these agencies attempt to stabilize prices will depend upon those in charge of these enterprizes.

Efforts to maintain prices by purchasing and storing any given farm product seldom prove successful. This is because the mere purchasing of these crops does not increase consumption. In fact, it may decrease it by maintaining prices at levels which discourage purchases. Goods so purchased have to be stored. The fact that they are in storage is known to the trade and tends to depress values by the threat that they create through the possibility that they may be unloaded on the market at any time. The fact that large quantities of the 1928 Canadian wheat crop were held in storage a year ago was known to the wheat trade and for months affected the price of wheat.

It should be recognized that the Federal Farm Board is experimenting in the new field it has entered and that it has no magic wand that it can wield by means of which marketing problems of United States producers are going to be settled over night. In fact, it is to be expected that many of the experiments of the Farm Board will prove failures and that the actual benefit finally accomplished will fall far below what most of the advocates of its establishment anticipated.—Farm and Dairy.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Harvesting has begun in the West, but the vote crop will not be harvested until July 28th.

The spectacle of a member running away with the mace, as witnessed in the British House of Commons yesterday, must have been almost a fatal shock to some parliamentarians.

A politician has to put up with a lot, especially during an election. Thus Premier King is to be received by a pipe band when he visit Newmarket to-morrow night.

It will soon be time to dust off that useful campaign slogan, "Vote as you like, but vote."

The people who dig up all the statistics the politicians toss around in an election campaign have surely no reason to complain of unemployment.

The unusual part of the English system is that over there they give the private citizen more rights and privileges than we give our gangsters and murderers.—Malcolm W. Bingay, in Detroit Free Press.

"The true value of horse sense," says the Louisville Times, "is shown by the fact that the horse was afraid of the automobile during the period in which the pedestrian laughed at it.—New York Evening Post.

A Thought

GOLDEN SILENCE

A good many things are so that do not need to be talked about. A man may properly have certain definite intentions as to what he purposes to do, but that fact lays upon him no obligation to say so; on the contrary the surest way to defeat his own purposes may be to talk about them. So as to what we know, or think we know, about others; we are not obliged to put it into words. We must not say what our belief is. We may know that a certain man is a liar, and we must govern all our dealings with him accordingly; but we need not tell him that he is a liar. Probably nothing would be gained, and a great deal would be lost, by frankly expressing ourselves on such a point. He is a wise man who knows what not to talk about; and he is a very foolish man who talks about everything that he happens to know is a fact. 'Saying it out" accounts for a vast deal of waste and misery and lost efficiency in this world.

What To-day Means To You.

If July 18 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. The danger periods are from noon to 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The signs for this date are rather foreboding, and strange occurrences are anticipated. A wedge may be driven between existing relationships, and many of the present conditions may be altered, for better or for worse. A heavy atmosphere will prevail during most of the day.

The child born on this July 18 will have an aggressive nature, and may become a small bully, if it is allowed to do so. It will always love to command, and will desire power. It will be a hard worker, and have a good brain.

You are, above all things, serene, and it takes considerable to penetrate your aura of indifference. You let the world boss you until the bossing becomes intolerable, and then you quietly and simply refuse to budge, and "gang" your own way, without further fuss on your part. You would rather humor people than upset them, and for this reason you usually get along with everybody. It is usually you, who tries to keep step—not the other fellow.

You have a very fiery little temper which is rarely ever seen, but even your toes can be stepped upon once too often. You are not an orderly person, although if you are a woman you have what is known as "room sense." You can put a place "just right," but it is impossible for you to keep it so. You criticize others for things of which you yourself are guilty in the untidy line. Poverty would be fatal to one of your temperament—a slovenly environment would be your fate. You need both wealth and attendance to be shown off properly. Environment, however, will never ruin your disposition or make you a nagging wife or a domineering husband.

You have ambitions, but someone else will have to make them realities unless they can be purchased ready made. You would never sacrifice or work indefatigably for anything. You are a marrying type person—a home and children are essential to your happiness.

REFUSES PROTEST.

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 17 (Canadian Press). — President John A. Heydler, of the National League, today refused to allow Chicago's protest of the second game of the Cubs-Braves double-header played in Boston. The Braves won the game 3 to 0 after the play had reverted back to the eighth inning to comply with the six o'clock Sunday baseball law in Boston.

THE GRINGO PRIVATEER

CHAPTER 18.

Back at the Hotel International half an hour later Ken Burney and his bodyguard dined in the hotel grill, while across the room old Martin Bruce, Miguel Gallegos and the other man ate and eyed them coolly from time to time. After dinner Burney went to the hotel desk and asked for a telegraph blank. As he leaned across the counter writing on it, Martin Bruce came up alongside of him and stamped on the small toe of his left foot. Without a word Burney moved over to give him more room.

"Lemme have the key to my room," Bruce ordered the clerk, and drove his elbow into Burney's ribs.

"Oh, good evening, Mr. Bruce," the latter saluted him politely.

"Sending a telegram for more help?" the old wolf queried harshly. "I would, if I was you. You'll need it."

"What a seer you are, Mr. Bruce. Are you, by any chance, the seventh son of a seventh son and born with a caul? You must be, for you have made a most astonishingly correct guess. Read that," and he handed Martin Bruce the telegram. It read:

Golden West Arms Company,
Los Angeles, California.

Please express collect immediately two light Lewis machine-guns and thirty Springfield Rifles United States Army model. Stop. Also one hundred thousand rounds ball cartridge. Stop. Bill to El Ranchito division.

BARDIN LAND & CATTLE CO.,.....
Kenneth Burney, General Manager.

The old scoundrel was interested. "What you aim to do, sonny boy? Start a revolution across the line?"

"I intend to make El Cajon Bonita a mighty good place for you and your men to keep away from; I intend to make the Bardin lands there safe for the Bardin cattle."

"Why, our Willie's on the peck, ain't-he?" Martin Bruce murmured sneeringly. He handed back the telegram which Burney gave to the clerk to file. "Well, thanks for the tip, son. I reckon I can pick up a couple of experienced machine gunners myself, an' if you can buy Springfield army rifles I reckon I can, too. Pleased to meet you some bright day over in El Cajon Bonita. Good night!" With the word he again dug viciously at the younger man's ribs with his right elbow. Instantly Burney's left arm slid under Bruce's crooked forearm; his fingers grasped the left lapel of Bruce's coat in a firm grip, while his right hand closed over Martin Bruce's right wrist. Then he pressed downward, bending Bruce's arm across the iron muscles of his own left arm, which acted as a fulcrum.

"Just try reaching for a gun with your left arm, old settler," he warned, "and I'll break your right arm. Then I'll take your guns away from you this time I'll keep them. . . . Poor old Martin Bruce!"

He pursed his lips as if to spit in the snarling face, but refrained, while Miguel Gallegos and the other man stood helplessly by, for Burney had adroitly twisted his victim until Bruce's body presented a shield in the event the latter's friends should open fire "Close in," Burney ordered his henchmen. "If they start anything you finish it."

He half squatted and presented his left knee as a seat for Martin Bruce; a violent downward pressure on the latter's arm caused Bruce to squat in pain on that left knee, whereupon Burney suddenly withdrew it and with a violent shove hurled Martin Bruce over backward. He struck the floor with a rib-cracking jolt; before he could scramble to his feet Burney had possessed himself of the small gun worn inside the trousers band on the right side. "Quiet," he warned, and helped himself to a forty-five worn under Bruce's left coat lapel.

"That's the third time I've disarmed you and the second time I've manhandled you within ten days, Mr. Bruce," he explained, as the latter got to his feet. "Each time you have been the aggressor. I tell you, you're too old to be picking on the young fellows."

Martin Bruce stood staring at him, ashen of face, the glint of murder in his cold blue eyes. Suddenly his lower lip commenced to tremble; then two big tears started across his sun-bitten face and he turned and walked out of the hotel.

"My friend," said Miguel Gallegos softly, "when men like Martin Bruce weep a man always dies. Only death can avenge that insult—and you have signed your own death warrant. I am truly sorry for you, my friend. Because you are very young, you have been very foolish."

Burney bowed to the speaker. "And wouldn't it be a bright idea, Senor Miguel Gallegos," he purred, "if you hopped across the line to territory upon which you have a citizen's right to air your unimportant opinions regarding the antics of two foreigners? I think I'd go if I were you. Really I would. The atmosphere is a bit surcharged here. As you pass out will you kindly return these guns to your friend? I can only use two at a time myself."

"With pleasure, senor." Miguel Gallegos pocketed both guns, and, bowing again, smiled, showing a set of teeth that would have won him first prize as a dentifrice advertisement. "We shall, perhaps, meet again, Senor Burney?"

"Some day, over in El Cajon Bonita, I understand that's your stamping ground, Senor Gallegos. We'll be branding down there presently and if you should happen to be traveling past our chuck-wagon, drop in and have a bite with us."

"You are very kind, senor. I will make it a point to come by your chuck-wagon. I may have a few friends with me."

"Bring them too. The more the merrier."

"Buenas noches, senor."

"Buenas noches."

Burney turned to his bodyguard. "Well, I've cleaned up all of the business that brought us to Huachita, boys. We'll leave our saddle horses in the livery stable and pick them up next week when we pass through this way en route to El Cajon Bonita. Meanwhile, this town isn't the pleasantest place in the world for us, so we'll just hire an automobile and drive back to the ranch. And we'll stick the king for the bill."

King Bardin and the princess were lounging on the veranda about nine o'clock that night. It had been an excessively hot day and the heat still lingered; both were loth to retire until the atmosphere had cooled somewhat. Presently the girl said:

"Dad, we're going to have a visitor. I see the headlights of an automobile coming up the road."

"Stranger, sure enough," said the king. "All the El Ranchito cars are in the garage. I'll bet a ripe peach it's the sheriff bringing home the bodies of my general manager and his bodyguard. Couldn't be anybody else at this hour of the night."

The casualness of this remark infuriated his daughter. "There's a streak of callousness, of downright cruelty, in you, Dad Bardin," she charged. "If harm has come to Ken Burney I shall consider you have killed him as surely as if you had, personally, shot him. How can you bear to tempt a man to his death—to suborn murder—for mere gain?"

"Got to maintain my rights," he defended meekly. "Well, we'll not be in suspense very long. I'll hail that car as it passes."

He did, demanding to know who came.

"Ken Burney and his bodyguard in a hired car," came the answer.

"All intact?" the king demanded eagerly.

"Right-o, Your Royal Highness."

"Come up here and tell me about it, Mr. Burney."

"Do, please," the princess pleaded. To her father she said: "Something must have happened. He went to town on horseback but returns in a rented car."

Ken Burney came up on the veranda. The king motioned him to a chair. "Lovely evening," the general manager murmured, "but almost too warm for comfort."

"Never mind the weather," His Majesty warned with a slight show of impatience. "Report!"

So Ken Burney reported in meticulous detail and, in conclusion, added: "I had a feeling that if I went into the stall in the livery stable to get my horse, some inconsiderate wretch might rise up out of the manger and shoot me with a forty-five caliber pistol. So I hired a car and came home in order to avoid the occasion of sin."

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

CHEAPER BOOKS.

When I was a boy of twelve, novels could be purchased for a dime each.

A dime was obtainable by shoveling snow off a sidewalk, raking the autumn leaves off a lawn, or reading aloud from a dreary book while a young man who was studying shorthand, took down the words in curious little pothooks.

As a result of the low cost of literature, I became familiar with Wild Bill and Deadwood Dick and other Western characters. Also I was persuaded that the most thrilling procession of words in existence—the most vivid picture of human action—was encompassed in the words.

"The sharp crack of a rifle rang out and another redskin bit the dust."

The time came when I read other things—books on the shelves at home, books from the Sunday School library, books which my father, who traveled a great deal, bought at a store in Chicago. But buying a book a week, which was possible so far as the dime novels were concerned, was out of the question when one knew the price of the books that would have had a far better effect on my adolescent mind.

I know, of course, the benefit of endowed libraries and circulating libraries, and of the book clubs. But somehow I think that the decision of booksellers to cut the price of books in half will put more of their product into the hands of the people who ought to read them has ever been done before.

There is greater need of books-to-day—of good books. If the people who have the "speakie" habit, going to two and sometimes three cinema theatres a day, will acquire just a touch of the book habit they will find that they have more in their heads that is worth thinking about than they had before.

They will get a truer slant on life as it is. They will have more to talk about—and to be able to talk so that other people will listen is an accomplishment that all people crave, whether they admit it or not.

I hope the new price plan will include not only fiction but all new books—books of travel, books of science, books that tell what is being done to fight disease, to make life more comfortable, to make education "take."

There are so many interesting things going on,and we can know so little ofthem from our own experience, if we attend to our own jobs, that we need books more and more. If people can afford books they will buy them. If they buy books they will read them and maybe get the reading habit, without which the mind sees the world through a nearly closed door.

RE PRICE OF BREAD

Mr. Editor,
Dear sir:

The best way to make the bakers reduce the price of bread is to stop buying the bread and use a substitute for a time, and see how quick the price will drop.

Yours respectfully,
A. BILLINGSLEY.

It is said that there are a few, even some, old countrymen to whom Britain's appeal to Canada to join her in a league of British nations to develop the richest and least developed empire in the world, falls on deaf ears. It may be so but a man (a woman never would), who forgets his mother will forget his stepmother. Look out for him.

OPEN LETTER TO:
J. F. STRICKLAND, ESQ., M.P.P.

Dear sir:

On my return to the City after a couple of days absence, I find that you have asked me, "why I am not in the campaign behind Mr. Duffus" and "why I do not contest the Riding."

I do not suppose it is any of your business, but, however, as you have asked the questions, I will answer them.

Early in the campaign, as soon as Mr. Duffus was nominated, I told him I would do anything he asked me to do, to assist in his election, but the National Committee had asked me to let them fix my speaking appointments, and I would do as they required, subject to Mr. Duffus' assignments.

Mr. Duffus agreed to this arrangement, and I am glad to say that he had such a large number of speakers, who were superior to Mr. Strickland, that he was willing to release me from speaking locally except in a few instances.

The reason I was not a candidate at the convention is that I had come to the conclusion some time ago, that I had to decide whether I would remain in public life or attempt to make provision for my family and myself by the practising of my profession, and I decided the latter course would be the better one for me to take.

Let me add that there is not a day passes when I am in the city that I am not either canvassing in the City or in the County for Mr. Duffus, and in addition to that I have succeeded in inducing a good many persons to also actively support Mr. Duffus, for I feel that it would be a catastrophe to the City and County if we have four more years of weak representation, which has got us nowhere.

I remain,
Yours truly,
G. N. GORDON.

COMMENT ON THE MORNING STOCK MARKETS OVER BIGGAR AND CRAWFORD WIRE

Bullish enthusiasm which started on Thursday afternoon on the Toronto market did not carry through this morning. However, prices remained firm under reduced volume. Ford showed the greatest gain up $1 at $33. Brazilian opened at $39½ but moved up to its previous close of $40. Int. Nickel, British American Oil and Walkers' were steady, while Int. Petroleum was up 25 cents at $19 bid.

Selling, based on the increase in broker's borrowings, was quickly absorbed and the forward movement in pricipal stocks was resumed toward the end of the first hour. U. S. Steel moved upward to $165⅝ and Radio Corp. was taken in large blocks at the best prices on the current recovery. Around noon, however, selling was resumed.

BUILD BRIDGE ON KEENE ROAD

Dangerous Curve on Keene Road Has Been Eliminated By Commission.

VISION MUCH CLEARER.

A new bridge has been constructed and other improvements carried out by the Suburban Area Roads Commission in order to eliminate a dangerous curve at Brown's Bridge on the Keene Road about a mile from the city.

The new structure has been placed 50 feet from the original Brown's Bridge and the adjacent roadway has been widened to 28 and 30 feet. Trees have been removed in certain places on the stretch to provide clearer vision.

Traffic is still being routed over the old bridge and roadway while the surfacing of the new road and the construction of the approaches to the bridge are being awaited. The bridge is of concrete with a 14 foot span.

WESTERN FARMERS FEWER.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 18 (C.P.).—Only ten per cent. of the residents of Western Canada will be farmers in the not too distant future, forecast A. E. Parker, assistant to president of Winnipeg Electric Company, yesterday. Persistent substitution of machinery for workmen on the prairies would be the cause, he said.

FURTHER RELIEF FUNDS.

LONDON, England, July 18 (Canadian Press Cable). —Appropriations of about 310,000 for the Empire Marketing Fund, and $2,500,000 for further unemployment relief schemes, are included in the 1930 supplementary estimates, which were brought to a total of $5,109,600 by another issue of $2,800,000 to-day.

STRUCK BY TRAIN.

MILTON, Ont., July 18. (C.P.)—Believed to have been struck by a southbound C.N.R. train, the body of Mrs. John Summerville was discovered last night lying on the tracks near here. Coroner Dr. H. McColl will hold an inquest to-day.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. of Canada is one Canadian Company that is doing its best to keep shareholders informed of progress. Only a few days ago, president and general manager, C. S. Carlisle, in line with his usual practice forwarded a letter advising stockholders of approximate results for the first nine months of the fiscal year and to-day stockholders have received a second letter from the general sales manager pointing out that the manufacturing of tires is not all this company is occupied with. One of Goodyear's busiest factory divisions is the sole and heel department of the plant at Bowmanville.

"Perhaps it will surprise you to know that more people walk on Goodyear heels than on any other kind." The letter continues "being a leader, however, has its drawbacks as well as its compensation. Competitors are trying always to dislodge this leader. Naturally Goodyear is eager to maintain and to solidify its position and shareholders can help us do this."

Expansion Plans.

Changed business conditions has not prompted Canadian corporations to alter their plans for expansion and following up the announcement that Dominion Stores would enter the maritimes comes word that this organization already has three units in operation in New Brunswick. Two of which are located at St. John and the third at Moncton. These stores were first opened by way of experiment and the excellent results have encouraged the management to speed up the opening of further units and more locations have been decided upon and leases secured. Possibly, ten more stores will be opened in the maritime this year in the province of Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island, as well as New Brunswick. The Eastern stores are being served from the Montreal warehouse and the haul from this centre is not as far as from Toronto to certain outlying points in Ontario, where the company's stores are located. The larger proportion of the products, however are shipped direct from the manufacturer to the stores, thus affecting savings in handling charges.

Reduction in gross earnings of Brazilian Traction Light and Power Company in June 1930, when compared with June 1929, is one of the comparatively few times that the consistent growth in gross earnings from operations has been interrupted in nearly 3 years, in January last gross for the month was between the corresponding month of 1929 and one must go back to September 1927, to find a similar situation of greater satisfaction of stockholders is the substantial decrease in operating expenses, permitting of an increase in net earnings for the month. On the two former occasions when gross was lower there was a corresponding decrease in net, but forJune of this year a savings of 107,956 in operating expenses resulted in an increase in net of 543,947 despite a reduction of $64,009 in gross earnings.

SPRING BELT NEED OF RAIN

Renewal of Anxiety to Canadian Crop Outcome is Apparent.

ADVANCE IN CORN.

CHICAGO, Ills., July 18.—(C.P.)—Persistent complaints of hot dry weather over the spring wheat belt, resulted in early higher prices to-day for wheat. Renewal of anxiety as to the Canadian crop outcome in particular was apparent. Opening at a shade to 5-8c gain, wheat values later showed additional upturns all around.

Corn prices developed independent strength, starting ¾-1-¼c and subsequently rising still more. Oats also advanced. Provisions were irregular.

According to dispatches to-day from Calgary, the Canadian wheat region from Medicine Hat to Calgary is in very bad shape, with most fields burned brown and ripening prematurely. Besides, high winds were reported as blowing dust into drifts, and rain urgently needed to halt crop deterioration. In view of such advices and of disturbing messages also from other spring wheat districts both north and south of the Canadian border, free buying of wheat future deliveries was witnessed here, and a considerable part of the purchasing was credited to houses that have foreign connections.

Talk of Liberal export dealings to-day in North American wheat available for prompt shipment acted as a further stimulus to friends of higher prices. There were also continued reports that the wheat crop in France is very disappointing, and will necessitate imports on a large scale, on the other hand, United States winter wheat fields were reported to-day as turning out as well or better than expected.

NEW WORK'S AVENUE BEING CONSTRUCTED

Concrete Roadway and Sidewalks Being Built Down at C.G.E. Plant.

The staccato sound of the pneumatic concrete drill can be heard once more in the city as construction proceeds on a "Work's Avenue" on the property of the Canadian General Electric Company. T. A. Brown Company has the contract.

When completed the Work's Avenue will be a concrete roadway with sidewalks extending east and west on the C.G.E. property from the main gate on Park Street past the new power house and paint shop. It is being installed to facilitate communication and transportation between the various buildings on the north side of the property. Up to the present a gravel passage has existed.

Twenty-five feet has been cut off the end of the old boiler house to make way for the new avenue.

PRICE MOVES ARE NARROW

Howey Gold Continues to Drop in Weak Trading Again To-day.

ON STANDARD EXCHANGE.

TORONTO, Ont., July 18. (C.P.)—Price movements were confined to a few cents either way on the mining market to-day, trading remaining light throughout. An unusual feature of the session was the number of small lots of stocks turned over.

Howey Gold, which softened late yesterday, was weak again to-day, dropping to a low of 38 and standing at noon at 40 for a loss of a couple from last night. Reports of unsatisfactory millheads and indebtedness are believed responsible for the weakness. Other golds were also easier, Hollinger dropping 10, Dome and Lake Shore 5 each and Vipond a point to $1.29.

In spite of reductions in both the domestic and export price of copper to 11¾ and 11.55 cents, respectively, base metal issues held fairly firm. Waite-Ackerman and Noranda sustained minor recessions, but Amulet gained 3 to 5, Nickel 10 to $25 and Treadwell Yukon 30 to $3.80. Sherritt Gordon, off 4 to $1.36, showed the only change in the Lindsleys.

Oils were only lightly traded, the majority of members of the group failing to put in an appearance, Nordon was off a cent to $1.04, but Calmont gained 5 and Ajax Oil a couple to $1.80.

Article LXXII.

Q.—(a) What very important things should be accomplished in a re-organization plan, without any plan is likely to fail?

A.—Re-organizations that are the result of interest charges being in default, are primarily caused by financial structures being top heavy. Of course, a company may default its interest charges for other reasons such as keen competition, mismanagement, lack of demand for its products, etc. Other things being equal re-organizations may be made successful, if they were the result of a lack of working capital to take care of fixed charges. Therefore in such a re-organization plan, fixed charges must be reduced or else there will be a recurrence of the affair.

Fixed charges can be reduced by replacing bond issues with bond issues of lower interest rates, or by granting income bonds or stock in their stead, or by a combination of both. There should be a sufficient assessment of security holders to provide sufficient working capital for the company to carry on successfully and enable it to pay off quick liabilities and meet re-organization expenses. There should be a sufficient assessment can realize sufficient capital by a sale of its own securities held in its treasury. As a rule however, the securities will only bring a low price at such a time and such practice is not commendable.

b) What the nature and purpose of Receivers' Certificates?

A.—Receivers Certificates are obligations of the receiver, are authorized by court and are issued in order to raise immediate funds to take care of the quick liabilities and other re-organization expenses. As a rule, when a company is put in the hands of a receiver it is in a bad financial condition. Other reasons for issuing receivers' certificates are to provide a sinking fund, to pay for equipment, to meet running expenses, or for refunding purposes. The receiver is in this way able to operate the company and keep it intact from all legal proceedings and thus conserve its earning power.

These certificates resemble bonds — having coupons attached. They are usually secured by liens on the company's property. They are short term issues, running from two to five years —are transferable—and may often be registered as to principal. They are usually exchangeable for new securities or for cash. Such liens do not always rank ahead of all the company's outstanding bond issues.

AUSTRALIAN CARS UP.

SYDNEY, Australia, July 18 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters). — One effect of the increases in the Australian tariff will be to increase the price of motor cars to the buyer by amounts ranging from $85 for the smallest type to $500 for the higher priced cars.

EXPECT UPWARD MOVE IN COPPER

Decline in Stocks Indicates Production Has Fallen Shipments For First Time in Months.

TORONTO, July 18. (Special to Examiner.)—The action of copper producers in dropping the quotation 11¼ cents a pound and of the copper exporters in reducing their price to 11.55 cents cif, European ports, has found little reflection in the market prices of stocks of local copper companies. The feeling is that present prices fairly well discount at most any reduction in the price of copper, and that the next really important move will be upward.

While the decline in total stocks of copper on hand of this continent at the end of June was relatively important, it was felt to a move in the right direction, indicating production had fallen below shipments for the first time in several months, a good deal of the present buying of the red metal is for the purpose of building up the co-called invisible stocks, but any improvement in demand from ultimate consumers, largely dependent on general business conditions should have an immediate effect on the price of copper.

Again the question of development of the immense iron ore in the Belcher Islands of Hudson Bay has been brought to the fore in advise from Winnipeg. The report is that the party holding a controlling interest in the deposits, is at present negotiating with New York interest and has made attentative deal by which funds for development will be provided. It is said plans call for an initial expenditure of about $100,900 on diamond drilling.

TASCHEREAU IS IN ELECTION FIGHT

United States. He is strongly critical of what he terms back-doors canvassing among employees of the Canadian National Railways. He charges that the canvass is an effort to make the people of Canada forget the issues. "Any effort to drag the C.N.R. into politics,' he declared "is hurting the system. Let us keep it out of politics. Imagine people going around alleyways and making back-door canvasses saying things of that sort which are not true. The president said he would keep the system out of politics that is what should be done."

Premier King, at Sault Ste. Marie, described the Dunning budget as a great and determined effort to develop trade with the Mother country. It had left the Conservatives in a position where they didn't know how to get off at." "At first," Mr. King exclaimed, "they said we had stolen their clothes." Then the Conservatives adopted a policy of opposition and ridicule.

BRITISH MARKETS DESTROYED

HAMILTON, Ont., July 18 (C.P.)—Speaking for the first time in the Federal election campaign, Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture in the Drury regime, told a Cayuga audience, supporters of Marks Senn, Conservative candidate for Haldimand, that the King policy had destroyed British markets, which Canadians hoped to extend. He criticized the Liberal administration and declared that agriculturists to-day must consider not alone the production of crops, but the finding of a profitable outlet for their produce.

SMELTERS RISES ABOVE 200 MARK

Only Stock to Show Activity During To-day's Trading on Toronto Exchange.

FORD OF CANADA HIGHER.

TORONTO, Ont., July 18. (C.P.)—There was no change in the situation marketwise on Toronto Stock Exchange to-day. Trading was uninteresting during lunch hour. The floor most of the time was deserted, floormen having so few orders to execute.

Price changes were narrow. Stocks were firm, which caused no surprise in view of the abilityof the market this week to hold up despite falling off in business.

One of the interesting movements occurred with respect to Consolidated Smelters. For weeks now there has been scarcely any trading in this stock. The day prior to the expiration of rights there were signs of life and the price was pushed up to 200, after having been around 188 for some considerable time. To-day further buying was in evidence and the price rose fractionally above 200, between one and two points higher than the close last night.

The usual leaders, Nickel, Brazilian, Walkers, the oils, were firm but slow. Ford of Canada got up to 33 again, a point higher than the close last night, but no higher than the best yesterday. Gypsum firmed ¼ point, Service Stations the same amount. Lake Superior Corporation, in which there is some awakening of interest in view of the fiscal year's operations of Algoma Steel being expected to be made public shortly and the fact that officials of Lake Superior are now in England, presumbaly conferring with bondholders, came out 10. Tip Top Tailors at 35 was unchanged.

DUNNING SAYS BUDGET IS EXAMPLE TO EMPIRE

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., July 18 (Canadian Press): — In the British preferential features of the May Day Budget, Canada had given a great lead to other parts of the British Empire to foster a spirit of co-operation, declared Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Finance, at a meeting here last night. The Minister declared that the people of Canada on July 28 not only decide on a great national policy, but they would at the same time have an opportunity to make way for a broad British Empire policy.

GREENLAND EXPEDITION WILL STUDY AIR ROUTE

The expedition is being financed by Le Journal of Paris and Dr Dombrova. The whaler Grane of Aalesund, under the command of Captain Head, is making th trip.

FEDERAL GOV'T COST AUSTRALIA $41,000,000

CANBERRA, Australia, July 18. — (C.P. Cable Via Reuters)—Answering questions in Parliament to-day Prime Minister James Scullin said that if circumstances permitted he would attend the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva for a few days before the opening of the London Imperial Conference on Sept. 30.

The Prime Minister revealed the Federal Parliament, including allowances and elections, had cost Australia 8,602,000 pounds (about $41,000,000) since Federation in 1901.

War Seen Between France and Italy

NEW YORK, July 18.—James W. Gerard, Ambassador to Germany under Wilson, expressed belief yesterday upon his return from France that "a new war is brewing between Italy and France."

"It is imminent," he said. "It is in the air."

He talked to no diplomats on his visit, he said. Asked of France were the aggressor, he answered: "I should not say so. She has too much to remember of the last war. I think France fears it."

PARK RESIDENTS ARE AWAKENED

Sham Battle on Chemong Lake Creates Hullabaloo in Early Hours This Morning.

COTTAGERS PROTEST.

Pirates! Pirates! Captain Kidd and a band of his wild ruffians early this morning attacked Chemong Park. A group of cottagers boarded a speed boat and made sturdy efforts to drive off the water brigands but suffered severe losses.

With wild whoops, booming shots, flares and bristling knives the pirates descended on the defending boat. Most of the defenders in the face of the bloody attack deserted and their boat was captured.

Amazed at the attack, residents of the Park were rudely awakened from their slumbers by the noises of battle and ran to the Government wharf to sanguinary battle and speculate as to its meaning.

It was only the more daring members of the summer colony out on a spree. They were merely endeavoring to inject a few thrills into the quiet and tame life at the Park.

Infinite pains had been taken by the thrill-makers in their preparations for the big night. The pirates were stripped to the waist and sported tatooed skull and cross-bones on their naked chests. They were armed to the teeth with cutlasses and guns loaded to the muzzle with blank cartridges.

The hullalaboo lasted in full-frenzy from midnight until two o'clock this morning, and it attracted the attention of practically every resident of the park.

FRESH AIR CAMP MOST POPULAR

Children Are Gaining in Weight Every Day While at Camp.

ALL ARE EXAMINED.

Peterborough youngsters are gaining weight and health quickly at the Jackson Park Fresh-Air Camp and the camp is crowded to capacity, President C. S. Browne announced at the Kiwanis luncheon to-day. The kiddies are showing vast improvement under the care given them at the camp, and each of them gained from three to six pounds in weight during the first week. They were all examined by the Clinic set up by the Kiwanis Club and passed as underweight and malnourished, but with the splendid meals at the camp they are making rapid progress to full vigor. Mr. Browne said that as the children attain normal weight they will be replaced by others who need the camp's benefits.

Members of Carman Gays' Gypsy Band, now playing at Rye's Pavilion, and Wynn Phillips' Orchestra, of Chemong, delighted the Kiwanians to-day with some snappy musical numbers, supplying a big program.

Rev. A. E. Moorehouse, new minister at St. James' United Church, was the speaker of the day and was loud in his praise of the beauties of this city and district. Coming here from East Windsor, he stated that he was impressed with and delighted with the natural beauty in Peterborough.

Estimated About Half of May-June Loss Has Now Been Recovered.

RADIO UP 2 POINTS.

Credit Conditions Practically Unchanged With Call Money at 2 Per Cent.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18.—(CP)—The stock market appeared to be losing its wind today, as operators for the advance insistently continued to urge share prices further upgrade on top of the almost steady climb of the past week.

Several pool favorites were pushed up to new high levels for the recovery but pivotal shares here and there showed distinct inclination to falter. About half of the May-June loss has now been recovered, and many traders felt that a breathing spell would now be in order.

Credit conditions were practically unchanged with call money at 2 per cent, another shipment of $4,000,000 in gold to France was announced, but at least some bankers feel that the country can afford to lose a large quantity of the yellow metal. The imports of $200,000,000 ths year were not really needed, although they undoubtedly contributed to the abrupt ease in money rates. There is a notable tightening of longer term credit, in this market, but no decided upturn in money rates is expected.

Among the pool favorites, Radio, Loew's, Electric Auto Lite, and Houston Oil rose 2 to more than 3 points. There was a burst of activity of international Telephone, which mounted a couple of points. Some of the rails were strong, notably Wabash, which gained more than 3 in response to the Baltimore and Ohio's final acquiescence in the five Eastern trunk line plan. Some of the coppers sold up a couple of points in what appeared to be short covering on the further reduction in red metal prices. Coca Cola, International Harvester, National Steel and Allied Chemical made fair gains. Case was an active high flyer, selling up more than 13.

On the other hand, U.S. Steel, American Telephone, American Can., Vanadium, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, and Electric Power and Light sagged a point or two at times, although several appeared to meet good support, particularly U. S. Steel. Atchison and Union Pacific lost 3 each, and Auburn more than 5.

DIFFICULTY RISES OVER AIR RACES

Italy Suggests Britain Be Ignored and 1931 Event Be Held in Venice.

SENDS PROTEST.

ROME, Italy, July 18.— (C.P.) — The Aero Club of Italy now in conflict with England over the Schneider cup entries, has proposed to the International Federation of Aeronautics that Great Britain be ignored and the 1931 races be held in Venice without payment of any entry fee.

The Aero Club of Italy wrote the International Federation of Aeronautics in part as follows:

"The contents of the letter from the Aero Club of England cannot be acknowledged and considered by the Aero Clu bof Italy because the letter ignores the authority of the International Aeronautical Federation. Instead the Royal Aero Club of Italy desires that the authority of the International Federation be accepted by all federated organiaztions and ignored by none. The Royal Aero Club of Italy in consequence does not wish to discuss decisions taken by the International Federation, as the Royal Aero of England does."

MYSTERY OF ABANDONED BATH SOLVED AT LAST IN WINNIPEG

Open-Air Tank Has Stood Unused for Many Years.

COST $30,000

(Special to the Examiner. Copyright 1930)

WINNIPEG, July 18—One of the standing mysteries of this city has been the existence of an abandoned open air bath in an enclosure in a city park. Nobody seems to remember why it was never used. But there it stands, a perpetual reminder that in some earlier, happier day the city probably enjoyed all the good effects of a sun and a water bath combined, such as are now enjoyed by the proletariat of London, thanks to the ministrations of the Labor government there.

The bath is sizeable—75 by 150 feet. There is a revived movement to have it put into shape for the use of the public.

The cost of constructing the bath back in 1913 was only $30,000, according to the inventory on the city's books. It would probably cost three times that sum to bring in the white and glistening Scotch tiles and build such a bath to-day.

Around the bath were erected columns of large, stucco-coated pillars, supporting a rustic-roof effect round which vines were supposed to grow and give the necessary shade to tender skins.

And now the story has come out of the City Hall archives. When the bath was built it was planned to heat the artesian well water then used all over the city by a specially installed boiler. But this boiler couldn't raise the temperature above 50 degrees which was too cold for bathing. Before a new boiler could be installed the war came on and the structure has been left useless ever since though now Winnipeg gets its water from Shoal Lake, in Ontario, and this water is nearer the required heat for human bathing than the artesian well water could be raised to by the boiler outfit. As a result Winnipeg will likely soon have its long-promised and long-forgotten out-door bathing centre.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, July 18. — The local butter market carried along yesterday at a steady pace, with fair activity on the buyer's side for lots at firm prices. Ontario No. 1 was offered by brokers at 27¾c and No. 2 showed no change at 26½c to 26¾c. Receipts were lighter due to a certain amount of storing throughout the province and a lowering of production, which is usual at this season of the year

Butter prices yesterday were just about 10c lower per pound than at this time last year, and according to local dealers the present prices are due to hold about steady for a brief period at least. Country shippers were quoted as stated above, 27¾c to 28c for Ontario No. 1 and 26½c to 26¾c for No. 2. But as previously mentioned the higher prices in all cases were obtainable for high scoring butter only and preferably large lots. Retailers were offered No. 1 at 31c and No. 2 at 30c.

Cheese.

The cheese market was not very active and prices quoted on Wednesday were still good. Dealers quoted 16½c to 16¾c for new large, 16¾c to 17c for twins and 17c to 17¼c for triplets.

Eggs.

The egg market was strong. Brokers were able to secure 31½c for extras, 29c for firsts and 25c for seconds, graded eggs, in free used cases. These prices were for Ontario eggs, of course, and showed that Ontario extras were commanding the same price as western eggs. Western eggs were purchased yesterday at the current prices of 31½c.

Poultry.

A new list of poultry prices was issued yesterday but the quotations were nearly the same as issued last week. Spring broilers were required to be a little heavier than asked for last week to get the top price, and spring ducklings dropped a cent for white and went up a cent for colored. The full range of prices is carried on this page.

Potatoes.

New, Ontario potatoes in carlots were down 10c a bag at $1.80 to $1.90 on track, Toronto.

BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

EAST BUFFALO, N.Y., July 18.—(C.P.)—Hogs 1,000; holdovers 400; most 250 lbs. down, including pigs steady; weightier butchers and sows 15-25 lower; 220 lbs. down 10.00-10.15; 230-260 lbs. 9.60-10.00; weightier butchers 8.75-9.50; packing sows 7.75-8.00.

Cattle 250; all classes late Wednesday fully 25 lower, spots off more on steers; to-day's trade slow, weak with steers 90 lower and cows and bulls fully 25 under Monday's level; few common lightweight steers around 7.00 and less; fat cows 5.00-6.00; cutter grades 3.00-4.50; medium bulls 5.25-6.25.

Calves 150; steady; good to choice vealers 13.00-13.50; common to medium 8.50-11.50.

Sheep 1,400; lambs 50 lower; bulk better grades 11.00-11.50; common throwouts mostly around 8.00; fat ewes steady at 2.50-3.50.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

TORONTO, July 18.—Live stock receipts at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 4 cattle, 25 calves, 17 hogs, no sheep or lambs.

There were only the few fresh arrivals in the offering at the market in the morning and trading for the day depnded upon the receipts off the road. Wednesday practically cleaned up the offering.

Prices showed partial recovery of the week's early decline, butcher steers showing 25 cents a cwt. and cows just a shade lower than Monday. Good weighty steers sold Wednesday at 8½ cents a pound, with the bulk at 7½ cents and good butcher cows made 6½ to 7 cents. Baby beeves sold steady for the week at 9 to 11 cents. Butcher bulls closed firm, with best selling up to 6½ cents and bolognas strong at 5 to 5½ cents a pound.

Calves in yesterday's light offering sold steady at the week's advance of 50 cents a cwt. Good veals are bringing 10 to 10½ cents and grassers 5½ to 6½ cents a pound. There were no sheep or lambs for sale at the opening of the market. Good ewe and wether lambs closed Wednesday at 12½ cents a pound and culls at 9 to 10 cents. Sheep sold a shade stronger than at the opening of the week. The range of prices at the close was 2 to 5 cents a pound, according to quality.

Closing prices on hogs showed an advance of 75 cents a cwt. for the week. Outside buyers paid the top, around 12¾ cents a pound for w.o.c. bacon. A share of Wednesday's supply sold at this level.

There were not enough representative sales to warrant quoting.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, July 18. — Undaunted by the unusual bull aspect of the market, bears waged a winning battle in the wheat pit yesterday, driving prices lower by nearly a cent. At the close the market was down ⅝c to ¾c. Lack of outside interest and limited export business nampered the market, which strove to go into higher ground.

Gains early in the day of a cent were easily wiped out later on. Reports of widely scattered rains in the West were accepted and interpreted as being of little help to the growing crops, which have been scorched by a hot sun for days.

Cash wheat attraced more attention than usual, spreads being fractionally better, but trading still was on a light scale. Coarse grains were featureless, all commodities easing slightly in sympathy with wheat.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, July 18. — Enlarging receipts of wheat here and at other primary centres, together with greater scepticism shown as to crop damage reports, finally overburdened wheat prices yesterday.

After an unusually numerous succession of advances and setbacks in quotations, the market ruled lower in the late dealings, despite an authoritative, unofficial summary sugesting that the spring wheat harvest in the four principal States would be 19,000,000 bushels less than the Governments July 1 foecast. Primary receipts of wheat in United States yesterday, including 309 cars at Chicago, totalled 3,886,000 bushels, against 3,386,000 bushels a week ago.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsteady, ¼c to ⅜c a bushel lower than Wednesday's finish. Corn closed unchanged to ⅝c down, oats ¼c off to ⅛c up, and provisions varying from 42c decline to 15c advance.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, July 18.—Potatoes continued to be the feature of the Montreal dairy and produce markets yesterday. Heavy arrivals of new potatoes from near-by points precipitated prices 40c to $1 per 80-lb. bag, just half the price quoted on the local market at the beginning of the week. Butter, cheese and egg markets were unchanged, while bran shorts and middlings were advanced $1 a ton, in view of the strong demand for millfeed across the border.

Cheese Is Steady

Eastern Townships No. 1, pasteurized creamery butter was quoted at 28 1-8c to 28¼c a pound, remaining steady. To the retail trade, prints were 31c, and solids 30c a pound. Receipts were 2,515 boxes, as compared with 1,257 a week ago, and 1,062 on the corresponding day of last year.

The cheese market was steady at 16 3-8c to 16½c for Ontario, and 15 7-8c for Quebec cheese. Receipts were 9,880 boxes, as compared with 4,775 boxes last week, and 1,062 on the corresponding day last year. Egg receipts were 1,158 cases; week ago, 1,992; year ago, 2,775 cases; with prices steady. The poultry market was firm and unchanged.

People of British Malaya ate more than 11,000 pounds of American honey last year.

Teacher "Skinny" Nervous, Gains Pep 14 Lbs. in 3 Weeks

ST. AURELIE, P.Q.—"Was nervous, exhausted. So skinny, was embarrassed," says Miss Alphonsine Fortier, teacher. "Tried Ironized Yeast. Gained 14 lbs. in 3 weeks. Now healthy and happy."

Teachers, lawyers, doctors, nurses, mothers, ministers all write of gains of 5 to 15 lbs. in 3 weeks with new Ironized Yeast. Blemished skin clears. "Nerves," constipation, indigestion go overnight. New pep.

Ironized Yeast is two great tonics in one. Weight-building brewer's Yeast plus strengthening, blood-enriching Iron. Many times more effective than unmedicated yeast. Results in half the time.

Don't be "skinny," weak, nervous, in danger of serious ills. Take these pleasant little tablets. No yeasty taste; no gas. If not delighted with quick gains, manufacturer refunds money. Get Ironized Yeast from druggist today. Feel great tomorrow. New pounds quick.

Conservative "Gloomers" Are Hurting Business Says Financial Post

Campaign of "Hypocrisy" Says Canada's Leading Financial Paper Condemning the 'Blue Ruin' Campaign to Destroy Canadian Confidence.

"Hypocrisy" is the word The Financial Post applies to the Conservative campaign of "blue ruin."

The Financial Post, published by the MacLean Publishing Company, Limited, Toronto, has the largest circulation of any Canadian financial paper.

The front page of The Post this week delivers a damaging rebuke to the leaders of the Conservative party in this election. And unquestionably The Post reflects the business mind of the entire country. Electors seeking guidance in the welter of party conflict will be impressed by the sharp censure which The Post, as an influential journal of the business world, expresses in this final stage of the elections.

The following is a direct hit at the Hon. R. B. Bennett and 'blue ruiners':

"An attempt dispassionately to appraise the merits of the campaigns of Liberals and Conservatives, leads to the conclusion that the Conservative managers are in grave danger of throwing many votes to the Liberals. The Conservatives, without a doubt, have overdone the talk of hard times and have promised too much if they are granted a majority in the House of Commons."

The Post is expressing exactly what has been passing through the minds of the electorate, as the Conservative chorus of depression with the same wearisome, doleful dirge of 1926 and other years tries to distract the people's confidence from the Dunning Budget and the Liberal policy of broadening and strengthening Canada's trade within the British Empire.

"ARE STIFLING BUSINESS"

"A business man who is a regular reader of The Financial Post writes us this week:

"The chatter that is going on in political talks is stifling to business. People are beginning to worry. It is simply politics. The sooner that it is exposed as such, the better for everyone."

From MANY OTHER BUSINESS MEN The Post has received approval of its front page editorial of last week decrying the spreading of gloom propaganda for political purposes.

The hypocrisy in this attempt to make Canadians so downcast and dejected regarding the future of their country that they will vote for this or that candidate who promises to correct conditions on July 29 if he is elected on July 28 is AN INSULT TO INTELLIGENT CANADIANS.

Canada is going through a period of business recession and the boom conditions of 1928 and 1929 are no longer with us. IN COMMON WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD we have slowed down and are catching our breath for the next spurt upward.

There is nothing in the current situation to suggest that a business catastrophe has overtaken us. Nevertheless the politicians are, for their own selfish purposes, attempting to paint such a lurid picture of ruin that the general public is beginning to catch the contamination and a feeling of pessimism is being created that will, if not checked in time, help to bring about serious conditions by checking expansion and slowing down progress.

PROSPERITY IS STILL HIGH.

With this article, The Financial Post republishes its most recent business chart, which is a regular feature of this paper each month. The chart has been brought up to date with the most recent available statistics recorded on it. It shows a considerable decline in business from the peak. But it also shows that we have held most of our gains of the last few years of prosperity. Business is about where it was two years ago, and two years ago everybody was satisfied that we were in the midst of the greatest prosperity in history. That should be enough to satisfy even the most confirmed hypochondriac.

The Financial Post in its weekly business review has recorded the rise and fall of Canadian business dispassionately and without resort to either excess optimism or pessimism. It will continue to do so, knowing that intelligent business men will not take minor or even moderately severe recessions as indications of a permanent halt in Canada's upward march. If the politicians will leave business alone and not attempt to trammel it by the instillation of general pessimism business men will soon have Canadian production moving upward again."

REASSURING TO THE ELECTORS

This statement by The Financial Post will go a long way to reassure the electors of the soundness of Canadian affairs and of the Liberal policies with their bid for intra-Empire trade.

R. B. Bennett, G. Howard Ferguson, Dr. R. J. Manion and the rest of the "blue ruin" Conservatives including locally E. A. Peck, J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., John Corkery, R. J. Soden and Mrs. Howard Fallis are revealed by The Financial Post as destroyers of confidence in Canada and Canadian prosperity.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, the man who cast Arthur Meighan out of the Conservative party, will stop at nothing in his reckless and destructive propaganda which The Post properly classes as "hypocrisy".

THERE IS NO "BLUE RUIN" FROM LIBERAL PLATFORMS, but on the contrary a plea to the Canadian people to vote for the Dunning Budget and the British markets which more than ever are necessary to the producers of this country.

In this riding J. J. Duffus, the Liberal candidate, has discussed and presented only the record of the King Government and the merits of the Dunning Budget as every audience he has addressed can testify.

A vote for E. A. Peck is a vote for Bennett and Ferguson and the other "stiflers of Canadian business".

Press Queries Benefit of Trip to London Imperial Conference.

ADD MORE EXPENSE.

SYDNEY, Australia, July 18. — (C. P. Cable via Reuters) — It is an amazing paradox that when an Australian Labor Government is erecting a tariff barrier so high and thick that foreign merchants can neither climb over it nor burrow through, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer declares under no circumstances, will the British Labor Government place duties on food or raw materials," says the Sydney Sun in a leading editorial to-day. "Under his declaration any protection which Australian products enjoyed under the British Conservative Government will be destroyed."

The Sun added, "but since the prime purpose of the Imperial Conference has always been the adjustment of trade relations it seems useless for a prime minister who has just put prohibitive tariffs on British goods and told the British merchant his trade is not wanted by Australia, to discuss Empire trade with a Prime Minister who declares he does not care who sells goods to Britain — Black India, Yellow Japan or White Australia. In there circumstances it may well be asked what is the use of Prime Minister Scullin making a trip to London at the expense of the taxpayers?"

GANGLAND GUNS TAKE TENTH DETROIT VICTIM

DETROIT, Mich., July 18 (Canadian Press).—Gangster guns claimed another victim here, the tenth in twelve days, when the bullet riddled body of David Overstein, aged 20, was found on the East Side.

Overstein's brothers, Manuel, aged 19, and Albert, aged 17, later appeared at police headquarters for questioning. Manuel said a member of the old Purple gang called at the house and asked why David had not kept an appointment. Police are looking for the caller.

PLAN WORLD REVOLUTION

LONDON, July 18 (C.P.)—The Soviet government has not changed by one iota its determination to provoke a world revolution and is still doing all in its power to that end. This is the opinion expressed in official circles here following the speech the other day by Joseph Stalin, the Soviet "Iron Man," in which he held out certain inducements to the western powers to grant Russia loans, but twitted them at the same time with building up a "border shelter," Finland and Poland, against the Soviet.

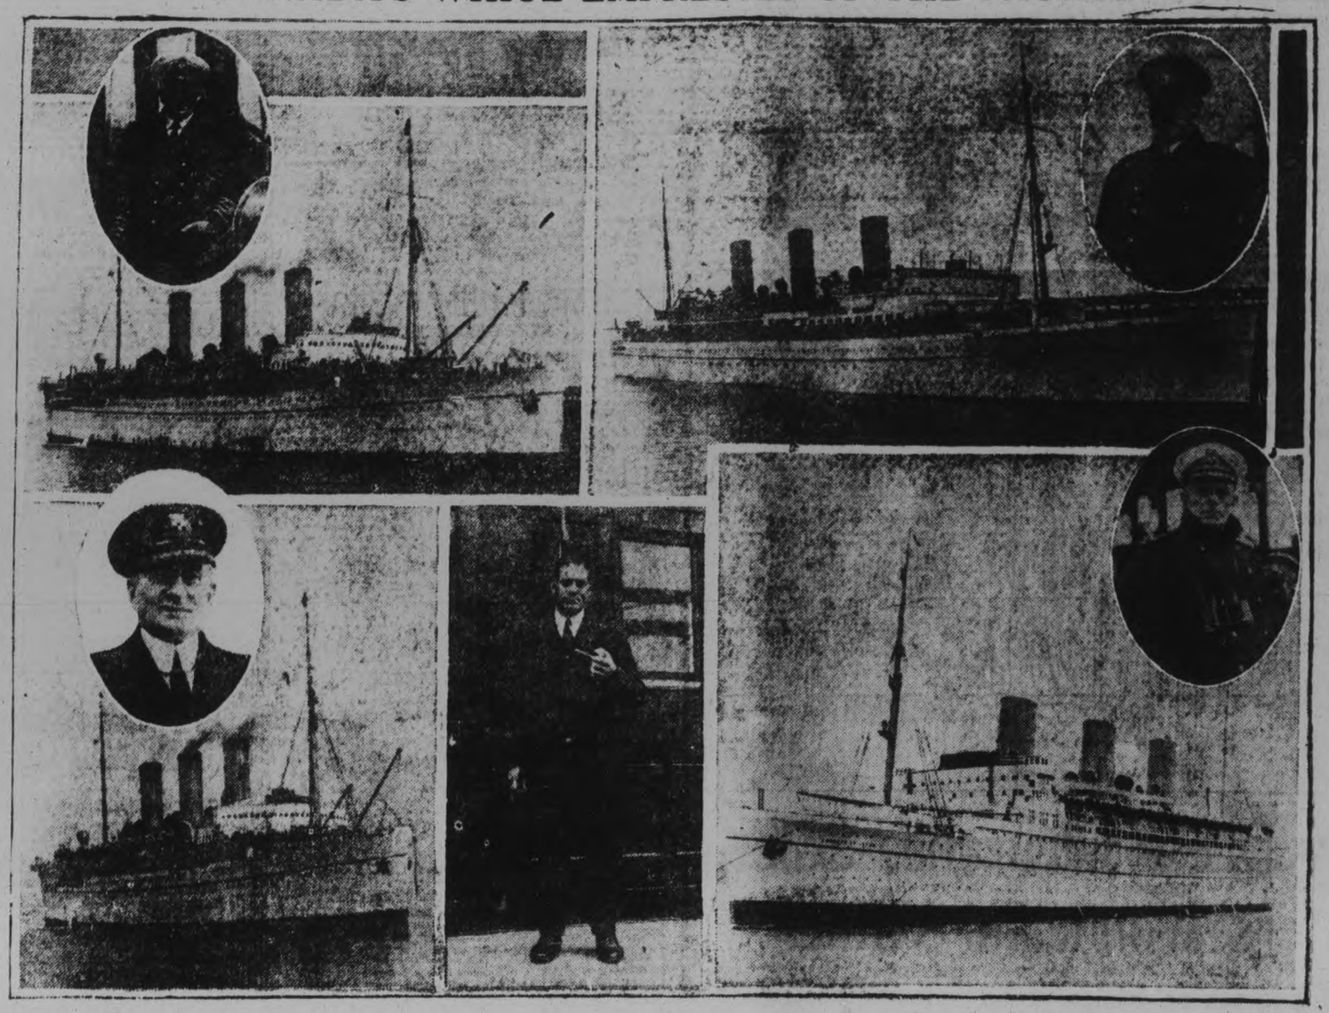
CANADA'S WHITE EMPRESSES OF THE PACIFIC



Above are the Canadian Pacific's four entries in the international race for shipping supremacy between North America and the Far East, the fleet of white "Empresses" which aggregates 81,600 tons of the fastest tonnage afloat on the Pacific, carrying the company's house flag and the Canadian ensign from Vancouver and Victoria to Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Manila and Honolulu. Top, left, shows the 16,800-ton "Empress of Russia" with, inset, her commander, Capt. A. J. Hosken, R.N.R. Top right is the 22,000-ton "Empress of Canada," former flagship of the fleet built for the Canadian Pacific in 1922, with her commander, Capt. A. J. Hailey, R.N.R., inset. Lower left is the 16,800-ton "Empress of Asia," with her commander, Capt. L. D. Douglas, R.N.R.; centre, Capt. Edmund Aikman, general superintendent of the C. P. Steamships, Pacific fleet, and right, the new 26,000-ton leader of the fleet, the "Empress of Japan," which makes her first trip out of Vancouver September 4th. Inset is her commander, Capt. Samuel Robinson, C.B.E., R.N.R., hero of the Japanese earthquake in 1923 and honoured by H.M. the king for his rescue work with the "Empress of Australia" during that disaster. It is fitting that Captain Robinson should now be in command of a new queen of the Pacific named for the country he served so conspicuously in the time of its greatest need.

Capable of 22 knots speed and with de luxe accommodation, which sets a new standard of luxurious travel on the Pacific, the new "Empress of Japan" makes possible fortnightly sailings and arrivals at Vancouver and Victoria, and will prove an important factor in the development of trade between Canada and the Far East. Trim, cruiser stern vessels with white hulls, buff coloured funnels and the familiar blue band running around the hull below the line of "A" deck, the white "Empresses" differ from each other mainly in size and age. The "Empress of Russia" and "Empress of Asia" are sister ships of 16,800 tons and have better than 20 knots speed, while the "Empress of Canada," re-engined a year ago, is 22,000 tons, and does 21 knots on regular voyages. All four ships of the "Empress" fleet, however, are built to the trim type distinguished by three raked funnels, schooner rigging fore and aft, cruiser stern, towering superstructure of bridge and weatherproof decks.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

"The life of one with whom you work, of a friend, of a member of your family may be lost because of your inexcusable failure to prepare yourself to meet the common dangers of drowning, electric shock and gas poisoning", reads the handbook just issued by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and which is of particular interest in this district where several lives are claimed in drowning fatalities each summer.

Many persons apparently dead from drowning, from electric shock or from the effects of smoke or such poisonous gases as illuminating gas or the exhaust from automobile engines, may be saved if natural breathing is stimulated by means of artificial respiration. If the victim is not breathing, artificial respiration should be started at once. Not a second should be lost! Any delay is dangerous and may mean the death of the patient."

When the victim is out of the water or free from electric contact or out of the poisonous atmosphere, if breathing has stopped, these instructions should be followed even if the victim appears to be dead.

The rescuer should quickly feel in the victim's mouth and throat and remove any obstruction to breathing, such as tobacco or false teeth. If the mouth is tightly shut, no attention should be paid to it until later. No attempt should be made to pry the jaws open. Not a moment's time should be lost before starting artificial breathing.

1. The patient should be laid on his belly, one arm extended directly overhead, his other arm bent at the elbow and his face turned outward and resting on his hand or forearm so that his nose and mouth are free for breathing.

2. The person administering the treatment should kneel, straddling the patient's thighs with his knees placed at such a distance from the patient's hip bones as will permit.

The palms of the hands should be placed on the small of the patient's back with the fingers resting on his ribs, the little finger just touching the lowest rib, with the thumb and fingers in a natural position, and the tips of the fingers just out of sight.

3. With arms held straight, the body should swing forward slowly from the waist so that its weight is gradually brought to bear upon the patient. The should shoulder be directly over heel of the hand at the end of the forward swing. The elbows should not be bent. This operation should take about two seconds.

4. Now immediately the body should swing backward so as to remove the pressure upon the patient completely.

5. After two seconds, the swing forward should be repeated. Thus the double movement of compression and release should be repeated deliberately twelve to fifteen times a minute, a complete respiration in four or five seconds.

6. Artificial respiration should be continued, without interruption, until natural breathing is restored, if necessary, four hours or longer, or until a physician declares the patient is dead.

7. As soon as this artificial respiration has been started and while it is being continued, an assistant should loosen any tight clothing about the patient's neck, chest or waist. Keep the patient warm. He should not be given any liquids whatever by mouth until he is fully conscious.

8. To avoid strain on the heart, when the patient revives, he should be kept lying down and not allowed to stand or sit up. If a doctor is not present by the time the patient has revived, he should be given some stimulant, such as one teaspoonful of aromatic spirits of ammonia in a small glass of water, or a drink of hot coffee or tea. Keep the patient warm.

9. Resuscitation should be carried on in a safe place as near as possible to the place where the patient was overcome. He should not be moved until he is breathing of his own volition and then moved only in a lying position. Should it be necessary, due to extreme weather conditions or other circumstance, to move the patient before he is breathing normally, resuscitation should be carried on during the time that he is being moved.

10. A brief return of natural respiration is not sufficient reason for stopping the work of resuscitation. Not infrequently the patient, after a temporary recovery of respiration, stops breathing again. The patient must be watched and, if natural breathing stops, artificial respiration should be resumed at once.

11. In carrying out resuscitation, it may be necessary to change the operator. This change should be made without losing the rhythm of respiration.

Air mail is being transported from Paris, France, to Buenos Aires, Argentina, in three and one-half days.

West Trip Disastrous For Washington Club

The current western trip of the eastern clubs of the American League is proving rather painful to the Washington Senators, but profitable to the rest. The Senators started a losing streak when they started west and the result has dropped them clear out of first place and into a somewhat precarious second.

The Senators left home as league leaders and now are 3½ games behind first place and only four points ahead of the third place New York Yankees. They split a series with Detroit and so far from dropped two out of three to Cleveland while their rivals have been sweeping through in a steady stream of victories.

CHARLOTTE STREET OPEN FOR TRAFFIC

Work is Already Well Advanced on Park Hill Road.

Paving work on Charlotte street was completed yesterday afternoon by the Warren Bituminous Paving Company, and this morning the city's main streets were clear for traftour around the C. N. R. crossing at Bethune street. The company will now concentrate its attention on Park Hill Road and Armour Road.

At the C.N.R. crossing the east track was being replaced this morning, and if negotiations between the railway and the paving company are completed, the right of way at the crossing may be paved shortly.

Park Hill Road has been torn up and grading is well under way. Ten thousand yards of paving remains to be done in this section and at the rate of 1,500 to 1,700 square yards a day, the company expects to complete its job within two weeks, The Examiner was told this momrning by C. E. Rice, local superintendent of the company.

The company is doing everything it can to make possible the operation of its asphalt plant on the west bank of the Otonabee River, beside the C. P. R. freight yards, without annoyance to residents in East City, Mr. Rice said. Two additional dust collectors have been installed and further devices are being applied to prevent the escape of noxious fumes, smoke and dust. The plant will be dismantled in about seven days when the work in the north end of the city is completed it is expected.

Antarctic Explorer Chooses Food Carefully

Sir Douglas Mawson, noted explorer in charge of the recent British Australian New Zealand Antarctic expedition, has compiled an interesting article, which notes among other things, the extremely important part food plays in a rigorous undertaking of that kind.

After dwelling at length on the difficulities attending the loading and storing of the tons of food taken aboard his ship, the "Discovery," he writes:

"In Polar enterprises supreme quality in foodstuffs is paramount. Low grade content and inferior canning may harbor germs which are likely to breed discontent and that dread disease scurvy.

"When forty men, compressed almost as tightly as the tabloids in our medical chest, rub shoulder to shoulder for a year or so, they appreciate good food almost as much as one another....

"Cheese did not escape the analytical search for food, high in protein content, and sufficient Kraft Cheese was taken aboard to ensure its being on the bill of fare at all meals."

Many other outstanding health authorities have also endorsed cheese as a vital, energy-producing food.

Sir Douglas Mawson's ship, the "Discovery," is now well on its way into uncharted seas of the Antarctic circle. The trip is to last approximately one year in which time, it is hoped, the exploration party will be able to gather a wealth of information that will aid greatly in solving the mysteries of the far Southern corner of the globe.

The Annual Expedition to Canada's Northern Archipelago Gets Under Way

On July 30th, the annual Canadian expedition to Canada's northern archipelago will sail from North Sydney, Nova Scotia, aboard the S. S. Beothic. The voyage will extend over 9,000 miles (see map on left) and will be made in about sixty-five days. The interesting photographs above show (top, left and right), Dr. Livingstone, who is one of the members of the expedition; the S. S. Beothic shown at Proud Inlet, many miles inside the Arctic Circle. Center: J. Dewey Soper, of the Canadian Government Department of Interior, who will disembark at Southern Baffin Island and stay there for two years to carry on investigations in connection with the Eskimos and wild life in that country. Below, left to right, shows: The Blue Goose, whose nesting place J. Dewey Soper discovered a couple of years ago, after it had baffled scientists for decades. Mrs. Dewey Soper, who goes with her husband to spend two years on South Baffin Island. She will be the second white woman to live there, the first being the wife of a missionary. Capt. Falk, skipper of the Beothic, and Geo. P. Mackenzie, who commands the 1930 expedition.

DUNNING BUDGET IS ALREADY FAILING TO DELIVER THE GOODS

In a vain attempt to stem the rising tide of indignation against the King Government in the rural sections Liberal orators and Liberal advertisements are endeavoring to persuade the farmers that the Dunning Budget means better markets for farm products.

LET US EXAMINE THAT CLAIM FOR A MOMENT
There is one sure effect of the Dunning Budget so far as the home market of the Canadian farmer is concerned. In so far as it will injure Canadian industry and affect the earning power of the Canadian worker, IT CANNOT FAIL TO HURT THE CANADIAN FARMER in the market that is closest and most profitable for him—his home market.

And how, when and where will it provide a better market away from home?

Mr. Dunning seeks to leave an impression and lesser lights of the Liberal party parrot his words everywhere, that the British people will be so full of gratitude at the extension of the British preference that they will stop buying wheat from the Argentine and from Russia and will form queues to buy Canadian wheat and other farm products.

Well, the famous Budget has been in effect for over two and a half months. You'd naturally expect that the sentimental reaction to it promised by Mr. Dunning would have shown itself most keenly in the first wave of the enthusiasm Liberal speakers claim it created in the Motherland, wouldn't you?
And what is the result?

The official statistician of the Board of Grain Commissioners announced a few days ago that there will be a "VERY LARGE" CARRY OVER OF CANADIAN WHEAT.

The Globe clamoring for support for the King Government on its front page and in its editorial columns has to admit on its financial page "EXPORT PURCHASING OF CANADIAN WHEAT IS DISAPPOINTING."

But here is even stronger evidence that the "May Day Budget" is failing to do what is being claimed for it.

The Government's own trade returns for June, the second month of the Dunning tariff, show that Canada's exports decreased by over thirty-three million dollars as compared with June of last year.

There were large decreases in the exports of wheat flour, fish, furs, meats, cheese and every other important commodity.

THE FIGURES SHOW THAT THE EFFECT OF THE DUNNING BUDGET SO FAR HAS BEEN TO DECREASE REVENUE AT THE RATE OF FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR, TO INCREASE THE UNFAVORABLE TRADE BALANCE, TO DECREASE THE TOTAL TRADE AND TO REDUCE EXPORTS IN MANY IMPORTANT COMMODITIES BY NEARLY 50 PER CENT.

THE DUNNING BUDGET IN SHORT IS NOT DELIVERING THE GOODS.

It has not caused a rush for Canadian wheat and we're going to have to carry over a big share of last year's crop while the King Government is doing nothing to solve the problem.

MR. A. G. McINTYRE, one of Mr. King's candidates in Toronto is reported as saying "The trouble with the farmer is that he is always wanting something for nothing. WHY DOESN'T HE LOOK OUT FOR HIMSELF AS OTHER PEOPLE DO?"

Well, Mr. McIntyre and his leader will both find out on the night of July 28 that in this election the FARMERS ARE LOOKING OUT FOR THEMSELVES.

They feel that their interests have been betrayed by the King Government and they are turning to a new leader who promises a new deal for agriculture as well as for industry.

Looking at their lean milk and cream checks they have decided that so far as their vote can stop him Mr. King is not going to do any more trade treaty-making for a long, long time.

The returns from rural Ontario are going to make very painful reading for Mr. King and his Government, for the farmer is voting this time to GIVE HIMSELF AND CANADA A CHANCE.

In this riding his vote will help to swell the majority of

JULY MEETING STIRLING M.C.

Mrs. Earl Fox Hostess to Members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Society.

INTERESTING PROGRAM

STIRLING, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—The July meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Women's Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Fox on Tuesday afternoon. There were nineteen members and six children present. Mrs. Joseph Reid, 1st vice-president, occupied the chair.

The scriptural reading was given by Mrs Thomas Matthews, and reports were given by the treasurer, supply secretary and W. and W. secretary, also the visiting committee. Flowers were to be sent to Mrs. Reid in the General Hospital, Toronto.

The topic was given by Mrs. J. E. McGee on the work being done in Manchuria and Mrs. R. H. Williams dealt with Formosa. Miss Gena Spry gave a reading "I don't believe in missions."

The August meeting will be withdrawn but a program was arranged for the September meeting to be held at the home of the president, Mrs. A. B. Fargey.

YOUTHFUL SINGER IN FENELLA CHURCH

Miss Dorothy Cross of Toronto Sings Two Pleasing Numbers.

FENELLA, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—Those who attended Fenella Church on Sunday morning enjoyed hearing Miss Dorothy Cross, soprano soloist, of Toronto, in two numbers, Come Unto Me, from Handel's Messiah and Jesus Lover of My Soul, by MacDougal.

Miss Cross is the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cross, 291 Atlas Avenue, Toronto, and is the gold medalist for York county schools, gold medalist for Peel county festivals, and youngest gold medalist in Ontario. She has also been heard over CKNC, Toronto, and is soloist for the public school musical lectures.

Mr. Cross was born in Fenella and received his public school education at the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross and Mrs. H. Ball were also in the choir and Mrs. Cross, soprano and Mrs Ball contralto, sang two duets, Rock of Ages and One Sweetly Solemn Thought. A trio Land of My Dreams, was well rendered by George Cross, tenor, Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Ball with Mrs. Louisa Carendy Murch, A.T.C.M., vocal teacher of Mrs. Ball and Miss Dorothy Cross, accopanying.

"SMOKERS" FOR WOMEN BUSY

Smoking compartments for women which have been installed on some railways in Germany, are receiving heavy patronage. Cigarette smoking among the fair sex has increased greatly in the last year, and 75 per cent of the compartments are now labeled "smoking".

Number Of Fine Yachts Increasing On Trent

The months of June and July thus far, brought a number of fine yachts over the Trent Waterway. They are trickling through the system one and two per day from home ports such as Montreal, Toronto, Buffalo New York, Alexandria Bay, etc. One yachtsman, in a note to the Chamber of Commerce, writes as follows:

"Enclosed is my cheque for $10 to cover cost of charts and exchange as per your kind letter of the 10th inst.

I have heard much of the beauties of the waterway and the courtesy and kindness of its people. I will be my pleasure to enjoy them shortly.

sult of the broad, generous mind of the Canadian who always put his country first, the speaker is satisfied that the Conservatives of Peterborough are going to help elect J. J. Duffus as representative in the Federal House."

W. J. Byers, who occupied the chair, made reference to the fact that the people in "these suburbs are going to get a free mail delivery entirely through the efforts of J. J. Duffus," to which the candidate replied that the reason he accepted nomination was that he thought he could be of service to the community. "During the past four years," said Mr. Duffus, "I have been the connecting link with this district and the Government. He made mention of the part he had played in bringing the question of a new post office for the City of Peterborough before the Postmaster General, and he said that this matter will be taken care of within the next fifteen months.

Analyzing the Conservative Party tactics, Mr. Duffus thought that their leader, Mr. Bennett, is leading the people away from their ideals and traditions and that thousands of Conservatives are going to vote Liberal this time who have never before done so.

"I have been closely following the speeches of the opposition and, frankly speaking, I think they are just making broad statements in the hope that they will gain some votes in exchange for their lack of policy."

Making reference to the statement made by Mr. Peck that "The United States is getting ready to take another crack at Canada," the speaker said the inference is that the U. S. is going to raise the tariff further against Canadian goods. I think the next crack will be to lower the tariff."

Mr. Duffus, who spoke for well over an hour, characterized his speech with a remarkable earnestness and vigor. "Mr. King is a statesman and not a politician and the difference between the two is that a politician looks forward to the next general election, while a statesman looks to the welfare of future generations" was but one of the striking messages which he shot home.

Following his speech at Confederation School, Mr. Duffus was obliged to hurry away to address another meeting at Zion. He was followed by Mrs. Forbes Allan, who spoke at some length on the hard struggle which the women in the Old Country had made to get the franchise, and she made an appeal to the women present to use that vote intelligently.

Referring to R. J. Soden's recent speech in which Allan said he inferred that Premier King is a political imbecile, by saying that he si not fit to run a grocery store, Mrs. Allen added, possibly Mr. Soden is not aware that it takes quite a few brains to run a corner grocery these days in face of opposition from the chain stores.

Touching on the unemployment question, Mrs. Allan said that one of the shortest ways to overcome the trouble which is not so acute in Canada as in other countries throughout the world, is to accept the policy of Empire Trade as laid down by the Liberal Party."

Before the meeting commenced and during the intervals, the audience was entertained by Bob Henry and Jack Smith.

McLAUGHLIN-BUICK INTRODUCES NEW LINE

OSHAWA, July 18. — Announcement that McLaughlin-Buick would shortly introduce a complete line of eight-cylinder automobiles to the public was made to-day by R. S. McLaughlin, president of General Motors of Canada, Limited.

Mr. McLaughlin declined to comment further on the new McLaughlin-Buick line for 1931, other than to say that the new cars are the culmination of some three years of intensive engineering tests conducted by McLaughlin-Buick and General Motors. Details as to models and prices will be announced in a few days, Mr. McLaughlin said.

Rumors that McLaughlin-Buick was preparing to introduce an eight cylinder car have been current in the motor industry for many months, and Mr. McLaughlin's announcement today is the first official confirmation issued by the company's chief executive.

For traveling across London from her home to her work, while suffering from smallpox, Doroty Beach was arrested and fined recently.

Horse Is Killed In Electric Storm

NORHAM, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—A horse owned by Cory Vallean was killed during the violent electric storm which passed over this district on Sunday evening. Considerable damage was done to James Ross' barn and the barn of Harry Alysworth was struck but neither caught fire. Some of the cows which were tied in the barn were stunned and Mr. Alsworth was also slightly hurt.

Sausages composed of whale meat and roasted grasshoppers, sprinkled with crickets, were served at a dinner given recently in Paris.

ROSENEATH WOMEN ENTERTAIN W. M. S.

Members Gather at the Home of Mrs. C. W. and Mrs. Orrie Varcoe.

ROSENEATH, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—Mrs. C. W. and Mrs. Orrie Varcoe entertained the ladies of the Women's Missionary Society at their home on Tuesday afternoon, with an attendance of thirty including a few children.

The president, Mrs. C. W. Varcoe presided. After the meeting opened it was decided to make an autograph quilt. Mrs. R. W. Paton, Mrs. M. Davey, Mrs. A. Brown and Mrs. Varcoe were appointed as a committee to purchase material and arrange for same.

Mrs. Mary Brown was appointed as Temperance Superintendant.

Devotional reading by Mrs. Andrew Brown was Psalm 67.

Introductory leaflet on "The Unfinished Task" was given by Mrs C. W. Varcoe, the teachings of the Moslems, telling the difficulty of winning them for Christ. No 1 was read by Miss Eliza Brown and was most interesting advising that one should be just and upright in dealings of Christian people, and the liquor traffic must be abolished.

Watch tower heralds were as follows—Mrs. Leslie Sherwin gave a good article on Missionary work in Japan and Mrs. Nixon gave a good report on work in China.

Mrs. Albert Nill, of Fenella, addressed the ladies on Christian Stewardship and finance, saying once we began to speak of Christian Stewardships it is impossible to get away from the question of finance.

"There is a service which is suitable in high places, which is highly honorable, as when Mr. Gladstone signed a post card "your obedient servant"; when the King of Italy went personally to the scene of the Sicilian earthquake and helped to relieve the suffering we were all glad when Queen Mary went among the sick soldiers in the hospitals and stopped to speak a word or place her hand upon a brow, our hearts were touched."

Mrs. Nill illustrated in words several pictures of greatness serving.

The third picture was in Paul's epistle to the Philippians, "And he took upon himself the form of a servant." What awed Paul was the thought of Christ humbling himself to the likeness of a slave. Paul was thinking of his home in Tarsus, where unregarded and unthanked the slaves were busy in their menial occupations, he was thinking of the carpenter shop at Nazareth, where the carpenter was at the beck and call of everybody, and Paul could not forget home, he had been told by Peter of Jesus washing the disciples feet. This is a picture of humility serving.

Now, how can we as missionary workers make our services more real and more effective? Christian service demands a life of positive single hearted devotion, to the welfare of man, to the support of all good causes, to the hope of the Kingdom, but a life so dedicated has its price which costs and demands self denial in money.

Christian service demands not only self denial in giving money but self denial in making it.

Mrs. Nill expressed herself very nicely and gave many illustrations along this subject but in conclusion she left a good thougnt with the ladies by saying, "Our church organizations with their meeting days come, like a little clearing in the choking jungles of our lives, and we catch a glimpse of God's wide Heaven and stars again, our souls are up and off, we feel the winds of God playing upon our foreheads, we hear the murmur of the infinite ocean of his love, and our hearts revive and we catch a vision of what the master meant when he said, "The silver and the gold are mine, the cattle on a thousand hills are mine," who then is that faithful and wise steward whom his lord shall make ruler over his household."

Miss E. Brown invited the members for the meeting in September. Mrs. Varcoe, Mrs. Paton, Mrs. A. Brown and Mrs Brisbin were appointed for the lunch committee.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

MEETING THE HEAT.

You may be very sensitive to the heat and with the approach of a 'heat wave' your spirits begin to droop.

Now it is just possible that during some pr vious heat wave you had a slight heat stroke without really knowing it, and it has left you just a little less able ti withstand the heat.

In most cases in this climate it is really the great amount of moisture in the air, combined with the heat, that causes the trouble.

A temperature of 90° F. with extreme moisture and stillness of the air can cause you more distress than a temperature of 100° F., where the moisture is low and there is a good breeze blowing.

So, when the heat wave arrives and there is no 'cool' place to which you can go, you must prepare yourself to withstand it.

Try to have in the home, the office, or the factory some method of creating a draught by windows or doors so that air may be kept moving. This is why electric fans are helpful. It is moving air that takes away the warm, moist air immediately about your body, and enables the body to get rid of that much more heat.

If possible, try to get up earlier in the morning and get your work well under way so that you may lie down or rest and not have to work hard during the hottest part of the day. You can then finish your work when it is not so hot.

Food, of course, is heating, but food must be eaten to keep up your strength. Cut down on your sugar, bread, potatoes, but not on meat or eggs. Cut down on fats, butter and pork. Drink water freely but not to excess.

If you have any feeling of giddiness, faintness or nausea, or skin feels moist and cool—get off your feet into a cool, shady place immediately and summon help. Fanning by hand or an electric fan is of great help.

It may be that heat to the feet and ice to the head and neck may be necessary, or even a heart stimulant where the pulse is weak.

Further, it would be well to remain in bed for a day or two after all symptoms have passed.

Another point that has long been noted is that where the individual has been working hard and is in an exhausted condition that the heat overcomes him sooner than it otherwise would. This exhaustion is often due to his doing too much work in an effort to get it cleared away before he goes on his vacation.

Remember, when the heat comes, don't be afraid of it, but keep intestine clear, eat regularly but not as much as usual, cutting down on starches, and rest as much as you can where you can get a current of air.

PARISIAN FOIBLES

This little frock, which is to be found in Madame Jenny's collection, is in the popular blue, in a knitted fabric, and is interestingly trimmed with navy blue braid.

PRACTICAL FROCK FOR A MORNING AT GOLF.

The sports dress has been somewhat neglected this spring, but there is always a place for the simple practical dress, equally good for a morning at golf or marketing. This little frock is in the popular blue, in a knitted fabric, and is interestingly trimmed with navy blue braid. Worn with stout oxfords and a little felt or beret, it is a costume as useful as it is smart.

Short Sleeves Rival Long Ones in Peterboro

BOTH ARE CORRECT FOR SUMMER THIS SEASON

For those who like short-sleeved dresses there is the model at the LEFT in the Vogue sketch above. It is of navy blue silk crepe, but it would be equally attractive in printed silk. A jaunty little cape gives a dash to the lines and serves as short sleeves. The lingerie touches give a fresh appearance to the dress. For those who prefer to cover their arms, the other frock is an excellent choice. It too is of navy-silk crepe. The photograph on the RIGHT is of a travel ensemble in red, blue and beige tones. (Sketch is by Vogue.)

WEDDING BELLS

PERRY-MUTTON

WOOLER, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—On Wednesday, July 9 a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Down, when their niece Myrtle Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mutton of Colborne was united in marriage to Blake Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Perry, Wooler.

The Rev. H. H. Mutton, of Cambray officiated, assisted by the Rev. A. Poulter, of Wooler.

The bride was given away by her father and was gowned in powder blue georgette and radium lace with hose and shoes to match, and wore a bridal veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, lily of the valley and baby's breath.

Miss Grace Mutton, sister of the bride, who was bridesmaid, looked pretty in a gown of mauve georgette and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and baby's breath.

The groom was assisted by Mr. Maxwell Burnside, of Madoc.

The ceremony took place beneath an arch beautifully decorated with evergreens and rambler roses. While the register was being signed, Miss Grace Mutton sang O Promise Me, and was accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Mutton, who also played Lohengrin's wedding march.

Following a reception the bride and groom left for a motor trip to the United States, the bride travelling in a blue tricotine suit. On their return they will reside at Preston Hill.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was an amethyst pendant, and to the best man a silver pen knife.

A telegram was received during the reception from the bride's sister, at Selkirk, Manitoba.

While Arthur Williams was driving sheep near Neath, Wales, his right arm was dislocated by a golf ball driven from the Clyne links.

Light, dainty frocks double the need for this deodorizing protection

IN warm weather . . . when danger of offense is so much greater . . . what a relief to know that Kotex completely deodorizes! What a relief to forget old fears . . . to know there is no possibility of offense.

But other reasons, too, make Kotex essential on warm days.

Kotex is non-detectable. The corners are rounded and tapered so no outline shows even under filmiest frocks. Kotex disposes like tissue.

Kotex stays soft, cool

Kotex is always light, cool, comfortable. It never loses its softness. It simply cannot pack. It is so very absorbent that weight and bulk are unnecessary. Kotex Company of Canada, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KOTEX IS SOFT . . .

1—Not a deceptive softness, that soon packs into chafing hardness. But a delicate, lasting softness.

2—Safe, secure . . . keeps your mind at ease.

3—Kotex filler is far lighter and cooler than cotton, yet absorbs 5 times as much.

4—In hospitals . . . Kotex is the identical material used by surgeons in Canada's leading hospitals.

Kotex—60c for 12—at any drug, dry goods or department store.
Kotex Super-Size—75c for 12

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

WOULD YOU CONSIDER an intimate friend and a confidential friend as one and the same?

• • • • • • •

Or do you, like a great many other people, make a contrast between them? In some cases perhaps, they may be, but in the majority of cases they are not.

• • • • • • •

Many a heart break has been caused by a misunderstanding of the two terms and what they denote.

• • • • • • •

What is your idea of an intimate friend and then what is your idea of a confidential one?

• • • • • • •

Well, an intimate friend is one that is particularly congenial, one who has similar likes and dislikes, or who is so totally different that one friend gives to the other the things that are lacking in each.

• • • • • • •

It is very strange indeed, but nevertheless it is true, that there are friendships built on dissimilarities of mind and temperament, as well as on similarities.

• • • • • • •

Exchange of confidences does not necessarily enter into such a friendship. Very often when it does—when one reveals secrets, etc.—a break in friendship very often occurs.

• • • • • • •

I once read a little verse which I thought was splendid and although it was sometime ago, I still remember it and always will.

• • • • • • •

"What's in your heart, let no man know,
Nor to your friends your secrets show,
For when your friend becomes your foe,
The world will then your secrets know."

• • • • • • •

I think it contains splendid advice, indeed, don't you?

• • • • • • •

On the other hand a confidential friend is one who is trustworthy—one whose judgment is felt to be essential in some particular matter, often in times of trouble.

• • • • • • •

There are confidential business friends, confidential legal friends, etc. A pastor is expected to be a confidential friend to his parishioners. They are expected to find in him an adviser on things spiritual especially, but frequently is called upon to hear much of family troubles.

• • • • • • •

Very often he is consulted when some of his parishioners are in financial difficulties and have other serious problems and he is false to his charge—not trustworthy—when he divulges what is told him in confidence.

• • • • • • •

He is a confidant, and the secrets he holds are sacred—to be divulged to no one, no matter what the nature of them might be.

• • • • • • •

A lawyer who has charge of a family estate or other legal business very often becomes a friend as well as an adviser in his professional capacity. Then he is a confidential friend.

• • • • • • •

His advice is sought when difficulties arise that are in his line, and those who entrust their secrets to him rely upon his business honor not to divulge what he knows.

• • • • • • •

A doctor, too, is a confidential friend. His patients have to have faith in his professional wisdom and his prudence, if he is to aid them to health. He gets to know family secrets, not because he wants to, but because he cannot very well avoid it.

• • • • • • •

These are examples of confidential friendships. It will be seen that they are quite apart from social intimacies. There is a reason why the persons are confided in, and it is part of their code of ethics never to tell to others things that they know.

• • • • • • •

With social friendships, there is no clearly defined code of ethics to govern their speech. They tell what they like of and about the persons they know.

• • • • • • •

Many are indiscreet so beware of being too confidential with intimate friends. Intimacies do not thrive upon confidences but upon congenialties.

Some Suggestions in Golf Attire

For the ladies who indulge in golf on the LEFT of the above photograph is a Vogue model of a slip-on sweater belted over the skirt around the hips. If this begins to take on an archaic air, milady tucks her sweater inside her skirt, which she belts around her waist at the natural waist-line. The short-sleeved linen blouse may be worn either over or tucked in the gored skirt. The suit is shown in light shantung, but a happy choice for summer golf is the light-weight woollens patterned in an inconspicuous plaid. At the RIGHT, the House of Francis, Paris, is displaying the white Mongol blouse trimmed with dainty tucking. The photograph is by Henri Manuel—Sketch is by Vogue.

Elaine And Her Ideas From Paris

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

ME AND MY HOUSE.

It is very trying to have a child say, "I don't care. I'm going. All the other girls and boyrs are going. I'm not going to be the only one."

Yet when you know that this going or doing is not for the best interests of the child you have to stand up for your belief and do your duty by this inexperienced child. It make no difference what anybody else does, if what is done is wrong. Protect your own.

School girls and boys of high school age need parties. True. But the parties need not be held at long distances from home in roadhouses, need they? If so, why? What is there at the roadhouse fifty miles from home that is so good for the children that they pay a large price for the service? And who pays the bill?

I believe that the people who pay such bills for children are to blame. High school children are dependent upon their people for their allowances. Even those who earn money outside are so dependent. Why furnish the money for something that you know is dangerous? Say NO and be done with it. Your decision will help some other family whose child is saying, "Every other boy and girl is going."

Extravagant clothes for the girls is another subject of discussion and tears. When the skirts are short, this child want the shortest that come. When they are long nothing but the longest will do. The fact that clothes cost a lot of money doesn't deter this young lady for an instant. She has been accustomed to having what she wants when she demands it and when you say, "This dress is too costly. You have a good one now," she weeps and storms. Should you allow one child to spend so much money for a dress that her mother and sister have to get along somehow because there is nothing left for them? Say NO and stick it to. The sooner the reform sets in the better. A spoiled child is a sorrow to himself and his people.

Nobody wants to make a child singular among its fellows, but if protecting one's children from danger is making them singular they will have to suffer that inconvenience for a time. All the boys drive cars. But wouldn't it be wise to have the boy ask permission first? And tell you when he leaves and when he expects to return and whom he expects to have with him?

Adolescence brings distressing symptoms. The best way to avoid the worst of them is to begin when the child is born and train him to a standard of conduct that will sustain him in the time of stress. But when that time comes the family must stand. The head of the house must sometimes say, "As for me and my house, this is what we do."

Al. Singer Knocks Out Mandell in First Round

BRONX FIGHTER STAGES FURIOUS ATTACK TO WIN LIGHTWEIGHT HONORS

Guile and Craft of 135-pound Ruler Proves Naught Against Smashing Challenger.

25,000 AT FIGHT.

Singer Overpowers Mandell Before Champion Had Time to Prepare For Attack.

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, N.Y., July 18.—(C.P.) — A furious chunk of bone and muscle in the person of eager young Al Singer, swept over Sammy Mandell last night and smashed the veteran champion of the lightweights from his title in less than a round.

A flaming youth who could not be denied by the craft and guile of the 135-pound ruler for the past four years, Singer swept over the champion with all the suddenness of a bolt from the calm sky overhead, crashed him to the floor three times, and then finished him with a stunning right hand clout to the jaw, the round lasted but one minute and 46 seconds.

Singer had been conceded far better than an even chance to beat down the king, whose reign went back to 1926, and a victory over the ring-worn Rock Kansas.

But no one, not even Singer's rabid rooters from the inflammable Bronx and least of all, the 25,000 of the faithful who gathered under the warm summer sky foresaw the blazing action that was ahead.

Singer, keyed to such a nervous pitch that he trembled in his corner, danced, glowered and all but pushed the referee apart in his anxiety to get at the champion, turned loose an amazing display of punching prowess before Mandell had any time to mount his defenses and prepare for the devastating attack.

Softball Notes.

Brintons and Sugar Bowl will do battle at Central School grounds tonight in a softball fixture. Both teams need a win, the Brintons to get into the running and the Sugar Bowl to get within striking distance of the leaders. Both teams will be a full strength, and the Brintons will have Ira Dundas on hand for the fixture.

Fans can be assured of a good match. The game starts at 6.30 sharp.

Last night's game was the first overtime fixture this season.

The fans sure witnessed a red-hot game. Both teams played good ball, having one error each.

It was a battle of southpaws, with Darling just managing to nose out Galbraith.

This boy Darling is pitching real ball and if he keeps up the present pace should beat Dormer's five straight wins.

Curry's circus catch of Delehaye's hard smash sent the Westclox rooters wild with joy. It was a great stab and saved the Clockmakers from being defeated by their former teammate.

The league is tightening up and next week should see some real arguments.

The all-round good work of the outfields of both teams last night was a treat to the fans. The infields were also on their toes all the way.

Galbraiths home run's in the seventh was a mighty wallop, and the pitcher got a nice hand from the crowd for his effort.

"Coffin oak boards" from America are being used in funeral caskets in the United Kingdom.

Benefit Game On Saturday Afternoon

On Saturday afternoon the Kiwanis Juniors and Kiwanis Juveniles will play a benefit game.

As there is no other game booked for Saturday afternoon this fixture should draw a big crowd. The boys are playing real fast ball, and only a week ago the Juveniles handed the Juniors a trimming.

Alex Kay and Edgar Lebarr will be in charge of the game, which will commence at 3 p.m. sharp at James Stevenson Park.

As this game is for a good cause it is hoped the fans will turn out in large numbers and make the trip across the bridge to see two fast, snappy aggregations in action.

There will be no gate admission charge, but a collection will be taken up.

Belleville Moose Win 16-12 Decision in Hastings League Fixture.

HEAVY CLOUTING

MARMORA, July 18.—(Examiner Correspondence).— Though outhitting Belleville Moose in their Hastings League fixture on the home diamond on Wednesday, Deloro Juniors, through a series of errors, lost their chances of victory and retired beaten by the score of 16-12.

G. Dunkerley started on the mound for Deloro but was relieved by Fred Callery in the fourth. "Chuck" Barrage pitched throughout for the visitors.

Deloro commenced to hit from the start. Hewitt, the first man at bat, getting a neat double. In the second innings, a timely single by Paquet opened the scoring McInroy and McGrath registering. In the third, the two Morgans were put out at the plate. Deloro did nothing in their half.

The fourth innings was a blow up for both teams. Two hits and five errors yielded the Moose 7 runs. Seven hits by Deloro by way of response brought in five runs and the score was tied seven all.

Deloro were destined to further misfortune in the fifth and this time one hit and two errors were responsible for the visitor's total climbing five higher. In the sixth each team added another run. Tightening up in the seventh, scoring was kept down. In the eighth Belleville squeezed another tally Deloro staged a pretty rally for Melville Simmons and McGrath to score.

In the ninth, Belleville again benefitted from errors to the extent of two runs. Deloro's reply was a single run scored by Hewitt on McInry's low grounder. The former stood out for Deloro in batting as well as in fielding, showing promise of being a very able third baseman.

CLOCKMAKERS' HURLER SLIDES HOME TO BRING STIRRING 11 INNING BATTLE TO 8–7 CLOSE

Victory Places East City Team at the Top in Second Half of City Softball League Schedule in Tie With Harrison's Grocery Nine—Third Straight Win For Darling This Week.

GALBRAITH CONNECTS FOR HOMER IN 7TH FRAME TO GIVE BELMONTS LEAD FOR A TIME

Diving between Si Haskill's legs, Lefty Darling slid into home plate at last night's softball game with the run that gave the Westclox an 8 to 7 victory over the Belmonts.

Through ten innings, the teams had battled and the eleventh had swung around when Darling poked out a hit into deep centre for three bases. He scored a moment later on Chuck Dorrington's sacrifice fly into left field, going under Haskill in a cloud of dust to just beat Nobbs' bullet-like throw.

It was a fitting climax to what was termed by close followers of the city's twilight softball entertainments to be the best game of the season. It was either team's game the whole way, but what properly pleased the crowd was that young Darling should come through with the winning counter. In two former games this week young Darling had toiled manfully on the rubber for the Westclox and last night's success made his third straight win.

The victory places the Alarmers right up in first place in the second half of the league's sweepstakes, right on even terms with Percy Harrison's stampeding nine.

Galbraith Hit Homer.

The Belmonts appeared to have the game safely stowed away when the ninth frame hove in sight. Galbraith's home run with two on in the seventh gave the game a strong Belmont complexion. Going into the final gallop the Westclox were trailing 7 runs to 4, but they broke loose to chase a trio of markers and tie the score.

During the large part of the bill the Clubmen enjoyed a lead. Delahaye's run in the first innings made them early favorites, but in the third the Clockmakers tied it up, Goodson getting on with a hit and scoring on Dorrington's sharp double into left.

Fielders in Saddle.

This made the first two hits the Westclox had obtained Scotty Galbraith, twirling for the Belmonts, being tendered superlative support by his teammates. The Clubmen were gathering in everything, the outer garden brigade of Board, Mather and Nobbs extending themselves in chasing the high hoists. Right in the saddle also were the Alarmers, but the Belmonts were hitting them on the ground and getting a couple on the pathways every innings.

In the fifth the Clubmen took the lead with two runs. Darling suffered a wild streak and eased himself into trouble by passing Nobbs and Delahaye. Batten socked out a double to make both gifts count as runs.

Westclox Take Lead.

However, the sixth saw the Westclox grab three runs to go out in front 4 to 3. Dorrington scored when White's drive into right was misjudged by Nobbs, and White crossed on Curry's single. Being advanced to third on Vinette and Kitchen's efforts, Curry walked home on a wild pitch.

Their joy was short-lived. Three runs were the Belmonts' portion in the big seventh-inning batting spree in which a home run by Galbraith loomed largely. Batten singled and Holyman got a life when Dorrington dropped his fly. Then Galbraith came along with his giant smack back of the bench in left field that was good for the circuit.

Those three seemed to be enough to sew the game up, and not content the Clubmen added another in the eighth, Nobbs scoring on Batten's sacrifice fly.

Westclox Final Rally

Then in the ninth the Alarmers staged their belated batting foray that tied the game up. Fowler singled and so did Darling. Dorrington singled, Fowler scoring and Darling going to third. A wild pitch permitted Darling to walk in. White grounded to Frick, who got the batter at first, but Dorrington raced in on the play with the tying run.

Curry got one of the biggest hands from the crowd in the tenth when he robbed Delahaye of a home run. Delahaye got hold of a nice one and rifled it into deep centre, but Curry speeded back, taking the ball over his shoulder. The catch saved the game because the clout was labelled for four bases. The Westclox then came through in the eleventh to end the excitement and win the game.

The teams:
Westclox—Dorrington, 3b; White, c; Curry, rf; Vinette, ss; Kitchen, 1b; Foley, lf; Goodson, cf; Fowler, 2b; Darling, p.
Belmonts—Delahaye, 3b; Haskill, c; Batten, 2b; Frick, 1b; Holyman, ss; Galbraith, p; Board, lf; Mather, cf; Nobbs, rf.

SOFTBALL GAME ENDS IN A TIE

Petherick's Corners and English Line Stage Nice Softball Game.

GOOD SUPPORT GIVEN

PETHERICKS CORNERS, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — The local softball team staged a draw in the softball game with English Line at the Tabernacle Church garden party on Tuesday evening. The Line team was very strong with a mixture of young fellows and veterans. Craighead and Grills retired after the second in favor of Fry and Billen and each of these got two hits and a run in three times up. Diamond, with three hits and three runs was The Line team's heavy hitter. Maybee also got three hits, one a triple. "Buster" Whitton was on the receiving end for the Line, but was held off the score sheet until the seventh when he waited out three balls and then got on in the groove for two bases. The Line fielders, somewhat erratic at first, steadied as the game progressed and in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings the Pethericks' squad only had ten men to bat, Meiklejohn hitting safely but being forced at second by Owens.

Meiklejohn led the attack for Pethericks with four hits and two runs in five trips. Ted Owens hit safely on three occasions and scored one. Anderson and Watson each hit three times and scored twice in four trips, Watson getting the longest hit of the game in the seventh to score Anderson, and H. Owens coming in a moment later with what proved to be the tying run on G. Kerr's sacrifice fly.

R. Fry pitched two innings for the locals and then G. Kerr took over the burden. He was hit freely in only two innings, the third and seventh, retiring the side in order in the fifth. His main test came in the seventh. With the score tied and the winning run on third, only one man was out. Fry put out a pop fly to first and Kerr struck out Maybee to end the agony.

The issue will be decided on August 12, at the Zion lawn social, at John Simpson's grove. The Line team expects to be stronger for the occasion, but the locals feel sure they can win. There is a splendid feeling of friendly rivalry between the two squads and a good game is assured.

The line-up:—
English Line.—Maybee, p; Whitton, c; Shillinglaw, 1b; Potts, 2b; Craighead, 3b; Diamond, ss; Hampton, lf; Maycock, cf; Grills, rf; Fry and Billen, subs.
Petericks.—R. Fry, p; T. Owens, c; Anderson, 1b; G. Kerr, 2b; H. Owens, 3b; Meiklejohn, ss; Watson, lf; Petherick, cf; B. Kerr, rf; Fairman and F. Fry, subs.

LEAFS REGAIN THIRD POSITION

Toronto Club's Third Straight Victory Gives Them Series With Bears.

FINAL COUNT 4-2.

TORONTO, July 18.— With "Hoot" Gibson holding mastery over the Bears for eight of the nine innings, and his teammates providing enough timely hits to keep him in front, the Leafs managed to take the final game of the series from Newark at the Stadium yesterday afternoon by a 4 to 2 score. It was Toronto's third straight victory and gave the locals a 3 to 2 edge in the five-game series. It also put the Leafs back in third place, just a fraction behind Baltimore, for Montreal was dropped to fourth place by the Reading Keys who won the final game of the series in the Quebec city.

Sam Gibson turned in another of his feature performances and restricted the Bears to seven hits. They got a couple of healthy extra-base wallops off him in the third inning to score all their runs and take the lead temporarily. But in every other frame he was complete master of the situation, and in the

BROWNS IN CELLAR.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 18. — Philadelphia Athletics took a lead of three and one-half games over the Washington Club yesterday by defeating Chicago, 12-to-8, and Cleveland won over Washington.

Al Thomas started for the Sox and pitched well until the sixth when the A's nicked him for three runs. Again in the seventh inning they scored five more markers, and Thomas was relieved by Walsh.

Senators Lose Close One

CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—Willis Hudlin and the veteran Sam Jones staged a sharp pitching duel yesterday as the Cleveland Indians defeated Washington, 4-to-3 in the third game of their series.

Browns Drop to Cellar

ST. LOUIS, July 18. — The New York Yankees sent the Browns into the American League cellar yesterday by handing them their seventh straight defeat, 16-to-7. The defeat dropped St. Louis seven points behind the Boston Red Sox.

The Yankees made 21 hits off Coffman, Blacholder and Holhauser, including home runs by Lary and Rice. Lary also made a double, and drove in five runs, while Rice's four-bagger came with bases full in the ninth inning. Pipgras started for the Yanks, but retired in the fifth when the Browns scored five runs to take the lead for the only time.

Red Sox Swamp Detroit

DETROIT, July 18.—Three Detroit pitchers failed to stop the slugging of the Red Sox yesterday and Boston won, 12to-2, evening the series.

Webb led the Sox's attack with three singles, a double and a home run. Horace Lisenbee pitched fine ball for Boston, and drove in three runs. Elon Hogsett started for Detroit and was charged with the defeat.

KING EDWARD GIRLS IN TOP POSITION

While Same School Boys Gain Strangle Hold on Lead in Their Divisions.

By taking their King Edward rivals into camp yesterday afternoon at Central Playground to the tune of 18—7, the Central girls strengthened their position at the head of their division of the City Playgrounds Softball League. At the King Edward grounds, the King Edward boys' teams gained a strangle-hold on first place in their divisions by downing the Central boys by the score of 9—6 in the Senior group and 15—5 in the Junior.

Smarting under last week's defeat, the King Edward girls held their hard-hitting opponents for three innings, only to go down under a barrage of base hits which netted an 11-run margin for Central.

The batteries for Central were Velma Millyard and Frances Patterson; for King Edward, Dorothy Routley and Gladys Gerard.

Featured by tight fielding, the Senior boys' game remained close up until the final frame.

The batteries: For King Edward, Mowrey and Fenaro; for Central, Downer and Fleming.

Numerous errors and leaky fielding spelled the downfall of Central in the Junior contest.

The batteries: For King Edward, Ridley and Castle; for Central, Thomas and Harris.

Two wins and no losses are credited to Central in the girls' group, while no wins and two losses are checked against King Edward. In both the Senior and Junior groups, the King Edward boys lead with three wins and no defeats, as against no wins and three defeats for Central.

The remaining boys' games are to be played at King Edward Playground at 3.00 o'clock on the afternoons of July 24 and 31 and Aug. 4, and at Central on July 21 and 28 and Aug. 11. The remaining girls' fixtures are slated at King Edward on July 21 and 28 and Aug. 4, and at Central on July 24 and 31 and Aug. 12. The finals will be staged at the annual picnic at Nicholl's Ovol, Aug. 14, when crests will be awarded the winners.

AT THE CAPITOL

"SONG OF THE FLAME."

This is one of the dramatic, colorful, singing pictures that have sprung into such prominence since the talkies ousted the deaf and dumb drama from the silver sheet.

Done throughout in technicolor, it has an effect of intense realism that is heightened by the basic theme in the Red revolution in Russia, and that is lessened by the singing interludes. These bursts of song at the tensioned moments destroy the effect of realism almost entirely and make for a much more entertaining picture than would be the case if the feelings of the watchers were harrowed by the spectacle of revolutionary massacres, unaccompanied by song. One cannot get worked up to any great extent over victims who are shown to their graves, as it were, to the tones of gay music.

Noah Beery is the highlight of the production and sings in mighty bass voice, his song of the "three drinks" ringing out, even at a tragic episode in his own career.

The story centres about the Red rising in Holy White Russia, and brings in the love story of a prince and a peasant. The peasant has a glorious voice and provides the "flame" song of the piece, a resounding thing of marching cadences. The prince also, although unpossessed of classical features, has a splendid voice.

The singing and the color of the "Song of the Flame" are magnificent. The songs ring in the memory after the picture has vanished from sight. —Jeanette.

CANADIAN TOURNEY BEGINS ON MONDAY

Many Well Known International Tennis Players Will Compete.

TORONTO, July 18. — The Canadian lawn tennis championships commence at the Toronto Tennis Club, 44 Price Street, on Monday next, and this year the tournament will be distinctly an international one, as not only will Canada and the United States be represented, but also the British Isles. G. L. Rogers, the tall Irish Davis Cup player, has already arrived in town. He had a brilliant Riviera season and numbers amongst his victories one over Coohet, 6-1, 6-2, 0-6, 10-8. Fritz Moncur, Philadelphia, ranked No. 6 in the U.S.A., and the highest ranking player at present on this continent, will also be an entrant and will team in the doubles with J. Gilbert Hall, New Jersey, who is ranked No. 13.

PICTORIAL GOLF

THE CORRECT PIVOT.

Miss Edith Quier is a fine example of the perfect swinger, or the perfect pivoter. This picture shows her at the top of the swing looking directly down at the ball over the left shoulder. Some golfers think they are making a pivot when they are only turning half way. Some turn the hips without the upper part of the body that is the shoulders, while others turn the shoulders and permit the legs and hips to remain in almost a stationary position.

To get the most out of the swing one must move the hips along with the shoulders and unwind the same way. However, do not unwind before the ball has been hit. This should come gradually in order to have power back of the follow through.

INTERNATIONAL HEAD HOPES DRAFT DIFFERENCE BE ADJUSTED

Minor League Club Owners Will Not Submit to Draft Ultimatum.

"WILL GO IT ALONE."

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 18.—The International League will "go it alone" rather than submit to the universal draft ultimatum sent to it by the Major Leagues, its members decided at a special meeting here yesterday. By a unanimous vote, the club owners of the league adopted a resolution, which stated that "unless the Major Leagues show us more than they have in their communication, the International League will go it alone."

The International members banded the ultimatum sent to them a few days ago as a direct violation of an agreement drawn up in 1921 by John A. Heydler, President of the National League, and Ban Johnson, head of the American League at that time. That agreement, they said, contained a clause which provided that it "shall remain in force as long as Hon. Kenesaw M. Landis continues to hold the office of Commissioner."

Under that agreement, five leagues—the International, American Association, Pacific Coast, Three Eye and Western—were to be allowed to operate under a modified agreement, which provided that only players having had previous Major League experience could be drafted by the Major Leagues.

Charles H. Knapp, president of the International League, said he hoped that differences may be adjusted. He said that he had assurances from John A. Heydler and E. S. Barnard, presidents of the National and American Leagues, respectively, stating that the majors were "willing to go halfway with the minors to prevent an open break, but that the universal draft must be accepted."

SPRINGBROOK TEAM BEATEN BY MENIE

Hard Fought Encounter Ends in 12 to 6 Score—Tie is Probable.

BURNBRAE, July 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — Menie softball team stepped one run nearer the top of the heap on Wednesday evening when they won a hard-fought encounter by 12 runs to 6 from Springbrook. The first half of the game was very close, both teams giving their pitchers good support. In the fifth, however, Menie batters began to touch Hazlett's offerings too freely, and Ken Davis, well-known Stirling and Trenton hockey star was called to the rescue. Five of the six batters to face him hit safely, but in the final inning he gave a good exhibition, striking out Shillinglaw, who had previously secured three hits and three runs. Eagleson also scored three and got as many hits. He was robbed of a safe hit on his other trip to the plate when called out on a poor decision. The base umpiring was careless and indifferent and did much to detract from the interest in the game. Kerr got three hits and two runs, with Frank Little getting three hits and one run. Hay also hit safely three times. Tom Little got the heavy hit of the night—a ringing three-bagger. Lew Little, usually a heavy batter, failed to reach first.

Bateman, lead-off man for Springbrook, was equally unfortunate, and was held off the list of hits entirely. G. Heath was the only Springbrook man to get three hits, while Mason was the only one scoring twice. Morton and Heath were immense in the outfield and covered acres of ground in their efforts to hold down the score. Most of the Menie hits were clean cut grounders with a few bases on errors in the left division of the field.

Kerr pitched good ball, one of his best games of the season, and although bad breaks let some runs in he was never in serious difficulty. He retired the side in order in the fourth and sixth, while in the seventh he played the whole game, striking out Mason and Williams, and pulling a spectacular catch of Morton's high fly for the third out.

Menie now replay a disputed game with Glen Ross, probably on Friday night. Should they win they will be tied with Bethel for first place and sure of the play-off berth. Should Glen Ross win, Menie will be tied with Springbrook for second place, and would be compelled to play a sudden death game to divide the issue.

Making Weight Cause Of Defeat

NEW YORK, July 18.—"It was making the weight that did it," Mandell said in his dressing room after the fight. "It took so much out of me that I had no power of resistance. I thought I could go in and put up a good fight and outbox Al, but that first left did the work. I couldn't lift a hand. I tried my best to keep going, but every punch seemed to go to the top of my head. I just kept on till I was cold."

Singer naturally was elated. He made the usual champion's speech—that he would meet any worthy contender.

Mandell seemed philosophic regarding his defeat. He said he had made no plans regarding a career as a welterweight. It was assumed, however, that he would go into the heavier division.

"I didn't have the stamina," he said. "I was completely dried out this afternoon when I weighed in, and in the few hours left me it was impossible to get in proper fighting trim. I have no complaint to make. I had to make the weight, and making the weight beat me. That's about all there is to it."

WALTER MARTIN BEATS DE LARA

Gilbert Nunns Defeats Hiltz in Straight Sets in Ontario Tourney.

FOR TENNIS HONORS.

HAMILTON July 18. — The threat of University of Southern California for single honors in the Ontario tennis championships in session at the Hamilton tennis club here, was repulsed yesterday in the hardest and best match of the tournament to date when Walter Martin, the Regina star, playing under the colors of the University of Toronto, defeated De Lara after the match had proceeded at break neck speed for three sets.

In the ladies' games, Miss Burritt, Toronto champion, defeated Mrs. Woodbury of Halifax. Star play featured on both sides, with Miss Burritt's accurate playing and perfect shots proving a little too much for the Maritimes player, who lost in two sets.

Walton and Billesden produced somewhat of an upset when they defeated Bryan Doherty and McCausland. The winners confined the play to two short sets after a rousing display throughout.

Mrs. Coke one of the most brilliant entrants in the tourney, was a two-time winner to-day. She defeated Miss Brock, another Toronto player, in two hot sets, and then teamed up with Proctor to defeat Miss Brock and De Lara, the Californian. Mrs. Coke played smart tennis from start to finish.

In the junior men's singles the final players were set in line by Robinson being defeated by Bernand of Toronto, who has done well in this tourney.

RICHEST OF ALL RACES

One hundred thousand dollars is the winner's purse at the next Agua Caliente Handicap, the richest race in the world for thoroughbred horses. When the horses face the barrier next March it will mark the second time this Mexican classic has been run. Not only, however, does the winner receive a fortune but also second, third and fourth make handsome returns. The owner of the horse second will receive $10,000, third $5,000, and fourth $2,500. The distance of this classic will remain the same as before, one mile and a quarter. It is apparently the aim of the officials of this track to keep the handicap the richest of all races in the world. Nomination, declaration and starting fees are, it is said, certain to make first money far in access of the original purse of $100,000. The nearest rival now is the Belmont Futurity, which while only an event of $25,000 added, attains a high value through the accumulation of entrance and declaration fees over a protracted period of time. Since money is apparently the deciding factor or at least it seems it is, the Mexican track officials believe that this will keep the track always in number one position so far as race tracks of the world are concerned.

LAWN BOWLING

To-night's tournament at the local Bowling Club the usual Friday night tournament which has come to be one of the features of the club's activities promises to draw a large number of contesting rinks to-night, the greens being in particularly good shape, and the enthusiasm for the game steadily mounting as the season progresses. Last Friday was a record night, eighteen rinks turning out, although to-night it is fully expected to have twenty-four rinks, and a cordial invitation is hereby extended by the executive to new players. The games start at 7.30 o'clock sharp.

The following games, which were postponed games, were played last night and resulted as follows. It is pointed out by the Schedule committee that all games in future must be played when called for.

C.G.E. VS. BRINTON ON SATURDAY

Kick-off at Three O'clock Prompt On King Edward Park.

The soccer game scheduled for Saturday is under league auspices, with the Canadian General and the Brinton Athletic on King Edward Park. Kick off at 3 o'clock prompt. Referee James Hawthorne.

In the previous encounters the carpet boys pulled a victory, and gained two valuable points that set them at the top of the league. The Electric boys have lost two but they intend redeeming themselves tomorrow afternoon with a win that will put all the teams in the same position.

All players associated with the teams are requested to be at the pavilion no later than 2.45 so that the tussle can be started promptly on time.

Brinton team against C.G.E. will be as follows: W. Curtis, goal; F. Lucas and D. Green, full backs; J. O'Halloran, T. Westwood and J. Creighton, halves; J. Boon, W. James, E. Jones, Baylis and E. Hanson, forwards. Reserves:: H. Hotson and J. Anderson.

WOOLER

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamson are at Orland owing to the illness of Mrs. Charles Lamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Sharpe accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al. Sharpe spent Sunday in Belleville.

Miss Marjorie Sharpe spent two weeks in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. James Wright.

Mr. Putman, Sr., is with his son, Mr. Roy Putman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rowe and son Harold were on a motor trip to Trenton, Belleville, Stirling and Frankford on Monday.

A Bedtime Story

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SKY ADVENTURE.

Uncle Wiggily and Mr. Twistytail, his fat, pig gentleman friend, were riding along the sky, each of them on the back of a big bald-headed eagle bird aeroplane. Uncle Wiggily had tried to make a plane out of some ironing boards, a clothes basket and an electric fan, but it wouldn't work.

Then along came swooping two big, strong eagle birds and they kindly offered to take the rabbit and pig up for a ride in the air. Uncle Wiggily and Mr. Twistytail were very glad to go. So now they were zooming along as I told you in the story last night.

"We're up pretty high," said Mr. Twistytail, looking down by leaning over the edge of his eagle's back. "I hope nothing happens."

"What could happen?" asked Uncle Wiggily who, once before having had an airship, knew more about such things than did his fat, pig friend. "What could happen, Twisty?"

"We might go into a tail spin, or a side slip or something like that, such as I have often read as having happened to airships," grunted the pig gentleman.

"Don't worry!" spoke Mr. Longears. "If we stick to our eagles nothing will happen."

"Don't lean over too far, though," screamed Uncle Wiggily's eagle to Mr. Twistytail, who was seated on the back of the other big bird. "We will carry you safely as long as we fly and we'll take you down to earth whenever you want to go. But if you lean over too far you might fall off and that wouldn't be our fault."

"Of course it wouldn't," said Mr. Longears. "Be careful what you are doing, Twisty!"

"All right," grunted the pig, moving back to the middle of his eagle's back. "But I don't want to go down to earth just yet. I am having too good a time."

Down, down, down, fell the fat pig and the rabbit.

"So am I," said Uncle Wiggily.

So the rabbit and the pig soared along on the eagles' backs, looking at the clouds below them, for they were now high up, as eagles always fly high unless they want to come down to catch a fish. That is what bald-headed eagles best like to eat; fishes, which they catch by diving into a lake or river to catch them.

All of a sudden, as Uncle Wiggily was leaning over a little bit to look down at a pink cloud, something struck him on the end of his nose. Mr. Twistytail was close by at the time and Uncle Wiggily said:

"Please don't throw things at me, Twisty!"

"I didn't throw anything," grunted the pig.

"Well, something hit me on my nose," went on the rabbit.

"I didn't throw it!" grunted the pig. And just then something hit him on his nose, which was shaped like a flat rubber ball with two holes in it for Mr. Twistytail to breathe through.

"Stop it, Wiggy!" cried Mr. Twistytail.

"Stop what?" asked the rabbit.

"Stop throwing marbles at me!" grunted the pig.

"Why, I'm not throwing anything!" exclaimed Mr. Longears, much surprised. Then he felt several things bang him on his nose and Mr. Twistytail felt the same and they didn't know what to make of it until the eagle, on whose back Uncle Wiggily was riding, screamed out:

"It's only rain drops pelting you two! Don't be silly!"

"Rain drops!" cried Uncle Wiggily "Why, how can that be? Rain drops always fall down and these things that hit me came up from below. How is that?"

"That's because we're above the clouds," said the eagle. "When you are on the ground the clouds are above you and the rain drops fell down. Now you are above the clouds and the rain drops fall up."

"It seems very queer, but it must be so," said Mr. Twistytail, looking over the edge of his eagle's back. Then he could see a lot of rain drops rushing up toward him from a cloud below. The rain drops did not exactly fall up, but the wind from the clouds blew them up so it almost seemed as if they were falling that way though, really, they weren't. Anyhow Uncle Wiggily was so excited at this strange sky adventure, seeing rain falling up, as he thought, that he leaned too far over his eagle and—off he fell! So did Mr. Twisty tail!

Down, down, down, through the clouds and rain drops fell the fat pig and the rabbit and they might have hit the ground very hard only that both eagles quickly dived after them. Getting below the falling pig and rabbit the eagles fluttered about until Uncle Wiggily and the pig had gentlyfallen among their soft back feathers again and then they were safe from harm.

Then the eagles took their passengers down to earth and the sky adventures was over. There was the rabbit's hollow stump bungalow right in front of them.

BUTTER QUESTION NEED NOT WORRY FARMING PUBLIC

Declares W. A. Anderson at Big Liberal Rally at Zion.

TAXES REDUCED.

Empire Trade is Real Solution of Dairy Industry Speaker Declares.

W. A. Anderson, ex-M.P.P. for East Peterborough, declared that the farmers need have no worry over the butter situation, in speaking to an enthusiastic and overflow meeting at Zion Hall, in Otonabee, last night in the interests of J. J. Duffus.

Various developments in the home industry since the war have done much to affect the price and demand for butter, which are matters which will adjust themselves, irrespective of any butter, which might have been imported into this country.

The real solution for the dairy situation is to be found in the development of a staple trade in the British market, and the policy of inter-Empire trade, as represented by the Dunning budget proposals opens the way to this market, and to the development and growth of the dairy industry in Canada.

The candidate, J. J. Duffus, in a stirring message, announced that the sweeping reductions in taxation and reducing of our national debt during the Mackenzie King regime, represent accomplishments of which any Government might be proud.

The policy of trade with the Empire, stated Mr. Duffus, is something that will open the way to the development of our industries and maintain markets for our products.

The Americans are much concerned about the detrimental affect of the countervailing duties imposed on American goods entering this country. On the other hand, Great Britain and the nations of the British Empire are commending the Dunning budget.

The opportunity is ripe for Canada to obtain a stragetic position as a trading nation in the markets of the world, and particularly within the Empire, and Canada must, as a country which exports the majority of its products, if it is to grow and expand, find markets for its surplus products.

It is results that count, and the Mackenzie King Government are asking you to return them to power upon the merits of their record and upon the Inter-Empire trading policy, which is receiving the commendation of not only the Liberals but of a great many Conservatives, who place this business issue above the plain of politics.

Policy Always Meaningless.

Alex. Elliott also addressed the meeting and declared that the policy of high protection, as advocated by the Conservatives, had always been meaningless. As long as we can remember, the Conservatives have always shouted high protection at election times.

If high protection is a good thing for this country, why did the Conservatives not introduce high protection as a policy during the years they were in office, from 1912 to 1921, when practically all the changes made in the tariff by the Conservatives during those years were on the downward trend.

The explanation is, that while the Conservatives use the cry of high protection, as an election sham, they, too, appreciate that high protection is ruinous and impracticable to any country which exports the majority of its products.

The Conservatives in this campaign, even at times have advocated the national policy. The national policy may have been suitable for Canada in 1890, when we had no West, and our country was sparsely populated from Lake Superior to Halifax, but to-day Canada has over one million people in the West, has new and larger industries, new conditions and has a large constantly growing foreign trade.

Toque and Moccasin of Louis Reil Unearthed in Kingston Residence

(Special to The Examiner)

KINGSTON, July 18.—Clearing out the garret of the Archbishop's Palace, which is undergoing improvements, a notable collection of relics was discovered by Rev. Father Corrigan, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral. Among the things removed was a wooden trunk, which belonged to, the late Rev. Charles A. McWilliams, well-known priest of the diocese and a personal friend of the late Sir John A. Macdonald. Among the things turned out was a toque, a repaired and a patched moccasin and a foot of strong hemp rope in three strands with a thousand threads in each of the three. The toque and moccasin were worn by Louis Reil, who was hanged in 1885 at Regina for his part in the Northwest Rebellion. Father McWilliams, along with Father Andre, accompanied Reil to the scaffold where the records record the condemned man died with the courage of a man and a Christian and it was not possible to doubt his sanity". Father McWilliams was a schoolmate of Reil in Montreal and the friendship was maintained throughout the years. At Reil's request Father McWilliams attended his schoolmate's last hours. Father McWilliams secured the relics and these, with so much historic interest associated with them, are being presented to the Kingston Historical Society to occupy a place in the museum in the Murray Redoubt, in Macdonald Park, at the foot of Barrie street. In addition to these relics a bundle of letter of personal interest, and many of them from Sir John A. Macdonald, postage stamps of the Victorian era, Inland Revenue Stamps of the same period, but which became obselete in 1889 and a variety of coins of all nations, were picked up and will be preserved by friends of the late venerable priest, who passed away some thirty years ago.

WIND DAMAGE IS EVERYONE'S CONCERN

Second only to fire in capacity for destructiveness, high winds wreak damage almost everywhere, at almost any time.

June, "Month of Roses," has a bad record for windstorms. And there is no insurance against such destruction as may be wrought by gales and tornadoes except a specific Windstorm Policy. However, the cost is very moderate, as we'll be glad to prove.

BOOTLEGGER GETS 2 MONTHS IN JAIL

Police Raid Speakeasy Near Nassau Early This Morning.

Provincial Police raided a speakeasy near Nassau early this morning and made a big round-up. Five local men found drunk in the place and the proprietor, Wellington Stevens, 30, appeared before Magistrate Langley this morning and were found guilty of various breaches of the L. C. A.

Stevens entered a plea of not guilty of selling liquor. But one of his customers, a youth of nineteen, told the Court of purchasing a bottle of beer and a "shot" of whisky from Stevens last night for which he paid fifty cents each. Provincial Constable Thompson also related visiting the place and finding men strewed about the grounds in various stages of intoxication.

Stevens offered no defence, and was sentenced to two months in jail. His quintette of customers were each fined $10, all being first offenders.

Believed to be one of the most flourishing bootlegging joints and resort houses about the city, Stevens' place was located just below Nassau on the River Road.

"I didn't do anything and I wasn't drunk. I was in bed when the police arrived," a resident of Burnham Street, up on a charge of drunkenness, explained. He pleaded not guilty, but later returned to change his plea and pay a $10 fine.

Deported from the United States recently, a young man returned to his former haunts about here and was charged with vagrancy. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five days, promising that he will take any job offered at that time.

Will Play E. P. L. Games According To Schedule

The fans are reminded that every effort will be made to play the remaining E. P. L. games according to the schedule and all clubs must have their teams on the grounds ready for play. Cogs and Crescents are billed to meet this evening at 6:15 o'clock.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 14 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Kala would not allow the other apes to touch her adopted baby. She held the small form of the little Lord Greystoke tightly to her breast, repulsing with bared fangs and low, menacing growls the apes who attempted to examine this strange baby. Tenderly, Kala nursed her little waif.

It was nearly a year from the time the little fellow came into her possession before he could walk alone. He couldn't climb nor even find food alone like the little apes of their tribe. Tublat, Kala's mate, was sorely vexed, wanting to put the child out of the way.

Tublat argued with Kala until she grew furious and would not listen to him. Then Tublat went to Kerchak, urging him to use his authority with Kala and force her to give up the little TARZAN, which was the name they had given little Lord Greystoke, and which meant "White Skin."

But when Kerchak spoke to her about it, Kala threatened to run away from the tribe. They did not wish to lose her, and so they bothered her no more. By the time Tarzan was ten years old he was an excellent climber and could do many wonderful things.

Tarzan was fully as strong as the average man of thirty, and far more agile. Day by day his strength was increasing. His life among these fierce apes had been happy. He was nearly ten before he began to realize that a great difference existed between himself and his fellows.

MAIN STREET TOPICS

Jabs and Jottings as Picked Up by an Examiner Reporter

LEADING THE SEASON.

A gladioli cutting bearing six delicate tinted flowers and a number of buds which give promise of half a dozen other flowers on the sturdy stem, has been brought into The Examiner office by Bob Carr, of 486 Bonacord Street. The specimen remarkable for its advanced growth, makes a pleasing exhibit in all its midsummer glory, and was placed in The Examiner window this afternoon.

MILK BOTTLE ROBBERIES

Police are on the watch for the peretrators of a number of milk bottle robberies on George street north and adjacent streets as the result of complaints from residents. An attempt will be made to stamp out the nefarious practice in that section as in the south end and other parts of the city troubled by the midnight thieves.

The complainants say that the thieves not only steal the dimes put in the bottles but take the bottles, milk and tickets as well.

DISTURBED

Defects in the Canadian Canoe sprinkler system, at 2.10 this morning caused a wholesale turnout of the City Fire Brigade, who were able to complete the night's rest shortly afterwards, as soon as the trouble was eradicated.

DUFFUS MEETINGS

Entering on the last lap of a gruelling election campaign, J. J. Duffus, Liberal candidate, is redoubling his efforts in a bid to outrun his opponent for Parliamentary honors, and appears to be going steadily forward in a spirit of optimism and confidence.

Following a double meeting last evening in which he addressed large audiences at Confederation School and at Zion, he speaks this evening at Lakefield and will journey to St. Catharines in support of Mrs. Dr. S. S. Greenwood, Liberal candidate for Lincoln riding.

Monday to Saturday of next week, inclusive, will be occupied by election addresses in various parts of this district as follows:—
Selwyn Temperance Hall, 4th Line Simth, Monday, July 21st.
Keen, Tuesday.
Hall's Bridge and Young's Point, Wednesday.
Bridgenorth, Thursday.
May's School, North Monaghan, Friday.
South Monaghan, Saturday.

SCOUTS IN CAMP

The 1st Peterborough Troop (St. John's) Boy Scouts, under canvas in the Ketchecum Lake district, in charge of A.S.M. Warren Turner, are it is learned putting in a period of training and recreation under ideal conditions. Their Scoutmaster G. Johnson, is not attending the annual camp this year on account of the fact that he is to attend a Scoutmasster's training course, to be held at Ebor Park, near Brantford, from August 4-17. The Ebor Park camp is run on the same lines as the famous Scout training centre, Gilwell in England, and the course is specially designed to meet the needs of S.M.'s who have the progress of their troop at heart.

GOVERNMENT TUG MAKES HISTORY BY FIRST TRIP ACROSS NEW CANAL

Many Minor Adjustments To Be Completed on Flight of Locks.

OPENING LABOR DAY.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 18 (Canadian Press). — The Government tug Escort, towing a construction barge, made history yesterday without flourish or flags or a single whistle toot, to mark an epoch on the Welland Canad when they steamed into Lock Four, the first of the twin lock series stepping up from the St. Catharines level to Thorold. The barge in tow carried construction material to be unloaded at the various locks en route to Allenburg. The tug and barge will therefore always hold the honor of being the first craft to make a complete trip through the entire new Welland Ship Canal, although there will be a blare of trumpets and flare of flags when the canal is officially opened on Labor Day.

Many minor adjustments remain uncompleted on the machinery of the flight locks and much time an careful detail work are needed to complete the canal for the official opening.

WEDDING BELLS

FORSYTH—COLLINS

The seating capacity of St. Mark's Church, Otonabee, was taxed to the utmost yesterday afternoon when a large congregation assembled there to witness the marriage of Mary Agnes Collins, eldest daughter of Albert Collins of Otonabee, and David Gerald Forsyth, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Forsyth of Dummer. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Hughes.

The sacred edifice was attractively decorated with a profusion of pretty flowers.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Wedding March played by her sister, Mrs. S. Shearer. She was gowned in beige georgette made with a cape and trimmed with lace. Her hat, slippers and hose were in matching tones and she carried a bouquet of roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Edith Deyell, cousin of the bride, wore figured chiffon in grey and green hues. She wore a green hat, black satin shoes and grey silk hose, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and gypsophila.

Harold Forsyth of Detroit, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man in place of the bridegroom's brother, Maitland Forsyth, who is ill.

After the ceremony, the immediate relatives and the officiating clergyman were entertained at a wedding supper served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shearer, Rogers street, Peterborough. The rooms and table were decorated in pink and white, the bride's table being done with the cake and floral bouquets.

On their return from a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth will reside in South Dummer.

LAPP—MURTY.

(Special to The Examiner.)

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 18. — Miss Mary Murty and James Murty, both of Peterborough, Ont., attended the marriage of Miss Anne Patricia Murty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Murty, to Henry Carney Lapp, which was solemnized Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Name of Jesus here, the Rev. James V. Ennis of this city, performing the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Albert M. Kraus was her sister's only attendant. Albert M. Kraus attended the bridegroom and the ushers were the Messrs William Murty and Anthony Murty. John Ball played and sang during the ceremony. A reception followed in their Park Lane home here with covers laid for 35 guests at the bride's table.

After a motor trip through the Adirondacks, and to Montreal and Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Lapp will be at home after August 1st, at No. 150 Peach Tree Road, this city.

NORWOOD HIT BY $16,000 FIRE

FINLAY FACTORY SWEPT BY FIRE; HOMES DAMAGED

Most Disastrous Fire in Norwood's History Rages For Hours.

STARTS IN STOREHOUSE.

Hastings Fire Brigade Rushes to Call of Neighboring Village.

NORWOOD, July 19. (Examiner Correspondence).—One of the most mysterious and disastrous conflagrations in Norwood's history broke out here at midnight last night in the storehouses, outbuildings, and factory of the J. A. Finlay and Sons company, inflicting property damage amounting to over $16,000, and demanding the full efforts of two fire-fighting forces until well into the day.

STARTED IN STOREHOUSE

The laze had its origin in the large frame storehouse near the sidewalk and was raging furiously before the Norwood fire company could arrive. A call was immediately turned in for the Hastings department, which arrived on the scene promptly. In the meantime, the flames had swept the adjoining lumber piles and had spread to a second storehouse and the factory.

Only the valiant efforts of the firemen succeeded in saving the factory, which was burning badly. Two storehouses were burned to the ground, and practically all the lumber on the premises was destroyed.

The amount of insurance carried on the plant did not amount to more than a thousand dollars. The cause of the blaze had not been ascertained at a late hour this morning.

Great difficulty was experienced in saving the dwellings on Queen street. Several private garages at the rear of the houses were burned, as well as one automobile.

Serious damage was caused to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lawlor who are at present away on a motor trip. The Hubble, Livingston, and Rogers residences were also among those damaged.

CUT IN CIGARETTE TAXES HINTED AT

Hon. W. D. Euler Claims Levy Much Too High—$31,000,000 Revenue.

GIVE MUNICIPALITIES AID.

DUNDAS, Ont., July 19 (C.P.).—Addressing a large gathering here last night in the interests of Hon. Frank C. Biggs, Liberal candidate in the riding of Dundas, Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of National Revenue, declared the Mackenzie King Government was not holding up the power and navigation development of the St. Lawrence River, and that "if anybody was it was Premier G. H. Ferguson." The Dominion Government, he added, has declared itself in favor of the project and is ready to institute the work.

Aid to Municipalities.

The Minister made one reference to the "five cent" issue when he said, "I would not give a five cent piece to a Provincial government of any kind, Liberal, Tory or Progressive. I would give it straight to the municipalities themselves. They are not in politics, and they will hand out that money to the people that ought to get it, without regard to their party politics."

Possibility of the reduction of the excise tax on cigarettes was hinted at by the speaker. "The tax on cigarettes is higher than it ought to be, I think, especially in these days when the women have started to smoke," he said, in pointing out that thirty-one million dollars revenue was derived from that source.

Club Seeks Reward For Lad's Rescuer

WELLAND, Ont., July 19 (C.P.).—Officials of the Welland Swimming and Life-Saving Club said to-day they would attempt to secure recognition for the bravery yesterday afternoon of Nick Hackman, Crowland, who although he could not swim a stroke, saved from drowning in the Welland Canal, Tony Albano, aged 8, Thorold Road.

Hackman waded into the channel up to his neck to save the lad, who had gone down for the third time.

Claim Lost Airman In Indian Village

LONDON, Eng., July 19 (C.P.).—A Rangoon despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company today said villagers near the Bali River insisted that Eric Hook, missing British airman, was being cared for in a certain village.

The report was being investigated, although floods were making the search difficult. No other trace of the aviator was found in the region where his companion, Jimmie Matthews, said he left him after their England to Australia plane crashed more than a fortnight ago.

LIQUOR SHOPS PICKETED.

Clash Occurs When Picketers Refused to Let Carters Unload Wines.

MADRAS, India, July 19 (C.P.).—Four persons were injured to-day in rioting at Madura when police fired into a crowd of Nationalist demonstrators. They previously had tried to disperse the assembly by charging with their lathis or staves.

The demonstration was in protest at arrest of seven pickets of liquor shops.

Two Hurt In Riots.

KARACHI, India, July 19 (C.P.).—Two native picketers were in a hospital to-day as the outcome of rioting in the night outside two foreign liquor shops in the European quarter.

The clash occurred when the picketers refused to allow carters to unload wines and spirits for the shops.

CAR CRASHES IN DITCH INDIAN WOMAN KILLED

OWEN SOUND, Ont., July 19 (C.P.). — Mrs. Peter Nadjiwan, an Indian woman residing at Cape Croker Reservation, is dead, her daughter, Violet Nadjiwan, Toronto, is quite seriously injured, and Wilson Tobias, of Toronto, also an Indian, is in the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital, as the result of a motor car accident which occurred near Purple Valley, in the Bruce Peninsula, above Wiarton, last night. The party, in a Ford coupe, were returning home after an outing, when the car ran into some loose gravel and turned over in the ditch.

There will be no inquest.

RIDEAU CLAIMS VICTIM

OTTAWA, Ont., July 19 (C.P.)—Despite repeated efforts to rescue him on the part of a companion, Laurence J. Plummer, 35, of this city, was drowned yesterday in the Rideau River. Seized apparently with a heart attack, he sank in 15 feet of water and drowned before Gilbert Dawze could bring him to the surface.

HOME MARKET BEEN NEGLECTED DECLARES PECK

Government Has Been Very Busy Looking After Foreign Markets.

BUDGET ELECTION TRICK.

Conservative Candidate Holds Rally in Township of Ennismore.

"The government has been very busy looking after foreign markets and has neglected the home market—that is the real reason for the present depression," declared E. A. Peck, West Peterborough's Conservative nominee, speaking at Ennismore last night.

"It is a government's business," continued Mr. Peck, to see that its country's excess produce finds a market in other countries. This country has been neglected by the present government." Canada's natural wealth should render her immune from all unemployment save seasonal unemployment, he said. The present farm and industrial depression was largely the result of disadvantageous "favored nation" treaties. By the Australian and New Zealand treaties, the amount of manufactured goods Canada was permitted to send to the Antipodes was not to be compared with the vast amount of produce those nations shipped here.

An Election Trick

The Dunning budget was an election trick, according to Mr. Peck. "It has done nothing either for the agricultural interests of this country or for the industrial interests," he declared. Our first duty was our home market. Every other nation in the world except Great Britain, had raised its tariff wall continually since the war.

"There has always been a British preference," asserted the candidate. "All that has been done by the Dunning budget is to make certain reductions on a number of manufactured goods and on some commodities which we shall never buy from Great Britain anyway."

Speaking on Mr. Peck's platform, J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., declared: "Mr. Duffus claims he is fighting the election on the Dunning budget. If so, the result of the election is a foregone conclusion." The Dunning budget had been hailed as the solution of all the country's ills, but examination had altered this opinion.

Mackenzie King started the campaign on a note of optimism at Brantford," stated Mr. Strickland. "How often has he changed his tune since? And he will continue to shift until he is pinned down. The truth of the matter is: we have had an inefficient administration and it is our duty to get rid of it on the 28th of this month."

Referring to recent statements credited to Mr. Burnham, Mr. Strickland said: "Mr. J. Hampden Burnham has the temerity to expel the leader of the Conservative Party from the Conservative Party. Well, if he can do it, let him do it. In 1920 Mr. Burnham was also, in his own opinion, bigger than the party—a party in his own right. He went down to defeat at that time and started the political career of one who is now an ex-Cabinet Minister."

Hon. J. C. Elliott Speaks at Cobourg

Minister of Public Works Gives Credit to W. A. Fraser, Liberal Candidate, For His Energetic Effort in Pressing the Needs of Northumberland County.

DECLARES GOVERNMENT HAS ATTEMPTED TO TREAT PEOPLE OF ONTARIO RIGHT ON WATERWAY QUESTION

COBOURG, July 19 (Examiner Staff Reporter). — "I am surprised to find that the latest offence for which the Government is blamed by the Conservative PJarty, or at least by one of their representatives, my old friend Tommy Church, is the stroke of lightning that set off the dynamite on the boat in the St. Lawrence River recently," said Hon. J. C. Elliott, K.C., Minister of Public Works, in the course of his address, delivered before a large audience in Victoria Opera House in this town last evening.

The meeting, held in the interests of W. A. Fraser, Liberal candidate for Northumberland Riding, was addressed by Miss Grace Anderson, president of Campbellford Ladies' Liberal Association, as well as by the candidate. Archibald Cochrane presided.

Dealing with the Government's past record, particularly as it applies to his own department, the Minister said there was never a time in the history of the Department of Public Works when it was more active than t present.

"A member of the Government admires a candidate who acquaints himself with the needs of the people, whose claims he intends to present before the Government," said the speaker in paying tribute to the efforts of Mr. Fraser, who he referred to as a very active and energetic man, who has been tireless in pressing the needs of Cobourg on the Government. In the last eight years, he pointed out, the Government has spent on Cobourg Harbor, including the present contract, a sum of over $400,000.

"Don't run away with the idea that this is any Christmas box," he added. "The people of this town would never have received one dollar of this expenditure if sombody had not pressed the needs of Cobourg before the Government, and that somebody was Mr. Fraser."

A Proud Record.

The Minister pointed out that during the last four years, while he has been in charge of the affairs of the Department of Public Works he does not think he has been guilty of any improvidence when he says that the expenses of the Department have increased. He pointed out that the expenditure has only increased in proportion to the rapid growth of

OUTBOARD MARK BEING ATTEMPTED

Jimmy Oats Starts at 10 O'clock To-night at Clear Lake on 24 Hour Run. DON WOOD REFUELLING.

"Jimmy" Graham Oates of Toronto who recently set a world's 12-hour record for outboard displacement motorboats at Clear Lake, will attempt to set a new record to-night and to-morrow. Starting at 10 o'clock to-night he will attempt to drive his stock displacement craft powered by a Johnson Sea Horse "32" until 10 o'clock to-morrow night at full speed without a stop over the South Beach course.

The test will be run under the supervision of officials of the Canada Power Boat Association. Don Wood of Peterborough will carry out nonstop refueling from another high-powered craft at intervals during the 24-hour run.

Final Nominations Held on Monday

OTTAWA, Ont., July 19 (C.P.)—Nominations for the Dominion general elections will be held next Monday in all the constituencies with the exception of the 70 in which the candidates were officially named last Monday. The nominations will be from 12 o'clock noon to 2 p.m. (standard time), that is the standard time in force in the various sections of the Dominion.

Bennett Cancels Two Meetings to Rest For Final Spurt.

LAPOINTE IN QUEBEC.

King and Ferguson Exchange Charges on St. Lawrence Development.

(By George Hambleton, C. P. Staff Correspondent)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 19.—Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, is resting over the week-end. Meetings scheduled for today at Espanola and North Bay have been cancelled. He does not speak again till the Simcoe meeting on Monday afternoon. He is making the change in program, it is intimated, that he may be in good physical shape for the strenuous final week of the campaign.

PLANES CALLED INTO PLAY

For the rest, the campaign continues in full swing. In North Ontario the aeroplane has been called into play. A Liberal candidate flew from Sioux Lookout to Hudson. Premier Ferguson is flying today from Kenora to Fort Frances. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, who has been conducting a lively campaign in North Ontario spends the last week stumping the eastern portions of Quebec.

At Orillia last night, Mr. Bennett was caustic on a "preference that gives all, asks for nothing and waves the flag for votes". He cited the London bankers resolution (favoring reciprocal Empire trade agreements) in support of the policy of his Winnipeg keynote speech. "Whose judgment do your prefer, Mr. Bennett questioned, "Mr. King's or the bankers of London. They say reciprocal agreements are mutually advantage-

Woman Defeats Best In Empire To Set History

War-time Ambulance Driver Is Only Woman Ever to Compete In Final Stage of Great Shoot Which Commenced in 1860, Although She Has Entered Contest in Former Years.

Capt. J. E. Foreman, Hamilton, Leads Canadians With 275 Tally, While Lieut. Desmond Burke, Winner in 1924 and Runner-up the Last Three Years is Second With 273.

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 19.—(C. P. Cable)—Miss Marjorie Foster won the King's Prize at Bisley today, the first woman in history to accomplish the feat.

Miss Foster led 100 crack shots from all parts of the Empire with a total score of 280 out of a possible 300.

Miss Foster, war-time ambulance driver was the only woman ever to compete in the final stage of the great shoot which commenced in 1860. She won the coveted honors and the National Rifle Association's gold medal on her first attempt in the final. She has entered the King's Prize competition in former years.

Almost Lost in First Stage

The winner was almost eliminated in the first stage on Wednesday but succeeded in getting into yesterday's second stage by shooting off with other competitors. Yesterday she had third highest score of 144 out of a possible 150. Today she had 136 out of a possible 150.

The match was fired in bright sunshine and a great crowd thronged the ranges. A strong breeze which swept from one side of the range, however, hampered the marksmen and kept the scores down. The winning score of Lt.-Col. R. M. Blair of Vancouver last year had been 283.

Miss Foster had a score of 212 at

BOAT IS BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Cincinnati Couple Have Narrow Escape at McCracken's Landing.

VESSEL WORTH $9,000.

Plunging into the waters of Stoney Lake at McCracken's Landing when their $9,000 runabout speed boat June 13th took fire last evening, Davis F. Houston, millionaire coal mine owner of Cincinnati, and his wife had miraculous escapes from serious injury, and came through the ordeal unscathed beyond slight burns about the face sustained by Mr. Houston.

With a report which startled the summer residents at the lakes for a wide area, the little mahogany craft, carrying 60 gallons of gasoline, exploded just as it was being started up to make the return trip to its parent craft, the Alice Mary III., which lay up at Crows Lake. Burning fiercely the speed boat drifted up the lake to Hunter's Rock, where it sank beneath the waters.

The cause of the explosion is unknown. Reports this morning indicate that Mr. and Mrs. Houston are resting comfortably on their palatial cruiser Alice Mary III., which is tied up at the wharf here, and that the couple are apparently little the worse for their alarming experience. Mrs. Houston before her marriage, lived in Port Hope.

It will be recalled that The Examiner reported the progress of these two boats, when they came through Peterborough waters on July 8. Sixteen people were aboard the Alice Mary III., including a crew of five, the owner, and ten guests, all of Cincinnati.

This is Mr. Houston's third trip through the Trent Waterway. The present trip is planned to last for several weeks, and the party will return to their home port via Lake Huron.

NATIONAL QUESTIONS DO NOT ENTER INTO QUEBEC'S FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

Narrowest of Local Issues and Interests Being Stressed.

EXPECT LITTLE CHANGE

(By William Edgar)

MONTREAL, July 19. (Special to Examiner.)—Quebec's importance to both parties in the present contest must be apparent to the most casual observer. An overturn in the allegiance of the majority of the voters in this, at once the most conservative and the most Liberal of all the provinces, would open the way for a change of government. Provided Quebec remains steadfast to its present political convictions, there would seem to be little hope of Mr. Bennett and his henchmen finding themselves allotted to seats on the right of the Speaker at Ottawa.

To the impartial mind, neither of the two major parties are to be regarded as conducting a creditable campaign in Quebec. Judging from the speeches of candidates of both parties, there are few who show any realization of the fact that Canada is in the midst of an election campaign, that may have national, imperial and international repercussions for many years to come. Most of the candidates, if they are indeed thinking of Canada as a whole, are exceeding artful in concealing the fact. It is the narrowest of local issues and interests that are stressed. Here the Government's consideration in building a bridge; there its failure to erect a new Post Office; elsewhere, the tempting prospect of a fat program of public works; these are the shot and shell of argument that is used according as the speaker is Liberal or Conservative.

Exploiting Imperialism.

Each party is straining every nerve to pin the label of Imperialism on the other. Each is striving to exploit the sensitiveness and fear of discrimination that marks every minority race. On the one hand "Bennett the Imperialist" is held up to execration as the man who is anxious to undo all the work that has been done in the past towards securing Canadian autonomy. On the other, Mr. King is held up to censure for opening the Canadian market to the British producer "making the tariff to favor Englishmen rather than Canadians" and

U. S. HEAT WAVE GROWS INTENSE

In Many Sections Temperatures Reach Three Figure Mark.

AVERAGE 90.5 DEGREES.

CHICAGO, Ills., July 19 (C.P.).—A withering heat fastened itself upon the United States to-day.

From Great Lakes to gulf and from ocean to ocean, the country cooked. Three-figure temperature readings were common. Ninety degrees or better were recorded in virtually every section.

On the basis of official Government figures, the average maximum temperature for the United States yesterday was 90.5.

The nation's granaries, baked hard by the persistent sun, faced drought. Live stock in many places saw green pastures turn russet and die. The danger of corn being fired in the field was felt in Iowa.

Phillipsburg, Kansas, had a temperature of 113 degrees, and Emporia had 109. Scores of other communities in the Middle West, reported unofficial readings above 100 degrees.

Rumor Says Britain May Buy Greenland

WASHINGTON, July 19 (C.P.). — Persistent rumors that Great Britain is seeking to buy Greenland in whole or in part, or to extend its treaty rights there, are attracting much interest in official and diplomatic circles here.

While official confirmation of actual negotiations is lacking it is recognized that Greenland has an important bearing on the proposed British Arctic air route, explorations for which are to be undertaken by a British expedition.

TORY CHIEFTAINS BLINDED TO REAL ISSUE SAYS KING

Charges Premiers Held Back Monies That Might Have Given Work.

POLITICAL CONSPIRACY.

Dominion Premier Lays All Blame For Seaway Delay Upon Ferguson.

BARRIE, Ont., July 1.— (C.P.) — Concluding a short but strenuous campaign in Northern Ontario, Premier Mackenzie King arrived here this morning from North Bay where he spoke before a large and enthusnastic gathering last night in support of J. R. Hurtubuise, Liberal candidate in the riding of Nipissing.

After speaking here this afternoon Premier King will motor to Aurora and after delivering a speech there will journey to Newmarket where a large Liberal rally has been arranged.

Unemployment and its treatment by Provincial Premiers was the keynote of his speech last night the speaker charged monies which might have been used for giving work to the unemployed in different provinces "had been held back by Tory premiers."

Political Conspiracy.

Continuing the Premier said: "The more you look into it, the more you see that it has been a political conspiracy on a large scale."

Hon. R. B. Bennett, he said, was telling the people if Conservatives were returned to power he would call a special session of Parliament to deal with unemployment. He then asked why Premier Ferguson of Ontario, Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan and Premier Tolmie of British Columbia, do not call a special session of their Legislatures to deal with unemployment. "They do not have to go to the Imperial Conference," he proceeded, "and if they are sincere about unemployment they should have taken legislative action long ago, because unemployment is a matter that comes with the jurisdiction of the provinces under the British North America Act."

Reiterating recent statements the Dominion Government was prepared to give dollar for dollar with the provinces and municipalities in order to give work to the unemployed, Premier King said "up to this minute I have not received word from a single provincial premier who seeks to take advantage of that offer."

On his way to North Bay yesterday the Premier delivered a speech at Espanola and also a brief address at Sudbury. At the former town he said he believed Mr. Bennett was seeking to find some excuse for not attending the Imperial Conference if he is returned to power.

The speaker addressed the belief the Opposition leader realized the attitude he had taken on the budget was not a helpful one.

Instead of discussing the budget, which Premier King declared to be the main issue both Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson, he said, were running around speaking on any other minor issue which occurred to them.

FERGUSON TO BLAME

NORTH BAY, Ont., July 19. — Answering charges made recently by Premier G. H. Ferguson that the Dominion Government was responsible for any delay in the St. Lawrence Waterways development, Premier Mackenzie King issued a lengthy statement here last night in which he placed the responsibility on the Ontario Premier if the project is blocked.

Reviewing the Government's position in connection with the scheme and the development of power Premier King states every effort has been made to assemble the various difficult factors of the project without delay and without undue haste. The engineering, the financial, the international aspects have all been considered. A constitutional difficulty occasioned by Provincial claims as to waterpower rights in navigable streams arose. A solution has been sought before the courts, "we have Egyptian Premier Accuses British Gov't of Intervening in Internal Affairs.

WARSHIPS UNNECESSARY.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, July 19 (A.P.)—Prime Minister Ismail Sidky Pasha of Egypt, in an official note last night accused the British Government of having intervened in Egypt's sovereign affairs in connection with Tuesday's serious rioting here.

He objected to the tenor of a communication, anounced in the House of Commons on Wednesday by Prime Minister MacDonald, from Sir Percy Loraine, British High Commissioner in Egypt, in which Sidky Pasha was informed that Great Britain "must hold him responsible for the protection of foreign lives and property in Egypt."

Commenting on the arrival yesterday of two British warships, he said that the re-establishment of order and tranquility made their presence unnecessary.

As to the riots, in which 14 persons were killed and 56 seriously injured, including eight Europeans, Sidky Pasha asserted that the local authorities had quickly gained control of the situation, and calm had soon been restored.

STOWAWAY YOUTH HELD FOR ATTACK ON GIRL

MONTREAL, July 19. — (C.P.) —Hugh Braid, wanted in Montreal for an attack upon Miss Betty Handene, a 19 year old girl, in a Westmount residence yesterday, was found a stowaway on the Cunard Liner Aurania, which sailed for Plymouth. Captain C. S. Bolphin of the Aurania, who had been furnished with a description of the wanted man by wireless, sent a message back that Braid had been discovered and was being set ashore in charge of the police authorities at Quebec.

Miss Handene suffered deep cuts about the neck, but was expected to recover.

NATIONAL PROBLEMS DO NOT ENTER INTO QUEBEC'S CAMPAIGN

for promoting an immigration policy that immigrants from Britain or indeed from any country, France not excepted.

Unemployment and the tariff are the two leading questions so far as the campaign in Quebec is concerned. The St. Lawrence waterway controversy is comparatively in the background. In the rural districts, a ding dong battle is being fought over the New Zealand treaty. Farmers there are who assert that it has ruined the dairy industry of the province; others, speaking with equal authority declare that the industry is more prosperous than ever. These argue that in any case it is foolish to thresh an old straw in a treaty that has been denounced and will shortly be abrogated. In city and rural district alike, there is deep and indeed pathetic interest in the old age pension proposals, Quebec unlike Ontario, not having passed the necessary legislation to give its aged people the benefit of the measure passed at Ottawa.

Hold Joint Meetings.

That typical Quebec institution, the joint meeting at which both candidates —Rouge and Bleu— appear and state their case, has produced no little excitement during the campaign, the meetings occasionally ending up in a free for all fight. Over and over again, candicates after having listened to their opponent speak in comparative order have been compelled to give up the attempt to make themselves heard. In such cases, there is often the charge the that opposing party planned the break up of the meeting after their principal speaker had had his say.

The Liberals in Quebec appear still to have a great asset in the potent memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. At the meeting addressed by the Prime Minister in the city of Quebec, every speaker on the platform invoked the memory of our only French-Canadian Prime Minister.

Partisanship betraying speakers into the most reckless of statements affords the other side a great deal of fun. It is difficult to believe that the Honorable Fernand Rinfret meant his remarks to be taken seriously when he declared that some of the Conservative candidates in Quebec do not know if Arthur Meighen or Sir Robert Borden ever existed. Another Liberal orator, Dr. H. Deslauriers candidate for St. Mary's division of Montreal, predicts that Canadian cities "will be overrun by English Bolsheviks and Whitechapel ragamuffins if Bennett is elected". Charles Edouard Ferland running for re-election in Joliette tells his constituents "If Bennett is elected you will have conscription again and you will be sent to fight for England in India against the followers of Gandhi who are rising in arms to fight for their own freedom". Still another Liberal describes Mr. Bennett as "not only an Englishman, but an Englishman of a type we do not want in this country." Without making any direct reference to this statement, Mr. Bennett in his Quebec campaign informed all who cared to hear, that he represents the ninth generation of his family on this continent.

Tired of Silk-Hatted Lawyers.

Lest it should be thought that this sort of argument is confined to any one party, it might be well to consider the arguments of J. A. Shinnick, Conservative candidate in Laurier Outremont. Mr. Shinnick who announces he is running at the behest of voters who are tired of silk-hatted lawyer candidates from St. James Street, is equally alarmed at the prospect of Montreal becoming corrupted by interlopers from Europe, but his guess is that the dread eventuality will come to pass with the return to Government of Messrs. King and Company. Mr. J. Cyriac Gauthier, a St. Lawrence pilot for forty years and Conservative candidate for St. Denis, Montreal is thoroughly convinced that Quebec has been sold by the Government to the West, this in spite of the fact that Quebec kept it in power. He also asserts that the Minister of Marine moved heaven and earth to prevent his canditure. Mr. Gauthier, who is the father of nine children advocates the payment of $100 to parents for every child after the fourth.

Arthur Sauve, formerly Conservative, leader in the Quebec provincial assembly and now a candidate for the Federal House, confesses himself to be in a position which many must often find themselves in, but few in political life have the courage to avow it so candidly, that is, he likes some features of the program of the other party. While he disapproves of most of Mr. Kings policies, he is in general agreement with the Liberal Attitude at the last Imperial Conference.

Liberal Bolter.

While in Ontario the Liberals have gained two noted supporters from the other ranks in J. Carrick and J. H. Burnham, Liberalism in Montreal has suffered a noted outstanding defection in the person of R. L. Calder, K.C., one of the city's best known lawyers, who is campaigning on behalf of R. S. White, whom he unsuccessfully opposed in the Mount Royal division in the last General Election. Curiously enough, Mr. Calder has changed sides for the same reason as has Mr. Burnham, on the ground that his former political friends have become anti-Imperialist, but he has travelled in the contrary direction. Mr. King, Mr. Cardin and Mr. Rinfret, he says, have raised the issue of anti-Imperialism by their constant fear that some one in Downing Street, will take away from them their claims to having brought Canada into "nationhood." The Beauharnois Power deal which Mr. Calder condemns bitterly was another factor in the making of his decision.

As a refres hing example of a candidate who appeals on a high plane, may be quoted that of E. G. St. Pere, Liberal nominee for Hochelaga, and a former member. Mr. St. Pere says it would be ridiculous to deny the exisence of unemployment," neither King nor Bennett can affect a cure overnight," he declares. "The only true and permanent solution lies in the return of the Christian spirit to industry, in a cessation of that selfishness which inspires one third of our population to live for nothing but the dollar, and in a return to what was preached by our fathers, a little pity for our own kind."

If Mr. White is enjoying the aid of a former antagonist, another former city member is having quite a different experience. Dr. Arthur Denis, Liberal is being opposed by Miss Idoal St. Jean, famous French-Canadian feminist who helped him to win the last election. If Miss St. Jean, who is running as an Independent Liberal, should succeed in being elected, she would not only be the first Quebec woman M.P., but she would be in the anomalous position of being a Federal member of a province, which denies her a vote in the provincial sphere. Miss St. Jean warns her supporters that she is promising no jobs if she is elected. She regards the spoils system as a form of bribery. Maisonneavue, largely a working class constituency, has in addition to the orthodox candidates, a Communist whose chances of election are not causing the others any sleepless nights. The Communists of Montreal have the same grievance as those of Toronto, namely that they are denied their constitutional rights by police interference with their meetings. A protest has been sent on their behalf to the Chief Electoral Officer at Ottawa.

Both are Confident.

As is usual on the eve of an election, both parties profess the utmost confidence. Mr. King declares that the Government will hold its own in Quebec and possibly improve its position. With but four seats held by the Opposition, it is clear that their is little margin for improvement from the Liberal point of view. On the other hand, the Conservatives claim a number of seats are as good as captured. It is safe to predict that there will be no landslide in Quebec and that the apportionment of seats from its province after July 28, will be little changed from that of the last

BLUE RUIN TALK IS NOT NEEDED IN LAKEFIELD

Declares J. J. Duffus at Party Rally Held in That Village.

DEBT IS REDUCED.

British Preference Has Brought to Canada Many Fine Industries.

The "blue ruin" predictions of the Conservative party four and five years ago have not materialized in Lakefield, J. J. Duffus commented in his address at Lakefield last night.

"Lakefield has shared in the prosperity which Canada has enjoyed under the Liberal administration," he candidate continued. "You remember that in 1926, and also in 1925, the Hon. Arthur Meighen and other speakers of the Conservative party, told the people that if the Liberals were returned to power the industries would be forced to close down and smoke would no longer pour from the chimneys."

"That propaganda perhaps got some votes for the Conservatives, but Canada has gone on to greater prosperity, and here in Lakefield I am glad to see that your cement industry has grown and is busy. The smokestack is not only pouring out smoke, but it is now higher than ever, and is one of the sights of this district. In this election you hear the same cry of "blue ruin," but I ask you not to be misled again."

Mr. Duffus said that Conservatives were making a lot of statements which were not based on facts.

Says Remark Unfair.

"At a meeting here a few days ago my friend Mr. Corkery said: "What will happen to the Dominion of Canada if the government is again returned to power?" He left the bald statement in just those words as if to create in the minds of the people of Douro an impression unfavorable to the Liberal Government. I say it would be a blessing for Canada if Mackenzie King, or some equally capable Prime Minister, who could make a proportionate reduction in the national debt, could guide this country for the next 41 years, for by that time, and at the same rate of reduction, our debt would be completely wiped out."

Mr. Duffus said that since the Dunning Budget was brought down three British industries had decided to locate in Ontario, and there was every prospect of others coming.

Quotes Recent Opinion.

Quoting from a Toronto newspaper of this week the candidate read as follows: "Industrial England is looking forward with deep interest to the result of the Dominion election this month. I do not remember, in fact, when interest was so keen in the result of a Canadian election, and campaign results are followed closely," said Stuart A. Lister of Niagara Falls Police Search Banks of River For Clue.

DROP OF 70 FEET.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 19 (C.P.)—City police are investigating a suicide note left in a car on the River Road. The car was found abandoned on the edge of the road two hundred feet from the lower bridge. A note pinned to the steering wheel, read as follows: "Notify mother at 136 Mayer avenue, Buffalo. Tell her I'm sorry. I have done my best, Harry." The car, bearing a New York State license, was found to be registered in the name of George H. Green, 136 Mayer avenue, Buffalo. There is a drop of seventy feet into the river at the point where the car was found or he could have walked from a path to the water edge; the police are searching the banks. A fine wrist-watch was found hanging on the instrument board.

SIX ARE POISONED IN KITCHENER BY INFECTED CHEESE

Medical Health Officer Lays Ban on Limburger Variety.

TESTS BEING MADE.

Believe Trouble Starts in Milk Supply From Rural District.

KITCHENER, Ont., July 19. — Limburger cheese in this city has caused the serious illness of six persons, according to reports made to the medical health department and as a result the medical health officer has requested the public to refrain from eating this food until the reports of tests being made are known. Samples have been sent to the Ontario laboratories at Toronto.

Some time ago the local department had tests made and the reports then were that the cheese had been made from infected milk obtained from diseased cows. As the source of the cheese was outside the city the health department was powerless and it was anticipated that the Ontario Department would act and have the source of supply cleaned up or cut off.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Minister of Health, last night verified the information that a number of Kitchener people had been poisoned by eating cheese Results of an analysis made in the Ontario laboratories here had shown that the food was infected, he declared

It was suspected that the seat of the trouble was an infected milk supply somewhere in the rural districts outside of Kitchener, Dr. Godfrey said Officials of the health department were at present busy trying to locate the source of the tainted supply and he expected that it would shortly be found. Whether the infection in the milk came from diseased cattle or was getitng into the milk by reason of dirty containers, and the hot weather, the Minister was not prepared to say.

"It's the old, old story," he declared. "Almost every summer there is trouble in different parts of Ontario with infected milk. The hot weather is frequently the cause of it."

No cases of poisoning through infected dairy products have been reported in Toronto, Dr. Gordon B. Jackson, medical health officer, stated last night.

When a woman told Judge Cluer of Shoreditch, England, recently that her misdeeds were caused by a case of "nerves," and she needed treatment, he replied: "The only doctors you need for your nerves are Dr. Quiet, Dr. Diet and Dr. Merryman, and they charge you nothing."

The Omnipresence of God

(A Passage from a Great Religious Classic)

His eye is upon every hour of my existence. His Spirit is intimately present with every thought of my heart. His inspiration gives birth to every purpose within me. His hand impresses a direction on every footstep of my goings. Every breath I enhale is drawn by an energy which God deals out to me. This body, which, upon the slightest derangement, would become the prey of death, or of woeful suffering, is now at ease, because He is at this moment warding off from me a thousand dangers, and upholding the thousand movements of its complex and delicate machinery. His presiding influence keeps by me through the whole current of my restless and ever-changing history. When I walk by the wayside, He is along with me. When I enter into company, amid all my forgetfulness of Him, He never forgets me. In the silent watches of the night, when my eyelids have closed, and my spirit has sunk into unconsciousness, the observant eye of Him who never slumbers is upon me. I cannot fly from His presence. Go where I will, He tends me, and watches me and cares for me; and the same Being who is now at work in the remotest domain of nature and of providence, is also at my hand to eke out to me every moment of my being and to uphold me in the exercise of all my feelings, and of all my faculties.—Thomas Chalmers.

The Question ? ? Box ? ?

In this corner the enquiries of readers on Biblical and religious problems are answered. Address "The Q. B. Editor c-o The Examiner.

Q.—On Saturday afternoon my boy John came in and asked my wife for a piece of chocolate cake. As his mother did not want to spoil his appetite for dinner, she told him that it was all eaten up, but there was, as a matter of fact, one piece left, for when John had gone out she told me. It made me think, though, did she do right?—J.P.B.

A.—Lies are never excusable, and it is wrong to lie to children though it is very easy to choose this way of avoiding a conflict with a childish will.

We should never lie at any time. We should either speak the truth or remain silent. When a mother lies to her children they will find it out sooner or later, and if they love and trust her, the discovery that their mother is a liar is a great shock, undermining their respect for her.

I know the case of a boy who was lied to carelessly by his mother, but who found her out. Thereafter he began to distrust her, and there grew up a barrier of reserve between them which succeeding years have not broken down. She cannot understand his coolness, and he, ashamed for her, will not tell her the truth frankly.

It has been argued at times that it is necessary to lie. That for example a general who knows that the battle before him is more likely to bring disaster than victory, should encourage his troops with false hopes, in order to raise their spirits. But, however black the outlook, he does not need to lie, and if he does his insincerity will be almost certainly discovered by the most observant of his men.

Q.—Shakespeare said that God dies with men. Do you really think so?

A.—Shakespeare did not really say, "The evil that men do lives after them, the good is oft interred with their bones." It is one of his characters in his plays who uses these words.

He puts them into the mouth of Marcus Antonius, whose purpose is not to tell the truth, but to arouse the people against the murderers of Caesar. So he starts off with a cunning lie, he says, "I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him," and proceeds to praise him, with subtle cleverness.

When he stands down, having worked the people up into a fury, he says to himself, "Mischief, thou art afoot." He meant to make trouble, and having succeeded, he pats himself on the back.

Shakespeare was too wise to say that the good died with men. It is so obviously untrue. The good that men do is often remembered when their evil deeds are forgotten. Many great and good men have to die before they obtain recognition of their virtues. The good that Jesus and the apostles and the prophets accomplished did not die with them.

Q.—The question has arisen in our Bible class about the correct attitude in prayer. Should we kneel or bend over?—K.L.

A.—In praying it is essential that the thought should be concentrated upon the prayer. A slovenly physical attitude has an effect upon the mind and in it the attention is more likely to wander. We may be reciting the words of the Lord's Prayer and thinking about something that has no relation to it at all.

When we kneel with the body straight upright and with the hands clasped before us we are poised, and our whole attitude being directed towards one end, we are more likely to remember that we are praying, not taking a rest.

When prayer or meditation is prolonged the quietening of the mind has a tendency to send us to sleep, but it is very difficult to fall asleep if the body from the knees is held upright. Try it.

Q.—What did Jesus mean in Luke 22:38, when He said, "Two swords were enough." Apparently to deal with His enemies who were coming to take Him?

A.—The passages from verses 35 to 38 has puzzled many people. Adam Clarke, whose commentary is a noted one, frankly admitted that he did not understand the reference to the two swords.

But scholars are coming to agree that Jesus spoke in irony. It is evident that He did not mean the disciples to use the swords, for when Peter employed one of the weapons He rebuked him.

This interpretation of the passage is supported by Jesus' quotation (in verse 37) from the 53rd chapter of Isaiah, whose significance Peter either failed to understand or forgot when the crisis occurred.

In the succeeding words in Isaiah 13, it is written of Christ: "He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so He openeth not His mouth," indicating that He was "to turn the other cheek."

BLUE RUIN TALK IS NOT NEEDED

Trafalgar, just returned after a three years' stay abroad. Mr. Lister is a son of the late Sir Ashton Lister, former member of the British Parliament. "Many of our manufacturing firms with overseas trade are preparing for expansion, and in the event of the return of the King government, and the adoption of the intra-Empire trade policy at the coming election, I am convinced that you will see an influx of British branch firms to Canada," said Mr. Lister.

Preference Brought Industries.

The British Preference, Mr. Duffus continued, had brought to Canada many branches of United States industries. Some of them were located in Peterborough, and depended to a considerable extent upon their trade within the Empire.

"We have every reason to believe," the speaker continued, that the Dunning Budget will have the effect of bringing other companies to our city of Peterborough, not only from the United States, but from the Old Country as well. That will build up our city, provide more employment and greatly improve our home market for the produce of our farmers."

Mr. Duffus asked his audience whether they thought a Conservative speaker in this riding was fair in his assertion that Mackenzie King wasn't fit to run a corner grocery store—let alone the Dominion of Canada?

"I ask you if Premier Ferguson is playing the game when he speaks of the Liberal administration at Ottawa as a lot of old women. Surely a man who holds the position of Prime Minister of this province could discuss the affairs of our country and the policies of the two parties in an intelligent and forward - looking manner."

A New Problem.

"One of the new conditions which the Government of Canada has to deal with, and which I hope the people are taking seriously into consideration, is the fact that the United States has closed their doors of commerce in our face. So we must seek new markets for our products. If we don't sell our wheat, for inexample, it will stay in the granaries, instead of being converted into cash, and we will be in danger of serious unemployment. We have every prospect of a good harvest in this country, and that brings home to us the necessity of obtaining markets for our produce, and also for the products of our factories. The home market is not sufficient.

"A Sure Solution."

"The surest solution to that problem is to join with the other nations of the British Empire in trade within the Empire that will be to our mutual advantage. Standing together the British Empire will be a self-reliant and self-contained economic unit. That is what you are asked to decide on election day, and the Dunning Budget of the Liberal party offers to the Canadian people a new era of Empire relations that will bring us a new and enduring and increasing prosperity.

Reeve C. S. Tanner presided as chairman of the meeting. Mrs. J. Forbes Allan and Joseph Wearing were the assisting speakers. The addresses were interspersed with readings by Mrs. Hazel Davidson McClelland of Peterborough, and vocal solos by Mrs. MacMillan of Lakefield.

HON. J. C. ELLIOTT, K.C., ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE IN COBOURG HALL

trade and that such expenditure was made when the people of the Dominion had proved that it was essential, and that although the cost of the dollar is only two-thirds of what it was in pre-war times the Government has spent on public works, including all increases, four million dollars a year less than the Conservatives spent when they were in power. "I am proud of the record of my Department,' the speaker declared, "and of the record of the Government."

Soldiers' Pensions.

Making passing reference to Soldiers' Pensions, the speaker contended that returned soldiers felt they were not being properly treated at the time the Liberals took over office from the Conservatives. They felt that instances had been proved that where the men were unable to show that their disability was due to war service they were not recognized for pensions — the door had been closed in their faces. Mackenzie King and his Government removed the various causes of friction," the Minister averred. The people of British Columbia were given the land to which they felt they were entitled. The people of the Prairie Provinces and the Maritimes were pacified, and the soldiers' pensions were readjusted.

The Hon. Mr. Elliott, criticizing the action of Premier G. Howard Ferguson, said the Government also tried to treat the people of the province properly in connection with the Hydro rights, but Ferguson took issue with what was termed the five-cent speech, and consequently the offer was not taken advantage of.

Ferguson, finding that the five-cent issue did not take well, complains that Ontario has not been properly treated with regard to the power rights on the St. Lawrence. It is his privilege to ally himself with the Conservative Party, admitted the speaker, "but I find fault with him in so much as he changes his reasons too much."

Discussing the offer made to Ontario and Quebec Provinces concerning St. Lawrence Waterway rights under B.N.A. Act., Mr. Elliott thought that it was extremely fair and was made by Premier King, who recognizes that harmony in any country is of the utmost importance.

"The point I wish to make is that the grievances which were troubling the Dominion of Canada when the present Government came into power have all been eradicated. Apart from a little unemployment and the wheat situation, Canada is in a better position than any other country in the world."

In touching on the policy of British preference introduced under Laurier and Fielding, the speaker said in effect that it is advisable that we trade with our own kith and kin. He thought that the Robb Budgets, which had brought so much satisfaction to the people of Canada were absolutely eclipsed by the present Budget, which he referred to as the most scientific piece of legislation ever introduced into Canada.

The Real Issue.

The Leader of the Opposition had said, when the Budget was issued, "that is our policy," and a little while later had declared "that it was an American Budget." During the course of the debates, the Leader of the Opposition said, "a dollar that might be spent in Canada, if spent in the West Indies, is no better than a dollar spent in the United States." And after all, this is the real issue in this campaign, declared Hon. Mr. Elliott.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen, you all know the ties which bind Canada to the Empire and its various component parts, during the years of the past. You know perhaps at the present time, while we have talk of unemployment that through a kindly Providence the people of Canada are better off to-day than any country in the world, and you know also that Great Britain is coming through a strain greater than she has ever had to bear, although she will come through with her head up as she has always done in the past. For these reasons we will give Britain a preference, and that is the prime issue."

W. A. Fraser Speaks

"Mr. Ferguson is in this campaign because he hates Premier King and he hates his government," claimed W. A. Fraser, attacking Premier Ferguson for the part he is taking in the election, at the opening of his address.

"I want to ask Ferguson how he has the audacity to stand on the public platform and bombastically bellow in his intoxication from the results of the Provincial election, "I stand on guard for Ontario's rights.' I want Ferguson to tell the people of Ontario something about the Hydro Electric Power Commission, which is dominated by him and which is the greatest octopus the people of this Province know.

"Ferguson is using it for the dumping of Canadian power into American industries," he continued, adding that the Hydro is sending across the border 240,000 kilowatts of power.

"I want to tell Ferguson, that he used every means in his power when he went to the Federal Government in March, 1930, to require the Department to increase the Power Commission's export license; to increase the power which is now going to the States to 480,000 kilowatts.

Reduce Power Cost

"If Ferguson, instead of howling about unemployment, would do something to keep down the cost of power and not make his public-owned system of assistance to the United States, he might materially add to the properity of the people of the Province of Ontario. I want Ferguson to deny these statements.

"I notice that the third candidate at the end of this field used the term 'Progressive'," he commented, launching a scathing attack on Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald, Independent-Liberal-Progressive candidate in Cobourg. Pointing out that the Liberal party has the whole-hearted support of the Progressives, he asked: "Is there anything else for me than to accept Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald as a Tory candidate? I believe Mrs. Macdonald is endorsed by the Tory party either secretly or openly."

Answers Attacks

Mr. Fraser answered attacks made on him by the opposition with regard to the Government aviation camp which is now being built at Trenton, and the Cobourg harbor matter. He pointed out the impossibility of Cobourg as a site for the Government flying camp.

On the subject of the harbor, he promised: "If elected, I am going to keep at the Minister of Public Works until he gets the Cobourg harbor developed as I think it should be in the interests of the people of Cobourg and district."

"Don't forget Port Hope," cried a heckler.

"When we get done Port Hope will be a suburb of Cobourg," was his reply.

Not An Outsider

Mr. Fraser answered Tory claims that he is an "outsider" in Cobourg, claiming: "I have more money invested in Northumberland County—100 per cent over than both the Tory candidates."

Miss Grace Anderson, president of the Campbellford Ladies' Liberal Association, dealt with the record of the Government. She lauded the Government for its financial success since it took over the reins of power and expressed a plea that the Government be put back and allowed to complete the great work it has been doing with the National railway system and especially the Hudson Bay line, which is to be completed in 1931.

CROP SITUATION BRIGHT IN WEST

Alberta and Saskatchewan Both Need Some Rain.

HAIL DOES DAMAGE.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 19 (C.P.).—The crop situation in the West is generally better than last year in all three Prairie Provinces, according to the tenth crop report of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Good rains would be welcomed throughout Saskatchewan, it is noted, and in Alberta seasonal rains during the rest of the season will decide the outcome.

The harvest will be early, in all probability, in the three provinces.

Grain Raked By Hail.

SASKATOON, Sask., July 19 (C.P.).—Grain stands in this part of Saskatchewan have again been raked by the storm king. Latest of the ravages came last night, when a combination of terrific wind and pelting rain laid many fields low, causing crop loss in some areas estimated at from 80 to 100 per cent.

Truck gardens also were felled by the force of the gale, and considerable property damage was done.

A very successful lawn social in aid of the Lakehurst Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shearer, the grounds being beautifully decorated for the occasion. Rev. Mr. Walker acted as chairman and members of St. Paul's quartette, of Peterborough, supplied the musical items on the program.

Boats passing through Buckhorn Lock recently included the "Folden" of Toronto; "Ferdinand," of Cornwall; the "Jerome L" and scow; the "Charmalee" and the "Clovelly."

A MORE ENLIGHTENED ELECTORATE.

The radio, bringing the actual words of leading speakers into the homes of the electors, is doing its part in enlightening the voters as to the issues of the present election.

There is, however, an even more important factor and that is the fact that the daily newspapers, with one or two exceptions, are making no discrimination in their news columns, and are giving full and unbiased reports of all important meetings regardless of the auspices under which those meetings are being held.

There was a time when party organs featured only the utterances of the orators of their own party, using little or nothing of opposition speeches.

A happier condition of affairs has, however, developed and voters are thus in a much better position to study the issues and to learn both sides of the question than they were in the elections of yesteryear, when they read only the arguments of their own party and steadfastly refused to believe anything to the contrary that they might happen to see in newspapers unfriendly to their cause.

SHOULDN'T BE POLITICAL FOOTBALL.

What The Examiner feared when it advised weeks ago that legislation on behalf of returned soldiers should not be made an issue in the present election has already begun to develop.

Different veterans have taken the political platform on one side or the other to discuss this question, and as a result there is arising a current of ill-feeling among the returned men themselves that is detrimental to their interests and harmful to the veterans' associations.

Such a result was inevitable once the matter was dragged into the campaign.

Individual returned men have their own political views and the right to express them, but when they begin to quarrel as to which political party deserves the most credit for assisting the returned men they are hurting their own interests and doing the politicians very little service.

The two political parties would have been well advised not to mention soldier problems at all, and when they departed from that principle they paved the way for a lot of trouble for themselves and for the veterans.

The question should never have been made a political football.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has done a useful service to the public generally in issuing a booklet in which instructions are given as to the proper methods of artificial respiration to be used in cases of drowning, electric shock and gas poisoning.

At Lindsay the other day a Toronto man rescued his eight-year son from the river, and although the little victim was unconscious, the father was able to save the boy's life because he knew how to stimulate respiration.

It is knowledge that everybody should possess because it may mean the difference between life and death.

The prone method described in this booklet is not only effective, but it is simple, and there is no reason why young people as well as adults should not learn the essential details of the operation.

When knowledge that may save lives is so readily acquired it would seem to be merely common sense for people generally to study the proper methods and learn how to apply them quickly and effectively.

To allow a victim of drowning or shock to wait until a doctor can be summoned usually means that medical aid arrives too late to be of any avail.

STILL A QUIET ELECTION.

With Premier Taschereau of Quebec entering the federal battle on behalf of the Liberal Government, most of the provincial premiers are now hotly engaged in the struggle.

The activity of the provincial administrations supplementing the work of the federal organizations surely should have the effect at least of stirring up popular interest in the Dominion campaign and of inducing a larger percentage of voters than usual to go to the polls.

And yet if the lack of excitement noted in Peterborough is any criterion, the ballyhoo of the rival parties is not producing that effect.

With voting only a week away, it cannot be said that the interest is in any way keen.

The fact that the election is being held in mid-summer is probably one cause for that condition, and another is the length of the campaign.

The electors having heard the key speeches of the leaders over the radio weeks ago, have failed to develop a great deal of interest in subsequent meetings.

There is a week of campaigning left, and especially in Ontario, it will be a week of ceaseless effort on the part of the political organizations.

It may be that this extraordinary pressure on the eve of the election will arouse the electors out of their apathy and indifference.

THE POPE'S WARNING.

The Pope is reported to be seriously concerned regarding communistic propaganda on this continent. His Holiness, in a private audience with Monsignor John A. Ryan, rector of the National Catholic University at Washington, warned the United States of the menace, saying the people of that country "do not realize how far it has spread already, nor completely what its spread means." Times of financial depression and unemployment, such as that through which the world is now passing, are most favorable for the spread of bolshevist doctrine, he added. That these fears are not without warrant is seen by the evidence given before the Government committee specially appointed to investigate Red activities in New York and other American cities. Testimony submitted by school authorities regarding the "Young Pioneers" movement is of a most disturbing character. It is said that, under the guidance of Moscow representatives, this organization is now operating in 21 States and teaching the doctrines of the Soviets in no fewer than 63 cities. The school pupils are openly urged in printed circulars to overthrow the Government, and "strong financial support" is furnished for the express purpose of substituting the anti-social and anti-religious communistic system for the existing regime.

It would be too much to expect that Canada was being left out of account in these Russian activities. As a matter of fact, it is common knowledge that a very active propaganda is being conducted among the young people of many centres, more or less secretly. The latest manifestation comes from a summer camp near Toronto, which, according to reports, is dominated by the Young Communist League. The denial given by the organizers is not of a very convincing character, while the charges are quite categorical, including bowing to the Soviet flag, singing the Third International, wearing communist buttons, ridiculing the provincial school system, deriding religion, etc. It would be a fatal mistake for this Dominion to congratulate itself that it is exempt from the dangers that are revealing themselves in New York and other cities of the United States.—Hamilton Spectator.

STALEMATE IN CHINA.

Encouragement will be given to the friends of the Nanking Nationalists by the seeming military deadlock, since it indicates that their enemies have thus far failed to achieve the triumph which they promised last spring. The South remains in the hands of so-called "Communists" and the North is divided between Feng and Yen and their associates. The only serious losses which Nanking has sustained are in the Province of Shantung, where the Northerners have succeeded in partly ousting the followers of the Nationalists. But the latest reports show that the Northerners are handicapped by the lack of means of transportation. The Nanking group retains control of the area in the immediate vicinity of the Yangtse Valley.

Two main facts stand out—China is hopelessly divided into factions, and the Nationalists still hold the most important strategic position in the country. The Yangtse Valley has ever been the heart of China—the "Middle Kingdom" of days past. Not only is it geographically near the centre of China, but the river itself is navigable far into the interior, yielding the easiest and most effective means of communication in China. So famous a student of strategy as Admiral Mahan noted that it was the logical modern centre. He predicted more than a quarter of a century ago that the capital would some day be moved to Nanking, as the most suitable spot in China. Thither, three years ago, the capital was moved. But, despite strategy and geography, there is no knowing how long it will remain there.

Only last week it was reported that the Northerners were seeking to lure back to Peking several thousand officials of the Nanking Government who, presumably, would exercise under the Northern generals the same functions that they had in Nanking. Such shifts of allegiance are not uncommon in Chinese political life, though they do not, as a rule, occur so easily as the dispatches would suggest. A few bureau chiefs and other like officials might be lured from one to the other centre; but no wholesale migration seems likely.

Extreme pessimism about the situation is not called for. Instead of criticizing because disorders continue, it would be fairer to recognize the fact that China never has been a political unit in the sense of a modern State, and that the various regional loyalties and jealousies are normal. So long as conditions within the individual provinces result in a measure of security for the inhabitants, the permutations and combinations of the political dictators are of only secondary importance.—New York Times.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

And now for the last awful week.

It will soon be all over but the pressure of words, for the next few days will be a real test of the power of endurance of the Canadian people.

"Some men achieve fame through patent medicine advertisement, while others get into the limelight through changing their political allegiance on the eve of an election," says the St. Thomas Times-Journal.

It is the duty of every person on the voters' list to cast a ballot at the coming election. Surely the issues are of sufficient importance to justify a general use of the franchise.

There is one thing in favor of this political fighting. So far at least nobody has been disqualified on a foul.

"Under which flag?" asks the Brockville Recorder and Times, and somehow that question has a reminiscent sound.

News of Our Own Village

So far the village council aint been asked to wear "shorts" so the folks'll wait a while to see Walt. Stocker's knees and Nagle Phelan's calves.

Our worthy mayor, Rolly Denne, has been holidaying in Quebec, east of here, and telling the folks where the best berg in Canada is to be found.

Ham Burnham packed his valise Thurs. and took to the stump in the interests of the Grit party. Village Tories say if Ham wants to broadcast they're willing to give him the air.

Dick Bennett of Calgary, west of us, aint going to be a visitor in our midst this election, Dick being in demand all over this fair province. Bill Finalyson from Queen's Park is coming next week, however, to say a word or 2 for Ed. Peck.

Sandy MacTavish might as well understand that he aint got a chance in the world to borrow that carnival whale and enter it in the big fish contest promoted by this great family journal.

In case the customers don't know it there is going to be a election in these parts a week from Mon., so folks might as well get ready to do their duty, if any.

A cricket team from Philadelphia, south of here, was pleasant visitors in our midst Tues. p.m., staying long enough to give the village lads a lacing. You're welcome back, any time boys, say we.

Joe Dufus and Ed. Peck is circulating round the rural sections of this enlightened constituency these days, and demon statisticians figure out that if all the words the boys is using was placed end to end they'd make some kind of a record or other.

Bill King, of Ottawa, east of here, who dropped in here last month for a talk is back in Ontario from an extended tour of the West. Bill says everything out that way is O.K.

Charlie Lacheur, our village postmaster, sez quite a jag of mail is coming in for tourists sojourning in these parts. The election is quite a boost to the post office business, too, and it looks like the new coat of paint might be paid for without causing no overdraft.

A Thought

SECRET OF PROSPERITY

The head of a great business, a fine man and an earnest Christian, known everywhere for his generous philanthopies, recently said to his employees in one of his shop talks:

"Doubtless you all want to double your riches without gambling. This is my advice—share them! Whether they be material or intellectual or social, share them! Their rapid increase will amaze you. If the sun had folded itself up in darkness it would have gone out long ago. When Jesus said: 'Give, and it shall be given unto you,' He gave the world the wisest recipe for riches it has ever known. Yet men are living the lives of misers, entangling themselves in labyrinths of falsehood, and riding broomsticks of wild theory and speculation with the open road to riches right at their door."

No truer statement could be made. The real secret of prosperity, both material and spiritual, is summed up in those few words. The pity is that more of us do not have the faith to try the recipe for ourselves.

NEGOTIATIONS BANNED

BOMBAY, India, July 17 (C.P.) — Sir Frederick Sykes, Governor of Bombay, told the Legislative Assembly to-day that there could be no negotiation with the factors of disorder in India. His speech constituted a severe indictment of the activities of the civil disobedience volunteers.

THE GRINGO PRIVATEER

By PETER B. KYNE

CHAPTER 19.

"That meek Christian spirit of yours will get you killed by Bruce or Gallegos before you've had another chance to get rid of them," the king complained.

"Speaking of that, sir, what was the reason for the sudden access of tenderness and mercy Your Highness exhibited this morning? Yesterday you would have kissed me had I delivered to you Miguel Gallegos in a shroud, but this morning you forbade the bans. May I respectfully remind Your Majesty that if I am to be hampered, even remotely, in this delicate matter, your prophecy is extremely liable to come true!"

"Muriel," the king replied maliciously, "thinks you're too young and innocent to die a violent death. She made me play thumbs-up."

Burney turned to the girl with a grave inclination of his black poll. "It's nice to discover who cares, princess."

"Mr. Burney," the young lady replied freezingly, "you are much too familiar on brief acquaintance. May I suggest you remember hereafter that you are merely one of the hired men on El Ranchito."

"He's my general manager," her father objected, "and I'll not have him insulted. The insult rights in general managers are vested in me alone. Muriel, you pipe down. You appear to have read into Mr. Burney's gracious remark a meaning not clear to me."

"If it had anything to do with cows you'd understand it. I'll not be treated as if I were a child, father. I'll not pipe down."

"Young lady says she'll not pipe down, Your Majesty," Burney informed his employer. "What are you doing to do about it? Do I have to resign in the middle of my contract in order to escape being insulted?"

The princess replied to his query. "You might retire to your own quarters, Mr. Burney."

"I think that is eminently sound advice, Your Majesty," Burney told her father. "This has been a long, hard, hot, dangerous day. I'm tired and if I remain here any longer your spoiled heir-apparent will get on my nerves. Ordinarily I could put up with her megrims and vapors, but after declining to kill Miguel Gallegos, merely as a favor to the lady, I think I should be spared these cruel verbal shafts. Have I the king's permission to retire?"

"You have! Har! Har-har! Har! Good night, son. You're certainly a comfort to me in my old age."

"Good night, sir. Thank you." He bowed elaborately to the princess and disappeared into the darkness.

"That man," said the princess presently, "is a crazy dreamer."

"Maybe so, honey, but I'd hate to be the man that wakes him up. You were unnecessarily rude to him, Muriel."

"He's impudent and arrogant and deserves to be put in his place."

"You watch your step or he'll put you in your place, my dear. If you worry that boy, the first thing you know he'll go away and never come back and then what'll you do?"

"To hear you talk, Dad, one would gather that I'm in love with him. The idea!"

"Honey," His Majesty suggested, "suppose you step inside and put that La Golondrina record on the phonograph. On nights like this I crave music and I like it slow and sad and plaintive, because the ghosts of all the sons I never had seem to flit around in the gloaming like bats ——"

The princess bent over him and smothered his mouth with kisses. "Oh, Dad," she whispered, "I had to pick a fight with him to keep from crying. He's so wonderful it just breaks my heart to think of the project he has under way. I can't believe he's so terribly, casually bloodthirsty as he pretends. He must have suffered some terrible wrong and it has embittered him. Why can't he realize that life is sweet ——"

The king fought his mouth free. "There's only one thing wrong with that young fellow," he declared. "His old man went broke in the cattle business and this lad has to fight his way back into it again. That's all. As soon as that job's finished Ken Burney will be so tame a jackrabbit can leap up and spit in his eye and get away with it."

"I can't understand him. He's so handsome, brilliant, witty, well-mannered and well-born, and yet he can descend to this sort of business and, apparently, enjoy it."

"He's got the intestinal investiture of a bear," His Majesty assured her with vulgar earnestness, "and the super-intelligence of a coyote. He ought to go far, provided his morality holds up, and I have a suspicion it will. He's broad between the ears and has a full, kind eye."

"You speak of him as though he were a horse," Muriel charged petulantly.

"I thought I asked for LaGolondrina," the king reminded her; whereupon she realized some other topic of conversation would be agreeable to him. So she subsided, but with a distinct feeling that she had been outgeneraled by two mere men and that Ken Burney had treated her with the tolerance usually reserved for very little girls who speak out of their turn.

The following morning Ken Burney was called on the telephone from Huachita. The man who answered his cheerful "hello" was none other than Senor Miguel Gallegos. "I hear," said Senor Gallegos, "that last night you and your men were in such a hurry to leave town you abandoned your horses in the local livery stable and fled in a rented car."

Burney laughed.

"I had a suspicion your or Martin Bruce might send a couple of good wing shots around to the livery stable last night to surprise us when we came for our horses."

"Not last night. Early this morning," Gallegos assured him brazenly. "Well, you're a smart young fellow, Burney. I admire brains wherever I find them, so I simply had to call you up and compliment you on your strategy. Want to sell that pinto horse of yours, now that you've decided to leave the country?"

"No, not very much. I'm not leaving."

"He's a pretty prominent horse for such a prominent citizen as yourself to be seen riding. People can recognize you a long way off—say five hundred yards—and in the clear atmosphere of El Cajon Bonita that distance is just a little uncomfortable."

"Es verdad. So you thought you'd bring that matter to my attention in the hope that it might influence me to sell, eh?"

"Well, I'll try anything once."

"There is merit in the suggestion. Come to think of it I might as well get rid of that horse. What will you give me for him?"

"A hundred and seventy-five dollars."

"Not enough. Martin Bruce offered me a thousand for him, and if I sell him to anybody I'll sell him to Bruce. A prominent citizen like Martin Bruce on such a prominent horse could be recognized a long way off—say at a thousand to twelve hundred yards—in the clear, bracing atmosphere of the sovereign state of New Mexico—and I'm here to tell you, Gallegos, that range is highly dangerous with me behind a Springfield rifle. And I don't have to use a telescopic sight, either."

"Too much for a cow horse. I pass."

"Is Martin Bruce in the neighborhood of the telephone you're using?"

"Right beside me."

"Put him on the line. . . . Hello, Mr. Bruce. Does your offer for that pinto horse of mine still hold good?"

"Sure does, young feller."

"Deposit a thousand dollars to my credit in the Huachita bank in escrow for thirty days against a bill of sale for the horse and an order on the livery stable keeper to turn him over to you. You shall have him a day or two before I leave this country."

"Sold," said Martin Bruce, and hung up.

"Poor old Rowdy," Burney soliloquized. "I suppose he'll get killed the day he bears Martin Bruce into action. But that's one of the chances I have to take. No omelet unless one cracks eggs."

Art Graydon came in then and they went over the ranch mail together. Graydon was for making his successor familiar with the ranch accounting system next, but Ken Burney smilingly opposed that. "I'd just be wasting my time, Mr. Graydon," he assured the latter. "I'm here solely for one reason; within the next sixty days that reason should no longer exist and I shall be on my way. You subscribe to enough reading matter for El Ranchito, do you not?" he added, indicating a pile of newspapers still in their wrappings.

"Oh, yes. Every Bardin Land & Cattle Company ranch subscribes to the leading newspapers published in the cow centers of the Southwest and the Pacific Coast. They tend to keep us in touch with conditions throughout the territory over which the Bardin ranches are scattered. For instance, I read last year in the Alturas Citizen, of Modoc County, California, that there was a world of feed in that county and not very many cattle to eat it. Right away I wired the general manager of our Nevada ranch to motor over into Modoc and lease me a lot of available pasturage for a year. Then I shipped ten thousand head of feeders up there, because we had a short feed year down here. Grew them out and made a nice profit."

What To-day Means To You.

"CANCER."

If July 19 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. and 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 6 a.m. to 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Fortune smiles upon you on this date, and only good influences are operating, and most everything will inure to your good. Efforts will be relaxed, worries discarded, and you will be friends with all the world.

The child born on this July 19 will develop very rapidly, and will be thought "old for its age." It will enjoy the companionship of its elders more than children of its own age. It will also seek the companionship of books, and will be a real book-worm. It will have a thoughtful and philosophical mind.

You do not sit down and wait for the world to discover who you are and what you can do. You try, openly and diligently to woo and win her. You endeavor to make yourself an efficient being, so that the world is willing to buy. You know what you want and you study the road maps and guide posts leading to your goal. Nature gave you courage, a strong backbone, and a good head, so that you are not frightened at any condition in which you may find the roads to any of your desired destinations. If necessary, you are ingenuous enough to supply your own bridges. You never let the Demon of self-doubt stop you at any time. You may at times be overconfident, but you try and try again.

The hardest days of your life will be your happiest days. You love the battle between brawn and wit—versus circumstances and conditions. If you ever retire from an active business or career you must be prepared to slip into some enthusiastic hobby. A busy life for mind and body are essential to your health and happiness. You must cultivate many interest in life and not keep all your intellectual eggs in one basket. You should marry someone who can share your ambitions, and who will be your mental equal and companion. You can forgive anybody anything but stupidity. You are almost too self-contained and somewhat self-centred, and these traits do not make you yourself the best of companions. Travel is shown in your life.

"CANCER."

If July 20 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., 4:30 p.m. to 5:50 p.m. and 9 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. The danger period is from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Influences on this date are invigorating, but harmonies, ones. Your mind will be receptive to all the blessings of the day, and to its enjoyments. Cupid will dart here and there, and many troths will be plighted. A splendid time for contemplation, and the solution of many of yesterday's problems will come to you, during a relaxed moment.

The children born on this July 20 will be interesting and interested little personalities. They will be avaricious for knowledge, inquisitive to a marked degree, and have absorbing minds. They will suffer slightly from "nerves," and will be high-strung.

You have a good character and excellent abilities, but these alone are not enough in the competitive world of to-day. You are lacking in "nerve" and ambition. You are standing in line for your "chance," instead of going out after it. You hardly know what you want, but you know, you are not satisfied. If you were more sure of yourself, or felt a burning desire to do some one thing, your life would be different. As yet, you have had no "calling", and it matters not to you whether you are doing artistic or mechanical work, as far as your tastes are concerned. You do not like being nobody, but you are not making the right effort to be a somebody. You must specialize! By study you can build a ladder out of the dismal pit in which Circumstance may have placed you.

Your enthusiasms are too short lived to be of much benefit to you—you only begin a thing, when you are not only anxious but determined to drop it for something new or different—your new love. You also get "cases" on people, which do not last long, leaving a trail of disillusionment on both sides and regrets. You must learn to stick to something and somebody. In your moods you go to extremes, and are either very very happy or very, very sad. You are both emotional and sensational, and if you be a woman you get hysterical in time of emergencies.

LOCAL RESIDENT RECEIVES HONOR

J. A. McKone Elected President of Business Educators of Canada.

AT 35TH CONVENTION.

J. A. McKone of this city was elected president for the year just commencing of the Business Educators of Canada at the concluding session of their 35th annual convention, held in Winnipeg. This is the first time in the history of the association that an annual meeting has been held in the west.

Mr. McKone was accompanied to the convention by his wife and the route chosen was from Sarnia across Lake Superior to Fort William and the return trip just completed was made over the same course.

The honour which comes to Mr. McKone through his new appointment can be grasped from the fact that the Business Educators' Association is an affiliation of all the principal business colleges in the Dominion, for the purpose of working to the best advantage of the pupils. The annual examinations at each of these affiliated business colleges are prepared by the principal of one school for Dominion-wide use.

HAIL STORM HITS WESTERN CROPS

Dozen Districts in Alberta and Saskatchewan Have Fields Flattened.

HIGH WINDS DESTRUCTIVE.

SASKATOON, Sask., July 19 (C.P.). —Hail storms again flattened crops in a dozen districts of Alberta and Saskatchewan yesterday, although damage will not run as heavy as in the previous storms a short time ago.

The main storm-swept areas over a 60-mile stretch between Sibbald, Alt., and Brick, Sask. Districts between these points hardest hit were Kindersley and Netherhill, and east of these places, Macrorie and Juniper. One hundred per cent. losses were reported on many farms.

In some places high winds and electrical storms accompanied the hail and other damage occurred, including disruption of telephone service.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Brokers Believe Worst Of Market Depression Is Over

TECHNICAL POSITION OF CANUCK EXCHANGES SHOW NEW STRENGTH

Brokers Advise Purchase of Stocks For a Long Pull.

Worst of Depression Over.

By A. D. O'Halloran
(Special to Examiner, Copyright 1930)

TORONTO, July 19.—Further ground in the recovery has been made by the Canadian stock exchanged and the level to-day is well above the extreme low touched about mid June, but the market itself has failed to pass from one of investment to one of speculation. It is the type of market in which volume is necessarily restricted and price fluctuations narrow, lacking the activity and wide price variations that go to make speculative sessions so interesting. Day to day transactions are for cash and mostly small lots, with investment demand uppermost and traders taking a long pull view rather than speculating for quick profit.

An analysis of trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this week discloses the fact that over 50 per cent of individual transactions were odd lots or less than 25 shares with the bulk of this percentage for 5 and 10 shares. A year ago the majority of individual transactions were for 25 and 50 shares, with the difference that the larger blocks were being carried on margin, whereas the smaller quantities to-day are being taken up for cash.

In this way the position of both the trader and the market is improved. A year ago one of the dangers was that the individual was in the market beyond his resources, was carrying securities to the limit and had nothing in reserve with which to combat reactions. His holdings were highly speculative and his position vulnerable in that his account consisted of only one or two stocks in fairly large blocks. To-day the same individual is content to purchase five and ten shares for cash in several promising companies that show promise of appreciation over an extended period. His idea is to place himself in the position of owning securities outright, in a well diversified list of industries and thus have no worries over temporary weakness. His original intention is to hang on indefinitely knowing that when the upturn comes, the shares held should appreciate in value.

This buying of small quantities for cash has resulted in a strong technical position. The excess supply of securities, created through throwing overboard of speculative holdings, is gradually disappearing and the floating meeting with depletion. The dullness has provided a period for the digestion of securities and the falling off in public offering of new steel issues has directed those stock minded into market channels.

It is not to be said that the evidence points to a substantial advance in security prices in the very near future. While the technical position of the stock market has been substantially improved general business conditions have not as yet taken the turn expected, although commodity prices are thought to be scraping on bottom and the worst of the depression appears to be over with. Nevertheless, a sustained upward movement in prices might impair the strong technical position that has been built up and this is why brokers are to-day recommending the purchase of stocks for a long pull rather the trading for a quick profit.

For some time now the market has offered good resistance to selling pressure and has been moving higher under the impetus of investment buying but has failed to attract a large public following. The recovery here has lagged behind that in New York for the simple reason the local exchanges are devoid of professional operations and pools. The advance of the past ten days has been built in a solid foundation of cash buying, particularly on all recessions, and any attempt to put prices up sharply meets the same resistance as does pressure to drop the average to lower levels. Buying demand is there but a sharp rally scares buyers out of the market and reactions uncover scale down buying that tends to cushion the decline.

There is no longer false optimism and pessimism is giving way to mild optimism that the fall will witness improvement in business. The Bank of Montreal says it is improbable that the state of trade will undergo any marked change until the extent of the harvest is definitely known. Bountiful crops will infuse activity into many branches of business now somewhat sluggish, even though prices remain relatively low; especially is this true of the transportation agencies. Brisk business conditions have not yet arrived.

ARTICLE LXXIII.

Q.—What is the difference between Commission Brokers, Odd Lot Dealers and Specialists?

A.—A commission broker is a person commissioned to buy or sell securities for some one else. It is with him that the general public deals. He acts as a middle man and receives a compensation called a commission. He is not necessarily a speculator, nor does he buy with the intention of selling smaller lots to his customers.

An odd lot dealer is one who handles odd lot orders on the exchange. On the New York Stock Exchange the unit is the 100 share lot. As almost one-third of the trading consists of smaller lots, there has developed the odd lot dealer who specializes in these amounts.

Houses have grown up which cater to fractional lot orders, received from their own clients, or from other brokers. They often buy stock in 100 share lots and split it up to fill small orders, or conversley may buy fractional amounts and hold them until they constitute a 100 share order. They collect 1-8 point commission and sometimes more, in either buying or selling small lots.

A specialist is a floor broker who devotes his time to the buying and selling of one or more special issues. Other brokers being aware of this, turn transactions over to him in his own particular stocks. The specialist being constantly on the spot executes his orders efficiently. If a broker finds he can not watch all his stocks closely enough he will turn several orders over to specialists. He receives for this service $2.50 for over hundred shares of stock he handles. He will always buy or sell odd lots in his particular stocks and in this way often provides a market for the odd lot dealer. In buying or selling odd lots he clears at least 1-8 point commission.

His main object is to execute orders that are inconvenient for the regular broker to handle.

LADY DOYLE IS

Heron was the medium, the spirit control advised that Lady Doyle might soon rejoin her husband, telling of angels which hovered about her comfortingly," and gave the following message:

"You will convey a message of love that is being sent to her, and warn Lady Doyle to be careful of the paper entrusted to her care."

Concluding the brief message the "spirit" advised that Lady Doyle "go into the little room and kneel there in prayer, and I will be there, as I always was, when we discussed anything pertaining to our great faith.

Lived here Two Years.

In discussing the message she had received from the deceased writer, Mrs. Heron, who desires to keep her address from the public, this morning told the Examiner that she had often been the medium for messages from the spirit world. Mrs. Heron has lived in Peterborough for two years, coming here from Ireland. In the Old Country, she said, she was one of the five women mediums of whom the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle had fully approved. In extensive tests conducted in Great Britain by Sir Arhur and Sir Oliver Lodge in conjunction with a committee of eminent spiritualists, Mrs. Heron was accepted as one of the five authentic mediums.

Spoke Through Father.

She said that the spirit control "on the other side" who was using her as medium and transferring the message from Sir Arthur Doyle, was her father. The control had intimated that conditions were not yet complete for him to have Sir Arthur come himself to speak through Mrs. Heron.

Lady Doyle to-day approved in general the message reputedly received from Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, through Mrs. Heron, which had been telegraphed to her. Lady Doyle said the message was "remarkably evidential."

In the seance here through the medium, the spirit control had asked that inquiries be made concerning what Lady Doyle was doing at 11.30 a.m., Thursday morning. It was expressed that at that hour she was grieving deeply.

Examining Papers.

When informed of the text of the message received by Mrs. Heron, Lady Doyle said: "The message has some interest to me because I was handling my husband's papers in the small end of my study about that time."

Ever since Sir Arthur died as Mrs. Heron relates it, she has had a premonition that certain things that have happened to her seem to point to the supposition that she might ultimately receive an unmistakable message from Sir Arthur that he would want delivered to his wife.

"It must have been on the very day that Sir Arthur died," as Mrs. Heron described it, "that something strange happened to me. It would be about half past one in the early morning, when I wakened hearing somebody distinctly calling 'Arthur.' My husband heard it too."

The message claimed to have been received from Sir Arthur came at a seance here at which some eight local people were gathered. At the time the medium states that she was particularly striving to attune herself for a message from Sir Arthur.

From reports that have preceded her Mrs. Heron for approximately twenty years has exercised her gifts in Great Britain, where she has been tested in trance by as many as four medical doctors at one time and has puzzled learned groups who took part in her seances.

The medical men certified that her trance conditions were undoubtedly genuine, and they in turn were intrigued by the messages she received.

GARDEN GREENS IN PLENTIFUL SUPPLY

Carrots, Beets and Onions Sell at Six Bunches For a Quarter on Local Market.

Even though the orchard is not coming up to scratch this season and the outlook promises a lean year for lovers of jams and canned fruits, still the vegetable garden is doing its bit to even matters up.

There was plenty of produce at the farmers' market this morning. Baskets, tables, crates and boxes overflowed with vegetables. Chard, that flat-leaved green stuff that looks like ambitious lettuce, was a nickel a bunch; carrots, beets and green onions sold at 6 bunches for a quarter; peas and strin; beans were 3 quarts for 25 cents and shelled peas were 30 cents a quart; head lettuce was quoted at 10 cents apiece and cabbages were 10 and 15 cents each.

New potatoes, of good quality, were on the down grade as far as price is concerned. They sold at 30 and 35 cents a peck, and one customer asserted that he purchased his supply at 25 cents a peck.

Berries, not at all plentiful, were selling at 20 cents a pint box for the black raspberries and two boxes for 35 cents in the red variety. Gooseberrries were 20 cents a quart, blueberries sold at 25 cents a quart, with an eight-pound pail offered at $1.85, and rhubarb was selling at 3 bunches for a dime.

The fish man had fine-looking lake trout at 20 cents a pound.

Little Yorkshire pigs sold at $15 a pair. In the entry, a small boy offered black and white rabbits at 50 cents a pair.

In the basket section, where a vendor of ice-cream cones had his stand beside the stove which provides heat in the cold weather, eggs were priced at 28 to 40 cents a dozen, the last quotation being for large white samples. (On the open market, eggs were selling at 30 cents a dozen.) Butter was 32 cents a pound as a general price, hens were 23 and 25 cents a pound, cream 30 cents a pint, and broilers 35 to 40 cents a pound.

OILS QUIET AT TORONTO

Trading Amounting to 6,648 Shares Again Featureless This Morning.

NARROW PRICE RANGE.

TORONTO, Ont., July 19 (C.P.).—Trading, amounting to only 6,648 shares, was featureless on Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. The market idled back and forth within a narrow range.

Nickel slipped fractionally from its close last night without indicating weakness. Brazilian continued to sell above 40, Bell Telephone and C.P.R. were also firmer. Loblaw was up slightly at 13. Ford sold at 33, Massey-Harris, Cockshutt Plow, Steel of Canada, Standard Paving were unchanged. Smelters made a gain of nearly a point, and Walkers was up at 93-8.

Oils were quiet, fluctuations limited to a small fraction.

NEW YORK DECLINES IN PROFIT-TAKING

Case Threshing and Allied Chemical Among Issues to Suffer Reverses.

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 19 (C.P.)—With week-end business surveys giving no tangible indications of recovery, stock market traders to-day appeared inclined to feel that the rally in share prices had been carried far enough and hurried to take profits before the week-end shutdown.

The bull forces failed to rush in toward the close and drive stocks back up again, as they have during recent sessions.

Among the more volatile shares, Case lost more than 7, then rallied a little. Allied Chemical lost almost as much. Among important shares, however, losses were limited to a point or two, with a few running as high as four.

Dupont, Proctor and Gamble American Waterworks and Columbian Carbon lost 2 to 4. Radio Standard of N.J., International Telephone, Consolidated Gas and Columbia Gas sagged a point or more.

The close was heavy. Trading was in small volume. Total sales for the two hour session falling below 600,000 shares.

Higher Prices To-day On the Chicago Market

CHICAGO, Ills., July 19.—(CP)—Big exports and unfavorable crop reports from each side of the Canadian border led to higher prices early today on wheat. Corn value bulged also owing to advices of heat and drought in the corn belt but profit-taking sales brought about subsequent reactions both in corn and wheat, with corn affected also by word of beneficial rains in Canada. Opening unchanged to 2c higher, wheat afterward lost much of its gain, corn started unchanged to 2¼c up, but failed to maintain top figures. Oats were firm. Provisions advanced.

SIFTON SCORED BY FERGUSON

Ontario Premier Claims King Suppressed Seaway Report 6 Months.

CANAL PROJECT RECALLED.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., July 19 (By Frank Flaherty, C.P. Staff Writer).—Premier G. Howard Ferguson last night replied to charges levelled at him by Harry Sifton in connection with the power question. The same Harry, who accused him of association with big interests, said the Premier was the man who a few years ago wanted to develop 900,000 horse power through the Georgian Bay Canal and barter it away to United States interests.

The Sifton family, Mr. Ferguson stated, owned the charter for the Georgian Bay Canals, and Harry Sifton wrote to Martin Insull, the Chicago power magnate, seeking to enlist his interest in the project. Insull, he said, became interested and remained interested until Parliament refused to renew the charter in 1926.

Sifton-Insull Letter Read.

Mr. Ferguson read a letter from Mr. Sifton to Mr. Insull, which asked an opportunity to place before him a proposal leading to an arrangement for developing power on the Ottawa River through the construction of the Georgian Bay Canal. The letter said, "I believe a great opportunity is here for doing North America a real service and make a good deal of money out of it at the same time.'

"This," said Mr. Ferguson, "is the public-spirited philanthropist who endeavors to protect the rights of the people of Ontario, who charges me with being a monopolist."

"A little fellow was taking a whack at me the other day," said the Premier. "Young Sifton; he is only a boy. When the Liberal party would not give him a call he went to Brockville, bought time on the radio and sat in back parlor and made speeches at me."

Continuing his discussion of the power question, Mr. Ferguson challenged Premier King to state his policy on the St. Lawrence waterway. It was idle to charge the Ontario Government with blocking the scheme he said, when the Prime Minister of Canada "has not the courage to state his policy. Premier King has received the latest report of the engineers in December last, and has "kept it suppressed and secreted for six months."

GREENLAND RUMOR A MYSTERY

Big U.S. Trade Drop Revealed in June

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 19 (C.P.). — International trade of the United States during June declined to the lowest monthly level that the country has experienced in the last six years.

Reports of United States goods amounted to $299,000,000 as the Commerce Department estimated them to-day, which was a figure less than that of any month since July, 1924, when the country's exports amounted to $276,000,000.

ous. He says, do not bargain, take what they give".

King Talks Power

In a statement issued at Barrie, Premier King further discusses the St. Lawrence power issue. "We have stated definitely", he says, "that we do not wish to go into the power business. We have made an offer which will ensure that whether the initiative in the development of the St. Lawrence or any other navigable stream comes from the Dominion or the Province, the power will be available for the Province on a definite basis which provides for a fair alteration of costs between navigation and power and for full consideration of the riparian rights possesed by either the Dominion or the Provinces'.

And as Premier King charges Premier Ferguson with harping on imaginary Provincial grievances, Premier Ferguson acuses Premier King with having "suppressed and secreted for six months' 'the latest report of the engineers on the St. Lawrence scheme.

FALL WHEAT CUT

The first report of fall wheat being cut in this district comes from the farm of M. O'Toole and Richard Doris of Otonabee township, where two fields of the golden grain show every promise of heavy yields.

Alsike was being cut on Thursday last and other reports have reached this office on succeeding days of activities of cutting getting into full stride.

Haying will be practically over this next week—the fine warm weather of the past few days having benefitted the farmers considerably.

If Weather Continues Favorable NO BUMPER CROP.

Crop Will Reach Fair Figure.

(By T. W. Banton)
(Special to Examiner, Copyright 1930).

TORONTO, July 19.—"Half a loaf is better than no loaf at all."

Half a wheat crop in the Canadian west, will be better than no crop at all.

According to some of the reports which came out of the west over last week-end, and the early part of this week, it looked as though even half a crop would be something to be thankful for.

Fortunately, as it now turns out, the situation was hardly as bad as had been reported. Hail storms and hot weather combined, without compensating "moisture", has doubtless done some crop damage, and reduced the possibility of a bumper crop, as had been hoped for, to a minimum.

It is possible, however, at the present admittedly critical juncture, to figure on the probability of a crop of 350 million bushels of wheat or even, should conditions continue reasonably favorable for the balance of the growing season, of 400 million bushel crop.

Fair Average Crop.

Such a crop, and as much more as a bountiful Providence might be pleased to give us, would be all to the good, for Canada.

For, though the recent prospect of a comparatively small crop, perhaps even as small as the crop of last season, had the effect of checking somewhat the precipitous decline in market prices, and consequently gave some heart and encouragement to the "bull" side of the market; the same prospect, to the farmers and wheat producers of the Canadian West, meant nothing but the blackness of black despair.

For as sure as God made little apples, a ruined and blasted wheat crop for Canada, no matter how good it might be for "the market", in the sense of advancing prices to anywhere above the dollar mark or of making what the trader might call a real "bull market"; such a market, at whatever price, would be a mighty bad thing, not only for the individual farmer who sees his crops and his hopes blasted, but also, and more so, bad for the whole Dominion of Canada.

The Contrast.

In striking contrast to the situation in Canada, is the aim of those who would guide the destinies of the wheat grower across the national border.

Chairman Legge and his collegues on President Hoover's "Farm Board" are reported as having been recently engaged in an intensive lecture campaign, assisted by radio broadcasting, with a view to "educating U.S. Farmers as to the necessity of reducing wheat production.

So successful have the campaigners been in the educative efforts, that it is now reported that they returned to headquarters with assurances and "pledges" of "co-operation" on the part of farmers to assure a substantial reduction in wheat production.

It is easy to understand the reasons for the difference in the aims and policies of the two countries.

So long as the "Chinese Wall" policy across the line continues, which will be as long as the people will stand for it, their policy must be a self-contained one, to grow only as much wheat as can be consumed in their own home market. They are in fact, rapidly coming up to that point in their wheat production.

Canada on the contrary, must aim for a world market consumption.

For a British Empire market, if you like, if such can be attained.

In any case, Canada must depend upon as wide an export market as it is possible to build up.

The prosperity of the whole country agricultural, industrial, commercial, all hinges upon the production of bigger and better wheat crops.

Captain J. E. Foreman of Hamilton led all Canadians with an aggregate of 275. Lieut. Desmond Burke, winner in 1924, and runner-up the last three years, was second highest Canadian with 273.

Sergeant C. W. Foam of Montreal was third Canadian with 271, the same score as Sergt.-Major W. H. Ruffell of Victoria.

Lieut. John Bowen of Edmonton scored 269. Company-Sgt.-Major C. M. Emslie of Toronto had 268.

Sergt. J. H. Regan of Victoria scored 267. Captain Alex. Martin, formerly of Calgary, non-member of the Canadian team, had 267. Company-Sergt.-Major Hawkins, winner in 1913, scored 264. Captain W. G. Holland of Victoria was low Canadian with 246.

St. George's Vase.

With a score of 72 out of a possible 75, Armorer-Sergt. Livie of Bisley to-day won the St. George's Challenge Vase, gold cross and $50. Major Baptie of India was second with 71, and Lieut. Desmond Burke of Ottawa, with the same score, placed third.

Lieut. G. A. Molesey of Winnipeg, non-member of the Canadian Bisley team, also had 71 and Sergt.-Major H. Rusk of Ottawa was right up with 70.

One hundred and thirty men, all ranks, made up the Dragoon contingent. There were ninety horses. The Brigade was 400 men strong with 300 horses. Work at the camp consisted of troop drill, squadron drill and brigade drill as well as other forms of training including musketry practice.

Yesterday the Brigade was included in the general inspection of the troops in camp. There were two infantry brigades as well as the cavalry brigade.

A signal honor was gained by Major M. R. Sloane of the Dragoons in his election to the vice-presidency of the Canadian Cavalry Association for M.D. 3, at its regular meeting during the camp. Major Sloane is one of the youngest men that ever attained that position.

THE STORY OF TWO PROFESSORS

By Ed. Reed

Ting-a-ling! The phone rings in Professor Moore's study. Miss Fox, the ambidextrous young secretary, answers it. "You are wanted on the phone, Professor Moore!" "Right!" says Professor Moore, picking up the portable typewriter and putting it to his ear "Hey, Miss Jones, I'm not connected," shouts the professor. "Try using the phone," answers back Miss Fox.

"Hello, hello this is the Y. W. C. A. What? No, I'm wrong, the college. Oh, yes, you're right. Why, hello, Professor Mullins, how are you? Haven't seen you in years. What? I left my coat at your house last night after the dinner party? Why, Mullins, I have my coat here in the office! What? Your coat? Oh! Surely. Well, fine, I'll meet you in half an hour at the Co-op and we'll exchange. Sure sorry I made the error, Mullins. Goodby."

Professor Moore throws the phone receiver into the wastebasket and puts the burning end of his pipe into his mouth. "Miss White, will you please make a notation that I am to meet Professor Mullins in about thirty minutes at the stock exchange."

"Surely," answers Miss Fox. "But Professor, you have a psychology class due in ten minutes."

"Thanks, Miss Lane," answers the professor, pulling off his tie and starting for the gymnasium.

Three years later Professor Moore meets Professor Mullins at the post office and returns to him the pair of rubbers.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, July 19.—The local butter market yesterday showed a firm tone at 27¾c to 28c for Ontario No. 1, and 26½c to 27¾c for No. 2, which was an increase over last week's top of ¼c. At the first of this week a better activity was apparent and with production low and the English market strong, the Toronto prices were forced up. A great deal of Western butter was purchased by various buyers and at higher prices than obtainable for the Ontario product early in the week, but toward the end of the week the difference in price was not so noticeable.

It is difficult to forecast the butter market, now that the local prices are showing an upward trend. When prices were low in this country and quite a bit higher in England, one could be assured of New Zealand shipments going on to that country, and not unloading here until after the new tariff went into effect in October. But with the English market remaining firm and Ontario prices showing a better tone, some of the future shipments from New Zealand are likely to unload at Halifax.

Cream

Churning cream was again steady, with prices quoted at the first of the week. Shippers were quoted at the first of the week. Shippers were quoted 27c to 28c for specials; 26c to 27c for firsts, and 23c to 24c for seconds, f.o.b. country points.

Cheese

The Country Cheese Boards showed added strength this week, but trading locally was so dull that prices were very little different from previous quotations. Yesterday the local market was firm at 16½c to 16¾c for new large, 16¾c to 17c for twins, and 17c to 17¼c for triplets. Prices to retailers were unchanged at 18c for new large, 18¾c for twins and 18½c for triplets.

Eggs

The egg market showed greater strength every day during the week, that is, buyers seemed more active daily. Receipts were light and dealers that were asking 30c at the first of the week, for graded extras in free cases, were able to get 31c to 31½c later in the week. Firsts sold at 29c steadily, when extras took the advance, until yesterday, when brokers were quoting 29c to 29½c. Seconds also were stronger yesterday and were offered at 25c to 25½c. Some country shippers were asking 32c for extras and 30c for firsts at the end of the week, but buyers were not able to meet these prices.

Western eggs have been rolling eastward steadily, and until about the middle of the week were selling at premium over Ontario eggs, but about this time the difference in prices narrowed down until at the week-end Ontario supplies in used cases were bringing out the same money as Prairie supplies in new cases.

Prices

Country shippers were quoted 29c for extras, 26c to 27c for firsts, and 22c for seconds, delivered, ungraded, cases returned. Dealers were quoted 34c to 35c for extras in cartons, 32c to 33c for extras loose, 30c to 31c for firsts loose and 26c to 27c for seconds loose.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, July 19.— Prices for wheat and oats were advanced 2c per bushel on the cash grain market here yesterday. Rolled oats were up 10c. per bag, while flour prices were unchanged. There was a firmer trend on the local produce and dairy markets, butter, cheese, eggs and potatoes showing strength.

The butter market was generally 28¼c for Eastern Townships' No. 1 creamery. Ontario cheese was quoted at 16½c, and Quebec 16c a pound. Eggs were firm, with prices unchanged. Potatoes rebounded from Thursday's low price of $1 per 80-pound bag to $1.50. The poultry market was unchanged.

BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

EAST BUFFALO, N.Y., July 19.—(C.P.).—Hogs 1,600; holdovers 200; market uneven; light lights and pigs 25-35 higher; bulk 160 lbs. down 10.35-10.50; light weights steady to 25 higher; 160-210 lbs. 10.15-10.40; weightier butchers steady; 220-250 lbs. 9.50-10.00; 260 lbs. up to 8.75-9.50; packing sows steady to 25 lower at 7.50-8.50; bulk 7.75.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 19 (Canadian Press). — Favorable reports of export buying and advices that good quantities of North American wheat is passing to French and Italian buyers inspired local dealers yesterday to give wheat quotes their best line for some time past. The foreign buyers were said to be perturbed by new crop prospects in both Italy and France. At the finish prices were 1⅝c to 2⅛c better than Thursday. Not too favorable weather conditions in the United States Northwest and Canadian grainlands also helped to boost the market.

July had the best gain, going up 2⅛c to 96⅞c, the jump of 1⅝c to 2c scored by October lifted that future again above the dollar mark to $1.00-$1.00⅛. December was 1⅝c to 1⅞c better at $1.01½.

Practically all grades of cash wheat were in good demand at generally unchanged spreads. Coarse grains were quiet.

OBITUARY

JOSIAH TINNEY.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 19 (Examiner Staff Correspondence. — The funeral of Josiah Tinney was held on Thursday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Grills, Seymour Township, with interment in the English Line Cemetery, Rev. F. G. MacTavish conducting the service. The pall-bearers were: Fred Peake, Fred Grills, Fred Stollery, Samuel Diamond, Garnet Grills, and Lewis Dunk.

Mr. Tinney, who died on July 16, in his 84th year, was born in Cornwall, England, on January 6, 1847. He came to Canada 36 years ago, at first visiting his sister, the late Mrs. George, of Campbellford. He afterward bought the farm in East Seymour ,and after returning to the Old Land to settle up his affairs there, he returned with his family to this country and settled on his farm. Mr. Tinney was a farmer and tax collector in England. He was also a staunch member of the United Church.

Surviving him are three sons, James and Herbert of Seymour and Harry of Havelock, and two daughters, Mrs. Albert Grills and Mrs. Herbert Stotts, both of Seymour.

WORK BETTER THAN RELIEF.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 19 (C.P.). —General sentiment of the unemployment conference here of the three Far West provinces was that provision of work rather than issuance of direct relief was the best manner of tackling the problem, and that the cost of any relief measures should be shared by the Dominion Government. This was made known in an official statement issued by Premier J. E. Brownlee.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S BIRD BATH.

Uncle Wiggily hopped into Nurse Jane's kitchen with a large, empty tin pan.

"Excuse me, Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy," spoke the rabbit gentleman.

"What are you going to do; bake a cake?" asked the muskrat lady housekeeper of the hollow stump bungalow.

"I am going to make a bird bath," answered Mr. Longears, waving the pan. "It is such hot weather, the birds are so warm and thirsty, and it is so far from here to the duck pond and the brook, that I am going to make a bird bath in the bungalow yard."

"How do you make a bird bath?" asked Nurse Jane.

"Oh, you just fill a pan, basin or dish with water and set it in the yard," answered Uncle Wiggily. "Only the water must not be too deep or the birds will be afraid. When birds take a bath they like to stand in water that is not deeper than half way up their legs; you might say to their knees, if a bird has knees."

"If a bird has knees I never saw them," squeaked Nurse Jane, with a laugh. "But go ahead, fill the pan with water, Uncle Wiggily, and then please get away from my sink. I must bake a cake for supper."

The rabbit gentleman filled the shallow, tin pan with water and set it in a shady place on the grass in his yard. Then he sat down to watch the birds coming to take baths and get drinks for it was a hot, summer day and, wearing clothes of feathers, as they did, which clothes they could not take off to cool themselves as you children can, the birds were very warm.

"Hey! Hey! Hey!" suddenly called a loud voice and a big, jolly Blue Jay bird swooped down. "Hey! Hey! A bath! How fine!"

The Blue Jay perched on the edge of the basin, took a few sips of water and then, wading a little farther in, dipped his head under, scattered some cool drops on his back and then, spreading out his wings, dipped them under the water and splattered it all over himself.

"Oh, how lovely and cool I feel now!" screamed the Blue Jay after he had made himself quite wet. "Whoever made this bird bath did a fine thing!" cried the Jay, as he flew up on a tree branch to dry his feathers. "It is wonderful!"

"Glad you like it," said Uncle Wiggily, sitting in the shade.

No sooner had the Blue Jay finished his bath than along flew a Starling, which is a different bird. Nearly always when there is a bird bath, the Blue Jay finds it first. And he is such a bold, saucy chap that the other birds always let him finish and get out of the way before they come to bathe and drink.

"Oh, what fun this is!" warbled the Starling, as he took a drink and splashed water over his feathers. "I love it!" Another Starling came, and the two bathed together. A Robin, who was hot, tired and dusty, seeing the shimmer of the water in the sun from afar off, flew toward the bath. But the Robin would not go into the water until the Starlings had flown away. Perhaps the Robin was a bit proud because he could sing better than can the Starlings.

"There's nothing like a bath on a hot day to pep you up!" whistled the Robin as, after getting quite wet, he flew away to dry.

Then came some poor little Sparrows. They always had to wait until the last before taking a bath, as the Blue Jays, the Starlings and the Robins were so much bigger. After the Sparrows, a modest brown Thrush came for a bath, and then some tiny, chattering Wrens.

"My bird bath is a great success!" thought Uncle Wiggily. For many days the rabbit gentleman put out water in the basin for the birds to bathe and they were very thankful. But one day a Robin said:

"Why do you not put water in our bath any more, Uncle Wiggily? It is a hot day but the bath is dry."

"There must be something wrong," said Uncle Wiggily. "I put water in the bath not half an hour ago. It could not all be dried up yet, and I have not seen many birds splashing it away."

"Well, somebody has taken all the water out of the bird bath and there is none in it now," whistled the Robin.

"I'll put some more in," said the rabbit gentleman. This he did and the Robin had a bath. But a little while after that the brown Thrush flew to Uncle Wiggily and asked:

"Why is there no water in your bath basin?"

"There is something strange and mysterious going on here," said Mr. Longears. "Some one is taking the birds' bath water. I must hide and watch and see about it. This is mysterious!" So the rabbit hid in the bushes near the birds' bath to watch.

HOME MARKET BEEN NEGLECTED

the present depression. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had declared that the 20th century belonged to Canada. What would he say if he could see conditions to-day?

Mr. Corkery scored the fact that 1,200 men yesterday were thrown out of work by the closing of steel mills in the Soo, despite the supposed protection which the new tariff afforded the primary production of iron and steel.

One Per Cent. Effected

The Hon. G. N. Gordon had said at Port Hope, stated the speaker, that the Dunning budget was a budget without equal at any time and in any country. But the highly-touted countervailing duties affected only 1 per cent. of our U. S. trade, and the much-vaunted British preference was only an indication that Canada was willing to trade with Great Britain.

"The British people," Mr. Corkery said, "look upon the dollar with as much respect as we do, and they will trade where the markets are best for them."

Bennett promised protection for farm and industry, and for the consumer against exploitation.

Mackenzie Kink's free trade policy had, despite Opposition protests, permitted him to take no retaliatory measures against the U. S. Fordney-McCumber tariff of 1922 for fear of "provoking" the United States. Nevertheless, the U. S. had gone still further in their new tariff this year. Last year Canada's imports from the United States had amounted to $90 per head for every person in Canada, while Canada's exports to that country had totalled only $5 per head. Canada's annual livestock exports alone to the U. S. had dropped from $47,000,000 in 1920, to $16,000,000 in 1923 and to $15,000,000 in 1929.

Meighen had pleaded and farm representatives had warned when the government passed the Australian and New Zealand trade agreements in 1925. The result of these agreements had been that Canada had changed from a butter exporting nation to a butter importing nation; there had been a decrease in dairy cattle, 2,000 a month going to the U. S.; and thousands of cows were not being milked.

Regarding the favored nation treaties, Mr. Corkery said: "Canada has come out on the weak end. "The government had put a premium on outside goods coming in to compete with our own producers and manufacturers. Although France's import duty on Canadian wheat was now 87 cents a bushel, France was living up to her agreement to give this country her minimum tariff on wheat. This was typical of what happened with these treaties.

"Can Canada afford to travel for the next four or five years," demander Mr. Corkery, "the road she has travelled for the past 9? This is the question the electors must decide on the 28th.

Gordon S. Matthews, who also spoke, saw the occasion for alarm in the decrease of Canada's exports. Countervailing duties would not be effective in dealing with the U. S., he felt. The government had feared to offend the U. S. "We could have afforded to offend the United States," de declared "because we are are the best customer they have."

Charles Purdue of Ennismore was in the chair.

sought a solution by friendly conference", the Premier states.

Continuing the Premier says the Dominion Government does not wish to go into the power business and regardless of whether the initiative in the development of the St. Lawrence of any other navigable stream comes from the Dominion or from the Province the power will be available for the province on a definite basis which provides for a fair allocation of costs.

Referring to the recent declaration of Premier Ferguson that the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, with the authority of the Provincial Government, had fyled its plans for the development at Ottawa six years ago and had been waiting ever since for action by the Federal Government, Premier King states four plans in all were fyled. Of these the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, after examining by borings the text of the fourth plan, it was found to be untenable for physical reasons, and permitted to drop. As to the other three plans, continues the statement, the chairman of the Canadian section of the joint board of engineers arranged early in 1926 for a meeting between the International Board and the engineers of the Commission to clarify the position as to the various schemes which the Commission had drawn up. It was found impossible to get a definite expression from the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission at that time regarding the several Ontario proposals.

Several Years Been Gained

"Had it been possible to slarify the situation then", states Premier King, "the subsequent and more recent conferences with the Provincial engineers, initiated again by the Federal Government, would not have been necessary, and several years might have been gained from the standpoint of engineering agreement as between the Province and the Dominion".

Regarding charges the report on the engineering agreement made public last week had been shelved until he saw fit to give it out, the Premier states any delay in the publication has been due to Mr. Ferguson himself. "Within a week after receiving the report I wrote Mr. Ferguson forwarding him a copy and stating I would be glad to have his views as to publication. I have not yet received a reply to that letter", states Premier King.

Rogers Has Own Idea Of Men Wearing Hats

NEW YORK, July 19 (By Will Rogers).—Some nuts have got a habit here in New York—I doubt if it has reached your home town for most of your States have asylums—it's to go bareheaded on the street.

Now, these nuts have worn something on their heads ever since their mothers tied hoods under their chins, but they have never attracted any attention, so they let it rain down their necks to show people that they bathe.

If your head hasnt got enough in it to carry a hat, why all the sunshine on it in the world wont do it any good.

We have a scene in our show where another comedian and myself come out with dress suits and barefooted, no difference from being bareheaded on the street. Only we get paid for attracting attention and being funny.

Let women leave off something. they do it much better than men. Every time a woman leaves off something she looks better, but every time a man leaves off something he looks worse.

OFFICIALS GRAPPLE BAY FOR MISSING CHILDREN

AYLMER, Ont., July 19 (C.P.). — Officials of the harbor at Port Burwell, 12 miles south of here, are today grappling in the waters of Lake Erie and in the harbor for the bodies of two small children who accompanied their mother, Mrs. W. K. Grey, wife of the turnkey at London jail, to Port Burwell yesterday.

The last seen of the children they were playing along the beach yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Elmer Marshall, of Windsor, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. George Foster on Tuesday.

Mrs. Handley and children of Mount Pleasant, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Cecil Argue, for a few days.

Miss Arnott and Miss McMullen are spending a few days at a summer camp at Muskoka.

Proceeds of the garden party held under the auspices of St. Mary's Church, Lifford, amounted to more than $240, the proceeds from the refreshment not being included.

Mrs. Isaac Fallis is confined to her home with the flu.

Miss Mae Magill is also ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCartney, intend to leave on August 3, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Galloway, of Regina. They expect to be away about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rowan left on Monday, to spend a vacation at Muskoka.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Fierheller and two daughters, Gladys and Vera, have returned home after three weeks spent at Lake Simcoe.

LIFFORD LINE.

Miss Myrtle Lemay, of Toronto, spent last week-end the guests of her sister, and brother-in law, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Whiteside.

Mrs. Cairns motored to Port Hope on Sunday, and spent the day with friends there..

Mrs G. Hutchison spent a couple of days this week the guest of Lifford friends.

A garden party under the auspices of the United Church Fleetwood, will be held on July 30th. Anniversary services will be held the Sunday previous, with Rev. Scott in charge.

Master Arnold Neals of Bethany, is spending a few days holidaying at the home of his grandparents, Lifford Line.

Mr. George Brerton, Miss Lily and others, of Toronto, called on several old friends here on Wednesday.

Farmers in this locality are almost finished storing excellent crops of alfalfa and timothy hay.

As a result of frequent rains, corn and root crops are making favorable progress. Fall wheat and peas will soon be ripe for the reaper and oats and barley are making a good appearance.

IRISH RAILWAY MEN STRIKE.

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 19 (C.P.).—A strike of Irish railway workers has paralyzed the entire suburban train service out of Dublin, and threatened to tie up rail traffic over all the Free State. More than 600 railwaymen and 100 employees of the Dublin Omnibus Company are out on strike, the railwaymen striking in sympathy with the bus drivers, who have been out for nine weeks in an attempt to secure recognition of their trade union.

Bananas Enough For All Canada

MONTREAL, July 19 (C.P.)— A banana apiece for the entire population of Canada was brought into Montreal this week on the Canadian National West Indies steamer Lady Rodney. The cargo, according to J. M. Pringle, president of the Canada-West Indies Fruit Company, was the largest ever landed in this port. There were approximately 83,250 stems. "Stems," Mr. Pringle explains, are divided into six, seven, eight and nine hands, with about a dozen fingers to each hand. The shipment, t is estimated, therefore, totalled nearly nine and a half million single bananas, one apiece for every individual in the Dominion, except perhaps the very young infants. The cargo is being shipped to all parts of the country.

Good Time Registered At Liberal Dance Thursday

CAMPBELLFORD, July 19 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — The free dance given in honor of the Liberal candidate, W. A. Fraser, in the public pavilion at Campbellford on Thursday evening was a decided success as far as the numbers and a good time were concerned. People from far and near came in to enjoy an evenings frolic, which lasted round to the early hours of the morning.

Mr. Fraser put in an appearance late in the evening, and welcomed the people, expressing the wish that they would enjoy the evening. He did not touch on political matters at all.

BENNETT CANCELS TWO WEEK-END MEETINGS

COLLINGWOOD, July 19. (C.P.)—Hon. Richard B. Bennett will take a rest over the week end. Two meetings scheduled for Espanola and North Bay to-day have been cancelled for the present.

On Monday the Conservative chieftain will open the concluding week of his campaign with speeches at Simcoe in the afternoon, and St. Thomas in the evening. Personal friends of Mr. Bennett advised him to take a long week-end rest, so that he would be in good physical shape for the wind-up of the campaign.

BARRIE MAN DISAPPEARS IN BORROWED ROWBOAT

BARRIE, Ont., July 19. — (C.P.)—Missing since he left Shanty Bay late on Wednesday night for Minet's Point, five miles across Kempenfeldt Bay, Harold Clement, 25, of Toronto, is believed to have been drowned, Provincial Police headquarters reported here.

Clement set out in a borrowed row boat to cross the bay, which according to residents of the district, was quite calm at the time, and since then no trace of him has been found.

LLOYD'S FIFTY-TO-ONE WAGER LOOKS BAD AS "BOBBY" JONES TAKES FIRST THREE OF FOUR

Jack Nash of the London Club Shows Perfect Swing.

"HOLE IN ONE" CLUB

Canadian Seniors Hold Forth in Toronto in September.

By RALPH H. REVILLE

(Special to the Examiner — Copyright 1930)

TORONTO, July 19—If there was ever a lingering doubt that Mr. Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., distinguished young citizen of Atlanta, Ga., was not the greatest golfer amateur or professional of all time, it was dispelled and decisively dispelled, last week on the sun-scorched course of the Interlachen Club near Minneapolis. To register a score of 287, to lead all the aces of the game, in a temperature hitting 100 or more in the shade, was a physical and mental performance, plus uncanny skill alike with his wood and iron clubs, never before equalled in the annals of the Royal and Ancient game. Great are the Joneses and the greatest Jones of the whole family, is Bobbie of that ilk.

Lloyd's 50 to 1 wager that he would not bag all the four major championships this season, has taken on a sickly hue. He has three now, and the U. S. Amateur next September at Philadelphia looks as though it was at the mercy of his celebrated mashie and putter—the two clubs he handles with such uncanny skill, although every club in his bag, is more or less in this category. Jones' world-beating record now stands: U. S. Open won four times. U. S. Amateur, four times. British Open, three times, British Amateur, once. Mr. John Ball, the celebrated English player won the British Amateur, eight times and the British Open once. Harry Vardon, six times won the British Open and once the U.S. Open. None of these records, outstanding as they are, now compare and still in the zenith of his power with Jones' showing, namely, twelve major championships to his credit—and going stronger than ever.

Made Record at Scarboro

The same day that Jones' was making records at Interlachen, an 18-year-old Londoner, Jack Nash, was in a lesser degree doing the same thing on the Scarboro course, Toronto. In the classiest field ever recorded in an Ontario amateur championship, this youth with a perfect swing, flashed into the limelight and reaching the final in an impressive manner, proceeded to account for the doughty Don Carrick, twice Canadian Amateur Champion, and all-round athlete, by the decisive score of 4 to 3. It looks as though London-the-less which already boasts its "Sandy" Somerville, more or less the newly crowned Ontario champion's mentor, has a Bobbie Jones in the making. Nash has all the hall-marks of a coming player of International calibre. He may yet put Canada on the golfing map.

The Agua Caliente Golf Club in Mexico where the $25,000 Tournament is again scheduled to be held next winter, recently purchased and installed 1100 sprinklers, which is believed to establish a world's record, in the number of sprinklers of any kind for a golf course. The installation cuts the cost of watering to the extent that the only labor required is one man to open and close the valves. Watering is all done at night and play is not interfered with during the day. What with improved mowers and other machinery, soon even Metropolitan courses will be run and maintained with a staff of three or four men, instead of a score or so. It is a mechanical age all right.

How far can a woman drive a ball? is a question often asked. The fair sex have unquestionably lengthened out their tee-shots by many yards of recent years and drives of 200 to 230 yards, no longer call for comment. Miss Helen Hicks, the Canadian lady champion, is generally given credit for perhaps being the longest woman driver in America. During her visit to England for the ladies' championship this summer, in a practice round at Sunningdale, she is authentically credited with a mighty swat of 292 yards. Two hundred and ninety-two yards are 876 feet that's farther than any man can hit a baseball or cricket ball. Incidentally, the record drive for a man, is awarded to E. C. Bliss, Herne Bay, England. The distance of this drive, measured by L. H. Lloyd Government Surveyor, was 445 yards. Cyril Tolley, the British ex-amateur champion, who last week participated in the U. S. Open, is generally looked upon as the world's longest amateur driver. Tolley on more than one occasion, in championships, has reached greens with his tee-shot, 350 to 365 yards in length.

Is it a "Doggie?"

The question which is now puzzling the members of the Oxford Golf and Country Club, Woodstock, Ontario, is whether the shot of all shots, should be called an "eagle" or a "doggie." On Sunday, the 6th of July, "Chubbie" Karn, well known local athlete, very ably assisted by Mrs. Wilmot's dog "Tommy" negotiated the fifty hole on the Woodstock course in one stroke. Charles played his mashie off the tee, and the ball alighted on the green. The dog roaming around, seized the ball and very generously deposited it in the hole. The Rules Committee of the Royal Canadian Golf Association will have to be called in to decide the very debatable point, whether Karn is entitled to the various prizes given in Canada for the hole-in-one stunt or Mrs Wilmot's canine. There are no "dog collars" or "boxes of bisquits" given for the feat, otherwise the award could be quickly made.

Talking of holes-in-one. To date in Canada, this season 63 such stunts have been recorded and the prospects are before "the snow flies" the total will reach the imposing one or two hundred more. All walks and conditions of golfers are performing the feat. Many ladies are amongst the culprits. More than one juvenile has turned the trick "from tin to tee" and several golfers in their sixties and seventies. It's getting to be a continuous performance from coast to coast. Improved play, improved clubs, improved greens and the ever increasing number of players is the explanation for this regular avalanche of one-shots which were rare indeed, in the annals of the game, some years ago, but which every season now, are becoming more and more of almost daily occurrence.

Senior Golf Tournaments, the idea of which originated with the late Horace L. Hotchkiss, well known New York stock broker, are becoming increasingly popular. Recently successful tournaments were held in Alberta and Saskatchewan, the former won by J. H. Dowdell of Edmonton and the latter by General G. S. Tuxford of Moose Jaw, for the third time. The Maritime Seniors are also holding a championship and the North West Seniors at Victoria, B.C. the week of August 12th participated in by leading men of British Columbia, Oregon, Seattle and Tacoma, giving it an International complexion. The Canadian Seniors hold forth at the Toronto Golf Club the week of September 1t and the Women Canadian Seniors at Lambton Golf Club, Toronto, September 30-October 2nd. The age limit for the men is 55 years, whilst the ladies compromise at 50.

TERRIBLY WEAK

Strength Regained Through the Use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills.

"After the birth of my baby I was terribly weak," says Mrs. Jos. Morasse, Dupuy, Que., "and could not sleep or do my housework. I was despondent and was afraid I would be a constant invalid. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and before long my health was restored and I could do my housework without fatigue. Since then I have used these Pills on two other occasions, with splendid result."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and purify the blood. That is why better sleep, steady nerves, improved appetite and increased vigor follow their use—all these can be yours if you start treatment to-day. The Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Russia produced one-fourteenth of the world crude oil production last year.

It seems that a freshman the other day got a job in a clothing store. He was being broken in by a senior who had had three years' experience. After several lectures to the freshman, the senior concluded with: "You can sell anybody anything. All you gotta do is go at 'em right."

About that time a little darky walked in and the senior, who was anxious to demonstrate his powers as a salesman, went right after him.

"Come right in. What can I do for you today? We have just anything you want."

The little Negro started out, but the senior stopped him.

"Come on, young fellow. We can sell you anything you want. Now, what did you want to buy?"

"I wants a nickel's wuf of cheese."

U.S. DETECTIVES CLAIM SUSPECT

Barrere on Way to Washington to Face Charge of Murder.

CAPTURED IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Que., July 18 (Canadian Press). — Herman Henry Barrere, wanted in Arlington County, Virginia, in connection with the murder of a Washington, D.C., Navy Department girl employee in April left Montreal this morning for Washington in custody of four United States officers. The woman companion detained with Barrere, is being given safe conduct home

Barrere was recognized by sharp-eyed Montreal detectives when he walked into detective office to complain of the theft of $50.00. He was known from the Washington police circular and held for the United States authorities. He denied knowledge of the murder of Mary E. Baker on April 11 last.

Successful Lawn Social at Eldorado

QUEENSBORO, July 19 (Examiner Correspondence). — A very successful lawn social was held at Eldorado United Church on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. A booth was arranged under the shed where refreshments were served. There was a program of music and singing. Rev. I. N. Beckstead was the chairman. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a ball game between the Bannockburn and Queensboro teams. This resulted in a score of 16 to 12 in favor of Bannockburn. Mr. George Foley, of Queensboro, was umpire. Several people from Queensboro attended.

At a meeting of the members and adherents of Queensboro congregation and Sunday School held in the United Church on Wednesday evening it was decided to hold the usual picnic on the church grounds on Wednesday, July 30. Dinner and supper will be served. A number of committees were appointed to take care of the different features of the day's work. The afternoon will be given up to sports of various kinds, including a ball game.

Anyone who is attentive to facts and figures about motor cars is well aware of the great records De Soto sales are making in both the six-cylinder and eight-cylinder fields. ¶ It's De Soto value that is doing it—value determined by quality in relation to price—value in terms of style and smartness—value reflected by smoothness and a wide range of brilliant performance—value that challenges comparison. ¶ Today's finer De Soto Six is an even better car than the De Soto Six which broke all sales records for a first-year car—and the new De Soto Straight Eight brings the joys of eight-cylinder motoring within the reach of thousands who heretofore have felt unable to afford an eight. See these cars. Drive them. Compare them with anything else near their prices.

Sixty-ton Whale With a Mouth Large Enough to Swallow a Street Car--Ate Ton and a Half of Fish For Breakfast

According to the laws of nature no good whale ever comes any closer to Peterborough, Ont., than, roughly, 2,000 miles, but when man takes a hand, sails out on the deep to catch the whale, slays it in a titanic encounter, hauls it 75 miles ashore, embalms it with 10,000 gallons of special fluid and puts it on a special steel railway car, then a whale may easily come to Peterborough, Ont.

And that's just what happened in this case. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 21, 22 and 23 a 60-ton "finback" will be on show at the Charlotte Street crossing of the C.N.R.

Sixty tons of preserved whale, just as he was taken from his native home in the long swells of the blue Pacific, 75 miles off San Clementic Island, in Avalon Bay.

When this whale was alive he was just 60 tons of big, pulsing, fighting flesh, bone and sinew, and it took the crew of the whale Clementi (Capt. Ted Fleury) 17 hours to subdue the big beast of the sea, even after a nitro-glycerine harpoon bomb had been fired into his vitals. They do get them larger than this off the California coast, but this one was a fighter in a class by himself according to the skipper of the whaler.

And everyone who goes to see this specimen will be told the story of his capture and last fight by the man who went out into the heaving main to get him, Capt. Fleury.

Sixty tons, just offhand, may seem very little to the average man, but think of some of the weights this chap had to carry around with him in the briny deep.

He Was Big Hearted.

His heart weighed 250 pounds and his tongue 1,800 pounds. This last was rendered by Captain Fleury and made into perfume and soap. Things have to be on a big scale for a whale, largest of all living things. Think of the stories you could tell if you had a tongue weighing 1,800 pounds, and imagine what a blood pressure a fellow could raise if he had a 250-pound heart.

There was a story about Jonah and a whale once, but it was not this sort of whale—not a finback, because this one coming to Peterborough though he has a mouth large enough to swallow a street car, has a throat so small that he can eat only one small fish at a time. Of course, he had to eat a lot of fish to make one really first-class meal.

A whale like this chap would start off the morning's daily adventure with a smallish breakfast, say half a ton of small fish. Then he would play around in the waves like a bathing beauty, only he would be more in the sea and less on the beach, and then around noon, when the factory whistles were blowing in far off San Francisco and the office workers were dodging into the quick lunches for a sandwich and coffee, he would meander back to the shoal of fish and gollop another ton. If he was real hungry he would take a ton and a half. That would put him through till next morning.

And then with all that catch of fish he couldn't chew them. Not a bit. Not a bite in a mouthful. All the big boy could do was to strain them through a filter in the back of his tiny throat, so that they would go down into the place where Jonah is supposed to have rested and not given the diner indigestion.

When Did Whales Walk?

Did you ever know that a whale had legs? No. Well, they have, and this one, coming here in his private Pullman, has a complete set.

Not fine, long, running legs, like Paavo Nurmi, but just little, toddling things, that showed that once upon a time the whale walked, as well as swam, for you know that a whale is not a fish, but a marine anial. Perhapms long, long ago he was amphibious, lived on land and sea, like the Royal Marine in his majesty's navy, and then, in those far-away days, he walked and swam, and was more and more like a bathing beauty than he is today.

These are the things that Capt. Ted Fleury will talk about in his lectures while the whale is on view here. He knows the whale and his habits from the sea bottom up. He knows where they live and how they eat and sleep and how long they live and how they take care of the little baby whales, and all about them, and he'll tell you in his talk.

So here's a chance for every boy and girl born inland, a thousand miles from the sea, to view a real whale in the flesh. You can see down his big mouth, into his tiny throat, and count his little legs and marvel at this thick hide and gaze at the tiny, pig eyes and observe the blow hole, from which he spouts water high above the surface of the ocean, and see the fins that give him his name, and walk all around him and wonder what sort of chance you would have if you met him face to face on a dark night, in the middle of the ocean, a hundred miles from shore.

The big boy traveled a lot in his day. He swam almost as fast as a train, and he could keep it up for days and nights. Remember, that after 50 pounds of nitro-glycerin had burst in his vitals he had 17 hours of fight left in him. But since he was embalmed he has traveled across this continent, far from his happy home.

Now, at last, he has come to Peterborough. His all-steel Pullman has brought him to your doors and he's going to be here three days.

Capt. Ted Fleury has a whale of an exhibit and a wonderful fish story. Why not see one and hear the other?

SCOUT NEWS

UNDER THE FLEUR-DE-LYS.

Being a collection of Scout Miscellany, (by Jim Hawthorne.)

Extracts from the "Piper of Pax" being the life story of Lord Baden Powell: by E. K. Wade.

Conclusion.

The services of the Boy Scouts during the War are too well known to need a detailed account. But for the benefit of our younger brothers, here are a few facts: The Home Office, Post Office, War Office, and Admiralty departments made immediate use of the Chief Scouts offer of the boys services; Scouts were used for guarding important telephone and telegraph lines, which were being tapped by spies so badly, that they were almost useless. The Government secret maps with all the great lines shown were supplied to H. Q. and 5,000 Scouts posted as guards. From Lord Kitchener came the request for Scouts to be placed on the Coast as, owing to the fact that the Admiralty had withdrawn the coast-guards for service afloat, the coast of England was unguarded and unwatched Records show that 23,000 Scouts proved their ability throughout the whole war period in this direction. At the end of 1918, B.P. bought "Blackacre" at Benkley, in Hampshire, and changed its name to "Pax Hill" from two desks facing one another in the sunny drawing room at Pax, Sir Robert and Lady Baden Powell continue to direct the destinies of some three million young people from every walk of life and in every part of the globe. That one man should have been given the Power of calling together the youth of the world in a brotherhood of peace and goodwill, is my reason for calling this book "The Piper of Pax". Towards the end of the war, the need had been felt for some more advanced work, and activities for young men who had seen active service and were now returning to their troops, and also for older boys who had never been Scouts, and so, out of the Chiefs brain and the spirit of the times, the great Rover movement slowly evolved itself. Peaced under the guiding hand of Col. DeBurgh, in its early stages, and run largely by the Rovers themselves, with few rules and no handbooks, this senior Scout branch grew and prospered. When it had proved that it was meeting a real need and shown that it had come to stay, the Chief Scout wrote what is perhaps the most remarkable of all his books, "Rovering to Success."

With this handbook as their guide, and their motto of Brotherhood and service the Rover Scouts have firmly established themselves. This Scout spirit"" is a wonderful though indefinable thing. The nearest thing to an explanation of it I have seen is the following spoken by an American. He said: "When God made man, He just took a little lump of earth, spat upon it moulded it and breathed on it, and there he had man. Everything comes from atoms in the same way. There were atoms of Scouting around. It doesn't take a genius to find that out. T. S. found atoms of Scouting, spat on 'em, moulded 'em, but they didn't work. D. B. came right along and found atoms, spat on 'em, but got no results. B. P. came along, spat on 'em, moulded 'em, and breathed on 'em, and got the Boy Scouts—a live thing. The other fellows had forgotten to do the breathing. It's the spirit that is breathed into the atoms--the soul—that is what counts all the time. There's nothing else to it.

(Finis.)

Here we conclude our extracts from the "Piper of Pax". Much has necessarily been omitted from such a work, but it is hoped that enough has been reproduced to whet your appetites for the book.

It is the life story of a great man—perhaps his greatness is not appreciated to the fullest extent to-day. In the future, when he has been called to still higher service, men will realise how great a man he was. It will be noticed that I have not mentioned events in the Chief's life since 1924. The great coming-of-age Jamboree at Birkenhead, and his consequent elevation to the peerage are too fresh in our minds to need any mention of them.

Imitation we are told, is the sincerest form of flattery, let us try to imitate him, in this great quest of service; it is a quest that is ever new; the fields of service are boundless.

In conclusion I would mention with sincerity and appreciation, those people who have made this feature possible. In the first place Messrs. A. C. Pearson, of London, in giving us the necessary permission. Mr. Irvin Hodgson, who outlined these extracts, then to our friend the Editor of "The Examiner" who generously placed his space at our disposal for this feature, and to you dear reader who have taken the trouble to read them, For the words of appreciation I have received too, I am grateful. They have helped tremendously.

So Cheerio and Good Scouting.

Both the theme song and scoring for pictures are ended, according to Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld, once musical head of the Rivoli and Rialto Theatres here and now in charge of United Artists' music department in Hollywood. He argues that the theme song was only an accompaniment for silent films, and when silents went the way of all celluloid the career of thematic music was brought to an end.

THE LAST DANCE

My adoration of you cannot die,
And yet—forgive me if I chance to yawn—
I'd hate to dance with you from now till dawn.
Though till the end of time my love endures.
At three o'clock, my own beloved, I
Prefer the arms of Morpheus to yours.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST TO THE FARMER

OLD TIME THEORY IS WRONG ABOUT TURKEY RAISING

Successful Rearing of Birds Does Not Require Unlimited Range.

HIGH PROFITS.

Poults Hatched in Incubators Less Susceptible to Diseases.

Nobody knows who started that figure of speech, "talking turkey," to indicate getting down to essentials, or "down to brass tacks" as many people say. Whoever started it, it is certainly an appropriate phrase to use in discussing the exceptionally profitable but relatively neglected industry of turkey raising. Here is a business in which the demand has always exceeded the supply and yet, ever since 1890 the supply has been steadily dwindling. Prices have not dwindled, however. On the contrary, they have consistently increased from year to year.

What a wonderful opening for wide-awake farmers to step in and make some real money! Yet, with but few exceptions, they turn deaf ears to the loud knocks of opportunity. Why?

Unquestionably the one great drawback has been the old belief that turkeys could not be raised unless given the run of unlimited range. They have always been considered wild things that would not live in confinement. So, as changing conditions in various localities made greater and greater restriction of range necessary, the raising of turkeys was automatically curtailed or abandoned. Not until very recently did it ever occur to anyone to question the old theory that turkeys needed all outdoors for their feeding and exercising grounds. Now we know that the old policy of unrestricted range has been one of the most serious factors in the high death rate among young turkeys.

Disease Transmitted.

This method caused chickens and turkeys to be brought together on the same grounds. In this way the deadly blackhead disease was transmitted to the young poults through the cecum worm (pin worm) of chickens, now recognized as a host for blackhead germs. Blackhead is truly the turkey raiser's most dreaded enemy, for unless precautions are taken to keep the disease from getting started among the growing poults, a heavy loss is sure to be had. It is easy to see, therefore, why the plan recently adopted by raising turkeys in confinement has proved so highly successful. It is quite definitely established now that turkeys can be raised in much the same manner as chickens and with far better results than were obtained by the old-fashioned methods once held all but sacred.

Another old-time theory that has lately been pretty thoroughly exploded is the belief that only natural hatching and brooding methods were practicable in turkey raising. It has been clearly established that poults hatched in incubators and reared in brooders are much less likely to succumb to the scourge of blackhead and other diseases which prey on their kind, than those hatched and brooded under hens. The reason for this is that naturally hatched poults acquire the germs of blackhead from older fowls just as they do from chickens where permitted to run with them. Confine them so they cannot get out to run with chickens or with old turkeys, or to run on ground where chickens have been for at least one year.

Three other essential planks in the turkey raisers platform must be: sound feed, clean water and clean range. For those who still adhere to the old ideas about turkeys, this must sound like rank heresy. Yet the truth of such simple doctrines is vouched for by the foremost authorities on turkey raising in the country.

Don't Mix With Chickens.

If you can raise chickens successfully, you can raise turkeys with equal success, only don't mix them. The methods of incubation, brooding and feeding will with but slight adaptation enable you to gain equally as good results with turkeys, and with a greater reward for your efforts. The profits so fondly imagined by those who would like to try turkey raising are there for you if you follow right methods. National custom calls for three great festivals every year when nothing but turkey will really suffice as the principal item on the menu, and it would not be impossible to educate the public into a still wider use of this delicious meat if it were always possible to supply the present demand.

All readers of this article are welcome to any further help I can give them. I shall be glad to hear from those who are truly interested and who really want to "TALK TURKEY" to a purpose. Address any inquiries or comments to me in care of the editor of this paper.

Raymond Richardson Wins School Honors

WARKWORTH, July 19.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Winning the Robert Walker Scholarship for passing the entrance examinations with the highest number of marks, congratulations are due to Raymond Richardson of Percy Township. Raymond was a pupil of Garnet W. McKee who prepared six pupils for the entrance examinations all of whom passed with honors and one winning the scholarship.

Canadian Exhibit at Crystal Palace Includes 1,000 Entries of Livestock

Canada's participation in the World's Poultry Congress at the Crystal Palace, London, England, July 22-30, takes a three-fold form; a national exhibit, a livestock exhibit and a commercial exhibit. The poultry experts of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa and throughout Canada have co-operated with the exhibition artisans of the departmental staff in producing which, without doubt, will prove to be one of the major attractions at the Congress. In the national exhibit the economic worth of Canadian poultry breeding stock is shown through the presentation of pens of live-bird specimens of the finest registration and record of performance poultry; these emerge from a background of Canada in panoramic relief, showing splendid mountains, fertile prairies, thriving industrial centres and busy seaports—a splendid picture of Canadian development, opportunity and environment. The livestock exhibit of 1,000 entries will include 24 breed types in the exhibition class; 8 varieties of ducks; 6 varieties of geese; 3 varieties of turkeys; 9 species of pigeons; 13 varieties in rabbits; and 6 different breeds of production-bred poultry. Specially attractive commercial exhibits have been provided, and these will feature the graded product in both eggs and dress poultry.

PROFITABLE TIPS ON FALL WHEAT ALONG CARE AND VARIETY LINES

Smut Losses Easily Prevented By Seed Treatments.

ATTRACTIVE CASH CROP.

Winter wheat and winter rye are grown to a limited extent in Eastern Canada. In Ontario as a whole the area occupied by these crops averages 8 per cent of the area occupied by all small grains. Still smaller acreages are found further East in Canada.

Probably the limiting factor in the production of these fall sown crops is that of winter hardiness. As a general rule wherever winter wheat can survive the winter it is more productive than spring wheat. It also ripens earlier, thus being less exposed to injury from rust and drought. In the growing of winter wheat farm labor is better distributed than in the growing of spring wheat.

Dawson's Golden Chaff and O.A.C. 104 have been leading varieties at the Central Experimental Farm. Both of these belong to the soft white winter wheat group. About the best known of the red wheats is Kharkov M.C. 22 which has proven to be relatively hardy. In winter rye Rosen and Petkus have given very high yields of grain but the former is limited to those areas where winter killing is not serious.

Well Drained Land.

Having chosen a proven variety, it is necessary to consider the cultural requirements. Winter wheat thrives particularly well on a rich loam containing disintegrating limestone and decaying vegetable matter. It does well following a bare summer fallow or a crop of legumes. Well drained land is very important as no variety will stand heaving, or somethering with water and ice in the spring. The crop should be seeded early enough to get a good start so as to be able to withstand winter injury. In order that sufficient growth may be made before cold weather sets in there must be a plentiful supply of available plant food in the soil. Artificial fertilizers have been found to supply this need and phosphoric acid particularly seems to be the element which can be applied most profitably. Superphophate alone is frequently used, though preference is being given a complete fertilizer such as 2-12-2 or 2-12-6.

The above precautions alone, however, may not insure a profitable crop. Much loss is frequently caused from smut which is a tragic waste because it can be so easily prevented by seed treatment. Either the copper carbonate or fountain treatment will insure a smut-free crop. The copper carbonate dust has many advantages over that of formalin and may be used at a very small cost compared to the returns which may be expected.

Wheat has always been attractive to the farmer looking for a cash crop, while rye besides being grown for its grain, has been found useful as a cover crop, hay crop, or fall or spring pasture. With the advantages of a fall sown cereal, winter wheat and winter rye are worthy of consideration.

GARDEN PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS

Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Staples Hosts at Annual Outdoor Event.

AT LIFFORD LINE.

LIFFORD LINE, July 19.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Staples were host and hostess for the annual garden party of St. Mary's Church, Lifford, held at their home, tenth line, Manvers.

A beautifully clear, cool evening made it possible for scores of carloads to motor to Mr. Staples' home where a warm welcome was extended. The tea tables were laid out on the east side of the spacious lawn, which is one of the prettiest in the community decorated with trees and flowers. Flags and bunting were used in decorating the verandah and grounds for the garden party and general expression of opinion was that no more suitable place could have been chosen for the occasion.

While supper was being concluded a softball competition took place between the Bethany and Lifford girls which provided interesting entertainment for the many cheering onlookers. The game finished with a score of 13-8 in favor of the visiting team.

The wide verandah at the front of the house made an excellent platform for those taking part in the program.

The eighth line orchestra provided very excellent music previous to the commencement of the program.

Rev. Mr. Feirheller, pastor of St. Mary's church, acted as chairman for the evening.

A play entitled "Bar Haven" was presented by the Lifford Dramatic Club and received the hearty applause of all present. Those taking part in the play were Miss G. Hutchison, Lena Mulligan, Doris Tims, May Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neals, George Tims, Bruce McGill, Mr. Norton Mills and Offa Staples.

Miss McGahey and Blanche Lee assisted in the program by rendering several duets.

Mr. Fred Bowen was present and was invited to address the crowd.

A thoroughly enjoyable time featured the whole gathering and the very substantial sum of two hundred and fifty dollars was added to the church treasury.

Western Chicks Begin Laying Early

SASKATOON, Sask., July 19.—(Canadian Press). — Officials of the University of Saskatchewan poultry department are conning interestedly the record of a chicken hatched this spring. The pullet, a Plymouth Rock, laid her first egg at the age of 109 days. The act is remarkable in that pullets are encouraged not to lay eggs until they are 200 days old. Whether or not the egg-laying instinct of the new unknown will continue is a question. But the uninitiated are suggesting that Lady Victorine, Saskatchewan-produced egg-laying champion of the world, may have to look to her eggs.

GARDEN INSECT CONTROL SIMPLE

Spray Should Be Used Soon as Possible After Pests Observed.

THREE CLASSES.

The most of the common garden insects are not hard to control, if one gives the matter a little attention and is willing to invest in a small amount of equipment. Though many people do not know all the common garden insects by sight, identification is not necessary. In most cases, all one has to determine is whether the insect eats the leaves or stems of the plants, or merely sucks the juice without eating the plant tissue. The former class may be killed by putting a stomach poison such as arsenate of lime. Paris green or arsenate of lead on the leaves where it will be eaten by the insect; and the latter class by using some substance such as kerosene emulsion, tobacco extract or pyrethrum powder which kill either by contact or by the fumes given off. Insects are more voracious feeders when young than when nearing maturity, and are also more easily killed. It is therefore important to apply the remedy as soon as possible after the insect is observed or thought to be present.

For the small amount of spraying that is to be done about the ordinary garden, an expensive sprayer is unnecessary. The ordinary quart-size hand sprayer, such as is commonly used for spraying fly-oil on cows, is large enough. These cost from 60c to $1.00. A better grade with a brass or a glass tank can be bought for about $1.50. They are usually carried in stock by hardware men and by seedsmen.

Arsenate of lime and Paris green will burn the foliage of many plants unless applied in weak mixture. Use about three small level teaspoonfuls of arsenate of lime or one small teaspoonful of Paris green to 2½ gallons of water, and always add about three teaspoonfuls of air-slaked lime to help guard against burning. Arsenate of lead is sometimes hard to obtain, but it is the safest poison of the three. It will not burn when applied in any strength. Hellebore is the safest stomach poison to use where fruit or other garden products are to be used a short time after being sprayed. The volatile oil which is the poisonous principle of hellebore soon evaporates when exposed to the air, and the remaining powder is then harmless. Apply as directed on the container.

When commercial tobacco preparations cannot be bought, steep one fig of twist tobacco in one quart of hot water for three hours. If the water evaporates, add sufficient to make one quart of solution when finished. Apply as a spray without dilution.

Excellent bulletins on the control of insects may be obtained free on applications to the publications branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, or to the superintendent of your nearest Experimental Station.

PACKING BLAMED FOR PRICE RANGE IN STRAWBERRIES

More Care and Better Sense of Individual Responsibility Needed.

GIVE BETTER RETURNS.

Public Will Pay Premiums For Product of High Quality.

There could be no better indicator of the evil of the present practice in the marketing of strawberries than the present price range for this commodity. In both Montreal and Toronto, the key price centres in the market, the range is the widest which has been known for years: pints from 8c to 25c and quarts from 15c to 45c. And to officials of the fruit branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture there appears to be a reason for the situation. That is carelessness in picking and packing, and in many cases a disregard for the evident indifferent qualities of the fruit.

The situation is one which suggests the historic symbol of medieval times, "caveat emptor"—let the buyer beware; for she has to when buying strawberries this year. There is one advantage in the situation to the efficient progressive grower—his well picked, carefully packed, high quality fancy stuff gets a premium which makes it well worth while for him to continue in the business. But the big complaint of the market this year is the evident carelessness and indifference on the part of a large proportion of the small growers supplying local markets.

Some Attractive Boxes.

Some very attractive boxed berries have been shown on the market. Then there have been good lots of ripe attractive fruit which indicate that little care has been taken in the picking. Still other lots, unfortunately far too many of them, which have berries of poor quality and which show plainly that no attention whatever has been paid to packing — boxes are not filled, and long stems and green berries are included.

This situation is particularly surprising when it is considered that it takes little extra care to pack a high-quality product, which gives much better financial returns for the same expenditure of time and effort.

This situation applies to the Eastern market generally; in the Western market, getting its supplies almost entirely from the British Columbia growers, care in packing a fruit of uniform quality and excellence has maintained prices at a fairly uniform level consistent with a high quality pack. The B. C. grower, of course, has to ship his product considerable distances by rail, and naturally he doesn't want to pay on stems, empty basket space and poor quality or green fruit.

The opportunities of the big Eastern market will be realized by the local grower only in proportion to the extent to which he raises and maintains the quality of his fruit and pack. The public can and will do without the inferior product while they will pay a premium for a quality product which they can buy with confidence.

Route Used in 1859 to Import Grain For West, Used in 1931 to Export It

THE PAS, Man., July 19.—(Canadian Press).—Workers are toiling to-day on the steel-and-concrete framework of the grain elevator at Churchill, to aid in movement of 1931 crop wheat over the Hudson Bay route. But 71 years ago the Bay route was used for the shipment of wheat—at that time to the prairies, which now supply consumers in all parts of the world.

In 1859 some eleven thousand bushels of wheat and seven thousand bushels of flour were imported for prairie settlers. The bulk of these supplies came to Red River (now Winnipeg) in the round-bottomed sailing vessels which braved the dangers of the northern route. Seventeen years later Manitoba shipped out its first wheat down the river to Duluth, Minnesota, and thence by rail to Toronto.

In the interim the Western Prairies have swelled their grain-producing expanses until half-billion bushel crops have become an actuality. And advancing trade is preparing to move out over a bay route used by grandfathers of folk who toil to-day.

ATTRACTIVE LABELS REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN HONEY'S APPEAL

Public More Discriminating — Refuses Honey Packed Old Way.

MUST BE WELL RIPENED.

"Pure Honey" is no longer a sufficient label for a product of an apiary, observes C. B. Gooderham, the Dominion apiarist. Increased production and keener competition in marketing is gradually forcing the producer of honey to pay more attention to the preparation of his product for the market.

The consuming public to-day is more discriminating than it used to be and refuses honey packed under the old method. Honey must now be graded and labelled according to its color and quality in the same manner as other food products are now being graded, marked and standardized. It must also be packed in attractive packages, as the appeal of the old "stock container" fails. The sooner the producer of honey realizes these facts the better, insists the Dominion apiarist, for until he does grade his product according to its quality and pack it in neat attractive containers, honey is not going to have a very great appeal to the consumer.

Honey varies in color and flavor according to its floral source, and the taste for honey is just as varied, with a popular demand for light colored honey with a pronounced but not too strong a flavor.

Honey must be thoroughly ripened before it is removed from the bees, otherwise it will spoil rapidly while in storage. In Eastern Canada the honey should be at least three-fourths capped before it is extracted, but its quality is greatly improved when it is left until all of it is capped. In Western Canada, where the air is much drier than in the east, honey is often ripe enough to extract before it is capped at all, but it is better not to extract until capping over is well started.

A considerable portion of the honey crop may easily be lost when it is removed before it is ripe. Unripe honey ferments quite readily and loss from this source can easily be avoided.—Issued by the director of publicity, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Wild Rose Chosen Emblem of Alberta

EDMONTON, Alta., July 19. — (Canadian Press). — To-day the wild rose is official floral emblem of Alberta. Legislation naming the new symbol went into effect with the soft-petalled flower at the height of its season dotting miles of roadside with gentle pink tones. The 25-year-old Province of the foothills has hitherto owned mountain-peaks of white and golden wheat fields as its symbol; the new acquisition is considered as harmonious as it is appropriate.

STEEL MILL CLOSES.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 19.—(C.P.) — Operations at the plant of the Algoma Steel Corporation here have been somewhat curtailed in the last few days, and the rail mill, that has been operating almost continuously for the past year and a half, is closed down with no prospects for resuming at least for several weeks. As a result several hundred men are temporarily out of employment. The Merchant mills are operating on a single turn.

More than 4,000,000 bunches of bananas were eaten in Germany last year.

MANY FARMERS ENTER JUDGING

McGuire Cup For Highest Standing in Dairy Cattle Won By Ivan Garrison.

GIRLS DO WELL.

A record attendance of junior farmers and juniors girls of Hastings County took part in the annual Judging Competition at the Ontario School for the Deaf, Belleville. Thirty boys entered the junior competition of which the ten best will be given a four day trip to the Royal Winter Fair with all expenses paid and ten boys entered the senior competition for cash prizes. In the Girls' Household Science Judging Competition there were seventeen entries and classes in clothing, nutrition and home furnishings were competed in. Teams to represent the County of Hastings will be selected from the winners of the different classes for the Canadian National Exhibition and the Ottawa Central Fair for the girls and the Royal Winter Fair and the Ottawa Winter Fair for the boys.

The competition was under the direction of the Ontario Department of Agriculture of which Mr. Joseph Wilson of Stirling is a representative.

The results of the competition were as follows:

Nutrition—1st, Irene Frederick; 2nd, Mae Weese and Marie Benson tied; 3rd Olive Stiles.

Clothing—1st, Nellie Webb; 2nd, Marjorie Wood; 3rd, Iva Phillips.

House Furnishings— 1st, Mabel Burkitt; 2nd, Agnes Miller; 3rd, Irene Webb.

Horses—1st, Charlie Heath; 2nd, Irvin B. Wells; 3rd, Ritchie Wells.

Swine—1st, Ray Mallory; 2nd, Allie MacMillan 3rd, Orval Wells.

Sheep—1st, Elmer Wood; 2nd, Elmer Post.

Dairy Cattle—1st, Ivan Garrison; 2nd, Willie Calvert.

Ivan Garrison winner of cup donated by Mr. P. C. McGuire for the highest standing in Dairy Cattle.

Elmer Wood winner of cup donated by the Warden for the highest standing in Live Stock.

Elmer Wood winner of $10.00 for coaching high team at the competition.

Ivan Garrison winner of $5.00 for coaching second high team at the competition.

Ten high boys in the junior competition—Willie Gay, Harold Chambers, Wilmot Shortt, Clifford Ray, Harry Faulkner, Philip Ray, Geo. A. Rush, Albert Holland, Leslie Blackly, Glenn Heath.

San Salvador now has 118,000,000 coffee trees.

LITTLE CORNER OF OLD ENGLAND IS FOUND ON THE MADOC ROAD

Most Beautiful Garden Found in Midst of Woods and Rocks.

OASIS IN A DESERT

A little corner of Merrie England transplanted in the midst of a panorama of woods and rocks, is the first and sharpest impression registered on topping the brow of the steep gravelled hill, which unfolds a paradise of flowers, trees and immaculately-kept lawns and makes an instant appeal to the innate appreciation of the beautiful, which dwells to a lesser or greater degree in each human.

"In emerald tufts, flowers purple, blue and white;
Like sapphire, pearl and rich embroidery."

The garden in question, on the property of Mr. and Mrs. James Hammond on the County road midway between Marmora and Madoc has been fashioned from the wilderness by their twenty-three year old son, James, whose passionate love of flowers and flower culture and gardening in general, is in truth a God-given gift.

Oasis In Desert.

Motoring from Marmora to Madoc one proceeds at a cautious pace, the surface of the road not being conducive to anything like a spurt of speed. The scenery on all hands, although in it's own way unsurpassed, is of the rugged and stern type, monotonous somewhat in the extent of territory which it covers, and then as one tops the brow of a certain little hill midway between these two Hastings' villages, the garden in all its midsummer glory stands out like an oasis in a desert. So beautiful is it that it is seldom a motorist fails to stop, if only for a few moments, and many are the admirers who do more than that—who enter the gateway and walk down the grass carpeted driveway to the little red house, in search of the architects of such a scene. Invariably the trio, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and their son, James, will be discerned busy at work on some section of their 111 acres of land, ere the house is reached. At the approach of visitors they will come and converse freely about their garden, will name the various varieties of roses and countless other specimens of flowers.

"Why do we go in so extensively for horticulture? Simply because we are fond of flowers—because I suppose we have a taste for natural beauty," said Mrs. Hammond, a small but capable little woman, with bare bronzed arms and equally bronzed face, which was shaded with an old felt hat, from underneath the brim of which gazed a pair of kindly eyes. "We talk to the flowers," she said simply, "it seems they respond to kindness and attention very much the same as children. My son," she continued, her gaze surveying the neatly kept lawns and the rows of artistically disposed flower beds, "has done all this work of laying out the garden. It is a gift with him. Whatever he plants, it is bound to flourish. No! he has never had any specific training in the art of horticulture, he has simply developed a God-given gift."

Collected Fir Trees.

James and his father, small of stature also, and thoroughly tanned by a life spent in the open, remained modestly silent for the most part, but answered any questions concerning their garden in a manner which left no doubt as to the ruling interest in their lives.

"Those fir trees," said the younger James, referring to a row of coniferous trees which line the grass carpeted driveway, "were taken from the woods around here. If we were out in the car and saw a seedling which took our fancy we would bring it home for our garden."

It was learned by The Examiner, that these unique people, came out from the Old Land about eighteen years ago. They took over the property on which they are now living some nine years ago, at which time it was in a state of neglect and bareness and was covered with burdock weed and thistles. Mr. Hammond was a market gardener in the Old Country, and lived in the fertile section between Portsmouth and Southampton, while his wife hails from Ilfracombe, in 'beautiful' Devonshire.

Arriving in Hastings County, the rough nature of the country was foreign to these people, who there and then decided they would at least change the face of nature on their own property. The task was started, it was doggedly pursued and today, one of the finest gardens in the district, is the proud memorial to the perseverance and initiative of these three people, husband, wife and son.

In addition to the spacious and wonderful flower garden is a wide area devoted to apple trees, between the rows of which corn flourishes, and away down the slope vegetables of all kinds were to be discerned in all stages of growth.

Immediately in front of the red house, were rows of raspberry canes, heavily laden with a big luscious-looking berries, while the numerous trees which cast a kindly shade over the scene, had little bird sanctuaries nailed to their stout limbs.

The youthful genius, asked if he had ever exhibited at Horticultural shows answered in the negative, adding that the shows came at too late a season to be of much benefit. He does not even market his myriads of wonderful roses and Delphiniums, for one reason, because he is not conveniently situated to a market where flowers are in demand and primarily because he is developing his garden in response to a natural impulse—an overwhelming love of the beautiful which he some day hopes to capitalize if he can find outlet in the landscape designing field.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

In Summer When Childhood Ailments Are Most Dangerous.

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. Stomach troubles, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer, in most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly. Baby's Own Tablets relieve these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child they will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE WEEKLY COLUMN

A goodly thing it is to meet
In Friendship's circle bright,
Where nothing stains the pleasure s weet.
Or dims the radiant light.
No unkind word our lips shall pass,
No envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal,
The good of all mankind.

WARSAW

The next meeting of Warsaw Women's Institute is to be held in the old school, and it so happens the subject is education, to be taken by Mrs. Henry Batten, until her marriage, herself a successful teacher. The subject was not planned to be taken there, but it does seem fitting. As farmer's wives near Warsaw there are now three who, until their marriage recently, one very recently, were fully qualified and successful teachers, as well as some much older, but also fully qualified and successful teachers, and there may be others, but I speak of those who hold their second or first class certificates. The subject is such a broad one, that there should be a good discussion.

Long have many wished for a good school with proper grounds in Warsaw. Some thought what was good enough for them should be god enough for their children and grandchildren, but we do not look at anything else in that way. However no school building, with all the equipment possible, and the best teacher in the world can do good work unless the parents and especially the mothers co-operate

MILLBROOK

An "Institute Cook Book" is a new venture with one branch this season, certain members being appointed at each meeting to bring tried and tested recipes for a specified thing, such as muffins, tart fillings, supper dishes, etc., to the next gathering. Five minutes are allowed for a brisk exchange, and at the close of the meeting any who were not fortunate enough to secure a new recipe are given the privilege of copying down what they require of the ones given that day.

As each member has a book labelled "Institute Cook Book," and either pastes in the recipes secured, or copies out what she specially wanted, in time a really reliable cook book will be the outcome for the members of that branch. The idea could be worked out anywhere, and is worth passing on.

The same branch tried out a similar idea with fancy work ideas and patterns last year, and now each member has a "Fancy Articles" book which is highly prized, and proves most useful. Such ideas keep the Institute well attended, interest keen and well sustained, and are of real practical value, also a community spirit of mutual helpfulness is developed, and bonds of friendship and desire for usefulness become more strongly intertwined.

Showing what one branch has done to promote community welfare, news comes from a village where a fairly good home of the bungalow type was for sale; there was real need for a rest room in the community, and the Institute bought the house, fully furnished as it was, fixed up the living-room for a reading room, with table well supplied with papers and magazines; put two small bedrooms into one on the opposite side of the hall, and furnished this also as a reading room—this side to be a place where the men might have a sort of 'club,' and hold their committee meetings when they so wished; they paid yearly fee for the privilege. The other side was for the women who had to wait in the village, after shopping was concluded until their husbands, or other escorts, were ready for the homeward way.

Plumbing was already done in the house, so all sanitary conveniences were at hand; there was a sun porch that was utilized in the warm weather, and the kitchen and dining- room were just fine for serving lunches when required. The Institute held its regular meetings in the house, which was called "The W. I. Community House," and could serve refreshment with a minimum of trouble, when necessary; also social gatherings, on a small scale, were held here. Occasionally one of the members would pay a rental for an evening, or an afternoon and evening, and use the rooms for a private social event—in one way and another there was an income that helped materially to meet the expense involved, and the venture has proved a genuine boon to the community, and a success as well. A caretaker was, of course, a necessity, but this matter was arranged among the members, each taking her turn in service, so that even in winter when the furnace had to be kept always going, at no time did duties bear too heavily on any one; the necessary supervision, so far as the young folk using the building, was concerned, was regularly arranged for, and no complaints of wrong use of the privileges provided have as yet been received.

A public tennis court for the young folk of any rural community is practically a necessity in these days when this game is particularly to the fore in world championships; it is good, clean, healthy sport, and any Institute branch is surely responsible to see that the ground and equipment are provided if they are not already available. This is a really worth-while service, and from headquarters is highly recommended as an Institute community activity.

CAVAN.

In one of the many addresses of George A. Putnam, B.S.A., Superintendent of Institutes, Toronto, he says:

"We may class homemaking and community building, as among the professions; for what is of greater importance than efficiency, health, physical development, home comfort, economic stability, wholesome literature, good citizenship, and community service for which the Institutes stand?

The accomplishments of the members and the earnestness with which they seek information of value in their undertakings entitles them to the best that science, literature, art and pracical experience has to offer.

The farm women of Ontario are coming to appreciate more and more the importance of a profitable agriculture, if the opportunities and advantages which they seek for themselves and their children are to be provided.

A standard in household conveniences, comfort and health-giving qualities is essential, if the ambitious boys and girls are to be expected to look forward to the farm home as a permanent residence. The study of child character and development is receiving more and more attention, and the promotion of a wholesome social life in the countryside is a recognized responsibility of the Institutes in many districts.

Increased attention is being given to health, education and preventive measures. Public sanitation and the prevention of contagious diseases are receiving special attention. There is a growing desire for general medical and dental service at reasonable charges in the outlying sections of the province.

Year by year greater quantities of supplies are sent each year by the Institutes of old Ontario to the north.

The success and effectiveness of the Institutes has been due largely to co-operative effort. In the first place, the members join forces so that they may do for their members and for others in the community those things which can only be accomplished through united action.

Efforts on behalf of others have been rewarded with signal success. Possibly all have not grasped the importance of conserving your own powers and capabilities, so that you will be able to best serve your day and generation, leaving your community a better place to live in, because you have appreciated the effectiveness of each doing that for which she is best fitted and thus insuring that each will shoulder responsibility and the leaders will not be overtaxed. If we can solve the problem of right living and effective co-operation along the lines outlined, the Institute will continue to become a greater influence of good as the years pass.

Pilgrims At Shrine of Our Lady of Peace At Niagara Falls

Here are shown features of the annual pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Peace at Niagara Falls, Ont., which was attended by several hundreds from points in Canada and the United States. (1) Father Richard, new president of Mount Carmel college, holding the relic for a woman pilgrim. (2) Shrine of Our Lady of Peace, near Mount Carmel college. (3) Mother and daughter before open-air altar during service, and (4) chapel of Our Lady of Peace, only a rundred yards or so from Mount Carmel college. The open-air service was conducted by Dr. Cyril Kehoe of St. Augustines Seminary, Toronto, and a papal blessing was extended.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

PREVENTING TROUBLE IN HAY FEVER INJECTIONS.

Perhaps you have taken one or two injections of pollen extract to prevent hay fever and the reaction was so unpleasant that you decided to discontinue them.

You have experienced a difficulty in breathing, swelling of lips and face, and an eruption of the skin, hives. It was very unpleasant to say the least, and could be really dangerous.

Most physicians have had this experience with patients because even the small dose of a few drops with which they start, is often sufficient to induce larming symptoms.

Of course a few drops of drenalin injected into the other arm usually clears up the symptoms in a short time, but while they last they are embarrassing to patient and physician.

Now as it was found that the use of adrenalin helped the condition after the injection of the pollen extract, an effort was made to find out if a little adrenalin given before or with the pollen extract would prevent symptoms.

This was found to be a little more satisfactory but Drs. W. W. Duke and S. W. Insley have worked out a system that is giving excellent results.

Working on the idea that the severe reactions which occur are due to the fact that too much of the pollen extract gets into the tissues too rapidly, the method is to slow up or regulate the amount of pollen extract being absorbed by the system.

They place a rubber tourniquet around the arm a few inches above the place where they inject the pollen. The pollen had adrenalin, and ephedrine mixed with it which have the effect of slowing down the absorption into the tissues.

The tourniquet is applied tightly enough to cut off the flow of the blood in the veins but not in the arteries.

Shortly after the injection the tourniquet is loosened for a few seconds, and then applied again. This loosening and tightening can be done every half minute for five to ten minutes. If when the tourniquet is loosened the patient shows the least signs of reaction, the tourniquet is reapplied around the arm immediately.

The idea that a strong reaction with those distressing symptoms is good for the patient is now considered wrong.

My thought is that hay fever which was not generally as severe in 1929 as other years, as there was not as much pollen in the air, may be severe again this year, and that now that these reactions can be controlled, that it might be worth your while to try the injections again.

They are not always successful in curing hay fever, but they have a better record than any other medical treatment, because everybody can't move to the districts where hay fever does not occur.

Scarlet geraniums, Charles Dickens' favorite flower, were recently placed on his grave in Westminster Abbey by Lady Dickens, wife of Sir Henry Dickens, the novelist's son, to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of the author's death.

PARISIAN FOIBLES

Madame Jenny has treated the skirt of this black afternoon frock in such a way as to give a suggestion of the irregular hemline.

UNIQUE SKIRT LENDS INDIVIDUALITY TO AFTERNOON FROCK.

If anything is smarter than black this season, it is black and white, particularly when the white is as delicate and fragile as the tiny white collar which is placed in an amusing manner on this afternoon frock. Of unusual interest is the treatment of the skirt, which gives a suggestion of irregularity but keeps its hemline straight.

CAMPBELLFORD

The new brick work on the Wallace Block has now been painted to match the rest of the building, and gives a fine appearance to the street front. Alterations are also being made to the shop fronts that will tend to give the whole a pleasing aspect.

The plumbing store of A. E. Burgis on Front street has undergone a change this week, when it was painted a cream color, which has added to its appearance.

Mr. J. I. Adams is branching out into a new business this summer. He has purchased a new Waterloo "Champion" separator, and will undertake threshing for the farmers of the district. This machine, which was delivered on Tuesday, is of the latest model, and is equipped with a grain spout that will eliminate bagging the grain, and enable the farmer to thresh direct into the grainery.

It is understood that the harness business which Mr. Adams operates will be handled this summer by his son, John Junior.

In the recent examinations of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, three of the pupils of Miss Emma Meiklejohn passed with honors. These are Jean Oddie, Donald Bennett and Bruce Barnum.

Mr. R. J. Bullen had as his guests for a few days this week, Mr. Charles Curtis and daughter, Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald have as their guests for two weeks, Mrs. Don McMullen and Mrs. James Haddon, both of Toronto.

Mrs. J. P. Haig was taken for treatment to Kingston Hospital on Thursday morning.

Mr. John Pettey has returned from a visit to the home of his daughter at Timmins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Collinson and son Kenneth have returned from a motor trip in Eastern Ontario. They were accompanied by their son Arthur, of Peterborough.

Miss Nora Cowell was taken to Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough, on Thursday to undergo an operation for appendicitus.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Weston have their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson of Fort Frances, visiting them.

Mrs. C. Haig and daughter are visiting with Mrs. G. C. Bonnycastle at Bowmanville, Ont.

Mrs. W. Abernethy was a visitor to Trent River for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sheridan and family of Chicago, Ills., and Mr. Joseph Sheridan of Toronto, are spending a very delightful vacation with Mrs. Sheridan's cousin, Mrs. Nora Calnan, East Seymour. The gentlemen of the party are spending their time endeavoring to catch fish from the waters of the Trent. We hope they will be lucky enough to carry off a prize in The Examiner contest.

WEDDING BELLS

MARTIN—BYAM.

MILLBROOK, July 19.—(Examiner Correspondence.) — Hope United Church, Toronto, was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty wedding on Friday, July 11, when Victoria Maretta, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Byam, Millbrook, became the bride of Arthur L. Martin, Toronto, the pastor of the church, Rev. J. Paul officiating.

The young couple were unattended, and the bride wore an ensemble suit of brown crepe, with hat and shoes of a matching shade. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom motored to Millbrook where they were guests of her parents for a brief stay ,and went on to spend their honeymoon at Georgian Bay. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside at 3 Ben Lamond avenue, Toronto.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

MUCH IN A NAME.

Robert had been named after his father, Robert Henley Adams. When he was a little boy starting school he was called Bobbie and answered cheerfully enough to that name. It seemed to suit him very well. He was full of life, teased the cat, got very dirty, forgot to say his prayers, did the least possible amount of extra work, played hard and loudly all his spare time.

With the oncoming of adolescence his mood changed and to the amazement of his family he changed his name. His mother discovered this by the signature on a school lesson, a very credeitable paper indeed, and could scarcely believe her eyes. In bold characters the name stood, Robin Adams.

"Yes, he often signs his papers that way," said the teacher, smiling a little. "And I notice that when he does so the paper is unusually vital. It has a punch in it that is utterly lacking in those he signs Robert R. Adams."

"Isn't that queer, his changing his name that way? I don't like it. But maybe I'd better not say anything about it?"

The changes that Bobbie's name under went were highly interesting, not to say amusing, to those who watched. When he wrote a daring note to the girl across the aisle he signed it Bob. When he wrote a tender one he signed it Bobbie. On all official papers of the team of which he was captain he inscribed his name, R. Henley Adams. Only when he was feeling very very ordinary did he sign himself by his baptismal name, Robert H. Adams

Shortly after graduation from high school, in his preliminary college year, he took another name, in secret this time. He would write it in his best hand writing at the end of a sheet of paper, presumably the last sheet of the composition. Then he proceeded to do his work. When he handed in the paper it bore his own name. The name he worked under, the banner that inspired him to do his best was that of a very great man, a noble man who served his country well and passed on honored, enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen. Not a bad idea at all, was it? That name called out the boy's best effort. He did his best to reach the standard it symbolized. There was much in that name for this boy

This changing of names is not uncommon among adolescent children. It is an indication, and a strong one, of the influence some person, some quality of some person, exerts on the child. He will not select a name or a type of name that symbolizes what he dislikes. You can be certain he likes the name he adopts and it has special meaning for him.

When a girl calls herself Birdie, well, she is Birdie. When a boy christened Patrick calls himself Montmorency, he is indulging in a sniff of high life. Patrick is too close to the earth for him just then. Never mind. All these moods are due the changing child. Do nothing to discourage them unless you see them heading the wrong way.

And if you are naming a child to give it a name that he can live and work under Not too good, but certainly not too inane. Patrick is all right. So is Robert, and Mary.

Less from the United States

That's the True Road to Greater Canadian Prosperity

THE new higher tariff policy of the United States has shown Britain and European countries, as well as Canada, that the United States does not want to buy from other countries, but only to sell to them. It has helped to create an overwhelming sentiment at home and abroad in favor of buying goods from those who buy from you.

Realizing this situation, the new King-Dunning Budget was framed, and Canada's new policy is right in line with British and overseas sentiment.

The increased British Preferences aim to protect and to enlarge our markets in Britain and the Empire for our great export trade. They aim to create greater prosperity in Canada.

Hits U. S. Trade

Further changes in the British Preference have been made that will divert a big portion of our imports from the States to Great Britain, so that the Motherland will be supplied with more funds with which to buy more wheat and other products from us. U.S. tariff experts figure that the King-Dunning Budget will hit United States trade with Canada to the extent of $250,000,000 a year, that Canada will either manufacture or buy each year $250,000,000 worth of goods from Britain and the Empire that were formerly imported from the United States.

With the United States raising her duties higher and higher against Canadian wheat, butter, milk, cream, cheese, eggs and other products, is it not good business to cultivate a larger trade with Britain and the Empire, to buy from and to sell to those who are friendly and likely to be friendly for years to come?

Empire Approval of Budget

The King-Dunning Budget meets with British approval, with Empire approval, with European approval, to trade with those who buy from you as well as sell to you. It is a masterpiece of trading strategy, designed to help Britain and the Empire, to invite European nations to trade with us on a reciprocal basis, to build up for Canada an export trade based on a sound and permanent basis.

The King-Dunning Budget is the biggest and most important policy brought before the electors for their endorsation since the days of Confederation.

Bigger Markets—
More Employment

The King-Dunning Budget is aimed to benefit the individual as well as Canada as a whole. It is aimed to create bigger markets for Canada's farmers, more business for Canada's manufacturers and retailers, more permanent employment for Canada's workers.

If that is what you believe is Canada's need today, if that is what you want yourself, mark your ballot for your Liberal Candidate.

FASHION SERVICE

Black and white printed crepe silk is conspicuously smart for daytime wear.

This interesting model favors the plaits that are unmistakably fashionable. They give a becoming flare to the skirt without adding a fraction of an inch to the slim straight silhouette.

The shawl collar is white crepe silk. It ends in a most unusual manner at the left side, indicating the natural waistline. Beneath the buckle the bodice is caught in plaits that create a softened line across the front.

Its simplicity makes it particularly attractive for street without a topcoat.

Style No. 2564 can be had in sizes 16, 18 years, 26, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust.

Wool crepe, cotton tweed, shantung, printed linen, silk pique and tub silks appropriate.

Pattern price 15 cents. Be sure to fill in size of pattern. Address Pattern Department. The Summer Fashion Magazine contains most interesting styles for adults for town or vacation wear. Also darling styles for the kiddies. It is 15 cents a copy, but may be obtained for 10 cents if ordered same time as pattern.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Have you seen the camp stools which have arrived? They can be put to so many uses I don't think anyone should be without one before vacation.

• • • • • • •

They are just the things to take about when one is going to some out-of-door show or exhibition where there will be much waiting about, or to band concerts in the open air where no settees are provided for the crowds.

• • • • • • •

Unless you enjoy standing you should provide yourself with one of these easily-carried-about seats, for then you can take in many summetime pleasures without getting over-fatigued.

• • • • • • •

Fortunately these old fashioned camp stools are again coming into vogue. The fact that the stools are collapsible puts them in a class with tuck-a-way furniture, that takes up the smallest amount of space when not in use.

• • • • • • •

Apart from their recognized purpose, a camp stool can be put to varied uses. One is for a foot rest. By using one of these stools with a lounging canvas-covered porch or beach chair, the same effect as a chaise-lounge can be gained.

• • • • • • •

A good idea would be to have the chair and stool covered with the same canvas.

• • • • • • •

If the chair is low, cut the canvas strip longer than usual for the stool and it will lower the heights to suit the chair when it is tacked in position.

• • • • • • •

There is a pleasant 'give' to such a foot stool that makes it comfortable to stretch one's legs on. A chaise lounge combination of this description is wonderful to use on a lawn for it can be carried in and out of doors so easily when collapsed.

• • • • • • •

Camp stools, too, make excellent out-of-door tea tables. The tray used on one should reach over both supports to that it rests on the framework. Then it is absolutely secure, and will hold heavy things and breakable china and glassware as safely as if on a table of solid wood.

• • • • • • •

Serving tea or refreshments out of doors is conveniently done, and even breakfast for two can be enjoyed on such a simple contrivance.

• • • • • • •

These are but a few of the many purposes to which camp stools can be put. They can be covered with canvas, enamel cloth with linen or cretonne.

• • • • • • •

If a comparatively light weight textile is used it can be given sufficient body by a lining that is stout Flat headed galvanized iron tacks round-headed brass tacks are advised to be used to tack the textile to the supports. One has to be sure they are hammered in firmly so that they hold well.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

THE UNENDING WAR

I have just read in a piece about Australia that that country is not only overrun with camels, but with "kangaroos and bandicoots, wallabies, emus and pademelons."

The farmers must fight these animals or see their fences knocked down and their crops ruined.

The camel were imported from Africa as burden bearers. Then they were displaced by motor trucks, which did the work better, and, the camels were turned loose to shift for themselves, which they did too completely, for now they rove about in great herds, breaking fences and eating everything in sight.

The other animals, some of which you may have seen in the zoo, and others in the cross word puzzles, are old inhabitants and old offenders.

The war against them has been going on a long time, and is not yet won.

Here in this country we lose millions of dollars because of the greed of rats, no one of which could stand up against a tiny terrier or a fair sized cat, but which collectively put up a successful fight for existence against the whole human race.

Always a war for survival has gone on in the world, with shifting victory, but with a general trend toward the survival of the fittest.

Out in my back yard as I write, I can hear sounds of battle, or at least rumors of impending battle.

The little wren has come off the nest with half a dozen little foolish, downy balls which will be wrens some day.

My kitten, not big enough to catch even the smallest of these, is out there and is trying to look fierce—trying hard enough to make the mother wren think he may eat one of her darlings.

And she is saying things to him which translated into English would sound very bitter.

He, in his turn, is looking meditatively at her and her offspring, and is probably thinking that some day he will not need to take her abuse till he has first taken a couple of her children.

So the war goes on. It is often tragic and cruel, and results in endless suffering, but there will be no way to stop it as long as the world goes as it does.

The trees and plants must fight for existence against bugs and worms—the very materials with which we build our houses must battle against the wear of of wind and rain and exposure to the air.

We human beings take a hand in this fight, defending those we think need our protection and assailing those we deem harmful.

Sometimes we make progress, sometimes we don't.

But we must keep up the fight. It is part of our job, for we inherited this earth, and if we do not struggle to keep it habitable we too in the end will be snuffed out. Some lower form of life will take our places and soon we shall not be even a memory.

LONDON BANKERS SCHEMES ARE HIS BENNETT STATES

Scores Preference That Gives All and Asks For Nothing.

FIVE PREMIERS INSULTED.

Claims Tories Discussing Empire Trade Before Liberals Heard of It.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., July 19 (By Thomas Green, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Preparing for the final week of his Dominion-wide election tour, Hon. R. B. Bennett is resting to-day. On Monday the Conservative Leader will swing back into the campaign with speeches at Simcoe and St. Thomas. Six weeks ago in the early hours of the morning he departed for Winnipeg to launch his campaign on June 9. And since that date Mr. Bennett has made a whirlwind speaking tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific and half-way across the country again.

Empire Trade Up.

Empire trade, with an ironical reference to a placard advertising the Prime Minister as a conciliator and welder, featured the address of the Opposition Chieftain here last night. To his previous declarations respecting trade within the British Empire, Mr. Bennett referred to a resolution passed at a meeting of bankers in London, England, on July 12. The words of this resolution calling for immediate steps for securing and extending the market for British goods along lines of reciprocal trade agreements mutually advantageous between the countries constituting the British Empire were identical with those used by him in opening his campaign in Winnipeg on June 9, he declared.

Proceeding, the Opposition Leader put this question to his audience: "Whose judgment do you prefer—Mr. King's or the bankers of London? They say reciprocal agreements are mutually advantageous. He says do not bargain—take what they give."

Mr. Bennett severely scored "a preference that gives all, asks for nothing, and waves the flag for votes."

Advocated Conference.

More than a year ago, the Conservative Leader recalled, he had advocated the calling of an economic conference at Ottawa so that each part of the Empire might sell to one what the other did not produce with mutual benefit. The Prime Minister had said nothing at the time the suggestion was made, he continued, but had proceeded with arrangements for a conference. But Mr. Bennett remarked, this conference is to be held in London. Conservatives were discussing Empire trade, he continued, "before the Liberals ever heard of it.' Making reference to placards advertising Premier King as a conciliator and welder, Mr. Bennett said the Prime Minister had "insulted" five Provincial Premiers in this country who were now in disagreement with him.

GERMANS TRYING FOR INDIAN TRADE

Great Export Company Formed By Over 200 Manufacturers.

FINANCIALLY STRONG.

BOMBAY, India, July 19. (C.P.)—A German drive for Indian trade was opened by Export Dienst (India), Limited, which began its activities in Bombay. with an Indian organization called Indo-German Products Corporation.

The local organization will act as selling agency throughout India for Export Dienst. Its aim was said to be ultimate sale in India of millions sterling annual and exports to Germany of Indian raw products in even greater volume.

The organization was reputed to have strong Indian financial backing. It was said a network of factories was planned throughout India for the manufacture of daily necessities which India has had to buy abroad.

Export Dienst was formed by more than 200 German manufacturers headed by Theodore Ficker, who visited India in January.

CALEDONIANS WILL PICNIC AT CHEMONG

Members of Local Society Plan For Annual Outing on Civic Holiday.

The Civic Holiday picnic staged by members of the Caledonian Club will this year be held at Chemong, instead of Cobourg, as formerly arranged.

This decision was reached at a special business meeting of the Club held last evening in the Woodmen of the World Hall, and at which W. Petrie presided. There was a fairly large representation of the members present.

The members will go there by buses or private cars, and no doubt a large number of the Caledonians will attend, as Chemong has been a favorite picnic ground in former years.

Light refreshments were served by the Executive after the business session, bringing the meeting to a close.

Bennett Promises Action
King Only a Conference

Despite the efforts of Government supporters to smother it up by flag-waving and misrepresentation of the Conservative attitude toward Empire trade the unemployment issue will not down.

That of course is not to be wondered at because when wage-earners are not working they are not spending and everybody feels the pinch.

IT IS NOW ADMITTED EVEN BY MR. KING THAT THERE IS SUCH AN ISSUE.

Let us look therefore at how the two parties propose to deal with the situation.

On one side is Mr. King who puts the necessity of his being present at the Imperial Conference before anything else and offers as a solution of the unemployment problem a conference of experts to be held, it is presumed, after the London gathering is over.

More talk; more statistics; more reports; more delay, for remember nothing to implement the decisions of such a conference could be done until Parliament met next February.

And meanwhile men will be tramping the streets, workers will be hungry and without jobs, families will be fed by charity.

WHAT WILL MR. BENNETT DO?

Mr. Bennett because he believes that the duty of a Canadian government is to look after Canadians first will make it his first responsibility to take immediate steps to deal with the unemployment problem.

HE IS FOR THE EMPIRE BUT HE IS FOR THIS PART OF THE EMPIRE FIRST AND IT IS HIS DUTY TO BE.

And so his initial step will be to call Parliament together immediately and to put under way at once a program of public works that will take up some of the slack in the labor market.

And then he will proceed to give this country a fiscal policy that will give Canadians work, a policy that will help our own industries and help our own farmers.

NO CONFERENCE, NO WAITING UNTIL NEXT FEBRUARY BUT ACTION AT ONCE.

There are the alternatives between which the voters will have to choose, MR. KING AND HIS INDEFINITE, SOME-TIME-OR-OTHER CONFERENCE OR MR. BENNETT WITH HIS DEFINITE PROGRAM OF ACTION, A PROGRAM THAT MEANS WORK, NOT PROMISES, WAGES, NOT CHARITY FOR CANADIANS.

Between the two the thinking voter should have little hesitation in deciding that the decisive and clearcut policy of the Conservative leader offers the greatest promise of success.

And because most of them have already so decided the slogan "it is time for a change" is developing more and more volume and meaning.

HERE IS A SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF THE RESULTS OBTAINED BY AN OUT-OF-TOWN ADVERTISER—

In April Mr. Cranston of Cranston's Poultry Farm, Stirling, inserted a Classified Ad. in our want ad. columns.

That advertising sold 25,000 baby chicks for him.

Mr. Cranston being very much pleased with the overwhelming results obtained, has continued to advertise, and with continued success. In sending in instructions for further advertising Mr. Cranston said:

"I might say that I received wonderful results from my ad. appearing in April issues, having sold at least 25,000 chicks from that ad. alone. I have sold about 85,000 chicks so far this season."

ITALIANS HAVE REAL ADMIRATION FOR MUSSOLINI, SAYS LADY EATON

Examiner Correspondent Interviews Former Omemee Resident on Her Tour of Europe.

HAS SUPERB COURAGE.

Acquits Fascisti Leader of Harboring Designs Against Italy's Neighbors.

MONTREAL, July 19.—Not merely blind hero worship but genuine admiration for his achievement in raising his country out of the slough of despond to its present exalted position among the nations—this coupled with affection for his many fine qualities, especially his superb courage, explains Mussolini's high place in the regard of his fellow Italians, according to Lady Eaton in an interview with the Examiner here yesterday on her way via Ottawa to Toronto after a tour through the Maritimes which folowed her arrival in Canada from Europe two weeks ago. Lady Eaton was brought up in Omemee, where her parents are buried, and to which she has been a generous benefactor.

Lady Eaton acquits Mussolini of harboring designs against Italy's neighbors. 'I was living in Florence when he made his now famous address to the assembled Fascisti," she said. 'It was a very stirring speech but was intended for purely local consumption and should not be construed elsewhere as sabre-rattling. The Italians are a very simple-minded people. I love them. Once you gain their affections they are yours for all time. Mussolini has won their hearts. The type of nationalism he is fostering is one that is intensely interested in the present and that is aiming at great industrial activity.

'Mussolini is not the ogre depicted by cartoonists. After his Florence speech, my little girl and I saw him at the Casini. In our British way, we clapped. He turned and as he saluted us, his smile illuminated his whole countenance.

Bedecked With Flags.

"When I was in Florence in 1921, I did not see a single Italian flag on a national holiday. Four months later, after Mussolini had become the ruler of Italy, I saw the city bedecked with all the flags of Italy from the time of liberation down to those of the late war. So much has Mussolini reinvigorated his country.

During her trip to the Maritimes, Lady Eaton, on the invitation of C. B. McNaught, president of he British Empire Steel Company, visited one of he company's mines, descending 900 feet and travelling by one of the underground electric trains for three miles on the track under the sea.

At Montreal and in the Maritimes, she was accompanied by her two eldest sons, Timothy C., who is planning to enter the business, and John David, who completed his studies last year at Cambridge University. Mr. Eaton when at Cambridge played Rugby for his college, Corpus Christi. Another son, Edgar, will remain in France for the rest of the summer in order to perfect his knowledge of French.

REGULAR MEETING HUMANE SOCIETY

Financial Report of Recently Held Horse Parade is Read.

The regular executive meeting of the Humane Society was held Thursday evening in the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. J. E. Middleton, chairman of the horse parade committee, gave a financial report of the horse parade. Up to the present time donations amounting to $50 have been received. The total expense of this year's parade was $90.40. Two resolutions of appreciation was passed to those who so kindly gave cash donations and to those who were so kind as to provide horses for exhibition, which made the parade such a success.

Some discussion took place regarding the abuse some of the race horses are receiving at the Exhibition Park and it was decided that the driver be made an example of if his actions continue.

Report Read

Dr. Johnston's report was a lenghty one, and read in part:—

Investigated a complain that a man was not giving his dog proper care.

Investigated a complaint that a man who was keeping a very poor horse and who was intending to send it to camp with the soldiers. Found the horse too old to eat hay, but able to eat grass. Also warned him about his stable, which was a disgrace. Horse was not accepted for camp.

Had a call to a dog in East City, which was reported to be mad. Found a number of people gathered near, but nothing wrong with dog, only fright. Picked it up and took it home.

Destroyed a stray cat, which had fallen out of a tree and broken its back.

Investigated complaint about two dogs being poisoned. One died; the other got better.

Investigated a complaint that a driver of a local race horse beat the horse very badly in the race at Port Hope, July 1st. Found one side of the horse badly marked from the whip. As Port Hope is out of this county this complaint was passed on to Port Hope Society and also to headquarters, Toronto.

Emergency call to dog hit with truck, which was not the driver's fault.

Call to horse, which dropped dead while drawing gravel. Horse had heaves and died from natural causes.

Warned a local milk vendor about galloping his horse on the street.

Investigated a complaint in Cavan about a man setting his dog on his neighbor's pigs.' One pig had scores on its side from the dog's teeth. Gave a warning.

Sold several dogs to good homes and humanely destroyed several sick and stray cats.

Today the hills appear more green,
The skies take on a bluer sheen;
I notice flowers here and there

I missed for seeing only you.
Elysian vistas come to view,
My spirits soar to heights above
Because I've fallen out of love.

MISSION CIRCLE HOLDS OUTING

St. James' Church Society Holds Annual Event at Nicholls Oval.

ENJOY GOOD TIME.

The July meeting of the X. L. Mission Circle of St. James' United church took the form of a picnic outing at Nicholls Park yesterday afternoon, when thirty-five of the members and friends were in attendance.

No formal program was given and the afternoon was given over to sports, consisting of lively ball games and races, in which all participated.

The picnic supper was served in true picnic fashion on the grass, and ample justice was done to the culinary art of the Circle members, who provided the repast.

Great credit is due the capable committee who staged the picnic, Miss Edith Wright convenor, with Misses Mabel Copson and Dorothy Drysdale.

After the supper, the prizes for the races were distributed as follows:

Straight race—Miss Aileen Rose.

Potato race—1st Miss Jean Hammond and 2nd Miss Greta Welbourn.

Three-legged race— Misses Aileen Rose and Greta Welbourn.

This brought to a happy conclusion an afternoon, every minute of which was enjoyed and the picnic was voted a huge success from every point of view.

Give Peterborough A Chance and a Change By Electing J. J. DUFFUS

This community owes nothing more to E. A. Peck, ex-M.P., as a party candidate.

Twice Mr. Peck has been elected to represent at Ottawa this important industrial and agricultural riding.

Twice the electors were told the Liberals couldn't win and that Mr. Peck would occupy a seat on the Government benches.

But on these two occasions the country renewed its trust in Mackenzie King, and the years have passed and the sessions of Parliament, and Peterboro's representative has been but a dim figure in the obscurity of the Opposition.

If Mr. Peck is elected again he will return to the same seat which he has occupied during the last six years.

For, one thing is certain, the people of Canada endorse the honest, progressive record of the King government and the Dunning Budget with its policy of greater trade within the Empire.

The signs all indicate the defeat of Mr. Bennett. Prominent Conservatives are opposing him, and here in Peterboro Mr. Duffus has received numerous intimations, some by letter, from Conservatives in this riding that they intend to vote for him.

The Financial Post this week emphatically asserts that the business men of Canada are heartily sick of the Bennett-Ferguson campaign of "blue ruin" and its destructive and depressive effects upon the business affairs of this country.

Mr. Peck and his speakers have been so completely disarmed and discomfited by the splendid record of the Liberal administration that they have been reduced to the last argument of political despair—"It is time for a change."

For this riding it is indeed a time for a change in its representative at Ottawa.

Mr. Peck has had his chance.

Mr. Peck's friends have paid their score of friendship and esteem. He has no further claim on them.

GIVE PETERBORO AND EMPIRE TRADE A CHANCE NOW.

The Liberal party not only presents a clean record of good government, and an excellent cause in the Dunning Budget, but also a worthy candidate in J. J. Duffus.

Mr. Duffus, his character and his work are known throughout this riding. His success in business and in public service deserve the confidence and votes of the electors.

To J. J. Duffus public service is an avocation or hobby. Some men prefer golf. Mr. Duffus has spent his spare time in assisting such enterprises as the Chamber of Commerce and the local and Provincial Plowmen's Associations.

This community, both the country and the city, gave Mr. Duffus his opportunity and experience in public life.

PETERBORO NEEDS DUFFUS

Peterboro needs Mr. Duffus at Ottawa to-day at the period of his life when he may be regarded as ripe for political responsibility.

He has graduated from the farm, from municipal service, and in a sense from business. Mr. Duffus has promised to devote two-thirds of his time to the affairs of this constituency, and his energy and persistence are guarantees that he will make one of the most active representatives Peterboro has ever had.

The Liberal party has given this riding capable members of Parliament in R. R. Hall, K.C., Hon. J. R. Stratton and Hon. G. N. Gordon, and their accomplishments will be the mark which Mr. Duffus will set for himself.

The only change Peterboro needs at Ottawa is a representative who will be a member of the Liberal Government assisting Mackenzie King and Charles A. Dunning in their endeavor to secure for Canada a leading place within the family of the British nations, and a larger measure of Empire trade.

SEND DUFFUS TO OTTAWA THIS TIME

AND GIVE PETERBORO A CHANCE.

Cogs And Crescents Fail To Break Deadlock

GAME ENDS IN 6-6 DECISION IN OVERTIME

Victory Would Have Given Cogs Chance of Edging Into Play-offs.

FREE-HITTING CONTEST.

Crary, Crescents' Second Sacker, Connects With Homer in Fifth Inning.

Making their third tie game of the season, Cognawagas and Crescents after two extra innings of ball at Exhibition Park last evening finished up with the score knotted 6-6.

A win was of great importance to the Cogs, it being badly needed to safeguard their chances of edging past Brioux clan into the play-offs with the C.G.E. But the game was only another example of the balanced strength of the two nines, and leaves second place still open to either club, although the Crescents are favorites by virtue of several more victories.

Free-Hitting Contest

It was a free-hitting contest with a total of eight sound smashes that were good for extra bases. Crary, Crescents' second sacker, earned premier clouting honors with his homer in the fifth. Hickey for the Crescents and Cuthbertson for the Cogs were the most effective batters for their teams, each helping himself to three safeties, a triple and a double listed among each of their efforts.

Masterson hurled for Crescents and Vannest toiled for the Cogs, but neither pitcher displayed much stuff. Vannest was wild during the first part of the struggle but he bolstered during the last four frames and set the Crescents back with but two hits. His team mates were shaky at times and several boots materially aided the Crescents secure runs. Masterson was too disposed to groove the pill and the Cogs got next to him for twelve hits. He breezed through nicely in the pinches, however.

Take Early Lead

Crescents' stock went way up when they went out in the opening stanza and, added by two walks, secured two runs. Sweetman and Collins were handed passes and scored on Hickey's smart double to center. An error and another walk put Crary and F. Jones on the pathways, but Heard rolled to second for the third out.

Not to be outdone the Cogs turned in during their half of the same frame and tied it up with real sound hits. Cripps led off with a triple into right, and he crossed on Cuthbertson's double. Cuthbertson advanced on Corbett's roller to first, and scored on Rooke's rap to short. Williams popped for the third out.

Nothing happened again until the third when both outfits raised the score by one run. With one out Hickey singled and went to second when F. Jones was walked. Masterson singled into left field to score Hickey, but the batter was caught off first by a smart throw by Ross, for the third out.

Cuthbertson Scores

Two were down when Cuthbertson singled for Cogs, Corbett sent him around on a giant triple into center.

The Crescents had their big innings in the fifth when the amassed three runs and shot out in front by a wide margin. J. Jones hit a tricky one through Cuthbertson for a starter, and he went to third when Baker made a wild peg past second. Collins flied out to left, but Hickey singled to score Jones. Crary followed with his hit into deep center that gave him the full circuit.

In their half of the same frame Cogs secured one to make the count 6-4. Getting on with a walk, Crips was out at second on Cuthbertson's roller. Corbett singled and so did Rooke, scoring Cripps. Williams hit to the pitcher and was tossed out, and corbett venturing home on the play was out, on a fast throw by Hickey.

Crescents were shut out in the sixth, but Cogs added another. Baker flew out to center, but Wilson singled. He advanced to third on Vannest's single and scored when Collins threw to second to get Vannest stealing.

Tie in Seventh

In the seventh the Cogs tied it up. Cuthbertson tripled for the starter, and he went over on Corbett's smart rap back of first. Corbett was forced out at second on Rooke's roller to Crary. Williams was safe when Sweetman erred on his bouncy grounder, making the Crescents' third sacker's first error in ten games. Baker whiffed and Wilson rolled to the pitcher.

In the two extra frames the Cogs were the team that came near sending the winning run across. In the eighth they got one with none out, and in the ninth Rooke was on with but one down, but on each occasion they failed to come through.

Jack Lebarr turned in one of the prettiest fielding efforts of the game when he grabbed Ross' drive into right. The fielder moved fast to grab the drive, which was labelled for extra bases and would have scored Williams and Wilson, who were prancing on the runways at the time.

Toronto Leafs Four Games From The Top

Inside Sportin' Dope—By A. Wise Cracker

Mister Sporting Editor:

Well, Mac, where do you suppose I landed the other day? At a cricket match! I wouldn't fool you, old-timer, I was among the 20 folks what crowded the Oval last Tues. p.m. and watched the 11 from Philadelphia hand a neat wallop to our flannelled lads. Now, I ain't no expert on that good old game, Mac, and I want to tell you the way them folks from Philadelphia fielded kinda opened my eyes. They snapped up grounders like old Hans Wagner, and 2 of the birds away out in the outer garden covered a mile of ground to snare long flies, just like the classiest baseball outfielder you ever looked at. And, Mac, that ball sure is hard and them lads don't use nothing but their bare salary hooks to grab the flying leather. Our fellows didn't do no Babe Ruth stuff with the bat, Mac, and if they was any Don Bradman's among them I failed to glimpse them, but anyway it was a enjoyable p.m., and I'm going back to see another battle.

Last Sat., Mac, I sat in at the world's worst baseball game. That fixture between the Rays and Cobourg was so bad it wasn't even funny. The team that Cobourg sent up would have been knocked outa the 1st round of a U.F.O. tournament, and the home lads couldn't put no pep in the contest. For a coupla innings, half way through the game, they wasn't a sound in the dust-covered grandstand seats until a bird yawned so loud he woke the whole party up. Some went home and the rest dropped off to sleep until the caretaker came round and told them the game was over.

The Rays and Oshawa is for it for the Lakeshore loop honors, and the serious between the 2 oughta be a real lively affair. Both teams has took the opposition twice and the play-off should be exciting all the way.

In the E. P. loop the Electricians is still unlicked, although they come close to it Tues. nite. Going into the last frame, Mister Primeau's lads was a run down, but a coupla pinch-hitters come through when called on and four hits in a row settled the argument before anybody was out. And that was that.

Well, Mac, they ain't much in the mush ball loop to rave about this week, the games being just so-so-, or worse than that. The only game this week where the fans got a brake was Wed. nite when a coupla girls handed out free samples of gum.

Nothing more I can think of, so toodle-loo, old thing.

Sportfully yours,

A. WISE CRACKER.

LOWLY BROWNS ON BATTING RAMPAGE DEFEAT YANKEES

Ruth Celebrates to Ranks With Home Run, Triple and a Double.

8TH WIN FOR MACKS.

The Lowly St Louis Browns provided the big thrill of the American League's day as they blew a seven game losing streak sky high at the expense of the New York Yankees. The Browns started hitting and scoring in the first inning, and refusing to be intimidated by the great Babe Ruth, who made his 33rd home run or Lou Gehrig who clouted his 25th, they didn't stop until the eighth, rolling up a 14 to 6 score. Incidentally they moved out of eighth place by a three point margin over the Boston Red Sox, who lost a 7-6 decision to Detroit, as the Tigers found Milton Gaston for six of their runs in the fourth inning.

The Philadelphia Athletics won their eighth straight game by scoring 11 runs in two innings to defeat Chicago 15 to 14. Four home runs—two by Jimmy Foxx, were tossed in among Philadelphia's 15 hits, and George Earnshaw allowed the Sox only seven blows.

Washington got back in the winning column to even the series with Cleveland and remain 3½ games behind the Athletics with an 8 to 6 victory. The Senators were badly outhit and lost a five run lead which was gained in the first three innings but Porter made an inopportune error in the eighth and Washington scored two runs to win.

TORONTO, Ont., July 19.—Al Foreman, British lightweight champion of Montreal, was awarded the decision over Pete Zivic, Pittsburgh, when Referee Lou Marsh, Toronto, stopped the 10-round main bout at the Shamrock Athletic Club's show here last night, in the third round, because Zivic declined to open up. Referee Marsh had previously warned the Pittsburgh lightweight for his holding tactics.

Keys Produce Punch in Finches to Win Series Opener From the Leafs.

Birds Halt Losing Streak.

Momentarily at least, the Baltimore Orioles have checked the slump that threatened to send them into fourth place in the International League pennant race.

Ousted from first place by the Rochester Red Wings and only a step in front of the third place Toronto Maple Leafs and fourth place Montreal Royals, the Orioles slammed the Royals for 10—4 loss yesterday, while Toronto obligingly was losing to Reading. Rochester defeated Jersey City for its sixth straight victory and thus retained its three game lead over Baltimore with Toronto another game back and Montreal a game behind the Leafs.

The Orioles pounded Griffin for four hits and five runs in the first five innings and then put the game on ice with a four-run assault on Brown in the eighth. Another run in the ninth brought the final tally to 10—4. Lou Koupal went the route for the Orioles, kept eight hits well scattered and aided his own cause with a pair of singles that drove in two runs.

Rochester trouced Jersey City, 8—2 as Tex Carleton turned in another fine pitching perforance. Jersey City scored its pair of runs in the first inning when Max West's drive to left field bounced over Pepper's head for a home run with Walker on base. The Red Wings got to Moore for one run in the fourth and then won the game to all intents and purposes with five more in the fifth. Carleton struck out seven men all told, fanning Walker for the third out with the bases filled in the seventh, the only time the Skeeters really threatened after their first inning splurge. Pepper led Rochester's attack with a triple and three singles.

Bunch Hits to Win

Reading bunched hits off Nick Harrison and Frank Barnes in three innings to beat Toronto 8—2. Harrison got by the first inning without being scored upon but was driven to the showers in the second when the Keys lined out four straight hits which, with a walk, gave them three runs. Barnes then entered the game and was reached for two runs in the sixth and three in the ninth. McAfee had only one bad inning, the third, when the Leafs scored both their runs. All told, they collected only seven hits.

Newark advanced to within two percentage points of Jersey City by walloping Buffalo 13 to 5, in a night game at Buffalo. The Bears clouted three Bison pitchers for 17 hits, took a three-run lead in the first inning and never relinquished it. The game, however, was fairly close until the eighth inning, when the Bears rallied for five runs to clinch the victory beyond dispute.

London Adds to Lead In Ontario League

LONDON, July 19. — Knotty Lee's Ontario League leaders continued to maul the baseballs served up to them by three St. Catharines' pitchers, who yielded 22 swats of every dimensions to make it three straight over the Brewers by 14 to 7 here yesterday.

The game was played at Tecumseh Park for the first time, where the unaccustomed playing field accounted for numerous infield hits from peculiar bouncing balls, as well as made some of the infielders appear awkward. The diamond, with its grassy cushion, was lightning fast, and several infielders were nearly wounded.

Reg Grabowski went the route for the locals, facing 43 batters, who secured 16 hits, but half that number never went past the infield and the seven runs were not all earned.

Cobourg Intermediates Default to Motor City

OSHAWA, July 19. — Oshawa stands in undisputed first place in the Lake Shore Intermediate Baseball League, following the announcement yesterday that Cobourg had defaulted the game here to-day, the last of the schedule.

Peterborough Raybestos were the runners-up in the league standing, and will meet the Oshawa Arabs in the league play-offs, probably in about two weeks' time. The winners will then go into the O.B.A.A. play-offs.

BEATING PAYMENTS

HOLLYWOOD, July 12.—A picture actor bought one of those new 16-cylinder cars.

GIANTS WIN IN NINTH.

Battle For Position Among Lower National League Clubs Waging Strong.

Almost unnoticed amid the tumult and shouting over the Brooklyn-Chicago battle for first place in the National League, there is a stirring bit af baseball warfare among the lower clubs, Pittsburg, Boston and Cincinnati involved in a three-way struggle for the best position.

Pittsburg's Pirates are on top today, holding fifth place in a half-game margin by virtue of yesterday's 12 to 4 triumph over the Boston Braves. Cincinnati, victorious over the humble Phillies 13 to 6, still are in seventh place, but only a half-game behind the Braves.

Glenn Spencer pitched the Pirates to their third straight victory in Boston, allowing only nine hits, of which three went to Welsh. Adam Comorosky, Pie Traynor, and George Grantham provided most of the backing, which came in the form of 16 hits off Selbold, Frankhouse and Cunningham. This trio made nine hits, scored seven runs, and batted in nine. The Reds and Phillies engaged in a wild hitting affair in which the Phillies scored five runs in the fourth to gain a 6-6 tie, and the Reds duplicated the rally in the eighth to clinch the decision. Home runs were the big feature, with Chuck Klein hitting his 27th for Philadelphia and Heilmann, Strip and Meusel connecting for Cincinnati's four baggers.

Chicago's Cubs likewise used the home run route as they clipped Brooklyn's lead to a single game by winning the fourth clash of their "crucial" series, 6 to 2. Hack Wilson, Clyde Beck, and Woody English clouted homers to account for four of Chicago's runs, while Del Biasonette's four-base blow was the only real wallop of the five hits the Robins made off the delivery of Sheriff Fred Blake.

Hold Advantage.

Brooklyn still has the advantage going into the series final to-day. Even if the Cubs win the last game, the Robins will hold first place by a four-point margin.

New York's Giants went a long way toward settling their dispute with St. Louis over third place by rallying for five runs in the ninth inning to win the second in a row, 8 to 7. The Giants could not make much progress against Bill Hallahan in the first eight frames, but they did a good job of it in the final, getting six singles.

Battle Becomes Keen For Soccer League Honors

PACKERS BEAT CALEYS TO TOP SOCCER LEAGUE

Newt Downer Opens Scoring — Scots Gain Equalizer Through Curtain.

C.P.C. 5, CLUBMEN 1.

Opposing Defense Fails to Hold Preston Who Accounts For Three Goals.

Canadian Packing came through last night with a splendid win over the Caledonians by the score of five goals to one in a league game on King Edward Park, before a good attendance of spectators. The two points now place the Packers in the top position of the league.

The tussle was of an interesting character, players taking the decisions in a sportsmanlike manner, which makes the game worth seeing. Preston being the successful marksman with three goals to his credit.

First Half

The opening exchanges were of a dilatory nature until the players got acquainted with the style of play adopted by their partners. Raid after raid was made on the goals without anything tangible being gained. Eventually Buchan beat back a Scot attack after they had penetrated the goal area. He carried the ball up the centre of the field to let his forwards gain a foothold on the Scot's defence. The full back tried to offset the attack, but Newt Downer bewildered them when he rapped a hot drive for the corner of the goal. Play ran from end to end at a rapid pace, but the Packers were more dangerous around the goal when in possession of the ball. Well planned attacks by the Scots' wing on the right were always dangerous. Cook was the star in every attempt to have a shot at the Packers' citadel. Griffin, in goal, never gave up fisting out, when hard pressed and when a scrimmage ensued he came out of the turmoil with the ball, but he failed to get the one that Curtain shot over his head into the net. He partially saved, but it bounced off his hand into the net to give the Scots the equalizer. The next visit resulted in Cook dribbling his way through to finish with a lightning drive, the custodian saved, but Coyle rapped another one for the far corner, he again diverted the ball past for a fruitless flag kick. Both custodians were called upon to save from the respective attacks before the interval, but nothing further transpired. Half time—Caledonians 1, Canadian Packing 1.

Second Half

On resuming, mid-field play held sway, with the half backs controlling the ball to their desire so as to get the attack into the vicinity of the goal area. Buchan, at centre half for the Packers, was the mainstay of his team. Clever anticipation of play, checking at the proper time, caused the opposition a lot of worry. Whenever he would see a man marked, he would transfer the ball to the open wing, where it travelled along the mark to the other end. Time and again, his work proved fruitful, as Preston harassed the opposing full backs as the ball landed over their head. The Packers' centre-man declaring himself to be an opportunist when he sent a shot into the net to put the C.P.C. ahead once more. This setback to the Scots took the pep out of them, as no doubt the score indicates. Rickard added a soft goal when the custodian let the ball roll out of his arm into the goal. Before the final whistle, Preston completed the hat trick in the same manner, as he scored the second tally. Canadian Packing 5, Caledonians 1

LOCAL YACHTSMAN WINS AT TORONTO

Reg. Dixon Skipper of R.C.Y.C. Boat in Dinghy Trophy Races.

TORONTO, July 19 — The first of a series of three races for the Douglas and Emerson International Dinghy Trophies was held yesterday afternoon between sailors from the Rochester Yacht Club and the Royal Canadian Yacht Club. The course consisted of a three mile triangle twice around.

A fresh southwest wind was blowing and the boats were sent around with buoys to port. Both events were won by R.C.Y.C.

The Douglas Cup race was a two boat affair. Rochester Yacht Club was represented by Harold Christy as skipper and "Doc" Vaughan as crew. Christy comes from Rochester after having won the championship across the lake, which consisted of eight firsts, a second and a fifth. The R.C.Y.C. boat was skipped by Reg Dixon of Peterborough, with Fred Brooks-Hill as crew.

At 3.20 p.m., the boats were sent away with a buck to weather. Christy did not get a good start and Dixon who crossed the line on the gun, gained an advantage of 12 seconds. In the weather work he was never headed and steadily stretched out a lead which consisted of 1 minute and 12 seconds at the end of the race. The Rochester boys found somewhat too much 'slop' out in the lake and the wind too heavy for their boats.

In the Emerson Cup race, which is a team race, the Rochester Yacht Club was represented by Filcher and Barber as skippers, while Hynes and Bennett upheld the honors of the R.C.Y.C. The latter finished one, two in this race, with quite a comfortable lead.

The second race will be held at 10.15 a.m. to-day, over the same course. The order of finish yesterday was as follows:

Douglas Cup.

First race—Started at 3.20 p.m.

1—Reg Dixon, R.C.Y.C., finished at 4.32.13

2—H. Christy, R.Y.C., finished at 4.33.25

HOBBS NOT NAMED ON ENGLISH ELEVEN

Cricket Team to Tour South Africa Next Winter is Chosen.

LONDON, July 19. — England will send a very strong cricket team to South Africa next winter. The personnel of the players who will be sent out by the Marylebone Cricket game in England, was announced today. It is the strongest combination ever sent to South Africa and shows the M.C.C. have taken a lesson from the narrow escape England had of losing the 'rubber' during the tour four years ago. On that occasion the two countries broke even, South Africa staging a strong finish.

The team is as follows:

A. P. F. Chapman, Captain, J. C. White, Somerset; M. J. C. Allom, Surrey; R. E. S. Wyatt, Warwickshire; I. A. R. Peebles, Middlesex; Maurice J. Turnbull, Glamorganshire; George Duckworth, Lancashire; William Voce, Nottinghamshire; T. W. Goddard, Gloucestershire; Maurice Tate, Sussex; Pat Hendren, Middlesex; Wally Hammond, Gloucestershire; Maurice Leyland, Yorkshire; Leslie Ames, Kent and A. Sandham, Surrey.

HOLY NAME BEATS KIWANIS JUNIORS

East City Team Garners Lead in First Frame to Walk Away With 7-5 Decision.

By turning a flock of base hits in the first frame into a quartet of runs, the Holy Name team defeated the Kiwanis 7-5 in a City League softball game here Thursday evening.

A two bagger by Wilshaw, singles by Morocco, Hillier and Ellis, and a sacrice by McGillan, gave the Holy Name a lead which it never relinquished. The last five innings were scoreless.

In Hillier and McGillan, Manager Jack Deannard of the Holy Name aggregation, trotted out his best battery. Cripps and Woods shared the pitching burden for Kiwanis, with Whatley receivinng.

BASEBALL

As a result of the no-decision game last night all three E.P.L. fixtures scheduled for next week are important contests for Crescents and Cogs.

On Monday evening Crescents and C. G. E. go into action and the fans will probably see Hardill and Utronki on the hrling heap. C.G.E. and Cogs meet on Wednesday evening and on Friday Cogs and Crescents provide the excitement.

Babies' diving—Lily Long.

New water games were played after the tests and the girls are delighted with the elementary water polo. A varied color ball added to the equipment of the pool. A big night is expected next Friday.

Miss C. F. Littlefield announced to the swimmers about the double schedule of lessons next week starting on Monday afternoon for the intermediate group and the special classes.

Baseball Gossip.

As the schedule nears the close in the city hardball league, competition becomes keener as the various teams in an effort to win the series honors. The following is the list of games for next week, and fans can be assured that some tidy battles will be witnessed:

Monday, July 21—Browntown vs. Kiwanis (Juvenile).

Tuesday, July 22—East City vs. Kiwanis (Junior).

Wednesday, July 23—Kiwanis vs. Maple Leafs (Bantam).

All games will be played at Riverside Park.

SHADES OF THE PAST; LONGBOAT VS. SHRUBB

It is 21 years since the last professional road race took place in this country. Then it was that such names as Tom Longboat, Alfie Shrubb, Marsh, Maloney, Hayes, Dorando and St. Yves were featured on the top lines of the sporting pages. Yet after all these years comes a written challenge from the famous English runner, Alfie Shrubb to Elwood A. Hughes of the Canadian National Exhibition, that he is willing to meet his old rival, Tom Longboat, the world-wide known Canadian marathoner, in a three mile event. However, the sporting promoters have decided to go one even better. There is now under consideration the idea of a professional marathon which would be open to such high class material as Pete Gavuzzi, who took part in the Pyle cross-country jogs; Joie Ray, the Chicago flier; McNamara of Australia; Arthur Newton, the 47-year-old wonder from South Africa, and Phil Granville and Tom Ellis of Hamilton, Ontario. It is expected that the C.N.E. event would attract entries from the European centres, and Mr. Hughes is confident of success. All the running would be done around the Exhibition dirt track. It is the belief among the sports experts that the old sport of marathon running could be revived if handled in the proper manner. Mr. Hughes accompanied Billy Sherring the day he won the world's championship at Athens. So he knows what it's all about.

A CONTESTED BIRD HOUSE

A terrible thing happened in our wren house today. I told you, did I not, how Goldy and I built a bird house when the very first warm days came this Spring? We got bark at the mill and that made it rustic-looking, but what we liked best was a large knot on the roof that sat up like the chimney Peter Pan made for Wendy's house with John's top hat.

Imagine how annoyed we were to see two bold English sparrows swoop down upon our dear little house and claim it as their own. Our hearts almost stopped one day, when a blue bird came; clung for a moment under the projecting roof and peered into the hole. "Oh, we are going to have that lovely thing flashing through our garden like a blue and silver flame this summer?" we ask ourselves, but alas! in another moment it is gone. It didn't like us well enough!

Did you ever hear of a wren building its nest in a maple syrup tin? You know the opening is just the right size. We thought we would try to coax one by covering a tin can with bark. The same day we took our first house from the butternut tree and moved it down into the snow apple tree hoping the sparrows would never find it again. But early next morning the first thing I saw in the orchard was Father Sparrow peering into his house! Only a few nights later when Goldy and I were coming up from the river just at dark, we touched the floor of the house with a paddle and out flew a sparrow.

I screamed with fright but Goldy cried, "Mother, let's take the house down and see if there are any eggs." There were—four of them!

We were determined we would not have sparrows so we got a teaspoon and carefully drew out the eggs. I then nailed a piece of shingle over the hole so that it was just the size of a twenty-five cent piece. Goldy borrowed a quarter from Granny to measure it. Out in the butternut tree we swung it again and to dispose of the four little orphaned eggs which lay heavily upon her heart, Goldy begged to be allowed to take them next door to set under Aunt Mable's hen.

Next morning the fun began. We could scarcely eat breakfast for laughing. Back again came the sparrows but they couldn't get in. They were the most puzzled birds you ever saw. Here was their own little house but they couldn't get in! Father Sparrow clung to the front with his claws and tried desperately to pry his body through the door. He turned his shoulders right; he turned his shoulders left. It was no use. They stuck! Goldy and Sister thought I was a cruel woman to laugh so hard and said they just hoped that one day a big giant would keep me out of my house. I tried to argue that our bluebirds, martins and even robins had been driven off by the wretched sparrows, but I was not forgiven.

At last one day, as we had hoped, a dear little wren came—just the father wren. He flew in and out, examined the house and decided to take it. This enraged the sparrow and he re-doubled his efforts to force his way in.

And will you believe it, that tiny wren sat on a branch just above and twitted him! For days the sparrow spent his time alternating between chasing the wren down the lane and trying to force his way into the bird house. I do not know exactly what the wren said but it was clearly a song of boasting and derision he sang for the sparrow flew at him so viciously at times that I thought his bones cracked! He, in turn, managed to annoy the wren for I often saw the latter on the wire fence with wings outspread and simply trembling with rage. More frequently, however, he would perch in the tree with head thrown back and throat almost bursting with song. It is difficult to believe such a volume of sweet sound comes from such a tiny creature.

Finally the sparrow retreated crestfallen to the verandah to live near the Robin (who loves our new red Hydro meter for a perch) and the wren brought his little mate from somewhere or other.

One afternoon as I was planting beans directly under the bird house, he popped in and like a farmer pitching hay, began to throw out the sparrow's nest. Out came the grasses, out came white feathers—this was too much for the sparrow. Back he darted, picked up a feather and pursued the wren far afield before returning to pop the precious feather back in again. But that bold little, brave little wren persisted and by now his own nest of twigs is completed.

I peeked in to-day and I'll tell you why. At noon, Goldy called, "Mother, there's that sparrow trying to get in again after all these days." I noticed his wings were spread and that there seemed a greater commotion than usual. I stole outdoors quietly and wasn't I glad, because that poor little fellow had got his head in and couldn't get it out! Goldy dashed up the tree like a squirrel and lowered the house. One of us held it while I held the tiny body of the bird to keep it from struggling. The little heart was throbbing and the claws almost tore me, so frantic was he to escape. I was afraid I'd wring his neck, but I suddenly gave the right twist and out came the head, its owner not a whit the worse for being so nearly hanged! I hope this will teach him a lesson, I think he makes little mother wren feel very unsafe.

I'll let you know when she hatches out her babies.

Summer COLDS

Quick Relief from any Cold, Sore Throat, Headache or Other Pain

DON'T treat a "slight cold" lightly! The discomfort of a summer cold can easily develop into dangerous illness if neglected. A tablet or two of Aspirin will check a cold as quickly as it came. And you will get immediate relief from the headache that goes with it. If there's a sore throat, too, crush 2 tablets in 4 tablespoons of water, and gargle. Those who have learned the true value of Aspirin are never without it in any season of the year. It's always ready to relieve headaches, neuritis, neuralgia, and a long list of aches and pains: see proven directions in each package. Aspirin does not depress the heart or upset the stomach. Druggists everywhere have it.

Acid Stomach

Excess acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, never continue to suffer, when you learn how quickly, how pleasantly this premier method acts. Please let it show you—now.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggists.

Millbrook

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Byam, and Mrs. R. J. Stillwell motored to Lindsay and Cambray recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Byam and other friends, Mrs. Stillwell going on to her sister's, Mrs. J. Graham, Port Perry, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Byam motored to Port Perry on Wednesday, their sister returning with them the same evening.

Mrs. L. S. Clarry is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max Cameron, Ottawa, the trip being made by motor.

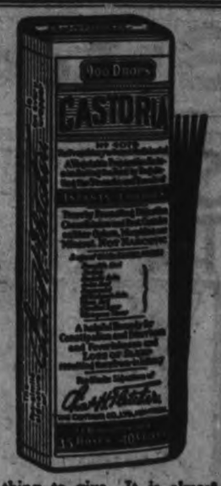
Mrs. Charles Larmer, and her sister, Miss Sadie Might, of Oshawa, were guests of friends in this vicinity for a brief stay this week, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Douglas, and two children, Marie and Hope, accompanying them home on Thursday, the return trip being made the following day.

Mrs. (Dr.) E. L. Burnham was the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. A. C. Darling, Peterborough, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Raper motored from Toronto and are guests of Mr. G. A. and Miss May Duncan, and other friends in town this week.

Master Leon Raper, of Toronto, is holidaying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mullen.

When Babies CRY



Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

HELEN AND CAROL ATTEND SERVICES

First Journey Together Regarded as Indicating Reconciliation.

ACCOMPANIED BY QUEEN.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, July 19 (C.P.)—Queen Helen accompanied King Carol to-day at the Requiem Memorial services for the late King Ferdinand; their first journey together, which the public regarded as an indication of their imminent reconciliation.

The Rumanian Royal pair, divorced when as Prince Carol, the husband, forsook his native country, were together on the train to Curtea de Arges. Others on the same train were Queen Marie, Prince Nicholas and Princes Ileana.

Indications of a gradual reconciliation had been given by both Helen and the King on Several occasions since he gave up the golden-haired Madame Macda Lupescu and executed the coup by which he gained the Rumanian Throne.

Ruth Gets 100 Runs In Big Six Circuit

Babe Ruth returned to action yesterday and gave his Big Six rivals something of a lesson in long-distance clouting. The Babe drove out his thirty-third home run, a triple and a double in five times at bat. His average went up four points to .368, and, although he remained last in the Big 6, he scored twice and became the first major leaguer of the year to reach the mark of 100 runs. His teammate, Lou Gehrig, went him one better with his twenty-fifth homer and two singles in 4 at bat, lifting his mark five points to .384. "Chuck" Klein also registered a gain, going up one point to .404, with home run number twenty-seven and a single in four times up. Frank O'Doul and Al Simmons held their marks at .407 and .382, respectively, still leading their leagues, as they each hit twice in five attempts. Babe Herman was the only loser, dropping two points to .385, as he hit but once in four tries.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 15 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

In the higher land that the tribe frequented was a little lake. Here it was that Tarzan first saw his face in the clear, still waters of his bosom. He was appalled! He turned red with shame as he compared his face and naked body with his more fortunate brother's.

So intent was he upon this personal appraisment of his features that he did not hear the parting of the tall grass behind him as a great body pushed itself stealthily through the jungle. Not thirty paces behind the two she crouched—Sabor, the huge lioness—lashing her tail.

Cautiously she moved a great padded paw forward, noiselessly placing it before she lifted the next. Thus she advanced—a great cat preparing to spring upon its prey. An instant she paused. Then with an awful scream—voiced to freeze her victim in a paralysis of terror—she sprang!

The little ape crouched trembingly. Not so Tarzan, the man-child. Before him lay the deep waters of the little lake—behind him certain death! Tarzan had always hated water. He could not swim. But before the great beast had covered half her leap, Tarzan felt the chill waters close above him.

Rapidly he moved his hands and feet. Soon his nose was above water. Sabor was intently watching. Tarzan raised his voice the tribal call of distress. Presently fifty great apes swung toward the scene. Then Sabor disappeared quickly into the brush and Tarzan swam happily to dry land.

The large square on the Canadian General Electric Company property in this city stretching from the main gate to the office building and from Park street to building No. 8 is to be levelled and converted into a beautiful grass lawn. The T. A. Brown Company which is also constructing the C. G. E. Works Avenue through the property, has the contract for the job.

MISS BENNETT!

Miss Bennett, charming sister of Canada's Conservative leader, will be here on Tuesday to supplement the presence of the Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests, who is speaking at the Grand on behalf of the candidacy of E. A. Peck.

In addition to Tuesday's mass meeting, Mr. Peck will hold at least four other gatherings in the concluding week of his campaign. On Monday he journeys to Hall's Bridge (Buckhorn); on Wednesday to Lakefield; and on Friday to Keene. A Thursday meeting at Indian River is being mooted.

Mr. Peck's campaign will come to a conclusion on Saturday night with an organization rally in the Conservative Committee Rooms.

PRIDE OF THE CITY.

The parents of Terence Wilson Fox, who won second prize for Canadian children in the great International Photographers' Contest to find the "most attractive child in North America," and the parents of Dorothy May Dewdney, who was third, are receiving the congratulations of the whole city. Peterborough gained much valuable publicity due to the success of the two local kiddies in ranking so high among the more than 20,000 photographs of beautiful children that were submitted from all over Canada and the United States. Both photographs of the winners were the work of, and sent in by, the Roy Studio.

Havelock Youth Is Killed by Train

VICTOR WRIGHT RETURNING FROM TRAINING CAMP

Accident Occurs About Mile and Half East of Stirling on C. N. R.

AT BARRIEFIELD.

Believe Boy Lost His Balance When Train Made Sharp Turn.

HAVELOCK, July 21 (Examiner Correspondence).—Victor Wright, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wright of Havelock, was almost instantly killed on Saturday afternoon about 1.30, when he fell from a train, returning from Barriefield, where he and twelve other Havelock boys had been in training for the past two weeks with the Northumberland Regiment.

The accident occurred about 1½ miles east of Stirling on the Canadian National Railway. According to the boys who were with him at the time, the dead boy had been sitting on the step of the train. On rounding a short curve approaching a bridge, he must have lost his balance, and in attempting to save himself caught at the hand rail.

Feet Caught in Bridge

It is thought his feet must have caught in the timbers of the bridge. His right forearm was wrenched from the socket, and his head struck a bolt in the bridge. Frank Mason of Campbellford, who was sitting on the top step, saw him falling, and raised the alarm. The train was stopped, and backed up to the spot near the bridge, where he was found unconscious, with a large gash in the right temple. He was taken to Stirling station and died upon arrival there. The coroner viewed the remains, and released the body for burial. An inquest will be held some time during the week.

A week ago last Tuesday, Victor and twelve other boys of teen age left for Barriefield training camp, where they spent ten days. On Saturday morning early they broke camp and for this reason were required to be up earlier than usual, rising at about four o'clock. Some of the boys say that Victor complained of not feeling very well, and went out to a get a little fresh air on the platform of the train. A close chum of his, Billie Rose of Havelock, went out onto the platform with him, but had returned to the car, shortly before the accident. Victor was a third year high school student, and of a particularly light-hearted merry disposition. His tragic death has cast a deep gloom over this entire community.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon, at 2.30, from the family residence, to the Presbyterian Church. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

The inquest was adjourned until Tuesday, July 22nd, when it will be continued at the Police Station, conducted by the Crown Attorney, Col. W. F. Boggs.

QUARREL ENDS IN TWO DEATHS

Moncton Man Shoots Woman, Wounds Another After Argument.

TURNS GUN ON SELF.

MONCTON, N. B., July 21.—Mrs. Etta Fitzsimmons, 60 years old, a widow, and I. Newton Wilbur, 38 years old, are dead, and Mrs. Dolly Nestor, 35 years old, daughter of Mrs. Fitzsimmons, is in the hospital suffering from bullet wounds as the result of a shooting affray at the home of Mrs. Nestor here Saturday night.

According to information given police, Mrs. Nestor and Wilbur had quarrelled, and on Saturday night the man went to the Nestor home on Steadman Street, and tried to effect a reconciliation. Mrs. Nestor's mother was with her daughter at the time. Wilbur, it appears, talked with Mrs. Nestor some twenty minutes and then he drew a revolver and began shooting. Mrs. Fitzsimmons fell dead and two shots struck Mrs. Nestor.

This trophy, presented by the Duke of Montrose, is open only to women who have never won a prize with the service or miniature rifle at the N. R. A. shoot.

HONEY CAN BE USED INSTEAD OF CANE SUGAR

T. H. Shield Points Out the Need of Greater Consumption in This Country.

A FINE ADDRESS.

Canadians Use Less Than Two Pounds a Year Per Capita.

That Canada's honey problem was not over-production but under-consumption, was the argument of Thomas H. Shield in the course of a most interesting address before the Peterborough Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon to-day. "The consumption of honey in this country represents only one and three-quarter pounds per capita each year," said Mr. Shield, "while the consumption of cane sugar works out at the rate of 106 pounds per head."

The speaker, who was introduced by Past President Ross L. Dobbin, prefaced his remarks upon honey by a most entertaining description of a bee colony, with the queen bee, whose sole task was to lay eggs; the worker bees, which did all the work within the hive, and the drones. A colony of bees ran from 75,000 to 100,000 bees, Mr. Shield remarked, and the queen bee laid double her weight in eggs every twenty-four hours. His description of the various activities of the bee colony, the manner in which bees' wax was made, the gathering of the nectar and pollen, the ventilation of the hive by the fanning wings of the worker bees, and many other facts unknown to most of his audience was most entertaining.

Speaking of honey, Mr. Shield pointed out that it was not touched by the hand of man but was as pure as the bee made it. Honey contained two natural sugars, a quantity of valuable minerals, and the valuable vitamine B. It was a natural sweet as opposed to cane sugar, which was an artificial product in the preparation of which both the minerals and the vitamines were destroyed. Again, while honey was immediately absorbed by the system, cane sugar had to undergo in the stomach the process of being resolved back into its original form.

Mr. Shield informed his audience that honey could with advantage be substituted for sugar in many ways. It could be used with fruit or cereals, in tea or coffee and in many other methods. The problem before the

CITIZENS WANT 27 FOOT PAVING

Special Meeting of Board of Works Called to Deal With Petition.

ON PARK HILL ROAD.

An unforseen paving problem is presenting itself to the Board of Works to-night for decision. This follows on the expressed desire of Park Hill Road residents that the width of the paving on that road be 27 feet rather than twenty.

According to the agreement drawn up between the City Council and the Warren Paving Company, the width of the paving on Armour Road and Park Hill Road was fixed at 20 feet. The Warren Company went ahead with its preliminary work on this requirement and was all prepared to begin pouring cement to-morrow.

However during the week end the residents of Park Hill Road must have got together, for this morning Chairman Huffman of the Board of Works received a petition signed by every resident but one on the street requesting that the pavement be widened another seven feet. Chairman Huffman immediately called a meeting of the Board of Works for this evening to settle the matter.

ACCLAMATION IN LABELLE LOOMS FOR H. BOURASSA

Four of 171 Divisions Nominating To-day Returns Two Members Each.

3 WOMEN RUN IN ONTARIO.

Maritimes Appear Straight Liberal and Conservative Fights.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21 (By George Hambleton, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — At two o'clock (standard time) this afternoon, nominations closed for the Federal elections and the campaign enters its last lap. Divisions nominating to-day total 171, four of them returning two members each. Seventy divisions nominated last Monday. Indications this morning are that, unless there is a late-hour nomination of an opposing candidate, Henri Bourassa is likely to get an acclamation in Labelle. Mr. Bourassa stands as an Independent. Should Mr. Bourassa get an acclamation, he will be the second candidate returned unopposed. Robert Gardiner, Leader of the United Farmers of Alberta, got an acclamation in the nominations a week ago.

Straight Fights in Ontario.

To judge from candidates already in the field, the probability is that in the Maritime Provinces the fights will be straight party fights between Liberals and Conservatives. In Quebec a number of Independent candidates of varying shades are in the field. In Montreal, two women candidates are running, one as a straight official Liberal, the other as an Independent. Ontario generally has straight fights, with three women candidates announced.

Only seventeen Western constituencies nominate to-day. Of the total 68 Western constituencies, 51 nominated a week ago. In eight of the seventeen nominating to-day, three-cornered fights are expected. Five of the eight are in Winnipeg. In sven British Columbia ridings nominating to-day, three will have more than two candidates.

Lively Final Week.

Party organizations are preparing for lively battles throughout the coming week. Practically every member of the Ontario Government will be on the stump. Premier Taschereau, of Quebec, campaigning during the week-end in Charlevoix-Montmorency, described Premier King as a "friend of our race." He charged that the first thing Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan had done was to attempt to take the crucifixes out of the French schools of Saskatchewan. "When Mr. Bennett went to Saskatchewan," Premier Taschereau proceeded, "who stood by his side on the platform? It was the same Premier Anderson. Are we to place our French-Canadian rights, our traditions and our future in such hands?"

IMPORTANT CHANGES.

TORONTO, Ont., July 21 (C.P.) — In an article published in its news column to-day The Toronto Telegram predicts important political changes in connection with the appointment to the High Commissionership at London of Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian plenipotentiary to the United States at Washington.

Hon. W. D. Ross, at present Lieutenant Governor, will go to Washington in succession to Mr. Massey, according to the paper, and will be followed in Government House here by R. S. McLaughlin, President of General Motors, Oshawa, Ont.

AUTO EXPORT IS ALMOST CUT IN HALF FROM 1929

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21 (C.P.) — Total Canadian exports of vehicles, including automobiles during June amounted, in value, to $1,674,429, it was shown in a report issued to-day by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The corresponding figure for May, 1930, was $1,517,778, and for June, 1929, $3,674,361.

The total number of trucks exported during the month was 1,420, compared to 893 in the previous month, and 2,873 for the same month a year ago. Passenger automobiles exported totalled 2,040 compared to 2,131 in May and 5,346 in June, 1929.

RIOTER SLAIN, 87 HURT IN CLIMAX OF POLITICAL SITUATION IN CAIRO

Troops, Civil Police and Thousands of Students Battle For Upper Hand.

KING FAUD PETITIONED.

One rioter was killed and 87 injured, 27 seriously, by gunfire and missiles during severe rioting which climaxed the political situation here to-day.

With troops, civil police, and excited students by thousands struggling for the upper hand along the principal streets of Cairo, great damage to property was caused.

In one thoroughfare hardly a window remained unbroken in the showers of stones and other objects hurled by the rioters.

Rifles Used Freely.

The troops were obliged to use their rifles freely. So severe was the encounter that after the police had obtained the upper hand emergency relief squads lined some of the streets treating the injured, of whom many more than a score were taken to hospitals. Losses on the side of the police and troops were not made known. The rioting crowds, furious when news spread that the followers of former Premier Nahas Pasha had called off their proposed "outlaw" Parliament session, ripped up lamp-posts, barricaded a street with every obstruction they could lay hands on and set fire to an escaping gas column which, however, the police extinguished after a severe attack which dispersed the students.

Urge Special Session

CAIRO, Egypt, July 21. —(CP)— The members of the Chamber of Deputies which was proroqued last week, today presented a petition to King Fuad to convene an extraordinary session of Parliament on Saturday for solution of Egyptian political strife.

20 Shot at Port Said

PORT SAID, July 21. — (CP) — Twenty persons were injured, six seriously, when Egyptian troops fired on a mob during rioting in the native quarter here this forenoon. Sixteen police also were injured before the disturbance was quelled.

Giant Hail Stones Sweep Over Sorel

SOREL, Que., July 21 (C.P.).— A sudden tropical storm lasting only ten minutes, during which hailstones as large as tennis balls, bombarded this district, broke out late yesterday and caused considerable damage to buildings, automobiles and crops. Only a few minor personal injuries were reported, several people who were slow in taking cover getting bruised by the hail.

The storm came at a time when the thermometers were registering 90 degrees fahrenheit.

Big Railway Strike Threatens Ireland

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 21.— (CP)—A resolution calling for a general strike on the Great Southern Railway system or Ireland unless dismissed workers were not immediately reinstated was passed last night by a mass meeting of Irish railwaymen. The strike was scheduled to begin at midnight to-night and would tie up rail traffic all over the southern and western part of the Irish Free State.

60-TON WHALE IS ON EXHIBIT AT C. N. R. SHEDS

Great Sea Monster Was Caught in Pacific Ocean Last July.

17-HOUR BATTLE.

5,600 Gallons of Formaldehyde Used to Preserve Body of Monster.

Old Jev athan is in a tank on Charlotte Street for three days, beginning to-day, but he wont wallow—he's been dead for over a year.

Although not Jonah's whale nor famed Mobey Dick, the 60-ton monster in his car on a siding at the C.N.R. freight sheds is of sufficient proportions to command respect and to attract a continuous crowd of curiosity-seekers. Caught off San Clemente Island in the blue Pacific last July, the Grey Whale—smallest of the 27 species of whale—which arrived in Peterborough at 8 o'clock this morning, was shot with a harpoon fired from a high-pressure gun and gave his would-be captors a 17-hour battle before he succumbed.

A far cry from the hand-thrown harpoon of whaling's heyday, the harpoon used for the purpose to-day weighs 150 pounds, and bears a nitro-glycerine shrapnel shell at its business end. The shrapnel was dispensed with as too destructive in obtaining the present specimen for exhibition purposes. Towed in from sea and lifted by a huge electric crane at the Los Angeles Shipbuilding Yards, the whale was placed in the special steel railway car in which it is to be seen to-day.

FOUR ARE KILLED AS CIRCUS TRAIN PILES INTO DITCH

Cobourg Man Listed Among 17 Injured in Crash Near Moncton.

NO ANIMALS HURT.

All Victims, Except One Young Trespasser Al. G. Barnes' Employees.

MONCTON, N.B., July 21. — Four men are dead and seventeen others are in the City Hospital here suffering from injuries as the result of a train wreck on the main line of the Canadian National Railways at Canaan, fourteen miles north of this city, at 7 o'clock on Sunday morning. The derailed train was a special carrying the Al G. Barnes Circus from Newcastle to Charlottetown, and, with one exception, all the dead and injured were employees of the circus. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

The dead are: Albert Johnson and Frank Finnigan, Los Angeles, Cal., employed as propmen; J. McFarland a waiter, home believed to be in either Toronto, Welland, or Montreal —he died a few hours after admission to the hospital with a fractured skull; and James Arthur Stephens, a one-armed young man, believed through identification papers found on the body, to belong to Fredericton, N.B. He was not employed with the circus, and the belief is he was trespassing on the train. The first-named two were badly injured about the head and body, while the latter was injured internally.

The injured include Axel Martin Neilson, whose address is given as Cobourg, Ont. The others are from the United States.

The train consisted of 29 cars, and the nine derailed cars were behind the seventeenth one from the engine. Of the derailed cars, five were flat cars and four passenger cars. The three men killed outright were on one of the flat cars.

Doctors and nurses were rushed on a special relief train to the scene of the disaster, where the injured were given first aid and then brought to the Moncton Hospital.

Auxiliary trains were rushed to the scene from Moncton and Campbellton, and the track was cleared again for traffic shortly after 4 p.m. None of the animals sustained injuries.

DUFFUS AND PECK ENTER THE FIGHT

Official Nomination of Candidates is Held in Legion Hall.

THREE IN NORTHUMBERLAND

The political pot began to boil with fresh energy to-day as official nominations were held throughout Canada and the campaign fight swung into its last week. Candidates in each riding took a breather to file their papers and then marshalled their ranks anew for the final spurt to the polls.

Nominations passed quietly here and nothing occurred to disturb the peace around the Canadian Legion Hall where the papers were filed. E. A. Peck, ex-M.P., was officially decuared the Conservative candidate, and J. J. Duffus the Liberal standard bearer.

A few old political war horses idly lounged in the seats and raised a smoke cloud from their pipes and cigars while they discussed with guarded whispers the prospects of the two candidates. One with a glint in his eye expressed the hope that a dark horse might enter the fight at the last moment and put a little more dash into a campaign that locally, he thought, was too tame. However, none appeared and as expected Peterborough voters will have to choose between Duffus and Peck.

In the other ridings the same proceedings were taking place, but in several the atmosphere was a little more clouded. This was especially true at Warkworth where the nominations for Northumberland was held. There Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald entered as a Progressive-Liberal and is causing some worry to both candidates. W. A. Fraser was nominated on the Liberal ticket and W. E. Maybee, who had a majority of 386 votes last election, will again carry the hopes of the Conservatives.

Nominated at Orono for Durham County were M. J. Holman, Liberal, and F. W. Bowen, Conservatives. Bowen carried the 1926 election by a majority of 1484.

Six Fall To Death As Wings Tear Off Big Junkers Plane

Marquis of Dufferin, Viscountess Ednam, Sir Edward Ward and Mrs. H. Loeffler All Returning From French Resort When Overtaken By Disaster Above Tiny Hamlet.

NOTED FLYER, LT.-COL. G. P. HENDERSON AND ASSISTANT PILOT SHEARING PERISH — FIFTH PASSENGER MISSING

Witnesses Claim Wings Separated From Fuselage and Cabin After Terrific Roar—Parts Float Down 2 Miles From Scene—Marquis of Dufferin Honorary Colonel of Canadian Regiment.

MEOPHAM, Kent, Eng., July 21.—(CP)—Six persons, including three titled Britishers, were killed when a Junkers passenger airplane exploded in mid-air over this hamlet this afternoon. The victims, blown from the cabin fell in a heap in a cottage orchard. Force of the blast carried pieces of the plane two miles from the scene, aided by the terrific speed of the "air taxi" which was bound from Le Touquet, France, to Croydon.

THE DEAD

The identified victims were: The Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, 42; Viscountess Ednam, wife of William Humble Eric Ward, daughter-in-law of the Earl of Dudley. Sir Edward Ward, 48, prominent figure in the Great War. Mrs. Henrik Loeffler of 51 Grosvenor Square, Mayfair. Lieut. Col. George L. P. Henderson, principal of the Henderson flying school and pilot of the plane. Shearing, assistant pilot.

A fifth passenger reported in the plane was not accounted for in the list.

Because of the nature of the disaster itself, it was virtually impossible to identify the victims at first.

Terrific Roar.

Witnesses said there was a terrific roar. The wings separate from the cabin and the fuselage, containing the passengers, fell straight down, while the other parts of the machine floated off to some distance. One wing came to earth two miles from the scene of the crash.

The second pilot, whose name was believed to be Shearing, was one of the victims.

The plane, all metal, did not catch fire. It was said the machine belonged to the Henderson Flying Bureau, of which the dead pilot was head, and had been lent to the Walcot Company as traffic from Le Touquet to-day was particularly heavy.

Reports of the identity of the passengers said they all belonged to one party of prominent British society folk journeying home together from the French resort.

Officer of Canadian Regiment.

The Marquis of Dufferin, son of the Earl of Dufferin, who was appointed Governor-General of Canada in 1872, is Honorary Colonel of the Dufferin Rifles, a regiment of the Canadian non-permanent active militia.

ILLINOIS FAMILY KILLED WITH AXE HOUSE SET AFIRE

Neighbors Roused By Flames Succeed in Saving Dwelling.

WOMAN'S BROTHER HELD.

Hatchet Found Beside Mrs. Anderson—Son's and Husband's Beds Fired.

CHICAGO, Ills., July 21 (C. P.). — Charles A. Anderson, well-to-do farmer, his wife and their 18-year-old son, were hacked to death with an axe or hatchet in their farm home near Lake Geneva early to-day. The house was set afire to hide the crime.

Sight of the flames aroused the neighbors, who arrived at the farm in time to save the house.

Breaking into the dwelling with the aid of Charles Larsen, a brother of Mrs. Anderson, neighbors found the body of Anderson, 55 years old, across his bed, hacked about the head and body.

Son Alive When Found.

In another room was Willis, the son, similarly wounded, but still alive. On the floor of the living-room lay Mrs. Anderson, 48 years old, her wrists and throat cut. Beside her lay a bloody hatchet.

The son died without regaining consciousness. The mattress of his bed, as well as the bed of Anderson, had been set afire. The smoke had awakened Larsen, he told sheriff's officers. He was being detained early to-day for questioning.

ASK DR. YOUNG TO APOLOGIZE

Would Have Saskatoon Liberal Candidate Repair Mennonite Insults.

PREMIER EXPLAINS.

SASKATOON, Sask., July 21.—(C. P.)—Dr. A. Young, Liberal candidate in Saskatoon constituency has been "invited to apologize for his insults" to Mennonites of Saskatchewan. On posters issued by the Osler Federal Conservative Association the Liberal nominee is invited to speak on the same platform with Abe Driedger and A. J. Sawotzky, former members of the Liberal executive for Saskatoon constituency.

Recently, Dr. Young charges that Premier J. T. M. Anderson, of Saskatchewan had endeavored to turn Mennonite votes against him by offers of school grants and land concessions. The Premier answered that the offers had been made in the interests of the Mennonites after investigation of their needs long before a Dominion election was believed in the offing.

URGE LABOR TO VOTE LIBERAL.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 21 (C.P.).— Laborites were urged to vote the Liberal ticket in Winnipeg South at a meeting addressed by H. G. Wyatt, prominent member of the Independent Labor Party. Mr. Wyatt charged that C. A. Tanner was running as a Labor candidate without the backing of Labor. Members of the Labor party knew nothing of his candidature, Mr. Wyatt said.

FINLAYSON HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

Big Conservative Rally Will Be Held in Grand Opera House.

MORRISON COMING.

Arrangements are completed for the Conservative Mass Meeting in the Grand Opera House to-morrow night, when citizens of Peterborough and district will not only be able to hear the issues of the day discussed by Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests; Wm. Morrison, M.P.P., of Hamilton; Mrs. Howard Fallis, and the Conservative Candidate, E. A. Peck, but will also have the opportunity of welcoming the charming sister of the Conservative chieftain, Miss Mildred Bennett. The latter has kindly accepted the invitation of the local committee and Peterborough women Conservatives are preparing to give her a royal welcome.

The meeting will be the "big" one of Mr. Peck's campaign. Mr. Finlayson, one of the most popular members of the Ontario Cabinet, is well known as an eloquent and forcible orator; Mrs. Fallis needs no introduction to a Peterborough audience, and Mr. Morrison has made a name for himself in the Legislature.

Thieves Ransack Hotel's Kitchen

LINDSAY, July 21. — Henry Brooks, proprietor of the Brooks House, found his larders and kitchens ransacked here after thieves had entered during the night. They had taken everything in the way of food that they could find, even coffee, tea and sugar being stolen.

SPEAKERS SCOUT DUNNING BUDGET AT TORY RALLY

Conservative Speakers Style Liberal Patriotism a 'Bogey.'

NO HELP TO MOTHERLAND.

If You Are Out of Work Blame Mackenzie King Says Helson.

The influx of foreign goods with resulting industrial paralysis and unemployment in this country were seen as direct results of Liberal policies by speakers at a rally on Saturday night in the Conservative Committee Rooms here on behalf of the candidacy of E. A. Peck in Peterborough West. The Dunning budget was scouted and Liberal appeals to patriotism styled "a bogey" and "the last resort" by Tory speakers, including Frank Millard, G. A. Helson, Charles Lloyd, J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., and Gordon S. Matthews.

"Mackenzie King had a great deal to say at Brantford and elsewhere about 'the splendid record of the Liberal administration'," declared E. A. Peck. "In view of the fact that wherever I go I find agriculturalists dispirited, unemployed men walking the streets, and industry paralyzed, I fail to see much to boast of in such a record."

But the Prime Minister had had true conditions brought to his attention, asserted the speaker, and "he was stating at Brantford something which he knew to be deliberately untrue." Canada did not want such a man at the helm, nor did the people want four more years of "the gross mismanagement of affairs by the Liberal Party."

Little Bit of a Joke

The Dunning budget was characterized by Mr. Peck as "a little bit of a joke put out as a last resort with a view to fooling the people. It is only a piece of shoddy goods," he said; "it won't wear." It merely "pared down" duties on the great mass of foreign goods, while the long list of British goods to be admitted free included many—such as wheat, rye, vegetables, and fruits—which Britain would never send here.

"I very strongly resent the imputation," declared Mr. Peck, referring to a recent Liberal poster bearing the words "Patriotism before Party." He yielded place to no one in his love for the Motherland, he said. It was not long since Mackenzie King and his colleagues had sought a close alliance with the U. S., without giving a moment's thought to Great Britain.

"The job of an elected representative," contended Mr. Peck, "is to look after the interests of the people he represents. Or first duty is to Canada."

Gordon S. Matthews, in the chair, asserted that the Premier hadn't been obliged to call an election this year—"he was frightened into it because he knew conditions were going to be worse."

Frank Millard cited Dunning's Cobourg address as a speech "you could be cut out of a newspaper 25 years ago."

BRITISH PREFERENCE HAS BROUGHT CANADA INDUSTRIES SAYS MR. HALL

Hope to Teach U. S. a Lesson, Liberal Rally is Told.

McMURRAY AIDS DUFFUS.

The importance of the British preference and Empire trade as inducements to American manufacturers to locate branch factories in Canada was emphasized by R. R. Hall, K.C., at the Liberal rally Saturday night.

"We have in Peterborough factories like the Quaker Oats Company and others giving employment to many of our citizens, which located here because they could do more profitable business within the Empire by having branches in Canada," Mr. Hall said. "The King Government in its British trade appeal is doing something in which every man in the Dominion is interested and should vote for in order that it may be carried into effect. We have 450,000,000 people in the British Empire to appeal to, offering a trade which we can open up to the great advantage of the people of Canada."

The Dunning Budget, said Mr. Hall, was designed to divert from the United States to Great Britain trade amounting to $250,000,000 because of the fact that the new United States tariff deprived the farmers of this country of a market for their products. Senator George of Georgia recently made the declaration that the existing U.S. tariff was the greediest tariff ever enacted by a civilized nation. They must expect to lose a large amount of our trade, and leading newspapers and public men in the United States were finding fault with President Hoover because of the new tariff.

"By means of the Dunning Budget we hope to teach the United States a lesson. We are telling them that if they will not buy our farm products there are certain classes of manufactured articles which we will not buy from them.

Thirty years ago I heard Sir Wilfrid Laurier say that the nineteenth century belonged to the United States, but the twentieth century would be canada's. Only thirty years of this century have gone by and what do we find. We find that the total trade of the United States in 1900 was $400,000,000 less than the total trade of Canada in 1930. Everything that could be done by thoughtful men has been exercised by the King Government for the advancement of this country. We give full credit to the Prime Minister, but we should remember that he has the quality of associating himself with able and aggressive men such as the late Mr. Fielding, Mr. Robb and now the Hon. Mr. Dunning.

Praises Mr. Dunning.

I met Mr. Dunning twenty-seven years ago in Regina, then but a town, and he struck me as one of the most aggressive young Englishmen who had ever touched Canadian soil. He is a Britisher through and through, not of a narrow type, but one who has a broad view of the whole country and who is thoroughly sympathetic with the Moth-

FERGUSON GIVES EXPLANATION OF SIFTON ATTACK

Saved Ontario $50,000 Which Would Have Gone Out of Province.

COMPARES RECORDS.

Premier Urges Readjustment of Tariff to Protect Canada's Industries.

(By Frank Flaherty C. P. Staff Writer)

KENORA, July 21. — Because he used his influence to bring about the cancellation of the charter of the Georgian Bay Canal, he has been subject to the "bitterest villification" from the Sifton interests, Premier G. Howard Ferguson declared here Saturday night. On his visit to the extreme western end of the Province of Ontario he was met by a lengthy editorial in the Manitoba Free Press, which, he said, was typical of the attacks he had to face all through his life and against which he had always been vindicated by the people of Ontario.

Saved Ontario $50,000,000

"This paper", he said, devotes so much space and attention to me today that I have almost a complete personal edition filled with vituperation, bitterness and abuse. I do not blame the Free Press for being as bitterly opposed to me as it possibly can, for it is owned by the Sifton interests, and I have been instrumental in saving the Province of Ontario almost fifty million dollars which the Sifton people wanted to take out of our public assets and give nothing in return".

The Governments of Ontario and Quebec, he said had protested to Parliament and used all their influence to prevent renewal of the charter for the construction of Georgian Bay Canal, which was controlled by the Sifton family. He personally had taken an open and active part and the Dominion Parliament has refused to renew the charter.

He then read a letter from Harry Sifton to Martin Insull of Chicago offering to make an arrangement for joint development of power on the Ottawa River in connection with the Georgian Bay scheme. The power to be developed was conservatively estimated at 1,000,000 horsepower, worth approximately one hundred million dollars.

"Because they were not able to get it", said the Premier "and because Ferguson prevented them, the Free Press and all the cohorts of the Siftons turn their guns on Ferguson. That is all I have to say about the Siftons and I don't care a rap for them. But I think my record in public service will compare favorably with that of any Sifton.

Attacks Tariff Policy

Attacking the tariff policy of the King Government, Mr. Ferguson said in the seven years since 1923 imports into Canada had increased from four hundred and fifty million dollars to nine hundred and fifty million dollars, and 60 per cent of the total consisted of articles which could be made in Canada, instead of making the products they needed at home and giving work to Canadians the Canadian people were sending their money abroad.

What was needed was a readjustment of the tariff which would protect Canadian industries. This would solve the unemployment situation and would be brought about immediately if the Conservative Party was returned to power as Hon. R. B. Bennett planned to call a special session of Parliament.

FORTIER NAMED IN OUTREMONT

Becomes Conservative Candidate After J. E. Bumbray Withdraws.

OTHER CHANGES.

MONTREAL, July 21. (C.P.) — The situation in Laurier-Outremont division took on a new aspect to-day, when Hector Fortier was announced as the Conservative party choice in the coming general elections. J. E. C. Bumbray, K.C., was chosen at the regular convention some weeks ago. A section of the party headed by J. A. Shinnick, objected to the conduct of the convention and Mr. Shinnick was placed in the field as an independent Conservative.

Mr. Bumbray withdrew early this week and now Mr. Fortier has been made the official choice.

It was announced in Conservative circles yesterday that Horace Gagne, K.C., would be the official Conservative candidate in Audreuil-Soulanges.

In St. John's-Iberville, where Dr. A. J. Benoit, Liberal member in the last parliament, has decided not to offer himself for re-election. Martial Rheume, St. Johns, merchant, will be the official candidate.

U. S. SENATE DEADLOCKED ON LONDON NAVAL PACT

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—(CP)—The Senate settled down to an endurance contest of its own today and wondered how much more time must elapse before the voluble foes of the London Naval Treaty run out of words or breath.

Murmurs of "filibuster" were heard with increasing frequency but the doughty leaders of the opposition vigorously denied they are following any such course.

Another twelve-hour session lay before the Legislators and the protreaty forces were hopeful that by adjournment tonight the verbal outflow would be nearly exhausted.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21 (C.P.).—"The crop situation generally is most excellent in the Maritimes," declared Dr. J. H. Grisdale, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, on his return from a tour of the East. "I do not ever remember seeing much better at this time of the year," he added. "There is every promise of an excellent harvest in each of the three provinces from all the crops."

"Fruit in Nova Scotia will not be as heavy a crop as last year, but will, if one may judge by present appearance, be of a much superior quality. The outlook at the present time is most optimistic.

"Forage crops are very satisfactory indeed, that is hay, roots and corn. Some of the best crops of corn I have seen this year I found in Nova Scotia.

"Potatoes are quite up to the average. I found a very decided appearance of optimism among the farmers in the Maritime Provinces," Dr. Grisdale said, "and crop prospects in this area are very good indeed."

CHICAGO, Ills., July 21 (C.P.) — Prominent John H. Roemer, wealthy clubman and well-known corporation lawyer, was shot and probably fatally wounded early to-day by a policeman in the busy uptown section of Sheridan road, Broadway and Monrose avenue.

Roemer was holding the point of a pistol against the head of a young woman when Officer Edward Strandberg ran up, deflecting the aim just as the 60-year-old attorney pulled the trigger. Roemer then turned the gun toward the policeman, who opened fire. Bullets from the officer's weapon entered Roemer's head, and doctors doubted if he would survive.

"I don't know why I tried to kill her. I had never seen her before," police quoted Roemer as saying at the hospital. I had been drinking. I didn't know what I was doing."

VOTE LIBERAL IS CRY TO QUEBEC OF TASCHEREAU

Urges French-Canadians to Support Premier Mackenzie King.

ASSAILS ANDERSON.

Claims People Must Protect Their Heritage of Custom and Faith.

(By Wallace H. Ward, C. P. Staff Correspondent)

STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE, Que., July 21.—A cry to French-Canadians to safeguard their traditional rights to protect their heritage of custom and faith, by returning Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King and his Government to office climaxed an address delivered yesterday by Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Prime Minister of Quebec, on behalf of Pierre Casgrain, seeking re-election in the riding of Charlevoix-Saguenay, in Montmorency County.

"Mackenzie King is a friend of our race. He respects our traditions, reverences all that we hold sacred, and merits your support," said Premier Taschereau. "I have nothing to say against Mr. Bennett" he continued, "but I must say I don't like his friends."

Anderson Under Fire

Premier Anderson, leader of the Conservative Government in Saskatchewan, came under fire of the Quebec Premier. The first thing Mr. Anderson did was to attempt to take the crucifixes out of the French schools of that Western Province, said Mr. Taschereau. "When Mr. Bennett went to Saskatchewan, who stood by his side on the platform, it was the same Premier Anderson. Are we to place our French-Canadian rights, our traditions and our future welfare in such hands"?

"You French-Canadians standing before me, you mother and fathers, do you realize the responsibilities upon your shoulders"? asked the Premier. "It rests with you how your children should be brought up. You are responsible for their education and spiritual welfare. You must see that they in turn become worthy members of our race. Think well before you decide which Government you endorse".

"They cry unemployment and butter", said Mr. Taschereau, who maintained that there was no more unemployment in the Province of Quebec than there was in any other place on this continent or in Europe.

SIFTON ANSWERS ONTARIO PREMIER

Claims Insult Negotiations on Georgian Bay Charter a Banking Proposition.

FERGUSON SEEMS FRIENDLY.

TORONTO, Ont., July 21.—(C.P.)—Harry Sifton of Toronto has replied to a statement made by Premier G. Howard Ferguson at Port Arthur Friday night in which Mr. Ferguson, after reading a letter from Mr. Sifton to Samuell Insull, Chicago power magnate, is reported to have said Mr. Sifton was 'the man who a few years ago wanted to develop 900,000 Horse power through the Georgian Bay canal and barter it away to United States' interests."

Mr. Sifton stated he got in touch with Mr. Insull on a purely banking proposition connected with the development of power on the Georgian Bay canal charter which is in the possession of the Sifton family.

"It was simply a question of supplying the necessary funds, Mr. Sifton said, "but when it told him that the underlying conditions must be that the Board of Directors should be Canadians, that no power was to be exported out of Canada, and the rates to be charged for power were to be set by the Dominion Railway Board, he was not interested, and there were no further dealings with mim.

"It is to be noted," concluded Mr. Sifton, "that the relatinship between Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Insull appears to be so close that Mr. Insull's personal letters are known and available to Mr. Ferguson."

WINNIPEG, Man., July 22.—(C.P.)—Farmers of the west are rejoicing after one of the best general rains of an in-and-out crop season. The downpour, concentrated almost to a brief deluge in some areas, came to many farmers as salvation for a time from threatening drought. Most of the sections where rains were only light were not pressed for moisture.

The Only Sure Way To Empire Trade Is Vote Bennett

The most grotesquely unfair and unreasonable feature of Liberal tactics in this campaign is the attempt that is being made to pin a label of disloyalty upon the coat of Hon. R. B. Bennett and those who believe with him that lasting Empire trade can only be secured and maintained under a system of reciprocal preferences, mutually advantageous.

Strange indeed is the spectacle of Mr. King and Mr. Lapointe who only yesterday were rejoicing that the British Empire had been replaced by the British Commonwealth of Nations now cheering for the Empire and waving the Union Jack as they and their followers try to delude the people of Canada in to believing that Mr. Bennett is disloyal.

THE BRITISHER IS NOT DISLOYAL TO HIS EMPIRE when he believes that Empire Trade can be most firmly based upon RECIPROCAL AGREEMENTS WHICH ARE MUTUALLY ADVANTAGEOUS.

That was one of the first doctrines accepted by those who joined Lord Beaverbrook's crusade for Empire Trade.

The BRITISHER IS NOT DISLOYAL to his Empire when he believes with Stanley Baldwin that there must be such a GIVE-AND-TAKE in order to ensure permanence for inter-Empire agreements.

The BRITISHER IS NOT DISLOYAL TO HIS EMPIRE when he accepts a verdict recently announced by the greatest financers in England that however much they may look forward to ultimate free trade, world conditions, as they are today, force them to the conclusion that there should be a union of the British countries SUCH AS IS NOT ATTAINABLE EXCEPT THROUGH RECIPROCAL PREFERENCES WHICH ARE MUTUALLY ADVANTAGEOUS.

The trend of British opinion is following the lines enunciated by Mr. Baldwin in the Motherland and by Mr. Bennett in Canada and to describe the followers of either as disloyal to the British Empire is the resort of desperate politicians or the hysteria of muddled thinkers.

If you believe in Empire trade founded upon commonsense principles your duty is clear.

That duty is to vote Conservative and for a business-like treatment of a business proposition.

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, July 21.—It was a runaway market Saturday in the corn trade, with a tumultuous rush of buying, and prices showing a decided tendency to soar. The climax came when the weekly official weather forecast was issued, shutting off hopes which previously were held that a general break-up of excessive heat and drought, damaging to crop might be looked for soon. A maximum jump of nearly 4c. a bushel over yesterday's finish on corn resulted, with wheat values stormgly sympathizing.

—Corn Rises ¾c to 3⅝.

Closing quotations on corn were nervous at ⅝c to ⅝c a bushel, net advance, and more than 7c up from this weeks bottom figures. Wheat closed unsettled, ½c to 1⅝c over yesterday's finish, oats showing ½c to 1 1-8c. gain and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, July 21.—Wheat prices continued their march into higher ground Saturday to the tune of an overnight export business of close to 2,000,000 bushels of Manitobas. Although bears managed to clip off opening advances when reports of copious rains in Alberta and Saskatchewan were received, they were forced to retreat, and wheat finished 1 7-8c. to 1 1-8c. higher, with word of the excellent report trade coming to the market.

Houses with seaboard connection kept the pit cleared of offerings toward the end. Liverpool quotations were 1 5-8 to 1 7-8 pence higher per cental, and Buenois Aires went 2 1-2c skyward.

Cash wheat grades were in good demand at spreads, unchanged, at 1-4c better, but offerings continued light. With the exception of a few odd cars of low-grade feeding, barley and oats, no business of any account was worked in coarse grain commodities.

British Empire Championship Medal

The committee after the British Empire Games, to be staged at Hamilton in August, decided that the medal to be awarded to the victors in the Games should be somewhat different from the usual run, and in the championship medal above they have it. The medal is held in a metal frame and is removable. The left-hand illustration is of the medal and stand and the right hand illustration of the reverse side of the medal. MONDAY, JULY 21, 1930

TO-MORROW'S MASS MEETING.

The big meeting of the Conservative campaign in West Peterborough will be staged in the Grand Opera House to-morrow night when the principal speakers will be Hon. Wm. Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests, and Mrs. Howard Fallis, one of the outstanding woman orators in Canada.

A feature of the occasion will be the presence on the platform of Miss Mildred Bennett, the sister of the Conservative leader, who has accompanied her distinguished brother throughout his long tour.

As The Examiner said before the visit of the Prime Minister last month, it is the duty of the electors to inform themselves as fully as possible of the important issues of the election, and their duty, therefore, to hear the remarks of the prominent speakers who visit the city during the campaign.

In view of the fact that this is the first mass meeting the Conservatives have held and in view, too, of the recognized ability of Hon. Mr. Finlayson and of the well-known eloquence of Mrs. Fallis, there should be a crowded house to-morrow night to listen to the words of these capable speakers and to welcome the sister of the Conservative chieftain who will grace the affair by her presence.

Mr. Finlayson is an earnest and convincing speaker, while the ability of Mrs. Fallis to hold the attention of an audience is recognized not only all over Ontario but down in New Brunswick, which Province she toured last month.

A COMMENDABLE PRACTICE.

From the list of polling sub-divisions for the urban portion of the riding of West Peterborough, announced to-day, it is apparent that Returning Officer Whatley has followed the practice wherever possible of locating the polling booths in the home or business premises of a returned soldier or a soldier's widow.

The Examiner believes that he is to be commended for putting this little windfall in the way of those who sacrificed much during the dark days when most of the world was at war.

Wherever this could be done without inconveniencing the voters of any particular sub-division Mr. Whatley was quite justified in the choice he has made, and the majority of electors, regardless of their political affiliations, will agree that the returning officer has acted wisely and justly.

Voters should note the location of the polling booth in their own section and be ready to exercise their franchise.

As the divisions, however, are numbered differently from other occasions, it might perhaps be the wisest course to make inquiries at the committee room of the party you favor, and ascertain before Monday, just where you vote.

The political organizations have the lists and locations readily available and can supply the necessary information without delay.

AN ASTOUNDING PERFORMANCE.

Most people must have rubbed their eyes in amazement on Saturday evening as they read the newspaper headlines proclaiming the astounding fact that a woman had defeated the crack marksmen of the whole British Empire and captured the King's Prize, the blue ribbon event of the Bisley matches.

When the day before the cables related the fact that for the first time in history a woman, Miss Marjorie Foster, a war-time ambulance driver, had qualified for the final stage of the competition, her performance was looked upon as more or less an accident and there were few who ever gave a thought to the possibility that the greatest honor that can be won by a marksman would be annexed by one of the fair sex.

Yet Miss Foster, in competition with the ninety-five men whose consistent shooting had carried them into the final stage, defeated the whole lot by consistently accurate shooting and the exhibition of an iron nerve.

As the competition drew to a close the fate of the coveted King's Prize depended entirely upon the girl shooter's last two shots at the 1,000 range.

Two inners would leave her tied with her closest rival, and her second last shot was an inner, leaving everything up to the final shot, a situation that might well have shaken the nerve of the steadiest of Bisley veterans.

The keen eye and steady nerves of Miss Foster did not fail, for her last effort was a clean bull's-eye that meant victory and made a new page in the history of the King's Prize.

Coming on the heels of a feminine triumph in the aeroplane race for the King's Cup and of Amy Johnston's marvellous flight to Australia, the victory of Miss Foster will give mere man something to think about.

Perhaps Kipling was not very wide of the mark when he wrote those lines about the female of the species being deadlier than the male.

PRACTICAL RECIPROCITY.

We are accustomed to hearing considerable in this country regarding the amount of money which the American tourist spends, to increase the prosperity of Canada, but not so much regarding the prosperity of the United States which is enhanced by the Canadian tourist, says the Chatham Daily News. The following from the pen of an American writer will therefore be read with interest:

"American motorists are expected to spend around $300,000,000 in Canada this summer. The great Dominion north of the border has unrivaled attractions as a vacation land—and we're not speaking of its liquor laws now, either. Citizens of the United States are discovering the fact in increasing numbers every year.

"However, Canadians do a good deal of touring, too, and a lot of them cross the border to do it. In 1929, according to Dominion Government figures, Canadian tourists spent more than $111,000,000 in the United States, and more than 619,000 Canadian automobiles went south over the boundary. The figures probably will be higher this year.

"Here is reciprocity of the finest sort. That famous unfortified frontier is in no danger as long as the two nations exchange friendly visits on such a scale."

This indeed is a reciprocity which deserves to be encouraged, especially since Canada holds the long end of the "trade balance." However it is interesting to note that Americans realize that it is a matter of reciprocity, and that they recognize the value of giving courteous treatment to Canadians, the same as we believe in treating the American tourists with every consideration for their comfort.

SUNDAY HONKING OF CARS.

An Ottawa East citizen, who, residentially, lives in a representative part of the city—no one rich and no one noticeably poor, and where everyone either owns a car of his own or rides in one—complains of the excessive honking of automobiles early on Sunday morning, stating that after a week of fairly hard work and fairly long hours, his one desire is to rest in and sleep a bit later than usual, after which he wants to go to church refreshed. As an illustration of the nature of his grievance, last Sunday morning a car drove up to the door of a residence directly opposite his, and the driver began to honk, honk, honk, until in a little while a pretty blonde head was thrust out of the window, and a voice came: "All right, I'll be there directly." That over and done with, another car drew up to a door to his immediate right, and the honking began all over again, until two healthy-looking youths came out in "shorts" and they drove away. A little later, still another car drove up, this time to the immediate, or near, left. Honk, honk, honk, again. This honking, our informant states, kept up intermittently on the street for almost an hour. Everybody apparently wanted to get an early start for somewhere. "The consequence was," this gentleman stated, "I was very tired, vexed and irritated, and my coveted rest and sleep were completely broken into. I do not say this occurs every Sunday, but it is illustrative of what often occurs in a greater or lesser degree. These automobile young men seem to delight in making as much noise as possible for the mere sake of making a noise, or are possessed with a fiendish desire to wake up the whole neighborhood. Can nothing be done?" he asked.

The Journal fully sympathizes with this informant, but regrets to observe that it is extremely difficult to effectively frame or enforce a by-law to remedy the evil complained of. Youths should be taught to consider the comfort and rights of others as well as their own. If one or two formal complaints were made to the police it might do something to abate the nuisance, which, by the way, illustrates a tendency of the day to disregard other people's feelings. Not that we wish to imply that the young people of to-day are worse than they used to be. Taken, by and large, so to speak, they are very much the same as all of us have been; but there is a greater lack of discipline and in being, perhaps, too, trained to be courteous and considerate. We were going to add "good manners," because it is very bad manners to make unnecessary and disagreeable noises, the bane of our city streets.—Ottawa Journal.

TIME TO THINK.

Every citizen to his own view, of course. That is the basis of our democratic form of government. What the electors of Canada are asking at the present juncture is whether a change of government will work to the general advantage of the country and hasten the return of prosperity. It is a natural question. Notwithstanding the well staged political demonstrations by the partisans, who vote as their grandfathers did, there is a thinking element in this Dominion at the moment which will decide the issue. It is this element which always decides elections, because when previous election figures are closely analyzed, it will be seen that after all no big turnover is necessary to change the political representation of this Dominion.

There must be brass band parades, of course. There must be predictions as to the outcome. There must be an imposing array of speakers going throughout the country presenting their respective views. In other words, an election is a battle. But, after all, these phases of any contest are not the deciding factors. To get down to brass tacks, the man on the street who has observed the trend of events and who thinks, is the man, after all, who elects and defeats candidates. His name may not be legion, but he is in such numbers everywhere to make his ballot count. One may take any electoral subdivision and strike off the names of those who have always voted in such and such a way. After that, there is the roll of doubtful ones, the independents. These are the people to whom both parties pay tribute and whose suffrages are sought.

The present election is a critical one for Canada, and it is the duty of every citizen to study all the issues carefully, study the personnel of the leaders, their records and ability, the record of the Government and the outlook for the future. It is not easy, and a judicial mind has to be brought to bear on the situation. In that temperament, the people should go to the polls and carry out what is an individual duty toward the nation.—St. Catharines Standard.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Vote as you like, but vote. Remember, election day is July 28th.

Only a week to go, but that's long enough for tons of oratory to be distributed over the country nevertheless.

To-day was nomination day in most of the ridings throughout Canada. And a week from to-day will be elimination day for more than half of those nominated.

Holiday trips will to some extent at least cut down the vote next Monday. That is another argument in opposition to mid-summer elections.

Opponents of daylight saving get their chance to grin next Monday. The election will be conducted in accordance with Standard time, the polls to remain open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Standard (9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Daylight Saving) time.

Campaign workers check the list before polling day and then the electors provide a double check, to say nothing of an occasional double cross.

In one respect anyway this is a normal election. Both sides are predicting victory for their cause.

A woman's mouth is usually compared to a rose-but, not a rosebud is usually closed.

"CANCER."

If July 21 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 6 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Astrological influences on this date will bring mental and spiritual discontent, which in turn, may cause a much needed "kicking over the traces," and the desired freedom from restraining shackles. A good time for philosophical and scientific studies.

The child born this July 21 will have the much desired emotional and mental balance. Its eyes will image the world as a camera does, so keen will its powers of observation be. It will be born with a good business sense, and will have a streak of economy in its nature.

It cannot be said that you do not have an active mind; it is full of thoughts and ideas, but you are afraid to express them. A lack of self-confidence prevents you from doing many things which you to do, and of which you are capable. You do yourself injury to suppress your thoughts so much; to permit poisonous thoughts to enter the sub-conscious mind, and then to suppress by force of will the natural action resulting therefrom, is the quickest road to nervous disease and unhappiness. You permit envy, jealousy and hatred to smoulder within you, uniil a time of spontaneous combustion arises which does much more harm to you and others than you realize.

You are very restless, and you must be moving from place to place, or from thought to thought—you never stay out. You must have diversity, outlets for your nervous energies, and you will succeed only in a life of change. Being very sensitive, nervous and highly strung, you are too much swayed by the thought sphere of others.

You are ambitious, but it is chiefly a mental ambition for refinement and better conditions. You are not a genius for making or spending money, and no matter how large your income, you would always be "broke."

You are a poor buyer, and are many times "done" by ruthless salesmen. You are truly generous and kind to those who ask your sympathy or aid, and on the impulse of the moment you give in excess of your means or strength.

THE GRINGO PRIVATEER

By PETER B. KYNE

CHAPTER 20.

"One can never tell when he won't stumble over an interesting piece of information in these cow-county weeklies. They often give me a tip on where I can sell a nice mess of feeders and whenever I can sell direct I like to do it, and save the dollar-a-head commission to the cattle broker, which we have to pay if we send the feeders on consignment to Kansas City or Chicago. Such little unexpected profits tend to take up the slack of the loss we suffer in El Cajon Bonita. If you conclude to remain here as general manager, Burney, take my advice and read all these little country papers."

"No, I'll not remain. Tom Bledsoe wants the job, he expects it and he has earned it. It would be just too bad to have a young Johnny-come-lately appear out of nowhere and beat the old Quaker out of his rights. As soon as I've cleaned up El Cajon Bonita I'm going into the cattle business for myself."

Graydon looked at the young man with the reproving glance of the worldly-wise and middle-aged. "You pull that job off, young man, and you'll never be able to get into the cattle business for yourself," he warned. "The king won't let you. He'll consider you too valuable an asset to lose, so he'll just offer you more money than you ever saw before, except in a bank, and keep you on his payroll. The king is never stingy with the right men."

"'Twere better to be a lord in some paltry village than be an emperor and rule in Rome,'" Ken Burney quoted. "I like my independence."

"The king gives his executives a free hand."

"Until they make a mistake, Mr. Graydon. And I'd have to tell him things and think up excuses, perhaps, when I showed him my annual report."

"You certainly would—if you showed a loss or a decreased profit.

"Well, when I do that in my own business I'll only have to talk it over with myself." Burney gathered up the bundle of country newspaper and retired to his desk and swivel chair. "If you don't mind, Mr. Graydon, I wish you'd continue to exercise the functions of general manager while you remain on El Ranchito, even though the title of general manager is now mine. I have a highly specialized job to do and I don't want to be bothered about anything else.

"I expect shortly to be in ample funds to get into business for myself, so in the interim I'll see if these cow-country palladiums of liberty contain any news that might indicate to me where I can pick up some good stock cattle cheap. A great many cattlemen who survived the five terrible years following the post-war deflation period are taking the count now. The banks have grown weary carrying them and are closing in on them just as the business begins to look like coming back into its own. Mr. Graydon, I have a hunch that good cattle, bought at the present prices, will double in value within two years."

"I think so, too," Art Graydon replied. "Government statistics indicate that this country is shy about 17,000,000 head of cattle, based on its pre-war requirements. During the hard times, folks sold off their she-stuff, and now when they go to buy it back it's higher-priced and there ain't any." Sure looks like we're due to start a boom in beef prices before long."

"Opportune time for a man to start his own brand again," Burney replied and busied himself with the papers. He had scanned probably a dozen of them before he ran across an item that challenged his attention. It appeared in the Harney County (Oregon) Sentinel and read as follows:

PIONEER CATTLEMAN RETIRES

Ever since 1921 Dan Wilkins, the genial owner of the Flying W ranch, has been cherishing the secret hope that next year he could quit wearing overalls and buy himself a suit of store clothes. In common with the other cattleman of the country Dan took a hard licking between 1921 and 1926, but a week ago Fate smiled upon him. It appears that in Chicago some bright boys evolved a scheme for giving away an acre of land in Oregon with each and every purchase of some sort of household contraption they're peddling and advertising nationally. Naturally, nobody would be fool enough to give away an acre of land that was worth anything, but it certainly is surprising the number of city folks that yearn to own an acre of land—anykind of land anywhere. In search for a large tract of cheap land to give away, these Chicago men have bought the Flying W ranch.

Even the best of Dan Wilkins' well-wishers would never go so far as to say that Dan ever had anything better than a fair to middling range. Some of it was real good, but the majority of it would not run more than a cow to every twenty five acres. The quality didn't matter, however. It was the quantity that always interested Dan Wilkins, who had never run less than fifteen thousand head. Evidently both quality and quantity interested the Chicago men, for they have bought Dan out—for cash—and given him a year's time and the free use of the ranch during that period, to get rid of his cattle.

Dan has announced that as soon as he can sell his cattle at a satisfactory price he will retire on the tidy sum he will have left after paying his cattle loans and the ranch mortgage. The ranch sold for seven dollars an acre and to our certain knowledge five thousand acres of it lies in the crater of an extinct volcano where a blade of grass has never grown. The Sentinel congratulates the suckers who draw the acre home-sites in that old crater or in the lava beds four miles south of it.

Dan's friends, which term includes every man, woman, child and stray dog in this county, are rejoicing in his good fortune. For six years it certainly looked to Dan as if he was going to get out with nothing more valuable than a second-hand flivver that wasn't all paid for.

Good boy, Dan. Take it easy in your old age. You've earned the rest.

Five minutes after reading this typically bucolic news item, Ken Burney, in the ranch automobile, was headed for Huachita. Arrived there he pulled up in front of the telegraph station and sent the following straight message to Dan Wilkins:

DO NOT CONSIDER ANY OFFERS FOR YOUR CATTLE UNTIL I HAVE HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO GET UP THERE AND LOOK THEM OVER STOP IF THEY ARE GOOD SMOOTH STOCK I WILL BUY YOUR ENTIRE OUTFIT AND PAY YOU MORE THAN ANYBODY ELSE STOP WILL BE ABOUT TWO WEEKS HOWEVER BEFORE I CAN GET UP THERE STOP WIRE ANSWER TO

KENNTH O BURNEY
GENERAL MANAGER
BARDIN LAND & CATTLE COMPANY
EL RANCHITO DIVISION

Having filed his telegram he leaped into the car and fled back to the ranch again, for it was no part of his plan to linger, without reinforcements, in Huachita.

Two hours after his return the telegraph office telephoned out an answer to his message. It read:

HAVE SOLD BRAD BARDIN PROBABLY HUNDRED THOUSAND HEAD CATTLE LAST TWENTY YEARS AND TRADES ALWAYS VERY SATISFACTORY STOP PREFER DEAL WITH YOU BUT HURRY AS OTHER BUYERS ARE BOTHERING ME STOP WIRE ME DAY YOU START FOR OREGON.

DAN WILKINS

"Well, that little detail is settled for two weeks," he reflected. "Wish I'd had a personal charge account with the telegraph company. It would have spared me a rough motor ride of eighty miles. Good old Dan Wilkins! Ue thinks he's going to do business with the king, whereas he's going to do business with a man who was the king's El Ranchito manager the day the deal was started. If old Dan'l will only refuse to wake up until I have him hog-tied all will be merry as a marriage bell."

GRAIN ELEVATOR TO BE ENLARGED

Port Arthur Plant Increased By 3,500,000 Bushel Annex.

READY BY DECEMBER.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., July 21 (C.P.). — To make their plant in Port Arthur one of the world's largest, most modern and fastest working terminal grain elevators, J. A. Richardson & Sons have closed a contract with Barnett-McQueen Construction Company for the building o fa storage annex to the Current River plant, of three and a half million bushels capacity.

Work will start immediately. It is expected the addition will be ready to receive late grain in November or early in December.

Cost of construction of th annex will be in the neighborhood of $750,000. The addition will give the plant total storage capacity of 7,000,000 bushels.

By the end of the present year, Port Arthur's grain elevator storage capacity will have been increased by nearly 6,000,000 bushels, and Port William's by something over 4,000,000

Egypt will have an agricultural bank.

Bennett Addressed Eighty Audiences

TORONTO, Ont., July 20 (By Thomas Green, C.P. Staff Correspondent).—Close to 12,000 miles have been traversed to date by Hon. R. B. Bennett in his Dominion-wide election tour. The campaign speeches of the Conservative chieftain, scheduled and unscheduled, total some 80-odd. This is the record of Mr. Bennett since his departure some six weeks ago to launch his campaign in the Winnipeg Amphitheatre on June 9.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Wires from New York to Toronto this morning, while not exactly bearish, are very cautious in their advice and many lean to the view that the advance has reached the stage where the public will have to provide the motive power if the recovery is to be carried a great deal further. Professional operations are given credit for the length and breadth of the rise to date and few brokers see any increase in public participation. Under these circumstances it is po inted out that a technical readjustment is again due with the professionals tiring of bidding up prices and investors showing a disinclination to reach for stocks. Last week witnessed some change in sentiment toward the market, but this is attributed to a general realization that pessimism was over done rather than to any change in general conditions. One good thing about the present situation is that the market is in the hands of experienced traders who will guard against carrying the advance to extremes. This crowd plays both sides and at the first sign of the list getting out of bounds will switch their position and sell short, providing liquidation that will halt the advance and a sharp reaction of extreme will meet with short covering that should keep the list on a fairly even keel.

Activity Increases.

While the Toronto market is lacking in professional operations, and has gone ahead under the influence of New York and the impetus of investment buying, there has also been improvement in public participation here. Mid year dividend and interest payments were probably the heaviest on record and a portion of the funds disbursed in this manner found their way back into the list, creating a demand for well seasoned issues that has provided sufficient purchasing power to more than offset the fag ends of liquidation.

The committee of the Toronto Stock Exchange will probably take similar action to that of the Montreal Stock Exchange in demanding that companies wishing to list their securities in future must furnish the exchange with quarterly reports. It is impossible to make a ruling of this character reotractive as stocks listed at present were accepted under the old regulations, but unquestionably a number of Canadian executives will see the light and adopt this policy on their own. Before long investors in Canadian securities can feel assured that they will receive more up-to-date information and not have to wait until the close of the fiscal period. For all concerned the publication of periodical earnings throughout the year should work the advantage of all. Executives have already learned to their sorrow, that when the market goes down, the shareholders start to worry and write letters seeking the reason. Quite frequently the case has to do with conditions in the security markets and not with the company itself. Publication of quarterly figures will help do away with unnecessary worry on the part of investors and eliminate considerable correspondence. They will also help to stabilize the market for securities, create a demand for investment, tend to enlarge shareholders lists and when a company meets with difficulty in maintaining earnings sufficient to meet dividend requirements, prepare stockholders for the passing of the dividend, if necessary, and action of this kind will not come as a bolt from the blue so frequently. Issuing of quarterly statements will place the Canadian markets on a higher plan than ever before. Funds that are being diverted into American securities, for the sole reason that is much easier to keep informed, will be diverted into Canadian channels and local stocks will meet with much more favor in the eyes of investors outside the Dominion.

P. L. Annual Report.

The annual financial report of the International Proprietaries Limited, will make its appearance shortly and will cover the first full year's operations under the present control. The previous report was issued about six months after the change in ownership and more of a letter of a letter from President Harold F. Ritchie, than a profit and loss statement and balance sheet. In writing stockholders the president stated the directors confidently expected to pay a participating dividend on the class a stock which promise has since been fulfilled.

NO INTEREST ON MINING MARKET

Waite-Ackerman Gains Following Improved Grade and Tonnage Reports.

HOWEY ADVANCES.

TORONTO, Ont., July 21 (C.P.)—Interest was at a very low point on the mining market during the early period to-day.

Waite-Ackerman, which is reported to be showing improved grade and tonnage as a result of extensive development work carried out now that shipments have been curtailed, added another 5 to recent gains, selling at $2.15. Amulet and Arno showed small advances, but Nickel was off a point to $2 and Noranda and Hudson Bay held unchanged.

Howey gained another point to 43 on the strength of an important impending announcement, and San Antonia was up 3 to 23. Kirkland Lake Gold and Wright-Hargreaves dropped 3 each to 56, respectively; however, Teck Hughes was off 10 to $6.50 and Vipond lost 4 to $1.25. Oriole, which moved up suddenly Saturday, was down a couple to 44.

Ajax Oil displayed the only move in the oils with a gain of 2 to $1.68.

ACCIDENT CASE STARTS PROBE

Washington Sent Report of Quebec Youth Held on $5,000 Bond.

LAWS DIFFER.

MONTPELIER, Vermont, July 21.—Governor John W. Weeks said today he was unable to shed any additional light on the case of Lawrent Pontbriand, a resident of St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, who was arrested in Quebec in connection with an automobile accident and held in $5000 bonds. Owing to the international nature of the case Secretary of State Stinson requested information from the governor and Governor Weeks said he had forwarded to Washington a report of the accident and the laws involved.

Sharp differences between Quebec and Vermont laws dealing with motor vehicle accidents is expected to complicate disposition of the case.

OILS FIRM IN QUIET TRADING

No Improvement in Operations on Re-opening of Toronto Market To-day.

SOME ISSUES DROP POINT.

TORONTO, July 21. (C.P.) — There was no improvement in either sentiment or trading operations as the market on the Toronto Stock Exchange re-opened to-day.

Throughout the morning session prices dallied back and forth with most of the more prominent stocks easing from the level at which they had left off last week. Only a limited number of issues put in an appearance at all and many of these recorded only a single transaction. This but proves that the public, if buying, is doing so in small lots and for the long pull rather than with a view to immediate turnover and reward.

Brazilian, Bell Telephone, and Ford of Canada lost less than a point; International Nickel got down under 2 to show a loss of approximately one point, and Page-Hersey tubes at 90 was off more than 1. The oils were quiet and firm. A number of stocks including OPR old Massey-Harrs, Gypsum, Canadian Dredge, Service Stations were unchanged. Standard Paying gained a point to 21.

Lucien Giguere, secretary of the Quebec Liquor Commission, Mrs. Giguere and Master Giguere figure in the party of prominent French-Canadians who are taking the trip to Europe in connection with the canonization in Rome, of the Jesuit Martyrs killed by the Iroquois in the XVIIth centrury.

YOUR INVESTMENTS

by R. M. DIXON, B.A. District Representative of BICKLE, CLARKE & CO., LTD. 330 Bay Street Toronto INVESTMENT SECURITIES

ARTICLE LXXIV

Q.—What are the facts to be considered and the steps to be taken by a firm before making a bid on municipal bonds?

A.—Before making a bid on a municipal issue several important points must be considered. The total assessment of the municipality and a comparison of this with its funded debt is most important. The people should not be overburdened with taxes. The size of the municipality is important. Does it provide a sinking fund to meet its indebtedness? The financial standing of the municipality must be considered, and the length of time since it has defaulted interest charges (if at all). The character of the population is important especially of those administering office. They should not be dependent upon one industry but upon several prosperous and firmly-rooted ones. The resources of the district, its growth and future outlook in general is important. The population should preferably be made up of honest, peace-loving, ambitious people.

Before making a bid the firm must decide at what price the bonds will sell. Will they entail much expense and what will the profit be? What are the market conditions for selling more municipals, and will the salesmen be able to sell them? The selling price of other similar municipals must be considered in determining the bid.

The firm should also inquire what other firms are bidding for the bonds and if they are usually conservative bidders or not. The firm should not bid in round figures but preferably their bid should entail figures to the second or third decimal place.

Proposals of sales of new issues are listed in the best financial papers. We will assume that these were subscribed for and the above conditions carefully considered. The treasurer of the municipality should be required to furnish any of the above details that were not already obtainable. The bid is then made and usually a certified cheque surrendered at the same time. The bidder is prepared to name his bid price and the yield basis upon which he will purchase the issue. He should have a certain lee-way and be able to exercise his own judgment. He must also be prepared to state the smallest number of bonds he will take. It should also be understood whether the price quoted included the price of printing the bonds or not. And lastly, the beings in being bid for and accepted, are subject to the legal opinion of the firm's lawyers.

Another point is this: The investment house must decide whether or not to invite other houses to participate.

50 SANDWICH RESIDENTS TO BE ALLOWED TO VOTE

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21.—(CP) — If all canndidates be agreeable, the 50 or more residents of Sandwich whose names were left off the voters list through error will be issued certificates enabling them to use their franchise on election day, Jule Nestoguay said today. He had received official notification of the situation from Damien Gourd, returning officer for Essex West and will communicate with him shortly.

INJURED LAD DIES

OWEN SOUND, Ont., July 21 (C.P.) —John Irwin Wilkie, 13, died in the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital to-day as the result of being hit by a motor car Sunday night driven by W. S. Blythe. An inquest will be held.

LIST ADVANCE IS INTERRUPTED

Break-up in Ranks of Bull Forces Cause of Market Decline.

CALL MONEY PLENTIFUL.

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 21 (C.P.).—Mutiny in the ranks of the bull forces threw sharp prices into retreat in today's stock market, interrupting the irregular advance of the past four weeks.

There was little change in the money market, call loans were again at 2 per cent. officially, but were reported at only 1⅛ in the outside market, against 1¼ Friday, when eagerness to employ funds over the week-end resulted in an unusual surplus of offerings. Other monetary accommodations were steady.

Several issues rallied by early afternoon, as the market turned extremely dull and selling appeared to have been completed. Losses of 2 points recorded during the morning in such issues as U.S. Steel, American Telephone and American Can, were partially regained. Such pool favorites as Vanadium and Worthington Pump recovered early losses and recorded moderate gains. There was heavy trading in Briggs, as sponsors of the market in this issue endeavored to move it on the basis of its favorable earnings statement published.

GIRL DROWNS IN TRENT PLAYING WITH TINY BOAT

BELLEVILLE, Ont., July 21.—Mary Ellen Whitton daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Whitton, Brighton was drowned in the Trent Canal at Frankford late last night. She was playing with a toy boat. The string broke and in reaching for the boat, fell in.

A playmate Jean Revol ran to the party of picnickers crying for help. One of the party dove in but the body was not recovered until three hours afterwards.

Dr. Farley was called and Coroner Dr. M. B. Crowe decided an inquest unnecessary.

CORNWALL GIRL KILLED.

CORNWALL, July 21 (C.P.). — When she was struck by a passing motorist, Miss Lillian K. Moss, of Ottawa, one of Hon. James Malcolm's private secretaries, was almost instantly killed in front of her home on Saturday. She had just arrived home to commence a two weeks' vacation. The car which struck her was driven by William Swinbarton of Outremont, Quebec. He was not held by the police, after investigation.

HAS ARM TAKEN OFF.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 21 (C.P.)—While driving last night with his left arm hanging out of the car window Rodney Lalme of 199 St. James street, Buffalo, had the arm practically torn off when he was sideswiped by a car proceeding in a westerly direction, which has not yet been identified.

The arm was amputated.

DANCE COMMITTEE PLEASE NOTE

"Who's that girl?"
"Which one?"
"The one in white."
"Oh, that one."
"No, no, the other one down in the corner. Don't point."
"No, don't cut in on her. That's the wrong girl."

To eliminate all this confusion we suggest that the girls be tagged with numbers on their backs, like football players. A stag who wishes to cut in or cut a girl can simply call out his number and then dance.

The system goes something like this:

"Dance with number thirty-nine Bob, she's my girl."

"Keep away from number six; they'll try to stick you with her."

—Brown Jug.

"So the bootblack's vision bothers him?"

"Yes, he's always seeing spats before his eyes."

The Young Man: May I ask you, sir, if you think that your daughter would make a suitable wife?

Lawyer McNab: No, sir, I don't think she would. Five dollars, please.

—Lafayette Lyre.

Artist: Yes, sir, I paint a picture in a day and a half, and think nothing of it.

Critic (dryly): Neither do I.

—Colorado Dodo.

"Your coffee is on the table, sir, and the Rolls is outside."

—Dartmouth Jack O'Lantern.

FIND BODY AFTER THREE-DAY HUNT

Chicago Youth Drowns While Canoeing on Mountain Lake.

PLANE USED IN SEARCH.

SUDBURY, Ont., July 21.—(C.P.)—After a search of three days the body of Carlisle McHarg, aged 22, son of the President of the Rose Manufacturing Company of Chicago, has been recovered from the waters of Mountain Lake.

The young man came north last Monday to spend the summer at the lake, where his father is building a summer home. On Tuesday last he started on a canoe trip and failed to return. Workmen employed by his father started a search, and when this proved fruitless a call was sent to Espanola, where the Ontario government maintains a group of planes for forestry patrol work. One of the machines was despatched to the locality to conduct a search. In addition Chief of Police Maroney of Espanola and nine experienced bushmen joined the search.

60-TON WHALE IS ON EXHIBIT

to man—were shot into the whal's carcass. It took 10 morticians two full weeks to complete the emba'ming operations. The formaldehyde, which is still injected daily, is gradually petrifying the specimen, turning it from a deep walnut to a black color.

Theodore Fleury, captain of the expedition which secured the present specimen, accompanies the exhibit. The demand for whales for exhibition and scientific purposes is still quite large, he declares. He obtained no fewer than five whales on the same trip on which he secured the one he has brought to Peterborough.

The whale used to represent "Mobey Dick' in John Barrymore's film. "The Sea Beast," was secured by Captain Fleury.

In July and August, according to Captain Fleury, the whale is especially easy to kill, as he undergoes a sickness during that time which brings him in the vicinity of rocks and ships in his search for a hard surface on which to rub his huge body to scrape off it the countless barnacles with which a year's cruising has encrusted it. That is the reason for the numerous stories current from travellers at this time of year to the effect that whales have been killed by "assaulting" the armor-plated hulls of modern liners.

Time was, says Captain Fleury, when a flick of a whale's giant tail would bretak a whaling-ship's boat like a match-box, or a change from one of the angered monsters would tear a gaping hole in the side of the whaling-ship herself. But the whale hasn't much chance to-day.

Six tons of entrails were extracted from the present specimen and sold to be manufactured into a high-grade fertilizer. The heart alone weighed 225 pounds. The 1,500-pound tongue was cut out because of the vast commercial value of its 90 per cent. oil.

Oil Used In Perfume.

The oil of the tongue is sold to perfume manufacturers to be used in the making of perfumes, soaps and cosmetics. Girls who use highly-scented toilet preparations might give a thought to the whale's tongue, according to the Captain.

Jonah wasn't swallowed by a California gray whale, anyway, as the present specimen's narrow gorge testifies. It is no larger than a man's fist in diameter. But if the whale can only eat sardines and other little fish, he makes up for his restricted diet by devouring a ton and a half of them at one meal.

The present specimen was first put on exhibition at Los Angeles — on Broadway, right opposite the United Artists' Theatre—last Thanksgiving, and remained there for 7 weeks. It has since toured the U.S., and is now leased to a Toronto firm, which kept it on exhibition in that city for four weeks. It comes here from exhibitions in Hamilton, Kitchener and Brantford. On Wednesday night it goes to Belleville.

Despite the hot weather and humidity, no flies will be found at the monster's tank. The formaldehyde, according to Captain Fleury, keeps them away.

TWO DIE IN CRASH ON QUEBEC ROAD

Seven Others Badly Injured, and May Not Recover.

AT HOTEL DIEU HOSPITAL.

CHICOUTIMI, Que., July 21 (C.P.) —Two persons were killed and seven others were seriously injured when two automobiles collided near here over the week-end. The dead are Rene Backleur, 15, and Emile Jarjour, 50, of Keogami, Que.

The injured were in the Hotel Dieu Hospital here to-day. Attending physicians said they were in a critical condition and may not recover. All were residents of Grand Bale and Kenogami.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

False Pretences

TO E. A. PECK, ESQ.

H. G. Fester, Member of the Minimum Wage Board in the Ferguson Government, has been repudiated by the District Labour Council, as false to Labour interests.

Mr. Peck has brought Fester to Peterborough to speak as a Labour man, when, as a matter of fact, he is a renegade and an imposter.

Mr. Peck should not try to fool organized Labour by presenting a faker, like Fester, who has been repudiated by Labour organization.

When a candidate seeks re-election, it is his duty to tell the electors what he has done.

Will you tell the people what you have done for West Peterborough for the $36,000.00 indemnity you have received? What contracts have you obtained for the factories? How many times have you appeared before the Pension Board for returned men, and have you ever appeared before the Appeal Board for a single ex-service man?

RUTH M. TREACY DIES IN WINDSOR

19 Year Old Girl Was Prominent in Affairs of Girl Guides.

EDUCATED IN PETERBORO.

WINDSOR, July 21. — Miss Ruth Treacy, 19 years old, of 921 Church street died Friday night in Hotel Dieu folowing an acute attack of endocarditis. She had been suffering heart trouble since April and had gone to the hospital for treatment. Her condition was not regarded as critical at any time and her sudden death was quite unexpected.

Miss Treacy was born in Toledo, Ohio, the daughter of Mrs. Katharine M. Treacy, of Windsor and the late Lorenz B. Treacy, of Brantford., She is survived by her mother and one sister, Katherine E. Miss Treacy lived for a number of years in Peterborough, where she received her early education in St. Mary's Convent. She came to Windsor nine years ago where her studies were continued at St. Alphonsus School and the Windsor Collegiate where she was known as a pupil of exceptional brilliance. She had completed her second year at the University of Toronto where she was in residence at the Loretto Abbey College and was last year president of her class.

Both in Windsor and Toronto Miss Treacy played a prominent part in Girl Guide activities. While here she was identified with Companies 3 and 12.

Funeral services were held to-day at 9 a.m. in St. Alphonsus Church, with interment in St. Alphonsus Cemetery.

MANX WANTS TAILLESS CATS.

Worried over losing a distinction peculiar to itself the Isle of Man has started a campaign to restore tailless cats to the island. Champions of the new cause declare that felines there are developing fine bushy tails instead of stumps that have made Manx cats and the Isle of Man famous. T. S. Atkinson, veterinary inspector of the island, says that it is difficult to find a real Manx cat, and sees a real danger of the breed dying out altogether. The Manx Board of Agriculture has voted to encourage the raising of bob-tailed cats by offering attractive prizes for them at shows.

NEW FARTHEST NORTH CHURCH.

At Thule, Greenland, is being built the most northerly church in the world. A Danish steamer which transported sections of the building, a manse and a store from Denmark to Thule recently arrived at Aberdeen, Scotland, and its captain reported that work was progressing when he left Thule. The minister is supervising the construction work. He must shoot and fish for his food, and to show his ability he shot a seal from the steamer, retrieved it in a small boat, then skinned and cooked it for the crew. Thule is the most northerly inhabited part of the icebound coast of Greenland in the Artic Circle.

BURNHAM SPEAKS AT ST. CATHARINES

Ferguson is Out to Offset Influence of Bennett Speaker Says.

ST. CATHARINES, July 21.—That Premier Ferguson, than whom there is no truer Briton, has considered it his duty to go out in the present election campaign to defend Great Britain, and try to offset the influence of Mr. Bennett's utterances, was the contention of Captain J. H. Burnham, former Conservative M.P., addressing a meeting Saturday night in the Collegiate Hall in the interests of Mrs. F. S. Greenwood, Liberal candidate opposing Hon. J. D. Chaplin. Mr. Burnham said he was proud to be able to do something to help send Mrs. Greenwood to Parliament, because more women are needed there, their advice often being required in the House of Commons. He said the present election in Canada involved a very serious question from the patriotic as well as the business standpoint. There is not a business in Canada which is not affected by the Government, which controls the tariff.

"It is foolish to dismiss the question as of no importance as to who is to represent us," said Mr. Burnham. He added that it would be the stupidest thing in the world for Canada to break any ties with Britain, as Mr. Bennett, Leader of the Opposition, appeared to be trying to do. Premier Ferguson, he believed, was as good a Briton as could be found. "He is out speaking in the defence of the British Empire because Mr. Bennett seems to be trying to destroy it," the speaker said.

"I can simply say as a Conservative that we are faced with the alternative set by Mr. Bennett of either sticking to party and leaving the Empire or leaving the party and sticking to the Empire."

Concluding, Mr. Burnham predicted that Mr. Bennett would lose 15 of his present seats.

J. J. Duffus of Peterborough also spoke in support of Mrs. Greenwood.

RUM-RUNNING ON THE ATLANTIC BECOMES COMPLICATED AFFAIR

Large Ships Stay Outside Limit and Supply Smaller Craft.

USE SHORT-WAVE RADIO

By BERTON E. ROBINSON
(Special to the Examiner, Copyright 1930)

HALIFAX, N.S., July 21—Rum Row is back, in all its glory, and now, for the first time in five years, a row of ships bearing contraband lies waiting off the Atlantic coast of the United States. The sudden and intensive return of the rum-ships to the Atlantic Ocean is due in a large part to the recent Canadian legislation preventing the clearance of liquor-laden ships for American ports. As a further consequence of the legislation St. Pierre and Miquelon, French North Atlantic islands, have once more become bee-hives of industry, for it is from their ports that liquor is cleared.

But Rum Row of to-day is not the Row that the General Pau and others of equal fame knew. Not only are methods of disposal of the cargo different from those of a few years ago, but berths on rum-ships are relatively hard to get, and the pay is fabulous. Masters of contraband ships receive from $100 a month up, plus a bonus which may well exceed the regular pay. Engineers receive $750 per month up, plus bonus, and other members of the crew in a like scale.

With regard to methods of landing the changes are remarkable. The mother ships keep well off the twelve mile limit, some of them being as far out as sixty miles. These ships are equipped with fast power boats, carrying a crew of two, and having a short wave radio set with which they may maintain communication with the mother ship, and also with the shore.

According to Federal authorities, there are now not fewer than twelve of these large steamers hovering off the coast, awaiting favorable opportunities when their power boats will dart shoreward with their contraband. Not a few of these boats are of Nova Scotia registry, and manned by Nova Scotian crews.

SPEAKERS SCOUT

land was that to-day that country was stocked with foreign goods, and articles brought in to be processed in British factories so that they could be marked "Made in England," according to Mr. Millard. "Even if you buy goods from Britain," he pointed out, "you can't be sure they're British. You know very well that it is impossible to-day to go into one of our stores and put your hands on a Canadian manufactured article. You have bargains on George Street—they're bargains, all right—but you haven't the money to buy them with."

Mr. Millard scored recent letters appearing in the local press. "You have a letter from one half of the Empire League one night and from the other half the next. It's a lot of hot air. They don't love the Empire—they love votes." Referring to the Hon. G. N. Gordon's reply to Mr. Strickland, in which Mr. Gordon declared that the reason he was not contesting this riding was that a few years ago he had had to decide whether to stay in politics or to get out and provide for his family and that he had decided on the latter course, Mr. Strickland commented: "That's patriotism if you like."

"And it takes a lot of Mr. Gordon's figures on unemployment to fill an empty stomach," he declared.

"Despite the red herring of 'patriotism' which the Liberal Party is drawing across the trail," asserted Charles Lloyd in a brief address, "unemployment is there—and it is going to stay there as long as Mackenzie King does." There was no need for unemployment in Canada. To say that it was "all over the world" was no answer. It was our duty to deal with the situation in this country, and Bennett's policies would give work.

Mackenzie King's brand of British preference wouldn't help the Motherland, according to Mr. Lloyd, and it would aggravate conditions here. "They've got nothing in the Old Country to give you in return for what you give them," he stated.

G. A. Helson saw the Liberal policy of the last 9 years as a disguised "reciprocity" with the U. S. If Mackenzie King had gone to the country with his policy under its right name a few years ago, he would have tasted the defeat Laurier did in 1911.

"If you are out of work to-day, blame it on Mackenzie King," said Mr. Helson. He reiterated a statement for which, he declared, he had been criticised by the Hon. Mr. Gordon—namely, that there were $105,000,000 worth of goods coming into Canada yearly which Peterborough made. If proper protection were afforded Canadian manufacturers of goods which were flooding the market from foreign factories, maintained Mr. Helson, it would provide employment for twice the 775,000 men who were out of work to-day.

J. F. Strickland replied to Liberal censures of Tory "blue ruin" talk, declaring: "If somebody doesn't tell the people of this community and this country and if the people don't wake up to the conditions, things are likely to get worse than they are."

Scoring local Liberal advertising to the effect that Mr. Duffus would devote "two-thirds of his time" to representing the people of this riding, Mr. Strickland said: "It's a poor state of affairs when you have to sell a candidate on that basis." There were men in this country willing to devote three-thirds of their time to earning the living of which the King policies had deprived them.

Advertising points the way, straight and clear, to economical and advantageous marketing. It distinguishes the good product. It directs your way by indicating the article best adapted to your needs.

Read the advertisements in this paper as carefully as you would the signs above the cross-roads. They point out your buying road as surely and as safely!

TORY OPPOSITION TO EMPIRE TRADE ASSAILED BY KING

Dominion Premier Blames Leaders, Not Conservative Party.

FERGUSON, BENNETT DIFFER

If Province Will Aid Toronto's Unemployment Dominion Also Willing to Help.

(By Ray Brown, C. P. Staff Correspondent.)

NEWMARKET, Ont., July 21. — Condemnation of the attitude which he said was being assumed by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, and also by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, in respect to the budget provisions widening the British preference, was voiced by Premier Mackenzie King here Saturday night. One of the most extraordinary features of the campaign, he averred, was the ridicule and opposition which had been aimed at a great effort to draw the bonds closer between Canada and the Mother Country. And this was the more remarkable coming from the leaders of a party which had always professed to be strongly pro-British in its sentiments.

Blames Leaders

"Where are the leaders of the Conservative Party standing to-day on this great issue?" asked the Prime Minister, emphasizing the question with voice and gesture. "I have no fault to find with the Conservative party, but I have with its leaders; and I think the Conservative party will teach them a lesson.

The visit of the Prime Minister to this historic riding, which he formerly represented in the House of Commons, was replete with color and action.

The Prime Minister soon directed his fire at the Conservative leaders, and he did not forget Premier Ferguson. He referred to the Ontario Premier as Mr. Bennett's "subordinate official" and asked his audience to consider the divergence which, he declared, existed between Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson on the question of the campaign issues. "These two gentlemen are so arranging things that they are talking both ways," he asserted. He said that Mr. Bennett, speaking in the House of Commons, had insisted that there must be a general election to determine Canada's representation at the Imperial Conference.

Then when the Conservative leader had opened his campaign Mr. Bennett had asserted that the issue before the people was the tariff.

Mr. Ferguson, however, had not agreed with this. "He turned round and said 'no, the issue is Mackenzie King and a five-cent piece'." Now Mr. Ferguson was declared that the real issue was the Canadian home.

Avoiding Major Issue.

But, the important point was, said Mr. King, that both Mr. Bennett and Mr. Ferguson were avoiding the all-important major issue. "If they are true to their party and principles, how can they ignore a budget which has given to Great Britain the greatest measure of trade which she has had in years?" asked Mr. King. When Mr. Bennett referred to the budget it was in terms of ridicule or opposition.

The Prime Minister referred to the question of unemployment. This great question was bound up in the larger question of trade development, he said. He asked what would happen if Canada let slip this opportunity to secure the British market for her agricultural products. Export markets were vital to the life of the Dominion.

He had, said Mr. King, received a telegram from Mayor Wemp, of Toronto, asking him if he (Mr. King) was prepared to give dollar for dollar with Ontario municipalities for unemployment relief. Mayor Wemp said that he understood the Prime Minister had asserted in his Western speeches that he was ready to make this contribution.

The telegram did not state the undertaking which he had given in the West, quite correctly, continued the Prime Minister. Mayor Wemp referred to municipalities only What he had said from platforms in the West was that if Provincial Governments made representations that unemployment conditions were so bad they could not cope with them, the Federal Government stood ready to assist. "I repeat that here," continued Mr. King. "I believe the people of Canada stand ready to assist in meeting any national emergency at any time." In any province where the head of the Provincial Government reported that it was not able to handle the unemployment situation, the Federal Government was ready to aid.

"But,' warned Mr. King, "we are trustees for the people of Canada." He was not prepared to promise reckless expenditures like, he said, Mr. Bennett was doing. Mr. Bennett's promises up to date, he added, would, if implemented, "cost a billion dollars." He felt that the form of relief to be given should be something which met with the approval of the people of Canada, and should be something from which the public would benefit. Therefore, he had told Western Canada that the Federal Government would be prepared to help the provinces and the municipalities to construct subways and under level crossings.

His answer to Mayor Wemp was this, continued the Prime Minister. If the Mayor of Toronto could get Premier Ferguson to report to the Dominion Government that an unemployment condition existed in Ontario with which the province could not cope and in which Federal aid was required, "we will be prepared to give dollar for dollar with the province and the city of Toronto for the construction of subways."

BRITISH PREFERENCE

er Country and the Dominions overseas. His first budget is stamped with his broad views and sympathies. Mr. King made a wise choice in Mr. Dunning, and one that will bring prosperity not only to Canada but to every part of the Empire."

"This is not Mr. Duffus' fight," Mr. Hall declared. "It is not Premier King's fight. This is your own fight. It is the fight of every citizen to see that we are going to be well goverened and have the widest possible markets for our goods. Some of our friends say that the solution of unemployment is a higher protective tariff. Well, look at the United States. Surely they have a tariff high enough to suit anybody, and yet unemployment is rife there. Nor is unemployment to be relieved by calling a special session of Parliament to talk it over. Those are just red herrings drawn across the Liberal policies, and by July 28 I believe those herrings are going to smell so bad that our people will not be deceived, but will vote for the return of the Mackenzie King Government and the Dunning Budget."

Robert Morrison was chairman of Saturday night's meeting. J. J. Duffus, the candidate, was absent on a speaking engagement in St. Catharines. The other speakers were Dr. E. M. Crough, Dr. R. C. Honey, Bert Munro a youngster who in a capital speech reviewed Mackenzie King's long devotion to the interests of Labor in Canada, and Thomas J. McMurray.

Thos. J. McMurray.

Mr. McMurray said he was a Labor man, but as there was no Labor candidate in the field he was free to make his own choice.

"I am supporting Mr. Duffus and the Liberal party because the Liberal Government has been more favorable to the working class than any Government we have had. Look over the records of Parliament and you will find that the Farmer and Labor members have supported the Liberal Government on close votes. The Liberal Government has passed the eight hour day and the fair wage clause in all government contracts. This provides that all mechanics, laborers and other tradesmen on government work shall be paid the current wages of the district in which the work is being carried on. If there are no current rates in any such district, the Minister of Labor may determine what are fair wages. If a government contract was let in Peterborough the contractor would have to pay the prevailing rates to all tradesmen engaged. These laws have been passed by the Liberal Government."

Premier Ferguson was telling the working men what the Conservatives would do if they are elected, Mr McMurray remarked.

"The Hydro-Electric Commission which is under the Conservative Government of Ontario has a job at Nipigon where they are working the men up to ten hours a day, seven days in the week. Yet they pretend that they are bettering the conditions of the working class. And they have decreased the wages at Nipigon below the standard rate in that district. At Niagara Falls they are paying 15 cents below the standard wage in that district."

Praised Pensions Act

Mr. McMurray gave credit to the Liberal Government for the adoption of the Old Age Pensions Act, and said that Ferguson Government instead of assuming its full share of fifty per cent of the cost of pensions placed twenty per cent on the local municipalities.

"The Ferguson Government collected $67,000,000 from the sale of liquor last year," Mr. McMurray continued, "and if there is any place the profit from that business should go it should go to the men who are without work today. The liquor revenue was not thought of fifteen years ago."

"If the Liberal Government is not fair to Labor in carrying out the eight hour day and fair wage clause they needn't expect any support from me again. I leave it in their hands to do the fair thing with the working class, and I think they will."

The speakers urged the election of the Liberal candidate, J. J. Duffus.

OBITUARY

MRS. HENRY REID.

STIRLING, July 21 (Examiner Correspondence). — Mrs. Henry Reid, who was taken to Toronto last Tuesday for a serious operation, did not rally in a satisfactory manner and was being treated for a second operation this week, when she became worse, and the news came at five o'clock on Sunday morning that she had died. The body is being brought here for burial.

MRS. WILLIAM MITCHELL.

STIRLING, July 21 (Examiner Correspondence). — Mrs. William Mitchell, of Harold, who entered the General Hospital, Belleville, for treatment last week, passed away on Saturday afternoon. Her body was brought to her late home at Harold.

Deceased was a native of Scotland and had been in Canada for twelve years.

The funeral service will be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. F. Joblin, of Rawdon Circuit United Church. Burial to be in Stirling Cemetery. She is survived by a mourning husband and other friends.

A. H. CONNOR.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

MARMORA, July 21. — After an illness extending over 18 months, A. H. Connor of this village passed away at his residence here at 6.20 p.m. on Sunday, in the 56th year of his age.

Deceased, who was born in Belleville, had resided in Marmora for the past quarter of a century. Coming to Marmora he labored as a tinsmith for the late William Hughes, who was then operating a hardware store. Later a partnership was formed between the two, when Mr. Hughes went into the lumbering business the partnership was dissolved, and the late Robert Gray was taken into a new partnership. Upon the latter's death some years ago John Jones became the new partner. Recently the deceased retired from business, which is now to be known as that of Jones and Potts.

The late Mr. Connor was deeply interested in municipal affairs. For a period he was a public school trustee, and a few years ago served as a councillor of the village. He was a staunch Conservative and at the time of his death was president of the North Hastings Liberal Conservative Association.

He was also a Past Master of Marmora A. F. and A. M., 222. He was a member of the United church. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Lorraine and Jennie. He is also survived by three brothers, Wilson of Madoc and Edward and Joseph, who are resident in the States.

DONALD G. CHISHOLM.

MARMORA, July 21 Examiner Correspondence). — A former well-known farmer of the Marmora district passed away at his home in Sidney Township at 11 a.m. on Saturday in the person of Donald G. Chisholm. Deceased, who was in his 78th year, had been ailing for some time, and recently underwent two operations in Kingston General Hospital. Since returning to his home about a week ago, he suffered a slight stroke, which hastened his end.

For a large number of years deceased farmed to the south of Marmora village. His advice would be frequently sought over the ailments of horses and cattle, and always a ready and cheery conversationalist, the late Mr. Chisholm soon became a familiar figure in the life of Marmora. For a term he served as councillor of the village. In religion he was Anglican and in politics he was a Conservative. His wife predeceased him several years ago. He is survived by four children: Colin, Murney, Clarence and Eliza, all at home. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. John Hunter of Kingston.

After service at his home to-day, to be conducted by the Rev. M. J. C. Levason, rector of Rawdon, the funeral will leave his late residence at 1.30 p.m., standard time, for Marmora, where interment will take place in the Protestant Cemetery.

HERE IS A SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF THE RESULTS OBTAINED BY AN OUT-OF-TOWN ADVERTISER—

In April Mr. Cranston of Cranston's Poultry Farm, Stirling, inserted a Classified Ad. in our want ad. columns.

That advertising sold 25,000 baby chicks for him.

Mr. Cranston being very much pleased with the overwhelming results obtained, has continued to advertise, and with continued success. In sending in instructions for further advertising Mr. Cranston said:

"I might say that I received wonderful results from my ad. appearing in April issues, having sold at least 25,000 chicks from that ad. alone. I have sold about 85,000 chicks so far this season."

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

DON'T HESITATE TO DESCRIBE YOUR PAIN.

"What's the use? If you groan when the specialist punches you, he thinks you are pretending, and if you act the he-man, he thinks there's nothing wrong."

The above is from that little column "Isn't it the truth."

Unfortunately this is only too true, but you must remember that the specialist is dealing with all types, and in addition to knowing his subject he learns also something about human nature.

Pain is one thing in which the patient can be of great help or hindrance to the physician. When he puts his stethoscope over your heart and listens to the beat, whil you are lying down, sitting, standing, or after exercise, he learsn without any help from you, the condition of your heart.

Similarly when he listens to the lungs.

When he feels the abdomen to be hard or boark like. he knows there is trouble there.

However, one of the outstanding symptoms and one in which he expects your help is when you complain of pain somewhere. And it is here that you must be fair. It is of no help to the physician for you to say that there is no pain or that it is slight, when as amatter of fact, it is really severe.

Now while some individuals really can withstand pain better than others, nevertheless a plain straight forward statement should not make you feel that you are soft or cowardly.

If the pain is sharp, dull, cramplike, or seems to move about, simply tell this to the physician. For instance, a pain that only comes on when you move a part may be due to injury, whereas a pain that comes on only after you get to bed at night is more likely to be due to an infection of some kind.

A pain that shifts about the abdomen now on one side, and then on the other, is likely due to gas, whereas a pain that starts in the pit of the stomach and shifts gradually down to the region of the appendix, and stays there, may be due to appendicitis, although a little spasm of the intestine may cause pain there also.

Similarly with pains in the head--headache; there are various kinds of pain there from a sharp cutting pain to a heavy dull ache.

Pain in the chest may be due to a little inflammation in the muscles outside the ribs or to an actual pleurisy, and the way you describe that pain helps the physician in his diagnosis and treatment.

So don't try to be a hero, or he-man and say there is no pain or it is slight when it is really severe. It is really 'safer' to exaggerate a little than to have the physician overlook the symptom of pain.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

REGARDING UNSELFISHNESS.

It is wise to teach children to be unselfish. Not for the spiritual good alone, although that is beyong price, but for the material good that is immediately felt.

When a child assumes the attitude, "all for me and none for you," he loses something of high wuality. A certain beauty fades from his face, dies out of the glance of his eye, and he is somehow marked as one whom it might be as well to avoid. Selfishness makes for isolation and that is not a flappy condition.

The person who looks out for himself without regard to the rights of others closes doors to himslf. The first door he shuts is that of his own spirit. It is immediately closed into very narrow quarters for one human being cannot get very far toward the horizons of life. To travel far in spirit, and that is the only way it matters a whit, one must travel on the good will of others. This is not permitted to the selfish. They go alone.

Sharing and giving have a way of their own. With every generous gesture comes a widening of the vision. At once, there seems to be more breathing room more space. What we give to others we always have. It comes back to us a hundred fold. Even materially the returns of invested thoughtfulness are very rich. Friends are the greatest asset anybody can hope to have whether in business or out of it. Grudging enemies are the costliest mistakes we can make.

It is not necessary to make a vow of poverty. Nor to strip oneself of all one has. What is necessary is thoughtfulness, sharing, the gesture of goodwill to men. The surest way to lose what you wish to keep is to hoard it. If you have a lovely picture hang it where everybody that comes that way can see it. Share it and it will last the longer. If you have a beautiful house welcome your friends there and share its beauty. Make the gesture of friendliness every time. It will reward you without fail.

About the children. Teach them this lesson. If one child does well in a school subject teach him to help the others. The more he teaches, the more he knows and the more he knows the greater his power. If the little girl can sew beautifully teach her to make pretty things for those who like them and share her gift. If a child can sing, teach him to be generous with that gift and share it with all who enjoy it.

Teach the children the futility of grudging. Be generous. Every gift you have will increase by use. Every kindly act you perform will return to you again in the form of countless kindnesses to you and yours. You cannot make another happy without being happy yourself and happiness is the best culture for success ever discovered. Do try to gather some of it for the children—and yourself. It is so easy.

SMART BROWN CLOTH STREET FROCK.

The street frock which can be worn without a coat is ideal for summertime, particularly when as smart and simple as this dress in brown cloth, which is trimmed with rows of heavy stitching to give an effect of bands. The horizontal arrangement of the stitching on the hips makes possible a becoming adaptation of the high waistline to many figures.

Felt Hat Influence Remains in Vogue

Felt hats have disappeared for the summer months in favor of the cooler straw and fabric models. But their influence remains, for both straw and fabric are handled in the pliable manner of felt. In the present millinery mode, there is a definite one-sided feeling, and each hat is worn well off the head, with the brow and the hair at the sides showing. Two extremely becoming and very chic straw models by Marie Alphonsine are shown in the Vogue sketch at the RIGHT above. They are both made of paper panama, a recent innovation which uses paper as straw in a panama weave. The upper one has a symmetrical brim and a shallow crown. The brim has a soft uplifting pleat at the right side, curves over the foreheadd and dips sharply at the left side. The band is of green and white leather. The second model is in black, trimmed with a band of black-and-white striped ribbon, twisted and tied in a bow at the left side front. The irregular brim dips at one side, curves over the forehead and ripples over the left eye. On the LEFT is a smart black manilla straw cloche, lined with pink linen ribbon embroidered with black stitches. It is from the house of Renyse, Paris, and photographed by Henri Manuel. Sketch is by Vogue.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

BABY'S FIRST STEP.

To-day is not marked on the calendar with a crimson line or a shining star, and to many, no doubt, it has slipped away in the placid mode of a commonplace day. But glad tumult reigns in the House Next Door where Baby has toddled across the floor; For Baby is monarch of all the place with her tumbled curls and her dimpled grace, and so, when she travelled the long, long way from her chair to the table, it lit the day for the House Next Door with a shining light that never shall pale through the long years' flight. Their gladness glowed like a golden star on this day, unmarked in the calendar, for Baby's first step wakened joys a score in the hearts of all in the House Next Door.

PILE SUFFERERS

You can only get quick and permanent relief by removing the cause—congestion of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Nothing but an internal medicine can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After prescribing it for 1000 patients with success in 960 cases, he named it HEM-ROID. Druggists everywhere now sell it and McDermid & Jury, Bonds Drug Store guarantees money-back if HEM-ROID does not end Piles in any form.

OLD SONGS

THAT PIECE OF SONG,

That old and antique song we heard, last night.

EVENING.

(Contributed By Beatrice.)

In the west the sun is declining,
Sinks beneath the mountain height,
Tints the clou 's with golden lining,
Sets the hills with rubies shining,
Then bids all the world good-night,
Good-night, good-night.

In the wind the grass is bending,
Flow'rs now slumber in the shade,
Birds to seek their nests are wending,
Flocks in fold the shepherds tending.
Homeward hies the mountain maid.
Good-night, good-night.

ing,
Bleaker winds the flowers benumb-
On the hearth the cricket sings,
Home the laden bee flies humming,
And the drowsy bat is coming,
Darting on his leathern wings,
Good-night, good-night.

Man now seeks his peaceful dwelling,
Circles round the ruddy blaze,
Of the sweets of labor telling
Till his heart with rapture swelling,
Grateful gives his Maker's praise.
Good-night, good-night.

PRIMROSES

When in the future yet unknown,
my mind
Returns, and groping, opens the gate of years,
And haunts again the paths left far behind
In youthful countryside of joy and tears;
It will recall these fields, these lanes,
these flowers,
These days of springtime pleasure,
free from cares.
Then too perhaps, when memory fills
the hours,
The scent of primroses will fill the air.

Roseneath

ROSENEATH, July 19 (Examiner Correspondence). — Miss Hopkins, of the Department of Agriculture, Guelph, held a coaching class in connection with the Woman's Institute, in the Town Hall on Tuesday, from 10 a.m. until 4.30 p.m. Owing to the busy season there were not as many of the young members or young girls present as expected, but those who were present obtained many good things beneficial to the average girl of to-day, and especially to the girl on the farm. During the forenoon Miss Hopkins spoke chiefly on nutrition, the school lunch, and menus for the pre-school child, including selection of food, packing, etc., giving a lesson on the proper proportion of proteins, carbo-hydrates, fats and mineral acids and vitamines and roughage such as contained in fresh fruits and vegetables. Her talk was most interesting, explaining many methods of variety from one meal to another.

In the afternoon Miss Hopkins took up the living-room on the farm, its color, style of furnishings, suitability to the farm house, simplicity, durability and arrangement of furniture. All points were scored very closely. Then the workshop kitchens—the kitchens should be small to save steps, but many farm kitchens are used as dining-rooms, and make the difference. Miss Hopkins remarked that many of the kitchens here were like a young golf course, and emphasized strongly for women to save their steps, and said the easiest thing for a man to replace on the farm was a woman, which is no doubt true, and was agreeded upon by the ladies. Miss Hopkins took her standpoint from the unnecessary steps, the inconveniences around the houses that could easily be changed to labor-saving for the woman, and as she says, go down to the barn and one could not wish for better equipment, where water, food, and many other articles were all convenient.

For a short time Miss Hopkins took up "The Country Girl's Wardrobe." The general appearance, harmony of appearance,c oshmrfdwdw mony of style, color, etc.

In closing Miss Hopkins said there are three things that every woman and girl have got to be interested in, and said: We have got to eat. We must wear clothes; and we have to have a home or a room, a place to stay and call home; therefore, may every woman do her best to build up her country besides beautiffying it. Those who were present felt they had learned something they would not get in books, and enjoyed not only a pleasant but an instructive and beneficial afternoon.

The president, Miss Elva Sandercock, was unable to give information regarding the contestants from this Institute to attend the judging class to be held at Brighton in August.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

NO DOUBT YOU HAVE NOTICED that needlework pictures worked in cross stitch are having a vogue.

• • • • • • •

They may be worked in black and white silhouette, or in color. I am told that the former is a favorite with many.

• • • • • • •

Recently I saw a charming picture of a lady in quaint crinoline costume, holding an old-fashioned nosegay and done in colors. It was really beautiful.

• • • • • • •

The picture will be large or small according to the size of the canvas on which it is worked. If there are six holes to the inch, the picture, including the frame, will measure fifteen inches square.

• • • • • • •

I am going to try to give you the measurements as accurately as possible, not being able to print an illustration of the picture, so if there is anything you do not just understand about it, please do not hesitate to write in and I will gladly give you the desired information.

• • • • • • •

If a smaller picture is wanted, a canvas with eight or ten holes to the inch should be used. Then again if a larger picture is wanted, a canvas with less holes to the inch should be used.

• • • • • • •

For working the picture in colors, you might use the following. The main part of the frock may be done in lavender. Then there is a small panel in the skirt and vest of the bodice, and this you might do in canary yellow.

• • • • • • •

There is a small band on the hat and this might be a deeper shade of the same yellow.

• • • • • • •

Then there are a few buttons down the front of the panel, and these in black will accent the colors interestingly, and this is somewhat essential.

• • • • • • •

The hands, face, and neck of the lady should be in flesh tone. The arms are in sleeves which would be of lavender of the frock. Then there are white lines coming diagonally from the waist, which should be in a deeper tone of the lavender.

• • • • • • •

Then we come to the nosegay. The nosegay is composed invariably of mixed flowers so that the squares should be in various colors.

• • • • • • •

There will be dark portions in green to represent foliage. The stem will be green also. You will find if you make the entire background in a neutral color it will be very pleasing.

• • • • • • •

The frame in black would set off the picture to best advantage.

• • • • • • •

Of course, the above colors were just suggestions, but when a picture is intended for some special room the tones of the room should be the guide.

• • • • • • •

And if the picture is for a gift, the favorite colors of the person to whom it is to be given should govern the selection of colors.

• • • • • • •

In working the picture in silhouette, black and white are customary, but any two sharply contrasting colors can be used.

WHOOPSIE

"Wow, look at the curves on that baby!"

"Looks like a fast one, don't she?"

"And how! Wanta try her?"

"Yeh, I guess so; looks pretty risky though."

"Give you a thrill, all right."

"Plenty well built, huh?"

"Zowie! I'll sure take my hat off for that one."

"I'd like to cling tight to her, all right!"

"Yeh, wanta try her?"

"All right, let's go."

"Say, Mister, give us two tickets to that roller coaster, will you?"

Polka Dots Lend a Staccato Note

Can a leopard change his spots? Probably not, and surely the smart woman who accents her costume with polka-dots does not want to change her spots either. In the Vogue sketch on the LEFT above, white chiffon dotted in black is used to tie this into the neck-line and the sleeves of the black crepe frock. And the sleeveless jacket does not hide these points of charm. Accessories, too, have been lent a staccato note by polka-dots. The white linen bag is dotted in black and has a black ring by way of fastening. Even handkerchiefs look gayer when dotted. The larger one in blue and white is for sports and the smaller one with dots only in the corner has a navy blue center. On the RIGHT is a smart one-piece frock with a short cape, made of the popular tweed in shades of blue. It gives a hint of the fall mode.

Liquor Profits Of Millions In Premier Ferguson's Hands Not a Cent For Unemployed

Two of Premier Ferguson's "blue ruiners" will cast their gloom upon Peterboro, fortunately only for a few hours, Tuesday: the Hon. William Finlayso nand Mrs. Howard Fallis.

And as they pretend to be deeply concerned about the unemployed while they are chiefly engaged in magnifying the temporary trade depression, which exists in Canada as it does all over the world, probably they might answer layson and Mrs. Howard Fallis. loyed have a tragic right to ask:—

WHY HAS NOT PREMIER FERGUSON USED THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF LIQUOR PROFITS FOR THE PROVISION OF WORK TO RELIEVE UNEMPLOYMENT IN ONTARIO?

These millions are "velvet," a revenue the Drury Government only a few years ago never dreamed of.

And the Hon. William Finlayson and Mrs. Howard Fallis, "stiflers of Canadian business," as The Financial Post of Toronto describes them, needn't tell us how much the Ferguson Government spends on the ordinary administration of Ontario.

We all know that the Ferguson Government can spend the people's money and pile up debts faster than the Liberal Government at Ottawa, under the late Mr. Robb and Mr. Dunning, can reduce taxes and pay off the national debt.

EVERY FARMER'S TAX BILL IS A BITTER REMINDER OF THE FACT THAT THE HON. G. HOWARD FERGUSON AND THE HON. WILLIAM FINLAYSON ARE THE MOST PROFICIENT TAX COLLECTORS THIS PROVINCE HAS EVER KNOWN.

If G. Howard Ferguson had any interest in the unemployed, which nobody believes (least of all The Financial Post, the greatest financial paper in Canada), why did he not promptly draw on his lush liquor profits to provide temporary relief work?

OFFER TO AID EMPLOYMENT

Will Mr. Finlayson tell the unemployed, however few they are, how long he and Premier Ferguson and James Fordyce Strickland are going to wait until they accept the offer of Premier King to pay dollar for dollar with Ontario for the undertaking of public works to relieve unemployment.

Every day that passes adds strength to the statement of The Financial Post that the Conservative "blue ruin" campaign is unmitigated "hypocrisy."

The fact is that the Hon. William Finlayson "hates" Premier King more than he loves the unemployed.

Is there any man in Peterboro, employed or unemployed, who is going to permit himself to be a pawn in the game of expressed hatred which Mr. Finlayson, Dr. Manion and other Conservative "blue ruiners" are playing at the expense of Canadian prosperity and business confidence?

Is any farmer in this riding going to vote against the Liberal government that has been steadily reducing the cost of Government, the national debt and federal taxes, at the behest of the Hon. William Finlayson, representative of Howard Ferguson the insatiable tax collector, who shoots up the taxes of farmers especially, without any sympathy for the farmers' difficulties and without any thought of where the money is to come from.

Every elector in this riding surely knows that when Mrs. Fallis talks of unemployment that it is her job to do so and bigger and better elections is her slogan.

Do the people of Peterborough know, Liberals and Conservatives both, that Mrs. Fallis has gone up and down western Ontario painting a picture of industrial depression here that certainly Mayor Denne wouldn't recognize as his smart city. One of her most lugubrious descriptions of Peterborough was at Wallaceburg where in her speech Mrs. Fallis all but buried the industries of Peterborough with women weeping and mourning along the streets.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS HAVE REPORTED FOR MONTHS THAT PETERBORO IS ONE OF THE BRIGHTEST BUSINESS SPOTS IN THEIR TERRITORY.

Let Mrs. Fallis take on all the speaking assignments she can handle, but let her beware of civic disloyalty in her service of the Bennett party.

Premier Ferguson has no intention of spending (here in Peterborough) any of the liquor millions which would provide ample work for these few months of trade depression.

If inaction speaks louder than words, then Peterborough can tell the two visiting "glooms" that there is no unemployment emergency here. For, James Fordyce Strickland, M.P.P. has done nothing whatever about it.

True, Mr. Strickand has "talked" about it in a general way, but he has not seen enough unemployment in Peterborough to impel him to "do" something.

Mr. Strickland has not asked Premier Ferguson to spend some of the liquor profits on provincial work in Peterborough. Neither has he asked Premier Ferguson to accept at once Premier King's "dollar for dollar" offer, whereby the Dominion Government will pay half the cost of provincial enterprises designed to relieve unemployment.

If Hon. William Finlayson and Mrs. Howard Fallis allege that unemployment is serious in Peterborough they will publicly accuse James Fordyce Strickland, M.P.P. of being unaware of such an unemployment emergeny or of ignoring it.

The main fact is that the Hon. William Finlayson and the Hon. Howard Ferguson with the big liquor profits in their hands have done nothing to lighten the effects of the world wide trade depression in this province.

MR. FINLAYSON CAN TALK ALL NIGHT HERE BUT THE ACCUSING FACT WILL STILL REMAIN, THE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT OF ONTARIO HAS NOT LIFTED A HAND, IN A SPECIAL WAY AND WITH THEIR SPECIAL LIQUOR FUNDS, TO HELP THE UNEMPLOYED.

Of course they will try to persuade the electors that the business slump was caused by the Dominion Government, and that it would have been avoided by the high tariff policy the Conservatives have been preaching for forty years.

CAN'T HOLD U. S. AS A MODEL

Well, it happens that the United States with just about the highest tariff in the world, is suffering from a business depression far more intense and widespread than is Canada.

The "New York Times" published a news article last Thursday quoting Governor Roosevelt of New York State who after inspecting the state asylums declared that the trade depression was filling the asylums.

The heading of that article was "Slump in business filling asylums. Gov. Roosevelt Finds in Inspecting Three Institutions Great Increase in State Wards."

Mrs. Fallis in 1926, 1925 and other elections could get away with her high tariff theory, but this year her model high-tariff country, the United States, has utterly confounded her.

Mrs. Fallis, the New York Times recently estimated that there are 8,000,000 unemployed in United States, the country you want Canada to copy! Laugh that one off with a wise-crack. Please explain it to those who follow your empty theories, and who are so blind they will not see.

Hon. William Finlayson and Mrs. Fallis needn't try to explain why Premier Ferguson refused to spend any of his liquor money on providing work for the unemployed of this province.

PREMIER FERGUSON CHOSE TO SACRIFICE THE UNEMPLOYED OF ONTARIO TO THE POLITICAL ADVANTAGE OF THE HON. R. B. BENNETT AND THE FEDERAL CONSERVATIVE PARTY.

The inaction of Premier Ferguson was intended to increase unemployment rather than relieve it in the hope that some of the men temporarily out of jobs might vote against the Liberal party when as during the last few weeks Premier Ferguson and all the members of his cabinet took to the hustings blaming Mackenzie King.

Every sensible elector can see through this cheap game, and on election day give Hon. Wm. Finlayson and Premier Ferguson the answer they deserve by voting for

Raybestos Nose Out Port Hope Ontarios 7-6

THREE RUNS IN NINTH TO WIN

Result of Game Had No Bearing on League Standing—Oshawa and Rays in Play-off.

WAKLEY GOOD ON MOUND.

Holmes and Maudsley Work on the Rubber on the Brake-lining Team.

Grabbing three runs in the ninth innings, the Raybestos ball team just managed in Port Hope on Saturday afternoon to nose out the Ontarios 7 to 6.

The game had no bearing on the league standing since Oshawa and the Rays have already secured their berths for the championship play-off, but fielding a patched lineup the Ontarios made every effort to grab the fixture and nearly succeeded. The Rays delayed the punch to their offensive until the last two frames when they chased six counters across.

Before that it looked very blank for them. Their batters were mowed down with monotonous regularity by Wakely, left-handed ace of the Ontarios, who gave the best twirling display of his career. With ragged support he continued along with purpose and retired thirteen Rays on strikes. On his work he deserved to win and would have had it not been for two errors in the outfield that allowed the Rays to prance in with two runs.

Holmes started the game for the Rays and worked effectively until the fifth when he was replaced in favor of Maudsley. The "Sailor" had little on the ball and along with some errors he got into some very tough spots.

The Rays secured one run in the first frame, when H. Nicholls doubled, went to third on Moore's single, and scored on a passed ball. Wakely retired the rest of the side on strikes.

Neither team did anything again until the fourth, when Stan Crossett poled out a home run. Rowecliffe getting on with a hit scored on a wild throw by Mein, in attempting a double play on Chalk's roller.

In the eighth the Rays went out and grabbed three runs, aided by Devine's error in left field. The Ontarios in their half took the lead again by also getting a trio of counters.

The Rays brought their total to seven in their half of the ninth after two were out. Heckman, being sent in as a pinch-hitter, starting the trouble with a smart single. The best Port Hope could do was to secure one, although they had the bases loaded when the third man grounded out.

HOME RUN HITTING FEATURES OF AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES

Eddie Morgan Connects With Circuit in Ninth to Give Indians 9-8 Decision Over Yanks.

SHIRES AGAIN CONNECTS.

It is usually only in the realm of baseball fiction that the hero wins a game by hitting a home run in the ninth inning, but every once in a while such a feat turns up in the world of fact in the major leagues. And yesterday there were several aspirants for such a heroic role in the American league games.

Eddie Morgan of Cleveland was the only one who actually gained a victory by a home run hitting feat at the final moment. Eddie slammed his 18th circuit blow of the season with one out and one on base in the ninth inning yesterday to defeat the New York Yankees, 9 to 8, and to undo the work of those more famous home run hitters, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. Ruth poled his 34th homer off Milburn Shoffner, a perennial victim of the Ruthian drives, in the fourth inning. Bib Falk gave Morgan something for a rface for a place in the spotlight by hitting for the circuit when he appeared as a pinch batsman in the sixth.

Jimmy Foxx also had the satisfaction of winning a ball game by the home run route. Foxx connected for No. 26 homer, with one mate on base in the eighth and enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 3. Other results of this homer were to give Lefty Grove his 13th victory of the year; to hand Cantrell his first American League defeat the day after the Tigers acquired him from Toronto, and to put the Athletics four games ahead of the Washington Senators, defeated at St. Louis.

The Senators produced a pinch homer by Joe Judge in the ninth inning following a similar clout by Art Shires, who supplanted Judge at first base, but they only produced three runs, not enough to overcome the St. Louis lead and the Browns won 8 to 6.

To complete the American League's cycle, Bob Reeves of Boston hit a home with two on base in his one time at bat in the Red Sox' second game, but it only served to prolong the agony. Chicago's White Sox pulled out a 5 to 4 victory in the ninth inning of the second game after pounding out a 16 to 4 decision in the opener as Ted Lyons scored his 14th victory of the season.

Prepare Huge Welcome For Guest To-night

TORONTO, Ont., July 21 (C P) — One of the greatest parades preceding an official welcome in the history of Toronto will mark the homecoming to-night of Jack Guest, Canadian champion and recent winner of the Diamond Sculls at Henley.

Preparations have been completed for a two-hour demonstration of popular acclaim to the worlds amateur rowing champion. At City Hall a reception has been planned for him and a chest of silverware will be presented as a token of the appreciation of Torontonians for the honor the smiling Guest has brought to the city for the third time.

ROCHESTER WINS THREE GAMES OVER WEEK-END TO INCREASE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE LEAD

Leafs Now Lead Orioles Half a Game With Royals One Full Game Behind.

Montreal Takes Double Victory From Baltimore—Toronto Idle on Sunday.

The Rochester Redwings and Toronto Maple Leafs were the chief gainers in week-end engagements in the International League and the Baltimore Orioles the chief losers.

Rochester, by winning three of its four battles over Saturday and Sunday, increased its league lead to four full games. Baltimore, dropping two out of three, lost second place to Toronto which won two games on Saturday and was idle yesterday. Toronto now leads the Orioles by half a game with the Montreal Royals another game to the bad.

Rochester broke even in yesterday's double bill with Jersey City, dropping the first game 3-2 in 10 innings and winning the second by the same count. George Grant outpitched Derringer and Smith in the opener, keeping the Redwings' eleven hits so scattered that they did little damage. Billy Southworth drove home the tying run for Rochester in the ninth but the Skeeters jumped on Smith for three hits in the tenth, Veach driving home the winning run. George Miner gave up only two singles in the first six innings of the nightcap but in the seventh and final frame, four hits climaxed by Martin's double put over three runs and won the game with only one out. Foreman and Irvin gave Jersey City only three hits.

Double Win for Royals

Montreal beat Baltimore twice, 14 to 6 and 2-1. The Royals hopped on Edwards for five hits in the first inning and the Baltimore hurler gave way to Coumbe with only two out. Before the frame was over the Royals had five runs. They added five more in the fifth to put the game definitely into the winning column. Gautreau got four of Montreal's 17 hits. Classet pitched shout ball until the eighth when he eased up and Baltimore broke through for two runs in that frame and four in the ninth. The second game was a pitcher's battle between Smith and Jim weaver with Montreal bunching hits off the latter for two runs in the fifth.

Herb Thomas' home run with two on in the eighth gave Newark a 7-5 victory over Buffalo. Kelly had pounded the ball over the fence in the seventh to give Buffalo a 5-4 lead. The Bears collected 16 hits and pulled off a triple play in the second in which Cohen, Windle, Hargreaves and Jordan figured.

Jess Petty's fine relief pitching stopped the Bisons after they had made 11 hits and four runs off Brennan and Mamaux in the first five innings.

Toronto and Reading had an open date.

CANTRELL SOLD.

TORONTO, July 21.—The desperate effort put forth by Manager Steve O'Neill and his hired help to win both ends of the double-header played on Saturday at the Stadium must have been made with the object in view of putting the fans in the proper frame of mind to receive the news that Guy Cantrell, the leading pitcher of the locals, had been sold to Detroit. Had either of the games gone against the locals there is no gainsaying the fact that the fans would have been "up in arms" over the sale of Cantrell. In both contests the locals came from behind to win, scoring a 2-1 victory in the opener and capturing the second contest by virtue of a rally in the sixth inning which netted them four runs to turn seeming defeat into a 5-2 victory.

In the opener Phil Page had a slight margin over Warnecke, who worked for the Keys. Page held the visitors to six hits, walked three and struck out but one, while the visiting moundsman was reached for eight hits, struck out four and allowed two charities. The game was fast, the fielding being of high order, only two erors being committed, one by each team.

Tilden Member Of Davis Cup Team

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., July 21.—(C.P.).—William T. Tilden, hero of many Davis Cup tennis matches, will again be a member of the United States team in the challenge round against France. This was announced by Joseph V. Wear, chairman of the United States Davis Cup Committee.

Others selected to represent America in the challenge round are: George Ott, Chicago; Wilmer Allison, Fort Worth, Texas, and John Van Ryn of Princeton.

Softball Notes.

What should prove to be one of the best softball games of the season will take place tonight when Harrison's and Westclox lock horns. Both teams have three wins and no losses, and are heading the parade for the second. Tonight's winner will take first place.

Darling and Parsons will most likely do the mound work for Westclox and Harrisons respectively. Darling has won his last three starts, while Parsons, the Omemee boy, won the only game he twirled for the Storemen.

The game will commence at 6.30 sharp and will be played at Central School grounds.

Tuesday night Harrison's swing right back in action against the fast-coming Sugar Bowl team. This should be another smart fixture.

All games look good this week. Westclox and Sugar Bowl battle Thursday while Belmonts and C.G.E. are on the cards Wednesday.

BROOKLYN AND CUBS SUFFER LET-DOWN IN NATIONAL LOOP

Cardinals Drive Clark From Mound to Give League Leaders 15-6 Decision.

ERRORS PLENTIFUL.

The National League produced no last minute homers but there were plenty of them and an even more plenteous supply of hits as Brooklyn and Chicago suffered sharp let downs after the finish of their crucial series, ish.

The St. Louis Cardinals handed the League leaders a 15 to 6 trouncing driving Bill Clark from the mound with seven runs in the second inning. The Cards made five errors but atoned for them by pounding out 17 hits two of them homers.

Chicago went down with hardly a murmur under the assaults of the New York Giants who likewise made 17 blows and won by a 13 to 5 count. The Cubs led only in the first two innings when they scored four of their runs. Hack Wilson hit his 26th home run of the year as the final Cub gesture of the game. The result of these two games put Chicago one point closer to Brooklyn and left the teams in virtual tie for first place.

Boston and Cincinnati battling for sixth place failed to reach a decision in their attempt to break the current tie. The Reds won the first game 8 to 5 with a home run barrage behind the effective pitching of Red Lucas, but Boston reversed the result in the second, pounding three pitchers for a 13 to 1 triumph as Tom Zachary held the Reds.

STOCK CRAFT AND MOTOR.

Grind Carried Out Under Supervision of C.P.B.A. on Clear Lake Course.

(By a Staff Reporter)

SOUTH BEACH, July 21.—A mark which will give outboard motorboat drivers throughout the world something to shoot at this year and possibly for several years to come, was set by "Jimmy" Graham Oates of Toronto at South Beach, Clear Lake, during the week-end. Starting at 9.15 o'clock Saturday night he drove a stock displacement outboard craft powered by a stock Johnson Sea Horse "32" motor for 24 hours to a total distances of 491 9.10 miles at an average speed of 20.48 miles per hour.

It was Oates who set a new Canadian record, which will probably be given recognition as a world's record, for stock outboard displacement boats when he sped for 12 hours over the same course on Clear Lake with the same boat at an average speed of 21.75 miles per hour during June. Up to yesterday's test, no official record had been set for the 24 hour run in a stock displacement outboard craft.

The 24-hour grind was carried out under the supervision of the Canadian Power Boat Association, who will accept the mark as a Canadian record when they have satisfied themselves that the motor, boat and fuel used in the test were stock in every respect, according to a statement of Lorne Ardiel, president of the association, last night. Charles Turnbull of Toronto, vice-president, and W. E. Brooks of South Beach, and Spencer R. Williams of Toronto, Ontario representatives of the Association, were present at the test as well as Mr. Ardiel.

Ten checkers supervised the course, closely observing "Jimmy" Oates progress around each of the five buoys on the two and one-half mile course during Saturday night and yesterday. Storm lanterns on the buoys made the night navigation possible.

E. E. Estlick, Peterborough, and C. H. Shute, Toronto, were referees and supervised the timing.

Falls Asleep Once

Several times during the test the hardy driver was troubled by sleepiness. When he was in his twelfth hour, at 8.30 o'clock Sunday morning, he fell asleep speeding down the mile side of the course towards South Beach, and, losing control, allowed the craft to veer off into shallow water. Striking bottom, the boat could be seen to stagger but shot over the shallow into deeper water. But the motor did not pause and Oates was soon in control again.

Shortly after daylight on his 79th lap, Oates made his only stop when a scale off the inside of one of the fuel tanks clogged the feed pipe on the motor. He was on his way again in four minutes.

Two hundred and forty miles were covered by the intrepid record seeker in the first 12 hours, for the greater part of which the course was blanketed by darkness. His average for the 12 hours was exactly 20 miles per hour, a figure 1.75 miles per hour short of that he set in June. His fastest lap was the 174th, which he did in 6 minutes and 50 second. During daylight he averaged 10 seconds a lap better than in the night.

Lake Becomes Rough

Weather conditions during the day were excellent for the trial, but in the night just before dawn the assistants on shore despaired when a vicious squall came up. The lake smoothed down after half an hour.

Non-stop refueling was carried out at 6-hour intervals by Don Wood of Peterborough and Bill King of Toronto. Wood and King used a fast speed boat and on re-fueling occasions sped alongside the endurance boat. Wood climbed into the racing craft with the can of new fuel and when he was through his job clambered back. Castrol motor oil and Super-Shell gosoline were used throughout.

Oates was rendered temporarily deaf by the roar of the high-powered motor after he had been on the course a few hours. It was necessary to write all messages to him. When he stepped to the dock, aided by bystanders, at 9.15 o'clock last evening he failed to hear the shouts of victory raised by his helpers and the large crowd of spectators who had gathered during the day to see the test. Hot chocolate and meat sandwiches sent out with the re-fuellers were eagerly received at various times in the 24 hours.

Both the boat and motor were constructed in the Canadian Johnson Motor Company plant in Peterborough. The outfit is known by the trade name "Matched Unit," and weighed 475 pounds. The boat is an "Imperial Runabout" model.

DEAL PROFITABLE FOR TWO CLUBS

At first glance it might appear that the Leafs, who are right in the running for the International League flag, have been seriously weakened by the sale of Guy Cantrell's services to the Detroit Tigers, but on reflection this opinion would not be shared by all. In the deal Toronto gets Pitcher Herring and an outfielder, Oscar Eckhardt of Beaumont. Eckhardt is a good batsman, and the O'Neillmen can use such an individual to advantage. Herring has been used in American League games this season, and he has hurled effectively at times. He is expected to be a consistent winner in the International. Announcement of the transaction was made on Saturday, and Cantrell immediately departed for the City of Straits, where he proceeded to lose his initial start in the Barnard loop. He went in as a relief hurler and the Athletics greeted him with hits and runs in the eighth and ninth innings.

BRINTONS AND ELECTRIC TEAM DIVIDE POINTS

Bayliss' Snap Goal Deceives Daynes and Brinton Leads at the Interval.

TWO GOALS EACH.

Darling's Oblique Shot Gains Equalizer—B. McMaster and Bayliss Score Other Goals.

Two all was an excellent criterion of the soccer league game between the Canadian General and The Brinton Athletics at Brinton Ground, on Saturday afternoon, before a large attendance of spectators. The code was of the highest order. Jack Chambers turned out for the C. G. E. after an absence of five years is as good as ever.

This drawn match puts the Brinton and the C. G. E. in the league with the odd point making the difference. While the Packers now lead the league in a double schedule to be played.

First Half

Opening exchanges proved interesting with the forwards endeavouring to get a quick counter. Then the Brinton took the offensive to keep Daynes, C. G. E. goal-keeper, busy saving shot ranged at him. James being unfortunate with a mid-air drive after he had outwitted the full backs. This bombardment was short-lived and the carpet boys wilted for a little while and the Canadian General concentrated on the opposition citadel to test Green in goal at short and long range. Hard luck dogged the C. G. E. front rank, they would get inside the defense to fail at the critical moment when a timely shot was all that was necessary. On a visit to the C. G. E. goal, Hanson carried the sphere against the full backs to furnish an oblique shot that rolled past the post. Clever football was shown by the players. No sooner had a decision took place, then a raid would cause excitement around the goal area. Darling, at outside left, was always prominent, time and again, he beat the half backs on the run, checked quickly to center into goal, but on one occasion took the custodian by surprise when the ball landed on the cross bar, it being worth of a tally. Westwood, initiated a seige on the C. G. E. citadel and pestered the life out of the defense with alternating the style of play in the vicinity of the goal-area. Robb noticed the sport anticipated and he nullified the attack with first time clearances up the field. Picking up a loose ball, James combination with Boon resulted in them gaining a favorable position and just as James was in the act of shooting, he feinted the play to pass back to Bayliss who landed the ball in the far corner of the net, just one minute before the interval. Half time, Brinton 1. Canadian General 0.

Half Time

After the interval, the players reverted to the long swinging passes. Taking advantage of James' indivual effort when he tried to force the issue at the C. G. E. end, Bayliss rapped a hot drive from twenty yard range to strike the cross bar with Daynes awaiting the outcome. The Canadian General half back frustrated attack after attack by the Brinton front rank which finished by Robb sending the McMaster brothers away to the other end where he shot point blank at close range. Green falling to his knees to avert disaster. From the kick out, they returned to Green's charge in close formation with combination of the spectacular kind, until Ben got well set to finish with a rocket drive along the ground. The custodian let the ball get away from his grip which forced him to fall on the top of it to defend his goal. At this point of the tussle, the C. G. E. hammered way to get shot after shot at the custodian. The Electric boys forced the issue. Robb opening up a raid when he landed the ball over the full backs head. McMaster trapped it quickly to Quinn who let Jack McMaster try his luck with a rocket drive. Green saved but the ball travelled out to Darling again on the left wing. The C. G. E. winger beat Lucas cleverly on the run into goal, he made progress by landing the ball in the far corner of the net for the equaliser. From the center kick, Boon went on his own down into the flag corner to finish with a perfect cross that Jones failed to connect properly after he had only the goal-keeper to beat. The contest continued with long swinging passes to make the play be at one end then the other within the shorest space of time. No sooner had Westwood tested Daynes, was away on the left wing beating all before him. He made tract for goal with the ball at his toe and when the opposition thought he was in the act of shotting, they were deceived quickly by a short pass that McMaster banged the ball into the net along the ground to put his team ahead. With twelve minutes to go, Westwood inaugurated a bombardment to find Chambers and Laidler unbeatable near goal. But he altered his method by sending in long shots and it was not long after, Bayliss drove a hard and fast one at the side of the upright. Daynes fastened on to the ball but their was too much sting behind it to prevent it hitting the upright to bounce into the rigging. Both sides seemed contented with the result and left the field with the score two each. Canadian General 2; Brinton Athletic 2.

Brinton Athletic—D. Green, Goal; F. Lucas and J. Sharman, full backs; J. Creighton, T. Westwood and J. O'Halloran, halves; J. Boon, W. James, E. Jones, E. A. Bayliss and E. Hanson, forwards.

Canadian General—J. Daynes, goal; J. Chambers and S. Laidler, full backs; J. Mitchell, R. Robb and A. Burgess, halves; S. Keill, J. Quinn, B. McMaster, J. McMaster, and H. Darling, forwards.

Referee—James Hawthorne. Linesmen—T. Stewart and J. Chamberlain.

TURNER WINNER JUNIOR TOURNEY

Youthful Players Play Good Brand of Tennis on Saturday Afternoon.

The matches of the Junior Tennis Club on Saturday were watched by a large gallery of spectators. The youthful players had the courts all to themselves as the senior players were in Cobourg. All the games were fast, two sets out of three being required for the winning of the match. Arrangements were in the hands of a committee composed of Verne Armstrong, Miss Violet Davidson and Jim Turner The finals resulted in six wins for the side captained by Jim Turner and five wins for the side captained by Miss Violet Davidson, whose energetic supervision of the games resulted in a very satisfactory program.

On Thursday of this week, there will be another tournament here to pick out the best players for the tournament to be played with Port Hope visiting enthusiasts in two weeks' time.

The whole day proved to be a great success and the players worked hard for their own sides. The results were as follows (first named player being on Jim Turner's side; second named on Miss Davidson's side:

Ladies' singles: Barbara Foster vs Isobel Davidson (winner; Jean Harvey vs. Gwen Sorby (winner.)

Men's singles: Gordon Kirkwood vs. Gordon Dearborn (winner); Ben Swartz (winner), vs. Max Swartz; Jack Kirkwood (winner), vs. Gordon Dearborn.

At the Theatres

AT THE REGENT

RIN TIN TIN, IN "ON THE BORDER"

The hero of little boys and girls alike, Rin Tin Tin, is at the Regent Theatre in a thrilling story that gives him plenty of scope for his peculiar talents. "On the Border" is called Rinty's first talking picture, and he barks many times, and with various inflection in it.

It is a story of the Rancho de las Flores, where the old, impoverished don and his pretty daughter live with the big dog. Here comes the villain with his racket that has to do with smuggling Chinamen, and drives out the owner and tries to capture the daughter, who sings to the muisc of her guitar, in the lovely gardens of the rancho. But Dave, the tramp, intervenes, and all ends happily.

The children who thronged the Regent on Saturday had the time of their lives, watching the dog picture and the serial, "The Final Reckoning," which is a hark back to the deaf and dumb drama, but is vastly entertaining. The shouts and enthusiastic applause of the youngsters filled the house, when their favorite, the "good guys," succeeded in temporarily outwitting the "bad guys" of the seria.—Jeanette.

AT THE CAPITOL.

RAMON NOVARRO IN "IN GAY MADRID."

This is a romantic and colorful picture, with the gay and handsome Ramon Novarro as the central figure. The boyish and careless caballero of sunny Spain has his way with the damsels of Madrid. Then he becomes involved in a fight in a night club, over the charming dancer, Goyita, and is sent by his father to Santiago to attend the university there. Nothing daunted, he commences his romantic career afresh. But Carmena refuses to succumb to his wiles and leads him a pretty dance. It even involves a duel after which a lightning finish brings matters to a satisfatcory conclusion.

"In Gay Madrid" is a satisfying and entertaining talkie, with Novarro's beautiful voice as the highlight. Whether he really sings his lovely numbers, or a "ghost" singer lurks in unseen shadows, it does not matter. They are wonderfully entrancing, and his speaking voice has the thickened bur of the Spanish consonants, to give verity to the setting.—Jeanette.

WHITBY MAN SEEKS $6,159 FROM A. E. MOYSEY COPANY

TORONTO, July 21. (C.P.) —G. P. Lynd, Whitby, has issued a writ in the Supreme Court of Ontario at Osgoode Hall here, claiming $6159 from A. E. Moysey & Co., local brokers. This amount is alleged to be the balance due after stock transactions.

BAN IS PLACED ON TREE-SITTING

Lad at Niagara Falls Forced to Come Down By Children's Aid Official.

UP THREE DAYS.

TORONTO, Ont., July 21 (C.P.)—Just as the craze of edurance tree-sitting was beginning to grip the fancy of Ontario Boyhood, their dreams of records and "fame" have been rudely shattered by an official edict banning this new arboreal sport in the Province.

Ruling that tree-sitting is foolish and dangerous to health, the Children's Aid Society of Ontario has instructed its inspectors to bring down the would-be champions as soon as they go up. As a result, Arthur Grandmoston, aged 14, Canada's only known tree-sitter is down from his bough at Niagara Falls, Ont.

Arthur, who had been on his perch for three days, was wondering just how long his rival across the Niagara River would last when he was peremptorily ordered down.

J. J. Kelso, Director of the Society for the Province, issued the order. He decided Arthur had better abandon his title ambitions before another tree-sitter went aloft to beat the record and so launch the sport in Ontario.

"But what will be done if would-be record breakers won't come down; cut down the tree?" Mr. Kelso was asked.

"We'll make them come down all right," he replied. "Under the law we can take measures when children's health is endangered."

HEART ATTACK FATAL.

KITCHENER, Ont., July 21.— (C. P.)—The heat wave claimed its first victim in this district Saturday in the village of New Dundee, twelve miles south-west of here, when George Shupea, 75 year old retired farmer, collapsed with a heart attack, induced by the high temperature.

FRASERVILLE BEATS BAILIEBORO 16-15

Heavy Hitting is Feature of Girls' Softball Fixture on Saturday.

BAILIEBORO, July 21 (Examiner Correspondence). — Fraserville defeated Bailieboro by a single score in a girls softball fixture here on Saturday last in a game that was featured by some heavy hitting on the part of both teams. E. Perrin, of the home team, had a total of seven strikeouts. The final count was 16-15.

The line-ups:

Bailieboro — E. Perrin, p; A. Barnard, c; D. Dawson, 1b; I. Campbell, 2b; W. Watt, 3b; E. Jewison, ss; B. Barnard, lf; H. Fry, cf; E. Johnston, rf.

ST. EDMUND'S CRICKET TEAM BEATEN AT GUELPH 101-98.

GUELPH, July 21. — Guelph cricketers added another victory to their long list in inter-city games played this season when they defeated the St. Edmund's Club of Toronto, 101 to 98, at the Reformatory Ovavl on Saturday afternoon.

The teams were evenly matched, and it was only the fine batting of Collins, who ran up a well-deserved 53, that gave the locals the slight edge.

Lister was St. Edmund's leading scorer with 33 not out.

Many university courses could be made more interesting if the profs, in emulation of the movies, adopted theme songs. —Pennsylvania Punch Bowl.

Wemp's Unemployment Plan Outcome of King's Newmarket Speech.

RAILWAY COMMISSION IS KEY

TORONTO, Ont., July 21.—(C.P.) —The City of Toronto will proceed immediately to put men to work on the grade separations here, said Mayor Bert S. Wemp last night providing Premier Mackenzie King sees to it that the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada abandons its refusal to permit the city to go ahead with this work.

Mayor Wemp made this declaration in reply to Premier King's speech at Newmarket Saturday in which the Premier proferred Federal aid and if an admission was secured from Premier G. H. Ferguson that Ontario could not relieve the unemployment within its borders and if the proposed aid was restricted to subways for the elimination of level railway crossings.

The Mayor further stated the work would be proceeded with if the Railway Commissioners consented regardless of whether Federal assistance was forthcoming.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SPLASHERS

Hiding behind a box near the back steps of his hollow stump bungalow, Uncle Wiggily watched carefully the bird bath he had set on the grass in the yard.

"Somebody," said the rabbit gentleman speaking in a low voice to himself, "somebody has been splashing the water out of the bird bath so they can't have a drink or cool off on a hot day. And I must catch the splashers whoever they are."

As I told you in the story before this one, Uncle Wiggily had filled a tin pan with water and set it in his yard for a bird bath. Came the Blue Jay, came the Starling, came the Robin, and came many other birds to bathe in the water and they were thankful to Uncle Wiggily for making the bath for them.

But, after a while, the Robin said there was no water in the bath. Uncle Wiggily thought of this strange as he knew he had put plenty in a little while before. And then, after filling the basin a second time, the Thrush also went and told the rabbit gentleman there was no water for his bath, Mr. Longears said:

"This is very strange and mysterious! I must find out who is taking away the water from the bird bath as fast as I put it in the basin." So now we see Uncle Wiggily hiding to see who had been splashing away the water that was intended to cool the warm birds.

For a long time nothing happened except what should have happened. Came the Blue Jay, came the Starling, came the Robin, and there was water enough for all of them to have a drink and take a bath.

Then, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggily heard voices coming from back of some bushes.

"Voices don't come along by themselves," said Uncle Wiggily with a wise little twinkle of his pink nose. "Voices have no legs nor paws. There must be somebody coming and bringing voices with them. I'll see who it is. Maybe these are the splashers who have been spilling the water from the bird bath."

Uncle Wiggily carefully looked around the corner of the box behind which he was hidden. He saw Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the two little puppy dog boys running along back of the bushes.

"I hope there's a lot of water in it!" softly barked Jackie.

"If there is," whined his brother Peetie, "it's my turn to splash first, 'cause you splashed first yesterday."

"All right!" agreed Jackie. "You may splash first!"

"Dear me! Is it possible that these two little puppy dogs are the splashers that have been spilling the water from the bird bath so they can't cool off?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "I'll soon see."

And he soon saw. Peetie trotted over to the basin which Uncle Wiggily had filled a few minutes before, after the Wrens had taken a bath. Peetie first lapped up some of the water with his red tongue, for that is the way a dog drinks. He doesn't put his mouth in and suck water up as a horse does. A dog sticks his tongue in the water, gets it dripping wet and then quickly hops his tongue into his mouth. That's how he gets a drink and a pussy cat does the same.

"Leave some water for me!" barked Jackie, who stood at one side, letting his brother have first turn.

"I will!" whined Peetie. After he had taken a long drink it was Jackie's turn. And when Jackie had taken a long drink, then it was Peetie's turn again.

"Now I'm going to splash!" barked that little puppy dog boy. And he put his front paws into the bird bath, and sozzled his head under and splattered water over himself much as a bird might have done.

"Leave some for me! I want to cool off!" begged Jackie. And when Peetie was quite wet he went to lie down in the shade, while Jackie splashed the remainder of the water from the bird bath over his fur. When Jackkie had finished the basin was almost dry.

"Ha! So you two splashers have been taking the birds' bath water!" cried Uncle Wiggily as he hopped out, Jackie and Peetie were much surprised, and Jackie said:

"We didn't know that water was for the birds, Uncle Wiggily."

"We thought it was for us," barked Peetie.

"You dog boys are big enough to go to the brook when you want a drink or bath," said Uncle Wiggily. "Please leave this basin for the birds." Jackie and Peetie said they would, and as they were so very warm, Uncle Wiggily took the scissors and trimmed off some of their hair, which made them much cooler. And after that there was always plenty of water in the bird bath, for the puppy dog boys did not again splash it all out over themselves. They went to the brook to swim.

STARS ON VACATION

HOLLYWOOL, July 12.—Most all of the Metro stars are getting summer vacations, with majority taking them during July.

Marion Davies is abroad on her first rest of any length in two years.

Another sea-voyager will be Norma Shearer, on an ocean jaunt to Honolulu.

Greta Garbo is now at Yosemite and Bill Haines is going to Mexico City. Buster Keaton has a trip to England mapped out and Lon Chaney is to hit the Sierras.

A motor trip without any particular destination is figured on by Ramon Novarro. Polly Moran is autobound now to Oregon for a brief vacash. Lewist Stone is out yachting for a couple weeks.

SCREEN AND STAGE NOTES

John Gilbert, with a year and a half's contract still to run at a figure that is seldom heard mentioned in these days of reduced salaries, is on Hollywood location just now, making a sea story under Sam Wood's guidance, "Way for a Sailor," with no less a celebrity than Jim Tully, formerly this M-G-M star's severest critic, as a member of the company. Sidney Franklin is starting the first of Grace Moore's pictures, based on the life of Jenny Lind, with Reginald Denny in support ,while Harry Pollard is shooting "Great Day," the Youmans musical piece, with Joan Crawford starring. John Mack Brown and Lucien Littlefield are in the company.

Walter Huston's next picture is to be "The General," which he will make for Paramount. Kenneth McKenna, who was the young officer aboard the submarine in "Men Without Women", will have a supporting role. Kay Francis is also to appear in this film.

Polly Moran has about 12 weeks open in between pictures.

R-K-O has offered the comedienne $2.000 weekly for as many of those 12 as she may wish to play, to appear as in a single act in its vaude bills.

Paramount has called off "Honeymoon Hate" because of story trouble. This leaves Jeanette McDonald and Robert Chisholm without an immediate picture. Studio has substituted "Little Miss Bluebeard" with Clara Bow.

A pea vine measuring 8 feet 6 inches in length, and gigantic beet measuring 14 inches in circumference and 5 inches in diameter, were brought into The Examiner to-day by George T. Gauld, of 658 Aylmer Street. They were grown in a garden on his property, and there are lots more like them, he says. The soil in which they grew was fertilized by nothing other than ordinary manure, he also claimed.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' CONVENTION.

Fred L. Roy, of the Roy Studio, left yesterday to attend the 50th annual convention of the Photographers' Association of America at Milwaukee. It is expected that 3,000 of the eminent photographers of the continent will be present at this convention during the four days that it is in session. Mr. Roy has the distinction of being the only Canadian to address the gathering. He will speak on "Studio Problems." A. C. D. Darling will be in charge of the studio this week.

OBITUARY

PATRICK CROWLEY

The death occurred this morning of Patrick Crowley, aged 76, at his home in Ennismore. Further particulars later.

WILLIAM MEIN.

William Mein, formerly of this city, passed away yesterday at his home, 924 Queen Street East, Toronto, after an illness of three months. The late Mr. Mein was born in East City 56 years ago, the son of the late William Mein, and resided in Peterborough until 16 years ago, when he took up his residence in Toronto.

The deceased is survived by his sorrowing widow, formerly Miss Theresa Tucker of this city; by one sister, Mrs. George East of this city, and by three brothers: George Mein of this city, John of Picton, and Henry of Montreal.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon, Tuesday, July 22, at 2.00 o'clock (D.S.T.) at the residence of the late Mr. Mein's brother, George Mein, 358 Stewart Street. The Rev. Mr. James of St. John's Church will officiate. The interment will be in the Little Lake Cemetery.

Fierce Uganda Lions Devour 20 Natives

NAIROBI, British East Africa, July 21 (C.P.). — The lions which frequently menace part of Uganda have been unusually bold lately, devouring 20 natives in the Ankrole and Masakar districts in the last three weeks. The Government has sent hunters after the fierce beasts.

WOMAN SAVES NEPHEW WHILE SISTER DROWNS

Lad Falls Into Blind River and Mother Jumps in to Rescue Him.

MEN OUT TROLLING.

Fishing Line Thrown to Drowning Woman Breaks Few Feet From Shore.

TORONTO, Ont., July 21.—(CP)—The courageous actions of Mrs. Kate Bruce, Hamilton, in saving the life of her nephew, Donald and her valiant but fruitless efforts to save her sister Mrs. Sadie MaCauley, Toronto, from the swirling waters of Blind River, were revealed today with the arrival of Mrs. Bruce and her four-year-old nephew from the north.

Were Picking Berries

Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. MacCauley, along with the four-year-old youngster, were out on a berry picking expedition when the mishap occurred. They were climbing over some rocks on the bank of the river when Donald slipped and fell in. His mother immediately jumped in but the currents quickly pulled them out from shore. Although neither of the women could swim, Mrs. Bruce climbed down the rocks into the water and tried to reach the boy, despite her sister's cries of "don't come in or we'll all be drowned".

Mrs. Bruce then climed out and secured a fishing pole Donald had taken with him and when she could not reach the pair with the pole unreeled the line and tossed it to her sister. She had pulled Mrs. McCauley to within six feet of shore when the line broke. Then the victim sank out of sight. Meanwhile Donald had been washed to within a few feet of the rocks and Mrs. Bruce was able to climb down and rescue him.

Men Out of Earshot

While Mrs. Bruce was staging her heart breaking battle against the elements, the husbands of the two women were in the vicinity fishing but unfortunately were just out of earshot of the agonized screams for help.

In Need of Help.

Jack Brownlee, the blind newsdealer, can not see but still he knows all too well that the wolf is stalking at his door.

Hard times struck Jack when his stand was moved back from the sidewalk on Charlotte street. Passerbys hardly noticed his little stand and the number of coins he counted each night dwindled alarmingly. But there Jack stood day after day, concealing his financial worries behind a cheerful smile.

It wasn't until to-day that one of his friends learned that Jack was penniless—that he had managed to pay his board last week but that he was in debt for other things necessary for his livelihood to the amount of twenty dollars.

Now it seems as though the sunshine of successfully running his little business may again come to Jack. His stand will be moved to the south-west corner of Charlotte and George streets where it is probable he will sell more papers and a fund has been commenced to relieve him of his small indebtedness.

Those already subscribing to this fund are: Joseph Wearing, Walter Stocker, G. Coleman, E. F. Mason, Lech and Company, J. Lynch, W. Primeau, A. Blade, E. A. Peck and several others who merely signed as a "friend." Any one wishing to help may leave his donation at The Examiner.

Bootlegging Racketeers Blamed For Cruel Murder Near Port Credit.

WALKED INTO TRAP.

Police Believe Man Unwittingly Walked Into Trap Prepared For Somebody Else.

PORT CREDIT, Ont., July 22 (C.P.). — That Philip G. Rumbold, wealthy real estate operator and contractor, of Tonawanda, N.Y., who was found beaten and strangled to death in his automobile on the Mineola Road, near here to-day, was the victim of bootlegging racketeers was the theory advanced by police at work on the case. Rumbold had no connection with illegal business in the opinion of the police, but unwittingly walked into a trap prepared for somebody else, and was killed to prevent any trouble

Roadhouses Blackmailed.

Police are attempting to link with the crime the recent outbreak of attempted blackmailing of roadhouses in the vicinity which culminated recently in shots being fired at a proprietor and also an Italian which took place on the Mineola Road last night. Two men in the vicinity have been arrested on blanket charges, but officers insist these have been taken up in connection with another charge.

According to the police theory, Rumbold was not murdered on the Mineola Road, but became involved in danger when he went to a roadhouse for a night's lodging. Communication with Mrs. Rumbold in Tonawanda has established that he left his home at one o'clock yester-

WORK STARTED ON NEW BRIDGE

John Carroll Secures Contract to Construct New Bethune Street Bridge.

CITY TO PAY $7,000.

The signs proclaiming "No Thoroughfare" to motor vehicles on the old bridge at Murray street, where Bethune crosses English's Creek with the C.N.R. will be a thing of the past in two months when the work of constructing the new bridge, started this morning, is completed.

Railway engineers with a gang of workmen have already completed the task of tearing away the rotten timbers and have commenced to pound the new piles. The contract for the actual construction has been let by the C.N.R. to John Carroll of this city who will take over the work next Monday.

The new bridge will be of concrete construction and will represent a considerable outlay, of which the city is to pay $7,000. The last obstacle to the long-mooted Bethune street-C.N.R. bridge was removed when the City Council pased the necessary measures last week. Under the approved plan the roadway will extend for a distance of ten feet on either side of the single line of tracks. Railway traffic will be maintained during the construction, and it is expected that the thoroughfare will be opened to motorists in September.

U. S. is Shipping Gold to Canada

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22.—(By the Canadian Press.) — Officials of the Department of Finance to-day confirmed the news despatches from New York that heavy shipments of gold were being made from New York to Canada. It was pointed out that Canadian dollars, being at a premium in the New York money market, a point had been reached where it had become cheaper to transfer gold to Canada than to purchase Canadian notes, commercial paper, etc., in the normal course of international transactions.

The point where it become more profitable to ship gold to Canada is when the Canadian dollar is at a premium of 5-32. This fraction, it is estimated, covers shipping costs, insurance and loss of interest.

Boys Stone To Death Their Small Cousin

COFFEYVILLE, Kansas, July 22 (C.P.)—Carlysle Cullison, 10, and his brother, Isaac, 8, yesterday confessed they had stoned to death their cousin, Donald Fox, 8, and thrown his body into the Verdigris River.

Police questioned the pair when their cousin's battered body was recovered. The boys said they had engaged in a rock fight, during which Donald was knocked down, struck in the head with another stone, and his body carried to the river and tossed in.

The two boys said they had concealed their cousin's clothing and invented a story about his drowning to tell their elders.

SITUATION QUIETENS.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 22 (C.P.).—Recapitulation of the casualties resulting from yesterday's clashes in large Egyptian cities shows that at least six persons were killed and wounded.

Four were killed and 100 wounded in Cairo as a result of conflicts between police and wafdists (Nationalists).

The official figures for Port Said announced that two were killed and 28 wounded—ten seriously—among the demonstrators, while 47 police were injured.

Police and military precautions were increased in all the cities and the situation was considered calm this morning.

175 CANDIDATES TO CONTEST 82 ONTARIO SEATS

49 Conservatives and 21 Liberals Run For Re-election—4 Each Drop Out.

NO ACCLAMATIONS.

Five Women Nominated—Highest Number in History of Ontario Politics.

TORONTO, July 22 (C.P.)—There are no acclamations in Ontario. Everyone of the 82 seats will be contested by a total of 175 candidates at next Monday's general election.

Nominations for 67 seats were held yesterday, and added to the 15 constituencies in which nominations were fyled last Monday, provided the following analysis of candidates:

Conservatives	82
Liberal	78
Liberal-Progressive	3
Indep. Conservativess	3
Progressive	1
United Farmer	1
Ind. Progressive-Liberal
Labor	1
Communist	4
Independent	1

In the 1926 election, the Conservatives elected 53 members, Liberals 25, Liberal-Progressive 2, United Farmer 1, and Progressive 1.

Four Cabinet Ministers Opposed.

Ontario's four Cabinet Ministers ill be engaged in straight fights with Conservative opponents. Hon. James Malcolm, Minister of Trade and Commerce, is opposed by William Mitchell in Bruce North; Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, is faced by F. J. McManus, in Kenora-Rainy River; Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, is on the ballot alongside Peter Campbell, in Middlesex West, and Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of National Revenue, is opposed by K. K Homuth, who resigned his seat in the Ontario Legislature for Waterlood South to contest Waterloo North against the Cabinet Minister.

FOUR GIGANTIC CIRCUIT BREAKERS ARE READY FOR SHIPMENT BY C.G.E.

Built For Hydro Electric and Are to Be Installed at Leaside Station.

SWITCH SURROUNDED IN OIL.

The last of four gigantic circuit breakers, the largest ever built in Canada, will be shipped this week from the works of the Canadian General Electric Company in this city to the Leaside station of the Ontario Hydro in Toronto. The first three are now being installed to control the power coming into Toronto from the Ottawa district carried over the Hydro lines which pass south of Peterborough.

The four tremendous instruments are known as triple-pole, single-throw, 220,000-volt, 800-ampere, oil circuit breakers. Their tanks are 114 inches in diameter, with an over-all height of 21 feet 6 inches. Each breaker requires 13,000 gallons of oil and the complete weight of each outfit is approximately 206,000 pounds.

Surrounded in Oil.

Oil circuit breakers of this type were developed to overcome the difficulty of rupturing electric currents of great voltage and amperage. Years ago when engineers first commenced to experiment with the long distance transmission of electric power they found that the simple, open-air types of circuit breakers would no longer suffice where heavy currents of high potentialities were being dealt with. To rupture a current of three and a half million horsepower at 220,000 volts which the machines aforementioned are designed to handle, would be disastrous with an open-air switch. The switch must be entirely surrounded in oil, which offers almost impassable resistance to electricity or an explosion would occur. Also the circuit must be broken in the time of a fraction of a second.

The circuit breakers to be used at Leaside have special high-speed qualifications. The time which passes between the energizing of the trip and the actual breaking of the circuit is less than one-quarter of a second. The four units are guaranteed to successfully rupture a current of two and one-half million K.V.A. or three and one-half million horsepower at 220,000 volts.

Each Have Been Tested.

An over-all floor space of 42 feet 6 inches by 11 feet 6 inches is required by each of the units. Before shipping, each has been assembled in the local plant and subjected to many tests although it has been impossible to give them actual load tests locally. The fourth and last machine is now being taken apart and loaded on flat cars for shipment and will be reassembled under the direction of company engineers at Toronto.

At the Leaside station there are already in operation three circuit-breakers physically as large as the new ones. They were also constructed by the Canadian General Electric but lack certain improvements which the new ones boast.

FREE STATE GOVERNMENT PREVENTS IRISH STRIKE

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 22.—A general strike of railway men all over Southern Ireland, scheduled for midnight last night, was dramatically averted by the intervention of the Free State Government.

Representatives of the railwaymen agreed to postpone the strike call until midnight to-night pending another conference between executives of the National Union of Railwaymen, the Great Southern Railway and the affiliated Irish Omnibus Company.

SENATE RATIFIES LONDON TREATY

U. S. Opponents to Pact Yield and Vote is 58 to 9.

ONE RESERVATION.

WASHINGTON, July 22. — The London treaty limiting all classes of ships in the United States, British and Japanese navies has been ratified by the Senate by a vote of 58 to 9.

The final roll call came quickly after a dozen reservations were overwhelmed. The militant band of opponents under Senator Johnson, Republican, California, saw the inevitable and yielded to the heat and the dominant majority.

One reservation was adopted but it requires no new negotiations among the signatory powers and with the formal ratification of the Treaty by Great Britain and Japan the document will go into effect.

INDICTED FOR STABBING.

MORRISTOWN, N.J., July 22 (C.P.). — Harry Woo Sey, Jr., 14, today was indicted for murder by a grand jury. He is accused of stabbing to death Miss Anne Miller, 23, his mother's maid.

Under New Jersey law the grand jury does not specify the degree of guilt, leaving that to the trial jury.

HECTIC MEETINGS FEATURING FINAL LAP OF CAMPAIGN

Quebec Heads List For Lively Session and Fist Fights.

BOTH CHIEFS SEE VICTORY.

Liberals Have 14 Candidates More Than in 1926—9 Short of Tory Total.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 (By George Hambleton, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Feeling runs high as the Federal campaign enters the last lap.

Hectic meetings, fist fights, persistent hecklers with long lists of questions introduce a lively note. Reports from the old Province of Quebec especially tell of snappy campaigning. There, Conservatives are running in 63 of the 64 contested seats and every member of the King Government has a fight on his hands. In several counties, nomination meetings ended in fist fights. Rival candidates in Chambly-Vercheres could not even agree on the order of a joint meeting. Both were bombarded with questions. In Quebec County, three candidates endeavored to speak at one meeting. It was a bedlam of interruptions closing with fist fights. Not one of the three candidates finished his speech. In Laprairie-Napierville, where there is merry fighting, two old friends are

MEMBER OF BABY RING PLACED UNDER ARREST

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., July 22 (C.P.)—With one woman arrested to date, Provincial detectives are trying to round up a ring highly organized in their specialty of abandoned unwanted babies for the small sum of $50 per child. The organization is believed to have its headquarters in Montreal, and its operatives have been depositing the unwanted children of their clients on doorsteps within a radius of 100 miles of the metropolis. Twenty babies have been abandoned in Three Rivers, four in Granby, and nine in St. Hyncinthe since April 10 last.

FATHER ATTEMPTS TO SLAY HIS FIVE DAY OLD BABY

SCRANTON, Penn., July 22 (C.P.)—Joseph Elko, 37, of North Scranton, snatched his five-day-old baby from its crib early this morning and, taking it into the yard, was about to crush its skull with an axe when neighbors, who had been aroused from their slumbers by the commotion raised by Elko, rushed to the baby's rescue in time to save its life. Police were called and the baby rushed to a hospital where it is in a critical condition suffering from shock, bruises and cuts about the face and head, sustained in the struggle between Elko and the baby's rescuers.

DUNNING GOES BACK TO HOME TERRITORY

REGINA, Sask., July 22 (By George Finlay, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Back to home territory, after a speaking tour extending from Ontario to British Columbia, Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, who is seeking re-election in a tri-partite battle in Regina, addressed the electors of Qu'Appelle constituency last night. The Finance Minister spoke in support of John Millar, Liberal-Progressive, who since 1921 has represented Qu'Appelle in the House of Commons.

Automobile Takes to Ditch Knocking Down Sign Post and Hydro Pole.

FOUR THROWN OUT.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., July 22 (C.P.).—When James Den Hasse dozed at the wheel while motoring home to Canastotan, N.Y., after a visit to Detroit, his car took to the ditch near Woodstock at an early hour this morning, crashed a signpost, careened along the ditch and then knocked down a Hydro pole which fell across the top of the car, badly damaging it. All four occupants were thrown out of the car in its wild journey. Mrs. Adolphe Den Hasse and Harry Den Hasse are still in an unconscious condition in Woodstock General Hospital. James Den Hasse and Adolphe Den Hasse, the latter being the husband of the injured woman, were only slightly hurt. The three young men are brothers.

BODY OF MAN FOUND.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 22.—Patrick Liston, 42, missing from his home here for five weeks, was found dead this morning lying in a field a short distance from the railway tracks at Kingston Junction. Death had apparently been due from a heart attack brought on by hunger and exposure. Deceased is survivd by his wife and two sons. He was employed for many years in local pool rooms.

Believed Dead

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, July 22 (C.P.)—Colonel Gabriel Vasquez who, according to War Department records, was killed in action in 1916, to-day was in Belen prison charged with conspiring with his wife to pose as dead for the purpose of collecting a pension. The authorities charge that the "widow" collected about 20,000 pesos in which Vasquez shared.

FALSE BANK ENTRIES AMOUNTED TO $250,000

WINNIPEG, Man., July 22 (C.P.)—False entries and omissions in the records of the Winnipeg branch of the Bank of Toronto were made to cover up a shortage of more than a quarter of a million dollars in the cash on hand at the bank it was stated yesterday by Alfred G. Overhage, former accountant, at the preliminary hearing of George A. Doyle, former manager, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the bank

A similar charge faced Overhage.

The men are being tried separate. Overhage was still on the stand when the case was adjourned until July 28, with the understanding that it be further adjourned until Magistrate R. B. Graham, who leaves on August 1 on a vacation, returns to the bench.

MOTHERLY LOOKING WOMEN ENGAGED IN SMUGGLING DRUGS

Thousand Islands Being Closely Watched By Officials From Ottawa.

SMUGGLE IN ALCOHOL.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 (C.P.) — The preventive service of the Department of National Revenue has been keeping a close watch on attempts to smuggle narcotics and alcohol during the past few weeks in the vicinity of the Thousand Islands. Up to some three years ago drugs were brought into Montreal from Europe by ships and that city was known to the preventive force over the continent. So determined a war was waged by Dominion authorities against this ring that it was broken up, and it is believed there are practically no illicit drugs brought into that port from Europe now. What flow there is along the border is northward instead of towards the south.

Women of Mature Age

This season of the year smugglers find the Thousand Islands an advantageous place to ply their trade. Women, not the dashing, flapper type which in past years were engaged in this work, but sedate motherly-looking women of more mature age, posing as tourists mix with the thousands of legitimate tourists at the islands and attempt to bring in the drugs, officials of the Department state. Their object is to take the narcotics to Montreal. The Department has been taking steps which they believe will be effective in stopping it.

The flow of United States alcohol into Canada is also becoming an important problem with the preventive force. A great quantity of alcohol is distilled in the United States from corn. It is a low grade alcohol and is released for manufacturing purposes, officials here are advised. This is being smuggled into Canada selling as low as $3.50 a gallon, in some Canadian cities. Some of it is used to supply the punch for liquors mixed to imitate Canadian and imported brands to be smuggled back into the United States.

To provide a two-way activity the smugglers attempt to take aliens back into the United States. For the most part the smuggling is done by small motor-boats. The punishment for dealing in narcotics is so severe that the smugglers do not as a rule risk the regular channels of traffic.

Still Campaigns

TORONTO, Ont., July 22 (C.P.)—Premier G. Howard Ferguson expects to fulfill all his speaking engagements this week on behalf of the Conservative party in the Dominion election, despite the hoarseness from which he is suffering. According to a statement made to-day by the Premier's office, unless the throat trouble takes an unexpected turn for the worse, Mr. Ferguson will not discontinue his campaign.

BUS TRANSFER POINT IS MOVED

Downtown Depot Will Now Be at Corner of George and Simcoe Streets.

SAME ROUTES FOLLOWED.

In order to relieve the traffic congestion at the corner of Charlotte and George Streets ,the city's downtown bus depot has been definitely moved up one block to Simcoe Street. The busses will meet at Simcoe and George Streets as they formrly did at George and Charlotte Streets, and all transfers will be made at this point.

The change was first tried out during the re-surfacing work on the downtown area and it worked so successfully that the bus company decided to make it permanent. The police are co-operating fully with the busses to keep the bus stops clear of parked cars.

All busses will follow the same routes, except that the buses from the west will continue to Water Street on Charlotte, go along Water street, and go west on Simcoe to George Street.

In endorsing the move, Inspector Reid stated that it eliminated all left hand turns by the buses, nd leaves the city's main corner free for motor and pedestrian traffic.

Boos and Groans Finally Break Up Nomination Rally

Edith Kerr Macdonald, Running as Progressive-Liberal, Virtually Broke Up One of the Largest Nomination Meetings in the History of Northumberland County.

LADY CANDIDATE STIRS UP HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION WHICH GREW MORE BITTER AS MEETING PROGRESSED

W. A. Fraser, Liberal, and Milton Maybee, Conservative, Are Official Nominees—Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C., and Rev. W. G. Martin, M.P.P., Support the Candidates.

(By An Examiner Reporter)

WARKWORTH July 22.—Three candidates were nominated here yesterday afternoon for the federal riding of Northumberland. In the order announced by the returning officer, William Fox of Cobourg, they are: William Alexander Fraser, manufacturer and farmer of Trenton, Liberal; Milton Maybee, farmer, Murray township, Conservative; Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald, Cobourg, Independent Progressive-Liberal. Mr. Maybee has represented the riding for the last nine years.

The official nominations attracted one of the largest crowds in the political history of the county. With the thermometer registering sultry midsummer heat and the air heavy with humidity, the town hall was literally packed to standing room with a crowd that will remember yesterday's meeting all their lives. Even the platform or stage of the auditorium was ringed around with women sitting on the windows and men on the bare floor. No newspaper accommodation was provided, and at the last minute some one thought of a bench for the visiting speakers, Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C., of Peterborough, supporting Mr. Fraser, and Rev. W. G. Martin, M.P.P., of Brantford, who assisted Mr. Maybee.

Hundreds Outside.

Outside, an overflow of many hundreds of men and women doubled the total attendance which was estimated at about two thousand. And a set of microphones beside the chairman's table amplified the speeches outdoors so that every word was heard. The meeting was especially marked by the large number of women especially within the hall, where their newspapers, improvised as fans, presented a continuous movement except during the more hectic moments of the two stormy hours which followed the closing of the nomination lists.

That crowd will long remember Mrs. Macdonald's entry into the federal political arena. It was expected that Mr. Fraser and Mr. Maybee would provide an interesting argument in the joint debate which is a feature of the county nominations, but when Mrs. Macdonald announced her intention last week of presenting herself as an Independent Liberal the expectations during the last few days took on a liveliness that found full play in yesterday's meeting.

"Stopped the Show."

From the time Mrs. Macdonald entered the hall until she virtually broke up the session she was the central figure. She ran away with the show to use a phrase of the theatre, or more correctly she stopped it. Apparently the majority of the people in the hall were supporters of Mr. Fraser, although Mr. Maybee also had a large following; but the presence of Mrs. Macdonald goaded the Liberals, men and women, to outbursts of heckling and booing that culminated finally as an effectual closure.

Not since the nominations at which Sam McBride taunted the Progressives of the county some years ago has a candidate stirred up such a hostile demonstration as that which stormed and tossed about Mrs. Macdonald. It began mildly as soon as she entered the hall, but it gathered bitterness as the lady flung back jibes at hecklers, and as she tartly resented the clamor her references to Mr. Fraser aroused.

Each of the candidates was allotted forty-five minutes to address the electors. Mr. Fraser and Mr. Maybee

472 JAPANESE DIE IN TYPHOON

Hundreds Missing and Thousands of Houses and Boats Destroyed.

WIND FOLLOWS FLOOD.

TOKYO, Japan, July 22 (C.P.).—An official death toll of 472 persons with indications the unknown dead in last Friday's typhoon would number into the hundreds, was reported to-day in returns printed in Seoul and Tokyo.

Eastern Korea, especially Yokogendo Province, was sorely stricken, a Seoul despatch to Rengo News Agency showed the Korean losses as 390 dead, 1,493 missing and believed dead, 205 injured, and 8,475 houses destroyed.

Official figures for Kyushu Island, Southern Japan, where the typhoon struck first, showed 82 known dead, 75 missing, 25 injured, 16,890 houses destroyed, 20,783 houses damaged and 1,803 boats sunk or missing.

The typhoon struck Korea while it still was suffering from the effects of floods which had killed at least 285 persons and made thousands homeless.

Is Black Watch A Negro Regiment?

MONTREAL, July 22 (Special to The Examiner).—"Has Montreal a movie picture house?" was one of the questions shot at Sergeant Mowatt of the Royal Highlanders of Canada by a number of Bostonians during the visit last week of the famous Canadian regiment to Boston to take part in the tercentenary celebrations of the founding of Massachusetts. According to several members of the battalion, not a few in the "Hub of the Universe" were relieved to find that the Black Watch was not a Canadian negro regiment.

BENNETT SEES GREAT VICTORY FOR HIS PARTY

Tory Chieftain Promises Canada's Interests First at Imperial Conference.

COUNTER-VAILING DUTIES.

Claims People of Canada Raised Unemployment Question, Not Tory Party.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22— (By Thomas Green C. P. Staff Correspondent)—On the home stretch of his campaign Hon. R. B. Bennett faces three meetings today. At noon, the Conservative Chieftain will address Toronto Conservatives at a luncheon, departing immediately afterwards to keep engagements at Dundas and Kitchener. The speech of the Opposition Leader at Kitchener will be in support of Carl Homuth, who resigned his seat in the Legislature to oppose Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of National Revenue.

The Opposition Leader, who spoke at Simcoe, Aylmer and St. Thomas yesterday, returned to Toronto in the early hours of morning. His main addresses were at Simcoe and St. Thomas.

Predicts Victory

Prediction of victory for the Conservative Party at the polls on Monday next and the downfall of Premier W. L. Mackenzie King, and the statement that Conservatives would represent Canada at the forthcoming Imperial Conference were features of Mr. Bennett's addresses. Coupled with these, there were references of the Conservative Leader to the "counter-vailing" duties imposed by the Government on 16 items out of a total tariff schedules numbering 1188.

"We are entering into the last week of the official campaign", Mr. Bennett said. "I have never seen such indications of victory for the Conservative party". From British Columbia, he continued, telegraphic advices had just reached him indicating that the same spirit prevailed as was evidenced when he was in the Pacific Coast Province in the middle of June. There would be no Liberals returned from Alberta and the Opposition Leader forecast the same in Saskatchewan. He declared, the Liberal machine was "broken, creaking and trembling". Throughout Canada, he said, the same condition of optimism for the cause of the Conservative Party prevailed. And in Quebec, the Conservative Leader stated, where the party had polled three votes out of seven in a recent Dominion election, the large crowds which gathered at Conservative meetings showed that this province was convinced that the Government must be discontinued in office.

People Started Question.

"In a speech at Barrie on Saturday," Mr. Bennett stated, "Mr. Mackenzie King is reported to have said that he thought Mr. Bennett had deliberately raised the issue of unemployment in order to obscure one of the major issues—Canadian representation at the Imperial conomic Conference. I tell Mr. Mackenzie King that it is the people of Canada who have raised the question of unemployment, and the people of Canada demand that it be dealt with. And I tell Mr. Mackenzie King that he does small honor to his Canadian citizenship when he mocks at the sorrow and suffering which it was his solemn duty to relieve. He speaks of his love and friendship for the nations of the world and how this love and friendship will open new markets for us. I would suggest to him that those virtues show to best advantage at home. My party will meet our competitors in friendship, but it will be love for Canada which guides us in our actions. And as for the Imperial Conference, this country will send to it men whose first thought is for their own people, and whose desire is to help their Bottle Hurled From Truck Splits Youth's Head Open.

POLICE CALLED IN.

TORONTO, July 22. (C.P.) —The timely arrival of police last night prevented a pitched battle between an angered mob of 100 men and a group of members of the Communist party.

A truck had been parked at College and Major streets from which election speeches were being delivered by those supporting the "Red" candidates. The crowd around the truck began to jeer at the speakers and the truck started away. One of the speakers hurled a bottle from the truck which struck Moe Freeman, aged 19, on the head. The youth's head was split and he was rushed to the hospital. Here three stitches closed the wound.

KING HINTS AT FORMATION OF AIR MINISTRY

New Department Required By Growth of Aviation and Radio.

SPEAKS IN OTTAWA

Gives Mayor Plant Warning at Attempt to Serve Two Masters.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22.—(By Ray Brown, C. P. Staff Correspondent) — After a brief interval at home, Premier Mackenzie King will leave early this afternoon on his last campaign drive. As announced earlier, the Prime Minister will devote almost the entire week to Ontario. Last night he addressed a monster meeting here, and today he leaves for Montreal where he is to speak again. The Montreal meeting is, however, the only one in Quebec Province. From Montreal Mr. King will go to Chesley, Ont., for a meeting on Wednesday night, and from Chesley he will proceed to Tilbury and Stratford. There meetings are scheduled for Thursday afternoon and evening. Friday will find him in Cornwall for a night meeting, and he will wind up the campaign with an address from his home here to be broadcast all over Canada on Saturday night.

Given Warm Welcome

Ottawa turned out in force last night to listen to the Prime Minister. The auditorium, in which many hockey struggles have taken place, was the mecca for thousands who crowded into the great building filling all available space. Outside, it was announced, there were some three thousand persons unable to gain admission. The Prime Minister's message was carried by radio far beyond the walls of the building in which he spoke to the ears of a great invisible audience.

Civil servants who feared that they migth find their employment gone when the Interior Department relinquished many of its activities because of the return of the natural resources to the Western Provinces had little cause for apprehension, the Prime Minister said. He intimated that, in the coming civil service re-organization a new Department of Communications might come into being. The growing importance of aviation and radio would probably necessitate the establishment of some such department, and there would be need for a staff. But, in any event, asserted Mr. King, if civil servants found themselves without work, they would certainly be given adequate superannuation promptly.

Warns Mayor Plant.

The Prime Minister, refering to the fact that Mayor Plant, of Ottawa, is a Conservative candidate in the present election, uttered a warning against "permitting our City Hall to become a Tammany Hall." The establishment of a system of political control in the Ottawa City Hall should not be tolerated, he said. He thought that Mayor Plant could not "serve two masters" and that the Ottawa Mayor had taken advantage of confidence reposed in him in the municipal field to enter the Federal arena.

TINY GIRL'S BODY FOUND ON SHORE

No Hope Now Held For Young Son of London Jail Turnkey.

CAUGHT BY UNDERTOW.

LONDON, July 22.—Hope for the possible safety of two children of William K. Gray chief turnkey of the London jail, vanished yesterday when the body of Isabel, five years old, was found floating near Port Burwell.

No trace has as yet been found of her brother Willam, aged 8, but it is regarded as certain that he shared the fate of his sister when they were caught by the undertow while bathing near Iroquois Beach. The children were missed last Friday afternoon soon after their parents had arrived from London to commence their vacation.

Provincial police under Inspector H. Gardner of London have supervised the search for the children. The body is being brought to London.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

Party Leaders Use Every Last Minute In Final Broadcast

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 (C.P.).—The Conservative and Liberal election appeals over radio on Saturday night.

Both Hon. Richard B. Bennett and Premier Mackenzie King will be in Ottawa. From 8 to 10 p.m. (eastern daylight saving time) the Conservatives will be on the air, in a Dominion-wide broadcast of the meeting in the Auditorium in this city. The same nation-wide hook-up will then carry Premier King's reply from 10 p.m. till 12 p.m. (eastern daylight saving time). Mr. Bennett will follow from 12 midnight to 1 a.m. (daylight saving time), or 11 p.m. to 12 p.m. (eastern standard time).

When Mr. Bennett concludes his final appeal it will be 11 p.m. in Winnipeg and 9 p.m. in Vancouver.

POLICE CAPTURE WOMAN LEADER IN BABY RACKET

Gang Working From Montreal Dispose of Unwanted Babies.

CHARGE $50 PER CHILD.

Distribute New Born Infants Over 100 Mile Radius From City.

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., July 22.—(C.P.)—Provincial police, who have been investigating the numerous cases in which new-born babies have been abandoned in this vicinity during recent months, announced yesterday they had discovered evidence of an association headed by women, which, for the sum of $50 per child, disposed of unwanted babies.

Since April 10 last, 33 tiny children have been left on doorsteps or otherwise deserted to become foundlings, in Three Rivers, Granby and St. Hyacinthe.

A woman had been arrested and released on bail, in connection with the case, police stated.

According to the theory of provincial and local police, those who have been placing children on doorsteps and porches of private homes and institutions in this district sometimes in wholesale lots, operate from Montreal, distributing the babies over an area within 100 miles radius of the city.

Recently four children, only a few days old, wrapped in flannel nightgowns, were found on the verandah of Adelard Fortin, in Granby. On July 11 a group of three new-born children wrapped in ragged clothing were left during the night on the porch of L'Ouvroir Ste. Genevieve, a home for children, in St. Hyacinthe. Of these one died from exposure.

20 Left in Three Rivers

Other desertions have been scattered throughout the country, but a checkup by police showed that there were 20 such desertions in Three Rivers alone since Last April 10. The wholesale desertions at Granby and St. Hyacinthe aroused the police to the belief that an organized gang was responsible.

Nurses from a Montreal maternity home were brought to St. Hyacinthe to examine the children and the clothes in which they were discovered, and they were identified as having been born in the institution in which the nurses were employed. They visited the children found deserted in Granby and were equally convinced that they too were from the maternity home in Montreal.

In the majority of cases the foundlings were adopted.

According to the police theory the gang works at night, loading an automobile with a collection of infants and depositing them at various points within a night's round trip of the city.

The name of the woman arrested and released in bail, was not revealed.

FIRE SHOCK IS FATAL.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., July 22. — Mrs. John Hagerman died here yesterday from a heart attack induced by illness and the fire which destroyed her home. Mrs. Hagerman was not burned, her husband and a nurse succeeding in rescuing her from the burning room, but the shock and excitement proved fatal. The house was completely destroyed.

WEMP'S REQUEST TAKEN UP WRONG BY PREMIER KING

Ferguson Claims Dominion Leader Anxious For Whack at Ontario Gov't.

SUGGESTION TURNED DOWN.

Gov'ts Be Subsidizing Railways By Giving Aid in Subway Building.

AURORA, Ont., July 22 (C.P.) — A challenge to Premier W. L. Mackenzie King to to as much for unemployment as the Province of Ontario had done was issued by Premier G. Howard Ferguson here last night. Mr. Ferguson was replying to Mr. King's comments on a telegram in connection with unemployment, which, he said, Premier King had misunderstood and misconstrued.

Mr. Ferguson recalled that under former Governments, the Dominion and Provincial Governments contributed dollar for dollar with municipalities in defraying the excess cost of work undertaken to give jobs in time of unemployment. The Ontario Government had requested the Dominion to resume this practice, but had met with refusal.

No Dominion Aid Wished

The telegram from Toronto had not asked the Dominion to share in unemployment relief work, said Mr. Ferguson, it had asked the Dominion Government to secure from the Railway Board an order for the construction of subways in Toronto. As soon as the order was issued the city was prepared to go ahead with the work.

"The Prime Minister should know, if he knows anything about the workings of Government in this country," said Mr. Ferguson, "that the law provides for the building of subways on the order of the Railway Board. The cost is borne by the railway companies and the municipalities. Neither the Province nor the Dominion contributes. If they did they would be subsidizing the railways.

"Mayor Wemp did not ask for funds from the Government. He says if they will get an order from the Railway Board the city will go ahead and build the subways and put hundreds of unemployed men at work. But in his anxiety to take a whack at the Ontario Government, Mr. King tries to make out he was asking for funds, and says he will furnish them if the Ontario Government will say it cannot deal with the situation.

RUMOR C.N.R. MAY GO INTO AVIATION

Offered Option on Controlling Interest in Western Airways.

FOLLOW U. S. EXAMPLE.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 22.—(CP) —The New York World today says. "The complete task of developing commercial aviation in the Dominion of Canada may be taken over by the Canadian Government through the Associated Canadian National Railways, it was learned today. Through sources close to Sir Henry Thornton, president of Canadian National Railways, it was learned that serious discussions which may lead to such a step are under way.

"Western Canada may be the first field of operation, as the controlling interest in Western Airways, the biggest operator in that field, is understood to have offered an option to the Canadian National Railways, Sir Henry taking example from the Pennsylvania Railway, is understood to be keenly interested in the proposition.

"It is said that Canadian statesmen feel that the task of developing the tremendous expanses of Northwestern Canada would be greatly facilitated by aviation services connected with railroad transportation."

IDLE FACTORIES ARE PICTURED BY J. J. DUFFUS

Empire Preference Necessary to Keep Canadian Factories Going.

TORY LEADERS DISAGREE.

Ferguson Government is Blamed For Increase in Taxes.

"I prophesy that if a plan of British preference is not followed by Canada, our factories will become idle," stated J. J. Duffus before an audience in the Temperance Hall at Selwyn last night. "Canada absolutely must have markets for its products. As long as the markets are not provided the depression will continue."

The largely attended meeting at Selwyn was addressed by Dr. A. Moir and I. P. McNabb of Peterborough as well as the candidate.

"But is there any reason why we shouldn't trade with the United States if we can do so on a fair basis?" he continued. "It is good business for the Dominion."

"I think the Conservative Party is in agreement with the policy of broader markets. It is only their leader who disagrees with it."

Saved Resources

He ridiculed the idea that the King administration reduced the debt by calling on saved resources which, he said, was Mr. Peck's claim at an earlier meeting in Selwyn. If such resources existed where were they hidden, he asked.

"It is the policy of the party which counts, not the leaders," said Mr. Duffus turning to the question of what the King Government has to offer. "As the King Government's policy includes a method for dealing with your surplus products it is the party to which you should give your support.

"Are you going to give the Conservative Party your support just because conditions in Canada are comparatively better than almost any other country in the world?" he said with regard to unemployment, which he admitted, is existent found in Canada.

No Blame on Government

"I admit there is an economic depression but are you going to blame the Government because the western farmers have not sold their wheat? Are you going to blame the Government for the development of labor-saving machines; for the fact that unemployed from the United States are swelling the ranks of unemployed in Canada?"

"What Mr. Duffus has done in his own business he can do for the constituency of Peterborough," claimed Mr. McNabb. "Mr. Duffus is qualified to represent a farming community as well as an urban community."

Mr. McNabb deplored the tendency of the Tory Party to emulate the United States with the cry "Canada First." He urged the voters to stand by British tradition in their action at the polls next week.

Dr. Moir

Dr. Moir based his address on taxation and the marketing of produce. On the subject of taxation he claimed that the great increase in taxes that Ontario people have felt has been entirely due to the Tory regime in the province. King Government has made great reductions in Dominion taxes, in the debt and in the general cost of living, he maintained.

He attacked Bennett's proposals with regard to the unemployment situation and dwelt on the weakness of the Conservative platform as a whole.

Dr. Moir urged that Canadians build for permancy in their trade relations and said that the only way to attain permanency is to help cultivate and bind together the other members of the British Empire through both import and export trade.

"There is one thing that is remarkable about this election," Dr. Moir said. "It is the fact that many Conservatives are rallying to the support of the Liberal Party especially on account of the inter-Empire trade question. I think this question is the big issue which the people must decide in this election."

SMUGGLING RING WORKING BORDER

Canadian Legislation Forces Small Bootleggers to Band Together.

HIGHLY ORGANIZED.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 22 (C.P.)—Charges that a highly organized gang is smuggling liquor, drugs and undesirable aliens over the United States border between Kingston and Cornwall, are contained in press despatches from Alexandria Bay, N.Y., Canadian legislation refusing clearances to boats carrying contraband cargoes has, according to these despatches, forced small independent bootleggers and dope smugglers to band together in highly organized rings.

A despatch from Ogdensburg contains the following: "Widespread liquor seizures and arrests all along the border from Rouses Point to Cape Vincent have shown Federal officials that they are not competing against the occasional lawbreaker, bent on making personal pecuniary gain, but are fighting carefully-operated organized groups and rings, operating along the Canadian border with more than usual success."

YOUNG FLIER KILLED.

THE PAS, Man., July 22 (C.P.). — Seventeen-year-old Woodrow 'Chuck' Eagle of The Pas was killed when his aeroplane overturned when landing on a Northern Saskatchewan lake, according to word received here.

Lakefield and Young's Point To Hold Picnic

St. Paul's Parish Annual Social and Fowl Supper Monday, August 4th.

On the afternoon and evening of Monday, August 4th, the parishioners of St. Paul's church, Lakefield, and Young's Point, will hold their Annual Picnic and Fowl Supper on the beautiful grounds of South Beach which have been rented for the occasion. Special preparations are being made to provide entertainment for the large crowd that will attend, so that in addition to the splendid fowl supper that will be served, there will be a most enjoyable time.

MISSIONARY HOLIDAYS.

THE PAS, Man. July 21 (C.P.).—After six years at the Roman Catholic Mission at Eskimo Point far up the west shore of Hudson Bay from Churchill, Rev. F. Pigeon is en route homeward on his first visit to civilization since going north in 1924. He will visit his parents in Montreal, returning to the Point in November.

545 CANDIDATES ENTER CONTEST FOR 245 SEATS

Liberals Have 14 More in Field Than in 1926—Conservatives Two Less.

TWO GET ACCLAMATIONS.

33 Independents, 11 Laborites and 9 Communists Are Nominated.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 (By George Hambleton, C.P. Staff Writer). — Nominations for the 245 seats in the Dominion House of Commons were completed yesterday. In all, 545 candidates have been nominated, 20 more than in the general elections of 1926, but 37 less than in the elections of 1925. Two candidates are returned by acclamation and are the first members-elect of the new Parliament. Neither belongs to the old-line parties. They are:

Robert Gardiner, leader of the United Farmers of Alberta. Mr. Gardiner was nominated at the advance nominations of a week ago.

Henri Bourassa, famous as the leader of the old Quebec Nationalists. Mr. Bourassa was returned unopposed for Labelle, Quebec. He stands as an Independent.

In the last general elections, there was one acclamation. In the elections of 1926, there were no acclamations.

14 More Liberals In Field.

Liberals to-day nominated 14 more candidates than they nominated in 1926. At the same time, Liberal nominations were nine short of the Conservatives.

Nominations throughout the Dominion for the general elections of 1930 and 1926 compare:

Shot from Guns

125 million food cells exploded

That's what makes Puffed Grains crisp . . . delicious . . . virtually as nourishing as hot cooked cereals

YOU may have wondered why Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice are so light and crunchy . . . so meltingly good to eat.

Here's the secret. They are made by an utterly different process from all other ready-to-eat cereals. Grains of wheat and rice are sealed in bronze guns. The guns are revolved in fiery ovens. In this terrific heat the natural grain moisture in each tiny food cell expands into steam.

When the guns are fired, 125 million explosions occur in each grain. Every tiny food cell is completely broken up. (Just as it would be from long hours of cooking.) Hence every particle of food is completely digestible. This is why Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice are rated as virtually as nourishing as hot cooked cereals.

When these grains come forth in showers from the guns, they've been puffed to 8 times normal size. They're crisp, fragile, crunchy . . . deliciously good to eat. They taste like sweet new nutmeats. Like fresh buttered popcorn. You'll say you never before dreamed that wheat and rice could be so meltingly good to eat.

Don't neglect to give your family this more delicious . . . more richly nourishing cereal. Order Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice from your grocer today. 5751

AUSTRALIAN TREATY UNDER FIRE AT BUCKHORN CONSERVATIVE RALLY

T. P. Lancaster Assists E. A. Peck at Meeting in Harvey Township.

DEBT REDUCTION SCORED.

That "the Australian treaty is a measure which ought never have been allowed to pass" was the contention of E. A. Peck, Conservative nominee for re-election in Peterborough West, speaking at Buckhorn last night.

T. P. Lancaster, M.P.P., scored the government's attitude toward agriculture, the national highway, and the old-age pension. In view of the fact that Mackenzie King was being opposed by no fewer than five provincial premiers "something unusual in a Dominion election",—he advised his hearers to read carefully yesterday's press reports of Premier Taschereau's grounds for urging Quebec to vote Liberal in this election.

"I contend that the reason for conditions in this country today," declared Mr. Peck in his address, "is the complete lack of sympathy for the common people demonstrated by the Liberal government." He urged his hearers to ask Mr. Duffus, when he visited Buckhorn, to name something specific—"don't let him give you a lot of generalities"—which the Mackenzie King administration had done for agriculture. The government had aimed a very serious blow at agriculture in its Australian and New Zealand trade treaties, claimed Mr. Peck.

"Whether New Zealand is to be allowed after October 12 to send in butter at 4 cents a pound duty and continue to ruin your market, is a matter for the future to decide. I can say that there is a very real danger of it," asserted Mr. Peck, "if the Mackenzie King government is returned."

Whittled Off War Taxes

In 10 years the government had reduced the national debt about 10 per cent, not by issuing debentures but "just by adding a little yearly surplus from taxation," declared the speaker. "Yet Mr. Duffus will tell you what wonderful financiers the Liberal ministers are. They talk of tax reduction, and all they have been doing is gradually whittling off the war tax measures."

Mr. Peck indicted the government for having not only refused relief for temporary unemployment but "not attempted to deal with permanent unemployment". He saw the unemployment situation in this country today as a very serious one.

"The real trouble with this country," said the candidate, "is that we don't protect our home market. It is startling to read the figures of our imports from the United States and other foreign countries. We have no quarrel with the United States. They protect their home market. They have raised their tariff every year since Mackenzie King was returned to power." Twelve hundred million dollars worth of goods had been imported into this country last year— $120 for each man, woman, and child in the country. Two-thirds of this had come from the U. S. and had largely been paid for in the form of our raw materials. "They won't take our wheat or manufactured goods," asserted Mr. Peck.

Mr. Lancaster saw the election of Mr. Peck on Monday and declared that "every indication points to Mr. Bennett's sweeping the West". He read a letter from a western farmer to prove that King was preaching free trade in the West and protection in the East. "Western farmers are now admitting that our present fiscal policy is wrong," he announced.

"The King government has not been conducting the affairs of this Dominion in your interests. They have done nothing to merit your confidence in the coming election. By one act they did more to ruin the dairy industry in Canada than anything that ever has been done," declared Mr. Lancaster.

Mackenzie King's old age pension scheme which provided 50 per cent from the Dominion ovegrnment to those provinces which contracted to pay the remaining 50, was felt to be inadequate. Mr. Bennett had pledged himself to a national old-age pension scheme whereby the Dominion government paid all.

Regarding highways the Hon. Mr. Drury, speaking at Lindsay, had declared the national highway "a costly and useless thing", according to Mr. Lancaster. Mr. Drury had said this in the face of our 300-million-dollar annual tourist trade, the enormous benefit accruing to farmers through improved highways, and the immediate unemployment relief the present proposal would bring.

MORE INTEREST IS NECESSARY, SAYS J. J. GRAY

M. J. Holman, Liberal Candidate For Durham, Holds Rally at Millbrook.

URGES FRANCHISE USE.

Standard Bearer Deals With Tariffs and Soldiers' Pensions in Talk.

MILLBROOK, July 22 (Examiner Correspondence). — M. J. Holman, Reeve of Clarke Township, and Liberal standard-bearer in the present election campaign for Durham County made his initial appeal to the local electorate at a public meeting held in the Town Hall, Millbrook, on Monday evening, July 21, with Reeve Percy Stinson in the chair, the speakers including, besides the candidate, J. J. Gray, of Bowmanville, and G. D. Conant, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Oshawa, and secretary of the Liberal Association of Ontario County.

The speakers all congratulated the chairman on his good sportsmanship in presiding at a Liberal candidate's meeting when it is well-known that he is of the opposite political camp. Reeve Stinson, in his opening remarks, stated that in taking the chair he was only keeping a promise made to Reeve Holman at the closing session of the Counties Council, when in congratulating him on having received the Liberal nomination for Durham, he had given his word that he would preside at a meeting held locally if requested to do so.

J. J. Gray, who is secretary of the Durham Textiles Company, of Bowmanville, was the first speaker called upon, explaining that he was taking the place of Mrs. A. W. Bell of Oshawa, president of the Women's Liberal Association of South Ontario, who was unable to keep her engagement to be present owing to special meetings in her own riding, where the campaign is heating up during the final week. The statement that a similar women's Liberal organization is being completed in Durham County called forth applause.

More Interest.

Urging more interest and study of the issues and policies of the various parties, the speaker went on to say he believed the argument is all on the side of the King-Dunning government in the present contest. The use of the franchise was emphasized as election day is the one day of all days when the people really govern. Once the candidates are elected nothing more can be done until an appeal is made to the country again.

"If a government serves us well it should be rewarded by being returned to power at the next election; and if we do not so reward them then the basis of our system of government by the people is gone. We have only one method of approving or disapproving them, and that is by our votes. If you are in favor of Empire trade, vote for the Liberal candidate; if you do not want preferential tariff then vote against the King government. Men are leaving their party to-day, and quite properly so; it does not mean they are leaving their party for all time, but on this occasion because they approve of the King government and its Empire trade policy, and why should they not?"

In concluding his remarks, Mr. Gray mentioned in detail some of the accomplishments of the King administration such as putting the Canadian National Railways on a paying basis; meeting the menace of the United States raising its tariff with dignity and purpose; the development of the St. Lawrence waterway as far as it had been possible as yet to go. "In the dim and distant future Mr. Bennett may become a statesman of the calibre of Mackenzie King, but why try him out on us? The King government saw unemployment coming, and sought the remedy—more trade—and determined to go after it." Hence the passing of "this master stroke of legislation," the British Empire tariff. Representatives in thirty-three foreign countries, acting as trade ambassadors, had proved a successful policy since Canada exported $400,000,000 worth of manufactured goods—the highest ratio per capita of any other country. "There is more unemployment in Detroit than in all Canada, and that with the highest established tariff wall on earth. Calling a conference to discuss the matter, as Mr. Bennett proposes, is of no use at all. The constructive policy of giving dollar for dollar, as Mackenzie King has promised, for the purpose of carrying on wok which might possibly stand for the time being, has genuine, practical value. Has any Conservative Premier come forward with a like proposal?"

Candidate Speaks.

M. J. Holman, the Liberal candidate, was given a hearty round of applause when introduced by the chairman, and in his opening remarks expressed his high appreciation of Reeve Stinson's action in presiding at the meeting, mentioning their warm friendship in the Counties Council, and adding, "If he could only see my point of view politically now we would be one."

Stating that he had not sought the nomination in the riding, but had been urged to accept it at the Liberal convention, the speaker said he was making his third attempt at a political speech, and as a farmer, and a stock man, could only talk of practical things. He had not always been a Liberal, Mr. Holman said, having at one time thrown in his lot with the Progressives and worked with them because he believed the agriculturists were not receiving the help they should from the government.

"I honestly believe I am supporting the best government we could have at the present time." After dealing in some detail with the matter of tariffs, and commending especially the British preferential policy, the candidate stated that, as a stock raiser, he felt that the United States is our market, but since their tariff wall closes that against the Canadian farmer, he felt assured the King Government was seeing to it that we should have a market within the Empire, and that prosperity and happiness will be the result of the Government is sustained, "as I believe it will be," on July 28.

Soldiers' Pensions

The record of the King administration in relation to soldiers' pensions, and its treatment of war veterants in contrast to Mr. Meighen's statement, "the door is closed," when appeal was made for changes in this regard, was highly commended, and the speaker passed on to deal with the matter of Old Age Pensions, condemning Mr. Bennett's promise to have the Federal government assume the whole cost, and also Premier Ferguson's passing on of 20 per cent to the municipalities, as well as the administration charges. "Do we want the Ferguson manner of taxation in the Dominion Parliament?"

The unemployment question was given some attention, "Return Mackenzie King, and get the British preference going, and there is very little doubt that this situation will be ended," and the benefits of the Saint Lawrence waterways development, with the promise of English coal in exchange for our wheat at very little higher cost than the railway charges from the United States, took up this section of Reeve Holman's remarks.

"How is it that we never heard of the New Zealand butter question in March or in April, but as soon as an election came on we heard all about it?" The increased consumption of ice cream was given as one valid reason for the shortage of butter at home leading to the necessity for importation from the Antipodes. "The dairy producers came before the Tariff Advisory Board with their grievance, and a duty of $80 per ton was put on New Zealand butter; this has been raised to 7 cents a pound, or $140 a ton, and if we can't compete against that we ought to go out of business."

With a final appeal for votes in favor of the Mackenzie King Government on July 28, and with thanks for the pleasant and careful hearing he had been accorded, the candidate sat down amid prolonged applause.

Mr. Conant mad a very masterly address, as the concluding speaker of the evening, strongly endorsing W. H Moore as the Liberal candidate in his own riding, predicting his success at the polls on the 28th, and the probability of his becoming a Cabinet Minister in the King Government.

Stating he did not wish to make any stiffly partisan speech, Mr. Conant mentioned the troubled times in which we are living, international affairs being complicated with France and Italy at sharp variance, Russia continuing a menace to the world's peace, and the trouble in India, which however is beginning to clear up.

Mentioning that we are now on the crest of the wave as we were until the middle of 1929, the speaker declared it to be the sheerest nonsense to blame the government for the misfortunes of the present time, and went on to list the changes wrought by the mechanical age in which we are living leading to disturbances of the economic situation.

Exporting Country.

Outlining the huge indebtedness of the European nations to the United States after the war, and rousing applause by the reference to John Bull's determination to pay all he owes, the speaker developed the thought that only by precious metals or by trade can nations pay off indebtedness. "Canada is, and must be, substantially an exporting nation; we cannot possibly consume more than one-quarter of the wheat we produce; we must have an export market. So we find ourselves in this position— we cannot export to the United States because of the Hawley-Smoot tariff, the European States have an arrangement between themselves that exclude us from competition. Where then Within the British Empire, the way presented to us by the Dunning budget and the way the King administration is endeavoring to do."

That the Budget has been lauded in Britain by political leaders and press, and that American capital is already being invested in Canada so firms exporting to the Empire by establishing manufacturing plants here, may take advantage from Canadian soil of continuing their commercial relations, were points clearly portrayed. "Put the King-Dunning Budget in operation, and in the not far distant future we will again see a return of humming industry, and gain in our export trade as never before."

The speaker devoted some time to the need for immediate development of the St. Lawrence Waterway for power and commerce, blaming Premier Ferguson for the delay which compels Eastern Ontario to take its power from private companies, rather than enjoy the Hydro policy of development and power at cost. "This bickering between the Provincial and Dominion Premiers will cost Ontario dear; Quebec is going on with developing two million horse-power under private ownership and our province will be outstripped in industrial development; the situation is fraught with grave danger. If we fool around too long the United States may recede from her position, and if they once decide to develop the all-American seaway, the project is lost to Canada, and the blame rests upon Premier Ferguson."

"Put us in power, and all will be well," is the statement of the Opposition Leader, and the speaker thought the voters could not base much on the promise. "A higher tariff wall can never help the Canadian producer, particularly the agriculturist; the price of wheat, as we all know, is set in Liverpool. And it will never get us anywhere in export trade. Against that I submit the policy of the King-Dunning Budget as worthy of being supported. Are we to deal with John Bull as a foreigner, and not as a brother in our household?"

Speaking of the statement in Mr Bennett's key speech regarding the dollar spent in the West Indies as of no more value than if spent in the United States, as a strange one to make, Mr. Conant urged strongly the fact of Canada's freedom of the seas as owing solely to Britain, the least Canada can do in return being to say: "We will trade with her and give her a preference."

In the closing part of his constructive remarks, Mr. Conant stressed the worthiness of the King Government's program and record and sat down amid hearty applause.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

The Conservative candidate, F. W. Bowen, will hold his only meeting, locally, of the campaign on Thursday, July 24, with Colonel Georg of Toronto and others to address the gahering.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, July 22.—Fair trading and steady prices marked the opening of this week's trading on the local butter market. Fair-sized lots changed hands at 27¾ to 28c for No. 1, and 26½c to 26¾c for No. 2 Ontario. Dealers seemed able to make sales at these prices quite easily, but any suggestion of higher prices did not meet with the approval of buyers. Shipments had to be of high quality to enable brokers to secure the top price, and large lots of lower scoring No. 1 were, of course, easier to dispose of than small lots.

Cream

Churning cream prices were level with quotations issued last week, and country shippers were offered 27c to 28c for special, 26c to 27c for No. 1, and 23c to 24c for No. 2 f.o.b., country points.

Cheese

The country cheese boards showed additional strength over last week, and prices to shippers were up ½c to ¾c. No sales were recorded, locally, at these prices, but cheese was offered at 17¼c to 17½c for new, large; 17½c to 17¾c for twins, and 17¾c to 18c for triplets. Prices to retailers had not advanced yesterday, but probably will during the week.

Eggs

Eggs sold steadily yesterday and at the same prices as quoted last week-end. Brokers offered graded eggs, free cases, at 31c to 31½c for extras, 29c for firsts, and 25c to 25½c for seconds. Western eggs were being offered, and sold, on the local market at the same prices as asked for Ontario eggs, but they did not weaken the market any, as production in this Province has fallen off lately.

Country shippers were offered 29c for extras, 26c for firsts, and 22c for seconds, ungraded, delivered, cases returned. Retailers were quoted 34c to 35c for extras, in cartons, 32c to 33c for extras, loose; 30c to 31c for firsts, loose, and 26c to 27c for seconds, loose.

Potatoes

New Ontario potatoes were down again yesterday, and sold at $1.60 per bag. They are becoming more plentiful every day, and there is every possibility of the market going lower this week.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Wheat values fell quickly yesterday, with wheat arriving here faster than at any previous time this season, and with beneficial rains and lower temperatures widespread.

The market influence of big receipts of wheat in Chicago was emphasized by a huge increase of the United States wheat visible supply of 8,394,000 bushels, greatly exceeding that either of last week or a year ago. Official estimates were out indicating that stocks of domestic wheat at interior mills and elevators are 27,538,000 bushels in excess of a five-year average.

Closing is Unsteady.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsteady at about the day's bottom level, 2¼c to 2⅜c bushel lower than Saturday's finish.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, July 22. — Butter, cheese and eggs showed an upward trend on the Montreal dairy and produce markets yesterday. Potatoes and poultry were unchanged.

The first change in several weeks was made in egg prices to the retail trade. Special brands were advanced 2 cents per dozen and extras were marked up 1 cent per dozen with other lines unchanged. Receipts were 1,201 cases.

Cheese was substantially higher owing to the material advances in country board prices for Ontario cheese ranged from 17 to 17¼c per pound while for Quebec cheese dealers were looking for 16½c to 16⅝c per pound. Receipts were 3,334 boxes.

The butter market again showed an upward tendency with prices from 28¾c to 28½c per pound for Eastern Townships No. 1 Pasteurized. Prices to retailers were unchanged. Receipts amounted to 559 boxes.

The potato market was steady at $1.50 per 80-pound bags of new, locally-grown product.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Ills., July 22 (C.P.).—Beneficial rains and lower temperatures in spring wheat areas, together with a huge increase of the domestic wheat visible supply, tumbled wheat values downward yesterday. Estimates of more than 1,000,000 bushels fresh export business in United States and Canadian wheat failed to check price setbacks. The United States wheat visible supply increase was 8,394,000 bushels, greatly exceeding that either of last week or a year ago.

Wheat closed heavy; 2 1-4 to 2 3-4c a bushel lower than Saturday's finish. Corn closed 1 3-4 to 2 3-8c down; oats 1 1-4c off, and provisions unchanged to a drop of 12c.

Cash Prices

Wheat No. 1 red 89 1-2 to 90; No. 1 hard 89-90; corn No. 1 mixed 81 1-2; No. 1 yellow, 81¾ to 82½; No. 1 white 84 1-4.

DAIRY BOARDS.

CORNWALL, July 22. — On the Cornwall Cheese Board yesterday, 946 colored and 244 white sold at 16¼ cents. A year ago, 1,242 colored and 216 white sold at 17⅜ cents.

Iroquois, July 22. — At the meeting of the Cheese Board yesterday afternoon no sales were made, although there were offered 339 boxes of white and 208 colored cheese. The price was 15⅝ cents. The same date last year the price was 17¼ cents and 595 boxes of cheese.

Rivduloup, Que., July 22. — At yesterday's meeting of the Rivduloup Dairy Board there were 1,132 boxes of butter sold to Lovell, Christman Limited, Montreal, at 27 cents.

Perth, July 22. — At yesterday's meeting of the Perth Cheese oBard 518 boxes of white sold for 16c and 25 boxes colored sold at 16 1-16c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, July 22. — Bears rallied on the Winnipeg wheat market yesterday after week-end rains had enhanced crop prospects in the West, and tumbled prices 2⅝c to 2¾c in a session where the buying side could muster only a minimum of support. Weak Liverpool cables added to the bearish feeling.

In the absence of appreciable export business and outside buying, the market had difficulty in absorbing the heavy flood of offerings and making any headway from the low points.

Coarse grains also slipped into lower ground, mostly in sympathy with wheat's decline. Cash wheat holders were not in the market, and trading in this respect was light.

Somebody's Birthday?

If this is a birthday you have forgotten until just now—turn to your telephone. A greeting by long-distance telephone is a form of remembrance that is always appreciated as a compliment and it will take you only a few minutes, for out-of-town calls are as simple to make now as local ones. Evening rates, starting at 7.00 p.m., are cheaper than ever before.

Because of the drought in the Virgin Islands tourists are avoiding St. Thomas this season.

The REAL ISSUES ---JULY 28th

Both sides admit Canada's welfare is at stake. The main domestic issues are unemployment — home markets — taxation — Provincial and Dominion co-ordination — and means for greater inter-provincial exchange of people and products. The main international issues are British Empire trade negotiations — meeting foreign tariff handicaps and Canada's status on the seas and seaways. Only the radio can give both sides of the arguments fearlessly and fully. Radio knows no favoritism—Radio alone enables you to make your decision without prejudice. Have your dealer check your tubes to-day if your set is not working like new. Replacing a worn tube will repay you a hundredfold. TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1030

IT HAS BEEN TOO LONG.

With the official nomination proceedings over yesterday, the election campaign enters upon its final and most exciting stage.

The general verdict is that the battle has been too prolonged to keep the interest sustained, and that with a more general use of the radio it should be possible to spare the leaders and materially reduce the length of the campaign.

Judging by recent speeches, both Mr. King and Mr. Bennett are beginning to feel the strain of their lengthy program of speech-making, and the rank and file of both parties is anxious to get it over with and learn the verdict.

A hot weather campaign is not a sinecure under any conditions, and when it is stretched out over two months it becomes a wearisome affair for all concerned.

What is being said now by both parties is mostly a threshing out of old straw; the electors could undoubtedly have returned as intelligent a decision three weeks ago as they will do next Monday.

DON'T MISS YOUR CHANCE.

Voters would do well to take notice of an interesting fact to which attention is called by the Oshawa Times, namely that in the sixty-three years since the Canadian House of Commons came into being as a result of the Confederation of the Provinces Canada has only had four Parliaments.

In other words, the average life of a Canadian Parliament has been only four years, which means that if a voter lived to be over eighty years of age he would only have fifteen chances in all these years to give expression to his desires as to what is in the best interests of his country.

When it is realized that there are only fifteen chances to vote in a Dominion election in a lifetime of over eighty years, surely electors should not be willing to let one of those chances slip by.

Those who give any thought to the matter should find in that condition an added incentive to go out next Monday and exercise their franchise, thereby discharging their responsibility as electors and as citizens.

The opportunity of having a voice in the selection of the personnel of a Federal Government comes all too seldom to be lightly thrown away.

NOT WANTED HERE.

Public opinion will be solidly behind the Children's Aid Society in its decision that Ontario children are not to be allowed to emulate the American youngsters who are trying to outlast each other as tree-sitters.

Our United States cousins have been responsible for a good many foolish stunts, but surely nothing more nonsensical has been evolved across the line than this newest folly of children climbing into trees and engaging in an endurance contest to see which can sit on his pluck the longest.

It would naturally be expected that fond parents would long since have put an end to the pastime by hauling their offspring down from the trees and paddling with the limb on which they had been sitting, but the stunt has been given some newspaper attention in the United States, and basking in the reflected publicity, fathers and mothers have evidently waived their parental rights and responsibilities.

It is a foolish sport and a dangerous one, and J. J. Kelso, director of the Children's Aid Society in Ontario, is quite within his rights in issuing orders to his inspectors to have any tree-sitters in their vicinity ordered down from their perches.

NAMES OFF THE LIST.

Efforts are being made to have the names of some 50 Sandwich voters missed in the preparation of the lists there added in order that they may not be deprived of their franchise.

The decision in the case will be of considerable interest to a number of Peterborough people who are in a similar predicament, although on the whole the percentage of omissions here was surprisingly small.

It is pointed out of course, that voters had two more chances to protect their franchise after the enumerators had completed their work, and that they really have no just ground for complaint if for some reason or other their names do not appear in the official list.

That is quite true, but at the same time if there are cases of names being omitted after the enumerators had left slips at the homes of the citizens in question it does seem as if there should be some provision in the act for redress.

The fact that they were in possession of a paper showing the enumerators had registered their names was enough to make them confident that nothing more was necessary, and consequently they lost the subsequent chance of appearing before the registrars or the revising officers.

DESTROYING WEEDS.

It is said that never before in the history of Ontario has there been such activity both in rural and urban communities in the destruction of pernicious weeds as there has been during the present season, says the Brantford Expositor. As a result of the campaign that has been conducted farmers all over the Province have been making diligent efforts to keep down noxious weeds on their farms. During the month of June it was a common sight to see people all over the Province hoeing, cutting, and pulling weeds in order to keep crops clean. Moreover, hundreds of country cemeteries, which in times past have too frequently had a neglected appearance, have been cleaned up, properly sodded and planted with shrubs and otherwise put in a condition becoming to the last resting places of the esteemed and honored pioneers of the Province.

The attention that has been given the school yards, church yards, highways, township roads, railroads and public property of all kinds has added greatly to the attractive appearance of these communities. The publicity that has been given to the necessity of destroying noxious weeds has stimulated the united and vigorous efforts of farmers, weed inspectors, road and railway officials, trustees of public property, women's institutes and service organizations all over the Province. It is to be hoped that the good work is kept up, as there is an almost endless amount of effort required to keep down noxious weeds and improve the appearance of certain places in every community.

WHY NOT INVEST IN CANADA?

According to figures issued by the Royal Bank of Canada, there are one billion eight hundred million dollars of Canadian capital invested in other countries, about one billion being in the United States, one hundred millions in Great Britain, and the rest distributed over numerous other countries. Of that total, eight hundred millions were invested during the past seven years, some of this having, possibly, been expended in the repurchase of Canadian securities formerly held in other lands. Outside investment, of course, widens the influence of the Dominion in international finance, money being an international commodity.

Such increase of our foreign investments is evidence of growth, evidence of our status as a nation, and is a gratifying criterion of prosperity. All nations have foreign investments, particularly the older countries which have reached a high peak of development.

It is somewhat regrettable to note, however, that foreign investments in Canada reach the gigantic total of over six billions, even if it is correct that our national wealth is estimated at thirty billions. That is to say, one-fifth of our national wealth is owned by outside investors.

Canada was mainly built up in the earlier days by British capital. In modern times the British investments have been made to look small in comparison with American investments. Canada is still in the period of adolescence, and while our foreign finance is a necessary factor in development, it might be better if Canadians spent more millions in developing their own country. It is not good that a high percentage of our wealth should be owned outside the Dominion and on that ground it is to be hoped that when financial men are looking for investments they should do so by purchasing the control of American and other concerns in Canada, and in new developments of our own vast industrial resources.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

THE POLITICIANS.

The air is filled with politics just now. That is true in more senses than one. The nearing of the end of the federal campaign is increasing its intensity. Statements and counter-statements provoke thought, or merely exasperate, according to temperament, or predilection. And at times there is a tendency to agree with the Psalmist so far as to say that, if not "all men," at least all politicians, "are liars."

But, after all, is this quite fair? Politicians are human beings, like ourselves. Essentially so, for the less "human" they are, the less successful they are likely to be in their chosen calling. There have been glaring examples in very modern times of the failure of very able men through lack, or seeming lack, of this very quality.

And being human, can it not be said of them they are naturally anxious to make a good job of their task?

And what is the task of the politician? The strong, avowed party man will answer: "To advance the cause of my party." The true politician, however, will recognize that his success will lie in how far he can constitute himself an expression of the least common denominator of public opinion.

To the idealist, of course, this seems a very low standard. But how can it be otherwise? If a politician does not represent the public mind of his time, how can he be elected? And if he cannot get elected, how can he serve as a politician? So why blame the politician?

In an article reviewing F. S. Oliver's new book, "The Endless Adventure," Hon. Martin Burrell has given his own verdict on politicians as he has known them. Mr. Burrell speaks, of course, from a fairly wide experience of Canadian politicians particularly, and this is what he says:

"If critics came down into the fray they might lose that authoritative tone in which they are accustomed to speak, but they would gain in sympathy and judgment. And I say without hesitation that politicians in the main as I have mingled with them and known them for many years, are not less intelligent, not less desirous of doing the right thing, not less anxious to advance the best interests of their country than their critics, but perhaps more so."

Mr. Burrell rightly remarks also that the notion that we can do without the help of politicians is an illusion: "for politics is not one of those crafts that can be learned by the light of nature without an apprenticeship," he adds. And it recalls for us the famous remark of Lloyd George on one occasion, and which provoked considerable comment, that the war was won by countries which had the best politicians.

In all our criticisms of our politicians, perhaps it will do us good to bear in mind occasionally the conclusion at which F. S. Oliver arrived and with which Mr. Burrell says many will agree, that, "with all the temptations, dangers, and degradations that beset it, politics is still, I think, the noblest career that any man can choose."—Ottawa Journal.

END OF 1928 AND NOW.

The Editor, Examiner.

Dear sir:

Just before me as I write lies a snapshot of Premier Ferguson taken at the ending of 1928. Your will notice his smile is most self satisfied, in fact beatific, as he comments on the increased wealth of Ontario, the wonderful increase in production in manufacturing and agriculture, the increase in exports and commerce generally. The mines were also inceasing their output. Everyone was happy and no word of any unemployment difficulties that he could not handle. There was nothing going wrong. Apparently Premier King's good work in these very lines were very commendable in that his policies had benefited Ontario so much that Premier Ferguson could use that success as a boost for himself at the coming election in Ontario and which good condition was the only reason he had or could give for bringing on the expense of an election a year ahead of time in Ontario.

What an astonishing thing to those who do not know the wily Ferguson that notwithstanding the big surplus in the provincial treasury and his statement that he was handling the unemployment situation quite satisfactory in Ontario that, after he was sure of his position as Premier he applies to Ottawa for help at a time when he knew that King must soon come to the country for re-election. Ottawa! which has billions of a debt for all Canada to liquidate; Ottawa! to which neither Quebec nor Ontario should have in all fairness applied, having plenty of funds to create employment in public works, and which, indeed, Taschereau did in Quebec. On the contrary, Premier Ferguson actually stopped work on the highway in some parts, until after the election, to create a false impression against King. If anyone ever knew of a leading politician or knows of one now at this present time a more crooked politician than Ferguson I would certainly like to hear from that man. His misstatements have been pretty well proven in the Globe and over the radio and in the Daily Star so here's to the success of his would-be victim, Rt. Hon. Wm. Lyon Mackenzie King.

Sincerely yours,

A. H. ALLEN.

What To-day Means To You.

"CANCER."

If July 22 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a.m. to 9:15 a.m., noon to 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The early morning time will prove to be your own on this date; afterwards it will belong to others. Friendship may be permitted to mar your work. A marked time for travel. Petty family quarrels! Pleasant news from a distance!

Children born on this date will have confiding and trustful natures, and will not be self-reliant. They will be amiable, loving and kind, having an abundance of sympathy especially with all dumb animals. They will be apt to be too timid rather than too bold.

A woman born on July 22 very easily may become a modern Martha. One could not imagine you ever neglecting a duty; your services to the world are perfect. There is only one thing which stands between you and the glory you deserve, and that is that you "fuss", over things and persons.

Your ultra-unselfishness drives your associates to the opposite end of the pole —selfishness. Your virtues are taken advantage of, and as a result you may become the most excellent odd-job person for those who can use you to their,and not necessarily to your profit and good.

You, whether man or woman, never find time to do the things which secretly you desire to do for yourself. You let your own talents lie dormant, while you help others develop theirs. Occasionally your heart is filled with resentment, and you long to demand your rights, but you never can get away from the desire to serve and to please others. You like being leaned upon. Much useless suffering would be saved you, if you knew the psychology or idiosyncrasies of human nature better, but you never will.

You are naturally religious, and in it you will find much happiness and comfort. Your spiritual development exceeds either your mental or physical. You are a very devoted and loyal friend, and you never at any time can be a "turn coat."

THE GRINGO PRIVATEER

By PETER B. KYNE

CHAPTER 21.

Ken Burney decided that his course, regardless of how he fared in El Cajon Bonita, was now set. If he should succeed in disposing of the King's enemies the kind would be obligated to stock his father's ranch for him, loan him fifty thousand dollars and give him ten years in which to repay. If, on the other hand, he failed to dispose of the king's enemies, he would remain on the payroll long enough to buy Dan Wilkins' outfit for the Bardin Land & Cattle Company; in which latter even he hoped that by consummating a fine profitable deal, much of the king's bitterness at his (Burney's) failure in El Cajon Bonita would be eradicated to such an extent that His Majesty might graciously consent to give him a good job in some other department of his immense business.

Win or lose, however, he must abandon his position as general manager of El Ranchito. That job belonged to Tom Bledsoe by all the rules of the game and Burney had, in a moment of umpulsive generosity, promised the Quaker he would remove himself from the latter's path within sixty days.

The following three days Burney spent in the building of an orthodox army rifle range in a secluded canyon on El Ranchito. By that time the thirty rifles and the ammunition he had ordered from LosAngeles were in the express office at Huachita. They were sporting rifles, sighted up to a thousand yards and chambered to use United States Army ammunition. Burney would have preferred Springfield rifles also, but owing to the inability of civilians to purchase these he had to be content with the next best, which he believed to be superior to the average rifle in any regular or guerrilla force in Mexico.

For the next week his thirty picked men and Tom Bledsoe practiced all day long at the rifle range.

Meanwhile the pictures which Burney had taken in El Cajon Bonita had been developed, printed and returned to the ranch, together with several enlarged views of the valley proper and the entrances and exits to it. With his force now trained to the point where he considered it able to cope with any force Miguel Gallegos and Martin Bruce might see fit to send against it, there existed no further reason for delaying the branding in El Cajon Bonita and accordingly Burney had overhauled and serviced six big motor trucks and a motorized chuck wagon. Into the trucks he loaded his horses, saddled and bridled)—and they were the horses he had instructed Tom Bledsoe to select from the remuda because of their variegated colors. He put the horses in five trucks and loaded his personnel, with their arms, ammunition and bedding rolls, into the sixth truck; at daylight on the appointed day he moved out with his convoy to Huachita, at which point he planned to cross the international boundary.

The day previous the king, having been informed by Burney of his contemplated departure for El Cajon Bonita next morning, casually relayed the information to his daughter. "He had thirty-two trained fighting men, including the range boss and the cook." His Majesty added parenthetically, "so it appears to me that at last I'm going to get my calves in El Cajon Bonita branded before Gallegos runs Martin Bruce's iron on them. Next to getting rid of Gallegos and Bruce, the branding of those calves in defiance of those two crooks will mark a distinct mile-post in the march of progress in the affairs of El Ranchito."

The princess gazed at him wide-eyed. "Do you think he'll really have to fight for the privilege of branding those calves, Dad?" she queried interestedly.

"I do— and so does Burney. Gallegos has to make good or lose the game he's playing with Bruce, and, naturally, he'll feel much more cheerful over a fight on Mexican soil than we will, being foreigners."

"Gallegos will attack Mr. Burney, Dad?"

"Naturally. Burney may not attack him, although he'd like to, in order to gain the advantage of surprise and initiative. The offensive often wins, the defensive seldom. Burney is forced by circumstances to take the defensive because, in the event of international complications later, that will give him a leg to stand on. Gallegos is a bandit and Burney can plead that he and his men merely defended themselves against the outlaw."

"Is somebody likely to be killed?"

"Oh, there will be casualties, of course. However, I have purchased ten-thousand-dollar accident policies for every man on that branding party. Thus the dead and wounded will be cared for, while those who survive the fight uninjured will receive a bonus of a hundred dollars."

"You buy men's lives rather cheaply," his daughter told him with withering scorn.

"Not at all," the king corrected her. "I can hire any number of killers for a single professional engagement for fifty dollars. However," he added with self-conscious-rectitude, "it has always been my policy to hire good men and pay them well for good work."

"But suppose Ken Burney should be killed?"

"His father will collect an accident insurance policy of ten thousand dollars and I'll ship the body home to Tres Pines, California—sans flowers."

"Marvelous. Suppose, on the contrary, Ken Burney should be crippled for life?"

"The accident insurance policy makes provision for partial or complete disability. Of course, if he kills Bruce and Gallegos and becomes permanently disabled, he'll have his father's ranch stocked for him on long-time payments. He'd probably get by, even as a cripple. On the other hand, if he fails in his mission and becomes totally disabled also, that would be just too bad."

"Oh, would it? Well, you could pension him, couldn't yoj?"

"Of course not."

"Why?"

"Because he would not accept it and I wouldn't insult him by suggesting it. Men in his line of business realize the chances they take and they never whine or whimper when their luck fails to hold. They neither ask nor expect favors or bonuses for halfway jobs."

"There can be only one right angle to a triangle," says moralizing Martha, "and that goes for the eternal triangle, too."—By Gettier.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Lakefield

Mrs. Robert Adams, of Peterborough, was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Northey last week.

Mrs. Jones and Miss Rita Jones, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bailey last week at their cottage on Mink Island, near Young's Point.

Miss Mildred Bailey, of Stratford, is spending the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bailey.

Mrs. G. S. Scoville and son, Gordon, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bailey at Mink Island last week.

Mrs. C. R. Banks, of Peterborough, was in the village on Friday.

Mrs. Albert Northey and Miss Margaret Northey have returned from a visit to Consecon.

Miss Dorothy Sutton is visiting friends in Muskoka.

Mr. E. T. W. Bailey, of Hamilton, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bailey, last week.

Mr. Patrick Allen, of Detroit, has been visiting friends in the village and vicinity.

Mrs. A. J. Wakeley, of Toronto, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tanner last week.

Mrs. Agnes Paterson, who was visiting friends in Toronto, has returned to the village. By a typographical error Mrs. Paterson was reported to be visiting in Peterborough instead of Toronto.

Miss Laurel and Master Hugh Bromley, of Campbellford, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Webster.

Mrs. Robertson, of Little Britain, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore.

Miss Doris Burgess has returned from the Y.W.C.A. camp at Eagle Mount.

Mr. Leo J. Garvey is in Toronto marking papers for the Department of Education.

A Wash Out

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

TAKE OFF YOUR BLINDERS.

All of us wear blinders.

We think perhaps with contemptuous pity of the horse who must wear blinders.

He must have his vision narrowed to the small part of the road directly ahead of him.

He can not be allowed to look on all sides, for fear his nervous imagination will magnify the unknown.

With the old adage, "What you don't see won't worry you," he might excuse his restricted eyesight.

He may be stupidly complaisant, even though so small a part of life comes within his view.

"See how carefully I am guarded from the blowing sheet of paper that might startle and annoy me," he may say to himself with smug satisfaction. "I am high strung. I must not be shocked."

I have known many people who were like horses, and all of us have some of Dobbin's weakness for the safe old blinders.

We have blinders of custom. We do not dare to discard the worn-out usages which protect while they hamper us.

We have blinders of habit which we have not the strength to conquer.

We have blinders of fear that will not let us assert our real ideas.

We have blinders of conceit that hide our shortcomings as completely as the blinders hide the road from the horse.

As he jogs blindly along, seeing only a small part of the whole of his path, the horse is very like us.

If we could take off our blinders—if we could see the whole instead of our small personal view confined and narrowed by our prejudice—how different our judgments would be.

If we could get outside of our cramping harness, how much broader and wiser would our vision's horizon grow.

If you can recognize your blinders you will be making the first step toward discarding them.

Ask yourself, when you are condemning the actions of others, if you are expressing your real opinion or are voicing the thought created by your blinders.

Watch your conversation and see if you are telling something that is the result of earnest attention to the subject, or are only repeating the worn-out and narrow view of someone whose blinders restricted his vision.

You will be surprised to find how many opinions you have accepted, without a doubt of their truth, which you do not really believe at all.

Challenge the statements you hear and discover how few will stand the test when stripped of the blinders which for many years have protected them.

Take off your blinders and you will be astonished at the beauty and breadth of the view.

TORONTO TREND IS IRREGULAR

Reduction of Crude Output in U. S. Last Week Basis For Oil Group Improvement.

LIST SALES LIGHT.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22 (C.P.).—The market on Toronto Stock Exchange swung aimlessly again today, the volume being too small to give any indication of trend developments. Oils as a group were firm, reduction of crude output in the United States last week being a basis for improvement in this section. Sales, however, continued to be extremely light.

B.A. Oil, Imperial Oil, International Petroleum were all slightly higher. International Nickel was some better and Brazilian. Ford of Canada, Massey-Harris held up well enough. Foods were uiet, as were the steels, and those specialty stocks which did appear were for the most part unchanged. Walkers, while firm, found no improvement in demand.

JERSEYS BRING $1,347 PER HEAD.

BRAMPTON, Ont., July 22.—At a sale of imported and locally bred Jersey cattle on the R. H. Bull estate, $82,175 was realized on 61 head. The average price of $1,347 per head was believed by D. O. Bull, head of the estate, to be the highest obtained at any sale in the world during the past year.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Proof of the improved technical position of the Canadian exchanges to be had in the action of the local markets in the face of weakness in Wall Street. On Monday both the Montreal and Toronto exchanges experiences one of the lightest days for volume in many years and the opening to-day was lacking selling orders, indicating stocks have actually passed from weak to strong hands and will not be easiliy dislodged. On former occasions when Wall Street turned reactionary the local exchanges had considerable selling to absorb the morning after but to-day this liquidation failed to appear and prices were holding well around the level of preceding days. Should the weakness continue on the big board, however, it is possible prices here will be a shade lower, but it is not expected there will be any great increase in activity. Investors are inclined to lower bid prices on all such occasions trying to purchase normal offering at the best possible prices. The present market is guided more on income returns and bad or good news concerning individual companies as general conditions have been pretty well discounted by the conditions of May and early June. Cash buying for many weeks has contributed to an improved technical position without the help of speculative purchases that would be let go at the first sign of trouble. Stocks taken up in this way were paid for and put away waiting the upturn in general business and the appreciation that is expected to follow in the market. Time is of no consequence as owners are assured a liberal return on the money invested and can well afford to wait for capital appreciation, even though it takes some time. It is not a question of reemployment of capital by selling one security to purchase another, but is more or less permanent investment.

Reaction on Time.

The anticipated reaction in the stock market was right on schedule. Brokers hold the view that a correctionary reaction was necessary to try to increase public interest that had waned following the drop to lower levels and which showed no signs of improving with the current recovery. The public was fooled early in the year when prices werepushed higher, due to false optimism which gave way to over pessimism and traders have now adopted a very cautious attitude. The trouble is that the appreciation in security prices took place with some visible signs of improvement in business and chaotic conditions in the commodity markets. It was attributed to professionals and an oversold short interest and the public, not at all sure it could last without impairing the technical position would have none of it.

The Bull and the Bear.

The prices have again been given their proper place on the walls of the Toronto Stock Exchange. From time immemorial these animals have been symbolic of the different types of traders with the bull, tossing things upward, representative of the long trader who operates for profit on the side of the advance and the bear, clawing things down, representing the short trader who looks for profit through price depreciation. On most all exchanges bull and bear heads are to be found in a conspicuous spot and these heads were only removed from the floor of the local exchange to permit of increasing board facilities and the redecoration of the walls. Now they occupy a position well up on the west wall where they can look down on all that is going on. The origin of the term bull and bear dates back to the seventeenth century when traders working for the advance met at the Bull Tavern in London and their opponents at Bear Tavern.

MANAGEMENT DIFFERENCES IS BELIEVED CAUSE OF TROUBLE

H. E. Hammell Resigns From Presidency and H. Oakes and W. Wende From Directorate.

ARNO ACTIVITY EXPLAINED.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22. (C.P.)—Announcement has been made of the resignation from the presidency of Howey Gold Mines, Limited, of H. E. Hammell and of Harry Oakes and A. W. Wende from the directorate.

According to available information the resignations followed a lengthy meeting during which internal management differences of recent months were threshed out.

ARNO ACTIVITY EXPLAINED.

TORONTO, July 22. (Special to Examiner.)—The Arno letter forwarded to shareholders to-day more or less explains recent activity and some strength in the stock. It is understood that Nipissing, which is said to have examined the property, failed to make a deal, but from reliable sources it is learned that another financial group has become interested in the prepared. Andrew Walz, consulting engineer, strongly recommends exploration at depth, basing his contention on interesting developments down to the 340 level.

The developments announced in the affairs of Howey Gold Mines follows months of rumor. The failure of the mill to perform according to advance notices caused considerable comment, and the company has been the centre of a great deal of discussion in mining circles for some time. The entrance of the Huron Mining and Finance company into the picture indicates some internal dissatisfaction with trend of affairs and the report of that company, to be ready during the fall, will be awaited with a considerable interest not only by shareholders, but by the street in general.

New York advices state engineers figure that Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting will be able to produce copper at a cost of less than eight cents a pound. This compares very favorably with costs of producers in the United States and shows the favorable position in which Canadian producers, almost as a rule are cited.

XXX some interesting figures having a beating on the question of copper consumption are submitted by U. S. Electrical Companies western Electric did a business of nearly $202,000,000 in the first half of the year, and increase of $6,000,000 over the corresponding period last year, General Electric also reports gross business in excess of the corresponding quarter last year. Total consumption of electric power in the United States in the first half of 1930 amounted to 37,800,000,000 kilowatt hours, 1.7 per cent larger than last year, and 15.1 per cent in excess of the total for the first half of 1928.

In the face of this very bullish news on copper, the copper industry has been demoralized it is stated, due, largely to over-production and price cutting. Last year there was some semblance of stabilization and the copper companies did very well. There has been a radical change since then, lack of co-operation among producers and refiners resulting in prices for copper that promise very little to investors in some stocks in the way of dividends.

MAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

GOLD SHIPPED TO CANADA.

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 22 (C.P.).—Gold has started to flow across the Canadian border. The Canadian Bank of Commerce has taken advantage of the favorable rate of exchange and shipped $1,000,000 in gold to the Dominion, the first important shipment of the sort since 1927. From other sources another $1,000,000 has been shipped.

CORONER'S JURY FREES HAMILTON POLICEMAN

HAMILTON, Ont., July 22 (C.P.)—That Albert Skurtis, 37, Buffalo, N.Y., was shot by a member of the Buffalo police force in the performance of his duty, was the finding of a coroner's jury here last night after the inquest into the death of Skurtis in hospital here, July 9.

Police officers read the jury antemortem admission of Skurtis that he had come to Hamilton after he had been shot by police who had found him taking a muffler from a car in a Buffalo garage. He was given treatment by a Hamilton doctor and police did not know of his whereabout until his wound became infected, and he was brought to hospital.

The jury added the opinion that doctors should notify the police when they treat wounds of this nature.

BULL FORCES RESUME GAIN AT NEW YORK

Further Selling Appears at Opening To-day But Pivotal Stocks Remain Firm.

AMERICAN CAN LEADS.

Auto Strop Registers Advance of Five Points to Gain New Top Price.

NEW YORK, July 2. (C.P.) — Bull forces confidently resumed their advance in to-day's stock market, having consolidated their position in the recession of the past two sesterday, wiping out the advance of the entire previous week, was a little disconcerting in its severity, it was regarded in brokerage circles as having represented merely momentary withdrawal of support rather than important liquidation. Professional traders who had been awaiting an opportunity to get into the market at lower levels replaced those who took their profits and deserted the cause.

Further selling appeared at the opening, but pivotal stocks were well supported, and before mid-day bullish activity became vigorous. There was more faltering selling in the early afternoon when the more active stocks sold off from a fraction to a point from their best levels.

American Can was a leader, rising more than 4 points in active trading. General Motors was active but advanced only moderately. Such issues as U.S. Steel, General Electric, Radio Ketih, Radio, Standard of N. J., Du Pont, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, New York Cen- Mannville advanced about 2 to 3 points.

Among the wider gainers was Auto Strop, which moved up about 5 to a new top. Accompanied by unconfirmed rumors of a merger deal with Gillette Eastman and International Machines sold up more than 5 and ase jumped 10 .

BOYCOTT TURNING TO NATIVE LIQUOR

Bombay Will Lose $19,000 Yearly By Refusing to Lease Toddy Palms.

40,000 TREES IN CITY.

BOMBAY, India, July 22 (C.P.).—Mahatma Gandhi's civil resistance movement, which began with salt raids and followed with boycotting of British goods, now is renewing activity against native liquor.

Official action in the liquor question was taken by the Bombay Municipal Corporation. The favorite native drink is toddy, derived from the sap of the toddy palm, and it is against this beverage that the Nationalists have campaigned most strongly. The Corporation decided yesterday by a vote of 3 to 28 that the municipal palms henceforth should not be leased for produciton of the drink.

This will mean an annual loss of some $19,000 in gold for the city revenues, as about 40,000 toddy palms in the Corporation limits have heretofore been leased.

OTTAWA STAYS SILENT ON MASSEY'S SUCCESSOR

OTTAWA, July 22. — (C. P.) — No information was forthcoming from the Prime Minister's office in connection with the report in the Toronto Telegram that Hon. W. D. Ross, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, would succeed Hon. Vincent Massey as Minister to the United States, and that R. S. McLaughlin of Oshawa, would be appointed Lieut.-Governor of Ontario. It was recalled that some time ago the Prime Minister had announced that no appointment would be made to the Washington Legation until after the general election.

YOUR INVESTMENTS

by R. M. DIXON, B.A. District Representative of BICKLE, CLARKE & CO., LTD. 330 Bay Street, Toronto INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Article LXXV

Q.—Should a bond house buy listed bonds for its own account?

A.—There is always a temptation on the part of bond houses to buy listed securities for its own account. It is seldom that the profit sought, is worth the risk involved. A bond house has a legitimate business to transact in buying and selling securities for its clients, and in underwriting certain issues. It should keep its supply cleaned up and then in the event of falling prices it will not sustain a loss through its holdings.

At such times it should be able to come out clear in its transaction if not make a profit. If on the other hand it has bought bonds for its own account and the market falls, the loss sustained would be great and endanger the whole business.

WEALTHY MAN IS FOUND DEAD ON LONELY ROAD

day afternoon en route to Barrie, Ont., where he was to go fishing with a friend, Robert Byers. Doctors state that Rumbold probably died at five o'clock this morning and his family are at a loss to explain what he was doing in the 16-hour interval instead of proceeding to Barrie for the night.

Mrs. Rumbold stated he had not much money on him or any expensive jewellery. She did not know of any enemies he had made.

The dead man leaves besides his widow, seven children, six at home and one, Dr. Dean Rumbold, at Richmond, Ky. He was about 50 years of age, a Mason and an Elk.

He was evidently strangled with a rope which was around his neck. The man's hands were strapped behind his back and his pockets had been robbed.

No Trace of Murderer

Police have no trace of the murderer.

Humbold's body, slumped in the front seat of the car, was found by a workman early this morning. A claw type hammer was found beside the car blood-stained, and a hat was lying on the ground, soaked with blood. As well as being strangled with a rope drawn tightly around his neck he had been beaten with the hammer until his head was crushed to a pulp.

Rumbold was identified by his driver's license found in his pocket which gave his address at 45 Catherine street, Tonawanda, N.Y. Letters of reference were found in his pockets testifying to his financial responsibility. His wallet had been rifled of money and the letter of reference and the driver's license had been stuffed back in the purse.

Police investigation is proceeding under the direction of Provincial Inspector Stringer, but as yet, the officers have not clues to the slayer. A conorer's inquest will be held to-day.

HOWEY GOLD IS ACTIVE ISSUE

Effort at Firmness Much in Evidence During Early Period Trading To-day.

ON STANDARD EXCHANGE.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22. (CP)—An effort at firmness was in evidence on the mining market closing the early period today.

Howey was one of the active issues, dropping to 43 and rallying to 47 at noon, a point above last night's close. The announcement that R. T. Birks has succeeded J. E. Hammell as president and that the Huronian Mining and Finance had been retained to report on the property clears up a good deal of rumor which has surrounded Howey for some time. Teck Hughes another $5 to $6.50, but Vipond and Hollinger advanced a few points each.

Waite-Ackerman added to recent gains, selling at $2.30 10 above last night's close. Amulet was 3 higher at 48 and Arno and Pend Orielle displayed small advances. International Nickel failed to recover from the easier tendency, dropping another quarter to $24.25, but Noranda was up 15 to $23.40.

Nordon was the leader in a fairly strong oil group, opening at $1.09 and standing at noon at $1.20 for a gain of 12 on the period. Acme and Ajax were both a couple higher at 34 and $1.85 respectively and East Orest gained a point to 24.

PETERBORO MEN ARE RESENTING BLUE RUIN TALK

Say City Prosperous and Victory For Conservatives Would Hurt Trade.

BUSINESS INCREASES.

Liberal Candidate Will Be One of Ontario's Surprises in Coming Election.

In the event of a victory for the Conservatives and the carrying out of a general high protectionist policy, it is the prediction of John R. Marshall, general manager of the Canadian Nashua Paper Co., one of the largest industries of this industrial center, that the price of all kinds of paper in Canada must rise very materially. But in the opinion of Mr. Marshall the present government won't be defeated, and he even predicts that the Liberal candidate in Peterborough, J. J. Duffus, will be one of the surprises in Ontario when a Liberal gain is recorded for this riding.

"There is only one result that I can see if there is a change in policy tending to higher protective duties," said Mr. Marshall. "It would mean an increase in our raw material, and, therefore, mean an increase in the selling price of all kinds of paper.

"The natural tendency of higher duties," he emphasized, "would be to encourage the Canadian paper mills that are not getting as high profits as they desire to increase their prices and obtain these profits.

"I think that on the whole anybody must find a very healthy tone in business in Peterborough," was Mr. Marshall's summary.

The Canadian Aladdin Co. of Peterborough, which manufactures ready-cut houses and conducts a general lumber business, through their local manager, B. J. Robinson, also reported a good year. "May was the best month we ever had," Mr. Robinson said. "This month was also good."

Trade Is Splendid

Mr. Robinson intimated that he had heard, like other Peterborough manufacturers, that inventories of the stocks of the merchants throughout the country showed that their stocks were very low. The "blue ruin" campaign had frightened them, so they had virtually stopped renewing their stocks.

The Canadian factory of the Quaker Oats Co. is situated at Peterborough, and is one of the largest plants of this busy city. Here, W. A. Donnelly, assistant to the vice-president, who looks after the export business, since all of the shipping to the United Kingdom is done through the Peterborough office, stated that so far as the cereal trade was concerned it was splendid.

"So long as we keep showing an increase in our business, we can't say much about a depression," said Mr. Donnelly. Altogether, he said, the business of the Quaker Oats Co. this last year had increased from 10 per cent. to 25 per cent., depending upon the different lines of goods.

This company also has had experience with the effect of the blue ruin campaign on the merchants. "During the early summer," Mr. Donnelly said, "buying by the merchants was from hand to mouth. They bought in far smaller quantities, but, as it proved, they bought more frequently, and business, in spite of everything, increased.

The Quaker Oats plant is running "regular," was the way the employment situation here might be described.

Big Order is Reported

Throughout the city of Peterborough it was discovered, there was a rumor that seemed to be well-founded that the Quaker Oats Co., as the result of Premier King's recent visit to the Bermudas and the Dunning budget preference, had just received a large order from the Bermudas that would require the plant to run almost 24 hours a day.

Mr. Donnelly, questioned about this, could make no direct answer, but intimated that denial or confirmation would have to come from the head export office.

"The company ships a lot of flour and cereals already to the West Indies and smaller quantities to South and Central America," Mr. Donnelly said.

"Things with us," he concluded, are practically normal at the present time."

So far as unemployment is concerned in Peterborough at the present time, an incident related by W. R. Bryfogle, vice-president and general manager of the DeLaval Dairy Supply Co. is of interest. "We were after two men who used to work for us. They had been out of work only a week," said Mr. Bryfogle, "but we could not get them back. They had already signed contracts with other employers.

"There's too much blue ruin stuff," said Mr. Bryfogle, decidedly.

ROOSEVELT ACTS ON POWER PLAN

Appointing Five on Commission to Study St. Lawrence Project.

SELECT SITES.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., July 22 (C.P.). — Study by a State body of the feasibility of developing the water-power resources of the St. Lawrence River was moved a step nearer with the announcement by Governor Roosevelt that he will be prepared to name the five members of a Commission before the end of the present week.

The Governor plans to meet his Commission late next month at the site of the proposed dam, and with them personally make the first inspection of the power site or sites. Not later than January 15 next year, the Commission must report to the Governor, telling of the sites available, presenting a plan for development and operation by a board of trustees or, if finding public operation not practicable present alternative plans.

On the St. Lawrence trip the Governor also will meet the members of his recently named St. Lawrence Bridge Commission, which is charged with the duty of selecting a site for one or more spans between the Canadian and American shoes at points between the head of the Thousand Islands and the international boundary line.

NEW JERSEY CITY HIT BY TORNADO

Boat Upturned, Roofs Torn Off in Five-minute Storm.

DAMAGE $50,000.

SEASIDE PARK, N. J., July 22 (C.P.)—A freak storm lasting less than five minutes struck this place last night and did damage estimated at more than $50,000.

Boats were lifted from Barnegat Bay and dropped a hundred feet inland. Awnings were torn from houses and porch furniture carried away. Porches on the yacht club were torn away.

Several pleasure yachts were torn from their moorings and damaged. The Ariella, a large passenger boat operating between Bay Shore towns was overturned at its mooring with three passengers, the captain and crew aboard. All were rescued.

The temperature here was 98 when the storm struck and five minutes later it was 67.

ONE CREDITOR LOST $18,341

MIDLAND, Ont., July 22 (C.P.)—"If W. H. Duncan had come to his friends and told them he needed financial help, they would have given it to him. I would have helped him myself," said J. T. Payette, former Mayor of Penetang, in commenting to-day on the list of creditors of the Duncan firm, which shows that Mr. Payette lost the largest amount, $18,431.

Duncan, former Mayor of Midland, disappeared after his brokerage firm encountered difficulties and a reward of $500 is offered for his arrest.

Many roads... which one shall I take?

When the long road dips sweetly down a hill and ends up in a blank and puzzled amazement at a jumble of cross-roads, unless you know your way, you'll push down hard on the brakes! And then look around to see where you're going. . . .

Five roads jutting off in various directions of the compass. One road is yours. Four to lead you astray. But a brief glance—and you're off. On the right road. For a sign was over each road to direct your way!

Just as the directions point out the way in a maze of roads; so does modern advertising guide you in the right direction through the multitude of products offered in present-day markets.

Advertising points the way, straight and clear, to economical and advantageous marketing. It distinguishes the good product. It directs your way by indicating the article best adapted to your needs.

Read the advertisements in this paper as carefully as you would the signs above the cross-roads. They point out your buying road as surely and as safely!

BOOS AND GROAN S BREAK UP WARKWORTH N OMINATION RALLY

shared their quotas with Mr. Gordon and the Rev. Mr. Martin, respectively. Mrs. Macdonald accepted her full time. Towards the end, Mr. Fraser had ten minutes left and Mrs. Macdonald five.

Mr. Fraser was to speak last, but the crowd had by that time reached the stage at which they would listen no more to the lady candidate. And women in the audience were apparently more determined than the men. The audience had endured the extreme discomfort of perspiring heat for nearly two hours. They wanted to hear Mr. Fraser and not Mrs. Macdonald, but she refused to retreat from the barrage of jeers. While the men and women stood up as if to walk out, Mr. Fraser stepped forward and relinquishing the ten minutes that remained for him he said he had too much appreciation for the audience to be a party to detaining them longer. He suggested that the meeting conclude with the singing of the National Anthem.

A Keynote 'Boo'

Through the throng in front of the hall and through the crowded vestibule Mrs. Macdonald squeezed her way with difficulty. As she advanced to the front of the hall a loud "boo" sounded behind her, and several others burst out in quick succession stirring a gale of laughter.

Mrs. Macdonald reached out a white gloved hand to the returning officer, William Fox of Cobourg, who assisted her up the high step to the platform. She turned to the crowd and exclaimed: "I never care what a goose does, they only boo." More laughter and jeers that set the keynote to Mrs. Macdonald's subsequent reception throughout the afternoon.

The Liberal Candidate.

Referring to the fact that he had been unanimously chosen as Liberal candidate in this election, at an open convention held on July 11th and that he was on the platform that afternoon in the interests of Liberalism, W. A. Fraser, speaking first, said that he had been informed the Progressives are behind him. Cries of, We are.

"I wish to impress upon you, he stated, that there is no other Liberal candidate in Northumberland County and that there is no Progressive candidate either. My own deduction is that there are two Conservative candidates in Northumberland. As further evidence he stated I can prove that the advertisements of both of the other candidates are only in Conservative press, where they appear side by side and bearing exactly the same phraseology."

"I am interested in nothing else except the interests of the Liberal Party and that is why I am in this battle. I have ten minutes more to speak later in the afternoon, he exclaimed, and believe me you are going to get it."

The candidate was greeted with a great outburst of applause, both on taking the platform and at the conclusion of his brief opening address, which was destined to be the last opportunity he had of speaking to the electors that afternoon.

Milton E. Maybee, ex-M.P.

A medley of cheers and jeers greeted M. E. Maybee, the Conservative candidate, when he was called upon to speak.

"The people of Northumberland are usually very orderly," Mr. Maybee remarked, "and if there is no order here it will be an evidence that it is not coming from Northumberland people. I am not here in the interests solely of the Conservative party. I am interested in the affairs of every citizen. Elections are a matter of serious business. If you are satisfied with the way the affairs of the country are being conducted at the present time it is your duty to vote for the present government. (A voice: 'We're satisfied.' Laughter.) Some people allow partisanship to run away with them at times. I can tell you that many Liberals in this riding are not with you in this election. Look at the farmers and their condition today. Are you satisfied with that."

More cheers from Mr. Maybee's supporters and jeers from those who were against him. As this outburst was subsiding Mrs. Macdonald stepped to the front of the platform and asked: "Is there no chairman here who can keep order? I mean someone who can keep the unruly element in order."

This interjection set a fresh match to the political tinder, and the hall was again in uproar.

Mr. Fraser joined the little group at the front of the platform, held up his hand and in the silence requested the audience to give every speaker an attentive hearing.

Mr. Maybee proceeded with his statement that it was the duty of those citizens who were dissatisfied with the administration of the country's business to vote for the Conservative candidates. He predicted that there would be a change on July 28, and some one in the hall called out "Guess again."

Unfavorable Trade Balance.

"If I am interrupted it will not bother me" Mr. Maybee continued. "During this last year Canada has had an unfavorable trade balance of $103,300. We bought that much more goods than we sold. During the last three weeks as I have gone about Northumberland I have seen more abandoned farms than ever, and on the highways I have seen more men walking, men who are out of work, than I ever saw before. The present government has had nine years in office. (A voice: Fine.) My time will come and so will yours, my boy. Are you satisfied to sell butter at the present price? You can buy a farm today at any price. In 1925, the Government passed an Order in Council for the New Zealand treaty. It has been sprea daround the riding that I voted for that treaty. To show you how far from the truth that is, I mention the fact that it never came before the House of Commons, so I couldn't possibly have voted for it. The Conservative party brought in resolutions to abrogate the treaty, but to no avail. Forty-two million pounds were brought in last year. The cold storage plants are filled with it now, and it will take a year or two to use it all." (Cries of 'oh, oh' and more noise).

"I know you don't like to hear that," Mr. Maybee remarked. (A voice in the audience: 'What's butter worth in New York?')

"In regard to the misrepresentation that is being circulated that if Mr. Bennett is the next Prime Minister Old Age Pensions will be discontinued that is an absolute falsehood. Old Age Pensions will be made entirely a Federal affair and will not be foisted upon the provinces."

Mr. Maybee concluded with the statement that he knew nothing about the candidature of Mrs. Macdonald. (Laughter and noise from sections of the audience.)

"Mrs. Macdonald is here and can speak for herself as to whether she is a Liberal candidate or not," Mr. Maybee said.

Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald.

Mrs. Macdonald had brought to the platform a brief bag of memoranda. She held a handful of notes as she took Mr. Maybee's place at the edge of the platform. There was an undercurrent of murmurs and subdued conversation as she began.

"I wish to deny 'in toto' the statement that my advertisement appears only in Conservative papers. That is a downright lie. It has appeared in the Port Hope Guide, a Liberal daily that is a very old paper, in the Cobourg World and other weeklies which the Hon. George Gordon referred to as 'one-horse weeklies'."

Mr. Gordon interrupted with the statement: "Take that back; I never said it at all and you know it."

Mrs. Macdonald: Mr. Gordon may deny that, but I read his letter in the Toronto Globe.

Mr. Gordon—You never read it that way at all.

Mrs. Macdonald—I must have been asleep then.

Mr. Gordon—You certainly were.

By this time the hall was again in uproar, but Mrs. Macdonald managed to insert the caustic comment: "Is this the sort of fair play you men give your wives in your own homes?"

The crowd roared with laughter. Mrs. Macdonald faced the audience with a waiting pose.

Mr. Fraser shouted to the audience: You will only prolong—

Some one in the hall supplied the next word "agony", and the window panes rattled with the laughter and shouting. Finally Mr. Fox obtained a semblance of order, and Mrs. Macdonald continued with her rejoinder to Mr. Gordon. She said she had read a three column editorial in the Wiarton Echo dealing with Mr. Gordon's expression.

During a pause in the intermittent noise Mrs. Macdonald appealed to the chairman to insist on order.

Mr. Fox said: "If you will make them laugh, I can't do anything."

Enters as a Protest.

Mrs. Macdonald switched off the weekly newspaper topic to give her reasons for entering the political field. There was only one woman in the House of Commons, and for a long time the vote was given only to men. No matter how uniformed a man might be, as long as he wore trousers he was given the vote while it was withheld from women. (More shouts and laughter.)

Mrs. Macdonald said she was a candidate also as a protest that there is only one woman in the Senate. The fact that the first woman to be appointed, Mrs. Wilson, had two million dollars was an important consideration on the eve of an election.

At this stage of the varying degrees of noise Mrs. Macdonald mentioned "the noisy ruffians in the back of the hall."

"This is the same kind of treatment (in the Senate) you women have received ever since there has been a Canada." She stated that she was not a nominee of the Conservative party and the only other time she had consulted anyone about a nomination was in 1926. At that time the Hon. Mr. Nickle, then Attorney-General, had told her that if she entered the provincial field her brother, the late Crown Attorney W. F. Kerr, would lose his position.

"I protest against a man being brought into this riding from Hastings county" Mrs. Macdonald declared, referring to Mayor W. A. Fraser, the Liberal candidate. "Any fool would know that a man who has all the money that Mr. Fraser says he has would be interested in building up Trenton where he has his money invested."

Mrs. Macdonald said that as a member of the Council she had made an effort to obtain the transfer of Camp Borden to Cobourg, but Mr. Fraser had got it for Trenton, and he wasn't cute enongh to have engineers visit Cobourg and report that there was not a suitable site in that town. As a result of Mr. Fraser's efforts millions of dollars are being spent in Hastings county that would supply bread and butter for men of Northumberland.

"He's working for W. A. Fraser, and you can go hang," Mrs. Macdonald exclaimed. (More and prolonged noise).

Mrs. Macdonald's tirade against Mr. Fraser continued in the face of a hostile demonstration.

"The chairman says he is incapable of handling such a mob as this" she managed to be heard.

Another sally by Cobourg's reeve was to the effect that Mr. Fraser had delayed the work on the Cobourg esplanade until the eve of this election. And with that noise broke out all over again.

Her face red with excitement, but with the appearance of unperturbed coolness, Mrs. Macdonald drew a chair toward the front of the platform and leaned against it.

Comparative quiet was finally restored again, and Mrs. Macdonald told the crowd that her brother the late Crown Attorney of Cobourg, had once told her that if a speaker was interrupted the lost time did not count.

"And I think he knew more law than the chairman here today."

A question had been raised as to Mrs. Macdonald's time limit, and after this comment the crowd again demonstrated its disapproval.

"This is not necessary," the chairman called out to the audience.

"Neither is she" some one shot back. (Cheers and uproar).

After several minutes, Mrs. Macdonald got in this shot: "I hope that the wife or the best girl of the illbred man who has just opened his mouth will attend to him later."

Mr. Fox announced after another outburst from the hall that Mrs. Macdonald had still one minute to speak.

Adopts Sarcasm.

"I'd like to tell the courtly gentlemen that they are afraid of what I have to tell them," Mrs. Macdonald directed to the rear of the hall. When she next got a chance to be heard she said: "If you send a woman to Parliament we'll have a law passed that people who interrupt meetings like this will be deprived of their franchise."

And some minutes later this polite tribute from the Independent-Liberal-Progressive: "Go where you belong. You're a bunch of hoodlums not fit to be among decent people."

Mrs. Dudley Makes Pleas

In the turmoil Mrs. Macdonald was holding her position at the front of the stage. The noise was hushed by Mrs. Sam Dudley of Colborne, an officer of the Northumberland Liberal Association who said: "Although I am ashamed of my sex here today, please let the speaker finish so we can get it over with."

Mrs. Macdonald retorted that Mrs. Dudley had "gone through the riding saying I should be the Liberal candidate." (More noise and jeers).

Mrs. Dudley—That is an absolute falsehood.

When Mrs. Macdonald was next heard she said: "At the Presbyterian tea at Colborne, Mrs. Dudley told either a social lies then or a political lie here today."

And that was the parting shot for the time being.

The Closing Incident.

After Mr. Gordon and Mr. Martin had spoken, the chairman announced that according to the prearrangements Mrs. Macdonald had five minutes more to speak and Mr. Fraser ten minutes. But the crowd showed that it would listen no more to Mrs. Macdonald. During a brief lull in the demonstration against her, Mrs. Macdonald said: "I have sent a wire to the provincial police to come here and take charge of this meeting."

The meeting was seething with movement and commotion. At length Mr. Fraser got a hearing: "I will give Mrs. Macdonald my ten minutes if she will tell why she came in last Thursday and what are her selfish motives for being in." (Cheers).

Mrs. Macdonald—"I claim Mr. Fraser's ten minutes."

That declaration precipitated a stormy climax. Although there were many Conservatives in the audience it seemed to be entirely Liberal, or at any rate anti-Mrs. Macdonald. When she tried to speak men began to move toward the aisles. Women stood up in the front rows, and could be barely heard in the calling out in the pandemonium "Sit down, sit down."

"Mr. Fraser came to my house...." (bedlam).

A few minutes later. "Mr. Fraser came to my house...." (More bedlam.)

Mrs. Macdonald persisted to the final crescendo. She leaned over the edge of the platform and fixed her attention upon an old man in the front row beneath her, and tried to make herself heard to at least one in the crowd. But that was the end.

Mr. Fraser shouted: "I have more appreciation of you people than to have you kept here any longer, and I propose that we sing "God Save the King."

A final burst of cheering greeted Mr. Fraser, and the National Anthem was begun in a dozen different keys. As a chorus it was beyond description in its weird tonalities. But it was the end, and the crowd slowly dispersed, many remaining to greet the candidates. One woman approached Mrs. Macdonald. She was a former Progressive, a college graduate, teacher and farmer, and apparently she wasn't exactly extending congratulations to Mrs. Macdonald.

There seemed to be more people outside than there had been in, and Grits and Tories alike were evidently discussing just one subject and one person. That was all one overheard.

Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C.

"I wish to congratulate the Conservative Party on their selection of a candidate," said G. N. Gordon as soon as he was able to make himself heard above the applause which greeted him as he stepped to the front of the platform to address the people of his home county.

"I also congratulate the Liberals on the selection of 'Billy' Fraser, he continued, referring to him as an energetic, active business man.

"You have listened to a short time to a candidate, who said she represented certain interests. It is for you people to decide what interests she represents."

"I do not quarrel with people who have a different policy, but I do object to people who interject personal feelings and seek notoriety."

In a short speech Mr. Gordon drew a comparison between the expenditures of the Federal and Provincial Governments referring to the latter more particularly under the Drury and Ferguson administration.

Dealing briefly with the unemployment situation, he declared that conditions here are nothing to be compared with those obtaining in England and the United States. The crops give promise of good yields this year, he added, and there is every reason to believe that there will be enough grain for the future needs of the people. He thought that everybody in this country, depends upon the earnings of the farmer and continued to speak of the legislation which has been introduced under the Liberal Government in the interests of agriculture. He criticized the Consevative government's attitude in connection with the manufacture of margarine, which was introduced as a war measure, but which was enforced long after the war concluded.

An interrupter: You didn't get any of it.

Hon. G. N. Gordon: No. You are full of it.

"I say that the dairy industry was seriously affected at that time," the speaker continued. Making reference to New Zealand butter, he said that it comes half way round the world and has been sold in this country labelled as Canadian butter. The manager of the Packing plant at Peterborough admits this, he added, and says there was a shortage of Canadian butter which made it necessary to bring it in from New Zealand.

There has been put in the Dunning budget, the speaker explained, a duty of 4c per pound on this butter and if we cannot compete with this market now, there is something seriously wrong with Canadian butter.

Mr. Gordon also dealt with the duties against the United States and that owing to the high tariff raised by the Americans, the fact that Canada is forced to seek her markets elsewhere—among the 450,000,000 people of the British Empire—our own kith and kin.

Rev. W. G. Martin, M.P.P.

"My interest in this meeting is principally with Mr. Maybee explained Rev. W. G. Martin, M.L.A. for Brantford. There is nothing finer in public life, he declared, than to come on a public platform and not hear one word of disrespect against the man who has represented the people. (Applause).

"I believe that on the 28th day of this month Mr. Bennett and his party are going to be elected by the people of Canada to control the destiny of this country. "The trouble with King is that he is trying to be all things to all men that he might save some. Sounds rather scriptural, doesn't it," he added.

He defended the attitude of Premier Ferguson in taking part in Federal affairs, and made reference to the fact that on Mr. Ferguson's 60th birthday which he celebrated recently he received many bouquets, including one from the Prime Minister of the Dominion who had told him to 'stay at home and mind his own business,'

The speaker did not think that a man like Premier Ferguson, the leader of the 'Banner Province' should be told to mind his own business. His business is to look after the affairs of the people of this province.

Concerning the trans-Canada highway which has been suggested by Mr. Bennet as a means of solving the unemployment question, Mr. Martin said that all the provinces have been developing their highways and that the continental highway would just mean the linking up of all these provincial highways. He spoke of the vast tourist traffic which this would encourage, adding that last year this traffic amounted to two-and-a-half million dollars. As much as the income from the pulp industry—or the earnings from the grain crop. "Canada must have a broad main street," he said, "if she is to keep up with the economic march of the life of American in the years to come."

"Our industries must grow as well as our agricultural interests. Our young men must find their places in industry," he averred, stating that the Liberal Government had given no encouragement to technical education nor to the needs of the 200,000 unemployed.

"King's story varies," he continued, "we now have the dollar for dollar cry, where previously it was talk of a provincial conference of captains of industry and the workers, which cry he raised when he was in the act of recovering his equilibrium after slipping on the five-cent piece."

own people while helping the Empire as a whole."

Touching upon "counterva'ling" duties, Mr. Bennett said they simply meant that other countries would make the tariff for Canada on these items. He alluded to a reference in the Wall Street Journal of these duties which said in effect that "we do not import any of these articles."

VISITOR FROM FLOWERY KINGDOM SAYS JAPAN HAS PEACE OUTLOOK

U. of T. Graduate Teaching at Nagoya Visits Rev. J. D. Paterson.

"MAN WITHOUT COUNTRY"

"A man without a country" is the way in which C. C. Robinson of Nagoya, Japan, describes himself. Mr. Robinson, who is at present spending some time in Peterborough with his college chum, the Rev. J. D. Paterson, was born in Japan of Canadian-born missionary parents. But he is not regarded as a Japanese, nor as a Canadian. He is a British subject, for purposes of registration, and his affairs are handled through the British Embassy at Nagoya, which is the largest city in the Flowery Kingdom, is situated in Central Japan, and has a population which is very near the million mark.

Mr. Robinson has spent fully half his life in Nagoya, where he was born. After an education received in Ottawa and at the University of Toronto, he enlisted from the latter university with the Princess Pats and went overseas to spend four years fighting against the Germans. Then he went to Japan, primarily as a missionary, and is now teaching English in a Japanese Government school at Nagoya, where there is an enrolment of eight hundred and fifty students.

The Japanese excel in memory work, according to Mr. Robinson. As a general rule, they are not as good at logical reasoning as their Occidental cousins, but they have wonderful memories and are very quick at grasping the main idea. In this large school, the pupils are taught very much as are their European neighbors. They learn mathematics and history, the latter concerned as much with other nations as with their own. And they study literature; the Chinese classics and the literature of old Japan.

There is divorce in Japan and registration of marriage is obligatory. A marriage is not considered legal until it is registered. If the parties adhere to the old Shinto faith, they are married at a hinto sShrine. The Buddhists are married in their temple and the social ceremony follows; a big feast and the exchanging of drinks out of the three sake cups.

Friendly Outlook

The outlook of the Japanese to all foreign countries, as a whole, is very friendly. Although some militants remain, the idea of world peace is very strong among the Japanese of to-day, and the Government, which is nervous of Bolshevistic tendencies, represses any budding tendencies along that line, with severe measures.

Aviation is advancing by leaps and bounds. In Nagoya, airplaines drone over Mr. Robinson's home at any hour in the day. There is an aeroplane passenger service between Tokyo and Osaka, and air mail brings letters and papers to Japan and to Korea and Seoul. (The Japanese pronunciation of Korea is Cho-sen and of Seoul it is something that sounds like Sow.)

In Japan, according to Mr. Robinson, the feminist movement is spreading. The Diet has recently been considering the giving of votes to women in provincial elections, while feminine property owners in many of the villages already possess the franchise.

People walk in Japan, comments the visitor to Canada. They do not ride so much in motor cars, which are expensive luxuries. And these who ride pay for the privilege. A motor-car license in Nagoya costs $180 a year and a motor-cycle license costs $25.

At this time, in that section of Japan, the thermometer would be hovering pretty generally around the ninety-five degree mark, but in winter, there is plenty of snow, and winter sports, such as skiing and hockey, are as much enjoyed as they are here.

Nagoya is a manufacturing and commercial city, and possesses one of the largest porcelain and china factories in the world. "You will find the name on many pieces of china in your stores here."

As for the people and their reactions, "Well, people are pretty much the same the world over," says Mr. Robinson. "A Japanese in trouble or in joy is apt to act just about the same as a Canadian or Englishman. When you really live among them, you find that out."

Mr. Robinson, with his wife, a Canadian-born girl, and their four children, who were all born in Nagoya and are capable of speaking Japanese just as fluently as they speak English, left Japan on Friday, June 13th, and arrived in Ottawa on July 5th. Mrs. Robinson and children are visiting relatives in Ottawa. They expect to remain in Canada about three months.

OBITUARY

SARAH ADAMS

HASTINGS, July 22.—(Examiner Correspondence). — Death removed one of Percy Township, pioneer resident on Friday in Sarah Matilda Adams at the age of 89 years. The late Miss Adams was born on the homestead where she resided all her life. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams, and was the last surviving member of a family of five brothers and one sister. In religion she was a devout member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Hastings.

The funeral, which was held from the residence of Allen Lewis on Sunday afternoon was largely attended showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. Services at the house and grave were in charge of Rev. Dr. D. A. Thomson, D.D.

Interment took place in Trent Valley Cemetery.

STREET FAIR IS SET FOR AUG. 15

Campbellford Rotary Club Make All Arrangements for Annual Event.

E. C. DOLMAN SPEAKS

CAMPBELLFORD, July 22 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent)—The weekly luncheon of the Campbellford Rotary Club was held on Monday in the St. Lawrence Hotel, with the president, H. N. Carr, in the chair.

At the business session of the club it was decided to hold the annual street fair in Campbellford on Friday, August 15th. The committees for this project have been appointed, and arrangements are now under way to make this event a bigger success than ever.

E. C. Dolman, secretary of the club, gave a report of the District Assembly of Rotary held on July 7 and 8 at Niagara, to which he was a delegate. He stated that he came away with the feeling that the Campbellford Club favorably compared with the other clubs of the district. Two of the things that were stressed were music and the weekly letter, and along both these lines the Campbellford Club was efficient.

Of the morning session of the Convention the speaker said that it was mostly taken up with greetings, but there was one thing stressed and that was the fact that each club, no matter how small, is as important to Rotary as the bigger organizations. In the afternoon the matter of community service was taken up, and it was thought that it was best to obtain the support of all the community before undertaking any project. Boys' work was also stressed as being of vital importance in the clubs' activities, and International service reviewed and discussed, the 27th District being held up as a fine example of the object of Rotary.

A request was also made that the Campbellford club work with the Belleville club in connection with the establishment of Rotary clubs at Stirling and Madoc.

Two visitors were present at lunch, W. G. Faulkner and the Rev. Mr. Kinney.

WEDDING BELLS

CORDINGER—McKENZIE.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

EATING WHEN HOT AND TIRED.

With warm weather and a great variety of foods from which to choose, the change in diet may sometimes upset you.

Often you've eaten something that appeared to be fresh and wholesome, and have felt considerable stomach distress shortly afterwards. You have then begun to wonder if the food was overripe, whether it had been off the ice too long, whether it had been exposed to something of a harmful nature.

Now, while any of theese things may have been responsible you must remember that there are two parts to the process of digestion, the food eaten, and you; that is the condition of your stomach when you eat the food.

Because the food may be perfectly fresh and of the best quality and yet give you trouble if your stomach is not right. I don't mean that there has to be anything wrong with the stomach, any ailment.

Dr. W. C. Alvarez, who has done a great amount of work on digestion, says 'on trips to the mountains I have noticed that the man who comes into camp hungry from an exhausting climb and immediately sits down to a heavy meal, will occasionally suffer afterwards for several days with abdominal pain, gas pressure, and diarrhœa.'

Why?

Because the fatigue, the tiredness dried up all the important ferments that digest the food and prevent decomposition of food.

I have seen similar failures of digestion when food was eaten under mental strain as at banquets, political meetings or home overshadowed by illness and death, and I suspect that many upsets now ascribed to the eating of some unknown spoiled food are really due to this drying up of the digestive secretions, which accompanies excitement and fatigue.

My thought is that during the hot weather you are likely to come in hot, tired and hungry, and it is but natural that you should turn to food for strength.

However, it would be very wise if at all possible to lie down and rest for a few minutes, preferably on right side, before eating.

You will thus have a 'rested' body capable of inducing the proper flow of digestive juices and so digesting the food eaten.

During prolonged emotional disturbances you must of course eat, but eating a small quantity of food at a time will help to prevent abdominal distress.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

OLD AGE.

If there is an old person in the family train the children to do all in their power to make him, or her happy. Old age is a lonesome plight. One never feels old. There never comes a time, I believe, when even the oldest of us doe not feel that he could right this minute start out and do a good job, if only those old legs and arms would help.

It is very hard to sit by and watch the parade pass. Memory is very busy. There was a day when this old man or woman led the procession. When a word from them was considered essentia l to the understanding. There was a time when their influence was needed and when their support was necessary.

Now all this has gone by. The hands that were so alive and alert lie weak and helpless. The eyes that once saw so many things to praise and enjoy and to do are dim. They fill with tears so very very easily. Spectacles grow dim and fail to bring the vision that once rose so clearly. The ears that were so sharp to the call of distress are dull. Only the loudest sounds reach them now and the silence is puzzling, and empty.

The spirit of love and service that once animated this old person is as strong as ever. Eagerly they wish for something to do. Of only they can feel themselves useful it lifts a great weight from the burden of age laid upon them. Of only they can enter into the life about them in thought, it helps lessen the pain of isolation.

Train the children to consider old age. When grandfather and grandmother, or any aged person enters the room, the youngsters are to rise and remain on their feet until the old folk are seated. The children are to attend them to their chairs; to see them comfortably settled. If they need a book or a paper, footstool or a shawl, the lively young feet and hands are to render the service accompanied by smiles and kindly words.

If the older person is confined to the bedroom the children must redouble their efforts to cheer them. The young lady is to make a point of visiting grandmother or grandfather in the bedroom and tell of the happenings outside the walls. Bring in a happy story, a pleasant account of the party, show the new dress and the new toy. Share life with the old people and make its closing happy.

It is for our own selfish ends we do this if for none other. Some day we shall sit in that chair, or lie in that room. How welcome a bright young face and a blithe young voice will be then. And the children who render this duty of service will be greatly rewarded for any inconvenience it may cause them.

Old people are like a beendiction upon the lives of the young if such a relationship is established between them. Age has a vision that illuminates the life of youth. With age comes wisdom mellowed and rich as old wine and as comforting to the spirit. Children who live under its influence will have occasion to rejoice because of it in years to come.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Alice Michaelis

AMBITION

Tired of tranquil days and nights,
I would scale life's storm swept heights.
Where the fiercest tempests blow, gladly, swiftly, I would go!
Strongest souls are those that keep vigil while the weary sleep, and by toil the toiler grows scornful of too much repose. Tranquil days that slowly run, glad and golden as the sun, I would change for storm and stress, void of any tenderness.
Weary of the ways of ease, of a life all harmonies, I would seek its sterner phase, know its darker, wilder ways. Thus, and only thus,
to peer deep into the fonts of fear:
thus, and only thus, to know how to lesson pain and woe, how to grasp a brother's hand and through paths
I understand how to lead him back aright out of tempest into light!

PARISIAN FOIBLES

A winter sport suit in beige wool worn with a knitted sweater with motifs in grey and yellow. Scarf, gloves, sack and stocking tops are in matching colors.

GAY SPORTS SUIT FOR THE OUT-OF-DOOR WOMAN.

By Madame Jenny.

For outdoor or indoor skating rinks, this winter sports suit is ideal, having that boldness of color and pattern which the outdoor air seems to call for. Beige wool, with a knitted sweater with motifs in grey and yellow, is used for this ensemble, and gauntlet gloves, scarf, sack and stocking tops are in harmonizing colors. Although the skirt is straight in line, plenty of fullness is allowed for every movement by the wide pleats at one side.

SOCIETY PLANS MISSION BALE

Warsaw United Church W.M.S. Meets at Home of Mrs. Roland Payne.

W. M. MEETING

WARSAW, July 22.— The United Church W. M. S. met at Mrs. Roland Payne's home on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Digweed, group leader, was in the chair. In the secretary's absence, Mrs. George Taylor acted as secretary.

There was some discussion about taking up the study book. Mrs. Anderson told that the requirements for the bale were one quilt, men's sox, women's hose, and second-hand clothing in good condition. Members are to make blocks eighteen by eighteen inches for the quilt. The bale is to be ready by September, but not to be sent until asked for. Articles for the bale may be left at either Payne and Darling's or Clements and Digweed's store.

Mesdames George Taylor, Arthur and Roland Payne sang 'Christ Needs You,' and a group song composed by Mrs. Taylor and sung to the air of Tramp, Tramp, Tramp.'

Next meeting on August the seventh will be at Mrs. David Miller's.

Presbyterian W. A.

The Presbyterian W. M. and Aid met at Mrs. Thomas Crowe's home on Thursday afternoon. Such a busy time not many were out. In the W. M.S. it was decided to try to get Miss Christina Currie, who spent five years as a missionary in Korea to address their thank offering meeting in September or October, at her convenience. Miss Currie will be well remembered by many in Warsaw as Chrissie Currie, the eldest daughter of Rev. Peter Currie, who was minister in the Presbyterian church here for about three years and left about twenty years ago. Miss Currie's heart is in the work in Korea, but her health failed and she had to return home.

In the Aid work plans were made to get materials for a quilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Drain are redecorating house which they purchased from Mr. Choate, preparatory to moving into it.

There is to be a field day on the new school grounds on Thursday afternoon, August 10, the proceeds to be used to procure swings and other playground equipment.

Guide: See that house over there?

Old Lady: Yes. What about it?

Guide: The man that lives there buried seventeen wives!

Old Lady: Goodness gracious! Who was he? Bluebeard?

Guide: No, ma'am. He was an undertaker!

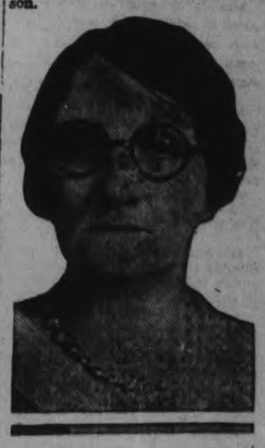
SYSTEM WAS IN TOXIC CONDITION

"I'm so much more alert and energetic since I started Sargon that I hardly know myself for the same person.



MRS. E. WILKINSON.

"I'd been troubled with indigestion for 20 years. Headaches, poor circulation and chronic constipation helped pull me down; my color was sallow and my whole system toxic. Sargon brought me remarkable improvement. I enjoy my food without a trace of indigestion, I sleep fine and feel like I'd been made over.

"Sargon Pills never leave the effect of having taken medicine, but they cleansed my system of poisons and completely ended my constipation."—Mrs. E. Wilkinson, 273 Willis St., Hamilton.

Sargon may be obtained in Peterborough at Bond's Drug Store.

FASHION SERVICE

A navy blue and white printed crepe silk of smart practicality reveals feminine influence in plain blue shoulder bow and bow tied sleeves.

The tricky cross-over vestee of white silk pique adds distinction to its simplicity of line.

It's straight and slender to just over the knees, where the circular flounce starts to widen into flattering fulness at hem.

A narrow belt of the plain blue crepe marks the natural waistline.

Style No. 2550 can be had in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust.

Blue-violet wool crepe with vestee and bow trim of matching faille crepe is chic.

Peach pink shantung, lime green flat crepe silk, daffodil yellow linen with white sheer linen, sailor blue pique dotted in white with plain white pique, coral-red chiffon and printed chiffon voile in black and white with plain white are charming suggestions.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

YESTERDAY WHILE WALKING up George Street, I noticed that peaches have made their appearance at some of the local fruit stores, and so I thought I would devote the article to-day on "Ways to Serve Fresh Peaches."

• • • • • • •

I believe it is in August some time that our Canadian peaches make their appearance on the market, so that you will have plenty of time to think the matter over.

• • • • • • •

Peaches I think are simply a delicious fruit to serve ripe, so when they are in season it is well to know a variety of ways in which this can be done.

• • • • • • •

The English people serve peaches whole with a dainty fruit knife and fork for each person to peel, cut and eat his fruit with. People on this side find this awkward, but to the English it is easy and correct.

• • • • • • •

I have seen large peaches halved without being peeled, but I think it is much better to peel them, because there is such a peculiar skin on them which some people dislike very much.

• • • • • • •

Each half may be filled with a spoonful of powdered sugar or the sugar may be in a small mound between the halves on the plate. Sometimes the sugar is passed and each person helps himself.

• • • • • • •

When peaches are very sweet, the latter is the best way, because some may not desire the sugar, and when served with the fruit it is simply wasted. Economical housewives will avoid this.

• • • • • • •

Many people prefer their peaches cut in rather large sections, while I noticed here in Peterborough the majority prefer them cut in thin slices.

• • • • • • •

When cream is not served with peaches, a few drops of lemon are occasionally added to give a zest, or to bring out the flavor, as this is said to do. If the lemon is added, the peaches should be lightly sugared, the sugar being sprinkled through them as they are cut into the serving dish.

• • • • • • •

Peaches and ice-cream make a welcome dessert on a hot day, and are equally nice for refreshments. There are several ways of serving them.

• • • • • • •

One is to fill large halved peaches with little mounds of ice-cream Another is to surround the mound of ice-cream on a plate with sections of cut peaches pressed lightly against the cream to hold them upright.

• • • • • • •

A third way is to chop the peaches and sugar them some time before time to serve, and use the juicy peach mixture for a sauce, thus making a peach sundae.

• • • • • • •

A fourth way is to press half a peeled peach onto the top of a "nest" of ice-cream, and to fill the cavity in the peach with whipped cream. That DOES sound good, doesn't it?

• • • • • • •

Peach charlotte may be made with whipped cream or ice-cream. Line individual glass cups or goblets with lady fingers or sponge cake. Chop peaches fine, sweeten and mix with very stiff whipped cream.

• • • • • • •

Fill the centres of the lined cups with the mixture. If ice-cream is used for the filling, half fill the lined cups with ice-cream, then put in a liberal tablespoon of chopped and sugared peaches.

• • • • • • •

Cover well with ice-cream and top with the peach mixture. Dot the top with a cherry or with whipped cream lightly colored pink.

HECTIC MEETINGS

battling in joint meetings—on opposite sides.

Other Fireworks.

Nor is the liveliness confined to stormy Quebec. From other provinces too come reports of fireworks and snappy interruptions. Nominations completed yesterday bring fights in 243 out of 245 seats. Two candidates are elected by acclamation—Robert Gardiner, leader of the U.F.A., and Henri Bourassa, Independent of Labelle, Quebec. Altogether there are 545 candidates in the field, twenty more than in 1929 but 7 less than in 1925. Liberals have 14 candidates more than in 1926 but are still nine short of Conservative nominations. Women candidates number ten as against three in 1926 and four in 1925. The new Farmer Party of Saskatchewan makes its first appearance on the scene with nine candidates, two of them women. Labor candidates number 11, seven less than in 1925. On the other hand, nine Communists have been nominated where there were none in 1926.

Both Leaders Confident.

Continuing their campaign, both leaders predict victory. Facing three Ontario meetings to-day, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative Leader, declares that he has never seen such indications of victory for the Conservative Party. Telegraphic advices from British Columbia tell him that the same spirit prevails as was evidenced there in June. There would be no Liberals returned from Alberta—so Mr. Bennett prophesied. In Saskatchewan, the Liberal machine was "broken, creaking, and trembling." In similarly prophetic role a few days ago, Premier King was equally confident that victory would lie with his Government.

Premier King speaks in Montreal to-night, but it is the only meeting he will address in Quebec. From Montreal he returns to Ontario, where both leaders will battle in the final week.

INDIANS DEMAND HUNTING RIGHTS

Claims White Man's Court Has No Authority to Try Them For Killing Game.

QUOTE OLD TREATY.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 22.—(C.P.)—Following the recent appearance in the local police court of Chief Peter Gogiosh, (Peter Bommard) on a charge of poaching, Indians of the Arden River and Batchawana Bands met in the Council Hall to discuss their rights.

Bombard served a jail sentence for having killed a partridge out of season. At his trial he admitted the offense but claimed the court had no authority to try him on the charge. He quoted the Robinson Treaty in court which, he said, gives the Indian the right to shoot and trap where and when they wish.

Speakers at the conclave stressed the treaty rights of the Red man, claiming hunting and trapping are the only occupations through which they could earn a living. The white man, they contended, came to this country to labor and to farm and not to trap or fish or hunt.

A distinctive touch of Southern hospitality . . . . . now available for every Canadian home!

The rich blend of Dixie's most famous coffee is offered you by its originator

FAMOUS for Southern hospitality was the old Maxwell House in Nashville, Tennessee. Here the great folk of Dixie gathered for their most brilliant balls and banquets

A Southerner of the Old South, born with a genius for flavour originated for the Maxwell House the coffee blend which is its most lasting monument. Patiently he worked, blending flavour with flavour, until he had achieved that special richness which pleased Dixie's great families.

The news of it spread rapidly

As the fame of the Maxwell House spread, so spread the fame of its coffee. Everywhere it became the favourite.

Now this same blend is offered to you in Canada packed in vacuum tins so that it is as fresh when you open it as if you had just ground it yourself. Ask your grocer for one of the blue tins of Maxwell House.

No Coffee Could be Fresher

You'll always find Maxwell House Coffee packed in a vacuum tin. This wonderful modern method of packing protects its rich mellow fragrance and flavour. When you open a tin of Maxwell House the coffee is exactly as it was when it left the grinder. Coffee in ordinary packages even one day old is not as fresh as Maxwell House. And the tight lid keeps it better after you open it.

Crescents Put Stop to C.G.E. Winning Streak

BRIOUX CLAN SCORES TWO RUNS IN THE SIXTH FRAME TO TAKE 7-6 DECISION FROM ELECTRICS

Victory For Crescents Terminates Long Succession of Triumphs For C.G.E.

SWANSTON RETURNS.

Former Central League Catcher Crashes Out Two Hits in Twice at Bat.

A big dash of new interest was injected into the E.P.L. race last evening at Exhibition Park when the Crescents walked off the field victors by 7 runs to 6 over the previously undefeated C.G.E. team. The win for the Crescents not only terminated the long succession of triumphs for Art Primeau's athletes, which had run up to nine straight, but also gave the winners a big boost beyond the Cognawagas. Further it fortells of the tough series that may be expected if Crescents and C.G.E. clash in the championship series, something which is most probable.

The teams were tied 5—5 when the Brioux clan came to bat in the sixth. They succeeded in chasing two runs across on two hits and an error and then set about protecting their lead through the seventh from the swinging bats of the Electrics. Utronki opened up the final frame with a long triple, making the Crescents' followers shiver, and he scored on a hit by Harold Hollingsworth. That was the most the C.G.E. could do.

Max Swanston buckled on his pad and squatted behind the plate in a C.G.E. uniform. The former catcher of the Peterborough Seniors celebrated his belated return to the diamond by crashing out two hits in the same number of appearances. He led the C.G.E. offensive while in the game and batted in two of their runs. He retired after the second innings.

Vin Utronki, the former Belleville pitcher, threw them in for the C.G.E., and he not only twirled nice ball but was the big hitter of the game, with three to his credit. Opposing him was Jeff Hardill, who gave one of his best exhibitions of the season, and on his part the victory was well-earned.

C.G.E. Leads at First

The game broke wide open in the first frame, when the C.G.E. went out and helped themselves to three runs. After Rose had rolled out, Swanston cracked a hit into centre field for two bases. H. Hollingsworth followed with a single back of second, scoring Swanston. On a close one at first Beavis was safe when Sweetman threw high on his roller. He stole second. Both runners countered on Ash's single into left field. Smith walked, but Johnston raised a pop bunt, which Hardill caught and forced Smith out at first.

The Crescents came in and got one back. J. Jones singled, and went to second on a wild pitch. Sweetman walked. In trying to throw out Jones, who was stealing third, Swanston made a wild throw. The return from left field was also wild; Jones scoring and Sweetman pulling up at third. Crary and Hickey fanned, and Collins rolled to Utronki.

Two more made the C.G.E.'s portion in the second. L. Hollingsworth doubled and Utronki singled. After Rose had struck out, Swanston singled, scoring both runners. H. Hollingsworth was safe when Hickey juggled Hardill's throw of his roller, Kimen's, running for Swanston, was thrown out by Collins when attempting to steal third. Beavis struck out.

In their half Crescents secured four runs to tie the score. Hardill singled and J. Jones was hit by a pitched ball. Heard walked. Carroll raised a short fly into centre, which was good for a single, and Hardill tallied. J. Jones and Sweetman struck out.

Veteran "Alex" Out

DALLAS, July 22.—Grover Cleveland Alexander, veteran major league pitcher, was given his outright release to-day by the Dallas Club of the Texas League. Failure to keep in training after he had promised to do so several days ago was given by Bob Tarleton, Vice-President of the Dallas Club, as the reason for Alexander's removal from the roster.

Crary singled between first and second, scoring J. Jones. Hickey singled into centre field, and Heard and Carroll scored. Collins raised a fly into right field.

Win in the Sixth.

From then until the sixth hits were scarce and there was little action. In the sixth Heard singled. Carroll was safe when Utronki made a bad throw to second in an attempt to force Heard. J. Jones singled scoring both runners. The following batters went out in order.

The C.G.E. returned to get one run in the seventh.

MONTREAL'S BUNION DERBY

Montreal is staging this month one of the most ambitious athletic ventures ever undertaken in the Dominion. It is a miniature of C. C. Pyle's bunion derby. It will bring together some of the greatest long-distance runners of the world for the Peter Dawson $10,000, 500-mile international relay foot race. Laps will range between 15 and 75 miles, to be covered each day by the runners. The race is based on the principle of the six-day bicycle races, which will allow the runners to use substitutes at any time during the race. Teams of two men will be entered so that while one of the contestants is running the other will rest. At the completion of the 500 miles those that remain in the running will be brought back to Montreal, where a marathon race of the regulation distance of 26 miles and 385 yards will be run in the baseball stadium. Some of the professional runners in the event will be Allie Vantinner, diminutive French long-distance star; Arthur Neuton, South Africa; MacNamara, Australia; Gavuzzie, England; Joie Ray, Chicago; Johnny Salo, New York, winner of the last Pyle marathon; Edouard Fabre, winner of 116 big races in the last fifteen years, and recently victor in the Green Strip snowshoe marathon; Tom Figg, Toronto, Ellis and Phil Granville of Hamilton. Popular interest runs high in Quebec as Edouard Fabre is the idol of the French-Canadian fans.

CHICAGO CUBS AGAIN LEADER NATIONAL LOOP

Hack Wilson Connects For Two Homers as Giants Go Down For 6-0 Defeat.

ROBINS BREAK EVEN.

Pinch Home Run Hitting is Feature of Brooklyn-Cardinal Fracas.

Manager Joe McCarthy, the minor leaguer who made good in the "big time" without previous major league experience, to-day had the Chicago Cubs again out in front, setting the pace in the National League pennant scramble.

The Cubs moved into the ruling seat yesterday by beating the Giants 6 to 0, while the Robins were breaking even with the St. Louis Cardinals, Brooklyn taking the first encounter 9 to 8, and the Cards the closing contest 17 to 10.

The Cubs' victory and the Robins' even break sent the champions to the front by one-half game. Here is how the standing looks to-day: Chicago won 52, lost 37, for .584; Brooklyn, won 50, lost 36, for .581.

Hack Wilson, the National League's home run king, played an important role in the Cubs' victory. He pounded out his twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth homer, which, coupled with Eddie Farrell's hit of the same nature, accounted for five runs, the other was a gift from Roy Parmalee, who relieved Tiny Chaplin in the seventh.

Pinch home runs were almost as common as base hits in the Robins-Cardinals fracas. Bottomley and Puccinelli were called in from the Cardinals' dugout in the first game and they made good with home runs which, coupled with homers by Frisch and Mancuso, totalled St. Louis eight runs in the opener. They all went for nought, however, when Manager Robinson sent Harvey Hendrick in to bat for Finn in the ninth with two men on base, two out, and the Robins trailing by two runs. Harvey sent the ball sailing over the fence, three runs crossed the plate, and the game was over. The second contest was all Cardinals', however, as they pounded old Adolf Luque from the mound and then fell on Elliott, Dudley, and Clark just as ferociously. Frisch connected with his second home run of the day, and Lee hit one for Brooklyn as a pinch hitter in the first inning.

Phillies Trim Pirates.

Lester Sweetland had one of his good days as the Phillies trimmed the Pirates 7 to 2. Home runs by Southern and Whitney featured the attack that centred in the first and fifth rounds.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

OSHAWA DEFEATS MILLBROOK 13-2

Visitors' Smart Combination Proves Too Much For Local Twelve.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

MILLBROOK, July 22. — Oshawa and Millbrook met in a O-C-M League lacrosse game at the Agricultural Park here at 5.30 yesterday evening, the visitors fine combination play proving too much for the local 12, the victory going to the out of town players by a score of 13 to 2.

The Millbrook men managed to keep the play around the Oshawa goal a fair share of the time but failed to put it into the net, the only goals scored being one each in the second and third innings, King and Ingram having the credit for these.

At the end of the third quarter the score stood 9-2 in favor of Oshawa, and four more were added to the visitors' side during the final period of play. The game was an exhibition of good clean lacrosse and though E. Nattrass received a bad cut on the head in the last quarter and had to be taken to the hospital for medical treatment the accident was purely acidental.

W. O'Brian was referee, and the teams lined up:

Oshawa — Goal, Stokes; point B. Luke; c. point, L. Luke;, 1 defence, Stevenson; 2 defence, J. Murray; 3 defence, H. Luke; centre, Kunkel; 1 home, G. Luke; 2 home A. Black; 3 home, C. Cardinal; inside home, Bovin; outside home, R. Cardinal; Subs., Garrison, Bays, Logan.

LAMB AGAIN WINS PRO GOLF HONORS

Score of 141 Beats McGrath By One Stroke at Uplands Club.

BURLINGTON, July 22.—Willie Lamb, professional at the Uplands Club, stamped himself as the leading Canadian professional at the Burlington Golf and Country Club, when he showed the way to 54 golfers, representing clubs in Ontario and Quebec, to win the P.G.A. tourney for the third time in succession. Lamb was sensational in that he turned in a 71 and a 70 to take the P. D. Ross Trophy, the Dunlop Gold Medal and $250 in cash, but he had to display his best wares to finish one stroke ahead of Tommy McGrath, professional at the new Dundas Club, who turned in a score of 142. McGrath took $150 as his share of the spoils and also the honor of turning in a 67 to set a record for the Burlington course for competitive golf.

BENGALS HALT ATHLETICS 7-6

Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig Again Connect For Homers as Yankees Win 7-3.

BOSTON BREAKS SOX.

The leaders in the American League found the going tough, the Athletics losing to the Tigers 7 to 6 and the Senators dropping their second successive game to the Browns 6 to 4.

George Earnshaw was the victim of the Tigers' eleven-hit attack, which included seven extra base hits. The champions managed to stay in the running until the ninth, when Charlie Gehringer, who had tripled and stolen home in the fifth, led off a rally with a double.

Although held to five hits by Handley Brown and Liska, the Browns took advantage of nine base on balls to defeat the Senators. Stewart, who went the route for the winners, scattered Washington's ten hits.

Babe Ruth poled out his thirty-fifth home run and Lou Gehrig his twenty-eighth, as Ed. Wells won his eighth game when the Yankees defeated the Indians 7 to 3. Harry Rice also hit the ball over the fence for the Yanks.

Boston broke up the White Sox three-game winning streak by taking the final of the series 3 to 1 behind Horace Lisenbee's fine pitching. The Sox total hits numbered five, three of which were made by Carl Reynolds. The game was the fastest of the season at Comiskey Park, being played in 1 hour 24 minutes.

ORIOLES AND LEAFS IN TIE FOR SECOND PLACE HONORS IN INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

Red Wings Beat Skeeters While Royals Bow to Baltimore 5-0.

ROCHESTER AT TOP.

Newark Pounds 8-5 Victory Over Bisons in Night Game.

Now that they've gained a comfortable lead in the International League pennant race, Billy Southworth's Rochester Red Wings are battling fiercely to hold on to it.

The Red Wings battled through 11 innings of torrid baseball yesterday before they could run a 11—10 decision over the Jersey City Skeeters. This victory enabled the Red Wings to maintain a lead of 4½ games over Baltimore and Toronto, now in a deadlock for second place.

Southworth himself won yesterday's battle for the Red Wings. Rap Pepper opened the 11th with a triple and Grant then intentionally passed Martin and Florence to fill the bases. Southworth promptly broke up the game with a single. It was a dingdong battle all the way with Carleton and Moore, the starting pitchers, both pounded out of the box before the end of five innings. With the score deadlocked at 7—7 at the end of the fifth, Rochester scored twice in the sixth, only to have Jersey City tie it up again in the eighth. In the tenth Jersey City counted once, but Rochester tied it up when George Grant, Skeeter pitcher, let go a wild pitch with Toporcer on third and two out.

Baltimore beat Montreal 5—0, thanks to a brilliant pitching exhibition by Luther Roy. The Royals got only six hits off Roy and he never was in danger. Joe Hauser poled out his 35th homer of the season with two on base in the eighth, the ball clearing the fence and landing on the roof of a four-storey factory across the street from the ball park.

Danforth weakened in the closing innings and Newark pounded out an 8—5 victory over the Bisons at Buffalo in a night game. He blanked the Bears for the first five innings and enjoyed a 3—0 lead going into the sixth. Here the Bears fell on him for four runs, Leggett's homer being the high spot of the frame. The Bisons came back to score a run and tie the count but Newark scored twice in the seventh on Layne's homer to take a lead they did not thereafter relinquish. The Bears got only eight hits off Danforth, Williams and Tomlin, but bunched them to good advantage. Although touched for 15 hits, Leo Mangum went the route for Newark. The victory put the Bears only a game and a half away from the Bisons, who hold fifth place in the standing.

O'Doul Bats .408 To Lead Big Six

With the pitchers having the better of the argument only two of baseball's big six were able to advance yesterday. O'Doul, the leader, making a five-point gain and Gehrig adding two to his batting average. O'Doul's activities against Pittsburg pitching consisted of three hits in four times at bat, sending his batting average soaring to .408. Gehrig connected twice, one a homer, in threee official trips to the plate and ended his day's work hitting .387. Klein, Stephenson, Simmons and Ruth lost ground, although the latter poled out his thirty-fifth home run of the season.

TORONTO WELCOMES CANADIAN SCULLER

Over 200,000 Citizens Participate in Civic Reception to Jack Guest.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22 (C.P.) — More than 200,000 of Toronto's citibens last night thundered a welcome to Jack Guest, winner of the Diamond Sculls at Henley, on his arrival home from abroad.

As Jack Guest appeared at the main entrance to the station, the wildest storm of acclaim in Toronto's history greeted him. Hats, streamers and confetti were showered in the air amidst a general turmoil in the vast crowd, each striving to get a glimpse of the champion.

Then Guest and his immediate relatives were whisked to the car of honor at the rear of a great parade, stretching for eight block, in charge of Lou Scholes, former winner of the Diamond Sculls; Bob Dibble and Inspector Guthrie.

As the parade passed the speaker's stand where "Smiling Jack" alighted to receive official tributes and the presentation of a silver tea set the band struck up "Down the River of Golden Dreams," as a musical tribute to the determination of the world's champion to overcome the sting of several defeats to ultimately reach his goal.

Nash value greater than ever

EIGHTS and SIXES

Recent developments stress the fact that Nash gives more for the money

Amid all new claims and counter-claims, one fact stands out as clear and as strong as sunlight.

That is the unmistakably greater value which you get when you buy a Nash.

No other car at anywhere near the Nash price affords the pronounced advantages of Nash—including such features as twin ignition, with its greater power, speed, smoothness and saving of oil and gas.

Such a feature as twin ignition is highly important—but it is even more important as indicative of the superior engineering and of the in-built value which distinguish every Nash car.

You know Nash beauty. You may be familiar with Nash performance; Nash comfort and convenience; Nash thorough-going quality.

But until you compare what the Nash is and what it does with the remarkably low cost at which it may be purchased today—you cannot appreciate its wholly unexampled value. Come in and drive a Nash today.

GROCERS DROP DECISION IN SMART FIXTURE

Good Pitching and Fast Fielding Features City League Softball Tilt.

PARSONS IS GOOD.

Harrisons Lose Opportunity to Win When Green Caught Out at Second.

Staging one of their fighting finishes Westclox sent across four runs in the tenth inning to beat out Harrison's 9-5. It was a great battle and sent the fans away in delight.

Good pitching, fast fielding and all around good play featured this game, which turned out to be one of the best of the series.

Ralph Darling, left-handed ace of the Clockmakers turned in his fourth straight win. He twirled nice ball holding Harrisons to ten hits, which were well spread out over the entire game. He had two strikeouts and ony issued two walks.

Parsons, the Harrison star, also pitched good ball, although a little wild at times. He only allowed nine hits, and fanned fourteen of the Westclox batters. He passed six men and had a couple of wild pitches that allowed runners to score.

Reg. Green lost the Grocers a great chance to win when he stole second in the ninth with the pitcher on the rubber. This made the third out and the winning run was on third base.

Westclox opened the scoring in the first, getting three. Dorrington singled to start. White struck out. Curry doubled to right, Dorrington scoring. Vinette scored Curry on a sharp single to left. Foley struck out. Vinette scored on a wild pitch. Kitchen and Goodson walked but Fowler struck out.

The Clockmakers got another in the fifth when White singled and scored on Foley's triple.

Harrison's got their first in the fifth when "Shiner" Clarke hit a terrific drive along left field foul line that went for a homer.

The Westclox added another in the sixth when Fowler walked, was advanced to second by Darling and scored on Dorrington's hit to left.

Harrison's came right back with one in the same frame. Calladine doubled to centre and scored on Vinette's hit to the same field.

The Grocers got two more in the eighth. Dobson singled to start. He was advanced to third by Calladine and Green and scored on Willshaw's single to centre. Vinette singled to right and Smith walked, loading the bases. Clarke singled sharply to right scoring Willshaw, but Vinette was thrown out at home trying to score on the hit.

The Grocers evened it up in the ninth. Parsons opened with a double past third base. Playford flied out to Goodson. Dobson cut a stinging double to left. Green reached first when White lost the third strike. Green was called out for stealing second with the pitcher on the rubber.

The Alarmers won out in the tenth. Goodson, first man up, flied to Smith. Fowler and Darling then singled and came home of Dorrington's hit. Dorrington scored on White's hit and White came in on Curry's hard smash.

The teams:

Westclox—Dorrington, 3b; White, c; Curry, rf; H. Vinette, ss; Foley, lf; Kitchen, 1b; Goodson, cf; Fowler, 2b; Darling, p.

Harrison's—Playford, cf; Dobson, c; Calladine, 2b; Green, ss; Willshaw, 3b; Vinette, lf; Smith, 1b; Clarke, rf; Parsons, p.

PICTORIAL GOLF

LEFT LEG SHOULD ACT AS BRACER WHEN BALL IS HIT.

When we hit the golf ball we should be well planted on the ground with the left leg acting as a stone wall, or something to hit against to offer a resistance to the swing.

If we attempt to hit while the legs are dancing and the hands are moving forward at almost the same speed that the club head is going then we make a miserable sort of an effort with scarcely any power behind the swing at all.

If we can remember to hit with the left acting as a buffer while we are shifting the weight from the right foot we are substantially planted. We get the leverage in this way. If we were to hit the ball with the body dangling in the air there would be no leverage and consequently no force.

SET TROPHY FINAL DATE

Phelan Charity Cup Final on Wednesday Between Scots and Brintons.

PACKERS TOP LEAGUE.

A very concrete decision was made last evening at the meeting of the Peterborough and District Football Association to meet the request of the football players that there be no more Saturday afternoon games until the hot weather recedes. Arrangements were completed so that the teams play on Tuesday and Friday evenings next week and there is only one game this week on Wednesday evening.

Th Canadian General team sent a letter requesting no games for them from July 23 to 28 inclusive. It was carried unanimously.

Phelan Cup Final.

On Wednesday evening the Brinton Athletic and the Caledonians meet in the final of the Phelan Charity Cup on King Edward Park. Kick-off at 6.45 prompt. Referee, Alexander McKinley. Linesmen, J. Hawthorne and J. Hodson. The finances of the contest go to the Children's Aid Society and St. Vincent's Orphanage which is divided equally after all the expenses are paid. Fred Sutcliffe will present the trophy to the winners.

New Directors.

To fill the vacancies of J. Cherrett and Alexander McKinley on the board of directors, Alexander Mitchell and Sidney Whatley were appointed in their places. These two gentlemen acted on the executive for many seasons a few years ago.

White Cup Draw.

The draw for the White Challenge Cup resulted as follows: Brinton Athletic vs. Canadian Packing; Caledonians vs. Canadian General.

First semi-final to be played next Tuesday evening. Brinton Athletic vs. Canadian Packing. Kick-off at 6.30 prompt. Referee Alexander McKinley. Linesmen—Tom Stewart and J. Liddell.

Second semi-final to be played on Friday evening, August 1 between the Caledonians and Canadian General. Kick-off at 6.30 prompt. Referee, James Hawthorne. Linesmen to be chosen next Tuesday evening, instead of Monday night, owing to the election.

League Standing.

Can. Pack	4	3	1	0	11	6	6
Brinton Ath.	4	2	1	1	9	5	5
Can. Gen.	4	1	2	1	5	8	3
Caledonians	4	1	3	0	9	15	2

Two points for win; one for draw.

League Scorers.

R. Curtain, Caledonians, 6; N. Downer, C.P.C., 3; R. Preston, C.P.C., 4; Bayliss, Brinton, 2; J. McMaster, C.G.E., 2; B. Anderson, Brinton, 1; Rickard, C.P.C.,1; Bogie, 1 (through his own goal).

SOCCER NOTES.

Brinton team against Caledonians in Phelan Charity Cup will be picked from the following: W. Curtis, F. Lucas, D. Green, J. O'Halloran, T. Westwood, J. Creighton, J. Boon, W. James, E. A. Bayliss, H. Hotson, E. Hanson, J. Sharman and E. Jones. Please be on hand no later than 6.15.

BOB ROSS MAY PLAY TO-NIGHT

Cogs Out For Victory From the Electrics in E. P. L. Fixture.

REPLAY ON FRIDAY.

Cogs hope to have Bob Ross behind the plate in their game with Canadian Generals this evening and will be out to throw another skid under the Electrics. The third placers have been doing some hard hitting of late and it would be no surprise to see them wallop Jack Crary's offerings for a win to-night.

Certainly the fans are being treated to many fine exhibitions of the summer pastime and the best is yet to come. Crescents' overdue victory against Canadian Generals last night had all the elements of a real ball game. It is no secret that the Electricians have the greatest respect for the Crescents and realize that nine victories doesn't mean a thing when there is a play-off series.

Re-Play on Friday

Friday night's game will be a replay of the Cogs-Crescents tied contest of July 8. The league standing is:—

	W.	L.	T.	P.	TP.
C. G. E.	9	1	0	1	4
Crescents	5	3	2	1	7
Cogs	2	6	2	0	6

LEO DIEGEL TO SEEK OLD FORM IN CANADIAN OPEN

Off Game Since Interlachen, Pro Champ Will Be After 4th Dominion Title This Week.

ON HAMILTON COURSE.

If there is anything that can revive the confidence of Leo Diegel in his golf game it is the Canadian open championship which takes place this week on the course of the Hamilton Country Club at Hamilton, Ont.

Diegel, the champion of America's professional linksman, has been unhappy since he tossed away the British open championship last May just when it seemed he was to come through to his first triumph in a major medal play competition.

Leo was not himself in the American open at Minneapolis. He couldn't get going at any point along the long trail and he finished among the also rans. In the Metropolitan open last week at Elmsford, the "Flying Dutchman" was no better.

Of course, where it was expected his powerful long game and his expertness with the mashie-niblick would surely see him at least battling for the lead at all times, he was a sad disappointment, not only to himself but to those who had placed their faith in him.

Became Discouraged.

Diegel became so discouraged that he elected not to play the last two rounds. He had suffered so much mentally that only complete rest could restore his self-assurance. The Minneapolis tournament took more out of Diegel physically than it did out of those others who spent three days in the mid-west inferno. When he appeared at the Westchester Club he was wane and obviously had lost more weight than he could afford.

However, the prospect of competing this week in the tournament that he has come to love is certain to rehabilitate his faith in himself.

Mention the Canadian open and Leo at once perks up. It is the one competition where he feels certain that he can win. He has been the Canadian champion four times since 1924. He won last year and the year before and he is likely to win this year.

It is not expected that the field will be as heavily laden with talent as heretofore. Some of the boys have grown weary of the pastime and seek surcease for at least a week or two.

The Metropolitan, coming as it did right on the heels of the heated National party, showed many of them to be stale and their games slightly out of kilter.

Gene Sarazen after he had made such a brave effort to win in the last round, was so fatigued that he promptly withdrew from the Dominion championship. Gene turned out a great 66 under pressure in that last round but the torridness of the weather, plus the heavy pressure of that last drive down the stretch left bereft of ambition.

So it is with some of the rest of the talented pros. But despite several absentess the Canadian is certain to be a big event. It has grown in prestige year after year and it is only a question of time when it will supersede the British open as the second of the major conflicts.

Softball Notes.

To-night's big softball match should be another treat for the fans. Harrison's and Sugar Bowl, the old rivals, will be the teams. And what a battle the fans should witness. Harrison's are anxious to win to-night's game and get right back in striking distance for first place while a win for the Sugar Bowl will put them right up at the top rung.

The game will start at 6.30 and should draw a big crowd.

Last night's game was the second extra inning game of the season, and the Westclox aggregation have participated in both.

Thursday night's Sugar Bowl-Westclox game should be a wow.

One of the largest crowds of the season were on hand at last night's game. And they made plenty of noise.

The Softball Association received a new scoreboard, donated to them by the Enarco Oil Company. It is one of the Company's Enarco Boy signs, and is a big improvement for the spectators.

Darling turned in his fourth straight win last night.

MACHINE GUNNERS RETURN TO CITY

Local Militia Unit Complimented For Efficiency and Smartness at Barriefield Camp.

Husky and bronzed after a week in military camp at Barriefield, No. 3 Company, 4th Battalion, Canadian Machine Corps, have returned to the city, and the activities of the company have been completed for another season. The company was in charge of Major J. A. Dewart, M.C., and acted with No. 1 Company, Kingston, and No. 2 Company, Ottawa, as a battalion at the camp under the command of Lt.-Col. James Harris of Kingston.

The officers of the local company, besides Major Dewart, are Captain James Turnbull, second in command; Captain H. J. Devey and Lt. S. M. Ward. Major G. Raymore Scott of this city is the battalion medical officer. Forty-five, all ranks, formed the local contingent.

During the week in camp the men were given all the practical experience possible in machine gun firing and rifle firing. They took part in the great inspection staged last Friday in which 2,500 men in camp at Barriefield figured. The local company was sincerely complimented by inspecting officials on several occasions for their efficiency and smartness.

Passing The Buck To Ferguson Will Deceive No One

After reading the Liberal advertisement on unemployment last evening the electors of West Peterborough might well be excused if they came to the conclusion that this is not a Dominion, but a provincial election and that the Ferguson administration and not the King Government is on trial.

Rubbish about liquor profits and what the Ontario government might do with them will not deceive the people who know that so far as liquor profits are concerned the King Government collects excise taxes on liquor that make the provincial profits seem decidedly lean pickings.

Nor will it delude anybody into forgetting that the King Government has for many months shut its eyes to the existence of an unusual amount of unemployment in Canada and throughout last winter when there was suffering and distress as a result answered pleas for assistance with blue book figures to show that everybody was prosperous.

REMEMBER THIS UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM DID NOT BEGIN ONLY A FEW WEEKS AGO.

As far back as last fall Premier Brownlee of Alberta—Progressive, not a Conservative, note—endeavored, to use his own words "TO PLACE BEFORE THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT THE SERIOUSNESS OF THE SITUATION THAT MIGHT DEVELOP THROUGH THE WINTER AND URGED IT WAS DUE TO NATIONAL CAUSES AND THEREFORE SHOULD BE DEALT WITH AS A NATIONAL PROBLEM".

That was long before last Christmas remember but the only response was a flood of statistics to show there was no such a thing as unemployment.

On February 6th of this year a huge deputation from western municipalities travelled down to Ottawa and asked for Federal assistance pleading that the unemployment situation in their communities was more than they could handle.

All they took back with them was the remembrance of a chilly reception and a lecture from Mr. King. A little later the labor members in Parliament tried their hand in with no better success for on April 3 Mr. King made his famous declaration of not a five cent piece for any province that had a Conservative Government and on April 8th Mr. King and his followers voted down the Labor resolution that aimed at Federal relief for unemployment victims.

So the months have dragged on with the Government steadfastly refusing any assistance and only now when hostile receptions in the west have thoroughly scared the Premier do we get an acknowledgement that there is unemployment.

THERE IS THE RECORD AND TO ATTEMPT TO SHIFT THE ONUS UNTO PREMIER FERGUSON IS TO CREDIT THE PEOPLE WITH NO BRAINS AND NO MEMORIES.

THERE ARE TWO VITAL ISSUES TO BE FACED AND MR. KING FACES NEITHER.

The first is immediate relief.

The second is the establishment of a policy of Canadian development that will provide jobs in Canada for Canadians.

Mr. Bennett is pledged to call parliament together immediately to take both these steps.

Is there any doubt as to which should be supported, the Premier, who has turned somersaults all around this question of unemployment for nearly a year and still has nothing definite to offer or the leader who says that he will deal with this problem as soon as parliament can be called together after the election?

King has failed miserably and utterly, both to realize the situation and to deal with it—it is time to give somebody else a chance to substitute action for words.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S FLYING CURTAIN.

"Uncle Wiggily, will you please watch Tootsie for a while?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy as the rabbit gentleman sat in his easy chair near a window reading the paper.

"Why of course I'll watch my dear little Tootsie," answered the rabbit gentleman. "But what is she doing?"

"She isn'd doing anything," said the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"Then why does she need watching?" Mr. Longears wanted to know.

"Because she is asleep in her crib near this window," said Nurse Jane. "I have to run down to the corner store. Tootsie might wake up while I'm gone and she might turn over and pull herself up and fall out of her crib. You wouldn't want that to happen; would you?"

"No, indeed!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I should say not! Go to the store, Nurse

"I'll tie the curtain to Tootsie."

Jane. I'll watch Toosie and if she wakes up I'll whistle a song for her."

"No, don't do that!" begged the muskrat lady.

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Because that would make her more wide awake. Often, when Tootsie rouses out of her sleep, she will close her eyes, turn over and go on sleeping if you don't make too much noise. Whistling is noisy."

"So it is," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "Well, then, if Tootsie wakes up I'll just twinkle my pink nose at her. That won't make a noise."

"That will be all right," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "I hardly think Tootsie will wake up, but if she does, just watch her as you sit here reading your paper."

"I'll do that," promised the rabbit gentleman. "But where is Wootsie?"

"She is out playing with the other children," Nurse Jane answered.

Tootsie and Wootsie were two of Uncle Wiggily's newest little baby rabbits. Tootsie was called that because she had one tooth and part of another. Wootsie didn't have any teeth yet but they would come some day. Tootsie and Wootsie were twins, but they didn't always do the same thing, for often Tootsie went to sleep while Wootsie stayed awake.

"She's a dear little thing," said Uncle Wiggily as he looked at sleeping Tootsie in her cradle. "I must make no nose to awaken her."

Just then, all of a sudden, the window shade curtain near where Uncle Wiggily was sitting, flew up all by itself with a clatter and bang, winding around the wooden roller.

"Tut! Tut! Mustn't do that!" whispered the rabbit gentleman as he reached up and pulled the shade down to keep the light out of sleeping Tootsie's eyes. "Curtain naughty—Unkie Wig spank!" and he talked this little bit of baby talk to Tootsie who did not hear it, however as she was asleep. The flapping curtain did not awaken her.

Uncle Wiggily went on reading, Tootsie went on sleeping and, all of a sudden the curtain sprang up again, winding itself quickly around the spring roller and making quite a noise.

"Tut! Tut!" whispered the rabbit uncle. "Don't do that, please!"

He feared that the flying curtain would awaken Tootsie, but she went on sleeping and never even opened her blue eyes when Uncle Wiggily pulled the shade down again to darken the room.

"Please stay down!" he talked to the curtain. Then the rabbit uncle read his paper again and Tootsie slept more but, all of a sudden, up flew that curtain again with a clatter and bang.

"This is too much!" exclaimed Mr. Longears as he gave a quick look to see if it had awakened sleeping Tootsie. But, very luckily, it had not. And as Uncle Wiggily pulled the curtain down again he whispered. "I must tie this shade fast to something so it can't spring up again. The roller must be broken or it wouldn't all of a sudden flop up that way so often. I'll tie it down and then it can't."

Looking for something to which he might fasten the cord of the curtain, Uncle Wiggily saw Tootsie's little paw sticking out from under the cover of her crip near the window.

"I'll tie the curtain to Tootsie," said Mr. Longears. He did so and went back to read his paper. But, all of a sudden, after a little while, up flew that curtain again and as Tootsie wasn't very heavy, up she was pulled in the air, dangling at the end of the curtain cord.

"Wah! Wah! Wah!" cried Tootsie who was now awake. "Wah! Wah!"

"Oh, my goodness. This is terrible!" cried Uncle Wiggily as he saw Tootsie yanked from her crib by the flying curtain. He caught his little bunny twin before she was all twisted and wound up in the flying curtain. Quickly he loosened the cord from her paw. "Poor little Tootsie!" murmured Mr. Longears. "Bad, naughty curtain!"

Tootsie looked at her Daddicums with her blue eyes and said:

"Check!" And then Uncle Wiggily laughed and he didn't have to watch Tootsie any more for she had finished her sleep.

Then Mr. Longears mended the curtain so it wouldn't fly up and flop any more.

FROM MOTHER OF EIGHTEEN

Read How This Medicine Helps Her

Cardston, Alberta—"I am fifty-eight years old and the mother of eighteen living children. We live on a farm and I am a very healthy mother considering that I have such a big family to work for. The druggist first told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have depended on it for many years. When I had this picture taken, the photographer was telling me about his wife's ailments and after I told him about the Vegetable Compound he went to the drug store and bought her two bottles."—MRS. W. H. Moore Will Address Liberals At Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, July 22 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent) — Another Liberal rally is being staged in Campbellford on Thursday, July 24th, when W. H. Moore, ex-chairman of the Tariff Advisory Board, will address an audience in the Regent Theatre.

This speaker is in support of W. A. Fraser, the Liberal candidate for the riding of Northumberland, who will also address the gathering, backed by his campaign manager, W. G. Faulkner of Toronto. This meeting is timed for 8 p.m.

HOME TOWNERS

Tidbits, Interesting and Humorous CAMPBELLFORD

The men of C Company, Northumberland Regiment, returned from Barriefield camp, Kingston, on Saturday, and look very fit after their ten days under canvas. The Northumberland band under the direction of Bandmaster W. Pierson won the silver cup in the camp brass band competition, and the local unit got away with honors in the tug-of-war.

Mr. C. H. Davidson was promoted to the rank of Band Sergeant while attending camp this year.

Mrs. Blewett of Peterborough was the guest of her sister, Mrs. McKee of Canrobert street over the week-end.

Mrs. C. H. Davidson and family are spending the summer at their cottage at Trent River.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mason have returned from their trip to Detroit, Toronto and other points south, and report a good time.

The Rev. Mr. Kinney, former Methodist minister of Campbellford, is visiting his friends in town and the district.

CAVAN INSTITUTE GATHERS AT PICNIC

Enjoyable Outing Held in Hunter's Woods—Good Program of Sports.

CAVAN, July 22 (Examiner Correspondence).—On Thursday afternoon the Cavan Women's Institute held an enjoyable picnic in Fred Hunter's woods, Ninth Line, Cavan. An abundant and satisfying picnic supper was served by the Institute members.

A good program of sports was put on by the sports committee, Mrs. Lloyd Sutton and the Misses Eileen Hunter and Lilian Syer.

The following were the prize winners: Ladies, driving a nail in the shortest time—Mrs. M. Sutton, first; Mrs. J. H. Snider, second.

Throwing a wooden potato pounder—Miss Eileen Hunter, first; Mrs. Ray Syer, second; Mrs. R. M. Howden, third.

Girls' race, under ten—1, Berenice Richards; 2, Gwenyth Staples.

Girls over 11—Miss Ackerman, first; Miss Irene Carpenter, second.

Boys' Race—Frank Braithwaite, first; Melbourne Richards, second.

Fat Women's Race — Mrs. Ruth Keegan Taylor, first; Miss Eileen Hunter, second.

Needle Race—Mrs. Ruth Keegan Taylor, first; Mrs. Ray Syer, second.

There was a swing provided, which the children much enjoyed.

Mr. Reginald Sutton ably assisted in keeping games going and adding to the pleasure of the occasion.

After supper there were games of ball, which were enjoyed by the spectators as well as by those who played.

LIBERAL RALLY IS HELD AT NORWOOD

Several Speakers at Meeting Held in Interests of Fraser Aylesworth.

NORWOOD, July 22. — Stirring campaign addresses were heard at a Liberal rally in the interests of Fraser Aylesworth, candidate for the Peterborough-Hastings riding, at the Norwood Town Hall last night. Besides Mr. Aylesworth other speakers were Dr. Munroe, president of the Liberal Association, who presided; F. D. Kerr, K.C., Peterborough, and Mrs. Forbes Allan, Peterborough.

The large audience received the messages of the speakers with enthusiasm and at the close the hall resounded with vociferous cheers for the candidate before the National Anthem.

Making every effort to place his riding in the Liberal column, Mr. Aylesworth has been following a strenuous campaign itinerary.

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN MEETINGS

CONSERVATIVES' BIG NIGHT.

To-night's mass meeting in the Grand Opera House, which marks the zenith of E. A. Peck's campaign, and which is to be addressed by the Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario's Minister of Lands and Forests, and Mrs. Howard Fallis will doubtless set the political "pot" on the boil locally.

Speaking at Lakefield to-morrow evening, Mr. Peck will be supported by Mrs. Howard Fallis and Mr. Leo Macauley, K.C., M.P.P. of Toronto, and on Friday will address the electors at Keene Town Hall, where he will be accompanied probably by T. P. Lancaster, M.P.P.

Mr. Peck's campaign will come to a close with the usual rally which will be held on Saturday in the Committee Rooms.

DUFFUS AT KEENE.

To-night J. J. Duffus, Liberal candidate, will address the electors in Keene, and the other speakers will include W. M. Newman, M.P.P., Dr. E. M. Crough.

Wednesday—Hall's Bridge — Dr. J. J. Craig, V. Eastwood, and J. J. Duffus.

Young's Point — I. P. McNabb, Joseph Wearing, J. J. Duffus, and Dr. A. Moir.

Thursday — Bridgenorth — Dr. A. Moir, V. Eastwood, and J. J. Duffus.

Friday — May's School House — John R. Marshall, Capt. J. A. Dewart, M.C., and the candidate.

Centreville — William Newman, M.P.P., and J. J. Duffus.

Going to Owen Sound.

On Saturday two old political opponents, Joseph Wearing and J. H. Burnham will occupy the same platform on behalf of the Liberal cause at Parry Sound.

VISIT TO GANDHI SEEMS HOPELESS

Emissaries From Gov't Believe Leader Unaware of Situation.

TWO-DAY INTERVIEW.

LONDON, Eng., July 22. (C.P.) — Bombay despatches to London newspapers say that Sir Tej Banhadu Sapru and M. Jayakar will visit Mahatma Gandhi to-day in their peace making effort but are rather hopeless of the success of their mission.

Sapru is quoted as saying that while the conversations with the Nationalist leader in jail at Poona, will last for two days, he is not confident of results. He said he believed that Gandhi was not aware of late developments in the civil resistance movement, however, and that he would emphasize the harm done by the campaign in an effort to induce the leader to compromise with the government.

After their talks with Gandhi the peace emissaries will go to Allahabad for interviews with Pandit Motilal Nehru and Pandit Jawarhalal Nehru, Gandhi's assistants, who are also in jail.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 17 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan in one hand still clutched the knife he had found in his fathers' cabin. Accidentally he turned its point toward the hairy breast. As it sank into its body the gorilla shrieked in pain and rage. Then Tarzan plunged the blade repeatedly and to the hilt into Bolgani's breast.

The gorilla tore the flesh at the boy's throat and chest with its mighty tusks. More and more weakly the torn and bleeding arm struck home with the long, sharp blade. Then the little figure stiffened with a spasmodic jerk, and Tarzan the young Lord Greystoke, rolled lifeless upon the ground.

Far off the tribe heard the fierce challenge of the gorilla. It was soon discovered that Tarzan was missing. Kerchak, the king-ape was strongly opposed to sending assistance. He had no liking for the little waif. But Kala was of a different mind. She fairly flew through the matted branches!

Presently she came upon them under the brilliant moonlight—little Tarzan's torn and bloody form and beside it a great bull gorilla—stone dead. Rushing to Tarzan's side, Kala listened for a sign of life. Faintly she heard it. Tenderly she carried him through the inky jungle, back to the tribe.

Many days and nights Kala sat beside Tarzan, bringing food and water in her mouth. She licked his wounds, thus keeping them clean. After what seemed an eternity to the little sufferer, he was able to walk once more. In another month he was as strong and active as ever.

Warm Weather, Not Politics, Cause of Coat Removal Candidate States.

CROWD IN TUMULT.

DUNDAS, Ont., July 22 (C.P.)—For a moment yesterday Wentworth electors thought the overheated election battle here would end in a fist fight between Frank C. Bibbs, Liberal, and Gordon C. Wilson, official Conservative. A moment later they were assured hot weather and not hot politics was to blame.

Frank Biggs was speaking. The Conservative candidate interrupted. Biggs made a quick move, pulled back his right hand, and ripped off his coat The audience howled; Russel Emery, the chairman, jumped between the two candidates.

For a couple of moment there was a tumult. Then Mr. Biggs was able to speak.

"I don't wish you to interpret my action to mean that I had any thought of attacking Mr. Wilson. It was because of the heat that I removed my coat" he explained.

he battle of ballots in Ontario will be between two candidates.

There are two four-cornered contests—in Lanark and Toronto West Centre—and in seven constituencies—Carleton, Fort William, Hamilton East, Lambton East, Nipissing, Northumberland and Toronto South, three candidates are seeking election.

Seventy three members of the last House are running for re-election, including 49 Conservatives, 21 Liberals, 1 Progressive ,1 United Farmer and 1 Liberal-Progressive.

Members of the old Parliament who are not seeking re-election in Ontario, include A. J. Macdonald, Liberal, Glengarry A K Hodgins, Conservative, Middlesex East E. A. LaPierre, Liberal, Nipissing; G. C. E. Wards, Liberal, Ottawa; F. W. Hay, Liberal, Perth North; J. Hubbs, Conservative, Prince Edward-Lennox; W. A. Boys, Simcoe North; N. M. Young, Conservative, Toronto North-East, and H. C. Hocken, Conservative, Toronto West Centre.

5 Women Candidates.

Five Women candidates, the highest number in the history of Dominion politics in Ontario, have been nominated, including Canada's first and only Federal member, Miss Agnes MacPhail, United Farmer, who is again contesting Grey Southeast against a Conservative. Two of the women candidates are straight Liberals, Mrs. Glencora Kennedy, widow of the late Minister of Railways, in Essex West, and Mrs. F. S. Greenwood in Lincoln. They are endeavoring to capture the seats from the Conservative ex-members, Col. S. C. Robinson and Hon. J. D. Chaplin, respectively.

Other women nominees are Miss Mildred Low, running as an independent Conservative in Lanark's 4-cornered fight, and Miss Edith Macdonald, Independent Progressive opposed by Liberal and Conservative candidats in Northumbrland.

In the 1921 General lction thr wr In the 1921 general election there were three women candidates in Ontario, and in 1925 and, 1926 only wo Miss MacPhail was successful in all three elections.

LONDON, July 22. (C.P.) — Seven thousand specimens of poultry from 23 countries, including Canada and the United States went on Exhibit in the Crystal Palace to-day.

At the same time delegates from 60 nations convened under the same roof for the Fourth World Poultry Congress.

The Congress, which was opened by the Duke of York this afternoon, is under the patronage of the Royal Family and was organized by the Ministry of Agriculture at the request of the poultry industry of the British Isles, the object being to provide facilities for the interchange of scientific and practical knowledge in poultry raising.

WEDDING BELLS

WALKER—ALSTER.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, July 12, at the Church of the Annunciation, Detroit, when Marion Alster, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Alster, of Detroit, and Leonard Walker son of Mrs. C. Walker and the late John Walker, formerly of Peterborough, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by the Rev. Father Burns.

The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, and proceeded up the aisle to the strains of the Wedding March. She was a picture of daintiness gowned in a flesh-colored georgette, with a picture hat and shoes to match, and a bouquet of yellow roses and maiden hair fern.

She was assisted by Miss Lauretta Finn, of Enterprise, Ontario, who wore a yellow georgette dress, with hat and shoes to match, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maiden hair fern. Mr. Charles Walker, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to thirty guests, and where the happy couple received the congratulations and well wishes of their many friends.

After the breakfast they left amid showers of rice and confetti on a motor trip, touring Northern Michigan. The bride travelled in a Paisley crepe with hat and shoes to match.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a dinner ring, to the bridesmaid a silver compact, and to the best man a Parker fountain pen.

OBITUARY

PATRICK CROWLEY.

In the passing yesterday afternoon of aPtrick Crowley, aged 76, Ennismore loses one of its best known farmers. Born in Otonabee Township, the deceased moved to Ennismore in his early thirties, and there he tilled a large farm.

He is survived by his sorrowing widow, two daughters, Mrs Joseph Holland and Mrs. James Crough, both of Ennismore, and four sons, Joseph, Walter and Oswald of Ennismore, and Fergus of Windsor.

The funeral will leave the deceased's late residence in Ennismore at 9 o'clock (standard time) tomorrow morning, and proceed to St. Martin's Church and Cemetery for final funeral rites.

MAIN STREET TOPICS

Jabs and Jottings as Picked Up by an Examiner Reporter

THREE GAY LITTLE GYPSIES.

They were a brilliant bit of color against a green terraced lawn on Park street last evening —three little girls in gypsy costumes. Adult white petticoats of ancient vintage cluttered their ankles as they scrambled up a grassy slope. Bits of gay curtain material had been requisitioned for blouses that were crossed by strings of red beads, and brass curtain rings dangled from the ears of one while the other had used elastic garters to make her ear-ornaments. They had fluttering white cheesecloth veils and red head-shawls and they were accompanied by a bewildered but jolly little bull terier puppy that answered to the name of "Bubsy" and followed them valiantly as they floated up and down the street pretending to be gypsies, with staves cut from a thorn bush.

BOYS ABUSING HORSES.

Dr. Thos. Johnston, inspector for the local branch of the Humane Society draws attention to several complaints received recently as to the manner in which young delivery boys handle the horses in their care. In many instances, these hard-working, patient beasts can be seen driven as hard as possible up steep grades. In sultry weather of the type that is prevailing at present, the animal suffers under such treatment. There is nothing more galling to a horse-lover than to see the friend of man urged at top speed—and a horse will always respond, no matter how it may be tried, up a stiff incline—while a feckuless youth slaps it with reins or whip and sits back comfortably to see it run.

Most everyone will admit it was warm last evening, but Alphonse O'Connor found it absolutely hot out on the Chemong Road watching his car burn up. O'Connor, who is employed at A. Blade & Sons' green house, was driving to his home at Chemong Park when, due to some unknown cause, his car burst into flames. With no means of extinguishing the flames, the motorist was forced to stand idly by and see the vehicle consumed.

COOLER ATTIRE FOR MEN

Forced out of conventional attire by the oppressive heat of the past two days, a courageous member of the strong and silent sex, has opened the way to popularising cooler and saner attire for men's summer wear by parading along Peterborough's main thoroughfare today, noon attired in white flannel shorts and white shirt open at the neck and with short sleeves. His ensemble was complete with neat knee length hose, low shoes and bare head.

Walking along in the company of a lady friend, he was the object of a great deal of scrutiny and possibly a little envy from his more heavily clad brethren, who are not possessed of the same daring and initiative as he.

BOTTLING CONCERNS IN PETERBOROUGH

A Thriving Little Industry, Local Concerns Look For local Patronage.

There are a number of bottling concerns in the city employing quite a few men putting up such drinks as Whistle, Vess Dry, Orange Crush, Knox's Soda Water, Coca Cola, and others as well that use first-class ingredients, and sell at a reasonable price to the distributor in the city. There is a way of helping this flourishing little industry by purchasing the orange drinks that are made here, then the money has local circulation.

SANDY SUPPORTS DUNNING BUDGET IN SMITH HALL

Former Progressive M.P.P. Addresses Meeting in Favor of J. J. Duffus.

INDUSTRIES WILL GROW.

Empire Trade Will Aid Farmers to Market Their Produce.

F. J. Sandy, ex-M.P.P., for Victoria South, in speaking at a meeting in the interests of J. J. Duffus, in Temperance Hall on the Fourth Line of Smith, last evening, declared that the time was ripe and opportune for the agricultural industry of this country to take advantage of the greatly increased markets which the Empire trade policy offers. "You will possibly wonder why I am on this platform in this campaign, but like many others I believe that this election is somewhat different, and it is a time when we should forsake party for principles."

Some people forsake principle for party, stated the speaker, but how anyone engaged in the agricultural industry can overlook the business opportunities that the Dunning budget proposals represent, is more than I can understand.

Our industries will grow and develop as our markets grow and develop, and in this campaign, unlike many others, the farmer is not waging a battle alone, for the manufacturerers, too, realize the great chance for the growth, development and expansion of this country through the policy of inter-Empire trade.

Appreciate Real Issue

J. J. Duffus, the candidate, making kindly reference to the statements of his opponents, asked his audience to appreciate the real issues before them, and urged them most earnestly not to permit their minds to be diverted by the campaign of irrelevant side-tracking tactics adopted by the Conservatives.

The sweeping reduction in taxation, the reduction of our National Debt, the conversion of our railways from a millstone about the neck of Canada to a national asset, represent accomplishments of which any Government might be proud and which are unequalled in performance by any Government, since Confederation.

The difference between a stateman and a politician, declared the speaker, is that one discusses matters with a view to an approaching election, and the other for the benefit of the future prosperity of the country, and of the next generation, and whatever happens in this campaign, I am certainly proud of the fact that all those, speaking on my behalf have discussed the great issues before you, in a statesmanlike way.

Their tactics have been clean, and I hope and know that no attempt will be made to divert your minds or insult your intelligence by the introduction of petty politics or irrelevant matter.

This constituency requires active representation and if elected I will spend at least two third of my time looking after the affairs of this riding, and if at the end of four years you are not satisfied with my record, then it will be your duty to tell me so.

Great Economic Struggle

Alex Elliott stated, that the world was engaged in an economic struggle. New conditions and the changing policies of other countries require constructive changes in our own policies.

The Conservatives would even ask us to step back to the National policy. A policy that was introduced when Canada had no West, and was a sparsely populated country, from Lake Superior to Halifax, but at any time when a forward step is proposed, introducing a change in our policies, there will always be people opposing them because of their lack of vision.

Confederation to Canada was opposed by just the same short-sightedness and selfish ambitions as the Confederation of the Britannic Empire is being opposed to-day.

In 1867 people with limited vision would have sacrificed the great Dominion to the pettishness of small provinces. People to-day are preaching for political gain the doctrine of Canada only for Canadians, for the same reasons that Ontarians, Nova Scotians and Quebecers preached against Confederation, in 1867.

The small countries of Europe have remained small and obscure because they could not combine economically or constitutionally with any other country.

If you wish Canada to remain small and obscure then oppose the policy of inter-Empire trade, and limit her markets. If you wish Canada to increase her markets grow, expand and develop, then vote for the great British economical union, for the Empire is just so much a greater centre of trade, commerce and strength as our Dominion is to our Provinces.

If Mr. Duffus is elected, declared the speaker, it will not be long before you know that you have a representative at Ottawa, and it will not be long before the riding of West Peterborough is again known throughout the length and breadth of this Dominion, because it has in Mr. J. J. Duffus a man that will be taking a leading part in the country's affairs.

BOARD OF WORKS GRANTS REQUEST

Curb and Gutter Will Be Laid on Park Hill Road.

WIDEN PAVEMENT.

The petition of the residents of Park Hill Road asking that curbing be built from Water street to the bridge, was granted last night by the Board of Works. The Warren Paving Company will widen the pavement and build the curbing as far as Elcombe Crescent, while the rest of the curbing will be built by the city.

Answering the criticism that the new pavement did not appear to be in the centre of the street, City Engineer said that the sidewalks were not symmetrical, and hence the new roadway appeared to be too far to the north.

Alderman McIntyre asked if the extra feet of pavement could not be laid by the city, but it was pointed out that the construction bylaw called for asphalt.

The question of city workmen being employed on the job was raised again and City Engineer Parsons was instructed to have every man secure a certificate this morning.

Permission was granted Herb McCannon to let the Tom Thump people erect a miniature golf course at the corner of Charlotte and Monaghan Road. The request was granted on condition that none of the citizens in that locality complained.

The Utilities Commission will be asked to speed up the work of laying the water mains in the new area west of Monaghan Road and north of Queen Mary School.

Earthquake In Italy Takes 251 Lives

HUNDREDS HURT AS THREE SHOCKS LAST OVER HOUR

Most Widespread Devastation Since Great Messina Disaster in 1908.

FELT IN TORONTO.

Over 50 Die of Fright Alone in Naples—City Near Destruction.

ROME, Italy, July 23.—(CP)—The number of deaths in a terror-striking earthquake which ravaged Southern Italy early this morning had reached 251 this afternoon with more than twice that number injured.

Three Shocks

NAPLES, Italy — The terror of earthquake, so sharp and awful that the number of deaths from sheer fright in Naples alone was estimated at fifty, struck southern Italy today in three shocks that caused the most widespread seismic devastation in Italy since the great Messina quake of 1908.

Accurate Count Impossible

Because of the shattering of communications and the difficulty of reaching victims imprisoned in the wreckage, an accurate count of the dead and injured was still unavailable, but the number of known deaths steadily approached 200 while the number of injured reached several hundred with at least a hundred in a serious condition.

Three violent shocks were felt shortly after one o'clock this morning and a lesser shock added to the horror at 6:35 am.

100 Perish in Melf

The Hamlet of Melf in Apulva was the hardest hit, unconfirmed reports stating that there were 100 deaths there alone.

BLAST KILLS WORKMAN.

PHILADELPHIA Penn., July 23. — (C.P.) — The combined electric, wind, rain and hail storm, which struck Eastern Pennsylvania, late yesterday, caused the loss of two lives injury to many and property loss of thousands of dollars.

The break in the intolerable heat, which has caused 17 deaths, and scores of prostrations in the Philadelphia area the last four days, was accompanied by the ruination of crops, comparable to the inroads brought by the protracted heat and drought.

George Sam, 35, a workman of Bath, near Easton, Penn., was killed at a cement quarry, when lightning caused the premature explosion of ten tons of dynamite. Thousands of tons of rock poured into the pits, and somewhere in the debris was buried the body of the workman.

Mrs Margaret McCann, Phoenixville, Penn., who was driving to Pottsdam, with four nuns of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart, died from shock when their automobile upset at Limerick, near here. The accident occurred during the storm. None of the Sisters was hurt.

Two Fliers Ready To Brave Pacific

TACOMA, Wash., July 23. — The zero hour drew near today for the starting of two projected airplane flights from Tacoma to Tokyo.

Lieut. Harold Bromley, Canadian flyer, thrice thwarted in attempts to make the trans-Pacific flight said he would be ready to start his new plane "City of Tacoma" after to-morrow on receipt of favorable weather reports.

Robert B. Wark, Bromley's rival, announced he would be ready to take off Friday morning. Bromley and Wark have denied any intention of racing each other to Tokyo.

"Thrill" Slayer and His Victim

Fourteen-year-old Harry Wolsey, Jr., son of a wealthy New Jersey manufacturer, has been held on charge of murdering his pretty nurse, Anna Miller. The boy, who is alleged to be mentally defective, described to authorities the "thrill" he got through the act. He is shown above with his victim.

ACKERMAN WINS DAMAGE ACTION AGAINST THE CITY

Master in Peterborough Will Assess Damages Against Municipality.

IN EXCESS OF $2,000.

Action Followed Flooding of Ackerman Premises in Spring of 1928.

(Special to The Examiner)

TORONTO, July 23. — Damages against the City of Peterborough for failure to divert the channel of a creek properly, and to maintain a bridge over the same in such a condition as would prevent flooding, were awarded B. F. Ackerman, Son & Company, Limited, by Mr. Justice McEvoy, in a judgment handed down to-day at Osgoode Hall.

The company claimed $15,000 for loss sustained when their premises were flooded in the spring of 1928. His Lordship refers the assessment of damages to the Master at Peterborough, observing that they will be in excess of $2,000.

Must Fix Bridge.

An order is also made to go into effect six months from now, restraining the city from maintaining the bridge in present condition and requiring such measures to be taken as will preven flooding in the future.

"If it had not been for the damming back of the water by the insufficiency of the bridge, there would have been no damages to the plaintiff," the judgment says in part.

The following interview was given to The Examiner this morning by S. T. Medd, K. C., solicitor for the plaintiff:

"Judgment has been given," said Mr. Medd, "against the City of Peterborough in favor of the Ackerman Company, for damages and costs. The city has six months in which to put a proper bridge at Dalhousie Street, the bridge which the Ackerman Company complained about, and which they claimed caused the flooding, and an order has been made, restraining the city from maintaining the bridge in any condition, which does not provide a safe outlet for the waters of the creek towards the south.

"This flooding took place in March, 1928. Mr. B. F. Ackerman was averse to bringing action against the city," declared Mr. Medd, "unless there was no other course open to him, but although offers on his behalf were made to settle no reply was ever received from the city or City Council.

"I was then instructed by the

MRS. WALSH IS SLIGHTLY HURT

Aged Lady Knocked Down By Motor Car on George Street at Noon.

SUFFERS SCALP WOUND.

Mrs. Walsh, 605 Rubidge Street, suffered a scalp injury at noon to-day when she was knocked down on George Street, near Charlotte, by a motor car. Mrs. Walsh was crossing the road easterly in front of Hooper's lower store during the noon hour rush, and stepped in front of a motor car. The traffic signal was with the motorist at the time.

The aged lady was accompanied by her little grand-daughter, who escaped injury. Mrs. Walsh was attended by Dr. Dobson, who said that her injury was not serious.

Addresses Rally

HON. WILLIAM FINLAYSON

Minister of Lands and Forests in the province of Ontario who addressed the Big Conservative mass meeting that was held in the Grand Opera House last night.

COMMON GROUND IS BEING FOUND IN LIBERAL PARTY

Farmers and Manufacturers uniting to Support Liberal Policies Says Duffus.

TRIBUTE TO DAVID FIFE.

William Newman, M.P.P., Assists Liberal Candidate at Big Rally in Keene.

Welcomed as an old Otonabee boy to "the capital" of the township by Reeve Fred McIntyre, chairman of the Liberal rally at Keene last night, J. J. Duffus addressed a large audience that filled the town hall.

"We all know 'Joe' Duffus as an upright, straight forward, successful business man" said Reeve McIntyre, "and it is a great pleasure for me to call upon him this evening."

Mr. Duffus was assisted by William Newman, M.P.P. of Lorneville, and Dr. M. E. Crough, and the Peterborough Cheerio entertainers presented a delightful program of instrumental music.

Mr. Duffus said that one of the most encouraging and significant features of the present campaign was the evidence that the farmers and manufacturers were finding a common ground in support of the policies of the Liberal party in this election. He could recall other occasions when these two great branches of Canadian industry seemed to be more or less divergent in their political interests, but at this time it was pleasing to find so many assurances that the Liberal program of leadership in obtaining an extension of Empire trade was appealing so generally to the citizens as a whole.

MOORE ATTACKS BENNETT'S PLANS

Claims Talk of Annexation Insult to Loyalty of Canadians.

NEED OWN DESTINY.

OSHAWA, Ont., July 23.—(C.P.)—Speaking before a large gathering of Twentieth Century Liberal Club members here last night, W. H. Moore, former Tariff Board chairman and Liberal candidate in the riding of Ontario South, declared talk of annexation "that had been indulged in by the Conservative leader is an insult to the loyalty and intelligence of the people of Canada. There is no disposition for annexation in this country, and Mr. Bennett knows it," he said.

Continuing the speaker said since before Confederation the Liberals had been struggling for political autonomy, including representative and responsible government, and that all these movements the Conservatives had fought.

"But now the Conservatives are advocating industrial independence," he proceeded. "That is a fine sounding catch phrase, but there is no place for catch phrases in this election. Canada cannot be industrially independent, when cotton, rubber, aluminum, linen, so many of our raw materials, have to be imported. The Conservatives ask us to follow the United States, but I say 'don't be like the United States; let us strike out on a destiny of our own."

Dress Reform Show Loses to Weather

LONDON, Eng., July 23 (C.P. Cable). — The English climate won the first round of the contest with the Men's Dress Reform Party last evening. The party staged a "great demonstration in Hyde Park, at which hundreds of their "rationally dressed" supporters were to convince their convention-ridden brethren of the unsuitability of man's present garb in the summer months at least.

However, it was the coldest evening for some months. The chairman and honorary secretary, along with the hundreds of supporters, failed to appear. Only 10 Spartans arrived, duly marching across the park with icy blasts playing around their knees and down their open necks, while rain soaked their uncovered locks.

GLENN H. CURTISS AVIATION PIONEER DIES IN BUFFALO

Started in as Lad of 16 Working in a Bicycle Shop.

FIRST MOTORCYCLE 1901.

Worked With Dr. Alexander G. Bell on Gliders and Later Airplanes.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23 (C.P.) — Glenn H. Curtiss, widely known aviation pioneer, died this morning in the General Hospital here, at the age of 52.

Mr. Curtiss nurtured the young science of aviation in the middle years of its development when fainter hearts had grown discouraged.

His native town of Hammondsport, in up-state New York, where he was born on May 21, 1878, is now called by its Chamber of Commerce, "The Cradle of Aviation" because of what Curtiss and his associates did there.

In Bicycle Shop at 16

At the age of 16 he started a bicycle shop, as did those other pioneers of United States aviation, the Wright brothers—and from that went into bicycle racing. He sought some means to make them go faster, but there were no engines that would meet the demands, so Curtiss decided to make one.

With a tomato can for a carburetor, he built his first motor bicycle in 1901. He continued to experiment with light-weight motors and evolved his famous -type motor, a departure in design reflected in the radial airplane engines of to-day. In 1902 he won the New York State road race, competing with the best riders of two Continents. In 1904 he set a speed record at Ormond Beach, Fla., of ten miles in 8 minutes and 54 seconds, and in 1906, over the same course, traveller faster than man ever had before: a mile in 26 and 2-5 seconds or at the rate of approximately 140 miles an hour. That record stood for years.

Put Motor in Baloon

His fame spread and drew the attention of the late Major Thomas Scott Baldwin, builder and operator of balloons. In 1904, the two men met in Hammandsport and installed a Curtis motor in Baldwin's balloon, the "California Arrow." With this machine they made a circular flight at Oakland, Calif., in August 19, the first to fly that way.

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, Canadian inventor of the telephone, commissioned Curtiss to build a motor for a man-carrying kite. Mrs. Bell joined with him in financing what was called the Aerial Experiment Association. Gliders were experimented with for a time, and then the men turned their attention to power airplanes.

"Millionaire Hobo" Starves to Death

STAUNTON, Va., July 23.—James Ralph How, the "millionaire hobo," is dead as the result of 15 years of self-denial.

Physicians attending him when he succumbed in a hospital here yesterday said death was due to pneumonia, "evidently superinduced by starvation." He was 56 years old.

Despite a bequest of $500,000 from his mother, Mrs. Eliza Eads How, in 1915, he had denied himself the necessities of life to aid unfortunates, especially hoboes. His time and energy, as well as his fortune, were spent in the interest of migratory workers and he was the financial "angel" of the International Brotherhood Welfare Association, with hobo shelters in sixteen cities.

YOUTH WOULD BE SNAKE CHARMER

Entertains Big Brother Movement Camp With Serpents Round His Neck.

PLAYS WITH TURTLES.

TORONTO, Ont., Jul, 23.—(C.P.)—The Big Brother movement here does its best to find a niche in life for boys who are truants from school but are anxious to be icemen or steeplejacks. An unusual case has appeared at the summer camp of the movement where a youngster has blossomed forth as a snake charmer.

The lad in question hates school, according to officials, but is never happier than when he is fondling snakes or superintending the activities of mud turtles. In ca. p dramatics he is the central figure, posing as a juvenile laocoon with serpents twined around his arms and neck.

Unlike the unfortunate laocoon of classical legend the lad is not chased by the snakes, but goes out after them. "If there is a snake around anywhere I can find it" says this future Canadian citizen.

"I am sure this talent can be turned to good account," says Fred Sharpe, secretary of the Big Brother movement. "We are going to see whether there is any opening with a taxidermist."

Finlayson Scores Five-cent Speech Of Premier King

Failure of King Government to Co-operate With Provinces in the Pressing Problem of Unemployment Reason Why Provincial Leaders Are in Campaign Declares Finlayson.

LIBERAL 'FLAG-WAVING' AND KING'S SINCERITY QUESTIONED BY MINISTER OF LANDS AND FORESTS

Miss Mildred Bennett, Sister of the Conservative Leader, is Heard in Short Address at Conservative Mass Meeting Held Last Night in Grand Opera House.

The "Five-Cent Speech" of Mackenzie King came in for a severe drubbing at the hands of the Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests, speaking at the Grand Opera House here last night.

Declaring that the obvious resolve of the King Government not to co-operate with the provinces in the pressing problem of unemployment was the reason that the Premiers and Cabinet Ministers of five provinces were found in the midst of the present Dominion election, the Hon. Mr. Finlayson proceeded to flay Liberal "flag-waving" and openly to question the Prime Minister's sincerity in the light of his war record. The mass meeting held in the interests of E. A. Peck, Conservative candidate in West Peterborough, was also addressed by Miss Mildred Bennett, sister of the Dominion Conservative Leader; Mrs. Howard Fallis, William Morrison, M.P.P. of Hamilton, and Mr. Peck. Gordon S. Matthews, president of the local Conservative organization, was in the chair.

The Hon. Mr. Finlayson.

The Hon. Mr. Finlayson commenced his speech by quoting from an advertisement which had evidenty aroused his ire when he read it in The Peterborough Examiner. Although it had been inserted by the Liberal Victory Committee, he erroneously attributed its sentiments to the paper itself and said, after quoting some of its remarks:

"There are always local papers and they always have a parochial flavor. I rather think you have a local paper here and that probably it has about as much influence on your elections as a journal in Timbuctoo would have. I know that this paper has consistently adopted and hammered at its views and the people have just as consistently gone contrary to them at election times."

Mr. Peck here interjected: "This is a non-partizan paper", and another voice from the platform interrupted with: "That is a paid advertisement."

Mr. Finlayson went on: "I have never been enthusiastic about Mr. Mackenzie King. He does not appeal to me as a peerless leader. I learnt to admire leaders and leadership from 1914 to 1918. But I never said I hated him. It is one of the stock expressions which the Toronto Star has constantly employed against me. They sent a special reporter to a meeting at Port Arthur. Someone said at that meeting: 'Is Mackenzie King a returned man?' And I answered: "Yes, he certainly is a returned man. When the rest of us came back from France, he returned from the United States. When some of us were wearing khaki and serving the King, he was wearing mufti and serving Rockefeller." But when I said that at Port Arthur, I did not say I hated him, as I was reported I said I don't admire anyone of military age who deserted Canada in 1914.

"Now this paper invites me to say why Mr. Ferguson and the Ontario Government are taking such an unusual part in this election. I will admit that we are taking an unusual part and so is every province in the Dominion of Canada. I accept the challenge of that advertisement."

The Western Crop.

"Each Fall, this province is in the habit of sending from 25,000 to 30,000 harvesters to the West to help market the grain crop. Last year, there were none and instead of the railways sending out hundreds of cars to move the crops, they remained on the sidings. The Western farmers thought the price for wheat was too low and they held their crops, with the result that every elevator was filled and there was no movement of grain to the seaboard. The Province of Ontario, as well as other places, immediately began to feel the effects."

Mr. Finlayson went on to describe the plight last year of the town of Kenora, in consequence of the idleness there of railway men and the plea made to the Government in Toronto. On Mr. Finlayson's suggestion, a meeting of many of those interested: superintendents of the two railways, the mayor and other representatives of the municipality and the Board of Trade and of the pulp and paper people, was held, and they were invited by him to do their share in settling the problem

20,000 SAILORS WILL BE UNABLE TO CAST BALLOT

Advance Polls Open Thursday For Travellers, Railwaymen and Seamen.

"Control To Independents.

Liberals Claim Sure Gain of 8 Seats East of Ottawa.

(By George Hambleton, C. P. Staff Staff Correspondent.)

In approximately 200 electoral districts, advance polls open tomorrow for railway employees, commercial travellers and sailors.

The hours of polling are from 7 to 10 p.m., Standard Time.

Advance polls open again at the same hours on Friday, and from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday.

Despite these extra facilities many sailors will be unable to vote. W. H. Duthie, operating department Canada Steamship Lines, estimates that approximately 20,000 sailors on the Great Lakes and Canadian coastal service will be absent.

Both Parties Confident.

On the last stretch both old-line parties are confident of victory. The National Liberal Bureau is claiming 80 "sure seats" east of the Ottawa—a net gain for the government of eight. Miss Mildred Bennett, sister of the Conservative leader, is emphatic at Peterborough, Ont., that a Conservative victory "is in the air." Not to be outdone, J. S. Woodsworth, Labor candidate in Winnipeg North Centre, predicts that old

Snipers Imported To Kill Mad Foxes

CHICAGO, Ills., July 23.—(CP)—A mad-fox scare has spread through the Rock River Valley, southwest of Rockford, where the country homes of Ruth Hanna McCormick, former Governor Frank O. Lowden and others are located. So dangerous have the animals become, that three crack shots have been imported by the State Department of animal industry and conservation to wage warfare against them. Their importation followed numerous instances in which foxes and wolves, apparently maddened by rabbies attacked dogs, cattle, horses and even human beings.

New Zealand Boosts Foreign Tariffs

PREFERENCE IS GIVEN TO GOODS MADE IN EMPIRE

Amended Tariff Means Additional Revenue of $4,000,000.

ANNOUNCED BY PREMIER.

Luxury Tax on Tobacco, Cigarettes—Duty Up on Cars and Gasoline.

WELLINGTON, N.Z., July 23 (C.P.). — An amended tariff on importations which will yield the state an additional revenue of about 800,000 pounds sterling, or almost $4,000,000, has been announced in the House of Representatives by the Right Hon. G. W. Forbes, Prime Minister.

The new customs duties, explained the Prime Minister, are not intended solely to produce revenue, but will also give further preference to Empire products by raising the duties on goods of foreign production or manufacture. It constitutes, in a sense, a luxury tax as tobacco and cigarettes, certain types of apparel and hosiery, and motor cars and gasoline are subject to heavier duties than before.

Besides these changes, the Government is vested with the power to increase duties further with the object of according greater preference to Empire goods.

SETTLEMENT ARRANGED IN IRISH RAIL STRIKE

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 23 (C.P.). —Through Government intervention, a general strike ordered for midnight on the Great Southern Railway lines, which would have paralyzed rail communication over most of the Irish Free State, was averted.

After a nine hours' conference between the executive of the National Union of Railwaymen and representatives of the Great Southern Railway and the Irish Omnibus Coy., a settlement was reached.

Its terms include the immediate reinstatement of all dismissed railway employees, and recognition by the Omnibus Company of the Bus Drivers' Union, affiliated with the National Union of Railwaymen.

KING RIDICULES PROMISES MADE BY TORY LEADER

Premier Claims Plans Outlined Cost Dominion Billion Dollars.

LAST QUEBEC MEETING.

Proposes to Give Cost of Special Session as Unemployment Aid.

MONTREAL, Que., July 23 (C.P.). — An assembly of approximately eight thousand people greeted Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King at the Mount Royal Arena last night, when the Prime Minister made his last public appearance in Quebec before the general Dominion elections next Monday. Premier King left immediately after the meeting for Chesley, Ont., where he is scheduled to speak to-night.

Orderly Gathering.

The meeting was enthusiastic but orderly. Armand Daiole, president of the Reform Club, and Major George Washington Stevens were joint chairmen, and each spoke briefly. Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State, eulogized the Prime Minister and prophesied victory for the administration.

A feminine touch was added to the meeting when Madame Pierre F. Casgrain welcomed the Prime Minister on behalf of the French-speaking Liberal women and the English-speaking women's tribute was expressed by Dr. Grace Ritchie England, Liberal candidate in Mount Royal division.

Premier King referred to the promises being made during the campaign by Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Conservative party, and said that in some quarters it had been estimated that it would cost the county a billion dollars if all the promises were kept. Mr. Bennett had thought very grave consideration should be given before embarking upon such an expenditure when the House of Commons was considering a vote of $50,000,000 for the Montreal railway terminals, Mr. King observed.

"If Mr. Bennett was alarmed when he talked about $50,000,000, he must be in a state of frenzy now when he talks about a billion," the Prime Minister remarked.

Give $2,000,000 To Unemployment.

Mr Bennett's proposal to summon Parliament at once to deal with unemployment would cost two million dollars, Mr. King asserted. Why not give the two millions to unemployed relief? he asked.

Discussing the attitude of Mr. Bennett and the Conservative press, the Prime Minister remarked the Montreal Star had recently published an editorial attacking the budget. He then proceeded to quote an edition of the same paper, published for circulation in Great Britain, which, he said, took a very different position.

"You would think that the owner of the paper was the author of the budget," said Mr. King.

It was Premier King's second visit to Quebec during the present campaign, he having addressed a meeting in Quebec prior to his tour of the Maritime Provinces.

BENNETT BACKS GORDON WILSON IN WENTWORTH

States Vote For Independent Conservative is Vote for Opposition.

HECKLERS TAKEN OUT.

Tory Chifetain Charges Interruptions Were All Organized.

DUNDAS, Ont., July 23 (By Thomas Green, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — In Dundas Riverside Park late yesterday, Hon. R. B. Bennett gave his strong endorsation to the candidature of Gordon C. Wilson, official Conservative candidate for Wentworth. Two other candidates in the field are S. R. Weaver, Independent Conservative, and F. C. Briggs, Liberal, former Minister of Highways in the Progressive Government of former Premier E. C. Drury.

Considerable Heckling.

There were interruptions towards the close when Mr. Bennett gave his unqualified support to Mr. Wilson, member in last Parliament who at the close of the session announced his retirement from public life on account of ill-health. The three men responsible for the interruptions were taken to the outskirts of the crowd by a police officer and warned. Mr. Bennett asked that the men be let alone. "I will deal with them," and charged that the interruptions were organized.

Mr. Weaver, one of the candidates, Mr. Bennett continued, had stated only the other night at a meeting, "If you do not vote for me, vote for Briggs." A vote for any other candidate than Gordon C. Wilson, the Opposition Leader declared, was a vote for Briggs and the Liberal Party."

Discussion developed among a group of rival supporters near the platform. "Do not be alarmed," Mr. Bennett remarked, "it is just a little noise among friends, but not our friends."

The international bankers' meeting recently in London, Mr. Bennett said, had decided by resolution that the way to develop the Empire was by trade agreements with mutual preferences between the nations of the Empire. "I asked you on the ninth of June at Winnipeg," he exclaimed, "to take my word. Now I ask you to take the words of those bankers Are you prepared to take the words of these bankers or the words of Mr. King? They are just as loyal to the British Empire as Mr. King is."

King's Trap Fails.

Mr. Bennett charged that Prime Minister had only asked the question in regard to representation at the Imperial Conference if a Conservative Government were elected was only trying to place Mr. Bennett in a false position. "But he failed," the Conservative Leader exclaimed,

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

POLICE SEEKING MURDER CLUES ALONG HIGHWAY

Would Find How Far Rumbold Got on Journey to Barrie.

MYSTERY DEEPENS

Officers Confident Crime Not Committed Where Body Discovered.

TORONTO, Ont., July 23 (C.P.) — Police cars travelled over Central Ontario highways at a rapid clip today as Provincial Officers endeavored to trace the activities of Philip C. Rumbold, Tonawanda, N.Y., from the time he left his home on Monday until his body was found on a lonely highway near Port Credit yesterday. Gasoline stations, fruit and lunch stands, and other highway purveyors were questioned by the police in their efforts to secure clues to one of the most puzzling murder cases they have experienced in years.

Found by Workman

The body of Rumbold, wealthy real estate developer, was found in his own car by a workman returning home. The victim's hands had been lashed behind his back; he had been gagged and his nose packed with cotton wool; then his assailants had apparently placed a rope around his neck and twisted it taut with two pieces of soldering metal. To make certain of death Rumbold had been cruelly beaten over the head with a hammer and his skull smashed to pulp.

Police are confident the murder was not committed where the gruesome discovery was made. They are of the opinion Rumbold was attacked elsewhere and that the murderers after driving around all night had left the car and body where found. That robbery was committed, was proved last night when O. B. Rumbold, son of the slain man and a bank employee of Niagara Falls, N.Y., arrived to identify the body. He stated his father had $300 on his person when he arrived in Niagara Falls Monday, prior to starting out on the trip that was to conclude at Barrie in a fishing trip. This money was missing from Rumbold's clothing, while every article on his person had been investigated by his slayers.

Left Falls 3 o'Clock Monday

The puzzling part of the case, police say, is the fact Rumbold left Niagara Falls, Ontario, at three o'clock on Monday and should have arrived in Barrie that night. They believe he was attacked between Niagara and Port Credit. By checking service stations they believe there is a slim hope of ascertaining how far he got on his journey before he was either attacked or something occurred to cause him to change his plans.

HON. HOWARD FERGUSON TO SPEAK AT CAMPBELLFORD

(By Examiner Staff Correspondent.)

CAMPBELLFORD, July 23. — One of the largest audiences in the present campaign at Campbellford, is expected on Saturday afternoon when the Premier of Ontario, the Hon. Howard Ferguson, is scheduled to address a Conservative meeting in the Davidson Arena in the interests of the Conservative candidate, Milton Maybee.

Beside the guest speaker and the candidate Major J. F. B. Belford will also address the meeting.

Campbellford Mills May Close if Liberals Go Into Power States Superintendent.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 23.— (By Examiner Staff Correspondent.) — "My quarrel with Mr. King is this, that he does not seem to be sincere in his handling of the unemployment problem," stated Rev. W. G. Martin, M.P.P., Brantford, addressing a very large Conservative gathering in the Davidson Arena, Campbellford, on Tuesday evening.

The meeting, which was enthusiastic to the extreme, was in support of Milton Maybee, the Conservative candidate for the riding of Northumberland, who addressed it as also did Major J. F. B. Belford, S. Sykes, superintendent of the Campbellford Cloth Company, and F. J. McArthur, M.L.A., who introduced the main speaker. G. A. Kingston occupied the chair.

Mr. Martin opened his address by extolling Mr. Maybee as being the right type of man for the government of to-day. The record of his past service was beyond criticism, as also was his personal character.

Majority of 20 Seats.

Of the situation of the county today, he said that the great wave that swept over the country at the 1911 election was about to start again, and that the defeat of the King government was inevitable, and quoted the statement that was made by the Hon. Mr. Bennett in his Toronto luncheon address on Tuesday, that the Conservative party would have at least a margin of over twenty-five seats in the house over all other parties. "The reason for this," the speaker said, "was because the Liberal party lacked a constructive policy." Referring to Mr. King's condemnation of Premier Ferguson's entry into federal politics he stated that there were many Liberal members of the provincial house working for their party to whom Mr. King had made no comment. And of Mr. King's comment regarding a government of Tory complexion and the desire of that party for a monopoly, Mr. Martin said. "We believe in monopoly, the greatest monopoly of progress and prosperity that this Dominion has ever seen, after the 28th of this month."

He also backed the Ontario Premier for this stand of "On Guard for Ontario," stating that he was going to see that the rights and vested interests of the people were safeguarded against their selling to private interests.

He pointed out that this was not only the Premier's desire but his duty, and continued to praise Mr.

TORY MEETING TO-NIGHT

(Examiner Correspondence)

LAKEFIELD, July 23.—Mrs. Howard Fallis, Mr. L. Macauley, M.P.P. and Mr. E. A. Peck, M.P. will be the speakers at a meeting held in the interests of the latter's candidature in the coming election. The meeting will be held on Wednesday evening in the town hall.

FERGUSON FLINGS STAB ON LOYALTY AT PREMIER KING

Says Dominion Leader Has No Room to Criticize Tory Chieftain.

RECALLS WARTIME POSITION

Foresees Great Victory as Canadians Tired of Tightening Their Belts.

(By Frank Flaherty, C. P. Staff Writer.)

HAMILTON, July 23. — "It ill becomes a man who spent the years of the war working in the United States to cast aspersions on the loyalty of men who never worked for anyone outside of Canada."

This was Premier G. Howard Ferguson's rejoinder to Premier W. L. Mackenzie King here last night in reply to statements of Mr. King which he claimed, reflected on the loyalty of himself and Hon. R. B. Bennett to the British Empire.

The increased British preference provided by the King government were described by Mr. Ferguson as "humbug intended to deceive the people."

In his "panic" Premier King had "given up following the Stars and stripes, and was going to get into the procession and follow the Union Jack.

Would Compare Record.

"Mr. King," said the Ontario Premier, "asks where Ferguson, the great patriot, stands on the issue of Empire trade. I challenge anyone to compare my record with Mackenzie King's and see where I have always stood, and where I stand today."

"I have lived all my life in Canada—I have always worked in Canada—I have never worked an hour for anyone outside of Canada. I have got that much of a start on Mackenzie King.

"When our fellows were over there in France and Flanders, taking all the risks, fighting for John Bull—this fellow was working for Rockefeller. When our fellows were getting $1.10 a day in mud and in blood and in suffering, he was getting almost $1.10 a minute writing a book in somebody's back parlor."

"I do not want to cast any reflections on anyone," Premier Ferguson stated, "but I resent it when a man like Mackenzie King casts reflections on my loyalty or my fidelity to the Empire."

"I look forward to one of the greatest sweeps we have ever experienced in Canada for many a long day," Mr. Ferguson said, speaking of election prospects. "The people of Canada are tired of being told to tighten up their belts."

HEENAN SCORES ONTARIO PREMIER

Ferguson Keeping Mum After Mistake on Immigration Charge.

REVIEWS GOV'T RECORD.

FORT FRANCES, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—"Ten-day silence" of Premier G. H. Ferguson of Ontario in face of exposition of his "groundless immigration charges", last night was characterised by Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, as "further proof of Mr. Ferguson's treacherous deception on this immigration question". Mr. Heenan is engaged in a final pre-election visit to reach section of his Kenora-Rainy River riding.

Speaking at Barwick and Stratton, the Minister said: "Ten days ago, Mr. Ferguson charged that Southern Europeans were being brought into Canada by the train load at public expense and that he had protested to Ottawa, since that time he has only referred to the subject to explain that he did not mean what he said—that he meant newcomers from the British Isles, and that he had protested to Britain's representative, not to the Dominion".

Mr. Heenan reviewed the Government record and referred to co-operation in the present election between prominent trades unionists and the Government party as evidence of the satisfaction with which workers of Canada view the Government's Labor record.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, July 23.— Corn prices went soaring yesterday to the highest point reached in many weeks. Purchasing of future deliveries of corn took on large proportions, with numerous traders who were short of corn to fill contracts becoming urgent buyers. Forecasts that suggested a renewal of extreme heat over the corn belt aroused fears of big crop damage, especially as corn growth is now at a critical stage, and there was also uneasiness on account of supplies of corn available at present being much more meagre than usual.

Corn Rises 1¾c to 3⅞c.

Closing quotations on corn were nervous at nearly the day's top level, 1¾c to 3⅞c a bushel higher than Monday's finish. Wheat, influenced by the action of corn, closed at ½c to ¾c net advance, with oats ½c to ¾c up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5c.

BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

EAST BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23 (C.P.) — Hogs, 600; holdovers 500; slow, steady to 5 lower; 200 lbs. down including pigs 10.25 to 10.35; part load 260 lbs. butchers, 9.35; packing sows steady, bulk 7.75.

Cattle, 175. Slow, generally steady, bulls strong. Few loads common to medium steers, 5.50 to 8.00; some good steers held around 9.00 or better; cows largely 4.75 to 5.50; cutter grades 2.50 to 4.50; medium bulls 5.00 to 6.00.

Calves, 150. Generally 50 to 1.00 lower; good to choice vealers 12.00; mostly 12.50; common to medium 7.50 to 10.50.

Sheep, 400. Steady; quality considered; no good lambs on sale; common kinds mostly 7.00; few up to 8.00. Fat ewes, 2.50 to 3.50; few 4.00.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, July 23. — Cheese was the only line to show any change on the Montreal Dairy and Produce Market yesterday. Butter, eggs, and potatoes remained steady.

The cheese market dropped following the recent advances. A lack of response by dealers in overseas countries at the recent price levels was given as reason for the decline. Quebec white cheese sold at a Cheese Board meeting in the Board of Trade here at 16 1-16c per pound, with No. 1 colored at 16¼c. Ontario cheese eased to 17c per pound. Receipts were 9,279 boxes.

Butter receipts were 450 boxes, and eggs 1,611 cases. Both these products held steady in quiet trading.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, July 23. — The wheat market found an incentive to advance from United States corn yesterday, and marked up gains of 1c to 1⅛c as the Southern corn belt took toll of heat damage amid soaring prices. Reported rust damage to Saskatchewan wheat crops also added to the bullish feeling.

Canadian wheat sold overnight for export was estimated not to exceed half a million bushels. It was believed, however, that a good business had been worked late on Monday, trade was fairly light yesterday.

Cash wheat was in good demand as spreads unchanged to ½c better, but stocks were hard to buy. Coarse grains recorded slight gains.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, July 23. — The live stock receipts at the Union stockyards yesterday were 1,044 cattle, 621 calves, 555 hogs, 1,051 sheep and lambs.

There were 1,400 stale cattle in addition to the fresh receipts at the opening of the market yesterday morning. The offering was heavy for a Tuesday and opening trade was dull, with prices on a few early sales steady at Monday's decline of 25c a cwt. There were very few choice cattle and these were not moving, up to 11 o'clock. Medium steers sold from 7 to 7¾ cents a pound, with plain butcher cattle down to 6 cents. Good butcher cows are bringing 6¾ cents a pound. Butcher bulls are scarce and about steady to a shade easier at 4½ to 5¼ cents.

The calf market is weak with prices one dollar a hundred weight lower than Mondays decline. Good to choice calves are selling at 9 to 9½ cents with commons downward to 5 cents a pound.

The lamb market is unsettled with few sales up to 11 o'clock and bids a quarter lower than yesterday on the bulk. Prospects are that good ewe and wether lambs will settle at 7½ to 11 cents a pound. Sheep are a slow trade at 5 to 5¼ cents a pound for the best.

The hog market was unsettled up to 11 o'clock with bids 50 cents a cwt. lower than yesterday at 11¼ cents a pound for bacons f.o.b. and 12¼ cents w.o.c.

Scenes From Smart London Wedding

The recent wedding of the Earl of Ava and Miss Maureen Guinness at St. Margaret's, Westminster, was not only one of the smartest and prettiest of the current London season but also is of interest to Canadians since the groom, being the son and heir of the present Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, is the grandson of Canada's third governor-general, the late Lord Dufferin, who was here from 1872 to 1878. The bride is the daughter of Hon. Ernest and Mrs. Guinness and a niece of the present Earl of Iveagh, head of the Dublin brewing firm of Guinness, a connection with Miss Maureen signalized by naming her pet bull-dog "Mr. Bung the Brewer." The illustration shows the bridal couple and bridesmaids leaving St. Margaret's after the wedding ceremony.

DUNNING KNOWS BRITISH BLOOD IS STILL THICKER THAN WATER BUILD EMPIRE ON CONFIDENCE

THE outstanding personality in this election is the English immigrant boy of a few years ago, now the Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, whose first national budget is the great issue of this election.

Every drop of British blood in the people of Canada should pulsate with new vigor and warmth to the romantic career and endeavor of Mr. Dunning.

He offers to every man and woman of this Dominion the opportunity of full partnership in his Empire-building enterprise of extending to Britain Canadian trade estimated at $250,000,000 to $300,000,000, which has been going to the United States.

IF YOU VOTE FOR DUFFUS HERE IN PETERBORO, YOU THEREBY VOTE FOR DUNNING AND HIS "MAY DAY" BUDGET.

This reaching out for greater trade with Britain is the substance of the Liberal fiscal policy which has been adapted to the new conditions resulting from the adverse action of the United States in closing their doors against Canadian agricultural and dairy products.

Canada must look elsewhere for new purchasers of the surplus goods which we must sell.

And in this commercial emergency, Hon. Mr. Dunning, the Leicestershire man, born at Croft in that English county in 1885, turns toward England with a new trade program which has been hailed with delight in Great Britain and throughout the Empire.

Only the Hon. R. B. Bennett, present leader of the Conservative party, opposes it. Three Conservative members deserted him in the House of Commons and voted with the Liberals.

The Dunning Budget, for example, while safeguarding the iron and steel industry in Canada, extends to Great Britain substantial trade favors in this industry and in some other branches, also.

These are goods the Hon. Chas. A. Dunning knows can be advantageously exchanged for Canada's produce, especially the Western wheat crop.

The Budget Maker.

DATES IN MR. DUNNING'S CAREER

Born in 1885 at Croft, Leicestershire, England.

At the age of eleven—Left school to go to work as an office boy for a patent attorney.

At twelve—Became an apprentice in an industrial plant.

At fifteen—Strained his heart in a swimming race, being pronounced a permanent invalid.

At seventeen—Came to Canada with sufficient money to pay his railway fare to Yorkton, Sask.

At eighteen—Was discharged by a Saskatchewan farmer, his first employer, as unfit for farm work.

At nineteen—Took up a homestead of 160 acres at Beaverdale, Sask.; bought a yoke of oxen, built a sod shack and pioneered.

At twenty-five—Attended the first annual convention of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, making a speech which resulted in his election to the directorate.

At twenty-six—Was made vice-president of the S.G.G.A., and began the organization of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company.

From twenty-six to thirty-one — Built up the Saskatchewan Co-operative into the greatest single grain marketing company in the world.

At twenty-eight—Appointed Royal Commissioner to investigate questions of agricultural credits and grain marketing in Europe; also member of the Canadian Council of Agriculture.

At thirty-one—Appointed Provincial Treasurer of Saskatchewan.

At thirty-two—Chairman of the Saskatchewan Victory Loan Committee, 1917-18-19. Took over the portfolio of railways in addition to that of finance.

At thirty-three—Portfolio of telephones added.

At thirty-four—Portfolio of agriculture added.

At thirty-seven—Premier of Saskatchewan.

At forty-one—Minister of Railways and Canals at Ottawa.

At forty-four—Minister of Finance.

Remember this point, and it is everything in this election, if you want to help Canada and Britain with the same stroke, if you wish to be a partner in Mr. Dunning's great enterprise of Empire trading and Empire building, vote for Dunning on July 28 by voting for J. J. Duffus, the Liberal candidate.

Hon. Mr. Bennett will try to make you believe that the Mother Country does not appreciate the Empire sentiment in the Dunning Budget.

But, BRITISH BLOOD IS STILL THICKER THAN WATER, and Dunning, the Leicestershire boy, now a Canadian farmer and Empire statesman, surely knows the British heart and its responses better than Bennett, the corporation lawyer and multi-millionaire, whose wealth must have dried up whatever sentiment he may have had.

The Hon. R. B. Bennett, undertaking the task of leading the Conservative party, not only does not understand the heart of Britain but he does not even appreciate the sentiment of many Conservatives who are declining to follow him along the path he has taken in this election.

DO YOU SUBSCRIBE TO THIS?

Hon. Mr. Bennett's cynical criticism is:—Englishmen will buy only where they get the best price."

Is such an attitude and opinion likely to build up that confidence within the Empire, that spiritual brotherhood of British nations upon which the future trade within the Empire may be firmly established?

Is that the spirit in which the Canadian people wish to be represented at the great Empire Economic Conference in London this fall?

That is what you will vote for if you mark your ballot for Edward A. Peck and the Hon. R. B. Bennett on July 28.

Has Mr. Bennett no finer conception of Great Britain in her relations with the British Dominions than as John Bull a sort of horse-trader haggling for the last farthing's advantage.

SHE HAS NOT SO TREATED HER DEBTOR ALLIES OF THE WAR? WILL SHE SHOW LESS AFFECTION FOR HER KITH AND KIN IN CANADA AND AUSTRALIA AT A TIME WHEN A NEW EMPIRE OF TRADE AND COMMERCE, SUCH AS MR. COCKSHUTT, THE FORMER CONSERVATIVE MEMBER FROM BRANTFORD, SUGGESTED UPON HIS RECENT RETURN FROM ENGLAND.

No wonder Conservatives are declaring their inability to follow Mr. Bennett in his plan of hard and fast dealing within the Empire, holding out for his bond. No wonder they find Hon. Mr. Dunning's confidence-building Budget more in keeping with their ideals.

THE ISSUE IS CLEAR-CUT

This is the issue to be decided next Monday. Mr. Bennett has made it clear. Some of his supporters have spoken of Canadian trade advantages as "weapons" to be used at the Imperial Economic Conference.

Hon. Mr. Dunning has already struck the keynote of the forthcoming conference, and Ramsay MacDonad, Britain's Labor Prime Minister, other British statesmen and the great sister Dominions have all praised the Dunning plan. A keynote of faith!

Shall the Canadian electorate do less?

Will you?

MR. DUNNING INVITES YOU TO TRUST THE PEOPLE OF BRITAIN AND OF THE BRITISH DOMINIONS.

Just as they must trust us at the conference table in London.

Faith and confidence in our own British common wealth of nations will be the enduring bonds of the Empire which the Hon. Mr. Dunning asks you to endorse with your vote.

YOU DUTY IS TO VOTE.

There is no excuse except absence from the riding—and it must be admitted that holiday schedules will interfere to some extent—why the electors of this district should not discharge their responsibility next Monday.

It is the privilege and the duty of every British subject who is eligible to vote to express his or her opinion on the issues of the day and on the question of which party should have charge of the reins of government in this country for the next four or five years.

It is a duty that should be faced, a duty that should not be entrusted to others, a duty the discharge of which means much to the individual as well as much to the general welfare of Canada.

All the elaborate and expensive machinery necessary for an accurate and complete sounding of public opinion has been provided, a small army of election officials and members of political organizations have toiled for weeks to make the task of the voter an easy one, and surely it is not too much to ask that those for whom so much has been done should in their own interest make use of their franchise next Monday.

Vote—that is your responsibility as a Canadian citizen.

NO LACK OF CANDIDATES.

With the official nomination proceedings completed on Monday, the final lists show that there will be a battle in 243 out of the 245 constituencies in the Dominion.

Not a member of either of the old parties had the good fortune to be returned without a contest for singularly enough the only two acclammations have been won by Mr. Gardiner, the leader of the Progressive party, and the fiery Henri Bourassa, one-time chieftain of the Nationalist party and now classed as an Independent.

There is no dearth of candidates.

For the 243 seats in which elections will be held 545 aspirants for parliamentary honors are in the field, with the Conservatives leading with nine more candidates than the Government, although the latter have fourteen more in the field than they had in 1926.

In addition to the regular candidates, there are straight Progressives, Liberal-Progressives, Independents, Labor, Communist, United Farmers of Alberta, United Farmers of Saskatchewan and candidates bearing still other labels, while the number of women in the field has increased to ten, of which only Miss Agnes MacPhail and possibly Mrs. Kennedy are conceded much chance of victory.

A MARKET TO DEVELOP.

The Philadelphia Record has discovered what was pointed out in these columns some time ago that in the tourist trade Canadian merchants have a unique opportunity to increase their sales of such articles as can be sold cheaper in this country than they can be in the United States.

"Many articles made in Europe," says the Record, "including silks, laces, linens, cutlery and chinaware, are sold in Canada at less than they are sold here because they come into Canada under duties 40 to 80 per cent. lower than the American imports."

Last year 4,500,000 permits were issued to automobiles to cross in Canada. They carried 15,000,000 tourists. By train and boat 1,400,000 more crossed.

If each of these, or half of them, or one-tenth of them, should avail themselves of the chance to bring back $100 worth of goods duty free the effect on trade here would be substantial.

The Records points out a condition of which Canadian merchants should more generally avail themselves.

Thousands of tourists from a profitable market to be developed by systematic advertising and display of those articles that can be sold in this country at a lower price than in the neighboring Republic.

There is a rich field to be exploited if our merchants will arise to the occasion.

THE SCHOOL BANK.

In an article on the school bank system the Hamilton Spectator points out that the important feature is not the amount of money the pupils have on deposit but the idea of the need of thriftiness which is being inculcated into the youngsters.

That, of course, is the most desirable part about the system of school savings, and its educational value in these days when little folks seem to have not the least idea of the value of money, regarding it merely as something to be spent, cannot be denied.

The present age indeed seems to have lost completely the idea of thrift, the policy of putting a little away for a rainy day.

Families live up to the last cent of their income—many indeed beyond that point—and in times of stress and depression there are no reserves with which to meet the emergency.

The school bank system offers a real opportunity to teach the new generation that money is not made for the sole purpose of being spent, that it is wisdom to save at least a portion of what one obtains, that thrift in youth brings comfort and contentment in the later years of life.

In the short time the bank has been in operation in Peterborough's schools a very fine showing has been made, and both the number of depositors and the total of deposits are decidedly satisfactory.

THE "MURDER MAP."

The City Club of New York has put on the cover of its Bulletin for July the most appalling of maps. It shows the city of New York by districts in outline and in each district a deep black square shadow with a penumbra of grey. The black square represents graphically the relative number of street accidents happening to children at play per 1,000 of school children, the larger grey squares representing the accidents to children from all causes, the larger part of both groups being children under 10 years of age. The caption which the map carries is not warranted in its suggestion of intentional slaughter of these innocents at play; but the excuse for using it is that "it is difficult to find a more appropriate designation for a situation where small children are in danger of life and limb at play."

You can't indict a whole community of six or seven millions, but the responsibility for most of these accidents and deaths rests after all upon the "grown-ups"; for children must play and should have places in which to play in reasonable safety. The map is a graphic accusation of the people for not adequately providing such places. The highest number of accidents per thousand school children occur in a district in which the playgound area is relatively small and the facilities are utterly inadequate, while by comparison in another area, where the playground space is more nearly adequate, the accidents are relatively few. Other factors doubtless enter, but there is clear evidence that, in general, more playgrounds do tend to decrease child accidents.

The Board of Estimate is not blamed for the lack of play spaces. It has granted whatever sums have been officially requested. It "cannot go ahead of public opinion." Ultimately the citizens must bear the responsibility. If any citizen going to and fro in the protected streets has doubt of the need of more play spaces, he should visit certain districts of the city at this season and see for himself in what peril children driven by the play instinct live. He will then become an ardent supporter of Controller Berry's plans for more play spaces.

The City Club's advice is: "Keep the children off the streets." But that will be impossible in the summer months if there are no playgrounds near at hand. The English slogan some years ago was "Three acres of playground for every school." The park formula recommended for the thickly populated parts of New York is "a square block of park for every sixteen blocks." The playground formula should be as generous.—New York Times.

SMOLDERING PUNK.

The World's Biggest Powder Magazine is the epithet applied to India by Mr. Lothrop Stoddard. His epithet may be justified, although we are inclined to doubt it. We recall that Mr. Lothrop Stoddard is the author of a book called "The Rising Tide of Color Against White World Supremacy," and the title enables us to classify him as an alarmist. It is true that the reaction of the press of India to the report of the Simon Investigation Commission was not at all favorable; but it is equally true that there are forces working in India which make for co-operation and stability. A despatch from London lifts the veil slightly for us and reveals the viceroy busily negotiating with members of the legislature, with the intent of ending the political struggle between the Governmen of India and Gandhi and his adherents. There are explosive elements in India, as there are wherever dissatisfaction exists, but one would not call a castle, which had a few kegs of powder in its cellars for emergencies, a powder magazine. More impartial observers than Mr. Stoddard have discerned the powder in India, and the smoldering punk which may some day reach the explosives. Hence the intense political activity in India. Lovers of India are endeavoring to stamp the smolder out.

A somewhat surprising amount of interest is taken in India and its problems in this city. Mother India was for a long time the most popular non-fiction book in the public library and it is still in demand. Christ of the Indian Road is a favorite with Hamiltonians, while it is almost impossible to secure The Story of Oriental Philosophy, there is such a long waiting list. When Mr. Charles F. Andrews visited this part of Canada towards the end of last year keen interest was displayed in his personality, though Mr. Andrews was not as well known to America as he is now—so well known indeed that the Literary Digest gives prominence to an article on this "lay missionary" taken from The Christian Advocate. In the same issue some attention is given to the character of Lord Irwin, Viceroy of India. Both are, it seems, Anglicans. Lord Irwin is a high churchman. Mr. Andrews used to be a priest of the Church of England. One of Lord Irwin's qualifications for the position of Viceroy was his sympathy with Indian mysticism. Of Mr. Andrews, Gandhi has said, "India has no servant more devoted, more sincere and more hard working." The effort of men like these to understand India and work for her will do more to stamp out the smoldering train leading to the powder than aircraft and bombs. At this distance it is not easy to believe that India is as impatient for reforms as Gandhi makes out. There is something incongruous in the slow and patient and philosophical east complaining of the hustling and bustling west that it does not hustle quickly enough.—Hamilton Spectator.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Vote as you like, but vote. And remember the election takes place on Monday next, July 28th.

As the election draws nearer the campaign speeches grow stronger. But it won't be long now.

Mr. Gardiner is the only leader who does not predict that he will be Prime Minister after next Monday. And incidentally he is also the only leader who is already a member of the new Parliament.

So far at least neither party has blamed the other for the failure of a Canadian marksman to win the King's Prize.

One conclusion is justified after listening to radio broadcasts during the campaign. Canadian audiences need instruction on how to sing the National Anthem.

It is evident that the residents of Parkhill Road are in favor of bigger and better paving.

CANADA FIRST

To The Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—I have just read Mr. J. H. Burnham's letter in Friday's Examiner and lest no reply to his personal question might be construed as unfriendly, let me say that I unhesitatingly follow the Hon. R. B. Bennett inasmuch as I expect that he and his party will represent this Dominion at the Empire Conference in London next September. We send our representatives to represent Canada first and not John Bull who, while agreeing to a unanimous demand from all of his Dominions and dependencies, will largely control the situation.

You, Mr. Burnham, are a past master at splitting hairs and you know that Mr. Bennett and his followers are as loyal as Premier King and his party—if as you say, you are not responsible for the mess you are making of your political career, who is?

You have ability as a lecturer and debater, and the Grits are just now in dire need, willing to accept your help while laughing up their sleeves. Your political life is at the "parting of the ways," be careful lest you have not time for redemption.

Yours very truly,
J. F. Lillicrap.

What To-day Means To You.

"LEO."

If July 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 1 p.m. to midnight. The danger periods are from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Influences on this date quite pass by the material world, and only affect spiritual life and thinking. A time of introspection, and of receptivity to words or thoughts from a higher plane. Some of life's purifying truths will filter through to your consciousness. An unusual calmness and happiness.

The child born on this July 23 will have both ambition and endurance, and will rise through its own efforts and personal merit. It will be best adapted for general and practical work, where steady application and industry are required. It could do well in scientific research, or following agricultural pursuits.

You are a clever man or woman, but not, in the ordinary sense of the word, an extremely intellectual one. There is nothing "high brow" about you, and you never try to appear learned. You know a few things very well, and usually can go your teachers one better in those subjects in which you are interested.

You are capable of doing original thinking and work, and it is here that you shine. You may have a one-track mind, but at least a part of the track is made up of your own material (individual ideas and thoughts.)

No one can make you do things slovenly, or with any degree of speed. Your speedometer is set at a low ratiom and there it will remain—it is your maximum speed.

Your work, your home and your love of nature are the three vital things in your life. Persons, in general, do not interest you very much, and you have no desire for a large coterie of friends. You will permit yourself to be dragged into society only to please someone else, or for business reasons.

You are very blunt in speech, but there is nothing coarse or unkind in your nature. You improve with acquaintance. You are trusted, highly respected and truly liked by those who know you well.

No one who loves babies and animals as you do, can be bad. Your life will not be filled with regrets.

HAVANA'S BUILDING PLAN BIG.

Havana, Cuba, is preparing plans for public buildings which will cost at least $10,000,000. They will include a new Palace of Justice, a Palace of International Law, a national theatre and a public library. Work on the Palace of Justice, which will be on the present site of the jail and barracks at the foot of the Prado, soon will be started. The Palace of International Law will be opposite. This building will be erected by the nations belonging to the Pan American Union, but the Cuban government will have actual charge of the operations. It will contain a chamber for the League of Nations.

Kapok exported from Java last year had a total weight of 6,074 tons.

THE GRINGO PRIVATEER

By PETER B. KYNE

CHAPTER 22.

"When is Mr. Burney leaving for El Cajon Bonita?"

The king thought he detected a slight difficulty in his daughter's speech, but elected not to comment on his discovery.

"To-morrow after luncheon," he replied.

"Well," the princess pursued thoughtfully, "in view of the fact that he's your general manager, it would be no more than decent of you to invite him up for dinner to-night."

"But my dear, aren't you in charge of the social department of the company?"

"I can't invite him up," the girl faltered. "I insulted him the last time he called to see you. You'll have to invite him up, Dad!"

"I hate to commit a social error," the king protested. "Anyhow, why do I have to invite him up? He doesn't expect it of me. He's just one of my hired men. And why should I risk his refusal to accept—for a very sound reason? I'd love to have him up, of course, but why trample on the man's pride?"

Here was an unanswerable argument and the princess knew it. "I—I suppose I'll have to apologize to him," she suggested. "I wonder if he'll forgive me?"

"Undoubtedly," boomed His Majesty, and immediately repaired to the veranda, where the spasmodic quiverings of his somewhat plump abdomen would not indicate to his daughter the mirth that clamored for expression. In a few minutes Muriel joined him.

"He'll not come," she informed the king. "He says he's liable to be killed to-morrow so he must make his will to-night and write some letters."

"You apologized, of course?"

"No, I did not. I thought he'd understand when I telephoned him an invitation to dinner, that that constituted an apology."

"What did he say?"

"He was brutal. He told me sweetly that he accepted my apology. I loathe him."

"Well, honey, I guess he understood you all right. Still I fail to see where you have any kick coming. You expected him to understand that your invitation was tantamount to an apology, he so understood it and, realizing you would want some slight hint that he understood, the boy was decent enough to give it to you. And now you loathe him for it." His Majesty shook his head sadly. "Women certainly beat my time.

Suddenly he turned, half angrily, upon his daughter. "What do you mean by displaying such a warm personal interest in my general manager?" he demanded. "Officially, you're not supposed to know he exists. Seems to me you're in grave danger of stepping out of your social class. Now, you listen to your old man, because he's got something mighty pointed to say to you. Ken Burney has knocked you clear off the Christmas tree. Killer, cowboy, or cavalier, you're for him all the way, and it's got to stop. You get him out of your head, my dear. Kid yourself all you want to, but never try to kid your old man. Forget Ken Burney. This is an order and I expect you to obey it."

"You're horrible," the girl charged with spirit. "As a father you're getting to be thoroughly impossible. Do you realize that the only thing about Mr. Burney that renders him obnoxious is the result of your scheming, your rapacity, your heartlessness?"

"I admit he's got his fine points, but—he won't do for a son-in-law."

"Suppose," the girl queried with quiet fury, "he should surprise you some day by asking me to marry him?"

"I'd hire him killed," the king replied without hesitation.

The princess leveled an accusing finger at her sire. "What you don't know about cows just isn't worth knowing, Dad," she charged, and, strangely, her momentary anger had evaporated, "but what you don't know about some other things would fill a book. Now, you listen to me, old timer. Some day Ken Burney's going to ask me to marry him, and when he does, provided his hands are not stained with human blood, I'm going to accept him and marry him and not even invite you to give the bride away."

"You do that," her father replied coldly, "and you'll certainly take a course in being a cow-boy's wife. I'll disinherit you."

"I don't believe you will, but if you should insist upon it, you'll certainly have a grand excuse for doing it, Dad."

She was flesh of his flesh, blood of his blood, bone of his bone, and he knew she meant it. "Well," he retorted, "we'll cross that bridge when we come to it." His bluff had failed.

A little later he strolled down to the ranch office and found Ken Burney slowly pecking out a letter on the typewriter. The king handed his new general manager one of his famous cigars, and sat down.

"I've been thinking this El Cajon Bonita deal over, Mr. Burney," he began in a most paternal tone, "and I've come to the conclusion that the game isn't worth the candle. I can't risk sacrificing your life and the lives of my cowboys. My conscience would trouble me the remainder of my days. So forget this El Cajon Bonita snarl and Martin Bruce and Miguel Gallegos."

"It's too late to give up the enterprise now, sir."

"The devil it is. Young man, it's never too late to obey an order of mine. I forbid the expedition."

"But you entered into a verbal contract with me. I agreed, in good faith, to eliminate your enemies and for the same you agreed to certain covenants—"

"Yes, I know I did," the king interrupted, "and don't you go hinting that I'm running out on my contract. I'll perform as I said I would, but you forget your end of the deal."

Ken Burney sat back and stared at his Boss. "Will Your Majesty in words of one syllable, kindly explain what the devil has run up his back?"

"It's Muriel. She's raising such a riot with me about suborning murder, etceters and more etcetera, that I'm in danger of getting in Dutch with my own daughter. I can afford anything but that."

"Is she afraid I'll get killed or that I will kill somebody?"

"Both."

"Let her continue to think so. What I do cannot possibly be any of her business. But I wouldn't fool you, boss. I wouldn't have you worried. Take it from me—accept my word of honor—that I'm not going to get killed nor am I, personally, going to kill anybody, save in self-defense. My plans do not call for work as coarse as that."

"But a man's plans may get upset. "You're going down there to-morrow—"

"And I'm going armed. If I'm attached that part of Mexico will date history from the moment I'm fired upon. I'm going prepared to fight if I have to, but—I don't think I'll have to. And I can always change my plans. I can retreat if I want to or I can fight. I'll choose the least dangerous plan. So do not worry. I want to earn the fee you promised me. You say you'll give it to me anyhow, but unless I give value I may not accept it. And, by James, Your Majesty, I need the money; I've just got to have it."

"Why?"

"Because I want to be my own man and get married and settle down—"

"Settle down where, you young idiot?" roared the king.

"On my father's ranch at Tres Pinos, California."

The king bit savagely into his cigar. "Got the young lady picked out already, Ken?"

"Yes, sir. I've had her picked out for more than a year. My reduced circumstances have, of course, inhibited my plans—"

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

MORE TIME TO WASTE.

The trip across the Atlantic that once required months in the making, can be done by a liner under five days.

The Graf Zeppelin requires half that time. Lindbergh, it will be remembered, made it in thirty-three and a half hours.

Prairie schooners were months on their way from the Middle West to the Pacific Coast.

Four days is the time needed for the journey by an express train.

An airplaine can do it in about fifteen hours.

It was not so long ago that the settlers of this country not only had to clear the forests from the lands they intended to use as farms, but had to raise all their own food or starve.

Yet many of them had time for reading and reflection.

The people of three or four generations ago had many things to do which are to-day done for us, but they managed to take a more active part in the affairs of the country than most people do now, and it was from them that the age of invention and progress sprung.

What we have to-day is more time to waste than we used to have, and too many people are busy wasting it.

I believe in amusement and recreation. I believe that 'speakies" and theatres and athletic contests are all useful in affording a means of rest that is more stimulating than lying in a field and looking at the sky.

But if all this time that has been saved is to be squandered in idle pursuits, those who found a way to save it will have labored in vain.

When Benjamin Franklin started his experiments with electricity he had to build all his own apparatus and prove his own theories.

Now the electrical engineer can get any sort of apparatus he wants, and there are many theories which have already been proven.

I am sure Franklin, were he living to-day, would have made use of all the time saved by him past research and experiment.

But I doubt if many people are doing so now.

If there is anything at all wrong with the people of this nation it is the habit of loafing that invention has made possible.

That habit, if allowed to grow, will destroy all progress.

If you are addicted to it yourself, think it over, and perhaps you will make better use of the time that generations now gone from the earth have saved for you.

If you don't, you will have small excuse for the failure in life to which you will be pretty surely destined by a too-easy way of living.

Don't put too much dependence on those who went their way before you were born.

NEW AIR MAIL SERVICE EDMONTON TO FORT M'MURRAY

Permission has been granted the Commercial Air-Ways Limited of Edmonton, Alberta, to convey such mail as is offered by the public, for carriage by air from Edmonton to Fort McMurray, Alberta, provided the senders assume all risk.

The requirements are:

1. "By Air—Edmonton to Fort McMurray," to be prominently written on the address side of letters.

2. The usual Canadian postage to be affixed on the address side.

3. A special aerial sticker sold by the company or its agents representing a charge of 10 cents per ounce, to be placed on the reverse side in payment of the special charge for transmission by aerial service which has been fixed by those making the flight.

The Mother-in-law Joke

"Oh, hello," the Wolf greeted the transmitter with impatience. "Hello. Yeah. No. Not in. Don't know when he'll be back. Who? Oh, yes. Gladys. Yeah, I'll tell him." He slammed up the receiver. "Gladys! Hey, listen, how do you get that way? All I seem to do around this place is answer women that want to talk to you. I'm sick of it. Is Peter in? This is Gladys. This is Peggy. This is Clara Bow! I can't understand it, with a pan like you've got."

"Did I," asked Peter, "understand you to say pan? Are you criticizing my face?"

"Yeah, Pan," answered Wolf.

Peter continued his music, as the phone rang again.

"Bill felt so dizzy he had to go home."

"Is that so? Vertigo?"

"Home, I said."

NICKEL STAGES LIGHT ADVANCE

Activity in Waite-Ackerman Feature in To-day's Session on Standard.

OILS HOLD UP WELL.

TORONTO, Ont., July 23.—Price changes either way were not large on Standard exchange, with the exception of Waite Ackerman, which stock soared 40 points throughout the early session, selling at noon at $3.05, as compared with $2.65 at the close yesterday. While several reasons are given for the stock's advance of the past few sessions, it is generally believed that a pool is accumulating the stock.

International Nickel was 75 higher at noon, at $25¼, while Noranda was up 20 at $23½. Lindsleys did little, Sudbury Basin off 5, and the rest unchanged. Base metals was also off 5. Albana held unchanged, Barry Hollinger and Granada Rouyn were stationary.

In the higher priced golds, McIntyre was 10 lower at $18.05, while Teck Hughes was up 5, and Hollingers showed no change. The lower-priced section was likewise featureless, Wright Hargreaves and Kirkland Lake unchanged and Howey off 1, at 45.

Oils held up well, Ajax the only one to lose, off 3, at 1.77, in light volume. Home and Dalhousie each went up 5, Nordon gained 3, and Acme returned to its previous closing price, 3, After having scored a 1-point gain earlier in the day.

Winnipeg Wheat Prices Continue To Advance

WINNIPEG, Man., July 23.—(By the Canadian Press)—Wheat prices continued their upward movement of Tuesday with the opening of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to-day when reports of a fair overnight export business came to stimulate purchases. Offerings were light and fractional initial gains were marked up by all three futures.

BULL FORCES CONTINUE TO LEAD ADVANCE

But General Public Shows No Inclination to Take Part in Trading.

ONLY MODERATE PICK-UP.

Prices Wave Consistently at Times as Movement Attracts Profit-taking.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 23.—(CP)—Having in effect publicly committed themselves to advancing prices, the bull forces applied strong arm methods to the stock market today.

An impressive list of important stocks was bid up 4 points or more, and timid shorts hurried to cover at costly levels. There was no inclination on the part of the general public, however to rush into the market. Commission houses reported only a moderate pickup in business.

The bull movement attracted considerable profit taking, and prices wavered considerably at times. For a time during the morning and again in the afternoon, recessions of a point or so from the highest were common. Strenuous operations for the advance in such pool favorites as Standard of N. J., and Radio Keith appeared to meet some opposition, for advances of only a point or less were achieved. General Motors was pushed up substantially more than a point, a fair move for that stock.

Shares making extreme gains of about 4 included U. S. Steel, American Telephone, American Can, Vanadium and Dupont, Radio, General Electric, and Electric Auto Lite gained 2 or so. High flyers were Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical, Columbian Carbon and Peoples Gas, up 6 to 10.

Credit eased. Call loans were renewed at 2 per cent, no funds were available in the outside market as low as 1 per cent. Shorter term money also showed an easier tendency. Further exports of gold were without influence.

ANGERED FATHER BLOWS UP HOME

Two Children Killed and Mother Injured in Pennsylvania Tragedy.

DIFFERED WITH WIFE.

BARNESBORO, Penn., July 23 (C.P.)—Two children were killed and their mother injured early to-day in the explosion of a charge of dynamite believed set by the father of the children as a result of differences with his wife.

The explosion demolished the front of the home in which Mrs. K. Terry Langham and her four children were living at Emigh Run, near here, after separating from Langham. Two of the children escaped injury. Those killed were a boy, one year old, and a girl, five years old.

ARTICLE LXXVI.

Q.—How does the rise and fall in the price of money affect bond prices?

A.—Money rates to a great extent directly affect bond prices. Money rates are determined by the law of supply and demand. When money is scarce interest rates increase because more people want to borrow money than there are people who want to lend it. Conversely when the supply of money is plentiful interest rates drop. When interest rates are low there is an incentive on the part of the investor to borrow money at a low rate and invest in securities with a higher yield. This results in a demand for securities which increases the price of such. When interest rates are high the investor can not afford to borrow money to buy securities with a higher yield. This increases the supply of securities relative to the demand, and the price of such drops.

A graph showing money rates and security yield over the past few years will show the close relationship between the two—the fluctuations in the price of money usually preceding the fluctuations in the yield of securities.

DISASTER HALTS HINDENBURG TOUR

President Returns to Berlin After Attending Coblenz Mourning Services.

OVER 70 DROWNED.

COBLENZ, Germany, July 23. — (C.P.)—President Von Hindenburg's triumphal progress to the liberated Rhineland was tragically cut short by the collapse of a rickety pontoon bridge over the Moselle River last night in which between 35 and 50 persons lost their lives.

The President to-day decided to give up the remainder of his tour which had been in honor of the liberation of the Rhineland from allied occupation and to return to Berlin after attending mourning services in Coblenz.

Mourning bells tolled in Coblenz today in contrast with yesterday's joyful peals. Germany's aged President, who learned of the disaster from his secretary while in his sleeping car at the Coblenz station, was with difficulty persuaded not to proceed at once to the scene of the disaster. He kept awake until the early hours of the morning in his anxiety for further details.

At eleven o'clock this morning the President attended a special Town Council meeting at which Oberburgomaster Russell imparted the news that 35 persons of both sexes had been drowned and that higher casualties were feared.

Colombia's coal resources are now estimated at 29,500,000,000 tons.

PRICE CHANGES REMAIN SMALL

Public Interest Continues at Low Ebb During To-day's Trading.

FOLLOW WALL STREET.

TORONTO, Ont., July 23. (C.P.)—The market on Toronto Stock Exchange went through another uninteresting session to-day. The outlook remains unchanged and public interest is at a low ebb. Price changes are for small fractions and at most are but a reflection of daily interest is at a low ebb. Price changes are for small fractions and at most are but a reflection of daily sentiment in Wall Street.

Leaders were firm this morning. Nickel picked up the major part of a point to sell above 25, Brazilian swung up close to 40 and Ford of Canada was not far short of yesterday's high and above last night's close. Page Hersey Tubes sold at 91 up ¼ point, Bell Telephone, Walkers, Massey-Harris, Cockshutt Plow, held up well.

Oils did not respond to favorable news of a reduction of crude oil output in United States for week July 19, and a decline in gasoline stocks. The group was sluggish. Price changes were fractional and mixed.

OBITUARY

MARY NUGENT ROBINSON.

LIFFORD LINE, July 23.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—There passed away at Yelverton at the home of her daughter Mrs. Richard Wright, a very old and respected citizen of this locality in the person of Mrs. Mary Robinson.

In June she suffered from a stroke which affected her left side. From this time her health gradually failed until she passed away at 1 o'clock Thursday morning.

Deceased reached the ripe age of eighty-six years. Her husband, William Robinson, predeceased her six years ago. They were among the early pioneers who could relate interesting facts of long ago. Mrs. Robinson's maiden name was Mary Nugent.

An exceptionally large funeral took place from Richard Wright's residence, where deceased had made her home of late years. Interment took place at Janetville cemetry. Rev. Scott of Bethany, pastor of Yelverton United church, took charge of the services at the home and graveside.

Three sons, two of which live in the west and were unable to attend their mother's funeral, and one daughter, Mrs. Wright, are left to mourn the loss of a loving parent.

The pallbearers were Y. W. Robinson, W. Robinson, Jas. Shea, Percy Nugent, Robt Nugent, Jas. Robinson.

John Hayes Lands 14½ Pound Muskie

John Hayes of this city must have thought that that 60-ton whale had got loose and run afoul his hook the other day when he was fishing for bass with a single-hook June bug and a steel pole in Kent Creek off the Otonabee river. At any rate something grabbed his hook and it didn't take him long to decide that they didn't grow bass as husky as the fish he was dealing with. After a long fight with his pole and line, altogether too light for the job, he landed a fourteen-and-a-half pound muskie Believe it or not!

CECIL HAMILTON IS FOUND GUILTY

Judgment Deferred on Listowel Lawyer in False Pretense Case.

STRATFORD, Ont., July 23 (C.P.). — J. Cecil Hamilton, prominent Listowel lawyer, was this morning found guilty of false pretences by Judge Clement of Kitchener as a result of his operations as the Listowel agent of the Toronto real estate firm of Hubbs & Hubbs.

Sentence was not passed this morning as A. S. Robertson, K.C., chief defence counsel, announced that he wished to call two witnesses who were well acquainted with the accused to give evidence before it is passed.

Mr. Robertson will also communicate with the Chief Justice of Ontario in an effort to make arrangements for Hamilton pending the decision of the Appeal Court on the conviction.

Judge Clement accordingly adjourned court until 2.30 this afternoon.

Hamilton's trial has been in progress with various adjournments since May 13. On two previous charges he was found not guilty. The two charges on which judgment was handed down to-day were preferred by David Carson of Listowel.

One involved the sum of $1,200 and the other $80.00. It was on the former charge that he was found guilty. On the $80.00 charge he was found not guilty.

BELIEVED POOL OPERATING IN THE WAITE-ACKERMAN STOCK

Unexpected Strength In Issue Lately Cause of Much Speculation on Street.

G.S.L. REPORT FAVORABLE.

TORONTO, July 23. (Special to Examiner.)—The unusual strength in Waite Ackerman Montgomery, which has carried the stock over $3 in the course of a few day's trading, is being attributed to various causes down the street, some say short covering is responsible, while others are of the opinion recent developments at the property have excited new interest in the stock. However, the most logical conclusion, in view of present depressed base metal prices and the fact shipments from the property to Noranda Smelter have been curtailed, seems to be that a pool is operating in te stock, and rumors heard in mining circles appear to support this.

Several factors tend to make an operation of this sort in Waite Ackerman a relatively simple proposition, Noranda is known to hold at least 81 per cent of the stock and is rumored to have more some quarters maintaining 92 per cent would be a closer figure. Other interests have good sized blocks, and it has been estimated that less than 100,000 shares of 2,000,000 share capitalization is in the hands of the public. As most of this was picked up at prices considerably higher than current levels, there cannot be very much on the open market, and any concentrated bidding would soon clean up the floating supply.

Word from the Great Slave Lake property of Northern Lead and Zinc operated by Smelters, Ventures and Boston interests, is generally favorable. On what is known as "D" ore body one drill averaging 125 feet a day, has made 18 holes, only one of which was poor low grade was found in 8 holes and high grade in 9. A rich area 130 feet by 260 feet has so far been disclosed in this orebody. Still more interesting is the fact that two ore horizons have been found from 10 to 45 feet wide, the upper one being 65 feet below surface and the later from 65 to 120 feet.

Writing from New York, A. G. Goesel, of Jackson Brothers Boesel and Co., states the copper market is taking on a better tone and the decision of International Nickel's management to speed up production is interpreted as indicating that 11 cent copper, the lowest price prevailing for the metal in over thirty years. Is considered a rock bottom price. Consumption is generally running ahead of production in a long list of industries. Hand to mouth buying has depleted stocks of both wholesalers and retailers, and the point cannot be far off where re-stocking is essential.

Some new official information on the situation at San Antonio is anticipated in the near future. John Reid, consulting engineer of the company, is expected to report to his principals in the near future, following an extended visit to the property.

DRUNKEN VISITOR GIVES POLICE SLIP

Tourist Escapes on Niagara Highway After Flourishing Pistol.

NO SHOT FIRED.

HAMILTON, Ont., July 23 (C.P.).—Revolver play and a mile-a-minute chase through the city in which an American tourist burned up the pavement and lost the police at a point on the Niagara Highway, two miles east of the city limits, proved to be the highlight in police activity in Hamilton overnight.

At a refreshment stand on the London Highway near Ancaster about 1.30 o'clock this morning, a drunken tourist flashed a revolver and threatened to shoot Jack Martin, 62 Charlton Avenue West, and Robert Clark, 45 Head Street. No shots were fired, however, and when the tourist joined his companion in an auto bearing a New York State license plate, city police were notified.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Both political parties will bring their election campaigns to a close this week and it is hoped the last will be heard of the cry of hard times that is so far from the truth and only put forward to advance the interests of those crying the loudest. An election at any time is disturbing to business and this year comes at a most inopportune time with industry slackening from the peak for all time reached in 1929. Too much is being madde of the business recession and not enough attention paid to the fact that while operations of many lines of industry are below the high level of the preceding year most are equal, if not better, than those of 1927 and 1928, two record years in themselves normally the stock markets would be looking forward in discounting good times ahead, but the outlook is clouded on this occasion by stressing of the so-called bad features that will be corrected in the ordinary course of events.

Good for Business.

The protracted spell of warm weather is beneficial to a number of companies that have securities in the hands of the public. Consumption of ice cream is on the increase and the current month has been a good one for the ice cream departments of the leading dairies. Excellent motoring weather and improved highways has resulted in many taking motor trips of an evening, to get away from the hot pavements in the city and this is adding to daily sales of gasoline and petroleum products that should find reflection in the earnings of Canadian companies. These same companies are being helped by the influence of tourists and American motor car markers are a common sight on the streets of Toronto and the outlying highways. Canada steamships is catering to the public with special trips on Lake Ontario, moonlight excursions and short sails starting just after the business affairs of the city are wound up for the day. The soft drink manufacturers such as Canada Dry, Orange Crush, Honey Dew, etc. should meet with increased demand for their products that should take up any slack experienced through the business depression.

Interest Widening.

A widening interest in the Canadian market is evident from the numerous enquiries being received by local brokerage offices from all parts of the dominion and many corners of the United States. Investors are seeking advise and information about the securities of a number of the dominion's soundest corporations and the majority of the letters speak of purchasing securities for a permenant hold and not for speculative purposes. Those asking for recommendations stipulate the stock must have a favorable dividend record, permit of a fairly liberal income return and above all safety of principal must be assured. The education of the small investor has developed greatly since the crash of last autumn and no longer does he go about blindly making purchases before checking up. Another indication of the increasing interest in Canadian securities is to be found in the space being devoted to an analysis of the leading stocks listed on the Toronto and Montreal stock exchanges by American statistical organizations. The number of Canadian shares being included with American as recommendations is growing and several are ranked very highly and compared more than favorably with the shares of some American concerns in a similar line of business.

The New York curb exchange has adopted supplementary rules for checking up on customers men. This term shall be construed to include all employees of brokerage concerns who are regularly engaged in the solicitation of marginal business or the handling of customers accounts. The new rules require that every applicant for the position of customers man, as well as those employed at present, shall upon request answer a questionnarie in the form prescribed by the committee and that individuals without previous experience in the brokerage or financial business are not to be employed in this capacity but only in the capacity of clerk etc., until such time as they gain the necessary experience. Other rallyings have to do with salaries, bonuses and discretionary accounts and the object of the new regulation is the protection of the public.

King Has Ruined Canadian Farmer Says Finlayson

FINLAYSON SCORES LIBERAL PARTY ON ITS ATTITUDE TO UNEMPLOYMENT

of unemployment in their own town. Sums of money were voted by Kenora, by Port Arthur and Fort William, and, with the assistance of the wealthy corporations whose aid had been solicited, the camps were kept open all winter and the men were kept at work.

"But the Dominion Government did not contribute a five cent piece to that work," said Mr. Finlayson, who then went, in detail, into the history of the famous "five cent piece" speech made by Premier King in the House of Commons on April 3rd last.

"Mr. King says that there is nothing in the Constitution which makes unemployment a Dominion, provincial or municipal matter, but I am sure that if the Fathers of Confederation had thought about the matter at all, they would have decided that unemployment, if it did arise, would be a matter for every good-hearted citizen to consider as a matter of personal importance.

"In the nine provinces that make up the Dominion of Canada, five are Conservative. Only two, Quebec and Prince Edward Island, are Liberal. Mr. King says he will do nothing for any of the Conservative provinces, but that he might do something for the two Progressive provinces. And yet Ontario contributes from forty to fifty per cent of the total Dominion taxation while all the Conservative provinces contribute from seventy to eighty per cent. of the total.

"So we meet Mr. King and we say 'We are going to fight you on that issue.' There is the challenge. Mr. King selected the issue and we have no option but to meet him on it. All these Conservative provinces have been told that they don't amount to anything. Now on his death bed, he repents, but repentance of that type does not often do much for the criminal. It may let him off a little, but all we hope it will do for Premier King next Monday will be to get rid of him.

"I am going to predict that on next Monday the king will return to his own, and I don't mean Mackenzie King by that.

"This matter of unemployment is a very serious thing. To an unmarried man, it is not so bad. He can shift somehow. But a married man has to face the butcher and the grocer and the baker. And all Canada is going to feel the pinch of it this winter. Mr. King said at first that there was no unemployment and then later he said there might be some. Now he says he will give dollar for dollar. He says if there is a bad situation in Ontario and Premier Ferguson lets him know about it, he will do something about it. That means that Mr. Ferguson will have to go hat in hand to Mr. King and beg him to help us out."

Friendship Between Provinces.

"There is no trouble at all between Ontario and Quebec. Mr. Taschereau and Mr. Ferguson confer frequently. We have plenty of co-operation.

"Ask your factories here, the General Electric and the Westclox and the Woollen Mills, whether they will have plenty of work this winter. Mr. King says he will do something but he hasn't done much during the past nine years of buoyant revenue. They have a forty million dollar surplus, they declare. What about using some of that? The Prime Minister should furnish leadership. He should say to the big corporations, like the C.P.R. with fat years behind it, the C.N.R. and all the big concerns: 'Will you give employment this winter?' He should be the leader and not the cheese parer who says: "The poor child is on someone else's door and not mine. Let others look after it."

"In the nine years since the Liberals came into power, Mr. King has brought a million foreign laborers into Canada. He has subsidized the steamship companies and his agents are all over Europe. We have now a situation where these people as well as Canadians are unemployed an' we should be decent enough to take care of them."

Mr. Finlayson referred to the serious situation in Sudbury with regard to the teaching in the Sunday Schools of Soviet propaganda, where Canadian children, when they can get them in, as well as their own children, are being taught by foreigners the principles of the Soviet: that capital is a crime, that every man has a right to a share in the world's goods, that the laws of a country are all wrong where the rich live in luxury and the poor are in poverty.

"Mr. King has ruined the situation for the farmer and the farmer's wife also. She used to have the revenue from the butter and egg produce. And that is because he won't give them protection and because there are so many millions of dollars' worth of goods brought into Canada.

"We are not the apostles of blue ruin," declared the speaker. "We belong to the party that built up Canada, that built the C.P.R. and knit the west to the east, that developed the provinces and that saved Canada during the worst days of the war. In facing this unemployment situation, great national works might be undertaken to develop the wealth of soil, of mine and of forest, of the rivers and the lakes and the seas of this Dominion."

Unemployment Relief.

Mr. Finalyson also advocated the St. Lawrence Waterways project as a solution for unemployment and the completion of the Trans-Canada Highway. Premier Meighen, in the days after the war, gave twenty millions of dollars, he said, to tide over the dull days and then the treasury showed no such surplus as now.

"But if Mr. King is returned next Monday, with his swelled head and his idea that he owns everything in Canada, I feel there are difficult days ahead of us all.

"Mr. King was free trader except when he wanted to give Mr. Malcolm a special duty on furniture. Now they are strong projectionists. They talk much of countervailing duties and of dealing with the Old County. Can you imagine any greater mistake than this New Zealand treaty?"

At this point, Mr. Finlayson, whose address had been punctuated at intervals by loud applause, was interrupted by a speaker from the gallery who asked why the wheat situation was blamed on the pool when the farmers outside the pool did the same thing.

Mr. Finlayson replied that he did not blame the farmer and had said the latter had a right to hold his wheat if he wished, but that the result was a bad one for the country. He quoted the instance of one elevator in Georgian Bay which held 250,000 bushels of No. 6 Northern of the crop of 1928. The price was now 30 cents lower on the bushel than at that time, and the owner had been compelled to pay per month one cent a bushel for storage, besides insurance and carrying charges.

"But whether they made a mistake or not, they are all Canadian citizens and we have a right to help them."

The questioner in the gallery asked if the pool made the mistake or the people outside it.

Mr. Finlayson: "I am not arguing for or against that. Let me tell my friend what happened the week before last." He went on to relate the case of a community near Dryden where fire had burned out eleven homes and the authorities had arranged to tide over the difficulty by giving the men work to do in road-building operations.

Same Voice from the Gallery: "That was very sad about the families being burned out but it hasn't much to do with the wheat movement."

Several boos and interruptions came from the audience and Mr. Finlayson said: "I have already answered that, but I will again."

(Voice from the audience: "He Won't understand you any better this time.")

Mr. Finlayson: "Oh, don't run away. You are imitating your leader in doing that."

Then, when quiet had been restored, the speaker went on to outline the qualifications for leadership possessed by Mr. Bennett and asked his hearers to vote on Monday for "a newer and better and a cleaner Government."

Miss Bennett.

Miss Mildred Bennett, introduced by Mrs. Fallis as 'a tower of strength to her brother, the Conservative leader in this campaign," declared that this was her first visit to Peterborough, and that she brought greetings from her brother who regretted that he had been unable to come, but that he had 'such faith in the voters of this riding" that he "hoped they would excuse him to devote his time to ridings not quite so certain." Expressing the hope that Mr. Peck would receive a record majority on Monday. Miss Bennett proceeded to outline the seven-weeks trans-Canada campaign tour of the Hon R. B. Bennett and herself.

"Victory is ours," she declared — "It's in the air; it's nothing that we imagine."

There has never been such interest nor such enthusiasm for Conservative policies, she believed. In his visit to Sherbrooke, Quebec, last week, Mr. Bennett had been told that no political leader had ever received such an overwhelming ovation there. Women—bound up as they were in their homes, husbands and sons—were displaying especial interest. "Because," Miss Bennett asserted, "they realize that they cannot have all they want for their homes, and the happiness of those about them, unless there is a good payroll coming in

"As long as our raw materials," she continued, 'are shipped to other countries to provide work for workmen there, our husbands, fathers, brothers and sons can't earn the living which is their right."

Mrs. Fallis.

Mrs. Howard Fallis scored heavily the New Zealand trade agreement, the Dunning budget and counter-vailing duties, and Liberal "flag-waving"

Mackenzie King had declared that he faced the people on three issues —the record of the government, the budget, and his stand on Imperial trade. Mrs. Fallis declared her willingness to judge the government for its attitude to the farmer.

At this point Mrs. Fallis was interrupted by a heckler in the gallery

Voice: "Will you tell me the disparity between the price of butter . . . "

Cries of "Sit down! Sit down!"

Voice: "Will you tell me . . ."

Boos and cries of "Shut up!"

Mrs. Fallis: "Will you come up on the platform, and let us talk this thing out"

Further cries. Heckler sits down.

Crerar had said, Mrs. Fallis proceeded when order had been restored, that the New Zealand treaty had been a benefit to the farmer. "If it is true that the New Zealand treaty has been a benefit to the farmer," demanded Mrs. Fallis, why did Mackenzie King on the eve of an election, abrogate the treaty? If that treaty is right, why are they gong to make another? We have no intimation of the terms of the new treaty." Moore of the tariff board, speaking in his own riding of Ontario last week, had undertaken to prove the treaty a good thing, and on being asked the terms of the proposed new treaty, had promised that the government would "do something." "Whether that 'something' will be better or worse, no one has any idea," remarked Mrs. Fallis.

"In 1926," continued the speaker, 'the farmers of Western Ontario indicated that they preferred free trade to protecion by supporting Mackenzie King. But their ballots were scarcely in the box before they began to send deputations to Ottawa asking protection on the products in which they were most particularly interested. The King government consistently and persistently opposed protection for the farmer as a bad thing for the country. Now on the eve of an election they grant protection to the fruit and vegetable growers. Either their policy of the last nine years was wrong, or this is an election trick. In either case, I leave you to pass judgment. If the government's policy was right, why are they afraid to go to the country on it?"

"Made in Washington."

Countervailing duties, one of the leading features of the Dunning budget, meant that our future tariffs would be "made in Washington," according to Mrs. Fallis. Despite local Liberals this had not been Meighen's policy. Meighen's duties were to have been fixed according to the needs of Canada's industries.

"The countervailing duties place our tariff regulations in the hands of the President and Congress of the United States," declared the speaker. "They can change your duties while you sleep. We haven't a thing to say about it."

"The Conservative Party says our tariff should be based on the needs of particular industries in Canada at the time. We should have a Canadian tariff made by a Canadian government for Canadians."

Mrs. Fallis advised those who disbelieved in the existence of unemployment to read newspaper accounts of the Prime Minister's journey across the continent.

Admitting unemployment in his Peterborough speech, Peter Heenan had asked: "Can a government help it?" "And that," commented Mrs. Fallis, "is the Minister of Labor—a helpless individual. Mr. Bennett would 'help it' by keeping out foreign competition."

Official trade returns showed that last year $103,000,000 worth of foreign manufactured goods were imported into this country of a kind made right here in Peterborough, Mrs. Fallis pointed out. Conservatives were not "looking after the big interests," as alleged, in asking that the government "get at least a part of that"—figures indicated that at least 70 per cent of the total went for wages. "Haven't we a right to some of that business in Peterborough?" demanded the speaker.

"Be an optimist" had been the advice of Hon. Mr. Euler recently in the face of unemployment, according to Mrs. Fallis. In effect, he had told thousands of men walking the streets without either dinner or job to tighten their belts and be optimistic. The Hon. Mr. Stewart, too, had had his pet solution—to let the employer keep the men on the payroll whether he had anything for them to do or not. Mrs. Fallis's comment was that she "commended that to the consideration of the nation's business men."

King's Solutions

King, too, had had solutions. In answer to one urgent request for relief made in the House, he had read a chapter of his book. Asked on another occasion whether the government had money for relief, the Premier had declared that the government had money "but they had other uses for it."

"There is a saying to the effect that whom the gods would destroy they first make mad," stated Mrs. Fallis. "They are certainly working on the Prime Minister." His crowning comment on unemployment, she felt, had been recently when he had ascribed the condition to the premiers of the five Tory provinces. "How does he account for unemployment in the other provinces," she asked.

Scoring the Globe's streamer—"Let Uncle Sam Go His Way: Our Way Is with John Bull"—Mrs. Fallis demanded: "Isn't that exactly what the Conservative Party has been saying for the last ten years?" Conservatives in the House had continually told the Prime Minister to stop catering to the U. S.

Wrapped in Union Jack

"Now Premier King has wrapped himself in the Union Jack," asserted Mrs. Fallis, "and parades up and down the country. He says he wants to be judged on his record. All right, compare his record on Empire with that of the Conservative Party—and vote on it."

"We are the ones who have always stood for loyalty. Since when does the Conservative Party have to take lessons in loyalty from the King-Lapointe combination? They are the ones who have taken numerous trips across the big pond and have come back with boasts that ties between the Motherland and Canada have been broken. These gentlemen are the only ones who have ever talked of severing with the Empire. And now they have decided to stay in. Well, that makes it unanimous."

She demanded that her hearers state where, if a factory were to be built in Canada, they would urge it be built.

Cries of "Peterborough!"

"But Mackenzie King would say you were disloyal to the rest of Canada," she returned.

Mr. Morrison

William Morrison, M.P.P., claimed that he had just come up from Belleville where he had had "a rough time." "When the Liberals descend to tactics such as they did at Belleville, they must realize they're up against it," he declared.

The aviation field, according to Mr. Morrison, had "declared a half holiday," chartered busses, and come to his meeting. You had to have a card of introduction from the Liberal Party before you could get a job in that aviation field," he declared.

Mr. Morrison's speech continued with frequent punctuations of laughter and applause from the audience.

"Who is the man," he demanded, "who tried to get rid of the Union Jack in this country? King!" Mackenzie King had opposed a Governor General because he did not like some of his actions; he had opposed the Privy Council; and he had insisted on the Dominion's right to make its own treaties.

"They made one with New Zealand —and my god, how it's turned out!" shouted the speaker.

He proceeded to caricature the appearance of "one of Peterborough's leading citizens" who had opposed him at Belleville—"Mr. J. H. Burnham."

He was interrupted by prolonged laughter.

In his own city of Hamilton, 20 miles from Brantford, at the very moment Mackenzie King had been making his keynote speech and declaring unemployment non-existent, there had been 10,000 men out of work, he asserted. He cited an alleged promise of the Hon. Mr. Heenan to aid Hamilton in a relief project —a promise which had not been kept. "I wouldn't believe them now on a stack of bibles," asserted Mr. Morrison. He styled the Prime Minister "a wolf dressed up like a jack-ass."

He cited the Hon. Mr. Malcolm as one of the Liberal cabinet ministers who "are going on Monday," declaring that Malcolm's furniture business had had more influence on the new budget than it should have had.

"I don't believe that Mr. King is honest in his patriotism," he maintained, "and I don't believe his heart is in Great Britain—it's in Washington."

Mr. Morrison produced a pair of socks, whereat the audience broke into renewed laughter.

"Joke? It's a joke all right," shouted the speaker, "but it represents a terrible tragedy." He claimed that the socks had been bought for ten cents a pair on the streets of one of our cities; that they were made in Japan by girls working under terrible sanitary conditions for twelve cents a day—"to compete with our mills." Nineteen million pairs of these socks had been imported last year, 24 million in the present year. Canada was being made the dumping ground for the world's cheap labor.

"If you want to buy socks for ten cents a pair, vote Liberal on Monday," he declared. "If you want to work for twelve cents a day, vote Liberal on Monday."

He finished hotly with a tirade against wholesalers and packers of butter who mixed New Zealand butter with Canadian and sold the whole as a Canadian product. He declared that New Zealand butter was good butter, that he had eaten it for months before he had found out what it was.

He was supplemented by a voice from the audience reading the latest figures on sock importation, purporting to strenghtening Mr. Morrison's position.

MR. PECK.

A brief address was made by E. A. Peck, the candidate, early in the evening.

"I am not standing on a new-v-made platform," announced Mr. Peck, "and hoping to get a snatch verdict from the electors. I am standing on the old Conservative policies which have meant so much for Canada in the past."

"Canada First" was "a very vital issue in this campaign," he declared. Nor was unemployment "a matter to be hidden or put aside as Mackenzie King would have us do." Under the British North America Act, matters of trade and commerce came under the federal head, and surely unemployment came under that head.

"The government cannot shirk its responsibility in that respect," he maintained. "Mr. Bennett, as the next Prime Minister, will work to solve the problem, not pass it off."

MR. STRICKLAND.

J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., in introducing the Hon. Mr. Finlayson, declared himself puzzled to discover whether the local issue lay between Mr. Corkery, Mr. Soden, Dr. Morrison, himself, and other Tory speakers on the one hand and the Liberal speakers on the other; or whether it lay between Mr. Peck and the Hon. G. N. Gordon; or whether between "Mr. J. Hampden Burnham and the world."

CAPACITY CROWD.

A capacity crowd filled the Grand for the meeting, while the stage was occupied by dignitaries, including His Honour Mayor Roland Denne.

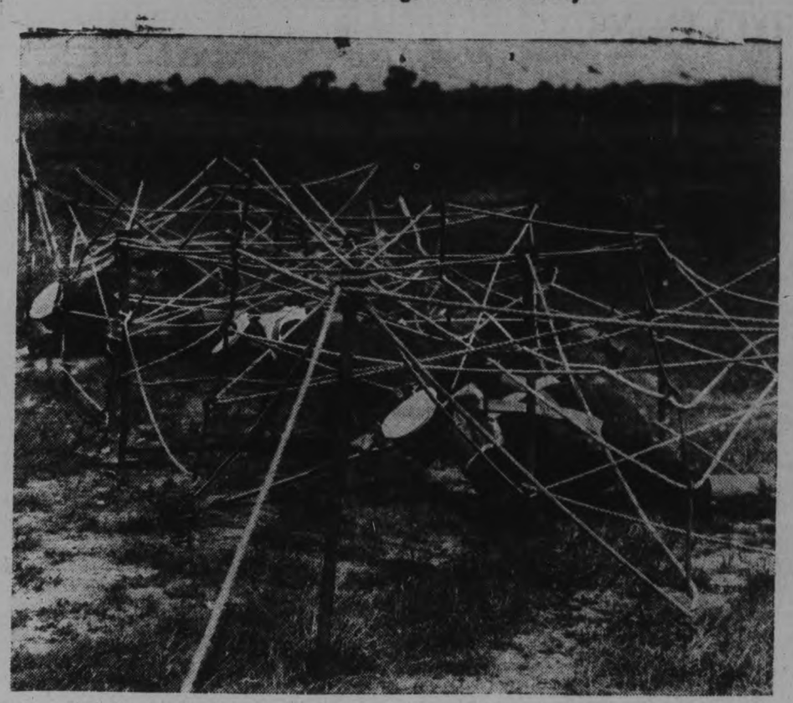
Preceding the Hon. Mr. Finlayson's address, a soprano solo, "O Canada!" was sung by Miss Geraldine Collins, accompanied at the piano by Miss Gwen Donley.

Miss Bennett created a splendid impression upon her audience by her simplicity of manner, her clear, low speaking voice and her charming personality. Her outfit was appropriate and attractive. She wore an ensemble of white and black, with a long-sleeved gown of summer silk, its white ground dotted with fine black spots and its pointed white collar in surplice effect. Her long coat of lightweight black material, its bell shaped cuffs braided in white, reached nearly to the hem of her dress. She wore a hat of black balibuntl straw, its edge of transparent mohair and its crown encircled by a narrow band of black velvet ribbon, with a brilliant ornament. Her hose were atmosphere and her white kid shoes were pencil-lined in a design in black.

Both Miss Bennett and Mrs. Howard Fallis received lovely bouquets of flowers, the presentations being made by little Nora Corkery and Margaret Lawrie.

The stage was decorated with palms and ferns and large flags. A number of the members of the Symphony Orchestra led by R. Gliddon, played excellent music before the meeting commenced.

Jack Tars Go Through Paces at Bisley



In the contest for the Hamilton Leigh Challenge Cup at Bisley each team had to surmount three obstacles during a run of 100 yards before shooting at the targets. The picture shows the H.M.S. Vivid team getting through the rope entanglements and, judging by the effort necessary to accomplish this it must have been a hard proposition.

COMMON GROUND IS BEING FOUND

Fife, one of the greatest of Otonabee's sons, was referred to by Mr. Duffus as a tribute which received his whole-hearted support.

"Perhays no man in the whole history of Canada", said Mr. Duffus, "had contributed so much toward the prosperity and growth of this country. He brought to Otonabee township the wheat that bears his name and he gave it to the nation. Fife wheat has been a great factor in rolling back the prairies, and providing the basic wealth for our great west, the railways and the cities that have been built cities, and in a large measure helped to place Canada before the countries of the world because we are able to produce upwards of 500,000,000 bushels of wheat."

Canada might have done without some of her Prime Ministers, Mr. Duffus remarked; she could not have done without the great contribution of that Scottish settler, David Fife.

"I don't know what form the Fife memorial will take, but if I live long enough there will be a memorial to Mr. Fife in some form or other. In this regard there have been some rumors that a memorial would increase the taxes of the ratepayers of the township. I wish to assure you that a memorial will be erected at no cost whatever to the people of this township and county, if I am spared to see it through."

Grateful to Newman.

"I wish to express my deep appreciation to Mr. Newman's assistance and of the able manner with which he has discussed some of the major issues of this election. We have a splendid array of speakers, in fact so many that we have been unable to use them all, and some only once or twice. This is another most encouraging sign.

Many of the manufacturers who once before were against us are now seriously considering or openly advocating the return of the Liberal administration because under the leadership of Premier King, the conditions in Canada are infinitely better than in most countries today."

As a business man and citizen who had contributed his share of money towards the advertising of Peterborough, Mr. Duffus said he strongly objected to the propaganda which some men and women had spread throughout Ontario reflecting adversely upon the business conditions of this city, "especially when it is said that women are crying on the streets of Peterborough for an hour's work."

"I object to this gospel of 'blue ruin' against our city", Mr. Duffus declared. "We have no 'blue ruin' depression here. I can tell you that the Wm. Hamilton Co. is busy, the Quaker Oats Company are preparing to open their flour mill on a twenty-four hour day basis, the Johnson Motor Company have had a good year and are considering an addition to their factory, the Vermont Marble Company are working twenty-four hours a day, the management of the De Laval Company has found business satisfactory and the Western Clock Company is continuing on a good basis. The whispering of trade depression here is a serious detriment to Peterborough, and I am sure that is is not endorsed by our business men."

"All our factories, including those that are branches of American concerns, are vitally interested in the upbuilding of business. Why do they locate in Canada? Because they can manufacture and sell their goods in the British Empire, and when we begin to feel the effects of Dunning Budget and its policy of expanding trade within the Empire we shall have other American industries locating in this country, and Peterborough should receve its share of them. You probably have read that three of them are seeking a larger export trade by locating in Ontario since the Dunning Budget was brought down, and others are negotiating to come here."

Mr. Duffus quoted Dominion statistics showing the increase of manufacture and foreign trade under the King administration. He asked the electors of Otonabee to give him the larger opportunity of service by being the representative of Peterborough in Parliament because everything pointed to the people's confidence in the Government, and this riding should have a member on the Government side of the House.

WILLIAM NEWMAN.

As a farmer and dairyman, Mr. Newman said he was anxious that the people should know the chief issue of the election, the development of trade within the Empire as provided by the Dunning Budget. He stated that the present problem not only pertained to Canada, but also to the British Empire of which Canada was an outstanding partner.

Mr. Newman sketched the difficulties which Britain had surmounted in the war with Napoleon and in our own times against the power of Germany.

In 1911 the United States offered to trade with Canada on a reciprocal basis, but "we turned our backs to the United States to our own detriment as far as our trade and commerce are concerned."

"We were exporting butter, milk, eggs, cattle to the United States, but to-day that has practically all been stopped, and we sell to them only pure-bred cattle. Throughout Eastern Ontario we had splendid cheese factories, but they closed down because the Americans were taking our milk and cream, and provided a splendid market for us. But that gate has been closed against us, and we are not sending them milk and cream to-day."

Referring to the nigh tariff policy advocated by the Hon. R. B. Bennett, Mr. Newman said there was more unemployment in the city of Detroit than in the whole Dominion of Canada. "Mr. Bennett would have us raise up a high tariff wall like that of the United States, and even against Great Britain. He would have us do with Britain what the United States has been doing against us during the last few years."

Hands Against Britain.

Mr. Newman reminded his audience that "Red" Russia was working against the commercial life of England not only in their own country but also in China, in Egypt, and in India. The results had set all England talking. People in the Old Country were beginning to realize the trade possibilities of Empire trade.

"The total of our imports by the Empire amount to eleven billions of dollars, and of that only four and a half billions are bought within the Empire. The remaining six to eight billions is obtained from foreign countries. If we can deal within the British Empire, upon which the sun never sets, we have as a group of nations a wonderful opportunity. That is what will be discussed at the Economic Conference in London this fall. That is what Mr. Cockshutt of Brantford, a former Conservative member of Parliament, had in mind on his return recently from England when he said that if we could transfer to the countries of the Empire one-quarter of the Empire's imports we would be on our way to the greatest prosperity this country has ever seen."

Great Britain was now engaged in a trade war as the result of foreign nations raising tariff barriers against her. "I am proud of the Dunning Budget, because we propose to transfer to Britain $225,000,000 trade which we have been doing with the United States. Britain and all the Dominions and Colonies applauded this step we are taking at a time, according to the London Times, when Britain greatly needs our co-operation."

Mr. Newman dwelt upon the essential value of the Canadian wheat crop to the prosperity of the entire country, and the importance of obtaining assured markets for it. This was one of the aims of the Dunning Budget, but for its success the active support of the electors was necessary on July 28.

"Men and women, I ask you to do what you can to elect Mr. Duffus next Monday," Mr. Newman concluded.

CAMPBELLFORD AUDIENCE HEAR REV. W. G. MARTIN

Ferguson for his attitude in regard to the unemployment situation and how he had handled it, even with the withdrawal of the grant from the Federal Government. These grants were given to the provinces to assist in the individual highway systems, and it was the desire of the Ontario Premier to link up the Provincial highways and make one main street across Canada. The speaker also touched upon the educational and agricultural grants and explained how they had affected the industry of the country, and said, "We will not have to take second place to that nation to the south of us, for there is a new hour dawning for Canada, as the greatest industrial nation of the future." He deplored the text of King's keynote speech in Brantford, especially as it was delivered at a time when there were two thousand men unemployed in that city. The speaker went on to declare that what was wanted was action and not conferences. "If Mr. King thinks that Mr. Ferguson is coming before him, cringing and begging for aid for the unemployed, who are the victims of his own misdoings, he is mistaken," he declared, and went on to show how the Premier of Ontario had gone ahead and handled the situation without the support of Ottawa.

Was Not On The Job.

Mr. Martin scored Mr. King for the statement that the wheat failure was an act of providence, and pointed out that providence works through human agencies, and in this case the human agency was the King Goverment. Of the wheat situation, the speaker said that it was the utter failure of King to be on the job that accounted for the fact that the graneries of Canada to-day were filled with unsaleable wheat. "What the country needs at this hour is not who shall attend the Economic Conference in the fall, but constructive and immediate action," he said.

The speaker defined the Dunning budget as a palace of dreams, and said that it was Dunning's occupation to blow bubbles in which there was nothing when grasped. He also went into a detailed account of the textile industry of the country, explaining the benefits of a proper protective policy for the industry, and stated: "It is in your hands to make or break Campbellford, by the support you give to Mr. Bennett."

Of the national stand, Mr. Martin said that it was a matter of Canada first, and that the country had to blast its way to proper markets. The Liberal party had been wooed and wedded to Uncle Sam so long that there is no evidence that there is a divorce due on the 28th, he said.

In conclusion the speaker said that there was a time in history when it was necessary, if a man had no sword, to sell his coat and buy one, and that time had come. That the fight was on, and if success was not gained, Canada was destined to face one of the blackest and bitterest winters in its history.

Mr. Maybee Speaks

Milton Maybee, in a strong appeal to the electors for their support, outlined the policy of the Conservative party, pointing out the failures of the King administration. He spoke of the deficits that were shown in the Merchant Marine service and the National Railway in the past year, and the fact that exports had fallen off to a great extent. Of the dairy industry as affecting the riding, he went into a detailed account, describing the effect of the New Zealand treaty on the home market, and stressed the fact that the home market must be retained.

Major Belford made a strong appeal for the support of the Conservative party, basing his argument on the effect the King administration had had on the pocket book of the farmers and industrial workers. He also treated the unemployment situation fully, pointing out that it was a condition that could be avoided in Canada. He scored the Dunning budget as being a vote catcher, and explained the different articles upon which a tariff had been placed, and said, "And that's the sort of thing that Mr. King is trying to humbug the people of Canada with."

Mr. Sykes gave a graphic discription of the woolen industry in this country, explaining in detail the reasons of its decline in Canada and the effect that non-protection had upon it. "We need a protection tariff on cloth to enable us to run our mills and to use Canadian wools," he said, and drew a comparison of the wages paid in the industry in different countries, and the cost of living that had to be maintained and showed how it was impossible for Canada to compete in the woolen industry is the country was not protected. Speaking of the Campbellford mill, Mr. Sykes declared, "The mill will be compelled to close its doors if the Liberal party got into power."

"as he always fails." Premier King, he continued, knew only too well that there could be no discussion of representatives before they were properly approved.

Bennett at Kitchener

KITCHENER, Ont., July 23 (By Thomas Green, C.P. Staff Writer).—En route for Exeter, Hon. R. B. Bennett left early this morning to keep a late afternoon engagement at that point. At night, the Opposition Leader will address a Conservative rally at Owen Sound.

Canada within the Empire engaged a considerabl portion of the remarks of the Conservative Leader here yesterday. He had references for the Prime Minister as trying to "catch votes" speaking with the "hysteria of a convert," and talking of his newborn faith in Great Britain. The Prime Minister, the Conservative leader stated, was speaking of Empire trade. "Why," Mr. Bennett asked, "this new-born faith; this deathbed repentance; this desire for forgiveness on the part of the returning prodigal; this man who talks so glibly of Empire and the flag?"

Urged Conference Year Ago

More than a year ago the Opposition Leader proceeded, he had urged the calling of an economic conference for an interchange of commodities based on mutual preference between the component parts of the Empire.

"These sentiments," he exclaimed, "were not formed to get votes. It is not a policy adopted at election time for the electors." This policy, the Opposition Leader said, was traditional to the Conservative Party to build up the Empire but not to sacrifice Canadian industry in doing so.

Charging that Mr. King was trying "to catch votes," the Conservative chieftain declared that the Prime Minister had adopted a policy of which he (Mr. King) knew nothing. Yet, Mr. Bennett continued, the Prime Minister was talking about the country as if he had discovered the Empire. Of all the "cold-blooded effrontery, unmitigated nerve and gall," which was being displayed by the Liberal Party, the Opposition Leader said, this was the limit.

Three speeches were delivered by Mr. Bennett in his campaign yesterday. After only reaching Toronto near daybreak he addressed the Toronto Conservatives at the noon hour, and spoke at Dundas and here last night.

Zutoo will stop a headache in twenty minutes, break up a cold overnight, and relieve the monthly pains of women. Used by thousands.

If you buy out of town, and I buy out of town, and all our neighbors buy out of town, what in thunder will become of our town? Ever think about it?

INQUIRY INTO WRIGHT DEATH IS ADJOURNED

Evidence Does Not Clear Up Fact Whether Coach Door Was Closed.

KILLED ON TROOP TRAIN.

Railway Crew and Soldier Companions to Give Evidence at August 2nd Hearing.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 23 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — The inquiry into the circumstances attending the death of Victor Wright, 17-year-old Havelock boy who was almost instantly killed in a fall from a train, in which he was returning from Barriefield Camp, on Saturday last, in company with other members of the Northumberland Regiment who had been in training for the previous two weeks, was adjourned till August 1st, by Coroner Dr. D. J. Loucks.

Conducted in the Police Office on Tuesday afternoon, with Crown Attorney Colonel F. D. Boggs acting for the Crown, the adjournment of the hearing came as the result of an application by Alex. Elliott of Gordon and Elliott, Peterborough, acting for the relatives of the deceased boy, on the grounds that the evidence submitted did not clear up the all-important point as to whether or not the doors on the train had been closed by the train crew. He asked that the evidence of the conductor and trainman and the evidence of four other soldier companions of the dead boy be obtained at the adjourned hearing.

A. Mills, Canadian National Railway claims agent of Montreal, watching the interests of the railway company, agreed to the proposals of Mr. Elliott and stated he would have the railway employees concerned called to the next hearing.

Thomas Wright, father of the unfortunate victim, and three other sons of his were present in court.

The jury under Foreman Deputy-Reeve N. C. Stone, was composed of the following: Jack C. Birmingham, Earl Stevens, T. Baker, J. B. Battisby, P. C. Denyes, G. Haig, John Simmons.

On Train Steps.

William Mason, in the course of his evidence, said he is a Private in C Company of the Northumberland Regiment. "When a few miles east of Stirling, Victor Wright and I were sitting on the steps of the train and as we passed over a bridge I saw his shirt go past me, and I at once gave the alarm."

Crown Attorney: What happened when you saw his shirt go past you?

Witness: I could not say. I was not paying much attention to Wright. I was looking at the country.

Witness went on to describe how, after raising the alarm, the train was brought to a stop and after a search along the permanent way, how the body was found and the efforts made to revive the mortally injured boy.

In answer to the Crown Attorney's query as to who was sitting on the steps, Mason said: "Myself and Victor Wright. He was on the second step and I was on the top one."

Coroner: Were you talking to him?

Witness: Yes. But not for about fifteen minutes before the eccident.

Coroner: You must have seen him fall.

Witness: No. I just saw his shirt flip past me.

He did not know if Wright had hold of the rail and could not say whether there was a jolt immediately before the accident although, witness remembered that there was a sharp curve in the tracks at that point.

Mr. Elliott questioned witness closely as to the arrangement of the doors on the car.

Witness was of the opinion that they had been open all the way from Belleville. He did not know if any railway officials had passed through the train during the journey from Belleville, as he had been sitting on the steps from the time the train left Belleville freight yards.

Mr. Mills: Would you be sure you went on the steps at Belleville?

Witness: Yes; although I was inside the coach some time after we left Belleville.

Mr. Mills: Are you positive the doors were not closed on leaving Belleville?

Witness: No, I am not positive.

Wright in Good Spirits.

In answer to further question by Mr. Mills, the witness, Mason, said they were all told to go to the rear coach when they changed trains at Belleville. Victor Wright was on the steps in witness's company in Belleville yards. Witness went into the coach, leaving Wright still on the steps and "before we were out of sight of Belleville," witness said, "I came out again and Wright was still there. The doors were open and he remarked to Wright: "It's warm in there."

Mr. Elliott: In your opinion, do you think the doors were closed when in Belleville?

Mason: No, I don't think they were closed at all.

In answer to a juryman, Mason said that Wright was in very good spirits. He was a fine, jolly sort of fellow.

"Twenty minutes or so before the accident, he continued, "we went over a bridge without any sides, and I asked Wright if that didn't make him scared. He said, 'No, but it makes me a little dizzy'."

Juryman: Did you have a dizzy feeling going over the bridges?

Witness: Yet, I did.

Corporal Lionel Holms of Campbellford, stated that he saw Wright on Saturday last at Belleville, before the train left and did not see him again until after the accident. Train reached the scene of the accident about two miles east of Stirling at 1.30, at which time he learned that someone had fallen off the train. Witness did not see the boy fall.

The train stopped, and Captain Free got off with Major Bygott. We were going to get off also, but we were told not to. We were afterwards invited to come, and about 100 yards from the bridge I saw the body of Wright lying face downward with his forehead resting on a spike. "I heard him groaning," exclaimed witness, vividly recounting the scene which he said dazed him momentarily, "then I put my arms round his shoulders and held him up till help came. The train backed up and I called for water, and bathed his bleeding face. We got him on the train and started for Stirling, but just before we reached Stirling, he died.

Coroner: Where did the doctor see him?

Witness: He met the train at Stirling station.

Coroner: Was he still alive?

Witness: Well, the officers said he gave two gasps just before the doctor arrived.

Coroner: Who was on the steps with him just before he fell off the train?

Witness: I don't know, sir.

Captain George Free, C Company, Northumberland Regiment, stated that he had been instructed that "our coach would be the rear coach." I issued orders that the men would pass into the coach and remain in their seats and that there was to be no riding on the platform.

He sat in the front coach along with Major Bygott and received the information that a man had falled from the train. Major Bygott immediately had the train stopped. "I doubled back along the tracks," said witness, "with Corporal Holms. He took the left side and I took the right side. We found the body at the end of the bridge on the north side of the track."

Captain Free stated, "The arm and hand which had been severed was about fifty feet nearer to us." He took one view of the body and came back to where the hand was, after which he took charge of the men again.

Major J. M. Bygott, O.C. C Company, said he knew Wright as one of the twelve Havelock boys, although he did not know him any more personally than the others. "I believe I asked the officer at Belleville if he had given instructions for the men to stay inside the car; it is a matter of routine. We made no stop after leaving Belleville until reaching the scene of the accident. "I was standing near the cord when told of the accident and immediately applied the brakes myself, without the knowledge of the train crew. I hurried back to where the body lay, about four train lengths away. First Aid was given and water was obtained from a nearby creek. It looked a hopeless case, but we got a mattress from the caboose and utilized it as a stretcher. As we reached the outskirts of Stirling I telephoned for a doctor who was at the station when we arrived. The doctor gave a hypo. in an effort to sustain life.

Witness further said, the conductor did pass through the cars for tickets, although the conductor was not wearing a uniform as he was a freight man. In answer to a question from a juryman, Major Bygott thought the conductor would have to pass by Wright as he sat on the steps.

Corporal Robert McGregor last saw Wright as he lay on a seat next to him. "I saw him five to ten minutes before the accident," he stated. "He was lying on a seat with myself and a fellow named Buchanan, inside the coach resting. I next saw him from the window of the car after he had fallen off the train."

Witness said that Wright was on the same seat as himself when the train left Belleville.

Crown Attorney: What was his state of health as he lay next to you?

Witness: He was in good health.

At this juncture Mr. Elliott pointed out a discrepancy between witness's evidence and the evidence of a previous witness, Mason. Mr. Elliott pressed witness to recall some of the conversation he stated he had with Wright on the journey, to which McGregor said: "Wright complained of being hungry and he had also mentioned something about the arrangements for a parade on their return to Campbellford.

Witnesses to be called at the adjourned hearing on August 1, in addition to the trainman and conductor, are Privates Hazel, Blake and Watter of Campbellford, and Private Buchanan of Havelock.

You can re-roof during harvest-time

Just a tiny leak in your barn roof will let the rain drip on to the grain stored beneath. A few hours while a chemical reaction takes place and then—spontaneous combustion, which spells destruction.

Put Brantford Arro-Lock Slates on NOW—right over the old wood shingles, without uncovering the barn.

The Arro-Lock interlocking feature fastens them securely together so that rain, wind, hail, frost and snow are powerless against them. They cost less to buy, less to lay, and nothing for upkeep through the years.

NEW COLOURS: In addition to the well-known Red, Green and Blue-Black Arro-Lock Slates, we are now making them in colour combinations known as "Dorset" and "Cornwall" — shaded tones of marked beauty at no extra cost. Ask the Brantford dealer to show you.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

CARE OF THE EXPECTANT MOTHER

One of the distressing things in life' one that excites the sympathy of every one of us, is to see a young mother die, leaving a little family behind her. That these youngsters will not have the love of their own mother, whose guiding hand is so badly needed in their early years is nothing but a catstrophe.

And when we read of the thousands of young mothers who pass away in giving birth to children, we wonder whether the medical profession is really making the strides of which we so frequently hear.

The Canadian government was so astounded at the loss of so many mothers at this critical time that they investigated each case carefully.

What did they find?

That nine out of every ten of these mothers died because there was no proper care taken of them during he months before the child was born.

Now who is to blame for this?

The natural idea would be that the doctor is to blame because he should be so careful in looking after expectant mothers.

Now what would have prevented most of these deaths?

The co-operation of the mother and the doctor during the months previous to the birth.

It would mean that the expectant mother should report to the doctor at the earliest possible moment and place herself under his care. This then places full responsibility on him. He will direct her to report at certain intervals for examination, and thus anything that might be a source of danger can be detected.

The urine is examined, the blood pressure, the condition of the heart, and the mother's entire physical condition carefully watched. Because it is during these months that many things can be carefully watched. Because it is during these months that many things can be done which cannot be handled safely at the last moment.

However, it is just as well to be quite frank about this matter, because there is no question but that many of the opinion that these frequent visits to the foctor for examination are all just a part, scheme or plan on the doctor's part to magnify the importance of the coming event, and charge accordingly.

For this very reason therefore, some doctors do not insist upon these visits and examinations, as they do not want the patients to feel that they are too anxious about the outcome, or perhaps anxious to enlarge their bill for services.

But when we see the above figures and realize that nine out of ten could have been saved by this care previous to the birth of the child, it does seem that an actual crime is being committed by doctors and mothers in not having routine examination in all cases.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

UNOCCUPIED CHILDREN.

Whenever a troubled mother tells me that her child is destructive, mischievous, troublesome beyond words, I ask her what the child has to play with. You see a child is born with the tools of his education within him. Nothing is given him but the power of search. He must gather every bit of information for himself through his senses. That means he must poke his intellectual nose into everything going on about him, thrust an inquiring finger into everybody's pie He MUST. To that end he was born.

It is our business, our duty, to help the child gather the right kind of news about the world and its people. But we are very busy about our own affairs and we hate to be interrupted. It takes a lot of time and thought to plan for a child's day, that it may be happy and profitable. Somebody must do that thinking and planning and give the undertaking a good stout push to launch it well under way. That is the mother's duty first and the teacher's after that.

Mothers have the harder part. School offers a schedule of work and allows no argument about it but home, the larger, better school, offers a variety of occupation, a mixture of motives and very personal ideals. Home needs an equipment for the education of its children just as school needs one. Too often the home children are expected to get along without help of any kind. Thrown upon their own resources, trouble starts. The furniture, walls, floors, fixtures, machines, all are levied upon for what they may contain of news for the stranger within the gates. It is far cheaper and far more educational to supply the right sort of equipment for the children.

All children, boys and girls, need toys that call for activity. As soon as children can get about on their own feet, they are ready for little brooms, barrows, rakes, wagons, scooters, hammers, blocks, swings, books and a blackboard with chalk and eraser.

A blackboard is one of the most important toys a child can own. A slate screwed to the wall at the right height for a toddler is just the thing. Be sure the light falls upon it at the right angle. Then, if you are a discerning parent, get a sheet of blackboard cloth and tack it down smoothly in some delightful corner where a small person may lie on his front and sketch the castles of his dreams.

You can do so much with the right kind of a blackborad. Think of the pictures you can draw. You can copy favorites out of your books!—there must always be books, with lots of good pictures in them. And you can draw maps and plans. There is nothing quite so comforting as a sight of the plan of the mind's adventure sketched in white chalk on a blackboard.

When a child is troublesome make an inventory of his belongings and fill the gaps intelligently.

THORNTON SAYS RAILWAYS INTERESTED IN AVIATION

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 23. (C.P.)—Both Canadian transcontinental railways are interested in the aviation aspect of transportation, according to Sir Henry Thornton, president of Canadian National Railways.

"The Canadian Pacific Railway and ourselves have acquired an interest in Western Canada Airways and the Canadian Airways, which is the big aviation concern of the east," according to Sir Henry.

Sir Henry admited that action on the part of the railways was significant as indicating the trend in the near future.

JUDGMENT AWARDED IN FAVOR OF MONTREAL SEPARATOR CO'Y

Sued I. F. Simpson For Non-Payment of Machine Bought in 1928.

MILK TESTS SHOWN.

CAMPBELLFORD, July 23 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — Judgment was handed down in the Divisional Court this week in favor of the Swedish Separator Company, Limited, of Montreal, plaintiff in a case brought by the company against I. F. Simpson of Hastings for payment of notes totaling $118.84. Costs were not included.

The case was first brought brought before His Honor Judge Huycke at Warkworth on June 23rd last, when the separator company sued Simpson for notes on the payment of a cream separator purchased in October, 1928. A. N. McColl represented the plaintiff and D. J. Lynch, the defendant.

At the first hearing Simpson and his wife swore that after the milk was separated there was a quantity of cream left in the machine. A sample of the milk was tested by the Trent Valley Creamery, but the evidence was stopped by the plaintiff owing to the fact that N. H. Carr, manager of the creamery did not make the test. The case was then adjourned until July 3rd, to be held at Campbellford.

At this hearing of the case Miss D. Kingston, who tested the milk at the Trent Valley Creamery, gave evidence of the result, which was to the effect that the test registered 1.8 of butterfat. Martin Berkland, representative of the separator company, also gave evidence to the effect that he had taken a sample of the milk to the Havelock Creamery about November 6th, and this had registered .03. Edward Lutz, manager of the creamery corroborated Mr. Berkland's statement. James Baker, a government official, who is conversant with cream separators, was called by the defendant to give evidence, and stated that 1.1 was a good milk test.

After this second hearing the judge was not satisfied with the conflicting nature of the evidence, and instructed the clerk of the court to obtain the assistance of two other responsible persons and make a complete test of the separator. This board consisted of Dr. G. A. Hay, H. N. Carr and James Shillinglaw.

The court re-convened on July 14, when the result of the board's test was heard. This resulted as follows: J. Shillinglaw, a test of .01, who stated that there might have been a very small quantity of water in the milk tested. Dr. Hay, .04; and H. N. Carr, .04. Mr. Berkland, who also took two samples for test in Toronto which showed a .035 and .04 result.

In handing down the judgment, Judge Huycke ordered both plaintiff and defendant to share in the cost of the board's expense in making the tests.

FASHION SERVICE

The chic femininity and girlish prettiness of this yellow and green printed rayon crepe will instantly appeal to the sophisticated miss of 8, 10, 12 and 14 years.

The flaring skirt shows soft gathering at front, and slight dipping at either side. A crushed girdle marks the normal waistline and ties in youthful bow at side.

The simple bodice is sleeveless. The capelet collar of plain yellow crepe is most unusual, opened at front displaying round neckline. An applied band of the printed crepe provides smart trim.

Style No. 3360 is very effective for parties made of pale bleu georgette crepe with collar finished with picot edge.

Printed batiste, dimity, voile, tub silks and printed lawn make up smartly.

Pattern price 15 cents. Be sure to fill in size of pattern. Address Pattern Department. The Summer Fashion Magazine contains most interesting styles for adults for town or vacation wear. Also darling styles for the kiddies. It is 15 cents a copy, but may be obtained for 10 cents if ordered same time as pattern.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

THERE ARE SOME OF US who go on vacations so seldom that it is really a task for us to pack suit cases or club bags—in other words, we are not experienced in this art.

• • • • • • •

And because the time draws near when many of you will be thinking of taking a vacation, if you have not already done so this summer, I am going to give you two expert ways to pack your suit case.

• • • • • • •

After reading them, you may feel you have a better way, and if such is the case, please don't hesitate to write and tell the rest of us about it—we will welcome the suggestion.

• • • • • • •

One way is to fold everything flat and lay the things in piles, fitted neatly together. The other is to fold the garments and fit the cylindrical bundles into the case.

• • • • • • •

In each instance, whether the garments are folded or rolled, tissue paper should be put in such places as will prevent frocks getting creased.

• • • • • • •

The tissue paper is needed to stuff into sleeves at the armholes when garments are folded and to lay between folds of the goods. When dresses are rolled, the paper is laid on the garments and paper and frock rolled together.

• • • • • • •

This brings the paper always next to the goods.

• • • • • • •

As in all packing in which paper is put with the things, it must not be laid flat, but be crushed and so form a soft padding. Only so will it be of value.

• • • • • • •

The garments should not be rolled or folded too tightly, but they should not be too loosely packed. Nothing is more sure to make creases in the garments than to have them shift about in a suit case, trunk, or any luggage.

• • • • • • •

It must be remembered that the luggage is not always right side up. It must be so packed that the articles will remain in the places they are put, however much the containers are banged about.

• • • • • • •

Hats that are felt or crushable straw are the things to take when travelling, for they offer no difficulties in packing. If a stiff straw hat must be taken, the entire packing of the small container, such as a suit case, has to be adapted to it.

• • • • • • •

Fill the crown with handkerchiefs, stockings, and any articles that can be stowed in without altering the shape of the crown. Make a nest of lingerie or anything that can be coiled and fit the crown into it, having the brim uppermost.

• • • • • • •

Shoes are so awkward to pack that women who take several pairs sometimes have separate holders for them. Perhaps some time next week I will tell you how to make these folders.

• • • • • • •

When shoes are packed, put them along the sides. Fill the toes with soft pieces or with crushed tissue paper, to keep the shoes in shape. If articles are put in, the room is used advantageously.

• • • • • • •

It is possible to so deftly pack the inside of the shoes and stow things about, that little room is wasted. By putting he shoes along the sides of luggage, the entire centre space is left free for garments.

THE DISTILLERIES ...T REALLY ORGANIZED

Grab for a Whiskey Instead of a Fattening Soda

Oscar Whizzem, famous big league pitcher, says: "Have a highball; shun a soda. That's my slogan at all times. Throughout most of the year I have to be in A-1 condition and cannot afford to consume sodas, milk shakes and other soft drinks which add to the weight and shorten the wind. And so, I stick to scotch and rye. They prevent the heart from beating too slowly. I have taken as many as eight highballs in succession and gone out, and pitched an excellent ball game—two excellent ball games, in fact. And so for that reason, every time I feel like a chocolate soda—which is pretty often—I have a highball instead. I cannot afford to take chances."

A reasonable number of soft drinks is recommended for the diet, but authorities are overwhelming in stating that too many are harmful. And so, for moderation's sake we say: "Grab for a Whisky Instead of a Fattening Soda."

You're never slow, but even so,
I'd never marry you.

I like your clothes, your these, your those.
You're genteel through and through;
You're even rich in spite of which
I'd never marry you.

I like your grace, your handsome face,
Your hair, and eyes of blue
Your cellar's dry, but that's not why
I'd never marry you.

BRIDGE CAVES IN SCORES PERISH IN GERMAN RIVER

Crowd Returning Home After Celebration of Rhineland Evacuation.

100 UPON STRUCTURE.

Falling Timbers Take Heavy Toll; Others Swept Away in Current.

COBLENZ, Germany, July 23. — Scores of persons were drowned last night in the collapse of a pontoon bridge here, during the celebration of the evacuation of the Rhineland, in which President Von Hindenburg had taken part. Forty bodies were recovered up to a late hour last night. About 100 people were on the bridge when it crumpled.

An enormous crowd had gathered along the banks of the Rhine during the evening, at the so-called "Deutsches Eck," where the Moselle River joins the Rhine.

They stood watching the display of fireworks and the illumination at the ancient Castle of Ehrenbreitstein in honor of President Von Hindenburg's visit.

When the display was over, thousands of people tramped across the pontoon bridge, which leads to a place known as "Security Harbor."

Suddenly, while about 100 persons were on the bridge, it collapsed under the strain of the unusual traffic. All those crossing were thrown into the water.

Many were killed by falling timbers, and others were swept away in the black, swirling water and drowned before help could reach them.

In the darkness, which lately had been intermittently illuminated by the fireworks across the river, people could be heard splashing about and crying for help.

Rescuers immediately launched boats, but many of the victims could not be located.

PROVINCES MADE APPEAL TO KING

Mayor Webb, Winnipeg, Recalls Visit of Deputation to Premier.

WAITED 3 HOURS.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 23 (C.P.).—Premiers of the three Prairie Provinces and of Ontario appealed to the Dominion Government for aid in providing unemployment relief, Mayor Ralph H. Webb of Winnipeg said last night. He flatly denied statements to the contrary by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. The Mayor was speaking in support of Hon. Robert Rogers, Conservative candidate for Winnipeg South in the general election.

Mayor Webb related that "a representative delegation from Western Canada" journeyed to Ottawa, following the Winnipeg unemployment parley, "in which Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, and Hon. T. A. Crerar, Minister of Railways and Canals, refused to take part." The 84 delegates, he said, were kept waiting in a small, hot room in the Parliament Building at Ottawa for three hours before being granted an audience with the Prime Minister.

Premier King, he said, contended conditions did not warrant aid from the Government, and that Canada had no unemployment to worry over. He charged the Prime Minister with not being a statesman, because he was not interested in the affairs of Canada's masses."

IN THESE U. S. OF A.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I come before you tonight as the representative of that great benefactor of America, the Anti-Saloon League. It has taken the familiar eye-sore of vice and crime, the corner saloon, from our midst. No more can the working man have his Saturday night beer, squandering all his savings while his poor abused family starves in a squalid tenement. No more is the habitual drunkard in our midst. America is now a land of bright cheery faces, happiness and clean living. Prosperity is our watch word, and the working man is busy and happy. Instead of the gloomy breweries, we have the smoking chimneys of industry; instead of beer barons, we have the contented working man and his prosperous family, the hope and backbone of future America. Is it not a glorious thought, ladies and gentlemen? And it is all because of your loyal support and cooperation. Can we not hope that this happy picture will continue to be the lot of future America? It is something to dream of, hope and aspire for. Oh, that we might all pledge our life to the cause. Let us all resolve to be better men and women, and to help others to strive for this goal, too. I thank you.

"Thank the Lord that's over. My throat's parched; let's have a snifter."

Girl is Kidnapped By Mystery Man

ORILLIA, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—The "mystery man" is believed active in this district again. Recently a number of young girls were accosted by the shabbily dressed stranger, who made his escape before irate parents could locate him. The latest victim is Bertha Lazarson, 9-year-old daughter of former Rabbi Lazarson.

She disappeared from home Monday. A widespread search failed to locate her but yesterday she came home crying bitterly When questioned the child would only answer that she had been promised "peanuts and ice cream".

Her: And will you love me as much as this when we are married?
Him: How can you doubt me? You know I've always liked married women best.

"How can you tell when a prof asks you a serious question?"

DETROIT MAYOR LOSES HIS POST BY 30,956 VOTES

Charles Bowles Recalled in First Action of Its Kind in City's History.

210,770 VOTES CAST.

Will Become Candidate at Another Election Held Within a Month.

DETROIT, July 23.—The voters of Detroit yesterday recalled Mayor Charles Bowles from the office he has held for six month by a majority of 30,956 votes out of 210,770 cast.

The vote was the largest ever polled in a special election here, and was only 43,000 less than cast in the regular election, when Bowles went into office with a majority of less than 9,000. There are 468,000 registered voters.

Half an hour before the complete returns became available John Gillespie, Commissioner of Public Works and campaign manager for the Mayor, had conceded defeat. The Mayor made no statement.

As the result of yesterday's election, the first recall in the city's history, the Mayor becomes a candidate at another election to be held within 30 days, in the meanwhile retaining the office.

MANITOBA HAS $2,165,000 DUE.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 23.—(C.P.)—The Province of Manitoba, after receiving a $4,830,000 natural resources cheque a week ago, is to receive $2,165,000 more from the Dominion Government, stated J. S. McDiarmid, Liberal candiadte for Winnipeg South, last night. The figure, he said, covered the total payment of annual subsidies due Manitoba from Ottawa within the next week.

Then What About The Rest?

The Liberal press bureau in a recent advertisement declared that "commercial travellers have reported for months that Peterborough is one of the brightest business spots in their territory."

No one will quarrel with that statement but the conclusion naturally follows then that the conditions in other parts must be worse than they are here.

Our own people know the conditions here, they know that there has been and there is unemployment, they know that business is suffering from depression, they know that our farmers are facing smaller revenues.

All these things being true, and not even the Liberal press bureau would have the hardihood to deny their truth, the electors of West Peterborough are quite justified in coming to the conclusion that if this is one of the bright spots THE GENERAL CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT CANADA ARE SUCH AS TO DEMAND IN THE INTEREST OF THE CANADIAN PEOPLE THEMSELVES A CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT.

Amid all this shouting for Empire and all this waving of the flag it must not be forgotten that for years the King government has posed as the maker of prosperity. In the face of that pose the voters have every right to ask WHERE IS THE BOASTED PROSPERITY NOW?

And they have every right to oust that government and to substitute an administration that will do some legislating for Canadians.

THE KING GOVERNMENT IS DONE.

Give West Peterborough REPRESENTATION ON THE GOVERNMENT side of the next parliament by working for and voting for the CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.

"A straight line is the shortest distance.."

You need a flashlight or an alarm clock. That's one point in a common geometrical problem. Somewhere a manufacturer is making, a store is offering for sale, exactly the flashlight or alarm clock you should have. That's the second point in your private problem. . . . And advertising is the straight line that shows the shortest distance between the two!

Day after day, in the advertising pages, you'll find straight lines drawn direct to the products you need. Look for them. Follow them. They may save you hours of searching.

And more than time, they'll save you money. Advertised products are those whose honest worth has made them popular. Merchants and manufacturers who advertise regularly have passed the public's test of fair dealing and reliability. By studying their announcements in the light of your own needs, you can buy most wisely and well.

Read the advertisements and practice straight-line buying.

Cogs Have Slim Chance to Enter E.P.L. Play-Offs

ELECTRICS TAKE 7 TO 6 DECISION FROM TRIBE MEN

Although Outhitting C. G. E. Faulty Judgment on Pathways Cost Cogs the Game.

BOTH HURLERS WILD

Losers Cop Off Early Lead By Taking Advantage of Looseness in Electric Infield.

The Cognawaga trade practically bid "adieu" to any chance they might have had of ousting the Crescents from second place in the E.P.L. sweepstakes at Exhibition Park last evening by losing to the C.G.E. ball team 7 runs to 6.

Faulty judgment on the pathways cost the Cogs the game, because thrice they threw almost sure runs away by prancing wildly around the sacks. They outhit the C.G.E. eight to six, but the Electrics massed all their safeties into the last three frames and made them count, while the Cogs' safeties were sprinkled along the route.

The Cogs' sun was in the ascendant during the first four innings and it appeared very much as though they were going to turn a loss to the C.G.E. Taking advantage of looseness on the part of the C.G.E. infield they grabbed a big lead of three runs in the first innings. They successfully nursed their advantage along, shutting out the Electrics until the fourth. In that innings the winners pounded out two runs, and in the next they returned to secure three more.

From then on it seemed that the Cogs' goose was cooked. In the sixth the C.G.E. added two more runs to raise their total to seven. But in the final frame the Cogs, aided by an error, a walk and a double, chased three runs in. They would have scored another on Ross' long fly into centre field had not Corbett chased himself off third before the ball was caught.

Sixth Win For Crary.

Jack Crary worked on the mound for the C.G.E. and it made his sixth unbroken string of wins. Although he appeared to have little on the ball, he eased along nicely aided by very pretty support. He was wild at times, and this was also the main fault with Vannest, who hurled the first five innings for the Cogs. Vannest went well until the fifth when he began to issue walks. Billigsley hurled the last innings.

At the start-off Cripps having struck out, Cuthbertson singled through the box. Corbett got a life when H. Hollingsworth juggled his grounder, and Rooke followed along with a single that scored Cuthbertson. Ross rolled to Rose and was safe when the second sacker attempted to throw out Corbett at the plate and failed. Attempting to steal second Ross drew Hatton's throw and Rooke scored. Billingsley rolled to the pitcher and Grant grounded to short to finish the frame.

In the fourth the C.G.E. secured their first runs. H. Hollingsworth doubled and scored on Beavis's single into right. Harmer singled, scoring Beavis. In the next innings the Electrics added three more. Crary opened with a single and Rose walked. H. Hollingsworth got a life when Corbett juggled his grounder, and Crary scored. Beavis walked, and Ash singled, to send in Rose and H. Hollingsworth. The bases were filled again before the Cogs finally retired the side.

In the sixth, Rose, who singled, scored on Jones' hit into right field, which took a bad bounce over Grant's head and was good for three bases. Jones scored on H. Hollingsworth's roller to Cuthbertson.

Win In The Seventh.

In the Cogs' big seventh innings rally Vannest popped to Ash. Baker was safe when Hollingsworth tossed wide on his grounder. Cuthbertson walked. Corbett followed with a double into left, scoring both runners and he crossed the plate a moment later on Rooke's single. Rooke went to third when Beavis made a wild throw into the plate. Rose raised a high fly into centre. Billingsley struck out.

Rooke was the big hitter of the game with four hits in the same number of chances.

Record Catches Made By Local Fishermen

The hot weather does not seem to affect the zeal of local fishermen or the hunger of the finny tribe. Al Sharpe, trolling below the C. P. R. bridge last evening hauled in a beautiful 13½ pound muskie. It was 41 inches long and 14 inches in girth.

Fishing in the Trent River last week Thomas J. Wright, Jr. of Havelock landed a 'lunge which tipped the beam at 24 pounds. It put up a real battle, taking up half an hour of the fisherman's time before it came over the side of the boat.

At Young's Point this week, Hugh McCulloch, 243 Rubidge street, landed a bass which weighed 3¼ pounds.

TORONTO FALLS BACK TO THIRD PLACE

Paddy Harmon Dies of Injuries Following Automobile Accident

Friend and foe alike will hear with regret about the tragic death of Paddy Harmon, famous Chicago sports promoter, and a man who never knew what the word quit meant. Harmon was fatally injured when his car, driven at a high rate of speed, left the road, and turned over near Chicago yesterday. In 1926—the year that the old Western Canada hockey circuit broke up, and the players were sold to National League clubs—Harmon, affiliated with Tom Duggan of Montreal, applied for a franchise, but his request was denied, and outside interests placed a team in the Windy City. The Chicago promoter never forgave the National League for sidetracking him, and he made no secret of the fact that he was eager to even the count. He knew that the Chicago Coliseum was unsuited for hockey, and therefore he formed a company, and erected the huge Chicago Stadium, looking forward to a day when the National League would be forced to grant him a franchise, or, failing this, that another major loop would be organized. Harmon, howeve, was destined not to linger long in charge of the castle of his dreams, and he found himself deposed. But even more bitter was the fact that the Chicago Black Hawk owners, Harmon's arch enemies, were granted a lease at the stadium. Paddy Harmon was a battling Irishman, beloved by his friends, and feared by those who elected to oppose him. He had been a sports promoter for many years, specializing particularly in boxing. He never became a Rickard, but ehere were reasons, politics in the Windy City being something to consider. Not always did the way run smoothly when Harmon aimed to stage a few battles of the century.

TWO HITS AND ERROR ENABLES ROBINS TO DEFEAT CARDINALS AGAIN LEAD NATIONAL LEAGUE

While Giants Hold Loop Champions to Even Break in Double-header.

PHILLIES DOWN PIRATES.

Athletics Lose Again at Detroit While Senators Bow to Browns.

Two teams which sometimes look as if they might get somewhere in the major league pennant races but which aren't doing it are the St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia Nationals. Both clubs are having unusual winning streaks for them, with three successive victories apiece. But such occasions are all to rare for them to make much progress toward the top. It has been over a month since either has won so many games in succession and there have been only a few such occasions all season.

Ahead of Chicago

St. Louis made it a real triumph yesterday by downing the Washington Senators 3 to 1, for a third straight win. Not only did the victory protect the Browns' record of having beaten the Senators oftener than they have lost to them, a thing no other club has done this year; but it put St. Louis in sixth place, a few points ahead of Chicago.

Doc Coffman's pitching turned the trick, although the Browns were again outhit 7—9. He kept the Senator blows scattered and harmless. The Boston Red Sox pushed Chicago down behind the Browns by joining three hits with a Chicago error to score twice in the ninth inning and win the game 4—3.

The feat of the Phillies in trouncing Pittsburgh, 11 to 5, for a third straight victory was somewhat overshadowed by the return of Brooklyn to first place in the national League standing, but the individual feats of Phil Collins could not be kept in the shade. Collins not only continued his effective pitching, but he hit two successive home runs and added a single to bring in four Phillie runs.

Brooklyn, with its pitching staff, tried Hollis Thurston as a starting moundsman in its struggle to get back to the top. The American League cast-off held the St. Louis Cardinals to three hits to win a 1 to 0 decision. The Robins made only five hits off Hallahan and Lindsay, but two of them and Frisch's error produced the only run.

The Robins received a lot of assistance from the New York Giants, who sent Chicago's Cubs downward by winning the second game of a double header, 6 to 1, after the Cubs had won the first 5 to 4. Ethan Allen's homer with loaded bases brought most of the Giant runs in the second game, halted by rain after seven innings in which Bill Walker gave Chicago only six hits. The Cubs piled up 15 blows in the first game, eleven of them and four of their runs coming in the last three innings.

The Cleveland Indians registered the day's big gain in the American League although they could not advance in the standing as did the Browns. Cleveland took both ends of a twin bill from the New York Yankees, 6 to 5 and 10 to 8. Georoge Pipgras failed to break the Indian jinx in the first game after Cleveland had almost tossed the game away by errors. He yielded two runs in the ninth inning and lost. New York made six misplays in the second contest but still it required Earl Averill's eighth inning homer, his second of the game, to give Cleveland the decision. The double victory left the Indians six games behind the Yanks.

The Philadelphia Athletics lost an opportunity to gain on Washington's second place team when they dropped a 6 to 5 decision to the Detroit Tigers. Although he did not pitch, George Uhle won the game when he cracked out a pinch single in the eighth to drive in two runs.

Canton, China, is sending more waste silk to this country than a year ago.

O'NEILLS EVEN MONTREAL GAME

Royals Win Opening Tussle 7-4 But Lose in the Nightcap 6-4.

HOMER FOR PRUDHOMME.

The two Canadian teams had the International League's spotlight all to themselves yesterday and promptly divided a double header to make the day virtually a dead loss.

Rain and wet grounds wiped out the Baltimore-Reading, Newark-Jersey City and Rochester-Buffalo games, but Montreal and Toronto went through the motions of a double header at Montreal. The Royals won the first game 7-4 but Toronto came back to take the second 6-4.

The first game was a heavy hitting fray, each club getting an even dozen hits. Toronto scored a single run in the first inning but the Royals climbed on Prudhomme for four in the second. Elam Van Gilder, however, could not stand prosperity and was removed in the third inning with the score tied at 4-all.

Pomoroski relieved him and pitched shut out ball the rest of the way.

Prudhomme was pounded out of the box in the fifth when the Royals broke the tie with a two run rally, that really decided the game.

On outstanding feature of the game was Prudhomme's home run drive over the left field fence in the second inning—the first time the ball has been driven over that barrier this season, and only the third time since the stadium was built.

Toronto called on Gibson, Harrison, Barnes and Page to win the second game. The Leafs scored three runs off Griffin in the fifth inning only to see Montreal go ahead with a four run rally in its half of the same frame. The Leafs put over the tying run in the sixth and then won out with two runs in the seventh.

HALL AND MERCU ARRIVE AT COURTS

TORONTO, Tennis Club, Toronto, Ont., July 23 (CP)—J. Gilbert Hall of East Orange, N. J., and Fritz Mercu of Bethlem, Penn, arrived on the courts this morning to take part in the annual Canadian Lawn Tennis championships. They came straight to Toronto from Kansas City.

Hall lost no time in catching up the games he missed yesterday and after taking 2 love sets from George Jennison of Toronto went on to play Leclerc of Ottawa.

Joe O'Hara, Ottawa District champion who yesterday defeated Leo Hilts of Toronto was this morning eliminated by Hilt's friend M. P. Margesson in straight sets 6-4, 6-3.

In the ladies' singles, Miss F. Claudet of Ottawa put up a courageous fight against Mrs. Coke of Toronto but had to admit defeat in straight sets.

Excellent progress was made in the Junior Men's Singles which has an excellent entry. The seeded players are J. Laird Watt, Province of Quebec Junior Champion, J. C. Burn and Province of Ontario Junior Champion, E. C. Connolly, Eastern Canadian champion, D. S. M. Macquisten of Montreal and W. Darlington, of Hamilton, runner-up in this year's Junior Ontario championships.

'Twas a Tough Blow For Jersey Officials

JERSEY CITY, July 23.—Jersey City's entrance into the Night League was deferred until Thursday when rain round dinner time so thoroughly dampened the field at West Side Park that a postponement became necessary. According to Vice-President Colford of the Jersey City Club, advance sales and inquiries as to the contest under flood lights indicated a near capacity attendance of 12,000 fans from all over the State had arranged to attend last night's game and had arranged dinenr parties so they could be there.

The local attendance record here is held by Rochester, 15,996 for a double-header on Sunday in 1925.

BOWLRITES LOSE SECOND GAME 13-3

Harrisons Touch Dormer For Sixteen Hits in City Softball League Fixture.

Playing air-tight ball behind Montgomery's sterling pitching Harrison's defeated Sugar Bowl 13-3 in a softball fixture at Central School grounds last night.

Harrison's were hitting the ball hard last night and touched Dormer for sixteen hits. Playford, with two home runs and a double, and three walks in six times up led the procession. He was closely followed by Lebarr who had four hits in five trips to the plate, including a triple, double and two singles.

Despite the slightly one-sided score the game was a good exhibition of ball, good fielding combined with heavy hitting that was a treat for the fans.

Montgomery handled the twirling job for Harrison's in masterly fashion. He restricted the Sugar Bowl to five hits and three runs and had three strikeouts. He was given excellent support by his team-mates, only two errors being registered behind him.

Harrison's opened the scoring in the first inning and were leading 5-2 going into the seventh. They collected eight runs in the last three innings.

The Sugar Bowl got two runs in the fourth and one in the eighth.

Four double plays featured the contest, the Grocers getting three of them.

The two centre fielders, Gillespie and Playford, covered miles of territory and snared everything within reach of them.

Klein Blasts Way To Top Of Circuit

Chuck Klein blasted the way to the front in the Big Six and National League batting race yesterday, taking advantage of an afternoon's slump on the part of his team-mate and rival, Frank O'Doul, to gain first place. Klein hit three times in five trips to the plate and lifted his average three points to .405. O'Doul meanwhile went hitless four times and dropped six points to .402. Al Simmons likewise registered a gain, picking up a point, with two hits in four tries, to go into third place ahead of Riggs Stephenson, who appeared only as a pinch-hitter and didn't hit, losing one point. The Yankee pair, Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth, both lost ground, Lou going down one point, with three hits in seven times up and the Babe dropping three, with two blows in eight attempts.

Softball Notes.

Belmont Club and C.G.E. will be the opposing teams at to-night's softball match at Central School grounds. Both teams are anxious for a win and should dish up a real snappy game for the fans.

The game will start at 6.30 sharp.

Thursday night will bring together the Sugar Bowl and Westclox, and this should be one of the outstanding games of the series. Forsythe and Darling will be the opposing twirlers. The Sugar Bowl will be at full strength for this game and will have Ken Baker in the lineup.

Last night's game was better than the score indicates. It was not until the last three innings that Harrison's opened up with the heavy artillery.

Westclox are out in front in the second half with four wins and no losses. Harrison's are right behind with four wins and one loss and Sugar Bowl and Belmont are next with C.G.E. and Brintons next in line.

Ottawa Hockey Star Leaves For Montreal

OTTAWA, July 23.—Ralph St. Germain, the McGill football and hockey star, and at present flashy outfielder with the Rideau team of the Ottawa City Baseball League, is leaving Ottawa to-day for Montreal, where he has accepted a position. It is considered probable that he will play football and hockey for the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association.

One Hundred 1,000-Watt Electric Flood Lights Will Be Used on Track.

Peterborough will get a chance to see its first night horse racing at the Exhibition Grounds to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock, when horses from many sections in the Province will compete in three classes—2.17, 2.26, and 2.23. Racing in Classes 2.19, 2.14, and 2.23 is carded for to-morrow night.

One hundred 1,000-watt electric flood lights will turn night into day at the track so that even the white socks on a horse at the far corner of the course will be visible. Workmen were busy this morning erecting a wall of white canvas six feet high and half a mile long around the track for the purpose of reflecting the light.

Meets With Enthusiasm.

W. C. Crummer of Chatham is promoting the meet. He stated this morning that the night races staged by his organization are the only night races in Canada, and commented that the idea has met with warm enthusiasm on the part of track fans throughout Ontario. Over $5,000 worth of equipment is necessary.

Fifty or more horses to run in the six classes are being brought to the city. Among the entries this morning were: Lady Isobel, H. Parker of Port McNicholl; Joe McGregor, W. Hillcock of Kaledon; June Patchen, Sutherland & Quinlan of Peterborough; Rena Hal, C. Williamson of Toronto; Della Wilx, H. Hunter of Smith's Falls; Sisco, Dr. Walker of Newmarket; Frisco May, Dick Welsh of Hastings; Blaze Star, E. O'Connor of Collingwood; Lewis Botha, H. Hunter; Dr. Dale, W. Hillcock; Lena Direct, William Elmhurst of Peterborough; Cackle Star, A. Elmhurst of Peterborough; Lady Russel, A. J. Francis of Napanee; Herman L, Dr. Stevenson of Sutton; Mr. Penalty, R. DUGGAN PASSES AWAY.

MONTREAL, Que., July 23 (C.P.).—Thomas J. Duggan, prominent sports promoter, who has played a leading part in hockey and race track activities in Canada and the United States for many years, died suddenly last night.

By entering a cage of lions at a menagerie at Portsmouth, England, J. E. Smith, the Lord Mayor, who was accompanied by his daughter, was the first Lord Mayor to achieve such a feat in the course of his official duties.

Brown of Fort William Is Suspended For Life

FORT WILLIAM, July 23.—Life banishment from soccer football is the sentence meted out by the Ontario Football Association to R. Brown, Ft. William player, following attack on referee during a recent game at the Lakehead. Referee Archie Crompton was struck and his cheekbone fractured when a minor riot broke out during a Cup game between the Fort William Canadian National team and Port Arthur Legion. Crompton, a veteran soccer official and having but one arm, is still in hospital.

Johnnie Currie, team-mate of Brown on Canadian Nationals, is suspended from the game for one year under the O.F.A. decree. Dan Armour, of the Legion team, is to appear before the association for a hearing in connection with the affair.

Y.W.C.A. Club Holds Jolly Outdoor Picnic

Twenty-five girls motored out to Chemong, near Hiland's, last evening and enjoyed a jolly swim and wonderful eats around a big camp fire. Treats of watermelon, cakes and cookies extra to the bacon and rolls, were thoroughly appreciated by the Outdoor Club. The girls had a shower of enamelled cups for the club, each girl contributing one cup. All declared it the jolliest affair of the season. Sing-songs and taps were sung, the girls forming a circle around the bonfire. Three cheers were raised with a tiger for the guests who had made it possible for the girls to motor out: Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. T. Barrie, Mrs. C. Graham and Jack Hughes. Miss C. F. Littlefield, in charge of the group, announced that the club would continue each week during August with a bumper party in September.

Ottawa Lad Breaks From Napanee Jail

NAPANEE, Ont., July 23 (C. P.). — Another jail break occurred at the Napanee County Jail yesterday. While a party of five prisoners was engaged in cutting down a tree in the jail yard, Wilfred Lavoie, of Ottawa, sentenced to 12 to 18 months for theft of an automobile, strolled to a pump for a drink, and suddenly sprinted away. The jailer, having the other prisoners to look after, was not able to pursue for a few seconds, by which time Lavoie, a youth of 17, and a good runner, was well on his way.

Auto transportation lines in New Zealand are rapidly expanding.

JERRY BUCKLEY SHOT IN DETROIT

Radio Announcer Said to Have Seen Staying at Lasalle Hotel July 3.

ASSAILANTS ESCAPE.

DETROIT, Mich., July 23. (C.P.)—Gerald "Jerry" Buckley, radio announcer for radio station WMBC, was shot and killed by three unidentified assailants at 2.45 to-day in the lobby of the La Salle Hotel.

Buckley had delivered addresses on political subjects and had described vice conditions in Detroit.

Buckley was said to have been a witness of the slaying of George Collins and William Cannon, Chicago gangsters, shot at the side entrance of the hotel, July 3. Station WMBC is located in the La Salle Hotel and Buckley was said to have seen the shooting of Cannon and Collins from a hotel window.

Buckley was shot by three men who entered the hotel lobby while he was sitting there waiting for a telephone call. Eleven bullets entered his body. The assassins ran across Woodward avenue, on which the hotel faces, and entered a theatre, according to witnesses.

Many new auto highways are being constructed in Brazil.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S FUNNY PIANO.

Jingle and Jangle were in the front room of the hollow stump bungalow practising their piano lesson.

"Tump! Tump! Tump! Bing! Bang! Bong!" the music sounded as the two little rabbit twins struck the different keys with their paws.

"Dear me! That's terrible!" cried Uncle Wiggily, who was trying to read his paper in the dining-room. "What's the matter with Jingle and Jangle? That doesn't sound like music at all. They must have the book upside down."

"It isn't Jingle and Jangle," said Uncle Wiggily's wife as the rabbit gentleman held his paws over his ears for trylu, loud and unpleasant noises were coming from the music room. "It isn't their fault."

"Whose fault is it?" asked Uncle Wiggily, as he listened to more tumps and bangs.

"It's that old piano," answered Mrs. Longears. "It's all out of tune, some of the keys won't play and those that do hit the wrong notes. If Jingle and Jangle are ever to learn music they should have a new piano to practice on."

"Something ought to be done, that's sure," said Uncle Wiggily, as more strange sounds came from where the twin rabbit girls were trying to practise a duet. "I guess I'd better get a new piano."

"That would be lovely," said Mrs. Longears. "Please do!"

"I'll hop right down to the store and order one now," went on the rabbit gentleman, laying aside his paper. "Jingle and Jangle are worse than the radio full of static the way they have to play that old piano. I'll get a new one."

Uncle Wiggily hopped to one store and asked:

"How much are pianos this morning?"

"Two hundred carrots," mewed the pussy cat lady who kept the music place. "And some even more."

"Two hundred carrots are too much for a piano," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'll try some other store." So he did, hopping to one kept by a nice old dog gentleman.

"How much are your pianos?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Three hundred carrots!" barked the dog.

"Oh, my! That's too much!" said the bunny uncle. "I'll go to the next store." This was one kept by a very stylish gold fish lady. And when Mr. Longears asked her how much the piano cost she said:

"Four hundred carrots and a head of lettuce."

"Oh, my!" sighed Uncle Wiggily. "I guess I can't afford a new piano. Yet Jingle and Jangle should have something better to make music on than the piano in my bungalow. I wonder—"

Just then Uncle Wiggily saw Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the puppy dog boys, with Curly and Floppy Twistytail, the pigs, and Billie Wagtail, the goat, having fun by blowing beans at a lot of tin cans they had set up on top of a fence. The animal boys had long, hollow tin tubes through and these tubes they were blowing hard beans. The beans hit the empty tin cans and, as the cans were different sizes, each one made a different noise when hit.

When Jackie blew a bean at a big tomato can it sounded like BUNK, or a note far down on the left-hand end of a piano. And when Peetie Bow Wow blew a bean at a middle sized can that had held corn, the noise was like bink or a note in the middle of the piano. And when Billie the goat blew a bean at a little can that had held fruit salad the noise was like the tink, or such a sound as one of the keys on the right-hand end of the piano would make.

"Why those animal boys are playing a regular tune on those empty tin cans," said Uncle Wiggily, as he listened to the beans striking and making sounds like BUNK, bing, tunk, tink. The beans came from the blowers very fast as the animal boys blew them, rattling a regular tattoo and sounding very jolly.

"Now I know what I can do!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I'll make my own piano. I have a lot of empty cans of all sizes back at my bungalow. I'll not spend 200 or even 100 carrots for the new piano. I'll make a funny one myself."

So he got a lot of empty tin cans and fastened them on a board. The big tomato cans made deep, low notes when hit with a bean. The middlesized cans made middle piano notes and the little cans made high, shrill notes. It was a regular musical scale the way Uncle Wiggily fixed the cans. Then he bought bean blowers and beans for Jingle and Jangle, and after a little practice the rabbit girl twins were able to play some very nice turns on the tin cans. Animal folks came from far and near to hear the funny piano, and everybody said Uncle Wiggily was very smart to have thought of it.

LIBERAL RALLY AT HAVELOCK

F. A. Bapty and Colonel Roscoe Vanderwater Among Speakers to Address Crowd.

NEED "LIVE" MEMBER.

Last evening addresses were delivered at a meeting in the Town Hall at Havelock in the interests of Fraser Aylesworth, the Liberal candidate for the riding of Peterborough-Hastings.

F. A. Bapty, president of the Deloro Smelting and Refining Company, Limited; Captain J. A. Dewart and Alex. Elliott of Peterborough, Colonel Roscoe Vanderwater, Warden of Hastings County; Mr. Lapine of Marmora and the candidate addressed the meeting.

It was suggested by the speakers that the riding needed an active candidate for its representative at Ottawa. "I have been throughout the length and breadth of this very large constituency," declared the candidate, "and the great majority of the people have never even seen the present member, Dr. Embury of Bancroft." Mr. Aylesworth stated that he had had the pleasure of meeting a great many of the constituents in his visits and had been received most favorably.

Mr. Bapty, as a manufacturer, declared that one of the most remarkable accomplishments of the King Government had been the formation of the Tariff Board. It has turned out to be of great value to the manufacturer and producer in this country, and great credit is due to the King Government because this public body has operated absolutely free from political influence.

This Board has proved its worth in a very satisfactory manner, in which it solved the iron and steel situation by the embodyment of its recommendations in the Dunning Budget. The satisfactory manner in which the Government had dealt with the steel situation was endorsed by the three Conservative candidates in those communities where the steel industry flourished when they committed the great sin of bolting from their parents and voting in favor of the Liberal Dunning budget.

Glace Bay Girl Is Miraculously Cured

First Person to Gain Health This Year at Ste. Anne De Beaupre.

(Special to The Examiner)

QUEBEC, Que., July 23. — Miss Mary Cann of Glace Bay in the Maritime provinces, has the honor of being the first miraculously cured person of the present year at the shrine of Ste. Anne De Beaupre, for she is now able to walk, after being partially paralyzed for months and the only sign that anything was ever wrong with her is a scar on her leg, about an inch and a half long. Miss Cann, who suffered from an ulcer, so she decided to make the pilgrimage to the shrine, arriving there on Monday, the girl reached the shrine having made the long journey from the maritimes with her parents. Yesterday she received communion and prayed in the Basilica, to suddenly feel that her leg didn't pain her as much as usual. Looking at her leg, she found that the running ulcer had healed, and that the only trace of it was a scar about an inch and a half long. Miss Cann at once went to the priests and then left for her home last night.

line parties may be evenly balanced in the next House with the balance of power in the hands of the independent group.

And in the clash of prophecy and speech, the voice of the woman candidate is heard more than ever before. Dr. Grace Ritchie England, candidate in Mount Royal, Montreal, under the double banner of Liberalism and Women's Rights, in Quebec, describes the Dunning budget as a consumer's budget.

Benefit to Housewife.

"It is of special benefit to the housewife," she declares, "for it is the woman who spends the money she says, that French and English-speaking women are coming together as never before indignant at the brand of inferiority placed on them by the French government, which refused them the right to vote.

In Brandon, Manitoba, where a Labor candidate is opposing Hon. T. A. Crerar, Miss Beatrice Brigden describes both old line parties as the voice of 'Big Business.' "We are being done," she declared "when one cent's worth of wheat appears on the table as a ten cent loaf of bread, and a hog at seven cents appears as forty cent bacon."

WHO IS HE?

When the game men call love
turns to ashes and dust,
Amusement they ask for, and have it they must;
They cross-worded one year
asked questions the next
But of 'Ask me another" here's the most frequent text:

I really don't care who your sweetheart may be,
What your bank-roll amounts to don't interest me,
But WHO IS YOUR
BOOTLEGGER NOW?
Do you feel every night that you stumble to bed
You don't know beforehand if you'll wake up dead,
Say WHO IS YOUR
BOOTLEGGER NOW?

I know you're no physician,
And I don't mind the price;
But you look so dawgone
happy
I'm asking your advice;
Don't tell me what market tips
furrow your brow,
There is just one small favor
I'm asking—but how?
SAY, WHO IS YOUR
BOOTLEGGER OW?

"How did you finally persuade the tennis star to grant you an interview?"

"I threatened to publish her passport photograph."

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 18 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan was anxious to return to the cabin and continue his investigations of its wondrous contents. So early one morning he set forth alone. He found the knife, beside the bones of the gorilla. Entering, he closed and locked the door and then turned his attention to the picture books.

The pictures caught his fancy most. One, of a little ape similar to himself, fascinated him mightily. It had a strange colored fur, for such he thought the coat and trousers were. Beneath the picture were these little bugs—B-O-Y. Under another picture the "bugs" appeared again—A B-O-Y AND A D-O-G.

Long he puzzled; but slowly, very slowly he learned. By the time he was fifteen he knew the various combinations of letters that stood for every picture in the little primer and in one or two of the picture books. He persevered for months—each time he came to the cabin.

One day he found a number of lead pencils in a drawer. Scratching upon the table top with one of them, he was delighted to find the black line it left behind it. He attempted to reproduce some of the little "bugs" of his books. It was a difficult task.

Repeated experiments taught him how to hold a pencil. Thus he made a beginning at writing. From then on his progress was rapid. His reason now told him he was of a different race from his companions. He was a M-A-N. He didn't know he could not speak man's language.

OBITUARY

MRS. JOHN ROWE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Rowe, Lee street, took place on Sunday at 2 p.m. to the Lakefield cemetery, and was largely attended by a large circle of friends who came to pay their last respects.

The pallbearers were her five nephews, James and Adolphus Crapp, Allen Parker, Fred Parker, George Buller, and Mr. Walter Terrace, a friend.

MRS. CHARLOTTE HEAP.

The death occurred on Tuesday of Mrs. Charlotte Heap, widow of John Heap, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Curtis of 335 Park Hill Road, in her 84th year.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her daughter, one son, Edwin, of 380 Rogers Street, also three brothers and two sisters.

The funeral will be held on Thursday from 335 Park Hill Road to Little Lake Cemetery. The service will be conducted by Rev. G. J. Bousfield, commencing at 2 o'clock p.m.

MISS MAY MARTYN.

The death occurred at Toronto, on July 13th, of May, dearly beloved and youngest daughter of Mrs. R. B. Martyn and the late R. B. Martyn.

The deceased will be universally mourned. She was possessed of a kind, unselfish and loving disposition, constantly concerned with the welfare of others. To know her was to love her.

Many floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received from a large circle of friends in Chicago, Detroit, Rochester, New York, Port Hope, Cobourg, Toronto and other points.

The funeral, which was largely atended, took place on Wednesday, July 16th, from the family residence, at 203 Crescent street, the services being conducted by the Rev. A. E. Thornley, of Mark street United Church, who spoke of the sterling qualities of the deceased, and extended comforting words to the bereaved family, which consists of her mother, three sisters and three brothers.

Interment was in the family burying plot at Little Lake cemetery.

Pall-bearers were six nephews of the deceased: Vernon Spilsbury, Leo Martyn, Roly Martyn, Dick Martyn, John Martyn and Russell Wells.

QUEBEC SHOWS SURPLUS OF $4,269,686 REVENUE

QUEBEC, Que., July 23 (C.P.). — Premier L. A. Taschereau of the Province of Quebec to-day announced a Provincial surplus of $4,269,686 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930, over expenditures of $39,312,297. The revenue was $43,581,984.

The greatest single source of revenue was derived from the Quebec Liquor Commission, which totalled $8,569,791. The heaviest expenditures, $11,345,068, were devoted to the Provincial highways.

Greet Returning Hero

When Jack Guest, Diamond Sculls' winner, arrived at Toronto he was tendered the warmest welcome ever given to any athlete returning to Toronto. Crowds, color, parades and civic officials and dignitaries blended into one panorama of acclaim to Canada's hero of the hour. VISITING BISHOPS GIVEN WELCOME BY KING GEORGE

His Majesty Expresses Hope For a Re-united Christendom.

AT LAMBETH CONFERENCE.

Growth of Anglican Communion Source of Pride to Britain's Ruler.

LONDON, Eng., July 23. (C.P.) — Hopes for a reunited Christendom were expressed by the King in reply to an address from members of the Lambeth Conference when he and the Queen received them in Buckingham Palace to-day. The King shook hands with each visitor.

"I thank you most sincerely for your address and for the spirit of devotion and affection which animates it" said the King addressing his guests. "I was especially touched by the assurance of your sympathy with me in my recent illness, and your pleasure at my recovery.

Bishops from U. S. Present.

"It is a deep satisfaction for me to receive and welcome this great assemblage of Bishops of the Anglican Communion, which includes not only Bishops from my Dominions, but from the United States of America.

"I have observed with interest among the delegations which have visited Lambeth, this has been an important one from the Orthodox church view. Looking back upon the beginning of this series of Lambeth conferences, it must be a source of pride and thankfulness to reflect what testimony they bear to the growth and development of the Anglican communion. One hundred years ago it was little more than the church of a single kingdom. The present conference is a world wide gathering of united, though mostly self-governing churches, which has attained the proportions of a general council.

"I remember ten years ago when I had the pleasure of receiving the sixth Lambeth Conference that the question of the re-union of Christendom was foremost in your thought, you put before the world an ideal of unity and a plea for new endeavor to heal rents in the fabric of the church. I am most happy to learn that this appeal has not been fruitless. It is my earnest hope and prayer that the work which your last conference began may prosper and that the deliberations of this present Conference may result in some notable advance toward this most desirable end.

Subject Well Chosen.

"I learn from your address that the main subjects for your consideration are summed up in the general lead—the faith and witness of the church in this generation. The subject has been well chosen with keen insight into the needs of the present day. The objects and material damage of war is not now so manifest as when you last met; the wounds are to some extent scarred over. But men's minds and souls are still troubled by the wounds which the war inflicted and perplexed through the shocks thereby dealt to their old beliefs and spiritual loyalties. At such a time the fathers of the church do well to take council togethed how best to bring home to the world of to-day, in ways most appropriate to the difficulties which beset it, the truths of the everlasting Gospel. God reigns, and I pray that His blessing may rest upon your deliberations."

firemen, soldiers, militiamen and civilian volunteers dug into the ruins hour after hour in frenzied efforts to discover whether there were victims buried under the debris. Damaged walls and roofs were bolstered up.

50 Die of Fright

It was reported that the number of deaths from sheer fright in Naples alone were estimated at more than fifty.

As the work of rescue went on it was believed that the number of dead would be well over 100 and that at least another 100 more would be seriously injured.

The violence of the three fatal shocks—grade seven on the Mercall scale—was indicated by the calculations of seismographers that if it had reached grade ten of the same scale the whole city of Naples would have been destroyed.

Up to two o'clock this afternoon the American Consulate had no notice of any victims in Naples or any of the nearby resorts on the famous Bay. At Sorrento, which is a popular stopping place of American tourists two natives were killed by a cave in. Five deaths were reported in the nearby countryside.

Toronto Feels Shocks

TORONTO, Ont., July 23.—(CP)—Last night's earthquake in Southern Italy which resulted in the loss of 100 lives in Naples and vicinity, was recorded on the seismograph here at what would be 28 minutes after one o'clock in Italy. The vibrations lasted one hour, officials of the local observatory said, indicating severity of shock.

Spinsters, as well as bachelors, are to pay a higher income tax, according to the program of the German Government, unmarried taxpayers paying 15 per cent, which will be one per cent higher than for married people.

RECORD OF GOV'T UPHELD BY KING AT PALMERSTON

Impromptu Speech Given During Wait on Station Platform.

REFERS TO C.N.R. WORK.

Canada's Greatest Lesson is She Must Return British Wheat Market.

PALMERTSTON, Ont., July 23. — (CP)—From the rear platform of his car, Premier MacKenzie King addressed a gathering of considerable size here today. The Prime Minister was on his way to Chesley for a meeting tonight, but a wait of some twenty minutes here shortly after noon, gave him an opportunity to speak in this constituency of North Perth. The Liberal candidate in the riding is Dr. David Smith.

Clear, bright weather made the brief outdoor meeting pleasant", alike for Mr. King and for his audience.

Mr. King said he regretted, that there was not time to discuss the issues of the campaign at length. The records of the government and the budget were the main issues, and he asked his audience to consider these things well. Canada was now the fifth of the trading nations in the world he said, and the Dominion had been lifted to a condition of prosperity.

As Palmerston was a railway center, the Prime Minister made special reference to the Government record in this respect. The present government had co-ordinated the Canadian National system, he said. The present Government had engaged Sir Henry Thornton. Mr. King went into the steps which led up to the engagement of Sir Henry and how it had come about.

C. N. R. Employed 5,000 Extra

This year, when a period of depression prevailed, asserted Mr. King, the Government had asked Sir Henry Thornton to keep as many men employed as he possibly could", said Mr. King, "and the result was that 5,000, who would otherwise have been unemployed, retained their work.

Mr. King turned to the reasons for unemployment in Canada. It was due to the partial failure of a wheat crop, failure to make the crop in full and a stock market crash.

The great lesson to be learned was that Canada must retain the British wheat market, Mr. King said. This was one of the major objects of the budget.

The budget gave a preference to Great Britain but it would also give Canada a very strong position at the coming economic Conference and among the British people. Assuming that the Government was returned, Canada could go armed with a great argument for trade between Canada and Great Britain.

REDS ORGANIZE 75,000 UNEMPLOYED IN UNIONS

WINNIPEG, Man., July 23 (C.P.) —The Communist Party of Canada has organized more than 75,000 unemployed workers into the various craft unions under the party's jurisdiction, according to J. M. Forkin, Communist candidate for the North Winnipeg Centre seat in the next Parliament. "Of this huge total, this city has recruited 900 in the last week," he declared, in conducting an election campaign meeting on a downtown street last night.

company to commence action, as further delay would outlaw the company's claim. A writ was issued for $15,000 damages, and for an injunction and a mandatory order that the Dalhousie Street bridge be so altered or changed as to do away with any danger from a recurrence of flooding conditions. Further proceedings were again delayed by the company, in the hope that a settlement could still be peacably arranged with the Corporation. As no reply to the company's offer of settlement was received, the case was proceeded with, and came to trial in April of 1929. After a two-day hearing in the High Court before the Honorable Mr. Justice McEvoy, the city asked for an adjournment to get the evidence of Mr. Armstrong, the City Clerk, then sick in the hospital. This threw the case over until the following September, and it was impossible to go on with the case until months later. Finally the case was argued at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and judgment was reserved by the trial Judge, and was to-day delivered to the above effect."

Miss Antique: You ought to get married, Mr. Oldchap.

Mr. Oldchap: I have wished many times lately that I had a wife.

Miss A (delighted): Have you really?

Mr. O.: Yes. If I had a wife she would probably have a sewing machine, and the sewing machine would have an oil can and I could take it and oil my office door. It squeaks horribly.

Dub: Whatsa matter with you? That pooch'll never win a prize at a dog show.

Deb: I know, but think of the fine society that he'll be in.

"Well, you see, I have a press pass."

CEPHUS MUNROE PLEADS GUILTY

Local Man Charged With Bigamy and Theft in Police Court This Morning.

REMANDED UNTIL FRIDAY.

Trouble dropped heavily this morning on Cephus Munroe, 39, of this city in Police Court. He was charged and pleaded guilty to bigamy and theft.

It was charged that in 1927 he went through a form of marriage in a local church with Sarah Ann Clement, while he has a wife residing in Dummer Township. He left his first wife, police state, and has been living with the second woman during the past three years.

His troubles really started yesterday when he walked into the house of Mrs. Storey in East City, and a few minutes later left, taking with him six dollars, which, it is alleged, he stole.

Munroe was remanded until Friday for sentence.

Night Horse Racing Makes Big Hit

DELLA WILKES ALMOST EQUALS TRACK RECORD

Racing Fans Welcome Novel Idea of Night Track Meet.

FAST HORSES ENTER.

Local Pacers Break Strongly Into Win Column in 2.29 Class.

Science trimmed Old Sol to a frazzle at Exhibition Park last night. After the sun had dropped beneath the western hills and dusk had darkened into night, someone turned on the switch up at the Utilities Power Station flooding Exhibition Park track with light and as a result Peterborough was given its first taste of night horse racing.

The fans liked it too. Why shouldn't they? They saw the horses speeding around the track quite as well as when Old Sol was shining his prettiest.

On hundred 1,000-watt electric flood lights placed at regular intervals around the track did the trick. A wall of white canvas, six feet high and a half mile long, spread along the outer edge of the track made the horses stand out in perfect silhouette even as they flew around the back stretch.

If anything the fact that the horses were speeding along a thin whiteway while the rest of the park was shrouded in night, added much to the glamour of the races. The crowd in the stands seemed appreciative and certainly the horses never performed here before a more enthusiastic audience. Towns and villages for miles around were represented among the spectators, eager horsemen all gathered to see their favorite sport under most novel conditions. None were disappointed and it is likely that they will recruit an even larger number to view to-night's races.

Record Horses on Track

Some of the best trotting horses in the province, justly famed for the speed at which they can click off the mile, were out on the track last night striving their hardest to win their owners some of the rich prize money being offered by W. C. Crummer, of Chatham.

Mr. Crummer, an experienced horse man himself, is the promoter of these night races, and he is the originator of the nocturnal sport in Canada. He started this new form of racing at Chatham in June. Thousands came to view the spectacle, and believing that he had discovered something which fans had been waiting for he made plans to tour the cities of Ontario with his outfit. Everywhere his racing entertainment has been greeted with cheers and crowded stands.

The horses last night didn't seem

BENNETT SMILES AS TIRES GO FLAT

Examination of One Casing Reveals 17 Nails and Screws Inserted In It.

SENDS FOR NEW ONES.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., July 24 (By Thomas Green, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Examination of one of the tires of the automobile in which Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, travelled to Owen Sound to-day disclosed that seventeen nails and screws had been inserted in it. A long brass screw was found in another tire of the car.

The Conservative leader arrived last night two hours late for his meeting after the powerful 16-cylinder car in which he was conveyed from place to place had suffered two punctures. The tires were placed in a garage overnight, while orders were wired to Toronto for new tires. Delivery of the new tires was obtained early to-day at Orangeville, half-way between here and Toronto.

The screws and nails were readily discovered in the old tires when garage employees examined them this morning. One tire has been rendered useless, and the other is in the repair shop.

Mr. Bennett only shrugged his shoulders over the incident to-day. "Oh, these things will happen," was his only comment.

The new oil-shade factory at Fushun, China, cost nearly $5,000,000.

VETERAN GOLFER EQUALS MARK TO TAKE OPEN LEAD

Nicol Thompson, Sr., Equals Ancaster Course Record For Second Time This Year.

SHOOTS 66 TO-DAY.

Heaney of Rochester Comes Second With Scores of 36 and 34 For a 70.

ANCASTER, Ont., July 24 (By W. D. White, C.P. Staff Correspondent). —Equalling the course record for the second time this year, Nicol Thompson, Sr., professional at the Hamilton Golf Club, shot a 66 over his home course to-day and took a substantial lead in the Canadian open golf championship.

The record for the course was jointly held by Thompson and the late J. Douglas Edgar of Atlanta, Ga., who played a round in 66 in winning the title at Ancaster in 1919.

Thompson's phenomenal round ended the brief leadership of Charles Lacey, of Philadelphia, Penn., who finished with a 69, one under par.

HAMILTON GOLF CLUB, Ancaster, Ont., July 24 (C.P.). — J. R. Heaney, of Rochester, N.Y., turned in the best score of the morning's round in the Canadian open championship at noon, shooting a par 70. Heaney's round included seven 3's, eight 4's and a high 7 for the fourth hole, which is a long 500-yarder.

Save for the one exception of the fourth, Heaney was driving straight as a die, and his approach game was almost faultless. He laughed after his bad seven and retrieved it at the next hole by a three for 310 yards.

SECOND PLACE TIE.

ANCASTER, Ont., July 24 (By the Canadian Press.)—Sinking a 200 yard shot on the 18th hole, F. M. Lyon, young Lambton, Ont., amateur, tied with "Long Jim" Barnes for second place among the early finishers in the Canadian open golf championship on the links of the Hamilton Golf Club. Lyons' score for the 18 holes was 71, or one behind J. R. Heaney of Rochester, N.Y.

Heaney played his first nine in 36 and his second in 34, being one over and one under par on the first and second nine respectively. His hole score was 4, 4, 4, 7, 3, 3, 4, 3, 4 and 4, 5, 3, 3, 3, 4, 3, 4, 5.

Lex Robson was the lowest of the early Canadians turning in a 72. He shot a 35 and a 37.

John B. Nash, the young London Ont., player, who is Ontario amateur champion, did a poor 85, composed of a 43 and a 42. The long-driving Clarence Camber, Pontiac, Mich., greatest hitter of them all, who often drives 350

POLICE UNCOVER CLUE IN MURDER OF P. C. RUMBOLD

Slain Man Dined in Hamilton on Afternoon of His Death.

Passing Motorist Picked Up "Tough Looking Bird" Near Scene of Death.

TORONTO, Ont., July 24 (C.P.).—Continuing their vigilant efforts to locate the slayers of Philip C. Rumbold, wealthy Tonawanda, N.Y., real estate operator, whose battered body was found in an abandoned automobile on a lonely road near Port Credit on Tuesday, Ontario Provincial Police officers made several important discoveries last night.

Dined in Hamilton.

The chief of these was the fact that Rumbold had been in Hamilton on business during the afternoon preceding his death. The nature of the business is known to police, and explains the reason for the murdered man's deviating from the recognized route from Niagara Falls to Barrie.

All through yesterday and last night the police worked on the puzzling case with scarcely a halt. Starting at the customs office in Niagara Falls, Ontario, police checked Rumbold's trail to Hamilton, where the last and most important clue was found. At that city it was learned the American dined in a restaurant and told of going out to "see someone." Investigation of this angle revealed Rumbold was considering purchasing a certain article. Probing of this intended purchase is being continued to-day.

Another clue, believed to be of great importance by the police, was the description furnished them of a man seen walking along the highway near the spot where Rumbold's car and body was found. The man, reported to be anxious for a ride to Hamilton, was given a "lift" by a passing motorist, who informed the police the incident occurred about the time Rumbold is believed to have been slain.

"Tough Looking Bird."

J. S. Newton Port Credit school teacher who offered the strange pedestrian a ride said "he was a tough looking bird." He wanted to go to Hamilton in a hurry but did not appear to know in which direction that city lay Mr. Newton said. The man was highly nervous but finally divulged the information that he had come from North Bay and

FRENCH WIDOW WOUNDS WIFE OF HER LOVER

Lady Owen Tells Judge of Being Jilted By Doctor.

LOANED HIM 100,000 FRANCS

Returned to Jail After Telling of Buying Pistol and Admitting Shooting.

VERSAILLES, France, July 24. — (C.P.)—Lady Owen, wealthy woman and French-born widow of Sir Theodore Charles Owen, who last night was arrested under charges of shooting and wounding the wife of Dr. Paul Gastaud, Paris radiologist, was to-day taken before the investigating magistrate here.

Lady Owen told examining Judge Latrille that she loaned her lover, Dr. Paul Gastaud, 100,000 francs for his clinic.

Loan Spoiled Affair.

"That in my opinion was what began to spoil things," she said. When the doctor told her of his intention to break with her, she continued, she became so angered that she bought a revolver.

When she arrived at the Marlyleroy home of the Gastauds, a friend and associate of the doctor tried to reason with her. "I wished, however, at all costs to see Madame Gastaud, who was in her garden, embroidering," she continued.

"When Madame Gastaud came to meet me I fired several times at her through my silk shawl."

She fully expected to be released immediately and was much surprised when the Judge told her she must go back to jail.

CAMPAIGN GROWS MORE BITTER AS END DRAWS NEAR

Federal Leaders Crowd New Meetings Into Overcrowded Schedule.

Anderson Resents Attacks.

Taschereau Concludes Tour — Bennett and King Continue Taunts.

(By George Hambleton, C. P. Staff Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 24. — The campaign ends in bitterness and personalities, in taunts and charges, and counter charges. With only three fighting days left Federal leaders are crowding new meetings into their already overcrowded schedules.

From Regina, Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan is heard in sharp rejoinder to Premier Taschereau, of Quebec. Premier Taschereau had charged Dr. Anderson with attempting to remove crucifixes from the French schools in Saskatchewan. Premier Anderson retorts with an attack on Premier King for allowing a "campaign of false propaganda" against him in the Province of Quebec. "I am represented as the destroyer of schools,"Dr. Anderson exclaims, and charges that Young Liberals in Quebec are distributing a cartoon showing the burning of a school with himself in the foreground and teachers escaping with the children.

Hectic Meetings in Quebec.

From Quebec reports continue to drift in of hectic meetings of both organizations, battling with the storm. At St. Peter's Market Hall in Quebec City the crowd is so turbulent that neither Liberal nor Conservative candidate can make himself heard. The meetings are cancelled. Both organizations turn to committee rooms. But thousands wait outside.

Over the radio Senator Lemieux, former speaker of the House of Commons, recalls the anti-conscription riots in Quebec. "Who of you will forget the presence of troops in the streets of St. Toch," Senator Lemieux questions. "I only saw Laurier cry once in my life, and that was when a Toronto regiment reached Quebec to start a reign of terror."

Premier Taschereau has concluded his tour and is not expected to speak again during the campaign, but Premier Ferguson — continuing this battle of Provincial Premiers— is as bitter as ever in his attacks on Premier King. "The year 1930 will go down in history as a remarkable year" Premier Ferguson caustically charges at Windsor Ont. "because it is the year Mackenzie King discovered the British Empire. He ran away in 1914 but he was a returned man after the war was over."

At Owen Sound Mr. Bennett describes Premier King as "clutching for power beaten defeated, gone — flapping and wrapping himself in the assumed mantle of patriotism."

From Chesley, Ont., Premier King bitterly attacks the Conservative Provincial Administrations in Saskatchewan, New Brunswick and Ontario. He charges that they have held up expenditures on road construction till just before the election. Premier King does not hesitate to stigmatize it as "corruption." "The time has come," he exclaims, "for the people of Canada to rise up and strike a blow at this kind of thing."

Guthrie Speaks on Budget.

And at Winnipeg, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, who was temporary Conservative House leader prior to the appointment of Mr. Bennett, describes the Dunning budget as a revision upwards, downwards, crosswise and diagonally — any way you like. The real cause of it, Mr. Guthrie asserted, is that while the western farmer wants free trade, Quebec followers of the Government want protection—and protection good and stiff.

TO SPEAK AT RENFREW

OTTAWA, Ont., July 24. —(CP)— The Prime Minister is scheduled on Saturday to speak in Renfrew apart from the radio broadcast in the evening from Ottawa which will conclude Mr. Mackenzie King's election campaign. The Premier will travel from Cornwall to Renfrew on Saturday morning, reaching the latter place at 9:30 o'clock. His address will be delivered at one o'clock, following which he will catch a train at 2:30 p. m. for his return to the capital.

Seen in Hamilton On Day Rumbold Met His Death

Jake Fleagle, With $13,000 Reward on His Head, Already Sought By Police For Murder of Four in Bank Robbery— Three of Gang Executed For Crime.

OFFICERS FIND THAT ROPE, STRAPS AND HAMMER USED IN MURDER BELONG TO SLATE ROOF WORKERS

Two Anonymous Letters Received Containing Clues on Port Credit Crime Lead Tonawanda Officials to Believe the Murder Was Planned in That City.

TORONTO, Ont., July 24 (C.P.). — Jake H. Fleagle alias Holden, Baker, Reed, Wilson and Barnett, wanted on a murder charge in Colorado, and for whose arrest a reward of $13,000 is offered, is being sought by police investigating the murder of Phillip G. Rumbold, Tonawanda, N.Y., who was found strangled and beaten to death in his car near Port Credit, Ont., on Monday.

No further reason is given for Fleagle's alleged participation in the crime beyond the fact that Hamilton citizens claim to have seen him in that city on Monday afternoon. Rumbold was found slain the next morning some hours after he was supposed to have met an unknown person in Hamilton.

Wanted for Murder of Four.

Fleagle is wanted in Colorado for the murder of four persons in a bank robbery. Three of his gang have been executed for the crime.

Police uncovered another clue in the fact that the rope, the straps, and the hammer which were used in the Rumbold murder all belong to the equipment of slate roof workers. No arrests have been made in this connection.

TONAWANDA, N.Y., July 24.—(C.P.)—Two anonymous letters dealing with the murder of Phil P. C. Rumbold, Tonawanda real estate dealer, near Port Credit, Ont., on Tuesday, were received to-day by local police.

The first letter, signed "A Canadian," was regarded with some skepticism by the police, who were inclined to attribute it to the work of a crank. It declared that crime was "rampant" in that section of Canada where Rumbold's body was found.

The other letter was signed "P. S. G.," and advised police to look up certain persons in Tonawanda who might be involved in the murder. Police did not disclose the identity of the persons mentioned in the letter, but pointed out that it coincided with other clues which indicated that the murder might have been planned here.

Police Chief George C. Marohn left Tonawanda this morning on a secret investigation in connection with the slaying. He declined to reveal his destination or purpose, his only comment being that he was following a clue which might have an important bearing on the case.

Police said the mason's hammer found at the scene of the slaying did not belong to Rumbold and had not been purchased here. A piece of lead found near the body, police said, appeared to be of a type manufactured in Canada.

For fifty years Mr. Hartley served Peterborough in public life in various capacities. To mention his ten years' service on the town council, fourteen years on the Board of Education, several years as chairman of the Board of Health and a long period of service as a director of the Y. M. C. A. only partially reveals the part he has played in guiding the growth of Peterborough from the status of a town to that it enjoys today. He was 24 years president of the West Peterborough Liberal Association.

NIPIK LAKE, July 24 (C.P.).—The Caribou Lake Indians — the famous "lost tribe," which refused last year to meet with Dominion and Provincial authorities and accept treaty moneys to which they were entitled— have been "dug out" of their wilderness territory in the Patricia district by members of this year's treaty flight, and now have "all that's coming to them."

A letter received yesterday by Captain W. Roy Maxwell, Ontario Air Force Director, from Walter C. Cain, Deputy Minister of Lands and Forests, Ontario's Commissioner with the flight, conveyed the information that the Caribous were assembled at Nipik Lake, signed the treaty documents, were paid in full by H. Commercial Travellers, Railwaymen and Sailors Permitted to Vote.

COL. CLEGG D.R.O.

The advance poll for Peterborough riding will open at the City Council Chambers at 7 o'clock standard time this evening. Between the hours 7 o'clock and 10 o'clock standard time to-night and to-morrow night, and between 2 o'clock and 10 o'clock standard time on Saturday, commercial travellers, railway men, sailors and other voters in this riding with the necessary certificates proving their inability by virtue of their employment to be present in the city next Monday will be allowed to cast their ballots.

Colonel E. B. Clegg will be in charge of the poll.

For the purpose of issuing advance poll certificates, Returning Officer Sidney Whatley, will remain at his office, 96 Douro street, from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock to-night and tomorrow night and Saturday afternoon and evening. All voters at the advance poll will be required to substantiate their claims with these certificates before the Deputy Returning Officer of the poll. Advance voters in the riding outside the city as well as urban voters will be allowed to cast their votes at the Council Chambers.

Ballot boxes are now ready and will be issued to all Deputy Returning Officers in the urban area to-night between 6 o'clock and 12 o'clock at Mr. Whatley's office. Ballot boxes have already been allocated to the rural area polls and all is ready for election day.

TWO DROWNED TESTING SPEEDER

Fort William Men Fall From Outboard Into Kamistiquia River.

RESCUE EFFORTS VAIN.

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., July 24.—(CP)—Sidney Wilkinson, garage proprietor and his nephew Bernard Hamer were drowned last night in the Kaministiquia River. They were testing an outboard motor speed boat which they were disposing of to a customer.

The two men were in the stern of the boat which was travelling about 20 miles per hour and two mechanics Gordon Murdoch and Charles Fraser were crouched in the bow. According to their story the boat gave a sudden lurch and when they recovered their balance and looked back they saw that the two men in the stern had been thrown overboard.

They seized the steering gear and got the boat turned around but were too late to rescue the men. Wilkinson they never saw and Hamer sank from sight before they had the boat under control.

Expelled Member Back in Commons

LONDON, Eng., July 24.—(CP) —John Beckett, Labor member of the House of Commons who on July 17 caused a scandal by seizing the speaker's mace, this afternoon resumed his seat in the House. Within a few minutes after Parliament had been called to order he was on his feet to ask a question of Hon. J. H. Clynes, Home Secretary.

LINDSAY COUNCIL APOLOGIZES TO BANDMASTER FOR ACTION

Town Body Finds Statements Circulated Concerning Mr. Shunk Have No Foundation.

ACCOMPLISHED WONDERS.

LINDSAY, July 23. — Members of the town council, representatives of the different service clubs, as well as a large number of other citizens, battled last night with the band problem, which has created quite a furore locally for the past fortnight. The members of the council who supported the resolution calling for a new bandmaster to replace Bandmaster Shunk were on the defensive during the evening, and were kept quite busy meeting the interrogations of the citizens who had come to the defence of the bandleader.

After a three hour conference, which became heated at times, the different reports which had been circulated regarding the leader and his relations with the members of the band, were shown to be ill-founded. The council had been influenced largely in its action by the false statements made, and during the meeting Mayor Stewart apologized to Bandmaster Shunk for the way the council had dealt with the matter.

The upshot of the conference was that the Bandmaster and the band members agreed to get together in an effort to iron out the little differences which had arisen. Tributes were paid duing the evening to the work accomplished by Shunk since he took over the local band although he had not had the whole-hearted co-operation of the members.

Fear 'Quake Toll Mounts Over 1,778

NAPLES, Italy, July 24.—(A.A.) —Government officials this afternoon expressed the fear that the earthquake death list officially given out at noon as 1,778 might be far exceeded as the count progressed. Unofficial reports said 3,025 bodies had been taken from the ruins throughout the devastated territory.

Dragged by Train; Victim is Unhurt

STRATFORD, Ont., July 24. — (C.P.).—Elwood Murray, this city, is resting quietly in the hospital after an encounter with a freight train at the Canadian National Railway crossing here to-day.

After his car had been dragged for over 100 feet along the tracks and reduced to a mass of wreckage, Elwood climbed out, none the worse except for some scratches and bruises.

DEATH TOLL MOUNTING RAPIDLY AS RESCUERS DELVE INTO RUINS; WORST DISASTER IN GENERATION

Gov't Estimate Over 1,500 Injured and 10,000 Homeless.

PEOPLE TERROR-STRICKEN.

Scenes of Indescribable Horror Follow Crumbling of Whole Villages.

NAPLES, Italy, July 24.—(CP)—A darkened band 20 to 40 miles wide last night reached across the boot of Italy about at the ankle, this city being the northwestern corner of the zone. Across this belt a terrific undulating earthquake broke forth, dealing death to hundreds of sleeping persons, burying them in the ruins of scores of cities and hamlets, and effectively blotting out all the electric power in that territory.

Tuesday night I looked out on a happy countryside embracing this classic city. The fragrance of ripening vineyards was in the air, in the streets the populace strolled carelessly. Last night I traversed a portion of a countryside churned, in 45 seconds into a veritable No Man's Land by the most disastrous earthquake this light-hearted country has experienced in a generation.

Instead of proceeding peacefully to their homes the people of this city slept in cleared space in the public squares, panic still gripping them. Their single emotion since the stunning happenings of the past 24 hours seemed to be fear that they might be caught like rats in a trap by another earth shock.

People Afraid to Sleep

Virtually everyone believed there would be a repetition of the crushing blow. The squares of the Plebiscito, Del Carmine, Villa Communale and the wide plaza before the railway station were thronged by thousands who feared to go to sleep, but were too weary to stay awake.

At first only a score were known to be dead. At noon the figure rose to 100, later they said several hundred had perished. Last night more than 700 accounted for, homes were being searched and more were being drawn from the wreckage.

At Potenza, a hospital center, the injured poured in by hundreds throughout the day. This was a scene duplicated at Avellino and Ariano.

All day long crash after crash echoed through the still Apennine Valleys as house after house, weakened by the quake, was pulled to the ground by firemen or soldiers to prevent its falling on passers-by.

Government estimates placed the injured at more than 1,500 and the homeless at 10,000. Melfi, picturesque mountain city, perched perilously upon the crater of the extinct Monte Vulture, was an area of ghastly debris. Even the ancient cathedral, whose history in its several phases goes back to the ninth century, was wrecked.

2,000,000 BUSHELS OF GRAIN TIED UP AT PORT COLBORNE

WELLAND, Ont., July 24.—(CP)—Almost two million bushels of grain is lying afloat in Port Colborne harbor in seven upper lake vessels waiting to unload.

The congested condition of the government elevator, relieved a little the end of last week, has become worse during the past two days, with the arrival of the Glen Eagles, Quedoc, Prindoc and Durham. Several canal-size vessels are on their way to Port Colborne, however and some of the vessels now waiting will get out within the next few days.

Police Find Silver Seeking for Liquor

NORTH BAY, Ont., July 24.—(C.P.). — Provincial police here have uncovered four bars of metal believed to be silver encased in a thin outer coating of lead. A sample of the metal has been sent to Cobalt for analysis.

Provincial Constables Small and John Gagne, acting on a tip, visited a gravel pit on the old Callender-North Bay route in search of illegal liquor, but instead of the booze they uncovered the cache of metal, believe the loot of high graders.

Four bars were found, each weighing 30 pounds. They had been placed in the pit only recently as the trail covering them was quite fresh.

FERGUSON RAPS DOMINION GOV'T ON IMMIGRATION

Declares Nothing Done to Halt Filling of Country With Physical Wrecks.

PROTECT INDUSTRIES.

Reference Made to King's Position During Years of War.

(By Frank Flaherty, C. P. Staff Writer.)

WINDSOR, July 24. — Assailing the King Government in a wide range of points, Premier G. Howard Ferguson last night addressed the largest meeting he has had in his tour of the province during the present election campaign. A crowd of 5000 people filled the local armouries to overflowing.

Linking up the unemployment with immigration Mr. Ferguson charged the King Government with allowing immigrants to continue to come to this country when there was not enough work for Canadians.

Become Public Charges.

He also alleged that there was improper supervision of immigration with the result that people who could not fail to become public charges were being allowed in.

"Nothing is being done" he said, "to prevent this country being loaded up with mental and physical wrecks."

While restriction of immigration would to some extent improve conditions, Mr. Ferguson declared that the only way to ensure steady employment and prosperity in Canada was to have a tariff which would protect Canadian industries from the unfair competition of low wages in Europe and mass production in the United States.

"The year 1930 will go down in history as a remarkable year," said the premier, "because it was the year Mackenzie King discovered the British Empire." Premier King, he asserted, had been on the side of the United States on the reciprocity question in 1911."

"He ran away in 1914, but he was a returned man after the war was over. I have no doubt there are hundreds of men here who bore the burden during the war years. As soon as you fellows got the job done Mackenzie King came back. You were making a place in the sun for Canada. You gave her the status she now enjoys, and it was not Mackenzie King and Ernest Lapointe and the whole coterie of office boys they take over to conferences in London when they try to sever the bonds that bind the Empire together."

Another man in the audience shouted: "Where were you during the war?"
